The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.
If we have time, we’ll sing.
If you do it right, I’ll give you something.
If you behave, I’ll give you something.
If you go to town, what will you see?
If you go in the woods, what will you see?
If you go in the store, what will you see?
If you go in the barn, what will you see?
