The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Mr Downey

will you allow me to claim a Ladies privilege & change my mind - some of my friends ~~that~~ think it such a piece of folly for me to have an expensive Clock made, that I would give up the idea if it would not be too much for me to ask after all that has been said & done - I am willing to pay you for your trouble and expense if you will release me & forgive my febleness -

I am with some mortification yours respectfully

Sarah Nicoll
