Reports of Game Received at Library Hall.

FINE MASS MEETING

IMMENSE CROWD GIVES TEAM A GREAT SEND-OFF.

McGowan, Riordan and Tratt Elected to Board of Directors—Statistics of Two Teams.

Tickets for the game are on sale at Sid. Rundell's. Half of the number of tickets sent down from Minneapolis have already been sold.

The student mass meeting at Library hall last night was a deluge of enthusiasm. Seven or eight hundred people crowded into the historic place to practice the rooting that has been the inspiration of Wisconsin's teams on many a hard fought field. Upwards of two hundred women students were in the audience.

Lon Chamberlain, president of the Athletic Association, presided over the meeting. Preliminary to the inspirational part of the program a special meeting of the association was held. After the reading of the record of the previous meeting Secretary King, the election of three student members of the Athletic Board of Directors took place. The names of Student-Manager Wheeler, Track-Captain McGowan, Paul Tratt and "Jere" Riordan were placed in nomination. The ballot resulted as follows: McGowan, 605; Riordan, 545; Tratt, 337; Wheeler 234. McGowan, Tratt and Riordan were declared elected.

In the mass meeting speeches were made by Acting-President Birge, Attorneys A. L. Sanborn and E. Ray Stevens, Coach King and some members of the team. Although no one was willing to prophesy a victory on Saturday still there was a strong undercurrent of confidence displayed.

Team Leaves.

The team was given a very enthusiastic send-off as it left for Minneapolis this morning at 12:40. There was a crowd of about two hundred students on hand as the train pulled in. The arrival of the bus containing the eleven was the occasion for a great volume of cheers and the singing of "Hot Time." Phil King and Capt. Chamberlain were called out of the special car by the persistent demands of the crowd and responded with short, well-put speeches. Both said in substance that the team appreciated the hearty support it received and that they would do their level best to deserve it by giving cause for rejoicing this coming Saturday. The train pulled out just as Chamberlain completed his remarks. Forty-six went this morning including a few who are not directly connected with the team. Twenty of the High School team leave this evening at 9. They play the Central High School Saturday morning. Agent Hinrichs reports some one hundred and sixty berths sold so far in the special train and only a few more left. At least three hundred have purchased tickets so far.

SPECIAL DISPATCH.

Minneapolis, Oct. 31.

Coach Williams and the entire squad of Gopher football players are spending the week previous to the Wisconsin game at Lake Minnetonka in hard training. None of the squad are asked to attend classes and can therefore devote their entire time to training and practice.

If you don't go to the game hear the full reports of it at Library hall, Saturday afternoon.

JUNIOR PROM

PRESIDENT OF CLASS OF 1902 AP- POINTS THE COMMITTEE.

Excellent Committees for Annual Society Event—All Courses Represented—The Names.

In accordance with the regular custom the president of the junior class has appointed the committee which shall have in charge the annual society event, usually held after examination for the first semester,—the Junior Promenade. The president has found it a difficult task to appoint this committee with perfect fairness to all and sincerely trusts that it will meet with general favor in the class.
Following are the appointments:

Arrangement—Chairman, Frederick A. Vogel. R. Tynes Smith, Robert M.
Davis, Arthur H. Curtis and Clarence J. Du Four.

Reception—Chairman, Fred H. Carpenter. Arthur B. Grindell, John V.
Brennan, Harold G. Ferris, Bertram
F. Adams and Eugene A. Balsley.

Floor—Chairman, Charles E. Long.
Samuel G. Higgins, George A. Scott, Harry W. Cole, Lucius S. Bergstrom and Archie R. Murray.

Carl F. Stillman,
President.

WANTS HOLIDAY MONDAY.

Senior Presents Argument Why There Should be no Recitations.

To the Editor:

Owing to the fact that so many of the students are going home next Tuesday to vote, does it not seem advisable to dispense with recitations on Monday? That a large percentage of the students will be out of the city is unquestionable, and that many more would be enabled to go by such a ruling is evident. Many of the students' names have been given in for registration here in Madison by those interesting themselves in the election. Many of these students do not wish to state that this is their residence, and consequently if they do vote they will do so in opposition to their principles. Every man ought to be at liberty to cast his ballot, especially at a national election, but the ruling regarding absences from classes is being drawn so close that the conscientious student is unwilling to cut.

It is also doubtful, owing to the week being broken into by Tuesday's recess, whether any good to the greater number of the students will be possible. The excitement resulting from the football game will not be over as it would if things were to settle down again for continuous work. Monday's recitations will be listless and unprofitable because of the election excitement of the next day, and, everything considered and carefully weighed, it would seem that Monday's recitations ought to be dispensed with.

Saturday afternoon.

Friday night as usual the various literary societies hold forth in their respective homes and the loyal and eloquent sons of these societies may regularly be heard discussing the issues and questions of the day. These debates are open to all and visitors are always cordially welcomed to the sessions. The good which would be reaped would be unmeasurable for it is the aim of the debaters to present and discuss the various topics in a clear and logical way thus imparting a variety of useful knowledge.

This is the especially good and busy season of the societies as they are choosing the new members from the many freshmen who are searching eloquence and parliamentary training.
Fortunately this year the new members are unusually able and as a result have greatly fortified various societies. The critics not uncustomary remark has been passed on these new acquisitions and it is "with practice these men promise to become very good debaters." As the number of applicants for admission have been very large, closer investigation has been necessary.

Athenae.

The chanticleer that roosts in Athenae's branches has welcomed and closely scrutinized the following men of the class of 1904:

Barnard, Thiede, John, Gillis, Arnold, Davidson, Schockey, Beule, Ferguson, Ludlow, Marquissee, Trump, Kelseg, Menzies, Blackman.

Athenae's program for tomorrow evening promises to be a very interesting one and is

Resolved, that church property should be taxed: Affirmative—Gust (closer), Thiede, A. John, Sprecher, Jorstad, Oldrich. Negative—Janes (closer), McGilis, Schockey, Thuerer, Hotchkiss, Davis.

Second debate. Resolved, that Samuel J. Tilden was rightfully elected president in 1876. Affirmative—Nielson (closer), Beule, Davidson, Gro-man, Hopkins, Macartney, Bredsteen.
Negative—Rounds (closer), Arnold, Ferguson, Mowry, Nelson, Graham,
E. Allen.

Jury—Baldwin, Angell, Peterson, Marquissee, Flint.

Critic—Morgan.

Hesperia.

Hesperia with the purpose of developing orators has incorporated into her weekly program the orations of five of her members. This is certainly a very good plan and should be indorsed by other societies. Her program for tomorrow night is:

Debate—Would a general partition of China among the powers further the cause of progress and civilization?
Affirmative Strehlow (closer), Edwards, Carthew, Larson, Matthews, Brindley, Campbell. Negative—Starks (closer), Steinbrecker, Lachmund, Clough, Hagganah, Masters, Huebner.

Oration—Carr.

Debate—Would the temporary disfranchisement of the negro result in his ultimate good. Affirmative—Libby (closer), Fuller, Roetke, Wehe.
Negative—Smith A., Yager, Hulls, Berg, Barry.

Orations—Bucklin, Cronk, Lee, Higgins.

Hesperia has taken in the following men this year:

Groves, Steinbrecker, Edwards, Fuller, Yager, Drew, Enfield.

Cheer; Wisconsin!

The Wisconsin spirit displayed at the mass meeting last night was certainly of the proper kind, but the enthusiasm must be kept up until after the game Saturday. The Minnesota game undoubtedly will be our hardest game and may be the game which will decide the championship of the west. Everybody should take a megaphone to Minneapolis with him and show the Gophers what real rooting is. Let us maintain our "rooting" in the high place it has occupied previous years and make Wisconsin's cheering heard above all other rooting in the west.

Literary Work.

A great opportunity is offered to students of the University in the different lines of literary work. It is a fact to be regretted that there are so few of the undergraduates who try any literary or journalistic work outside of the class-room. The Cardinal, Badger, and Sphinx are necessarily the work of a small proportion of students. Work on any of these publications is open to any student and there should be as many applicants for literary honors as there are candidates for the football team or crew. Every person has a certain amount of ability in these lines which is dormant as it were and which could be greatly increased by at least trying to develop it. Of course it is impossible for everyone to be an author or journalist but college life is a good time for one to experiment with himself and no one will lose anything in putting forth an effort in this kind of work. Then again it would be beneficial to the University as a whole as it would raise the standard of our already excellent publications.

If you don't go to the game hear the full reports of it at Library hall, Saturday afternoon.

No Law Recitations Monday.

Dean Bryant announced before the college of Law this morning that no recitations would be held in that department Monday. To make up for this, recitations will be held Saturday, Nov. 3rd.

Full reports of the Minnesota game will be received by special wire at Library hall, Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Athletic Association. Admission 25c.

Fancy Dress Entertainment.

A very unique fancy dress entertainment was given at Ladies' Hall last evening. This has become an annual Halloween affair. There were ten tables in the dining room and each given some novel form of amusement, such as the Old-fashioned School, Mrs. Jarley's wax works, the witch's dance, House that Jack built, etc. Dancing followed in the gymnasium. There were two hundred or more present.

Don't miss hearing the full reports of the Minnesota game at Library hall, Saturday afternoon.

The Daily Cardinal is in receipt of a neat pamphlet entitled, "A Brief History of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway and of the Development of the Territory through which it runs." It is an abridged history of this great line from the opening of the railway, February 25, 1851, when it was but twenty miles in length, until the present day, when it has 6,396 miles of railway. This represents the growth of the road and its history is largely the history of the development and progress of Wisconsin and the surrounding states.
