The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Gail + Bonnie:

So much to do, settling.

We moved out Sat. - Al's son George was able to help.

It was the 13th and a beautiful day as we drove thru the Kettle Moraine - and on that day in my mail box here was

T + G, the Jonathan Williams book. So here is your copy. I recd. 10 and already 9 have melted away!

I think you are Teaching but longer hours away from home than formerly?

Call me at your leisure.

Hope you have Saturdays + Sundays
to yourselves —

Lorine

PS — Across the river from us where all the noise of road building was heard a while ago — it is going to be ~~a~~ public hunting grounds — Lord, I hope nobody uses a gun that reaches across the river or chops down any trees or underbrush — I understand there are 11 deer over there if not more.
