INCREASE IN AGRICULTURE

NEW STUDENTS REGISTERED THIS TERM.

WHO THEY ARE AND WHERE THEY COME FROM.

A Total of 101 in the Dairy and 103 in the Short Course.

The Agricultural College opens its winter term with a material increase in the number of pupils. The winter term finds five graduate students in attendance, most of whom have come for the purpose of preparing themselves for teaching special lines in other Agricultural Colleges. The short course students number nineteen pursuing second year study, and eighty four in the first year's class. Of the Dairy students there are one hundred and one now registered. There are three long course and one special agricultural student, ranking sophomore. The total registered for the whole college therefore amounts to two hundred and thirteen. Last year it was one hundred and seventy-five. This is an increase of over 20 per cent., wholly due to the larger attendance of graduate students and short course students. The Dairy School accommodations are limited to one hundred pupils; Prof. Henry states that probably two hundred pupils would have been in attendance had there been sufficient accommodations.

The names of all agricultural students, excepting those in the long course, which appear in the directory are herewith given.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS MEET

AND CONSIDER INTERCOLLEGiate ATHLETICS.

RULES AND RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

What President Adams Says—Football
Not the Only Sport Considered.

Last Friday evening the following university presidents held a meeting at the Auditorium hotel, in Chicago: C. K. Adams, Wisconsin; Cyrus Northrup, Minnesota; A. S. Draper, Illinois; W. R. Harper, Chicago, and J. H. Smart of Purdue. President Adams acted as chairman, and President Rogers as secretary, of the meeting. The proceedings were secret and only the following resolutions and rules were given out:

Resolved, That we call on the expert managers of football to so revise the rules of the game that the liability to injury shall be reduced to a minimum.

Resolved, That we call upon all college and university authorities to put forth every practicable effort to prevent professionalism of every form in intercollegiate games; to make every such game an honorable contest of athletic skill by excluding from any participation in it all persons who are not regularly enrolled students doing full work as such.

Rules adopted by the president are as follows:

1. That each college and university that has not already done so appoint a committee on college athletics who shall take general supervision of all athletic matters in their respective colleges or universities, and who shall have all responsibility of enforcing the college or university rules regarding athletics, and all intercollegiate sports.

2. No one shall participate in any game or athletic sport unless he be a bona fide student doing full work in a regular or special course as defined in the curriculum of his college; and no person who has participated in any match game as a member of any college team shall be permitted to participate in any game as a member of another college team until he has been a matriculant in said college under the above conditions for a period of six months. This rule shall not apply to students who, having graduated at one college, shall enter another college for professional or graduate study.

3. That no person shall be admitted to any intercollegiate contest who receives any gifts, remuneration or pay for his services on a college team.

4. Any student of any institution who shall be pursuing any regular, prescribed, resident or graduate course within such institution, whether for an advanced degree in professional or graduate schools, may be permitted to play for a period of minimum number of years required for securing the graduate or professional degree for which he is a candidate.

4. No person who has been employed in training a college team for intercollegiate contests will be allowed to participate in any intercollegiate contest as a member of any team which he has trained, and no professional athlete and no person who has ever been a member of any professional team shall ever play in any intercollegiate contest.

6. No student shall play in any game under an assumed name.

7. No student will be permitted to participate in any intercollegiate contest who is found by the faculty to be deficient in any of his studies.

8. All games shall be played on grounds either owned or under the immediate control of one or both of the colleges participating in the contest, and all games shall be played under student management and not under the patronage or control of any other corporation, association or private individual.

9. The election of managers and captains of teams of each college shall be subject to the approval of the committee on athletics.

10. College teams shall not engage in any games with professional teams nor with those representing so-called athletic clubs.

11. That before every intercollegiate contest a list of men proposed to play shall be presented by each team or teams to the other or others, certifying that all the members are entitled to play under the rules and conditions adopted, such rules to be signed by the registrar or secretary. It shall be the duty of the captain to enforce this rule.

GYMNASIUM OPEN.

Beginning Tomorrow Evening—Three Nights a week.

Starting with tomorrow evening the gymnasium will be open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and on Saturday evening the bath rooms only will be open for use.

The board of Regents at their last meeting decided to try this as an experiment, and if it was well patronized by the students it would be continued.

There is considerable expense incurred by heating and lighting during the evening and the students should appreciate the privilege granted them, and is rarely done in similar institutions. The work will be taken up, training for gymnastic exhibitions to be given later in the term under the direction of Prof. Elsom or Mr. Everett who will be there every evening. The use of the floor is not restricted to those who wish to train for the exhibition, but all can have the use of the floor and apparatus.

BOARD OF REGENTS.

The board of regents will meet in their room in the Law building tomorrow at 2 p. m. This will be the last meeting of the present board as the terms of several of the members expire soon.

Regents H. W. Chynoweth, of Madison; N. D. Fratt, of Racine, Charles Keith, of Reedsburg; H. B. Dale, of Oshkosh and Orlando E. Clark, of Appleton, are the ones whose places will be vacant in 1895. Any considerable change in the board is improbable, however as most of these men will probably be reappointed.

The rules adopted by the conference of college presidents will doubtless be the subject of much discussion, as they have been looked forward to by men interested in athletics, for a long time. But it must not be understood that they are binding as published in another part of this issue. They have all to be ratified by the different faculties. Indeed, President Adams stated in the conference that Wisconsin could not concur in Rule 10, except perhaps in regard to foot ball. It would be manifestly out of question as applied to rowing, for in the past at least Wisconsin's rivals on the water have been athletic or rather boat clubs, and they have always been the fairest and most honorable of competitors. So too in base ball. Pres. Adams sees no harm in playing professional teams so long as the games are on University grounds and under University management. The practical experience derived from such games is as valuable as that gained in college games and often much more so. For this reason it is pretty certain that Rule 10, will not be ratified by the faculty and others may also be changed.

—State Superintendent Emery has appointed Miss Kate L. Sabin, '93, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of John M. Nelson, county superintendent for the eastern district of Dane county.

CHICAGO'S DEFEAT EXPLAINED.

Henry Gale, the Varsity full back, who arrived here from California, Saturday, in advance of the team, offers the following explanation of Chicago's defeat by Stanford, after having won so easily Christmas Day.

"In the first game," he said, "we had everything our own way except the umpire in the first half. We would get the ball again to their fifteen yard line, when it would be taken from us for off-side play or holding. Our line held beautifully. It was absolutely impervious to the beefy Stanford team. We got the ball several times on downs, but the umpire's ruling took it away from us. In fact, we got the ball two feet over the line, but the umpire claimed it was only on the line and gave it to Stanford.

"In the second half the ruling was perfectly fair under the new umpire and we walked away from the Stanfords. At Los Angeles we were at a disadvantage. The climate was very warm and our team was oppressed by it. We couldn't get the quick, snappy play that practically won for us the game on Christmas. The ground was very heavy and made our interference just slow enough for the opposing tackles to break it up before our runners could pass the critical point. The Stanford tackles were stars. They were not able to break through the line, but they withstood our massing on the tackles in a wonderful manner.

"Our line didn't hold so well in the second game as in the first. Stanford hit our center hard. They would get through between Wyant and Rulkoetter and Allen and Röby for ten yards at a clip. Then the Stanford team played a hard game on the twenty-ninth. They went in with recklessness and determination to win. I think we won the first game through our quick, snappy playing, and the splendid strength of our line even against a much heavier team. In the second game we were handicapped by the warm climate, which made the team lethargic and entirely lacking in the vim and daring of the former game, and by the heavy grounds, which prevented us from getting our interference in play quick enough. We were treated royally by the Stanford players. Both teams stopped at the Pleasanton Hotel in San Francisco. Christmas night the Stanford players gave us a banquet, and in other ways made our stay pleasant.—U. of C. Weekly.

IOWA FOOTBALL.

The prospect for foot ball in 1895 are not very bright at the present time. At the College Department of the Teachers' Association the professors of the different Colleges adopted resolutions concerning foot ball which were in substance as follows: "That we hereby agree to suspend all intercollegiate games of foot ball in our respective institutions until the accepted rules and safeguards of the game shall have been so modified as to make it proper to be played by gentlemen." It seems that the professors were very unfortunate in wording the resolutions as they did. One would infer from the wording of the resolutions that those who played on the teams last year were not "gentlemen." It may be, and no doubt is true, that some foot ball players are not as gentlemanly in their actions as they might be, but the same is true of any team or organization. Any attempt to weed out such persons by adopting resolutions worded as those indicated we believe will be an utter failure. It has been suggested that the resolutions were not intended to convey the impression which most people derive from them. This may be true, but the reading public will take them for their face value. It is our opinion that their tendency, in so far as they will have any effect at all, will be to discourage the better class of students from playing.—Vidette Reporter.

PRESIDENT HARPER ON FOOTBALL.

President Harper, of Chicago University, made the following remarks on college athletics in his address at the January convocation. "Much ado is being made at the present time about college athletics. Because in some cases there have been exhibitions of brutality a hue and cry has been raised against some of the most popular forms of athletic activity. It is the old story of use and abuse. That which may be abused must not be used. But the principle, if carried out, would work vast mischief. There is no virtue which may not be made a vice. Shall everything capable of abuse be given up or shall we not perform a greater service under proper rules and regulations? We may grant that limbs are broken and lives lost; but we must remember that there is no form of life's activity which is not attended with risk. We close our eyes to all danger to life and limb when questions of business are concerned. If the world can afford to sacrifice the lives of men for commercial gain, it can much more easily accord to make similar sacrifices upon the altar of vigorous and unsullied manhood. The question of a life or a score of lives is nothing compared with that of moral purity, human self restraint, in the interests of which, among college men, outdoor athletic sports contribute more than all other agencies combined. (Applause.) If athletics have been prostituted by gamblers and pugilists, let the college world come to the rescue and assign them to the place to which they belong.

"Woe betide the day when our college men, without temptations of every kind besetting them, become slothful, so demoralized, so diseased, as to lose their interest in athletics. In the University of Chicago athletic work is directly and exclusively under the control of the University authorities. It will so remain. The University has encouraged athletic sports: it will continue to encourage them. We believe that this is an important part of college and University life. We shall see to it, however, that no man upon a University team shall ever have a second opportunity to disgrace either himself or the University. (Applause.) At home and with the teams of other institutions we shall endeavor to cultivate a spirit that shall be in the truest sense elevating."
