DENNIS J. KEIHN, COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Dennis J. Keihn is heading into his second year as commissioner of the Wisconsin State University Conference after assuming his duties Aug. 16, 1993.

Keihn (pronounced KINE) is former director of athletics, intramurals and recreation at Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago. For the year prior to joining the WSUC he did consulting work in California.

Keihn is the University of Wisconsin System's chief administrative officer for men's athletic programs. This includes the WSUC and the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference (WCC), which is composed of the 13 two-year UW Center campuses. He served at Northeastern Illinois from 1988 to 1992 and previously was athletic director at California State University of Los Angeles from 1982 to 1988.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Keihn graduated from Lincoln High School in Cambridge City, Ind., and received a B.A. degree in physical education from Ball State University in 1968. He also holds a P.E.D. degree in physical education/athletic administration and an M.S. in physical education, both from Indiana University.

Keihn's first position out of college was at the Indiana Institute of Technology, where he served from 1969 to 1971 as assistant athletic director, intramural director, sports information director, assistant basketball coach and head coach of soccer, volleyball, golf and baseball.

He then was athletic director and men's basketball coach at Inver Hills Community College in St. Paul, Minn., and later served as athletic director, chair of Physical Education and Dance Department and head basketball coach at Macalester College in St. Paul.

Keihn is the WSUC's third commissioner. He succeeded Max R. Sparger, who retired July 15, 1993 after 22 years as head of the conference. Sparger replaced Fred Jacoby, the first commissioner, in July of 1971.

Don Page, SUPERVISOR OF WSUC OFFICIALS

Don Page retired as UW-River Falls athletic director in 1992 following a varied career in athletics as a player, coach, administrator and official. The Madison native starred in five sports at West High School (football, basketball, tennis, track and volleyball) and went on to win letters in basketball and tennis at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

He earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in football and basketball twice when the Regents won titles in each sport both years. He won the conference basketball scoring championship twice and sparked West to the WIAA state basketball championship in 1945. He also won the Big Eight tennis singles championship twice.

Page earned his Bachelor's degree from the UW-Madison in 1950 and his Master's from there in 1953. While an undergraduate he was a regular forward on the 1949-50 Badger basketball team that compiled a 17-5 record and finished second in the Big Ten Conference.

Following coaching stints at Edgerton and Madison West High Schools, Page was head basketball, baseball and tennis coach at UW-River Falls and served as the university's athletic director from 1970 to 1992.

Page was a football official from 1949 to 1993 and officiated basketball from 1949 until 1982. He taught two officiating classes at UW-River Falls for 30 years and served as an official observer of football and basketball officials in the WSUC for 22 years.

He developed the "Football Course Outline" for the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association and is a member of the National Federation Interscholastic Officials Association. He recently received "Distinguished Service Awards" from the Wisconsin High School Football Coaches Association, the National Federation of Interscholastic Coaches Association, and the Pierce/St. Croix Officials Association. He was inducted into the Madison Sports Hall of Fame in 1988.

Page is probably the only person in Wisconsin history to play (1945 champions), coach (1957 runnerup) and officiate (1968, '70, '72, '73, '74) in the WIAA State High School Boys Basketball Tournament.

He also officiated the first WIAA Class A Girls Basketball Championship game in 1976 and has worked Shrine All-Star and State High School Football Playoffs.

TOM BUTLER, SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Tom Butler joined the WSUC staff part-time May 1, 1967, to assist the Commissioner with the dissemination of sports information. The Madison native graduated from East High School in 1942.

Following three years in the Navy during World War II, he received a B.A. degree in journalism from the UW-Madison in January of 1950. After working as sports editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal and the Daily Jefferson County Union (Fort Atkinson), Butler joined the Wisconsin State Journal as a sports writer February 1, 1953. He retired from the State Journal June 30, 1987. He covered practically every Badger athletic team at one time or another and wrote a regular sports column for 26 years. He was voted Wisconsin Sports Writer of the Year in 1964 and 1965.

Butler is the author of "The Badger Game," a reflection on UW-Madison football from Mickey McGuire to Al Toon. The book recounts highlights from some 55 years of Badger football and includes stories about many of the great teams and players during that span. Butler covered Badger football as his principal "beat" at the State Journal for 25 years.

Fall Scholar-Athletes

River Falls' Steve Walker and La Crosse's Bob Jacobs were recipients of the Wisconsin State University Conference Scholar-Athlete Award for football and crosse country, respectively in 1993. Walker, a senior from Kasson, Minn., earned a 3.409 grade point average in Physical Education (coaching/health) while also excelling on the football field for the Falcons, leading the WSUC in tackles three straight year and making the all-conference team at linebacker in 1992 and '93. Jacobs earned a 3.81 GPA in Economics/Political Science as a pre-law student. Besides excelling in the classroom, the Milwaukee senior starred on the track team as a steeplechaser and ran among the top seven on the 1992 and '93 conference champion cross country teams.

Harring Coach of the Year Again

La Crosse's Roger Harring was named WSUC football coach of the year in 1993 after guiding the Eagles to their third straight conference championship. He shared the award in 1992 with Roland Christensen, his chief assistant who replaced the head coach after Harring underwent heart surgery early in the season. The Eagles then went on to win WSUC and NCAA Division III football championships that year.

PREVIEW OF 1994 WSUC FOOTBALL SEASON

Considering the graduation losses suffered by defending Wisconsin State University Conference champion La Crosse, even the most casual observer would conclude the Eagles face an uphill battle in their quest for a fourth straight title.

Not so, say those closest to the football scene at La Crosse. Eagles sports information director Todd Clark puts it this way: "It's a different season with different challenges and different personnel in key positions, but one thing remains the same. The University of Wisconsin-La Crosse has the talent to produce another banner season."

Most schools would be singing the blues over the loss of two-time all-conference quarterback Jason Gonnion, outstanding center Dave Bauer and running back John Janke, both all-conference, and wide receiver Bill Schroeder, who was chosen in the sixth round of the National Football League draft by the Green Bay Packers. Some in the Packer hierarchy considered Schroeder, also an outstanding trackman, to be the best all-around athlete available in the recent NFL draft.

Despite La Crosse losses, most WSUC head coaches lump the Eagles with Whitewater, Stevens Point and possibly River Falls as likely teams to challenge for the championship this season. Eau Claire coach Greg Polnasek expects La Crosse, Stevens Point and Whitewater to fight it out again but looks for River Falls, Platteville and Stout to be much improved.

The folks at Platteville shrugged and conceded things never seem to change in WSUC football. But Pioneer coach Jim Kinder expects every team to be improved. He emphasized, "You have to be nearly perfect week in and week out or you lose."

River Falls coach John O'Grady is not ready to concede to anybody. "Some of the top players (in the conference) have graduated," O'Grady noted. "This will mean even more parity. There is a lot of equality. Stout, Oshkosh, Platteville and River Falls are all improving.""

Stevens Point has been trying to crack the La Crosse domination in recent years but coach John Miech and his Pointers have stumbled in the most inopportune moments while on the verge of a breakthrough.

Miech figures again this season the strength of the conference basically should be the same as in the past several years with La Crosse, Whitewater and his Pointers on or near the top. "River Falls has rebuilt well and Stout and Eau Claire may be a threat," Miech added.

Because of the graduation of key performers throughout the conference Stout's Ed Meierkort thinks "this could be a year that a sleeper wins the WSUC." This might be wishful thinking among coaches who have been trying to crack the first division in recent years. Despite his hopes, he did say, "Whitewater seems to return the most experience but you can't count out the Eagles."

Whitewater coach Bob Berezowitz expects more balance from top to bottom in the conference this year with everybody taking aim at La Crosse. Most opposing coaches believe the Eagles are more vulnerable than in many years because of those graduation losses. Still haunting them, though, is the recollection of 1991 quarterback Dennis Goettl leaving only to be replaced by Gonnion.

Defense always has been the key for WSUC champions in the past even with all the offensive numbers. Whitewater, La Crosse and Stevens Point finished in that order atop conference defensive statistics last season. The Eagles this year must overcome the loss of tackle Rick Schaaf and cornerback Scott Amond, both NCAA Division III all-Americans.

The conclusion reached, at least at La Crosse, is that if coach Roger Harring is able to fill key positions, no one should be surprised if the Eagles capture their fourth straight title or reach double digits in victories for the fourth straight season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

The Blugolds have shown a propensity for targeting a strong opponent and coming up with a big game, but consistency has been a problem in Greg Polnasek's two years as head coach. Two years ago the Blugolds whipped Whitewater, 35-13, and last fall celebrated homecoming with a 33-6 decision over River Falls. But, overall they experienced losing seasons both years.

This season Polnasek is looking to move up the WSUC ladder with the help of some experienced offensive backs and a veteran defensive unit. The offensive backfield is headed by Rick Crutchley, who earned all-conference honors at running back after averaging 107 yards per game rushing, third best in the WSUC. Also returning are fullback Matt Annis and quarterback Derek Schutz, who passed for 1,103 yards and 10 touchdowns in league competition a year ago.

Polnasek must fill voids left in the offensive line by the departure of most starters headed by all-conference guard Mike Mitra and tight end Pete Khanna, a second-team pick a year ago. Probably the most pressing need is finding a replacement for Eddie Bray, the team's most valuable player in 1993. Not only was he Eau Claire's leading pass-receiver with 42 catches for 704 yards, but he finished third in conference scoring with six touchdowns, 20 conversions and five field goals in as many attempts.

Although the Blugolds lost noseguard Chris Gennrich, linebacker Tyler Glaser and cornerback Todd Hoytink, Polnasek is confident returning veterans will be able to hold their own during a rugged WSUC campaign. He expects strong seasons up front from Kent Johnson, Mark Ruegger, Sam McMahon and Al Segal and linebackers Roger Britton, Ryan Danner, Nick Meske, Jason Flower, Randy Greerman, Mirk Hobbs, Dale Kerner, Chris Pepenshek and Eric Wright along with C.J. Brantner, Jim Talley, Mike Scully and Scott Ulrich in the secondary. Brantner ranks with the Blugolds' most valuable returnees because of his prowess as an outstanding kickoff and punt returner.

Polnasek is expecting his Blugolds to pick up where they left off in the intensity department at the end of last season, when they posted a plus-nine turnover ratio in the last four games. "Our defense came on and made things happen," he said. "The experience of our defense will be one of our biggest strengths this season."

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

It's a different season with different challenges and different personnel in key positions, but one thing remains the same in the eyes of the La Crosse football faithful: The Eagles have the talent to produce another banner season.

Based on experience alone, a big offensive line should provide an opportunity for a comfortable transition in the backfield. Everyone except all-conference center Dave Bauer returns to a line which anchored an offense that averaged 425 yards per game last season.

Sophomore Eric Halverson and junior Joe Jaehnke return at the guard spots. Sophomore Chris Schultz, who saw action at guard last season, might be moved to center to replace Bauer. Senior Rich Jacquemart and sophomore Ryan O'Leary provide experience at the tackle positions. So, the Eagles figure to average 275 pounds along the front line and this group will be backed by juniors Greg Watyshak, Paul Stoppenbach, Chad Hoier and Fred Daniels.

Coach Roger Harring will need this strong supporting cast for junior Craig Kusick, who faces the unenviable task of succeeding all-conference quarterback Jason Gonnion, one of the most efficient passers in school history. But, the Eagles faced a similar situation when Gonnion replaced Dennis Goettl, who rewrote most La Crosse passing and total offense records. Gonnion went on to lead the Eagles to the NCAA Division III championship his junior year. Rick Hoppert and Rob Slavens most likely will serve as Kusick's backups.

The Eagles will miss leading rusher John Janke, but Trevor Rogers, Toby Krause, Virgil Jones, Jeff Birschbach and Brian Steines are waiting in the wings, as is fullback Jason Tarkowski, who sat out last season with an injury.

Defensively the Eagles will have to overcome the loss of two all-Americans in lineman Rick Schaaf and cornerback Scott Amond. Craig Driessen, who sat out last season with a back injury, will help bolster the secondary at strong safety. Senior Tom Lee returns at free safety. He led the team with four interceptions last season to go with his 54 tackles. Matt Anderson, Ryan Goodno and Brett Harper are expected to challenge for starting cornerback jobs.

Lucien Adams is the elder statesman of the defensive line. Fighting for starting spots will be Eric Baranczyk, Michael Ivey, Dan Kloepping, Doug Foltz, Joe Daniels, Darin Small, Keith Gregorich, Jim Abrams and Rich Jazdzewski.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

Oshkosh celebrated the Bicentennial year of 1976 by sharing the WSUC football championship with Platteville and River Falls. The Titans haven't figured in a title since that year. Now coach Ron Cardo's chief concern is not snapping that streak, but leading his team out of the doldrums that landed the Titans in the conference cellar for the past two years. He hopes to do this with a foundation of 40 returning lettermen.

It won't be easy because some key offensive performers will be missing this season, including quarterback Greg DePagter, wide receiver Todd Reineking and center Mike Bond. Sophomore Mike James is the most experienced quarterback available. Red-shirt freshmen Ryan Hinske and Brian Tomalak are expected to push James for the starting job. Cory Colvin, Todd Skarben and Anthony Stevens are experienced receivers, while Brian Diehls, Dave Hoagland and Charles Monn are leading tight end candidates. Coaches also must find a replacement for Rick Gable, a second team all-conference defensive back last season.

Alexis Griffin, Mike Lindholm, Rick Radies, Jeff Steckbauer, Kevin Vogt and Steve Yazawa will be battling for running back spots. Eric Blaha (280), Nick DeLuca (265), Dan Goosherst (250), Paul Kordus (245), Brian Wraalstad (285), Burke Griffin (270) and Stewart Schaumann (250) are experienced offensive linemen around whom Cardo hopes to build a potent attack. DeLuca received all-conference honorable mention last fall.

Defense is where the major problems occurred last season. The Titans gave up an average of 36.8 points a game, including 76 to Stevens Point and 54 to champion La Crosse. Cardo and his staff will spend considerable time trying to shore up that side of the football. They will depend heavily on linebackers Brad Beisbier, Tim Gilkey, Tom Loper, Shawn Sanicola and Michael Yoder, all two-year lettermen.

Key players in the secondary picture are Mike Banaszynski, Mike Grether, Brian Meltz, Sean Piket and Scott Sitek.

The kicking game offers another opportunity for someone to emerge since place-kicker Matt Peterson and Grable have graduated. Grable also made the all-conference second team as a punter and a defensive back.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

Coach Jim Kinder expects 42 lettermen from the 1993 squad back for his second year as head man of the Pioneers. The bulk of those players back from the team that finished 3-7 a year ago can be found on the offensive side of the football. The current Pioneer defense will be one with youthful enthusiasm but little experience.

Nine starters look to retain their positions on top of the depth charts. Fullback Rob Dal Santo is poised to write the final chapter of a highly successful collegiate career. A three-time all-conference honoree, Dal Santo has compiled 2,526 yards in his in his career and needs 436 yards this season to become Platteville's all-time leading rusher. Last fall he rushed for 991 yards on 222 carries and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns.

Senior quarterback Bill Altmann will enter his third season at the helm of the offense. Altmann is lucky enough to have a pair of all-conference receivers as targets. Russ Jacques, a senior, set a school record in '93 with 55 receptions, while Brunson Parish caught 21 passes and had an impressive average of 22.4 yards per catch. Parish, a junior, also ranked among the nation's best in kickoff returns last season, averaging 28.3 yards per return.

The Pioneers lost two outstanding offensive linemen in Pat Murphy and Jeff Bunch, but guard Mike Pitcel returns as do Gregg Robers and John Baker, a pair of interchangeable starters at tight end.

Kinder's biggest concern is on defense where eight starters must be replaced, including tackle Randy Tuthill and linebacker John Witt, both first-team all-conference choices, as well as second-team picks Tom Witt and Mike Marti at tackle and Eric Wynn in the secondary.

Leading returnees are nose guard Dave Alberts and end Mike Knapp. Among those backing up the line, however, only linebacker Mark Mueller and back Joel Dettwiler have started more than one game in their careers. Transfers Dan Fox and John Bromley will help fill the gaps at linebacker, and a number of freshmen could get a look as starters in the secondary.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

The Falcons won their first five games last season, including three non-conference victories, but they lost four of their last five conference outings. The 3-4 WSUC record was disappointing after that fast start. This type of demise is something coach John O'Grady will be guarding against as the new season gets under way.

All-conference center Robb Mutt heads offensive line returnees around whom O'Grady hopes to build another potent running game. Another is guard Jim Jackman, who made the second honor team. Kyle Scholz, the team's leading rusher, is gone but quarterback Adam Kowles returns to direct the offense. O'Grady said, "If our offense can lead the league in rushing and we turn the ball over less than one time per game, we will be in a position to finish in the top three."

Linebacker Steve Walker's position will be the toughest to fill in the defense. He led the WSUC in tackling the last two years. Also gone is defensive tackle Roger Moeller. Rebuilding the linebacking corps is a major assignment heading into preseason practice. Secondary is a strength and includes such returnees as Dan Dale, Kris Esteb, Mark Hauri, Corbin Heins, Scott Imrie, Kurt Knuth, Mark Madigan, Kevin Mitties, Bob Rothamer and Eddie Simes. The latter was a first team all-conference pick last year.

O'Grady is expected to build the offense around his "wishbone" attack again. Usually this time of the year he interjects a thought that the Falcons will throw the ball more. Although they have thrown fewer than 100 passes a season in the WSUC under the veteran coach, he has put a little more emphasis on the aerial game. They threw 65 passes and completed 21 in 1991, 74 and 27 in '92 and 99 and 30 last fall. Reserve quarterback Jason Weinzierl threw four touchdowns passes last season.

The Falcons open their season against WSUC rival Stout on Sept. 3. This is the first time in several years River Falls will not have a non-conference game to start the season. The Falcons are scheduled to play their next four games on the road, but three of the final four conference outings will be played at home. If they can start fast like a year ago, the favorable late schedule might preclude a late-season slide similar to 1993.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

A mix of talented youngsters and seasoned veterans make the prospects of another good season for the Stevens Point football team under seventh-year head coach John Miech. The Pointers lost only to champion La Crosse in the conference last season and finished with an 8-2 record overall.

Last season the Pointers just missed out on a NCAA Division III playoff bid and that is still their goal entering the current campaign. Gone from that '93 squad is a wealth of offensive talent that helped put up some of the biggest numbers in Stevens Point history. But the young crew stepping in, although mostly unknown, should more than fill out the lineup, according to Miech.

Tom Fitzgerald and Cory Onell are expected to battle it out to replace four-year starter Roger Mauri at quarterback. Dave Schopf, Stan Strama, Todd Schoenherr, Nate Harms and Jody Damitz will all see playing time while filling the hole left by all-American Jimmy Henderson in the backfield. Replacing Henderson, though, poses a gigantic assignment for any running back, no matter what his potential. Henderson led the conference in rushing last season with 1,093 yards in seven games, a 156-yard per-game average and 5.8 yards per carry. He also scored 14 touchdowns.

The line and receiving corps were both hit hard by graduation. Big and young will describe returning linemen, led by veterans Brian Drummy, Todd Arft and Joel Robaidek. The receivers are bolstered by the return of sure-handed Tim Ott at wideout and rugged Nick Schneider at tight end. The one constant on offense is placekicker Todd Passini, who has earned all-conference honors in each of the last two seasons with his powerful foot.

On defense, Randy Simpson in the secondary, linebackers Pete Deates and Dave Diemel and end Bret Harmer lead a hungry crew. Graduation hit the unit hard prior to the '93 season, forcing several young players to step in and get their feet wet early in their careers. But that year of seasoning should show in 1994 as those same players now assume the role of veterans of WSUC wars. Also back are defensive backs Jay Krcmar, Kraig Reynolds, Clayt Birmingham and Jason Thomas, who all saw major time in 1993. Ben Hoffman and Shane Konop add strength and size to the defensive line.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

The Blue Devils shared last place with Oshkosh last season, each with 1-6 records. Stout also finished with the worst overall mark (2-8) among WSUC teams. Ed Meierkort, starting his second year as head coach, is determined to wipe out the realities of last season and start the rebuilding project in earnest during preseason workouts. There are some talented returnees but the search to find adequate depth continues.

Forrest Schneider, who passed for more than 1,000 yards and ranked fourth in conference passing, returns for his second year directing Meierkort's offense. Schneider will be throwing to a pair of capable receivers in Fitzroy Phillip and Kevin Wiese. Phillip caught 20 passes in the conference last season and averaged 18.2 yards per reception.

Mike Bechtel was the team's leading rusher last year and he's back for his sophomore season. The Blue Devils still are searching for another dominant running back in the mold of Rich Vargas but they are rare. Equally pressing will be the job of finding adequate blockers up front. "The offensive line lost three starters and will have to be molded quickly," Meierkort stressed. Chris Plamer (6-1, 250) is one of those who will be missed.

The most serious losses are linebacker Chris Lindner, wide receiver Dan Mass and punter Andy Cafilisch. Mass led the Blue Devils with 28 pass receptions last fall. He also averaged 22.4 yards in kickoff returns and 19 yards on five punt returns. Cafilisch was the all-conference punter the past two seasons, averaging 37.6 yards on 35 punts in 1992 and 39.9 on 38 attempts last season. Finding a replacement of the Cafilisch caliber won't be easy.

The defensive side of the football is less of a problem. Six of seven from that defensive front return, including all-conference end Rodger Lowe (6-2, 240). Tim Thompson, honorable mention all-conference, returns to the secondary, as does Ryan Zeman, whose four pass interceptions led the WSUC a year ago.

Following his "baptismal" season in the WSUC, Meierkort has a greater insight on the conference and he said, "The Blue Devils feel they can be a thorn in the side of the conference powers" during the coming season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994

The Warhawks figure to challenge for the WSUC championship and they possess the ingredients to end La Crosse's three-year run at the top of the conference. The reasons for this optimism include the balance of returning people on both offense and defense at the skill positions with experience.

Leading returnees include running back Spencer Johnson and guard Joel Hornby (6-2, 261) on offense and inside linebacker Bret Salscheider, tackle Jason Behrendt and cornerback Glenn Graham on defense. Johnson has an opportunity to become the first running back in Whitewater history to rush for 1,000 yards three straight years. He led the WSUC in rushing in 1992 and finished second to Stevens Point's Jimmy Henderson last season.

Junior quarterback Dan Runaas is expected to start but Bryan Pytleski, who started for the Warhawks in 1992, also is back to compete for the job. Also among returning starters on offense are tight end Dan Hartwig and split end Aaron Buss. Missing from the offense is Paul Jones, who made the first all-conference team as the all-purpose back. He caught 24 passes in the conference, averaging 44.6 yards per game on receptions.

The Warhawks led the WSUC in total defense last season, ranking third at stopping opponents' rushing and first on pass defense. Besides Salscheider, Behrendt and Graham, leading returnees include outside linebacker Brian Kaminski, free safety Chad Chellevoid and strong safety Craig Havertape. Salscheider led the Warhawks in tackles last season in the conference with 64 stops, including 35 solos. Graham intercepted three passes in WSUC games.

Coach Bob Berezowitz understands the task heading into the 1994 campaign. The Warhawks finished third in the WSUC with a 5-2 record last season, losing to the two teams that wound up ahead of them, La Crosse (31-23) and Stevens Point (31-6). This year they open the conference schedule Sept. 17 at home against the Pointers. That figures to be the key game because they don't face defending champion La Crosse until Nov. 5, also at home. There's no doubt where the Warhawks must improve. Defensively they were more than adequate, but the offense ranked fifth in the conference last season, fourth rushing and a dismal seventh passing.

PREVIEW OF THE 1994-95 BASKETBALL SEASONWISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

If you are prone to playing games of chance, it's probably a pretty safe bet to concentrate on Eau Claire, Platteville, Stevens Point and Whitewater while pondering the winner of the 1994-95 Wisconsin State University Conference basketball race.

Only Stout (1975) and Oshkosh (1978) have been able to crack that four-team domination of the championship in the past 25 years. And, Stout had to share its title with Platteville. Whitewater is the current defending champion, having captured the crown by a single game ahead of Platteville. Eau Claire finished third and Stevens Point shared fourth place with River Falls.

The so-called "middle teams" often rise up to knock off one or two of the "big four," witness River Falls' victories over Platteville and Eau Claire late last season and Stout's upset of the Blugolds, but usually they can't sustain that level. The conference would be well served to have one of those "middle teams" break through and end the monopoly, but the lists of returning lettermen seem to indicate that will be a tall order this season.

Platteville and Eau Claire have the most quality veterans returning. Whitewater must fill some huge voids, especially the loss of conference most valuable player Ty Evans, if it hopes to repeat as champion. Stevens Point remains in the process of rebuilding following its two straight titles in 1992 and '93. River Falls made a run last season but the heart of its offense has graduated.

Platteville starts with all-conference Ernie Peavy along with Tim O'Connell and Andre Dalton as coach Bo Ryan revs up his whirlwind defense and strong transition game. Newcomers Greg Calvin, Ben Hoffman, Bill Ellingson and Gabe Miller, a transfer from Stevens Point, should enhance the depth and keep the troops fresh.

The cupboard never seems bare at Eau Claire. Coach Ken Anderson greets some quality returnees at the outset and rival mentors are wary of his incoming recruits and transfers. Stevens Point expects to be competitive but coach Bob Parker worries about the extreme youth of his players, and stressed it's a "young team that needs to understand how hard you have to play to be successful."

Stout coach John Muraski has some experienced players who understand what it takes to be competitive in the WSUC. The question remains: Can the Blue Devils sustain their intensity over the 16-game season? Maybe what's needed is one sparkplug to come forward and lead the charge through the pitfalls that face every team during the course of a rugged WSUC campaign.

Whitewater lost to Platteville in the last two NCAA Regionals and that still sticks in the craw of Warhawk partisans. This is incentive enough to put a charge in coach Dave Vander Meulen's returning troops. Despite Whitewater's serious losses, nobody in the WSUC expects to see the Warhawks roll over and give up their crown without a fight.

Oshkosh and La Crosse are teams struggling for respect. Eagles coach Charlie Gross sees improvement in the "bottom teams" and predicts they will provide a great challenge to the top. Superior is a mystery because of operating under new coach Jeff Kaminsky. The Yellowjackets' perennial fight against a losing syndrome continues, although hope springs eternal along the shores of Lake Superior, particularly now under a new young coach.

The WSUC has three of the top 10 winningest NCAA Division III coaches in Anderson, Ryan and Vander Meulen. Stevens Point needs two victories to reach its 1,000th in the history of Point's program, joining an elite group in Division III, including Eau Claire. WSUC coaches expect their teams to enhance the league's proud tradition with another highly competitive race this season.

Eau Claire, Platteville and Whitewater receive most of the attention in preseason speculation. The one that can avoid the upsets "middle teams" always seem to inflict on the favorites should prevail.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

A strong contingent of 12 returning lettermen should give the Blugolds a fast start out of the gate in the 1994-95 basketball race. One big void must be filled, however, Coach Ken Anderson must replace all-conference center Todd Stepanek, who led the Blugolds in scoring and rebounding last season.

Leading returnee is 6-3 guard Jeremy Nicolet, another all-conference performer who was voted Eau Claire's most valuable player following the 1993-94 campaign, when the Blugolds finished third in the WSUC and compiled a 19-6 overall record. Other returning starters are 6-4 Martrice Manuel, 6-6 Jase Graber and 6-5 Billy Van Wie.

Anderson lists his team's strengths as "depth, athletic ability, shooting and shot-blocking." These attributes certainly give the Blugolds a leg up on preparations for the coming season. Finding a replacement for Stepanek and better play at lead guard are problems to be solved in preseason practice.

The solutions might be found in a group of newcomers, including 6-1 guard Andy Fisher and 6-8 forward Corey Kulig, both transfers from UM-Duluth, and 6-3 freshman Jeff LeClaire and 6-4 redshirt freshman Jeff Milkle, all of whom will get an early look and possibly some playing time.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

Coach Charlie Gross still is looking for the key that will enable the Eagles to escape the conference's eighth place spot, where they have been mired for the past six seasons. Coaches and players figure if they can break that monotony and move up even one notch, it will provide the confidence needed for continuing improvement.

This is a young team with only 6-1 Dave Buchanan and 6-9 Duane Stich as seniors. First on the agenda for Gross will be finding a replacement for Sean Seeser, who led the Eagles in scoring last season with 14.6 points a game and ranked eighth in the conference. He also was voted his team's most valuable player.

Sophomore Chuck Simpson, a 6-1 guard, is the highest scorer among returning lettermen. He averaged 12.1 points in the conference as a freshman last season. Eric Dudek, a 6-6 sophomore, averaged 9.2 points in his first year and is projected as a starter at the outset. The Eagles also hope to get some help from newcomers, particularly Jay Daly from Baraboo.

The last few seasons the Eagles have been a predominantly perimeter team both on offense and defense. To improve they need a more balanced attack, especially around the glass where their recent teams have been found wanting. Most of all Gross is looking for consistency which he expects to improve this season with a group of youngsters more accustomed to his system.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

Coach Ted Van Dellen is trying to find the formula for a WSUC championship, something that has eluded the Titans for the past 16 years. Five returning lettermen form the nucleus of a squad he hopes might end that long drought during the coming season. The Titans finished a disappointing seventh in the conference last season with a 6-10 record and were 14-11 overall, the same as the previous season.

Heading the list of returnees is 6-3 junior guard Dennis Ruedinger, the leading scorer among conference players back for another whirl this year. He finished fourth in WSUC scoring, averaging 16.8 points in 14 conference games. He also maintained that average playing overall in 23 games, 21 of which he started.

Van Dellen's biggest challenge at the outset will be replacing center Andy Conard, who averaged 11.1 points a game but more importantly led the conference in rebounding with an average of nine retrieves per game. At 6-7 and 240 pounds Conard provided an imposing presence around the basket for the Titans.

Among those expected to start with Ruedinger are forward Forrest Olson, a 6-6, 240-pounder who averaged 13.6 points a game last season, and Brent Nerat, a 6-3 wingman bringing back an 8.7 scoring average. Sophomores Dan Anderson and Matt Aslakson also will battle for starting jobs and any talented newcomers will be welcomed to the competition.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

The Pioneers return probably the most experienced squad in the WSUC, headed by 6-1 senior swingman Ernie Peavy, a two-time all-conference performer. Peavy and 6-0 guard Tim O'Connell have won letters the past three years for coach Bo Ryan and are poised for outstanding senior seasons.

Ryan will miss all-conference R.A. Caves and his 8.1 rebounds a game, but the Pioneers hope to offset his presence in the paint with their tradition of success, defensive pressure, all that returning experience and great senior leadership.

The Pioneers have enhanced its basketball tradition under Ryan with a share of the title in 1993 and outright championships in 1988 and '90. They also won the NCAA Division III crown in 1991 and finished third in '92. Last season they finished second in the WSUC, one game behind Whitewater, a team the Pioneers defeated in the NCAA Division III Regional, and were 23-5 overall.

Ryan again expects to use a host of players with his baseline to baseline defensive pressure. Among those expected to see considerable action along with Peavy and O'Connell are Andre Dalton, Aaron Lancaster and John Paulsen, all two-year lettermen. More help figures to come this season from 6-8 Scott Borroughs, 6-3 Erik Holmgren and 6-7 Mike Uppena.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

The Falcons shared fourth place with Stevens Point last season and compiled a 16-8 overall record, the school's best mark since 1981. It marked the fifth consecutive winning season for the Falcons, something that hasn't happened since 1933. But, this is another year and coach Rich Bowen's quest for River Falls' first WSUC championship since the Falcons of 1949 and '50 linked back-to-back titles continues.

First, Bowen must find replacements for departed all-conference performers Jeff Berkhof and Brian Menzel, the league's third and ninth best scorers last season, respectively. Together they accounted for 31.5 points a game, almost half of the Falcons' per-game output. Also gone is Craig Mell, another 1993-94 starter who contributed 10 points and six rebounds a game.

No other Falcon finished among the top 40 conference scorers, so Bowen must find some punch from seven returning lettermen, most of whom he hopes will improve their production with another year under their belts. The veteran coach also is hoping for immediate help from newcomers Marcus Knox, Chris O'Neal and Luke Madsen.

Bowen knows the odds as he tries to buck traditional powers Eau Claire, Whitewater and Platteville. But, his Falcons scored victories over the Pioneers and Blugolds in the closing weeks of last season and he remains optimistic. "We'll field a competitive WSUC team," he said. "It remains to be seen if that will be good enough to get into the NCAA tourney."

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

Following two straight WSUC championships, the Pointers lost most of their high-powered attack and slipped into a tie for fourth place with River Falls last season. Coach Bob Parker found difficult terrain on the road back during the 1993-94 campaign and his team figures to be bucking the odds again this year.

One particularly bright spot was the resurgence of Andy Boario, who made the all-conference team for the second time after a year's absence. He averaged 19.9 points a game, second in the conference, and was one of the top finishers for the league's most valuable player award. But, Andy has graduated.

Center Brian Schwechel is the lone returning starter, but he suffered an injury-plagued season, missing the final five games and several throughout the season. Guard Brad Hintz and center Mike Paynter also saw some starting time, the latter being named "freshman of the year" by conference coaches. Guard Eric Henderson is the lone senior among returnees after serving as a reserve last season.

Point's main loss will be the leadership abilities of Boario and other departing senior starters Mike Dahlquist, Tom Sennett and Donta Edwards. Still, Parker expects his Pointers to remain competitive because of the experience gained by returnees and the addition of some promising recruits.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

All-conference Pete Binelas, the WSUC's fifth leading scorer with a 16.6-point per-game average, and Matt Pelland, with his seven rebounds a game, are gone, but optimism abounds around the Blue Devils' basketball program because of some talented returnees and prospects for promising newcomers battling for starting jobs.

Point guard Zak Alwin and postmen Tuwan Clayton return for their senior seasons and coach John Muraski emphasized, "Alwin and Clayton will be the big keys for us. I feel Clayton is a bear inside and Alwin is a great leader and floor general. We have good athletes and good depth. It's a young team but they are well seasoned.

Alwin averaged 12.8 points a game last season, while Clayton contributed 10.8 points and 6.1 rebounds. Guard Justin Peters returns as do forwards Bryan Doughty and Ryan Krohn, who are expected to pick up their scoring with added responsibilities and new leadership roles.

The Blue Devils must find some depth inside and improve their free throw shooting and defense, according to Muraski. But, he added, "I feel we have a very quick and athletic team. We have good depth if we recruit well. I feel we have a solid chance of moving up in the standings. I'm excited (about the coming season)."

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

The Yellowjackets will be under the direction of a new coach when the seasons opens. Glenn Carlson was "relieved" of his position as head coach following the 1993-94 season and Jeff Kaminsky was named to succeed him in June. Kaminsky, a native of Wheaton, Ill., was head basketball coach at Mid-State Technical College in Wisconsin Rapids since 1987. His record during his tenure at Mid-State was 153-70.

The Yellowjackets have finished last in the conference eight of the last 10 years and haven't enjoyed a winning season since 1979, when they compiled a 21-7 record and finished one game behind champion Eau Claire in the WSUC with an 11-5 mark. Kaminsky will be aiming to return to those days at Superior.

Little is known of what to expect this season, but if Don Stahl, Chris Dettman, Jeremy Hallsten, Jeff Carlson and Clint Diestelhorst return, they could form the nucleus of a competitive team for the new coach, who holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Grand Valley State in Allendale, Mich., and a master's degree in sports psychology from Kent State.

Dettman averaged 12.8 points and 5.7 rebounds a game last season, Stahl 12.3, Hallsten 9.1, Diestelhorst 8.4 with 5.5 rebounds and Carlson 7.3. The first job for Kaminsky will be to instill confidence in his players and eliminate a losing complex that has plagued the program for so long.

PROSPECTS FOR 1994-95

The Warhawks enjoyed a banner season in 1993-94, including the school's first undisputed WSUC championship in 32 years. Ty Evans captured the conference scoring crown and was named the league's most valuable player. Dave Vander Meulen earned WSUC "coach of the year" honors.

But, Evans is gone, along with two other all-conference performers, Jay McGregory and Keith McCoy. This means the heart of Whitewater's starting unit will be missing when the Warhawks open their title defense in December. Still, there's enough firepower returning to make some noise in the coming race.

Starters returning include 5-8 guard Daryl Hilliard, who averaged four assists a game last season, and 6-5 forward Mike Janssen, who contributed 7.1 points and 5.4 rebounds a game. Another key returnee is 6-10, 245-pound center Deon Mims, an imposing presence in the paint who hauled down almost seven rebounds a game playing in a reserve role.

Vander Meulen isn't predicting another championship but he annually develops a competitive team capable of challenging for the title. This season he expects a strong rebounding team but must strengthen the backcourt. He says the Warhawks need team quickness and perimeter players who can prevent defenses from collapsing in the lane against his big men. Recruiting will play an important role his rebuilding efforts.

River Falls Wins NCAA Hockey Title

River Falls won its second NCAA Division III hockey championship March 19, 1994, by defeating Superior, 6-4, in the title game at Superior. The Falcons gained their berth in the finals with a 4-3 decision over Fredonia State the night before. Superior won a 3-2 overtime decision over Salem State in its semifinal game.

River Falls jumped to a 3-0 lead against Superior and fought off every challenge by the Yellowjackets in the hotly contested championship game. Superior cut the margin to 5-4 in the third period but Brian Wilson's goal from 15 feet at the 17:33 mark clinched it for the Falcons.

Other River Falls goals came from Chris Brown, Brandon Ferraro, Dan Carney, Eddie MacDonald and Russ Johnson. The Falcons had 34 shots on goal and Ron Gullett made 28 saves.

Superior had won the regular season championships in both the Wisconsin State University Conference and the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association.

Oshkosh Wins Second NCAA Crown

Wisconsin State University Conference baseball champion Oshkosh won its second NCAA Division III championship May 31, 1994, defeating Wesleyan (Conn.), 6-2, in the championship game at Battle Creek, Mich.

Freshman lefthander Jarrod Washburn scattered nine hits to earn the victory. Catcher Craig Pautz had three hits and three runs batted in. Titan shortstop Tim Jorgensen was named tournament most valuable player, duplicating the honor his brother Terry received in 1985, the first time Oshkosh won the title.

Jorgensen hit two home runs in the Titans' 11-0 victory over Montclair State in Oshkosh's second tourney win and he blasted a three-run homer, igniting a 12-3 trouncing of Wesleyan in the third game.

Mike Gasper, who helped pitch Oshkosh to the WSUC and Division III championships, was named to the 1994 GTE Academic All-America College Division first team. Gasper, a senior from Sparta, earned a 3.44 cumulative grade point average in MIS/finance.

La Crosse Wins NCAA Indoor Crown

La Crosse captured its sixth NCAA Division III indoor track and field championship March 12, 1994, at Oshkosh, scoring 50 points compared with 42 for runnerup Nebraska Wesleyan. Host Oshkosh finished eighth with 14 points and Stout 10th with 10.

Individual champions from the WSUC included La Crosse's David Coates in the 400-meter run (:48.65) and Mike Schnur in the pole vault (16-7 3/4), Oshkosh's Dave McLaren in the shot put (58-8) and Stout's Rich Vargas in the 55-meter dash (:06.40). McLaren and Schnur broke NCAA Division III records.

Eagles Second Outdoors

Wisconsin State University Conference outdoor track and field champion La Crosse missed by one point of repeating as NCAA Division III king May 28, 1994, at Naperville, Ill., North Central edged the Eagles, 75-74, in the team competition.
