St. Mary's Russian Orthodox Church
Cornucopia, Wisconsin 54827

Dear Peter:

It's been quite a while since I darkened the doors of St. Mary's. I regret that I haven't been up there. My friend, Patty, that I brought to a service with my family, will soon be moving up to Cornucopia and we've both made a pact with each other to stop by the church more frequently. I'm finally returning the National Geographic you loaned me on the Ukrainian Easter eggs and Polish heritage. The article on Poland was quite useful since I developed a slide show on Polish heritage and showed it to the people in Rhinelander in July. As the holiday season draws near, I anticipate the choir is practicing for the Christmas celebration. I was wondering if I might be able to record that service or maybe a practice before it if you feel recording the actual service would be inappropriate.

I regret having to take off so early that July Sunday, but my family really wanted to get back early and I didn't want to let them go without enjoying a few hours with them. I think you would understand that.

Say hi to Nick for me and I do hope to make it up there sometime during the holiday season. I miss you folks . . .

Sincerely,
