WISCONSIN ATHLETIC REVIEW

1961 - 1962

HISTORY OF CAMP RANDALL STADIUM

They call it Camp Randall.

That's important.

Every now and then some hurried out-of-town sports announcer will call it "Randall Field," but he is corrected quickly.

The University of Wisconsin is proud that its sports center is more than just an athletic field—and that the drama and excitement of football seasons are set against a backdrop of colorful Wisconsin history.

In its 65 years of ownership, the University has expanded the facilities there until they include a large stadium, fieldhouse, memorial practice building and football practice fields.

But the University didn't name it. The name was decided long before that by veterans of the Civil War who knew it was a great military camp named for a wartime governor. When the University took it over, they insisted that the name be preserved forever as a memorial to their fallen friends.

In the days before the Civil War, the site was owned by the State Agricultural Society whose yearly state fairs attracted holidaying throngs there. With the outbreak of the war, however, the society turned the place over to the government to become the state's major training center.

The display halls were transformed into white-washed barracks and the hall used for flower shows became a hospital. A total of 70,000 troops were drilled—usually about 7,000 being stationed there at a time—and 500,000 relatives and friends came to visit them.

Later in the war part of the camp became a prison where a group of sick Confederates, captured by Gen. Pope at Island No. 10 in the Mississippi, was brought. Many died in the drafty prison hospital on the knoll and were buried in what is now Confederate Rest at Forest Hill cemetery.

The land again became the state fair grounds when peace returned and when Gen. U. S. Grant visited it 15 years later he hailed the transformation as "a symbol of beating the spears of war into the plowshares of peace."

Other visitors to the grounds were Gens. Sherman and Sheridan and Pres. Hayes. When the state fair was moved to Milwaukee and a few years later even the Dane County Agricultural society stopped using it for fairs, the Civil War veterans were furious to learn the land was to be sold for building lots.

Blasting the "sordid sacrilege," they urged the legislature to buy it and in 1893 the state presented it to the University as a memorial athletic field.

When the question of a name arose, the veterans promptly carried the day for "camp" instead of "field."

Intercollegiate athletics had been started at Wisconsin in 1881 and the University had had a football team since 1889. The school won its first great victory in 1894, defeating Minnesota 6-0 in a game on the lower campus that part of the crowd watched from fringed surreys. The great teams of '96, '97, and '01 were among the first to play at the new field.

Charles Van Hise, who became president of the University in 1903, was a sports enthusiast as well as a great president and he used to ride his horse nightly out to watch the football practice. Games were played before the old wood fairstand and many Madison business and professional men still boast of the holes they found as boys to insure a free look at the fun.

The University had a "real" stadium by 1913 but its stands were still wooden. The legislature declined to pay for concrete—and consequently, was promptly blamed when a large section collapsed Nov. 21, 1915, at the climactic Wisconsin-Minnesota game.

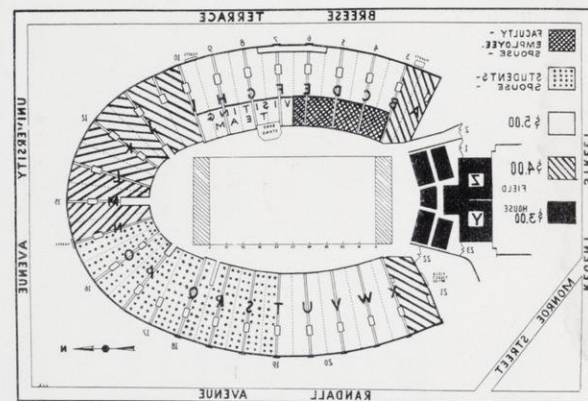

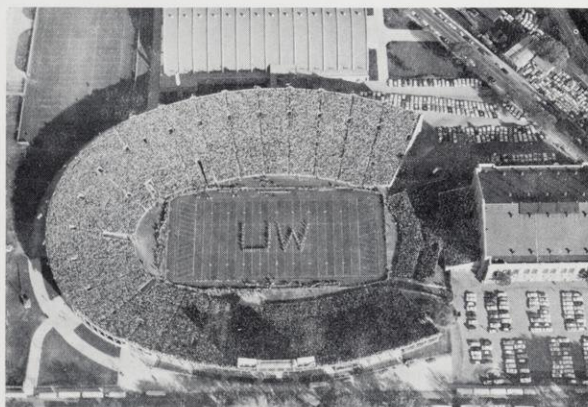

Twenty people were injured, some seriously, and only the fact that the seats fell slowly prevented more casualties among the 1,800 in the area.

So in 1917 the present stadium—following completion of the past year's addition—was started with a grant of $15,000 from the legislature. The rest of the money was earned by athletic events and the stadium, which now seats 63,435, is the only one in the Big Ten to "pay its own way" that way. Permanent dormitories were built, housing 150 men but this space now is used as athletic department offices and training quarters.

The first game to be played in Camp Randall Stadium was the 1917 homecoming game against Minnesota's Golden Gophers. The Badgers won the game 10-7 to hand the Gophers their only Big Ten loss, relegating them to second place in the final conference standings. A week later, Ohio State visited Camp Randall and inflicted a 16-3 defeat on the Badgers; the Ohioans won the title that year with an unbeaten record. Wisconsin placed in a tie for third place with Northwestern.

The fieldhouse at the open end of the stadium horse shoe was built in 1930 for almost $500,000 and has a seating capacity of 13,800 for basketball games and other events.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR IVAN B. WILLIAMSON
District 4 Representative,
1962 NCAA Football Rules Committee

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR IVAN B. WILLIAMSON

THE MAN who put Badger football on a solid foundation and who established a winning tradition, now heads up the University of Wisconsin intercollegiate sports program as its athletic director.

He is Ivan Baum Williamson, considered by many as the most successful coach in the modern era of Wisconsin football and hailed by many more as a resourceful, imaginative, and firm leader under whose direction the intercollegiate athletic program can continue its well-ordered, planned growth.

Ivy, as he is popularly known, succeeded to the athletic directorship following the untimely death of Wisconsin's beloved Guy Sundt, Oct. 25, 1955. Williamson was appointed as Guy's successor on Nov. 12 by the board of regents but did not take office until Dec. 1. Ivy is the sixth person to hold the position of athletic director. Others were Thomas E. Jones (1916-1924), George Little (1925-32), Walter Meanwell (1933-35), Harry Stuhldreher (1936-1950), and Guy Sundt (1950-55).

Williamson first came to Wisconsin in February, 1949, to take over the head football coaching responsibilities. In his seven seasons, Wisconsin won 41 games, tied four, and lost 19 against all opponents. His Big Ten record was just as impressive, the Badgers winning 29 against 13 setbacks and four ties. In addition, Wisconsin tied for the championship in 1952, played in the Rose Bowl, and for the first six years was in title contention or Rose Bowl consideration right up to the final gun of the season.

He came to Wisconsin with an excellent background. He played football at Michigan during the seasons of 1930 through 1932, won honors as an all-conference end, and captained the team in his senior year. In that three-year span, Michigan won or shared three Big Ten titles and lost only one game while winning 24 and tying two.

At Michigan, "Ivy" also earned two basketball letters and his football coach at that time, Harry Kipke, said, "Ivan Williamson is the smartest player I have ever had or hope to have."

Before coming to Wisconsin, Williamson was head coach for two years at Lafayette College. His 1947 team won six games and lost three, while in 1948, his charges won seven games out of nine, bowing only to Army and Rutgers.

Born in Prairie Depot, Ohio (now called Wayne), on Feb. 4, 1911, Williamson was graduated from Bowling Green high school after excelling in both scholarship and athletics. He entered Michigan and upon his graduation had not only won laurels as one of the outstanding athletes in Wolverine history but wound up with special honors in scholarship. He also holds a masters' degree from Michigan, obtained in 1940. He is married and has twin sons, Jack and David, age 24. Son Jack is a 1960 graduate of Stanford, while David completed his college education at Wisconsin in January, 1961.

Following his graduation in the spring of 1933, Williamson coached football and basketball at Roseville, Mich., high school, producing an unbeaten eleven. In the spring of 1934, he accepted a position as assistant coach on the Yale football staff, serving there under Raymond "Ducky" Pond through 1940, and under Emerson "Spike" Nelson in 1941.

In June of 1942, he entered the Navy and put in a season of coaching under Patsy Clark at Pensacola, Fla., Navy base. His war-time service also included duties at the naval station in Sanford, Fla., the Gunners school at Hollywood, Fla., the Cadet Selection board at Detroit, Mich., and the training carrier, USS Wolverine, Chicago.

After his discharge in 1945, he resumed his former football duties at Yale, this time assisting Howie Odell. He left there in 1947 to take over head coaching duties at Lafayette.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH MILTON BRUHN

Wisconsin's football fortunes rest in the capable guidance of Milt Bruhn, beginning his 7th season as head football coach, and hoping to keep the Badgers moving upward in the forthcoming Big Ten championship race.

Under Bruhn the Badgers have attained their first undisputed Big Ten title since 1912 (1959), and their 6th place finish in national polls that season was their best since a third place rating in 1942.

The Badgers placed 8th nationally in 1958, giving Wisconsin and Bruhn successive years in the top ten football teams of the nation, a feat no other Wisconsin football team or coach has ever achieved.

Bruhn is the 21st coach to head up varsity football at Wisconsin since that sport was inaugurated on the Madison campus in 1889. Only Harry Stuhldreher who served for 13 years, Phil King who was at the helm for eight seasons, and Ivan Williamson, the man Bruhn succeeded in 1956 after seven years at the helm, have served longer tenures as Wisconsin football coaches. And Bruhn will equal Williamson's tenure this year.

Wisconsin football teams under Bruhn have scored 31 victories, a figure exceeded only by King (65), Stuhldreher (45) and Williamson (41) during their careers at Wisconsin. In Big Ten competition only, Bruhn has guided the Badgers to 20 victories in six seasons, a total exceeded only by Williamson (29) and Stuhldreher (26).

The 1961 Wisconsin passing attack, as put together by Bruhn and his staff, averaged 188.4 yards per game, good enough for top national ranking in this category of offense. The wide open attack made for interesting football and gave the Badgers striking power from any position on the gridiron.

Milt and his staff have prepared diligently for the 1962 season and are thoroughly familiar with the abilities of each of the squad members they will be working with in the 1962 campaign.

Coaching has been Milt Bruhn's life. As Milt tells it, he first became interested in coaching at Minnesota. "When I first went there I didn't have a lot of confidence in myself so far as becoming a Big Ten player. But after I learned I could play the game, I decided to stay with it. I've always liked to work with young men.

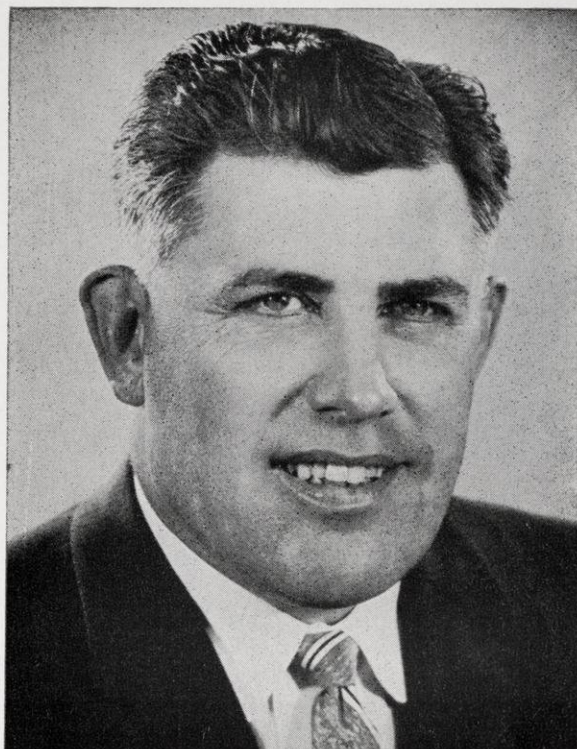

Bruhn, graduate of the University of Minnesota in 1936, was appointed head football coach at Wisconsin succeeding Ivan B. Williamson, when the latter moved up to the position of Athletic Director following the death of Guy Sundt. Bruhn, however, did not assume responsibilities until Jan. 1, 1956. He had been varsity line coach at Wisconsin since 1949.

Bruhn was born July 28, 1912, at St. Bonifacius, Minn., and attended Mound, Minn., high school where he won letters in both football and basketball. He enrolled at Minnesota in 1932, winning letters in both his favorite sports.

He was left guard on the Gopher elevens, winners of Big Ten Conference championships in 1934 and 1935 and also claimants of unbeaten records for those two seasons. Milt also was catcher on the baseball team which won the Big Ten championship in 1935 and he captained the team in his senior year.

Following his graduation, he went to Amherst College (Mass.) as football line coach and freshman coach in basketball and baseball. He remained there until 1943 when he returned to his alma mater, Minnesota, as end coach for that season.

He joined the Colgate University football staff as line coach in 1944, then transferred in 1946 to Franklin Marshall College as line coach, in addition to being head baseball and basketball coach.

He went to Lafayette College in 1947 as line coach under Williamson and then to Wisconsin with Ivy. His keen analysis provided excellent defensive performances for the Badgers as they compiled a fine seven year record under Williamson.

Milt is married, has two children, Peter and Mary Anne. Pete is a 1959 graduate of Madison West high school, and spent the 1959-60 academic year at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy. At both schools, Pete, 6-2½, 200 pounds, showed promise as a football lineman and a heavyweight wrestler. He is now a junior center on Wisconsin's 1962 football team.

FRED MARSH

Assistant Coach

Fred E. Marsh, graduate of Bowling Green University in 1933 with a B.S. degree in Education, was appointed as assistant coach on Feb. 14, 1956 by Milt Bruhn. Prior to that, Marsh had been coach of junior varsity and chief scout under Ivy Williamson since February of 1949.

Marsh

Fred was born August 24, 1910 at Bowling Green, Ohio, and attended the same high school as Williamson. He was basketball captain in his senior year, graduating in 1928 and later enrolling at Denison University where he played two seasons of football as a guard. He transferred to Bowling Green in his junior year, also competing two seasons, being selected on All-Ohio honorary teams. In addition, he won major letters as a guard on the basketball team.

Following graduation, he remained at Bowling Green as freshman football coach and, in 1934, took over the duties as director of health and physical education at Bowling Green University as assistant football coach and also completed work on his master's degree.

From 1942 to 1946, he served in the Navy, then returned again to his alma mater as assistant athletic director and freshman coach in both football and basketball. He came to Wisconsin in 1949 at the invitation of Ivy Williamson.

Fred is considered an excellent scout, once having held such an assignment on a seasonal basis for the Cleveland Browns pro team. His junior varsity football teams at Wisconsin, until the schedules were dropped for lack of opponents, had excellent records.

Marsh is married, has two daughters, Marilyn Lee and Melinda Sue.

LaVERN VAN DYKE

Assistant Coach

LaVern Van Dyke, graduate of Stevens Point in 1941 and recipient of a master's degree at the University of Wisconsin in 1950, was appointed assistant coach on a full-time basis Jan. 7, 1956. Previously, since 1949, he had been affiliated with the coaching staff on a seasonal basis, working with a sporting goods concern during the off-season.

Van Dyke

Van Dyke was born October 20, 1916 and graduated from Kimberly high school in 1934, winning All-Northeast Wisconsin honors as an end. He played four years of football at Stevens Point State, also won letters in basketball and track.

Following graduation, he coached football and basketball at Waupaca high school for one year, then entered the army for a four-year period. While in the service he coached and played with the Camp Kilmer, N. J., basketball team, later was discharged with the rank of captain in 1946. Active in the Army Reserve program, he holds the rank of lieutenant colonel.

He returned to Waupaca as high school basketball coach in the fall of 1946. Van Dyke enrolled at Wisconsin in January of 1949 to work on his advanced degree, and joined the football staff in the fall. He is married, but has no children.

PAUL SHAW

Assistant Coach

Paul R. Shaw, graduate of Pittsburgh in 1938 and also holder of a master's degree in education at his alma mater in 1947, was appointed assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin in February, 1949.

Prior to that, Shaw had served in a similar capacity for three years at Lafayette College, the last two of which were under Ivy Williamson, and Shaw followed Ivy to Wisconsin when the latter took over the head coaching reins.

Shaw was born Nov. 3, 1914 at Bradford, Pa., starring in all sports at the high school there. At Pittsburgh, he played end on the Panther football teams of 1935, 1936, and 1937 coached by Jock Sutherland whose gridiron success was phenomenal during that era.

Following graduation, Shaw assisted in coaching at Hazelton, Pa., high school from 1938 through 1941, then entered the army Air Corps. He was a lieutenant from 1942 to his discharge in July, 1946.

He went to Lafayette College as end coach in September of 1946 and since then has been associated with both Williamson and Milt Bruhn, the present Wisconsin head coach.

At Wisconsin, he developed many fine ends, three of which were named to All-American teams—Pat O'Donahue and Hal Faverty in 1951, Don Voss in 1952, and Pat Richter in 1961. Others who were rated highly in conference and midwest all-star selections included Gene Felker (1950), Bob Wilson (1949), Ron Locklin (1953), James Temp (1954), Dave Howard (1955), Dave Kocourek (1958).

Paul is married and has one daughter, Deborah.

DERAL TETEAK

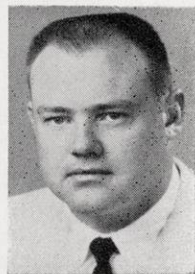

Assistant Coach

Deral Teteak, a 1953 University of Wisconsin graduate in physical education, was appointed assistant coach on March 6, 1958, moving up to the varsity to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Bob Odell. He served in 1957 as freshman coach.

Teteak, nicknamed "Little Bull", gained lasting fame in the memory of Wisconsin football fans as a member of the famed "Hard Rocks" of the 1951 season, starring as a linebacker on the defensive platoon. He was a regular in 1949, 1950, and 1951, and capped his senior year by being named to the All-Big Ten and All-Midwest honorary first team, and to a second team berth on the Chicago Tribune's All Player's All-American squad. His greatest collegiate football thrill occurred in the 1951 Pennsylvania-Wisconsin game when he scored a touchdown from his linebacking position on defense by recovering a Penn fumble in the end zone. Teteak played in the North-South Shrine game at Miami, Fla., following the 1951 season.

He enrolled at Wisconsin in 1947 after gaining All-State honors as a fullback at Oshkosh high school. His first high school rushing attempt netted 72 yards and a touchdown from the fullback position as a junior. He was a member of the North team in the second Wisconsin All-Star high school football game

CLARK VAN GALDER

Assistant Coach

Clark Van Galder, newest member of Wisconsin's football coaching staff, returned to familiar surroundings to embark on another phase of his interesting career, in January, 1959.

Van Galder

Born on Feb. 6, 1911, at Janesville, Wisconsin, Clark graduated from Janesville High School in 1928, and from LaCrosse State in 1932, with a B.A. degree. He participated in football, basketball, baseball, and track in his high school and collegiate days.

His first coaching job was at South Milwaukee high school, from 1932 to 1938, enjoying good success in football, basketball, and track. His 1934 football team won the Milwaukee Suburban conference title, his 1937 and 1938 basketball teams made the state tournament, the former placing second in Class B to Beaver Dam, and his 1935 track team won the state Class B title.

He then moved to Racine Washington Park high school, staying ten years, winning the 1939 Big Eight conference football title, the 1943 State High School Basketball crown, and his cage teams won or tied for five Big Eight titles.

In 1948 he moved to his alma mater to coach football and basketball, winning state college football crowns in 1949, 1950, and 1951, and compiling a 31-5-1 mark. His basketball teams won state collegiate titles in two of his four years at the helm.

He took over at Fresno State College, Fresno, California, in the autumn of 1952, and in seven years his teams won 44, lost 25, and had two tie games. His 1958 team won the California Collegiate Athletic Association football title with a 4-1 mark, though the season's record was 5-5.

Van Galder is married and has five sons, the oldest being Gary, a Stanford football star in 1956-57 at end, who is enrolled at an eastern medical school at the current time.

The new Badger assistant received his M.A. degree in education from the University of Southern California in 1952.

played at Camp Randall in August, 1947.

Teteak played professional football with the Green Bay Packers for five seasons, 1952-56, starring in a defensive role. He helped coach Wisconsin's varsity during spring drills in the 1953 and 1955 seasons.

Teteak was born in Oconto county, Wisconsin, on December 11, 1929, and is married. He is the father of three children.

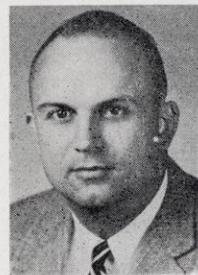

His younger brother, Dick, was regular center on Wisconsin's 1957 and 1958 teams.

FRED JACOBY

Freshman Coach

A highly successful high school coach at Madison West high school, Fred Jacoby was appointed Wisconsin freshman coach on March 6, 1958. His appointment followed the naming of former Badger assistant coach, Bob Odell, as head coach at Bucknell University, and the promotion of Deral Teteak to the varsity staff.

Fred is a 1948 Ohio State graduate in Physical Education. He hails from Logan, Ohio, is 34 years old, married and has one son, Thomas Frederick. He entered Ohio State with the intention of playing varsity football, but an injury sustained in his freshman year ended his playing days.

Jacoby

He has coached at Bremen, Ohio high school, Washington Court House, Ohio high school, and Madison West high school. His record at Bremen was 24-3 for three years, and at Washington Court House was 9-0 in his only season, 1952, at that school. Only his 1950 Bremen team did not win a championship.

Summer school study for his master's degree in Physical Education brought him to Wisconsin where he received the advanced degree in 1953. That same summer he was appointed to the head football coaching job at Madison West.

His five years at West produced the same success that marked his Ohio coaching career. A mediocre first season (1953) netted only three wins, five defeats, but in four ensuing seasons his teams won 27 of 32 games, winning one undisputed Big Eight conference title, sharing another, and finishing second the other two years. His 1957 team was the first unbeaten, untied team ever produced at West.

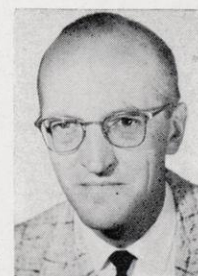

Fred is in charge of recruiting for the Wisconsin staff, and devotes much hard work in attracting to Wisconsin boys of high calibre, both in playing the game of football, and in accomplishing the scholastic work necessary for being eligible at Wisconsin.

"W" Club To Operate Badger Athletic Concessions

The National "W" Club has contracted to operate the concessions for the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department in Camp Randall Stadium, Wisconsin Fieldhouse, Camp Randall Memorial Building, and Guy Lowman Field, beginning July 1, 1962. Frank 'Moon' Molinaro, "W" Club president, announced recently. Previously the National "W" Club had contracted with private concessionaires to run the sports concessions at Madison.

George 'Buck' Backus, who managed Racine's Meadowbrook Country Club for 3½ years, has been appointed concession manager for the National "W" Club. He formerly managed Madison's Holiday Inn before establishing his own business—"Buck's Pizza Shop"—in the Midvale Shopping Center a few months ago.

Backus will have his office in Camp Randall Stadium.

WISCONSIN FOOTBALL PROSPECTS FOR 1962

Wisconsin's 1962 football team—the 7th guided by Coach Milt Bruhn and his staff—will be a strong contender for a first division Big Ten berth, and the Badgers appear capable of improving on their fifth place finish of last season. The outlook appears favorable for a number of reasons—

- All-American end, co-captain, and all-around athlete Pat Richter heads a group of 18 returning lettermen that give the Badgers a nucleus of experienced personnel around which to mold the 1962 team;

- Backfield speed which asserted itself last year in the persons of Bill Smith, Jim Nettles, and Louis Holland is augmented this year by newcomers Frederic Reichardt, Carl Silvestri, Ron Smith, and Ron Frain.

- Unusual depth, especially at tackle, guard, halfback and fullback positions protects against the 'unknown' quantities of a rugged schedule.

However, Bruhn cautions the enthusiastic observer to consider these points:

- 1)—The departure of Ron Miller at the vital quarterback position; with Miller at the helm the Badgers had a trump hand in a strong and varied passing attack that could strike from anywhere on the gridiron for quick scores. The aerial attack in 1961 paced the nation at an average of 188.4 yards per game, and was even better in the Big Ten, averaging 196.7 yards per game.

- 2)—The loss of punting and field goal expert Jim Bakken, a substitute for Miller at quarterback who became the first Big Ten punter of the modern era to repeat as punting leader (1960 and 1961) averaging 41.2 per kick last year.

- 3)—Inexperience of the sophomores at tackle and guard;

- 4)—Ken Bowman, an outstanding 6-2, 206 pound junior, is the only proven candidate for the center position, and Bruhn and his staff must do some switching of personnel here to protect this position; already Joe Heckl, 6-0, 215 has been switched back to center from guard, and it is contemplated to move tackle Mike McCoy, a sophomore, to center on defense.

The presence of Pat Richter at right end should be a welcome sight for the young men hoping to earn the quarterback position on the 1962 team; Richter holds every conceivable Wisconsin school record for pass catching. His 6-5½, 229 pound frame is an inviting target for a passing quarterback, and 'Big Pat' has the hands to catch anything thrown near him. He may also do some of the punting.

Veterans Ron Carlson, 6-3, 214, and Elmars Ezerins, who did not win a major "W" award in 1961, plus junior varsity award winner Larry Howard are counted upon for good years. Carlson, especially, is adept at playing defensive end.

Sophomores with promise — Ron Leafblad, 6-1, 187, who missed 1961 with a back injury; Ralph Farmer, 6-5, 217, and Duncan Hoffman, 6-0, 205, add depth to the flank positions.

Four veteran tackles return, but only senior Dale Matthews, who played guard in 1960, and 312½ minutes at left tackle last year, has seen much collegiate action. Jim Jax, a senior, and juniors Roger Pillath and Andy Wojdula, all played under 90 minutes last year.

Newcomers who add a sparkle to ex-line coach Bruhn's eyes at this position include Al Piraino, 6-5, 247; Lee Bernet, 6-2, 243; Roger Jacobazzi, 6-2½, 229; and Niles McMaster, 6-2, 212 pounds.

Co-Captain Steve Underwood and Jim Schenk, both seniors, and junior Dion Kempthorne are major "W" award winning guards returning for action, along with Mike Gross, a junior varsity award winner last year, who showed rapid last season improvement.

Here, too, sophomore help is available and adequate, with Jon Hohman, 6-0, 215; Steve Young, 5-10, 208; Ernest von Heimburg, 6-0, 260, and Mike Cox, 6-0, 205 all showing fine potential.

The Badgers are strong offensively and defensively in the backfield, and the five-deep listing of Wisconsin's right and left halfback positions finds more depth and talent available than has been the case in many years on the Madison campus.

1961's sophomores—Bill Smith, Louis Holland, and Jim Nettles—who made such a fine impression with their competitiveness, are now juniors, and their talents will be supplemented by newcomers Frederic 'Rick' Reichardt, 6-3, 208; Carl Silvestri, 5-11, 180; Ron Smith, 6-½, 175, and Ron Frain, 6-0, 180, at these positions. Additionally, senior Gary Kroner, 6-0, 189, appears ready for a fine final year, and he'll probably blossom into the team's punter.

Halfback talent being what it is, senior Merritt Norvell found himself switched to fullback in spring drills, and his presence there gave Bruhn four top-notch fullbacks. Juniors Jim Purnell and Jerry McKinney won major "W" awards at the position last year. Purnell's defensive ability may find him switched to a defensive end in the autumn, while McKinney can be an explosive offensive performer.

Sophomore Ralph Kurek, 6-2, 197, has the potential and desire to become as fine an all-around fullback as Wisconsin has had over the years. No one can rest on his laurels in Wisconsin's backfield in 1962.

The biggest problem, though, remains at quarterback.

Seniors Ran VanderKelen, 6-0, 180, and John Fabry, 6-2, 195, both have had limited collegiate experience. Fabry, over the course of the past two seasons, has seen limited action, has attempted 48 passes, completed 22, had two intercepted, good for 228 yards and no TD passes.

VanderKelen, the best defensive performer among the quarterback candidates, played a bare 1½ minutes against Marquette in 1959; he missed the 1960 season due to an operation on his knee, then sat out 1961 due to academic ineligibility.

Junior Arnold Quaerna, 5-11, 172, Janesville, saw limited action against Iowa and Illinois in 1961, and may surprise.

But, the hope for finding a capable replacement for Ron Miller seems to lie in the talents of a tall (6-3, 192), freckle-faced sophomore, Harold Brandt, a left-handed passer from Hinsdale, Ill.

He ran the attack well in spring drills, and showed pinpoint passing—at least on the short passes. He showed poise and gained confidence as the drills progressed toward their conclusion.

Brandt, VanderKelen, Fabry, and Quaerna, then, are the top candidates. Brandt's development will be the key to Wisconsin's success in 1962.

TOP RETURNEES — Undoubtedly Jim 'Preacher' Pilot, 5-10, 195 pound senior tailback, who paced all major college backs in rushing and scoring in 1961, presents the biggest threat to the Badgers in this first meeting of the two schools on the gridiron. Pilot carried the ball 191 times last year for 1,278 yards, an average of 6.7 yards per carry, scored 21 touchdowns and six two-point conversions for 138 points. In both categories of play he paced NCAA statistics at year's end.

A 9.8 sprinter for the 100 yards, Pilot runs with power, being especially noted for 'second effort'. He is also rated a fine defensive back.

Tackle Don Yannessa, 6-2, 235 senior, quarterbacks Armando Alba, switched from halfback, and Don Rier-son, and halfback Dave Thompson, second leading pass receiver on the 1961 squad (11 for 202 yards) are other top veterans.

carry over two seasons; Halfback Marv Woodson, leading ground gainer and scorer in 1961 sophomore season; Center Jack Holder, who averaged more than 40 minutes a game last season; a veteran guard trio of Larry Coleman, Ken Ellis and Mike Wasdovich, who with Holder promises a strong middle line; 1961 defensive back Woody Moore, who takes on offensive quarterbacking duties this fall; Tackles Ralph Poehls, a 1961 starter, and Jeff Slabaugh. Problems at end, where only one letterman returns, and quarterback, where it's all sophomore after Moore.

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH: Sophomores prominent at all positions but particularly so at ends and quarter-back. Best end prospects include Lorenzo Ashley and Doug Ferry; Tackles Bob Gergely and Tony Grigutis highly regarded; top two sophomore linemen probably Guards Melvin Branch and Don Croft-check; Tom Erickson figures strongly at halfback and Doug Spicer at wingback, while Fullback Tom Nowatzke starred in spring game and appears to have a bright future.

TOP RETURNEES: Michigan has top quarterback strength in lettermen Dave Glinka, Bob Chandler, plus Frosty Evashevski, injured last year, and sophomore Bob Timberlake, all fine throwers and capable runners. Dave Raimey at right half with 8 TD's last year and 5-yard average, second only to McRae, top halfback threat; Joe O'Donnell and John Houtman, both should be capable tackles with John Minko a top guard in any league. Captain Bob Brown at end caught three TD passes last year. Loss of 7 starters is a handicap but with some promising newcomers, some of the slack will be taken up.

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH: Bob Timberlake, a 6-4, 202-pound quarterback with speed and passing ability should play considerably despite the veterans ahead of him. Jim Green, center, stepped into the top spot in spring practice and seems destined to remain there. Richard Hahn, a rugged young guard; John Henderson, a fleet, pass-grabbing end and Dick Rindfuss, a good possibility at left halfback.

TOP RETURNEES: Tackles Bobby Bell and Carl Lee Eller give the Gophers quality at this position; Bell is 1961 All-American choice. Halfbacks Bill Munsey and Jim Cairns are two fine Big Ten caliber halfbacks. Munsey is fastest Gopher griddier and is a hard-running, durable back. Cairns is more the elusive, tricky type runner. Jerry Jones at fullback will be remembered by Badger fans as a strong runner with fine potential.

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH: In the backfield Allan Galloway from Alderson, West Virginia and Dick Harren, St. Paul, appear best bets for future stardom. Top lineman given chance to break into Gophers' starting line-up is Frank Marchlewski, 6-2, 215 pounds, from Parnassus, Pa. He is rugged, aggressive, and may play both ways.

Wisconsin completed its 1961-62 school year athletic competition with nine of its teams finishing in the first division of the Big Ten, including the Indoor Track championship. OVERALL SUMMARY

Wisconsin vs.	W	L	Pct.
Illinois	7	4	.636
Iowa	7	10	.412
Indiana	4	4	.500
Michigan	2	5	.286
Michigan State	4	6	.400

Northwestern	8	2	.800
Ohio State	4	5	.444
Purdue	4	2	.667
TOTALS	48	42	.533

In Big Ten competition, Wisconsin won 48 contests, lost 42, for a winning percentage of .533, the first time since 1953-54 that Badger athletic teams have been able to post a winning season against their Big Ten rivals. Overall, the Badgers' .602 winning record was their best since 1954-55 when they had an overall .600 winning percentage, and their first winning season overall since 1955-56.

The Badgers posted their finest Big Ten records against Northwestern, 8-2, Minnesota, 8-4, Purdue, 4-2, and Illinois, 7-4 during the past school year. The reversal of form against Minnesota was most striking, as Wisconsin had defeated the Gophers just one time—in basketball—in 12 meetings during the 1960-61 school year.
