HOMECOMING MAIL ORDER SALE OPENS

Application Blanks For Tickets Are Obtainable
at Gym Office

The mail order ticket sale for the Homecoming game with Illinois on November 13 opened yesterday, and blank forms are now obtainable in the men's gymnasium. The regular price of seats for this game will be $2.00.

Wisconsin's drubbing of Northwestern on Saturday coupled with Illinois' defeat of Iowa will undoubtedly make the Badger-Sucker battle the pinnacle of all conference interest this fall, and a record crowd is expected to turn out for Homecoming.

To Form Rooters Club
An innovation in the way of forming a "Rooters" club" for the Homecoming game is to be tried, and a meeting of all men who are interested in joining such a club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in 119 Science hall.

According to present plans, sections F and G, with a capacity of 1,844, have been set aside as a cheering section for men only. These seats will be sold at student rates and to men only, and must be signed up for either on Wednesday at the meeting or at the Homecoming office in the Union building. The tickets for these two sections will not be obtainable through mail orders, but must be signed up for individually, as the tickets will not be given out until the day before the game.

Women and Alumni Have Section
Section C with a capacity of 922 has been set aside for the women, and all women wishing seats in this section should so specify in their mail orders. The alumni will occupy section E, which will also accommodate 922 people.

The athletic department has advised that all students wishing seats should apply at the earliest possible time. To procure tickets at the student rate of 50 cents with a fee card, it is absolutely essential that they be obtained through mail orders, as the athletic department will not honor fee cards at open sale.

Open Homecoming Office
The Homecoming committee has opened an office on the first floor of the Union building, and a member of the committee will be there week days from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m., and on Saturdays from 11 to 12 from now until November 13.

Lothrop F. Follett, Homecoming chairman, may be reached by calling Badger 4271.

STUDENT PARADE TO SEND OFF GRID TEAM

Bill Pickard Will Lead Procession From Lower Campus
at 3:30

To give an enthusiastic send-off to the football team when it leaves for Ohio Thursday afternoon, "Bill" Pickard, the varsity cheerleader, has arranged for an all-university parade to the station.

All students will meet on the lower campus in front of the library at 3:30 Thursday afternoon, and march behind the band to the East Madison station. The train leaves at 4:10.

"We want a big crowd out," said "Bill" Pickard, "because this is one of the big games of the season, and every one must get behind the team."

1920 Enrollment Sets New Varsity Attendance Record

Another "largest enrollment" is announced by the University of Wisconsin. Although but a slight increase over last year is indicated, the latest figures just prepared by the university registrar show the largest total on record.

The total number of students now registered is 7,070, as compared with the total of 7,016 at the same time last fall—which was 40 per cent larger than any previous registration. Most of the late registrations are now in, but the total will probably be slightly changed by further enrollments and withdrawals before the university directory is published.

The new total includes 4,643 men and 2,427 women. Last year 4,608 men and 2,379 women were registered.

There are 4,273 former students in the total and 2,797 new students who are entering the university for the first time.

The senior and sophomore classes are larger; the junior and freshman classes are smaller. The figures are: seniors 1,031 now, 997 last year; juniors 1,325 now, 1,386 last year; sophomores 1,674 now, 1,588 last year; freshmen 2,372 now, 2,413 last year. Special students number 149, compared with 151 last year.

The Graduate school is larger—491 now, compared with 488 last year. The graduate students include 341 men and 150 women. Of the total, 369 are in Letters and Science, 18 in engineering, and 104 in agriculture.

Except for the steady increase in engineering, no striking change is seen in any of the colleges and courses. The College of Engineering has enrolled 1,173 undergraduates, as compared with 1,097 last year. The Law school has enrolled 152, as compared with 149. The Medical school has enrolled 148, as compared with 132. The agricultural courses have enrolled 505 undergraduates, as compared with 528. Home Economics has 253, as compared with 259. The Library school, 28, as compared with 36. The School of Music has 127, as compared with 105.

The College of Letters and Science and its special courses have enrolled 4,473, as compared with 4,512 last year. Among the special courses, the Course in Commerce has 1,335, as compared with 1,332. The Letters and Science students, not enrolled in any of the six special courses, number 2,776, as compared with 2,884.

MANY STUDENTS ENTER PETITIONS IN SENATE RACE

More Than Two Men Out for Every Job as Time Limit
Expires

So many candidates filed petitions for the student senate on Friday afternoon that there are more than two candidates for every position that is to be filled. Thirteen seniors are running for three vacant positions, eight juniors for three positions; six sophomores for two positions, and three graduates for one position.

Following are the names and activity records of the seniors who filed Friday.

Joseph B. Boender was a member of the traditions committee in his sophomore year and has been on the Homecoming committee for the last two years. He is on the staff of the Varsity movie and is a member of Edwin Booth, Scabbard and Blade, Skull and Crescent and Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

Milton C. Borman is a member of Iron Cross and White Spades. He was formerly president of the Y. M. C. A. and is now temporary president of the student senate.

Philip W. Falk has won his "W" on the baseball team and has served on class committees.

I. Arnold Perstein has been active in forensics, being a member of the inter-collegiate debating team, Athenae literary society, forensic board, and Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity. He is a member of Press club and an editorial writer on the Daily Cardinal. He is president of the Jewish Students' association and inter-collegiate vice-president of Menorah society.

I. I. Rotter is president of the student chapter of the American Association of Engineers, of Menorah society, and of the Civil Engineering society.

Conrad Severson is a member of Athenae and of the Commerce Magazine advertising staff.

Lloyd M. Strope is editor of the Commerce Magazine, and treasurer of the Commerce club. He was as-

SALVATION ARMY HOSPITAL DRIVE OPENS TOMORROW

"Make It a Quarter" is Slogan for Tag Day on Campus

Tomorrow is the day set for the big campus drive for the Salvation Army hospital fund. A tag day, with the slogan "Make it a quarter" has been chosen as the best means of covering the campus most easily and effectively. The committee, of which Wesley Travers is student chairman, is putting every effort into this campaign to make it a success.

The student tag day, which will be run absolutely separate from the town drive, will be conducted by the students themselves. University girls, under the direction of Mildred Rogers, will take charge of the tagging, and the money will be turned over from the committee directly to the county committee.

The university drive is part of the big state-wide movement for establishing a maternity hospital and rescue home under the direction of the Salvation army. The work has been directed by county advisory boards in all of the counties in the state. These committees, composed of the most prominent men in the districts, made investigations and reported the necessity for such an institution.

The Dane county committee felt that the students and faculty should be given the chance to join a movement that will be such a permanent benefit to the state, and the work was given into the hands of the following committee, working with Pres. E. A. Birge and Dean S. H. Goodnight; Wesley Travers, Mildred Rogers, Milton Borman, Carson Lyman, Marguerite Croskey, and Marguerite Swift.

BADGER TEAM MAKES STRONG BID FOR FLAG

Win Over Purple Makes
Richards' Men Big 10
Favorites

Wisconsin's decisive victory over Northwestern last Saturday makes the Badgers favorites for the conference title with Illinois and Ohio State looming up as certain formidable contenders, and Chicago and Michigan dark horses.

Northwestern's strength was overestimated and when Coach Richards sent in his best line-up at the beginning of the game his men outplayed the Purple in every department. Even after a long string of substitutes had been run in the Badgers kept the ball within striking distance of their opponents' goal almost constantly.

Richards' players showed great strength in both offense and defense against Northwestern, but the powerful offensive machine of the Badgers was clearly the outstanding feature of the game. In Elliott, Holmes, Davey, Barr, Williams, Sundt, and Gibson, Wisconsin has backs who will be heard to beat in any football squad in the country. Weston and Tebell on the wings complete one of the fastest forward passing teams seen at Camp Randall in years and the aerial route is certain to be of great assistance in downing Ohio State and Illinois.

Badgers' Defense Strong
The Wisconsin team that whipped the Purple last Saturday was noticeably different from Wisconsin teams of the past few years in its great defensive work. From Scott to Stark, the Badgers have plenty of brawn and lots of fight which was Purple backs found impenetrable. Every linesman has had at least a year of experience in conference football and each follows the ball well.

The game between Ohio State and Wisconsin will be by far the

COMMITTEES FOR S. G. A. COSTUME PARTY APPOINTED

Plan to Make Oct. 30th Event Biggest S. G. A. Affair
of Year

Committees for the annual S. G. A. costume party have been announced by Frances Beecher, general chairman. The party, which is one of the biggest affairs given by S. G. A. during the year, will be held Saturday evening, Oct. 20, at 7:30 in Lathrop gymnasium. Prizes will be given for the best individual and group costumes.

The following committees have charge of the affair:

Stunts—Frances Ellen Tucker, chairman, Gladys Borchers, Virginia Doring, Esther Guerini, and Charlotte Calvert.

Publicity—Katherine Stoppenbach, chairman, Winifred Moss, Louise Fritche, Charlotte Voorhis, and Marion Goodwin.

Refreshments—Margaret Neal, chairman, Vera Eastman, Auta Lyman, and Selma Albrecht.

Music—Helen Gill and Louise Kelly.

The costume party, which is an annual event of much interest, is given for all the girls in the university. Something unusual is being planned in the line of stunts and there will be dancing.

THIS morning, after a hectic week-end, we more carefully count our chances of defeating Ohio State next Saturday and decide to bet no more than we won last week. Despite the Curious Cub and the gentleman at the adjacent desk, we like our little nip before the game.

THE GREAT UNKIST
It dwelt among untrodden ways,

A timid thing and wild;
It trembled when it was addressed;
And quivered when it smiled.

A violet by a mossy stone,
Half-hidden from the eye;
Was not more hid than this poor fuzz,

Aspiring, yet so shy.

It lived alone, and few could guess
Just when it ceased to be.

But he has shaved it off, and oh!

The difference to me.

ENGINEER MAG IS OUT TODAY

October Number of Wisconsin Engineer Makes Campus Debut

The College of Engineering is a quiver with anticipation. The October number of The Wisconsin Engineer is scheduled for appearance bright and early Tuesday morning, and the flannel-shirts, who have given up their $1.50 in large numbers, are anxious to see what they are to receive. The staff has promised something just as tasty as anything dished up in the past.

Feature articles for the coming year include a series of papers by Professor L. S. Smith upon the housing situation both in this country and abroad. Professor Smith spent the past summer in Europe studying the situation there as a representative of the State of Wisconsin to the International Housing congress. Another series of articles will cover the development of the concrete ship. It is being prepared by several of the alumni of the college who have taken an active part in this development and promises to be of unusual interest. The Campus Notes will be edited by Frederick W. Nolte, a junior in the electrical course.

The Engineer is beginning its twenty-fifth year of publication. It is the oldest campus publication with one exception—The Daily Cardinal. This year it comes out in a form that is quite different from that which distinguished it in past years. The size has been increased to correspond to the size of the national technical journals, and the general arrangement has been modified to correspond to this change. In the language of the editor, "We are not so thick as our national competitors, but we are just as wide and long."

Willard A. Kates, the editor, is a senior in the electrical engineering course, and has taken a prominent

ELIMINATIONS ARE HELD FOR GOLF TOURNEY

Morton Frost and Gilbert Capen Qualify as Medalists at Maple Bluff

Playing excellent golf despite the handicap of inclement weather, Morton Frost and Gilbert Capen qualified as low score winners of the elimination golf tourney contested over the Maple Bluff course Saturday and Sunday. Frost went around in 176, and Capen scored 179 strokes in playing the 36 holes. The two men will represent Wisconsin at the golf tourney to be held at the Olympic golf grounds, Chicago, October 22 and 23.

Six twosomes teed off on Saturday and Sunday mornings, half of the contestants starting at the first hole, and the other division commencing play at the tenth hole. The men completed the first 18 holes Saturday, and played the qualifying round Sunday afternoon. With the course wet and soggy, the greens slippery, and a firm footing almost out of the question, the twelve entrants displayed a remarkable brand of golf, although the scores turned in were somewhat above par.

Conference rules called for medal play, and competition was not furnished by the efforts of entries to defeat the men with whom they were paired, but by endeavors to complete the 36 holes of competition with the lowest score of the entire field.

Sixteen men were originally scheduled to compete in the Badger tournament, but Fairfield, Rogers, Marcus, and Newman were scratched before the competition got under way. Frost, Capen, Bauer, Gibler, Pope, Hirschheimer, Bauman, Hook, Gallum, Waite, Feldman and Murphy started in the Saturday matches and finished the play, which required two trips around the Maple Bluff course.

Six conference golf teams have signified their intention to enter the Maroon meet, October 22 and 23, and with golf interest recently revived in "Big Ten" schools, Frost and Capen will run into some keen competition at the Windy City meet.

Golf is not yet a recognized minor conference sport, but a movement is under way to have the mentors of Big Ten schools treat it as such, and the matter will be given careful consideration at the next meeting of conference coaches. Wisconsin athletic authorities are heartily in favor of treating the old Scotch game on a par with swimming, gymnastics, and wrestling.

HASTINGS WINS WAY TO NET SEMI-FINALS

By his win over Stebbins, Hastings has succeeded in placing himself in the semi-finals of the freshman tennis tournament that is being staged under the direction of Coach Linden.

Coach Linden says that the freshmen seem greatly interested in tennis this year and that most of the players are in their second round while only a few late entrants have yet to start. The Hastings-Stebbins scores were 6-1 and 6-3. Other recent games show that Moulding beat McCartney 6-3 and 6-2, and that Galpin won from Smith 6-1 and 9-7.

The tournament that is now going on is the first tennis tournament that has ever been held for freshmen during the fall term, but officials express the hope that they will be an annual feature hereafter. Thirty-two yearlings took part in the preliminary games this year.

MANY AT CALIFORNIA

The University of California has, to date, a registration for 1920, of 9,444 students—50.3 per cent being men and 49.7 per cent women. Their enrollment in the correspondence courses of the university numbers 42,000.

sistant business manager of Who's Who and a member of last year's Homecoming committee.

Samuel C. Wright was a member of the music committee last year and was a member of the sophomore dance committee. He played freshman football and was captain of the Commerce crew in 1919. He is a member of the Glee club and of Chi Psi fraternity.

W. G. Aschenbrenner, Russell Frost, and Charles Gutenkunst also filed petitions for senior senate.

Junior Candidates

Following are the names and summaries of the juniors who have filed petitions for the senate.

Birney F. Miller is a member of the Badger staff, and of the editorial staff of the Wisconsin Engineer. He is a member of the junior council of the Y. M. C. A., the campus religious council, and several committees in charge of activities in the College of Engineering. Last year he was chairman of the sophomore finance committee and closer for Athena in the sophomore semi-public debate.

George M. Parker was chairman of the all-university vocational conference last year and was also a member of the varsity tennis squad. For the last two years he has been on the Badger board of control and the summer Cardinal.

George B. Stolley has taken part in class track, class football, and varsity track. He is a member of athletic board.

Melbourne Bergerman is vice-president of Athena, a member of the inter-collegiate debating team, and a member of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity. He has been on the Badger staff for the last two years and is on the Badger and forensic boards.

Reginald W. Garstang is associate editor of the Commerce Magazine and a member of the Badger staff. He is a member of Haresfoot and the Commerce club, and he is assistant chairman of the Homecoming ball committee.

Clarence G. Trachte served 18 months in the army and is a member of Philomathia.

Henry J. Katz is a member of the junior council, Saddle and Sirloin, and the Agricultural literary society. He was on the sophomore commission last year.

Frederick N. Bussey is a member of Haresfoot and Inner Gate. He was a freshman baseball manager.

Sophomore Candidates

Following are the names and summaries of sophomores which have not already been printed.

Sherman Green is a member of the student-faculty conference committee and a holder of a legislative scholarship. He served with the A. E. F. and is a first lieutenant in the cadet corps. He is a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Paul Friedrich is a member of the second university band.

Carl Rogers is secretary of the sophomore commission and was president of the Agric Triangle last year.

Burke H. Robinson is president of the Indianapolis club. Last year he was on the Badger staff and played freshman basketball, baseball and tennis.

VARSITY MAN IS SHOT DEAD

Mystery Surrounds Killing of Dartmouth
Student

PHILADELPHIA—Police had no clue today to clear the mystery of the death of Elmer C. Drewes, Dartmouth college student, who was found dead Sunday morning on the outskirts of Philadelphia with a bullet let wound in the head. No weapon was found near the body.

Robbery, the police say, was evidently not the motive, if Drewes was murdered, as about $900 in cash, checks, and liberty bonds were in his clothes, when the body was found.

William Belshaw, head of the "murder squad" of the Philadelphia detective force, believes Drewes' body was carried to the lot where it was found after he was slain elsewhere. This theory, he said, was borne out by the discovery today of tracks of a motor car.

WITHIN OUR GRASP

IT has been eight long years since Wisconsin's eleven won the conference championship. Year after year we have seen sinister fate intervene and rob us of the prize that might have been ours.

In this good year of grace we must win the battle for first place.

This is what we say at the beginning of every season and the phrase may be somewhat shop worn. Just the same our hopes this fall are grounded on a solid foundation. For one thing we know that no team in the conference surpasses Coach Richards' men in technique and that no team equals his men in spirit. The game with Northwestern proved that the Badgers can battle successfully with superior "beef." We are fortunate in our admixture of brains.

We have the advantage of being well into the season with fine spirits. Next to winning the championship for ourselves the chief delight of Wisconsin is to see Minnesota humbled. On this point our cup of joy is filled to the brim and the effects will last for the rest of the reason.

Then on top of this we put to rout the team that was kind enough to blast the Gophers' hopes.

Taking it all in all Wisconsin has substantial reasons to feel confident, and here is the rub. If we start patting ourselves on the back instead of pressing on until the last minute of the Chicago game we are courting disaster. At present over-confidence threatens us. Right now is the time to get rid of this evil. A little imagination directed toward the thoughts which must have racked the brains of the 600 Evanston bound rooters Saturday night ought to keep our hopes within the confines of reason.

Granted an even break in luck, the same pep all season that was shown Friday night, and justifiable confidence in the team, Wisconsin will be the 1920 champs.

Thus we say to you, all ye who are nimble of foot: if Battalion Ser-

REVIVE VARSITY EXPOSITION

It seems to me that the year 1920-1921 is a good one for the re-establishment of the University Exposition idea which was inaugurated at Wisconsin several years ago.

Now that so many of the young men and women of the state are turning to higher education, the Exposition would be a valuable venture because:

It would give each student a comprehensive view of the university as a whole rather than just the college in which he is studying.

The people of the state who would surely visit the Exposition in large numbers could readily understand that the university is a paying institution and a valuable asset to the state.

New discoveries, experiments, investments, inventions, and ideas could be brought before the people in an advantageous manner.

A closer relationship between the various colleges and a greater interest in college affairs would be stimulated.

A higher standard of work in all branches would be encouraged.

AN ALUMNUS.

SHALL WE SEND THE BAND?

Editor Daily Cardinal:

Wisconsin very emphatically stamped its claim for the 1920 football championship honors last Saturday by humbling the haughty wearers of the purple. It was with considerable merriment that we read the Chicago sport writer's admission of Wisconsin's strength. Red Weston's valiant warriors surely messed up their dope.

Enough of retrospection. What's ahead? Jack Wilce and his corps of assistants are bending every effort to perfect a team that will be able to stop Wisconsin next Saturday. We do not believe that they will succeed, but as students and loyal backers of the team, what is our part in this crucial test?

Columbus, Ohio is too far away and the private bank accounts of most of us are too limited to allow us to attend in a large body and by our presence help the team to victory. We have heard no hint of sending the band. But why not? We are united in our support of the team. The presence of the band in Columbus would be a tremendous asset. We need the band at Columbus even more than we will at Chicago, for a large body of alumni and many students will be present on Stagg field for the Chicago game. Let us all chip in and raise the funds. What say you, Wisconsin?

If the dauntless Aggies could send their band across Lake Michigan, facing almost certain defeat, can we not send our band to aid the team in its splendid opportunity for victory?

Finally, even though these suggestions may not prove feasible, there is one thing that the entire student body can and ought to do. Let us give Coach Richards and his men such a rousing send-off at the station that the impressions of it will still be ringing in their ears when the whistle blows on the Columbus field. Let's meet at the gym, the band in the lead, the whole student body in line and proceed to the depot. In this manner we can show our boys that Wisconsin is backing its team to the limit.

Come on, Wisconsin Spirit! Let's go!

LARGE CROWD HEARS RECITAL AT CHURCH

Over a thousand people heard the Fleming Sisters and Hardy Williamson in joint recital last evening, when Hook Brothers presented them in an Edison tone test at the Congregational church. Mr. Williamson gave several groups of songs with the phonograph and alone.

The trio likewise pleased with its splendid playing and perfect ensemble. Ethel Fleming, the violinist displayed abundant technique, and with Florence Fleming, a most capable cellist, and her sister Marie at the piano, presented a well balanced and effective trio which pleased the audience immensely.

BOWLERS OPEN LEAGUE SEASON

Fraternity Pin Teams Swing Into Action on Schedule Tonight

The 1920-21 season of the Interfraternity Bowling League will begin tonight at the Wisconsin Alleys when the Greeks roll their initial round of the schedule. A chart has been compiled by the officials of the organization, games being slated for Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week.

Twenty-eight fraternities have entered teams in the league, and prospects are brighter than usual as the circuit opens. The first games will start promptly at 7 o'clock and at 9 the second division will take the alleys.

Due to the large number of societies already on the campus and the steady increase of bowling contestants each year, the bowling league has found it advisable to adopt a new plan for conducting the schedule. Two sections have been formed, with fourteen teams in each division, and the highest four in standing at the close of the season will meet in the finals. This system is identical to that used in the Interfraternity basketball and baseball leagues. Under the old method every fraternity bowled against every other in the course of the season, but this necessitates a longer season than is possible.

President Earl Hardy was highly pleased with the outlook for the coming season, and expressed his certainty of a good year. "A great deal of enthusiasm has been shown by the fraternities thus far, and the fives are set for the opening at the Wisconsin Alleys tonight," he said. "Five cups will be awarded the winners and a cup be given the man with the highest individual average."

Going to Ohio Game? Round Trip is $40

The round trip to Columbus, O., scene of next Saturday's grid battle, including berth, will be about $40. All business and professional men who contemplate going are urged to hand in their names to the Association of Commerce before Thursday noon. Columbus Chamber of Commerce sent a special train to Madison last year.

CADETS PLAN TO GIVE INFORMAL MILITARY "HOP"

New Officers' Association Will Hold Dance For Entire Corps

The Cadet Officers' association met Friday at 4:30 for the first time after organization. Major Caluwaert, the secretary, announced that Major Schrage and Major Jennings would act with him on the publicity committee. It was decided to hold an informal military hop on November 26, for the entire cadet corps. A pistol club for the officers is to be formed Tuesday night at 7:30 at the armory. The military department is to furnish ammunition and transportation to the range. A regular course in pistol firing will be given by one of the regular officers of the department.

There will be a parade of the cadet corps as soon as the new uniforms arrive, in preparation of the big turn-out on Armistice day, when the cadet corps will take a leading part in the celebration. The officers' club is preparing a regular hang-out in the Union building. Here military magazines, news bulletins, and books, maps, and documents will be provided for the use of the officers of the corps.

An assessment of two bits a head was made in order to provide a job for the treasurer. Every cadet officer is automatically a member of this organization, and his interest in the cadet corps is judged by his attendance at meetings. The next meeting will be Friday, October 29, at 4:30 at the armory.

COMMERCE CLUB TO ASK APPLICATIONS

Elections to the Commerce club this year will be based entirely on written applications of Commerce students desiring to become members, according to the committee in charge. No student will be considered who has not made a written application.

The blank when filled out should contain the applicant's class, weighed average, and school activities. Freshmen are not eligible. The blanks should be left at the business administration office in the Physics-Economics building or given to Arno J. Schmidt, president of the club.

All applications should be turned in before 6 o'clock tonight in the business administration office, fourth floor, P. E. B.

Mrs. Charles LeClair entertained at tea for the girls of Kappa Delta sorority Saturday afternoon after the Northwestern game, at her home 926 West Johnson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeClair chaperoned at a breakfast given by the Kappa Delta sorority, Sunday morning, October 17, at one of the cottages on Lake Wingra.

Miss Beatrice Rosenberg visited her sister, Sylvia, a freshman in the Music school, over the week end. Miss Rosenberg attended Wisconsin last year and expects to enter Columbia next semester.

Miss Sam Hill was the guest of Miss Pennell Crosby, who is living at 202 North Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Pattison and their son, Philip, were among the occupants of the Northwestern cheering section at Saturday's game.

Miss Libbie Jansa visited in Madison over the week end, attending the Northwestern game with Wallace Hahn.

SPANISH CLUB IN PLAYLET TONIGHT

The Spanish club playlet promises to make tonight's meeting at 7:30 in Lathrop parlors, a good beginning for the year. Non-members are urged to come and find out what the club is doing by way of getting a better understanding of Spanish, and of Spanish life, than can be gotten in class work. This knowledge may be of actual practical value to many, for this country is coming constantly in contact with the Spaniard, as our commercial intercourse with South America increases.

The playlet, "La Imaginacion del Doctor," is by Marguerite Skaar, who also is one of the cast, the other members of which are Frances Smith, Grace Raymond, Fred Ruffalo, and Joseph Fucilla. The program includes a talk by Prof. C. D. Cool, a piano solo by R. C. Phillips, and Spanish songs by the club, and a social hour. Miss Fisher, the president of the club, wants every interested Spanish student to attend the meeting.

News of the Theatres

AT THE ORPHEUM
"Been to the Orph this week?
How's the show?"

"Not so bad, but the first act is too strenuous."

And that is the only trouble with the opener; the colored boy takes so many falls that one becomes tired watching him.

Montie and Partie with a clarinet and piano-accordian, call themselves a two man jazz band but they make a greater hit with their solos. Mack and Mabelle, in "Her Voice" have Mabelle's gowns and a few good jokes to redeem themselves. And then comes the headliner, Homer Miles & company in a little skit,
"The Rough Neck." It is well done, and contains a touch of pathos that is not amiss. The act of Ben Harney, the originator of ragtime, is saved by the grin of the boy from Kentucky.

A most unusual closing act of the program is Berrens, Ryan Sisters & Leslie. The color effect with plain drapery back-drop and changing lights and the clever costumes of the girls, are surprisingly attractive. The dancing is simple but the movement of color with good music is good enough to headline. The last act deserved a better place on the program.

AT THE STRAND

"You Never Can Tell," the initial Bebe Daniels production for Real-art is showing at the Strand theater for the last times today. It is needless to say that Miss Daniels scored a real hit. This was a foregone conclusion with those who have watched her rise through comedies with Harold Lloyd to leading woman roles in Paramount productions.

Miss Daniels meets the test in a manner that thoroughly satisfied a large audience last night. She is delightfully amusing as the ambitious little check-room girl whose love for beautiful things leads her almost into trouble before she meets and loves a "Prince Charming" whom she thinks a taxi chauffeur but who really is a young milionaire.

There will also be shown pictures of the Wisconsin-Northwestern football game and a comedy cartoon.
"The Silent Barrier," a triumph of love on the peaks of the snow clad Alps, will be the attraction for four days commencing Wednesday.
In addition there will be shown the first of a series of new comedies,
"Four Times Foiled" will please the kiddies because of the animals that are in the picture.

death. One was the gorilla-like

Twenty feet above them the barnacled keel of a tramp schooner swallowed in the swell. It was the strangest fight ever waged. The man was fighting for the girl and she fought against him, with strength born of desperation, for her honor.

The incident is vividly depicted on the screen at the Grand where Annette Kellerman is being featured in "What Women Love." The under-water scenes were photographed through a specially constructed diving bell and not an incident of the strange fight was lost.

Weeler Oakman, Ralph Lewis and the famous Mull Montana are seen in the cast supporting Miss Kellerman in this, her latest picture.

AT THE FULLER

Nazimova will appear today at the Fuller theater in two characters each resembling in some measure the great Russian star's own career. The picture is "Madame Peacock," from a story by Rita Weiman, and it brings Nazimova to the screen first as Jane Goring, a resplendent stage star, and then as Gloria Cromwell, a young girl as naive and charming as Jane is brilliant.

Certainly Nazimova should make this story live, for she has been in the course of her remarkable career both the young girl of great promise and the great actress who has fulfilled promise.

In this her latest Metro picture Nazimova has chosen George Probert for her leading man. The star herself adapted the picture for direction by Ray C. Smallwood. Rudolph Bergquist photographed it and Edward Shulter provided special art settings.

BADGER CLUB HEARS TALK BY STITT WILSON

Y. M. C. A. Speaker Delivers Final Address Here Sunday Evening

Stitt Wilson delivered his final address to the Badger club in the Y. M. C. A. parlors Sunday evening. In opening he again laid stress upon a point which made up much of the underlying thought of his other addresses, the necessity of the development in mankind of a higher consciousness than self interest. "The greatest necessity today for the individual is to be taken from personal consciousness and to be merged in the larger consciousness of race and mankind," he stated.

He outlined graphically what he typified as the two struggles, for self, and with others for others. "The instinct to struggle for self has been developed for untold ages," he said, "and appears in all of the activities of man, but at present this spirit finds its highest development only in the highest types of mankind."

Mr. Wilson spoke of the influence of the love instinct of all higher types on advancement, and showed that the instinct which led for progress in the first place should be given greater expression by a further and higher development of the communal spirit in man today. He pictured as the devil of history, "those forces which act to destroy fellowship and to promote self interest." Jesus antedated history, he said, because his love of all humanity was supreme and the world still waits for and needs men who have caught some of His great spirit.

The usual community singing was led by "Doc" Dorward, at the beginning of the meeting, who later entertained with two of his famous Scotch songs, "Breakfast in Bed on Sunday Morning" and "She's the Lass for Me." The duet by Mrs. Wolf and "Dad" Wolf, "Love Divine," elicited much applause.

ENTRIES FLOW IN FOR JUNIOR LIVE STOCK SHOW

More Than 600 Animals Are Entered For Stock Pavilion Show

With each train comes additional entries to the Junior Live Stock exposition which is now being held at the Stock pavilion. Day and night for the last 48 hours the committees in charge of entries have assisted the pavilion employees in receiving and caring for the stock. There are now over 600 animals of all classes entered.

The largest number of entries is in the dairy calf class. The Jersey calves are especially prominent in numbers. All animals show that they have had excellent care and judgment used in the "bringing out" process. The boys and girls who are exhibiting have had entire handling of their entries and could, in some cases, competently compete with their elders in the care and feeding of live stock.

Several attractive prizes have been offered for best animals exhibited. Plankinton Packing Co. offers a silver trophy valued at $150 for the showing of the grand champion baby beef. Through Professor Frank Kleinheinz, the Bank of Wisconsin offers $150 for the best fat lamb shown. Through Secretary L. L. Oldham, the Wisconsin Holstein Breeders' association offers a gold watch to the boy or girl showing the best Holstein bull and heifer calf.

Judging of classes starts this morning at 9:15. Today lambs and pigs will be judged. Wednesday, dairy calves, and Thursday beef cattle. The judges are: beef, John Robbins of Indiana; sheep, Professor Frank Kleinheinz; dairy calves, Professor Humphreys; colts, Mr. Hutton; pigs, Professor Fuller.

most important contest in the middle west this week-end and the whole conference is watching it with interest. Coach Richards has been drilling his team all season for this game and he does not consider the strength of the Buckeyes lightly. Ohio State is somewhat of an unknown quantity, however, and the Badgers will be the first real opposition they have met this year. They were held to a 17 to 0 score by Purdue in a game where all of the breaks were against the Boilermakers. Wilson has a powerful line, but just how much his backfield will miss Harley's services will be seen Saturday.

MICHIGAN MEETS ILLINOIS

The Michigan-Illinois game at Urbana is another game which closely rivals the Wisconsin-Ohio State game in importance. Yost's men ran up a bigger score than the Badgers against the Michigan Aggies and reports from Ann Arbor indicate that the Wolverine supporters are entertaining hopes of a championship team. In Dunn, Usher, Cohn and Steketee, Michigan has a powerful backfield, but the weaknesses in the line are causing the coaching staff considerable worry. Whether these flaws can be mended in time to stop the charging Illini backs is doubtful.

Little need be said about the strength of Zuppke's men. By defeating Iowa in such a complete manner, last year's champions proved that they will again make a strong bid for first honors.

CHICAGO FACES IOWA

Chicago's hope of continuing in the conference race depends upon her ability to pierce the heavy Hawkeye line next Saturday. Jones' men fell down before the terrific onslaught of the Suckers, but they are strong and will give the Maroons a hard fight.

Northwestern, Minnesota, Indiana, and Purdue will have a holiday next Saturday but inasmuch as every one of these teams have been beaten their rest is of little concern toward deciding the title. Minnesota's team has been a great disappointment and the defeat at the hands of Indiana Saturday was one of the biggest humiliations that the Gophers have ever suffered in athletics.

HOLD PEP SESSION FOR BABCOCK DAY

A pep session of the Babcock Day committee in the Union building, Monday noon, was addressed by Professor A. W. Hopkins, who spoke of the great moral example set by Dr. Babcock, the modesty of the old chemist, and yet his sincere delight in quiet appreciation.

New committee members were added and the committee list now includes: Exhibit: Howard Clapp, chairman, Eleanor Glascock, Fred Helgren, Harry Edwards; arrangements: John Honusek, chairman, Arthur Knutson, Helmer Casperson, Gerald Heal, Joseph Schenzer; demonstrations: Mel Luther, chairman, Alois Fix, Basil Mobley; ribbons: Catherine Woodman, chairman, Marie Metz, Vangel Russell; publicity: Maynard Brown, John Penny, and Dave Lacey.

AGRIC'S PLAN TO CELEBRATE BABCOCK DAY

Friday Set Aside in Honor of Inventor of Famous Tester

With Friday set aside as Babcock Day, a special exhibit planned for the first floor of the Historical library, and with the unspoken promise of every Home Ec and Agric to wear a red and white ribbon, committees are driving fast to make the day one of signal honor to the great alchemist.

The center of the exhibit will be the original Babcock tester, the first in the world. Buttermilk drinkers have often seen this historic tester in Hiram Smith hall, but few persons passing the unique machine ever realize that its successors are saving millions of dollars for the world yearly.

The Babcock tester is now used in all the great dairy countries of the world. It is as familiar to the dairymen of Australia, New Zealand, South America, South Africa, and Japan as it is to the dairy industry of North America and Wisconsin. The design of the tester was worked out by Dr. Babcock 30 years ago in the machine shops of the College of Agriculture. The design of the original tester is still used with only negligible improvements.

"Miss May Peterson sang even better than last season, when her first recital here caused considerable excitement. She is possessed of one of the loveliest voices on the concert stage, and she has acquired a vocal polish that is good to hear."—New York Herald.

"Miss Peterson's voice has surprising volume as well as lightness and agility, her group of songs revealing an even range, and a limpid, well rounded tone as warm as it is pure."—Kansas City Star.
