A SELECTION OF

SPIRITUAL SONGS

WITH MUSIC

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE CHOIR.

SELECTED AND ARRANGED BY REV. CHARLES S. ROBINSON, D.D.

SCRIBNER & CO., NEW-YORK.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1878, by SCRIENER & Co. In the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington. M AN R S

PREFACE.

M 2117 R6 54

> THE compiler of this book has never assumed that he had received any special call to the work of preparing a Manual of Worship for all Christian people, although this is the third which has appeared with his name. Each of these has had its peculiarity, and for each of them in turn he has had a local reason and a recognized invitation.

> The present selection has been gathered for the use of a few pastors, who desire it for the churches to which they are ministering. It is issued in the usual way, because the conjecture is hazarded that other congregations, like those, may find it adapted to their needs also.

> Still, it would be an affectation for him to profess any indifference to the manifest favor with which his efforts in this direction have been received hitherto. If there be one thing more than another which at the same moment humbles and rejoices a Christian heart, it is the consciousness that unostentatious endeavor, costing care and toil to him who attempts it, is setting other hearts singing on their way to heaven.

> It moves him inexpressibly to think, as he commits this volume to the charities of his brethren of every name, and leaves it to the acceptance of God, that there may be many groups of Christ's children lifting the melodies of these Spiritual Songs, to which he will never listen. He has but a single prayer left for himself,—that he may sing one new song with them all by and by.

CHAS. S. ROBINSON.

SPIRITUAL SONGS.

How PLEASED and blest was I, To hear the people cry, "Come, let us seek our God to-day !" Yes, with a cheerful zeal, We haste to Zion's hill, And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion—thrice happy place— Adorned with wondrous grace, While walls of strength embrace thee round: For here my friends and kindred dwell: In thee our tribes appear, To pray, and praise, and hear The sacred gospel's joyful sound. 1

3 May peace attend thy gate. And joy within thee wait, To bless the soul of every guest: The man who seeks thy peace, And wishes thine increase. A thousand blessings on him rest!

4 My tongue repeats her vows. "Peace to this sacred house !" And since my glorious God Makes thee his blest abode, My soul shall ever love thee well.

THE LORD'S DAY.

LORD, we come before thee now, At thy feet we humbly bow; Oh, do not our suit disdain ! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend, In compassion now descend; Fill our hearts with thy rich grace, Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 In thine own appointed way, Now we seek thee; here we stay; Lord, we know not how to go, Till a blessing thou bestow.

4 Comfort those who weep and mourn; Let the time of joy return; Those that are cast down lift up; Make them strong in faith and hope.

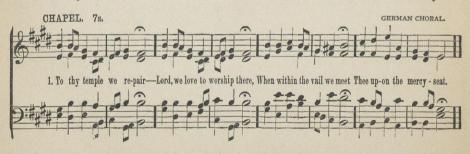

5 Grant that all may seek and find Thee a God supremely kind; Heal the sick; the captive free; Let us all rejoice in thee. D Jesus intercedes. J. MONTGOMERY. To THY temple we repair— Lord, we love to worship there, When within the vail we meet Thee upon the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious name is sung, Tune our lips—unloose our tongue; Then our joyful souls shall bless Thee, the Lord our Righteousness.

3 While to thee our prayers ascend, Let thine ear in love attend; Hear us, for thy Spirit pleads— Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While thy word is heard with awe, While we tremble at thy law, Let thy gospel's wondrous love Every doubt and fear remove.

5 From thy house when we return, Let our hearts within us burn; That at evening we may say— "We have walked with God to-day."

Psalm 23. To THY pastures fair and large, Heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge, And my couch, with tenderest care, 'Mid the springing grass prepare. 2 When I faint with summer's heat, Thou shalt guide my weary feet To the streams that, still and slow, Through the verdant meadows flow. 3 Safe the dreary vale I tread, By the shades of death o'erspread, With thy rod and staff supplied, This my guard—and that my guide. 4 Constant to my latest end, Thou my footsteps shalt attend; And shalt bid thy hallowed dome Yield me an eternal home.

Twilight. S. F. SMITH. SOFTLY fades the twilight ray Of the holy Sabbath day; Gently as life's setting sun, When the Christian's course is run. 2 Peace is on the world abroad; 'T is the holy peace of God-Symbol of the peace within When the spirit rests from sin. 3 Still the Spirit lingers near, Where the evening worshiper Seeks communion with the skies, Pressing onward to the prize. 4 Saviour! may our Sabbaths be Days of joy and peace in thee, Till in heaven our souls repose, Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

These solemn, consecrated hours; Oh, may our souls, adoring, own The grace that calls us to thy throne. Then shall the day indeed be thine; Then shall our souls, adoring, own The grace which calls us to thy throne.

Psaim 23. J. ADDISON. THE Lord my pasture shall prepare, And feed me with a shepherd's care; His presence shall my wants supply, And guard me with a watchful eye; My noonday walks he shall attend, And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint, Or on the thirsty mountain pant, To fertile vales, and dewy meads, My weary, wandering steps he leads; Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow, Amid the verdant landscape flow. 5

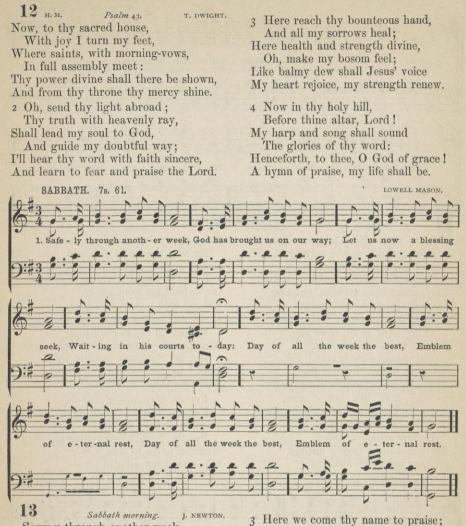

3 Though in a bare and rugged way, Through devious, lonely wilds I stray, Thy presence shall my pains beguile: The barren wilderness shall smile, With sudden greens and herbage crowned; And streams shall murmur all around.

The morning light salutes mine eyes, O Sun of righteousness divine, On me with beams of mercy shine !

And, as each morning sun shall rise, Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in his courts to-day:

Day of all the week the best, Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace, Through the dear Redeemer's name, Show thy reconciling face—

Take away our sin and shame; From our worldly cares set free,— May we rest this day in thee. 3 Here we come thy name to praise; Let us feel thy presence near;

May thy glory meet our eyes, While we in thy house appear: Here afford us, Lord, a taste Of our everlasting feast.

4 May thy gospel's joyful sound Conquer sinners, comfort saints; Make the fruits of grace abound,

Bring relief for all complaints: Thus let all our Sabbaths prove, Till we rest in thee above. 7

THE LORD'S DAY.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies, Christ, the true, the only light, Sun of Righteousness, arise,

Triumph o'er the shades of night; Day-spring from on high, be near, Day-star in my heart appear.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn, If thy light is hid from me;

Joyless is the day's return, Till thy mercy's beams I see;

Till they inward light impart, Warmth and gladness to my heart.

3 Visit, then, this soul of mine, Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;

Fill me, radiant Sun divine ! Scatter all my unbelief; More and more thyself display, Shining to the perfect day. Now, FROM labor and from care, Evening shades have set me free;

In the work of praise and prayer, Lord! I would converse with thee: Oh, behold me from above,

Fill me with a Saviour's love.

2 Sin and sorrow, guilt and woe, Wither all my earthly joys;

Naught can charm me here below, But my Saviour's melting voice;

Lord ! forgive—thy grace restore, Make me thine for evermore.

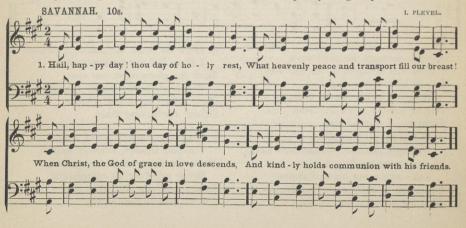

3 For the blessings of this day, For the mercies of this hour,

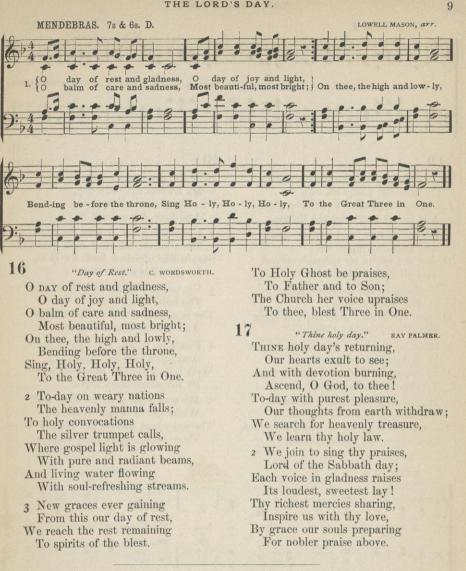

For the gospel's cheering ray,

For the Spirit's quickening power,— Grateful notes to thee I raise; Oh, accept my song of praise.

18 IOS. Communion in love. P. H. BROWN. HAIL, happy day ! thou day of holy rest, What heavenly peace and transport fill our breast!

st!

When Christ, the God of grace, in love descends,

And kindly holds communion with his friends. And on my Saviour's glories fix my eyes: 2 Let earth and all its vanities be gone,

Its flattering, fading glories I despise, And to immortal beauties turn my eyes.

3 Fain would I mount and penetrate the skies.

Oh, meet my rising soul, thou God of love. Move from my sight, and leave my soul alone; And waft it to the blissful realms above !

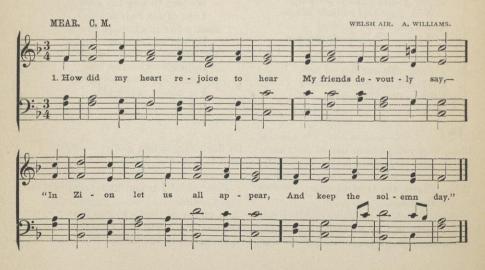

THE LORD'S DAY.

THIS is the day the Lord hath made: He calls the hours his own :

- Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, And praise surround the throne.
- 2 To-day he rose, and left the dead, And Satan's empire fell;
- To-day the saints his triumph spread, And all his wonders tell.
- 3 Hosanna to the anointed King, To David's only Son ;
- Help us, O Lord; descend, and bring Salvation from thy throne.
- 4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men With messages of grace ;
- Who comes, in God his Father's name, To save our sinful race.
- 5 Hosanna in the highest strains The church on earth can raise ;
- The highest heavens, in which he reigns, Shall give him nobler praise.

- How did my heart rejoice to hear My friends devoutly say,-
- "In Zion let us all appear, And keep the solemn day."
- 2 I love her gates, I love the road; The Church, adorned with grace,
- Stands like a palace built for God. To show his milder face.
- 3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown, The holy tribes repair :
- The Son of David holds his throne. And sits in judgment there.
- 4 Peace be within this sacred place, And joy a constant guest;
- With holy gifts and heavenly grace, Be her attendants blest.
- 5 My soul shall pray for Zion still, While life or breath remains;
- There my best friends, my kindred dwell, There God, my Saviour reigns.

THE LORD'S DAY. 11 LANESBORO. C. M. W. DIXON. 1. Ear-ly, my God, without de-lay, I haste to seek thy face; My thirsty spir - it My thirsty spir - it faints a - way, With - out thy cheer - ing grace. faints a - way, 21 Psalm 63. I. WATTS. 3 Not life itself, with all its joys, EARLY, my God, without delay, Can my best passions move, I haste to seek thy face; Or raise so high my cheerful voice, My thirsty spirit faints away, As thy forgiving love. Without thy cheering grace. 2 I've seen thy glory and thy power 4 Thus, till my last expiring day. Through all thy temple shine; I'll bless my God and King; My God, repeat that heavenly hour, Thus will I lift my hands to pray, That vision so divine. And tune my lips to sing. BEMERTON. C. M. H. W. GREATOREX. 1. Lord! when we bend be - fore thy throne, And our con - fes sions pour, 0 feel the 'sins And hate what we Oh, we own, de - plore. may we 22 Sincerity. J. D. CARLYLE. 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer, LORD! when we bend before thy throne, May we our wills resign; And our confessions pour, Nor let a thought our bosom share. Oh, may we feel the sins we own, Which is not wholly thine. And hate what we deplore. 2 Our contrite spirits pitying see; 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,

- True penitence impart: And let a healing ray from thee
- Beam hope on every heart.

vn,

- 4 Let faith each meek petition nil, And waft it to the skies;
- And teach our heart 't is goodness still That grants it or denies.

23"Worthy the Lamb!" J. MONTGOMERY. SING we the song of those who stand

Around the eternal throne,

Of every kindred, clime, and land, A multitude unknown.

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here: To-day the young, the old,

Our Saviour and his flock appear One Shepherd and one fold.

3 Toil, trial, sufferings still await On earth the pilgrim throng;

Yet learn we in our low estate The Church Triumphant's song.

4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"-Cry the redeemed above,

"Blessing and honor to obtain, And everlasting love !"

5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing, "Who died our souls to save !

Henceforth, O Death ! where is thy sting? Thy victory, O Grave !"

24 Psalm 122. H. F. LYTE. WITH joy we hail the sacred day Which God hath called his own: With joy the summons we obey To worship at his throne.

- 2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair ! Where willing votaries throng
- To breathe the humble, fervent praver, And pour the choral song.

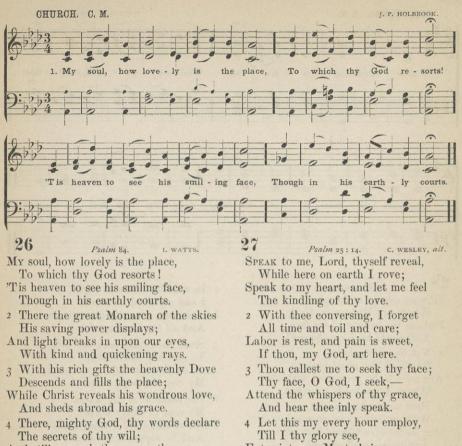

- 3 Spirit of grace ! oh, deign to dwell Within thy church below:
- Make her in holiness excel, With pure devotion glow.
- 4 Let peace within her walls be found; Let all her sons unite
- To spread with grateful zeal around Her clear and shining light.
- 5 Great God, we hail the sacred day Which thou hast called thine own;

With joy the summons we obey To worship at thy throne.

25 " The Rising Day." I. WATTS. ONCE more, my soul, the rising day Salutes thy waking eyes;

- Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay To him that rules the skies.
- 2 Night unto night his name repeats, The day renews the sound,
- Wide as the heaven on which he sits. To turn the seasons round.
- 3 'T is he supports my mortal frame; My tongue shall speak his praise;
- My sins would rouse his wrath to flame, And yet his wrath delays.
- 4 Great God, let all my hours be thine, While I enjoy the light;

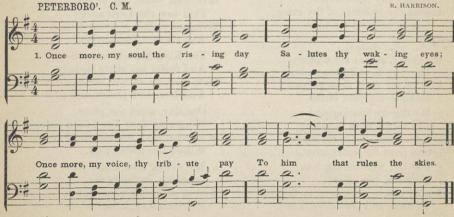

Then shall my sun in smiles decline, And bring a pleasant night.

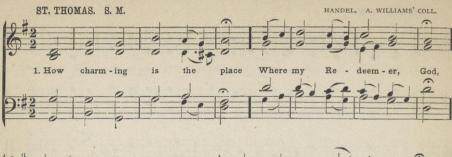

And still we seek thy mercy there, And sing thy praises still.

Enter into my Master's joy, And find my heaven in thee. 13

The Sanctuary. S. STENNETT. How CHARMING is the place Where my Redeemer, God, Unvails the beauty of his face, And sheds his love abroad ! 2 Not the fair palaces, To which the great resort, Are once to be compared with this, Where Jesus holds his court. 3 Here on the mercy-seat, With radiant glory crowned, Our joyful eyes behold him sit And smile on all around. 4 Give me, O Lord, a place Within thy blest abode, Among the children of thy grace, The servants of my God. 29 Psalm 63. I. WATTS.

My God ! permit my tongue This joy, to call thee mine; And let my early cries prevail

To taste thy love divine. 2 My thirsty fainting soul

Thy mercy doth implore; Not travelers, in desert lands, Can pant for water more.

3 For life, without thy love, No relish can afford;

No joy can be compared to this,-To serve and please the Lord.

- 4 In wakeful hours at night. I call my God to mind:
- I think how wise thy counsels are, And all thy dealings kind.

Com

- 5 Since thou hast been my help. To thee my spirit flies:
- And, on thy watchful providence, My cheerful hope relies.
- 6 The shadow of thy wings My soul in safety keeps:
- I follow where my Father leads. And he supports my steps.

30 Psalm 84. I. WATTS. WELCOME, sweet day of rest,

That saw the Lord arise!

Welcome to this reviving breast, And these rejoicing eyes!

2 The King himself comes near, And feasts his saints to-day:

Here may we sit and see him here. And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day, amid the place Where my dear Lord hath been,

Is sweeter than ten thousand days Within the tents of sin.

4 My willing soul would stay In such a frame as this,

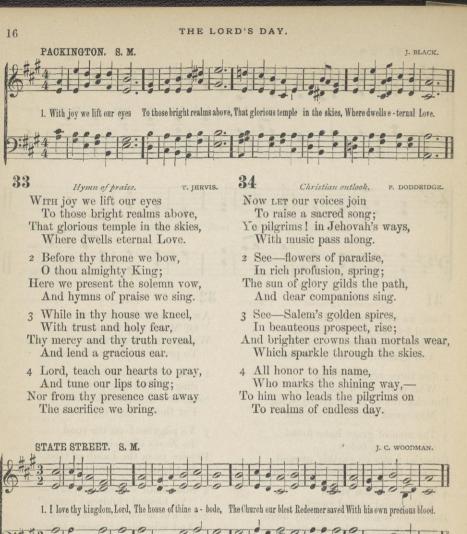

And sit and sing herself away To everlasting bliss.

- And let our joys be known; Join in a song of sweet accord, And thus surround the throne.
- 2 Let those refuse to sing Who never knew our God; But children of the heavenly King May speak their joys abroad.
- 3 The men of grace have found Glory begun below; Celestial fruits on earthly ground
 - From faith and hope may grow.
- 4 The hill of Zion yields A thousand sacred sweets Before we reach the heavenly fields, Or walk the golden streets.
- 5 Then let our songs abound, And every tear be dry;
- We're marching through Immanuel's ground To fairer worlds on high.

- Of Moses and the Lamb; Wake, every heart and every tongue To praise the Saviour's name.
- 2 Sing of his dying love; Sing of his rising power; Sing, how he intercedes above For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Ye pilgrims! on the road To Zion's city, sing !
- Rejoice ye in the Lamb of God,---In Christ, the eternal King.
- 4 Soon shall we hear him say,-"Ye blesséd children ! come;" Soon will he call us hence away. And take his wanderers home.
- 5 There shall each raptured tongue His endless praise proclaim;
- And sweeter voices tune the song Of Moses and the Lamb.

35 Psalm 137. T. DWIGHT. I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord, The house of thine abode, The Church our blest Redeemer saved With his own precious blood.

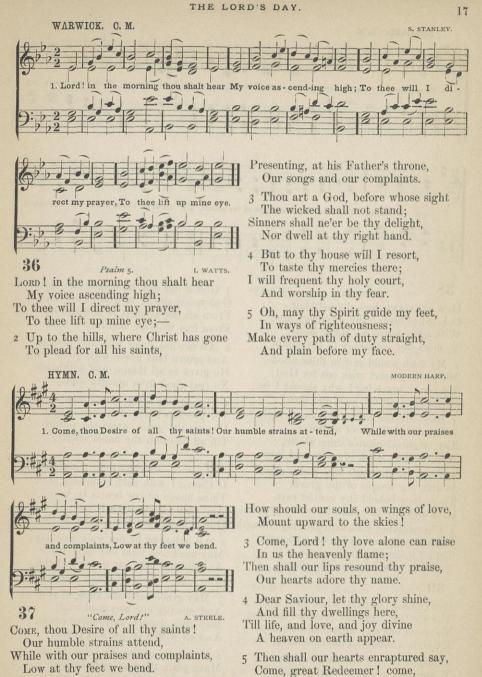

2 I love thy Church, O God ! Her walls before thee stand, Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thine hand.

3 For her my tears shall fall, For her my prayers ascend; To her my cares and toils be given, Till toils and cares shall end.

- 4 Beyond my highest joy I prize her heavenly ways,
- Her sweet communion, solemn vows, Her hymns of love and praise.

5 Sure as thy truth shall last, To Zion shall be given

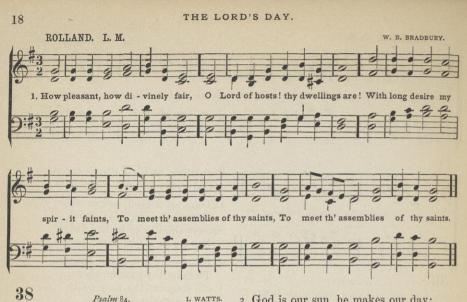

The brightest glories earth can yield, And brighter bliss of heaven.

2 How should our songs, like those above, With warm devotion rise !

ar,

And bring the bright, the glorious day, That calls thy children home.

BO Psalm 84. I. W. How PLEASANT, how divinely fair, O Lord of hosts ! thy dwellings are ! With long desire my spirit faints, To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode, My panting heart cries out for God; My God ! my King ! why should I be So far from all my joys, and thee?

3 Blest are the saints who sit on high, Around thy throne of majesty; Thy brightest glories shine above, And all their work is praise and love.

4 Blest are the souls who find a place Within the temple of thy grace; There they behold thy gentler rays, And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength, Till all shall meet in heaven at length; Till all before thy face appear, And join in nobler worship there.

Psalm 84. I. WATTS.

GREAT God! attend, while Zion sings The joy that from thy presence springs; To spend one day with thee on earth Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place Within thy house, O God of grace ! Nor tents of ease, nor thrones of power, Should tempt my feet to leave thy door. 3 God is our sun, he makes our day; God is our shield, he guards our way From all the assaults of hell and sin, From foes without, and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow, And crown that grace with glory, too; He gives us all things, and withholds No real good from upright souls.

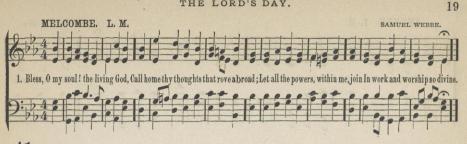

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway The glorious hosts of heaven obey, Display thy grace, exert thy power, Till all on earth thy name adore !

40 Morning Hymn. J. CHANDLER, tr. O CHRIST! with each returning morn Thine image to our hearts be borne; And may we ever clearly see Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee!

2 All hallowed be our walk this day; May meekness form our early ray, And faithful love our noontide light, And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May grace each idle thought control, And sanctify our wayward soul; May guile depart, and malice cease, And all within be joy and peace.

4 Our daily course, O Jesus, bless; Make plain the way of holiness: From sudden falls our feet defend, And cheer at last our journey's end.

41 Psalm 103. I. WATTS. BLESS, O my soul! the living God. Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad; Let all the powers, within me, join In work and worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my soul! the God of grace; His favors claim thy highest praise: Why should the wonders he hath wrought Be lost in silence and forgot?

3 'T is he, my soul! who sent his Son To die for crimes which thou hast done: He owns the ransom, and forgives The hourly follies of our lives.

4 Let the whole earth his power confess, Let the whole earth adore his grace;

Psalm 92.

To praise thy name, give thanks and sing; To show thy love by morning light,

SWEET is the work, my God, my King,

And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;

The Gentile with the Jew shall join In work and worship so divine.

42 Psalm 135. I. WATTS. PRAISE ye the Lord; exalt his name, While in his earthly courts ye wait.

- Ye saints, that to his house belong, Or stand attending at his gate.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord, the Lord is good; To praise his name is sweet employ:
- Israel he chose of old, and still His church is his peculiar joy.

3 Bless ve the Lord who taste his love, People and priests exalt his name;

Among his saints he ever dwells; His church is his Jerusalem.

I. WATTS.

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part, When grace hath well refined my heart, And fresh supplies of joy are shed, Like holy oil to cheer my head.

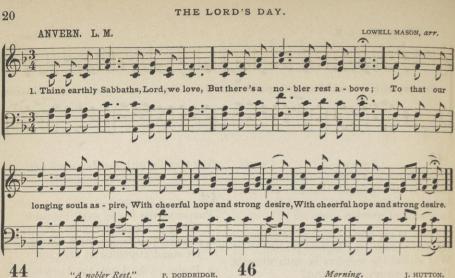

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know All I desired or wished below; And every power find sweet employ, In that eternal world of joy.

No mortal care shall seize my breast;

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love, But there's a nobler rest above; To that our longing souls aspire, With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress, Nor sin nor death shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs That warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes, No cares to break the long repose, No midnight shade, no clouded sun, But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin ! Dawn on these realms of woe and sin: Fain would we leave this weary road. And sleep in death, to rest with God.

I. WATTS.

Invocation. COME, gracious Lord, descend and dwell, By faith and love, in every breast:

Then shall we know, and taste, and feel The joys that cannot be expressed.

- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength, 3 This heavenly calm, within the breast, Make our enlargéd souls possess.
- Of thine eternal love and grace.
- 3 Now to the God whose power can do More than our thoughts and wishes know, In holy pleasures, pass away; Be everlasting honors done,

By all the Church, through Christ his Son. In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

The dawn of thy returning day: My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee, While thus my early yows I pay.

My opening eyes with rapture see

2 Oh, bid this trifling world retire. And drive each carnal thought away: Nor let me feel one vain desire-

One sinful thought through all the day.

3 Then, to thy courts when I repair, My soul shall rise on joyful wing,

The wonders of thy love declare, And join the strains which angels sing.

47 "Return, my soul!" J. STENNETT. ANOTHER six days' work is done, Another Sabbath is begun: Return, my soul! enjoy thy rest. Improve the day thy God hath blessed.

Gi

2 Oh, that our thoughts and thanks may rise, As grateful incense to the skies: And draw from heaven that sweet repose, Which none, but he that feels it, knows.

Is the dear pledge of glorious rest, And learn the height, and breadth, and length Which for the church of God remains-The end of cares, the end of pains.

ast,

2 Awake, lift up thyself, my heart, And with the angels bear thy part, Who all night long unwearied sing High praises to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept, And hast refreshed me when I slept; Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake, I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew: Scatter my sins as morning dew; Guard my first springs of thought and will, And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day, All I design, or do, or say; That all my powers, with all their might, In thy sole glory may unite.

PRAISE, Lord, for thee in Zion waits; Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates: All flesh shall to thy throne repair, And find, through Christ, salvation there.

H. F. LYTE.

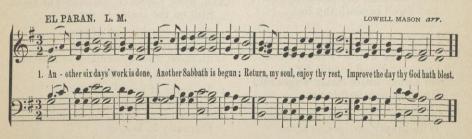

Psalm 65.

2 How blest thy saints ! how safely led ! How surely kept! how richly fed! Saviour of all in earth and sea. How happy they who rest in thee !

3 Thy hand sets fast the mighty hills, Thy voice the troubled ocean stills ! Evening and morning hymn thy praise, And earth thy bounty wide displays.

4 The year is with thy goodness crowned; Thy clouds drop wealth the world around; Through thee the deserts laugh and sing. And nature smiles and owns her king.

5 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour; The moral waste within restore; Oh, let thy love our spring-tide be. And make us all bear fruit to thee.

50 75. Redeeming Love. c. Sweet the time, exceeding sweet, When the saints together meet; When the Saviour is the theme, When they join to sing of him.

2 Sing we then eternal love, Such as did the Father move: He beheld the world undone, Loved the world, and gave his Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love : How he left the realms above, Took our nature and our place, Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love : With our wretched hearts he strove, Took the things of Christ, and showed How to reach his blest abode.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet, Where the saints in glory meet; Where the Saviour's still the theme, Where they see, and sing of him.

51 C. M. The Mercy-Seat. A. STEELE. DEAR Father, to thy mercy-seat

My soul for shelter flies :

"I is here I find a safe retreat When storms and tempests rise.

2 My cheerful hope can never die, If thou, my God, art near ;

Thy grace can raise my comforts high, And banish every fear.

- 3 My great Protector, and my Lord! Thy constant aid impart;
- Oh! let thy kind, thy gracious word Sustain my trembling heart.
- 4 Oh ! never let my soul remove From this divine retreat;
- Still let me trust thy power and love, And dwell beneath thy feet.
- 52 C. M. Retirement. W. COWPER. FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
- From strife and tumult far; From scenes where Satan wages still His most successful war.
- 2 The calm retreat, the silent shade, With prayer and praise agree;

c. BURDER. And seem by thy sweet bounty made t, For those who follow thee.

A boundless, endless store— Shall echo through the realms above, When time shall be no more.

53 C. M. Public Worship. A. L. BARBAULD. WHEN, as returns this solemn day,

Man comes to meet his God, What rites, what honors shall he pay ? How spread his praise abroad ?

- 2 From marble domes and gilded spires Shall clouds of incense rise?
- And gems, and gold, and garlands deck The costly sacrifice ?
- 3 Vain, sinful man ! creation's Lord Thy offerings well may spare;

But give thy heart, and thou shalt find Thy God will hear thy prayer.

H. AUBER.

54 S. M. Psalm 92. Sweet is the work, O Lord,

- Thy glorious name to sing ;
- To praise and pray—to hear thy word, And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet—at the dawning light, Thy boundless love to tell;
- And, when approach the shades of night, Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet—on this day of rest, To join in heart and voice,
- With those who love and serve thee best, And in thy name rejoice.
- 4 To songs of praise and joy Be every Sabbath given,
- That such may be our blest employ Eternally in heaven.

55 L. M. Hour of Prayer. T. RAFFLES. BLEST hour! when mortal man retires To hold communion with his God. To send to heaven his warm desires,

And listen to the sacred word.

2 Blest hour ! when earthly cares resign Their empire o'er his anxious breast,

While all around, the calm divine Proclaims the holy day of rest.

3 Blest hour! when God himself draws nigh.

Well pleased his people's voice to hear, To hush the penitential sigh,

And wipe away the mourner's tear.

4 Blest hour! for where the Lord resorts, Foretastes of future bliss are given; And mortals find his earthly courts

The house of God, the gate of Heaven!

56 L. M. " Gate of Heaven." T. KELLY. How sweet to leave the world awhile, And seek the presence of our Lord !

Dear Saviour! on thy people smile, And come, according to thy word.

2 From busy scenes we now retreat, That we may here converse with thee:

Ah, Lord ! behold us at thy feet ; Let this the "gate of heaven" be.

3 "Chief of ten thousand !" now appear, That we by faith may see thy face:

Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear, And let thy presence fill this place.

57 85, 75, 45. "We draw near." T. KELLY. In thy name, O Lord, assembling, We, thy people, now draw near ; Teach us to rejoice with trembling; Speak, and let thy servants hear; Hear with meekness-Hear thy word with godly fear. 2 While our days on earth are lengthened, May we give them, Lord, to thee; Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened, May we run, nor weary be, Till thy glory Without cloud in heaven we see. 3 There, in worship purer, sweeter, All thy people shall adore; Tasting of enjoyment greater Than they could conceive before; Full enjoyment,

Full and pure for evermore.

Invocation. I. WATTS. FAR from my thoughts, vain world, begone!

Let my religious hours alone : Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see : I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire, And kindles with a pure desire : Come, my dear Jesus ! from above, And feed my soul with heavenly love. 3 Blest Saviour ! what delicious fare, How sweet thine entertainments are ! Never did angels taste, above, Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all-divine ! In thee thy Father's glories shine : Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One That eyes have seen, or angels known !

59 L. M. " Two or Three." S. STENNETT. WHERE two or three, with sweet accord, Obedient to their sovereign Lord, Meet to recount his acts of grace, And offer solemn prayer and praise ;-

2 There will the gracious Saviour be, To bless the little company; There, to unvail his smiling face, And bid his glories fill the place.

We meet at thy command, O Lord ! Relying on thy faithful word; Now send the Spirit from above. And fill our hearts with heavenly love.

E. TAYLOR.

60 s. M. Invitation. Come to the house of prayer,

O thou afflicted, come; The God of peace shall meet thee there-

He makes that house his home.

2 Come to the house of praise, Ye who are happy now;

In sweet accord your voices raise, In kindred homage bow.

3 Ye aged, hither come,

For ye have felt his love ;

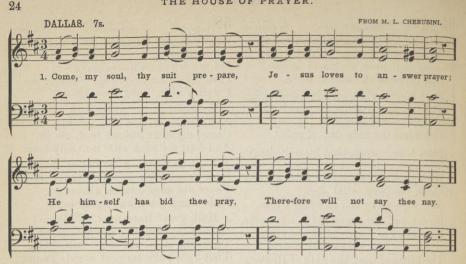

Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,

Your lips forget to move.

4 Ye young, before his throne, Come, bow; your voices raise;

Let not your hearts his praise disown Who gives the power to praise.

THE HOUSE OF PRAYER.

61 A Prayer in Need. J. NEWTON. COME, my soul, thy suit prepare, Jesus loves to answer prayer; He himself has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee nay. 2 With my burden I begin:-Lord! remove this load of sin; Let thy blood, for sinners spilt, Set my conscience free from guilt. 3 Lord! I come to thee for rest; Take possession of my breast:

There, thy blood-bought right maintain, And, without a rival, reign,

4 While I am a pilgrim here. Let thy love my spirit cheer; As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend, Lead me to my journey's end.

5 Show me what I have to do, Every hour my strength renew; Let me live a life of faith, Let me die thy people's death.

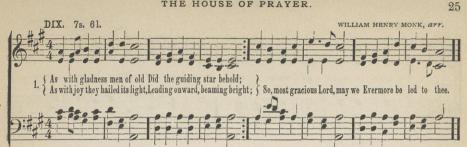

62 The Case Argued. J. NEWTON. LORD ! I cannot let thee go, Till a blessing thou bestow; Do not turn away thy face, Mine's an urgent, pressing case. 2 Once a sinner, near despair, Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer; Mercy heard and set him free-Lord ! that mercy came to me. 3 Many days have passed since then. Many changes I have seen;

Yet have been upheld till now; Who could hold me up but thou?

4 Thou hast helped in every need— This emboldens me to plead; After so much mercy past, Canst thou let me sink at last?

5 No-I must maintain my hold; 'T is thy goodness makes me bold; I can no denial take, Since I plead for Jesus' sake.

2 As with joyful steps they sped, Saviour, to thy manger bed, There to bend the knee before Thee whom heaven and earth adore; So may we with willing feet Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare At thy cradle rude and bare, So may we with holy joy, Pure and free from sin's alloy. All our costliest treasures bring. Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus, every day Keep us in the narrow way; And, when earthly things are past, Bring our ransomed souls at last Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds thy glory hide.

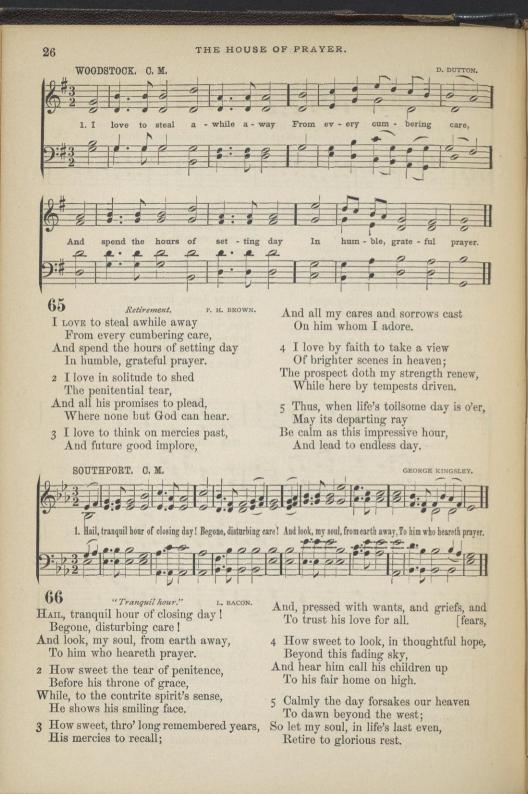

64God everywhere. ANON. THEY who seek the throne of grace Find that throne in every place; If we live a life of prayer, God is present everywhere.

2 In our sickness and our health, In our want, or in our wealth, If we look to God in prayer, God is present everywhere.

3 When our earthly comforts fail, When the foes of life prevail, 'T is the time for earnest prayer; God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait, To thy Father come, and wait; He will answer every prayer: God is present everywhere.

Of The mercy-seat. H. STOWELL. FROM every stormy wind that blows, From every swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure retreat; 'T is found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads,— A place than all besides more sweet; It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sundered far, by faith they meet Around one common mercy-seat.

74 The mercy-seat. W. COWPER. JESUS, where'er thy people meet, There they behold thy mercy-seat; Where'er they seek thee thou art found, And every place is hallowed ground. 2 For thou, within no walls confined, Inhabitest the humble mind; Such ever bring thee where they come, And going, take thee to their home.

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer, To strengthen faith and sweeten care, To teach our faint desires to rise, And bring all heaven before our eyes.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands, The house of God not made with hands, A great High Priest our nature wears,— The Guardian of mankind appears.

2 Though now ascended up on high, He bends on earth a brother's eye; Partaker of the human name, He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains A fellow-feeling of our pains; And still remembers, in the skies, His tears, his agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart, The Man of Sorrows had a part; He sympathizes with our grief, And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne, Let us make all our sorrows known; And ask the aid of heavenly power, To help us in the evil hour.

"What thou wilt." J. NEWTON.

AND dost thou say, "Ask what thou wilt?" Lord, I would seize the golden hour:

I pray to be released from guilt, And freed from sin and Satan's power.

2 More of thy presence, Lord, impart ; More of thine image let me bear : Erect thy throne within my heart,

And reign without a rival there.

3 Give me to read my pardon sealed, And from thy joy to draw my strength: Oh, be thy boundless love revealed

In all its height and breadth and length.

4 Grant these requests—I ask no more, But to thy care the rest resign :

Sick, or in health, or rich, or poor, All shall be well, if thou art mine.

77 Prayers kindered. W. COWPER. WHAT various hindrances we meet In coming to a mercy-seat! Yet who that knows the worth of prayer But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened cloud withdraw;

Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw, Gives exercise to faith and love, Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight; Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright; And Satan trembles when he sees The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Have you no words? ah! think again; Words flow apace when you complain, And fill a fellow-creature's ear With the sad tale of all your care.

5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent To heaven in supplication sent, Our cheerful song would oftener be, "Hear what the Lord hath done for me !"

BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne, Ye nations! bow with sacred joy :

- Know that the Lord is God alone : He can create, and he destroy.
- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid, Made us of clay, and formed us men;
- And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed, He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people, we his care,— Our souls, and all our mortal frame :

What lasting honors shall we rear, Almighty Maker! to thy name?

4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs, High as the heavens our voices raise;

- And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command, Vast as eternity, thy love;

Firm as a rock thy truth must stand, When rolling years shall cease to move.

Psalm 100. W. KETHE.

ALL people that on earth do dwell,

Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:

Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, Come ye before him and rejoice.

- 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed; Without our aid he did us make:
- We are his flock, he doth us feed, And for his sheep he doth us take.

3 Oh, enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto:

- Praise, laud, and bless his name always, For it is seemly so to do.
- 4 For why? the Lord our God is good, His mercy is for ever sure;

His truth at all times firmly stood, And shall from age to age endure.

Psalm 36. HIGH in the heavens, eternal God! Thy goodness in full glory shines;

Thy truth shall break through every cloud That vails and darkens thy designs.

2 For ever firm thy justice stands, As mountains their foundations keep:

Wise are the wonders of thy hands; Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 My God, how excellent thy grace ! Whence all our hope and comfort springs; The sons of Adam, in distress,

Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

4 From the provisions of thy house We shall be fed with sweet repast: There, mercy like a river flows,

And brings salvation to our taste.

5 Life, like a fountain rich and free. Springs from the presence of my Lord: And in thy light our souls shall see The glories promised in thy word.

85 "Te Deum." T. COTTERILL, alt. LORD God of Hosts, by all adored ! Thy name we praise with one accord; The earth and heavens are full of thee. Thy light, thy love, thy majesty.

2 Loud hallelujahs to thy name Angels and seraphim proclaim; Eternal praise to thee is given By all the powers and thrones in heaven.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng, The prophets aid to swell the song, The noble and triumphant host Of martyrs make of thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place Throughout the world exalts thy praise; Both heaven and earth do worship thee, Thou Father of eternity !

3 Happy the man whose hopes rely On Israel's God : he made the sky, And earth, and seas, with all their train ; And none shall find his promise vain.

4 His truth for ever stands secure : He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor; He helps the stranger in distress, The widow and the fatherless.

5 He loves his saints, he knows them well, But turns the wicked down to hell; Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns; Praise him in everlasting strains.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds? Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds: Vast and unsearchable thy ways; Vast and immortal be thy praise.

Psalm 146. I. WATTS. I'LL praise my Maker with my breath, And, when my voice is lost in death,

Praise shall employ my nobler powers: My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last, Or immortality endures.

- His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
- And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
- It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
- It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
- And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

THANK and praise Jehovah's name; For his mercies firm and sure, From eternity the same,

To eternity endure.

Let the ransomed thus rejoice, Gathered out of every land,

As the people of his choice, Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

Through luxuriant valleys flow.

Oh, that men would praise the Lord For his goodness to their race;

For the wonders of his word, And the riches of his grace.

- From the throne of the blest, from the hosts of the skies;
- Alleluia, they sing in rapturous strains,
- Alleluia, the Lord God omnipotent reigns !
- 2 He gave to the light its beneficent wings;

He controlleth the councils of senates and kings;

From his throne in the clouds the lightnings are hurled,

And he ruleth the factions that rage through the world.

- 3 Rejoice, ye that love him; his power cannot fail;
- His omnipotent goodness shall surely prevail;
- The triumph of evil will shortly be passed,

The omnipotent King shall conquer at last.

106 75, 65. Psalm 150.

PRAISE the Lord, who reigns above, And keeps his courts below;

Praise him for his boundless love, And all his greatness show !

Praise him for his noble deeds; Praise him for his matchless power;

Him, from whom all good proceeds, Let earth and heaven adore.

2 Publish, spread to all around, The great Immanuel's name;

Let the gospel trumpet sound, The Prince of Peace proclaim! Praise him, every tuneful string;

All the reach of heavenly art, All the power of music bring,

The music of the heart.

3 Him, in whom they move and live, Let every creature sing; Glory to our Saviour give,

And homage to our King : Hallowed be his name beneath,

As in heaven, on earth adored; Praise the Lord in every breath,

Let all things praise the Lord.

THE SACRIFICE OF PRAISE.

107 75, D. Singing to God. J. MONTGOMERY. 109 L.M. Songs of praise the angels sang, Heaven with hallelujahs rang, When Jehovah's work begun, When he spake, and it was done. Songs of praise awoke the morn, When the Prince of Peace was born; Songs of praise arose, when he Captive led captivity.

2 Heaven and earth must pass away-Songs of praise shall crown that day; God will make new heavens and earth-Songs of praise shall hail their birth. And shall man alone be dumb, Till that glorious kingdom come? No; the Church delights to raise Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

3 Saints below, with heart and voice, Still in songs of praise rejoice ; Learning here, by faith and love, Songs of praise to sing above. Borne upon their latest breath Songs of praise shall conquer death ; Then, amid eternal joy, Songs of praise their powers employ.

AGAIN our earthly cares we leave. And to thy courts repair ; Again with joyful feet we come, To meet our Saviour here.

- 2 Great Shepherd of thy people, hear ! Thy presence now display ;
- We bow within thy house of prayer ; Oh, give us hearts to pray !
- 3 The clouds which vail thee from our sight,

In pity, Lord, remove ; Dispose our minds to hear aright The message of thy love.

- 4 The feeling heart, the melting eye, The humble mind, bestow;
- And shine upon us from on high, To make our graces grow.
- 5 Show us some token of thy love, Our fainting hopes to raise;
- And pour thy blessing from above, To aid our feeble praise.

Psalm 39. JEHOVAH reigns; his throne is high; His robes are light and majesty : His glory shines with beams so bright, No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe; His justice guards his holy law; Yet love reveals a smiling face, And truth and promise seal the grace. 3 Through all his works his wisdom shines, And baffles Satan's deep designs ; His power is sovereign to fulfill The noblest counsels of his will. 4 And will this glorious Lord descend To be my Father and my Friend? Then let my songs with angels join ; Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

110 L. M. " God is Here." J. WESLEY, tr. Lo. God is here !- let us adore ! And own how dreadful is this place ! Let all within us feel his power,

And, silent, bow before his face.

- 2 Lo, God is here !- him day and night United choirs of angels sing :
- To him, enthroned above all height, Let saints their humble worship bring.
- 3 Lord God of hosts ! oh, may our praise Thy courts with grateful incense fill!
- Still may we stand before thy face, Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

III C. M. "Light in thy Light." C. WESLEY. ETERNAL Sun of righteousness, Display thy beams divine,

And cause the glory of thy face Upon my heart to shine.

2 Light, in thy light, oh, may I see, Thy grace and mercy prove.

Revived, and cheered, and blest by thee The God of pardoning love.

3 Lift up thy countenance serene, And let thy happy child

Behold, without a cloud between, The Father reconciled.

4 On me thy promised peace bestow, The peace by Jesus given ;---

The joys of holiness below, And then the joys of heaven. I. WATTS.

THE swift declining day,

How fast its moments fly ! While evening's broad and gloomy shade Gains on the western sky.

Evening.

- 2 Ye mortals, mark its pace, And use the hours of light;
- And know, its Maker can command At once eternal night.
- 3 Give glory to the Lord, Who rules the whirling sphere; Submissive at his footstool bow,

"Abide with us."

And lead you to unchanging light, In your celestial home.

J. M. NEALE.

- THE day, O Lord, is spent; Abide with us, and rest;
- Our hearts' desires are fully bent On making thee our guest.
- 2 We have not reached that land, That happy land, as yet,
- Where holy angels round thee stand, Whose sun can never set.
- 3 Our sun is sinking now, Our day is almost o'er;
- O Sun of Righteousness, do thou Shine on us evermore!

"Still with thee." J. D. BURNS.

- STILL, still with thee, my God, I would desire to be:
- By day, by night, at home, abroad, I would be still with thee.
- 2 With thee when dawn comes in, And calls me back to care,
- Each day returning to begin With thee my God in prayer.

- 3 With thee when day is done, And evening calms the mind:
- The setting, as the rising, sun With thee my heart would find.
- 4 With thee, in thee, by faith Abiding I would be;
- By day, by night, in life, in death, I would be still with thee.

THE day is past and gone, Great God, we bow to thee; Again, as shades of night steal on, Unto thy side we flee. 2 Oh, when shall that day come, Ne'er sinking in the west, That country and that happy home, Where none shall break our rest;-

The final rest.

- 3 Where all things shall be peace, And pleasure without end,
- And golden harps, that never cease, With joyous hymns shall blend;-
- 4 Where we, preserved beneath The shelter of thy wing,
- For evermore thy praise shall breathe, And of thy mercy sing.

THE day is past and gone, The evening shades appear; Oh, may we all remember well The night of death draws near!

Home Hymn.

- 2 We lay our garments by, Upon our beds to rest;
- So death will soon disrobe us all Of what we here possessed.
- 3 Lord, keep us safe this night, Secure from all our fears;
- May angels guard us while we sleep, Till morning light appears.
- 4 And when we early rise, And view the unwearied sun, May we set out to win the prize,

Ånd after glory run.

5 And when our days are past, And we from time remove,

Oh, may we in thy bosom rest,

The bosom of thy love!

" Closing hour."

E. T. FITCH.

LORD, at this closing hour, Establish every heart

Upon thy word of truth and power, To keep us when we part.

- 2 Peace to our brethren give; Fill all our hearts with love;
- In faith and patience may we live, And seek our rest above.

3 Through changes, bright or drear, We would thy will pursue;

And toil to spread thy kingdom here, Till we its glory view.

4 To God, the only wise, In every age adored,

Let glory from the church arise Through Jesus Christ our Lord!

125 Sabbath ended.

THE day of praise is done; The evening shadows fall; Yet pass not from us with the sun, True Light that lightenest all!

- 2 Around thy throne on high, Where night can never be,
- The white-robed harpers of the sky Bring ceaseless hymns to thee.
- 3 Too faint our anthems here; Too soon of praise we tire;

But oh, the strains how full and clear Of that eternal choir !

4 Yet, Lord ! to thy dear will If thou attune the heart,

We in thine angels' music still May bear our lower part.

5 Shine thou within us, then,

A day that knows no end,

Till songs of angels and of men In perfect praise shall blend.

126 At Dismission.

ONCE more, before we part,

Oh, bless the Saviour's name! Let every tongue and every heart Adore and praise the same.

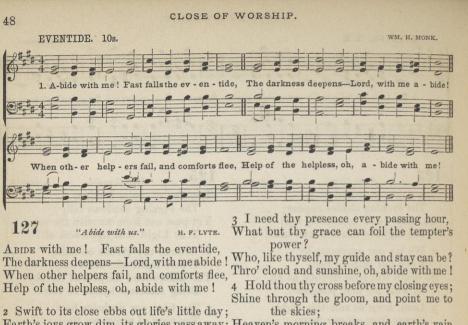

2 Lord, in thy grace we came, That blessing still impart;

We met in Jesus' sacred name, In Jesus' name we part.

3 Still on thy holy word Help us to feed, and grow,

Still to go on to know the Lord, And practice what we know.

- 4 Now, Lord, before we part, Help us to bless thy name:
- Let every tongue and every heart Adore and praise the same.

146 S. M. The Lord's Prayer. J. MONTGOMERY. Our Heavenly Father, hear The prayer we offer now :---

"Thy name be hallowed far and near, To thee all nations bow.

2 "Thy kingdom come; thy will On earth be done in love,

As saints and seraphim fulfill Thy perfect law above.

3 "Our daily bread supply, While by thy word we live; The guilt of our iniquity

Forgive, as we forgive.

4 "From dark temptation's power Our feeble hearts defend ;

Deliver in the evil hour, And guide us to the end.

5 "Thine, then, for ever be

Glory and power divine;

The sceptre, throne, and majesty Of heaven and earth are thine."

147 7s. The Holy Spirit. C. WESLEY. LIGHT of life, seraphic Fire,

Love divine, thyself impart; Every fainting soul inspire; Enter every drooping heart ;---

2 Every mournful sinner cheer;

Scatter all our guilty gloom; Father! in thy grace appear,

To thy human temples come.

3 Come, in this accepted hour, Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;

Fill us with thy glorious power, Set us free from all our sin.

4 Nothing more can we require, We will covet nothing less ;

Be thou all our heart's desire, All our joy, and all our peace.

148 85, 75. Dismissal. E. SMYTHE. LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing ;

Bid us now depart in peace; Still on heavenly manna feeding.

Let our faith and love increase.

2 Fill each breast with consolation ; Up to thee our hearts we raise;

When we reach our blissful station. Then we'll give thee nobler praise. 149 г. м.

Sabbath Eve. J. EDMESTON. SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,

And soft the sunbeams lingering there: For these blest hours the world I leave.

- Wafted on wings of faith and praver. 2 The time, how lovely and how still!
- Peace shines and smiles on all below: The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,

All fair with evening's setting glow.

3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love:

And while these sacred moments roll. Faith sees the smiling heaven above.

4 Nor will our days of toil be long: Our pilgrimage will soon be trod: And we shall join the ceaseless song,

The endless Sabbath of our God.

Which sovereign love hath spoke: Nor will the Eternal King

His words of grace revoke; They stand secure And steadfast still; Abides so sure.

2 The mountains melt away

When once the Judge appears. And sun and moon decay.

That measure mortal years ; But still the same, |The promise shines In radiant lines |Through all the flame.

Of that dread scene, Thy word my rock.

151 с. м. "Hear and Know." I. WATTS. BLEST are the souls that hear and know The gospel's joyful sound ;

152 75. Hymn at Parting.

THOU, from whom we never part, Thou, whose love is everywhere, Thou, who seest every heart.

Listen to our evening prayer.

2 Father, fill our hearts with love, Love unfailing, full and free; Love that no alarm can move. Love that ever rests on thee.

3 Heavenly Father! through the night Keep us safe from every ill;

Cheerful as the morning light, May we wake to do thy will.

153 85, 75, 45. "Hear us !" D. C. COLESWORTHY.

WHILE we lowly bow before thee, Wilt thou, gracious Saviour, hear ? We are poor and needy sinners, Full of doubt and full of fear; Gracious Saviour, Make us humble and sincere.

2 Fill us with thy Holy Spirit; Sanctify us by thy grace;

Oh, incline us more to love thee, And in dust our souls abase. Hear us, Saviour, And unvail thy glorious face.

3 None in vain did ever ask thee For the Spirit of thy love ; Hear us, then, dear Saviour, hear us; Grant an answer from above ; Blesséd Saviour,

Hear and answer from above.

154 85, 75, 45. Invocation. J. PIERPONT. God Almighty and All-seeing ! Holy One, in whom we all Live, and move, and have our being, Hear us when on thee we call;

Father, hear us, As before thy throne we fall.

2 Of all good art thou the Giver; Weak and wandering ones are we; Then for ever, yea, for ever,

In thy presence would we be; Oh, be near us, That we wander not from thee.

158Psalm 10. I. WATTS. THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord !

In every star thy wisdom shines; But, when our eyes behold thy word,

We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light, And nights and days thy power confess;

But the blest volume thou hast writ Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise Round the whole earth, and never stand; The weary rest from all his pains;

So, when thy truth began its race, It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest, Till through the world thy truth has run, A brighter world beyond the skies;

Till Christ has all the nations blessed, That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of righteousness! arise; Bless the dark world with heavenly light; To read and mark thy holy word;

Thy gospel makes the simple wise, Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right. And by its holy precepts live.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view. In souls renewed, and sins forgiven:

Lord ! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,

And make thy word my guide to heaven. And all the glories of the sky,

Inspiration.

I. WATTS.

'T was by an order from the Lord The ancient prophets spoke his word ! His Spirit did their tongues inspire, And warmed their hearts with heavenly fire. And every beam conducts to thee.

2 The works and wonders which they wrought 3 Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail, Confirmed the messages they brought: The prophet's pen succeeds his breath, To save the holy words from death.

3 Great God, mine eyes with pleasure look 4 But fixed for everlasting years, On the dear volume of thy book; There my Redeemer's face I see, And read his name who died for me.

GOD, in the gospel of his Son. Makes his eternal counsels known: Where love in all its glory shines. And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here sinners, of an humble frame, May taste his grace, and learn his name: May read, in characters of blood. The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 The prisoner here may break his chains; The captive feel his bondage cease; The mourner find the way of peace.

4 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes Here shines the light which guides our way From earth to realms of endless day.

5 Oh, grant us grace, Almighty Lord, Its truth with meekness to receive,

Psalm 19.

161

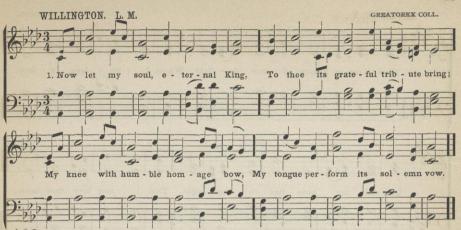

THE starry firmament on high. Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord, So brightly as thy written word.

2 The hopes that holy word supplies, Its truths divine and precepts wise, In each a heavenly beam I see,

The moon forget her nightly tale, And deepest silence hush on high The radiant chorus of the sky;--

Unmoved, amid the wreck of spheres, Thy word shall shine in cloudless day, When heaven and earth have passed away.

THE SCRIPTURES.

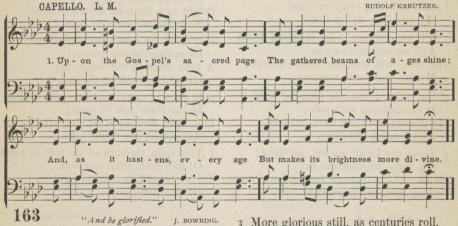

162 "Nature sings." O. HEGINBOTHAM. Now LET my soul, eternal King, To thee its grateful tribute bring; My knee with humble homage bow, My tongue perform its solemn vow. 2 All nature sings thy boundless love, In worlds below and worlds above; But in thy blesséd word I trace Diviner wonders of thy grace.

3 Here Jesus bids my sorrows cease, And gives my laboring conscience peace; Here lifts my grateful passions high, And points to mansions in the sky.

4 For love like this, oh, let my song, Through endless years, thy praise prolong; Let distant climes thy name adore, Till time and nature are no more.

Upon the Gospel's sacred page The gathered beams of ages shine; And, as it hastens, every age

But makes its brightness more divine.

2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight, From year to year does knowledge soar; And, as it soars, the Gospel light

Becomes effulgent more and more.

3 More glorious still, as centuries roll, New regions blest, new powers unfurled, Expanding with the expanding soul, Its radiance shall o'erflow the world,—

4 Flow to restore, but not destroy; As when the cloudless lamp of day Pours out its floods of light and joy, And sweeps the lingering mist away.

I. WATTS. 168

My soul lies cleaving to the dust; Lord, give me life divine; From vain desires and every lust, Turn off these eyes of mine.

Psalm 110.

- 2 I need the influence of thy grace To speed me in thy way,
- Lest I should loiter in my race Or turn my feet astray.
- 3 Are not thy mercies sovereign still, And thou a faithful God?
- Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal To run the heavenly road?
- 4 Does not my heart thy precepts love, And long to see thy face?
- And yet how slow my spirits move Without enlivening grace !
- 5 Then shall I love thy gospel more, And ne'er forget thy word,

When I have felt its quickening power To draw me near the Lord.

167 Dull of Heart.

I. WATTS.

LADEN with guilt, and full of fears, I fly to thee, my Lord,

And not a glimpse of hope appears, But in thy written word.

2 This is the field where hidden lies The pearl of price unknown;

That merchant is divinely wise, Who makes the pearl his own.

3 This is the judge that ends the strife, Where wit and reason fail;

- My guide to everlasting life, Through all this gloomy vale.
- 4 Oh, may thy counsels, mighty God ! My roving feet command;
- Nor I forsake the happy road, That leads to thy right hand.

Он, how I love thy holy law ! 'Tis daily my delight; And thence my meditations draw

Psalm 119.

- Divine advice by night.
- 2 How doth thy word my heart engage ! How well employ my tongue !
- And in my tiresome pilgrimage Yields me a heavenly song.
- 3 Am I a stranger, or at home, 'T is my perpetual feast:
- Not honey dropping from the comb, So much allures the taste.
- 4 No treasures so enrich the mind, Nor shall thy word be sold
- For loads of silver well-refined, Nor heaps of choicest gold.
- 5 When nature sinks, and spirits droop, Thy promises of grace

Are pillars to support my hope, And there I write thy praise.

I. WATTS.

LORD! I have made thy word my choice, My lasting heritage;

There shall my noblest powers rejoice, My warmest thoughts engage.

Psalm 119.

2 I'll read the histories of thy love, And keep thy laws in sight,

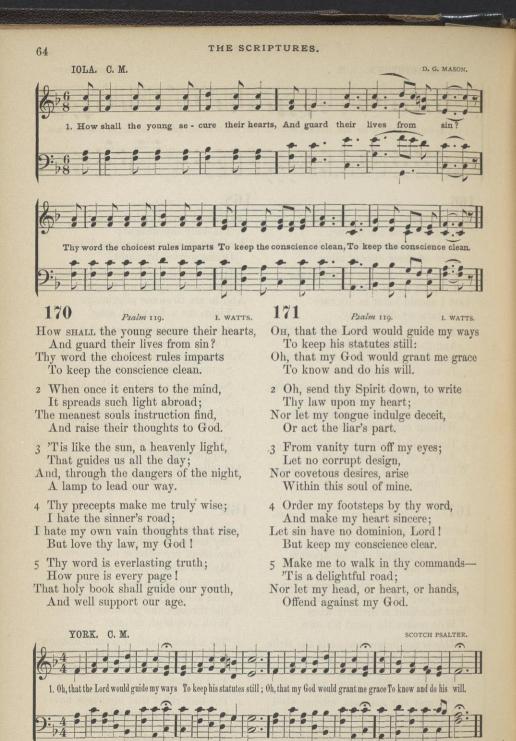

While through the promises I rove, With ever-fresh delight.

3 'T is a broad land of wealth unknown, Where springs of life arise;

Seeds of immortal bliss are sown, And hidden glory lies:—

- 4 The best relief that mourners have; It makes our sorrows blest:—
- Our fairest hope beyond the grave, And our eternal rest.

THE SCRIPTURES.

FATHER of mercies ! in thy word What endless glory shines !

For ever be thy name adored For these celestial lines.

2 Here, the fair tree of knowledge grows, And yields a free repast:

Sublimer sweets than nature knows Invite the longing taste.

3 Here, the Redeemer's welcome voice Spreads heavenly peace around;

And life and everlasting joys Attend the blissful sound.

4 Oh, may these heavenly pages be My ever dear delight;

And still new beauties may I see, And still increasing light.

5 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord! Be thou for ever near;

Teach me to love thy sacred word. And view my Saviour there.

THE Spirit breathes upon the word, And brings the truth to sight; Precepts and promises afford A sanctifying light.

- 2 A glory gilds the sacred page, Majestic, like the sun;
- It gives a light to every age;-It gives, but borrows none.

3 The hand, that gave it, still supplies The gracious light and heat; Its truths upon the nations rise,-

They rise, but never set.

- 4 Let everlasting thanks be thine. For such a bright display,
- As makes a world of darkness shine With beams of heavenly day.

5 My soul rejoices to pursue The steps of him I love, Till glory breaks upon my view. In brighter worlds above.

Till, clouds and darkness ended, They see thee face to face. Each day repeats the story, And night to night replies. Their silent proclamation Throughout the earth is heard; The record of creation, The page of nature's word. T

A brighter radiance pouring Than all the pomp of day:

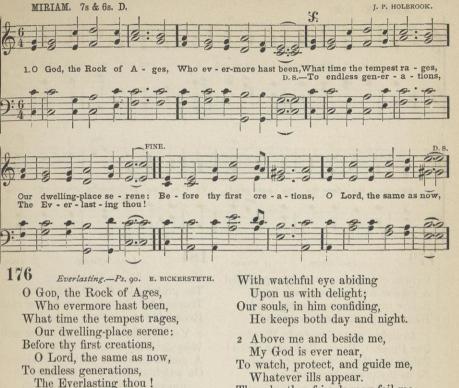

The wanderer surely guiding, It makes the simple wise;

B. BEDDOME.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells, Performs his work, the cause conceals; But, though his methods are unknown, Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas, He executes his firm decrees; And by his saints it stands confessed, That what he does is ever best.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail, The moon takes up the wondrous tale; And nightly, to the listening earth, Repeats the story of her birth; While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all Move round the dark terrestrial ball,— What though no real voice nor sound Amid their radiant orbs be found,— In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice, For ever singing as they shine,— "The hand that made us is divine." 184 In the Seasons. P. DODDRIDGE. ETERNAL Source of every joy, Well may thy praise our lips employ, While in thy temple we appear, To hail thee, sovereign of the year ! Wide as the wheels of nature roll, Thy hand supports and guides the whole, The sun is taught by thee to rise, And darkness when to vail the skies.

2 The flowery spring at thy command, Perfumes the air, adorns the land; The summer rays with vigor shine, To raise the corn, to cheer the vine. Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours, Through all our coasts redundant stores: And winters, softened by thy care, No more the face of horror wear.

3 Seasons and months, and weeks and days, Demand successive songs of praise; And be the grateful homage paid, With morning light and evening shade. Here in thy house let incense rise, And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes, Till to those lofty heights we soar, Where days and years revolve no more.

WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power! Be my vain wishes stilled;

Low before thy footstool kneeling, Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;

Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure.

Love's pure flame within me raise; And, since words can never measure,

Let my life show forth thy praise.

Perfections. R. MANT. God, my King, thy might confessing, Ever will I bless thy name:

- Day by day thy throne addressing, Still will I thy praise proclaim.
- 2 Nor shall fail from memory's treasure, Works by love and mercy wrought-
- Works of love surpassing measure, Works of mercy passing thought.
- 3 Full of kindness and compassion, Slow of anger, vast in love,
- God is good to all creation;
 - All his works his goodness prove.
- 4 All thy works, O Lord, shall bless thee, Thee shall all thy saints adore;
- King supreme shall they confess thee,
 - And proclaim thy sovereign power.

THERE's a wideness in God's mercy, Like the wideness of the sea: There's a kindness in his justice, Which is more than liberty. 2 There is welcome for the sinner, And more graces for the good;

Mercy.

F. W. FABER.

- There is mercy with the Saviour; There is healing in his blood.
- 3 For the love of God is broader
- Than the measure of man's mind; And the heart of the Eternal
- Is most wonderfully kind.
- 4 If our love were but more simple. We should take him at his word: And our lives would be all sunshine

In the sweetness of our Lord.

A Mighty Fortress." F. H. HEDGE, tr. A MIGHTY fortress is our God,

A bulwark never failing: Our Helper he, amid the flood

Of mortal ills prevailing. For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work his woe; His craft and power are great, And armed with cruel hate,

On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing;

Were not the right man on our side, The man of God's own choosing. Dost ask who that may be?

Christ Jesus, it is he; Lord Sabaoth is his name, From age to age the same,

And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled, Should threaten to undo us;

We will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to triumph through us.

The prince of darkness grim,---

We tremble not for him;

His rage we can endure,

For lo! his doom is sure,-

One little word shall fell him !

4 That word above all earthly powers-No thanks to them-abideth;

The Spirit and the gifts are ours Through him who with us sideth. Let goods and kindred go, This mortal life also: The body they may kill: God's truth abideth still, His bingdom is for some

" God alone."

H. W. BAKER.

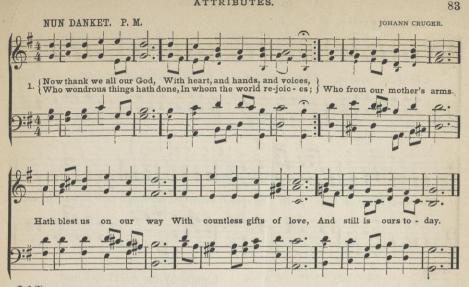

His kingdom is for ever.

REJOICE to-day with one accord, Sing out with exultation; Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord, Whose arm hath brought salvation; His works of love proclaim The greatness of his name; For he is God alone, Who hath his mercy shown; Let all his saints adore him. 2 When in distress to him we cried, He heard our sad complaining; Oh, trust in him, whate'er betide, His love is all sustaining; Triumphant songs of praise To him our hearts shall raise; Now every voice shall say,

"Oh, praise our God alway;" Let all his saints adore him.

ATTRIBUTES.

217 Bounteous Care. C. WINKWORTH, tr. Now THANK we all our God,

- With heart, and hands, and voices, Who wondrous things hath done,
- In whom the world rejoices ; Who from our mother's arms
- Hath blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love,
- And still is ours to-day.
- 2 Oh, may this bounteous God Through all our life be near us, With ever joyful hearts
- And blessed peace to cheer us; To keep us in his grace,
- And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills
 - In this world and the next.

218

- Eternity. LAURENTI LAURENTIUS. O THOU essential Word,
- Who wast from everlasting With God, for thou wast God;
- On thee our burden casting,
- O Saviour of our race,
- Welcome indeed thou art, Redeemer, Fount of Grace.
- To this my longing heart.
- 2 Come, self-existent Word. And speak thou in my spirit:
- The soul where thou art heard. Doth endless peace inherit.

Thou Light that lightenest all, Abide through faith in me. Nor let me from thee fall. Nor seek a guide but thee.

- A. T. PIERSON.
- TO THEE, O God, we raise Our voice in choral singing ; We come with prayer and praise, Our hearts' oblations bringing;

Beneficence.

- Thou art our fathers' God, And ever shalt be ours:
- Our lips and lives shall laud Thy name, with all our powers.
- 2 Thy goodness, like the dew On Hermon's hill descending.
- Is every morning new, And tells of love unending.
- We bless thy tender care That led our wayward feet.
- Past every fatal snare,
 - To streams and pastures sweet.
- 2 We bless thy Son, who bore The cross, for sinners dying; Thy Spirit we adore,
- The precious blood applying. Let work and worship send
- Their incense unto thee; Till song and service blend,
 - Beside the crystal sea.

Hory Father, hear my cry; Holy Saviour, bend thine ear; Holy Spirit, come thou nigh: Father, Saviour, Spirit, hear ! Father, save me from my sin; Saviour, I thy mercy crave; Gracious Spirit, make me clean: Father, Son, and Spirit, save ! 2 Father, let me taste thy love;

Saviour, fill my soul with peace; Spirit, come my heart to move:

Father, Son, and Spirit, bless! Father, Son, and Spirit—thou

One Jehovah, shed abroad All thy grace within me now;

Be my Father and my God!

221 "Holy, holy, holy." J. MONTGOMERY.

HoLY, holy, holy Lord

God of Hosts! when heaven and earth, Out of darkness, at thy word

Issued into glorious birth, All thy works before thee stood, And thine eye beheld them good, While they sung with sweet accord, Holy, holy, holy Lord !

2 Holy, holy, holy ! thee, One Jehovah evermore,

Father, Son, and Spirit! we, Dust and ashes, would adore: Lightly by the world esteemed, From that world by thee redeemed, Sing we here with glad accord, Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy ! all Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing, While the ransomed nations fall

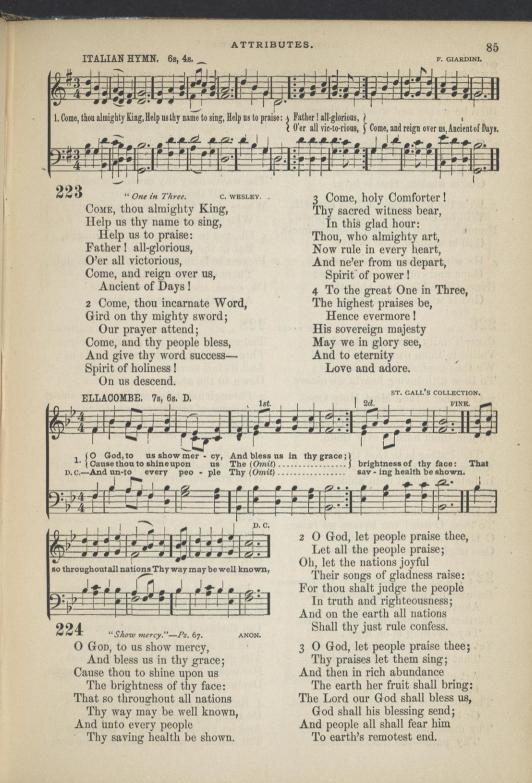

At the footstool of their King: Then shall saints and seraphim, Harps and voices, swell one hymn, Blending in sublime accord, Holy, holy, holy Lord !

222 Divine Presence.

R. GRANT.

LORD of earth ! thy forming hand Well this beauteous frame hath planned; Woods that wave, and hills that tower, Ocean rolling in his power: Yet, amid this scene so fair, Should I cease thy smile to share, What were all its joys to me? Whom have I on earth but thee?

2 Lord of heaven ! beyond our sight Shines a world of purer light; There in love's unclouded reign Parted hands shall meet again: Oh, that world is passing fair ! Yet, if thou wert absent there, What were all its joys to me? Whom have I in heaven but thee?

225 85, 75. Wisdom and Love. J. BOWRING. God is love; his mercy brightens

- All the path in which we rove ; Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens; God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Chance and change are busy ever; Man decays, and ages move;

But his mercy waneth never; God is wisdom, God is love.

3 Ev'n the hour that darkest seemeth, Will his changeless goodness prove;

From the gloom his brightness streameth; God is wisdom, God is love.

4 He with earthly cares entwineth

Hope and comfort from above; Everywhere his glory shineth; God is wisdom, God is love.

226 L. M. H. W. BAKER. The Trinity. BLEST Trinity ! from mortal sight Vailed in thine own eternal light! We thee confess, in thee believe; To thee with loving hearts we cleave.

2 O Father ! thou Most Holy One ! O God of God ! Eternal Son ! O Holy Ghost ! thou Love Divine ! To join them both is ever thine.

3 The Father is in God the Son, And with the Father he is one : In both the Spirit doth abide. And with them both is glorified.

4 Eternal Father ! thee we praise ; To thee, O Son ! our hymns we raise ; O Holy Ghost! we thee adore! One mighty God for evermore.

227 c.m. 61. Omnipresence. J. CONDER. BEYOND, beyond the boundless sea, Above that dome of sky, Further than thought itself can flee,

- Thy dwelling is on high :
- Yet dear the awful thought to me, That thou, my God ! art nigh :--
- 2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind Feels after thee in vain-
- Thee in these works of power to find, Or to thy seat attain ;

Thy messenger-the stormy wind ; Thy path-the trackless main.

3 These speak of thee with loud acclaim: They thunder forth thy praise-

WE

The glorious honor of thy name. The wonders of thy ways;

- But thou art not in tempest-flame, Nor in the noon-day blaze.
- 4 We hear thy voice, when thunders roll Through the wide fields of air :
- The waves obey thy dread control: Yet still thou art not there :
- Where shall I find him, O my soul! Who yet is everywhere?
- 5 Oh, not in circling depth or height, But in the conscious breast,
- Present to faith, though vailed from sight, There doth his Spirit rest:
- Oh, come, thou Presence infinite! And make thy creature blest.

228 L. M. Goodness. P. DODDRIDGE TRIUMPHANT Lord, thy goodness reigns Through all the wide celestial plains; And its full streams unceasing flow Down to the abodes of men below. 2 Through nature's work its glories shine; The cares of providence are thine; And grace erects our ruined frame A fairer temple to thy name.

3 Oh, give to every human heart To taste, and feel how good thou art; With grateful love and reverent fear, To know how blest thy children are.

229 г. м.

Glory. T. BLACKLOCK. COME, O my soul ! in sacred lays Attempt thy great Creator's praise : But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame? What mortal verse can reach the theme?

2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres, He glory like a garment wears; To form a robe of light divine, Ten thousand suns around him shine.

3 In all our Maker's grand designs, Almighty power with wisdom shines; His works thro' all this wondrous frame, Declare the glory of his name.

4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing. Do thou, my soul, his glories sing; And let his praise employ thy tongue, Till listening worlds shall join the song !

230 н. м. The Trinity

WE give immortal praise For God the Father's love, For all our comforts here,

And better hopes above : He sent his own eternal Son To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs Immortal glory too,

Who bought us with his blood From everlasting woe:

And now he lives, and now he reigns, And sees the fruit of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name Immortal worship give,

Whose new-creating power Makes the dead sinner live : His work completes the great design, And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God ! to thee Be endless honors done,

The undivided Three,

The great and glorious One: Where reason fails, with all her powers, There faith prevails, and love adores.

231 с. м. Majesty.-Ps. 18. T. STERNHOLD. 233 L.M.

THE Lord descended from above, And bowed the heavens most high:

And underneath his feet he cast The darkness of the sky.

- 2 On cherub and on cherubim, Full royally he rode;
- And on the wings of mighty winds Came flying all abroad.
- 3 He sat serene upon the floods, Their fury to restrain;
- And he, as sovereign Lord and King, For evermore shall reign.
- 4 The Lord will give his people strength, Whereby they shall increase;
- And he will bless his chosen flock With everlasting peace.
- 5 Give glory to his awful name, And honor him alone;

Give worship to his majesty, Upon his holy throne.

I. WATTS. 232 H. M.

On, for a shout of joy,

Worthy the theme we sing ; To this divine employ

Our hearts and voices bring ; Sound, sound, thro' all the earth abroad, The love, the eternal love of God.

Love.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand, Of seraphs bright and fair,

Or bow at thy right hand,

And pay their homage there; But strive in vain with loudest chord, To sound thy wondrous love, O Lord.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace, In songs of lower key,

In every age and place,

Have sung the mystery,-Have told in strains of sweet accord, Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail, And doubts and fears arise,

The weakest shall prevail, And grasp the heavenly prize, And through an endless age record

Thy love, thy changeless love, O Lord.

Grace.—Ps. 138. I. WATTS. WITH all my powers of heart and tongue I 'll praise my Maker in my song : Angels shall hear the notes I raise, Approve the song, and join the praise.

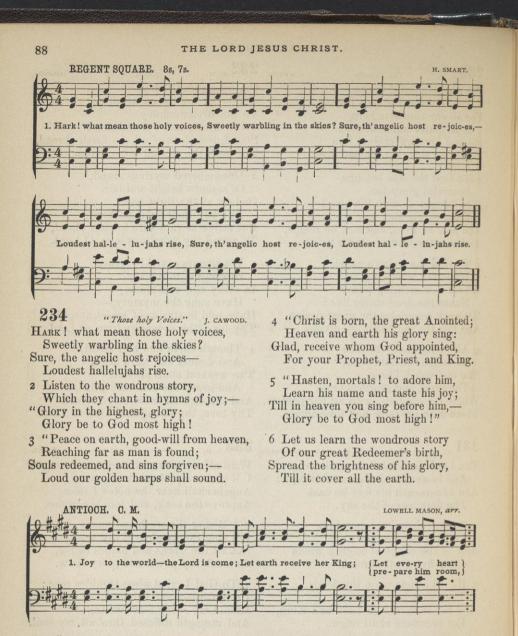

2 I'll sing thy truth and mercy, Lord; I'll sing the wonders of thy word; Not all the works and names below, So much thy power and glory show.

3 To God I cried when troubles rose; He heard me, and subdued my foes; He did my rising fears control, And strength diffused thro' all my soul.

4 Amidst a thousand snares I stand, Upheld and guarded by thy hand; Thy words my fainting soul revive, And keep my dying faith alive.

5 Grace will complete what grace begins, To save from sorrows and from sins; The work that wisdom undertakes, Eternal mercy ne'er forsakes.

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

WHEN, marshaled on the nightly plain, The glittering host bestud the sky, One star alone, of all the train,

Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

Hark ! hark ! to God the chorus breaks From every host, from every gem;

But one alone the Saviour speaks,— It is the Star of Bethlehem.

2 Once on the raging seas I rode, The storm was loud, the night was dark,

The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed The wind that tossed my foundering bark.

Deep horror then my vitals froze;

Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem; When suddenly a star arose,

It was the Star of Bethlehem !

3 It was my guide, my light, my all; It bade my dark forebodings cease,

And through the storm and danger's thrall It led me to the port of peace.

Now safely moored, my perils o'er, I'll sing, first in night's diadem,

For ever and for evermore,

The Star, the Star of Bethlehem!

WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still, And silence slept on Zion's hill; When Salem's shepherds thro' the night Watched o'er their flocks by starry light; 2 Hark! from the midnight hills around, A voice of more than mortal sound In distant hallelujahs stole, Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.

3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame, The glorious hosts of Zion came; High heaven with songs of triumph rung, While thus they struck their harps and sung:

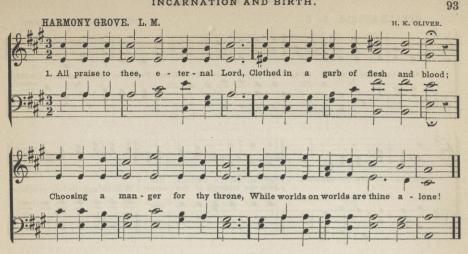

4 "O Zion! lift thy raptured eye; The long expected hour is nigh: The joys of nature rise again, The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

5 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart, Bids Satan and his host depart; Again the Daystar gilds the gloom, Again the bowers of Eden bloom." 6 O Zion ! lift thy raptured eye;

The long-expected hour is nigh; The joys of nature rise again: The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

INCARNATION AND BIRTH.

243 The child Christ. M. LUTHER. ALL praise to thee, eternal Lord, Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood; Choosing a manger for thy throne, While worlds on worlds are thine alone !

2 Once did the skies before thee bow; A virgin's arms contain thee now; Angels, who did in thee rejoice, Now listen for thine infant voice.

3 A little child, thou art our guest, That weary ones in thee may rest; Forlorn and lowly is thy birth, That we may rise to heaven from earth.

4 Thou comest in the darksome night To make us children of the light; To make us, in the realms divine, Like thine own angels round thee shine.

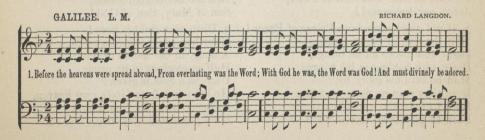

5 All this for us thy love hath done; By this to thee our love is won; For this we tune our cheerful lays, And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

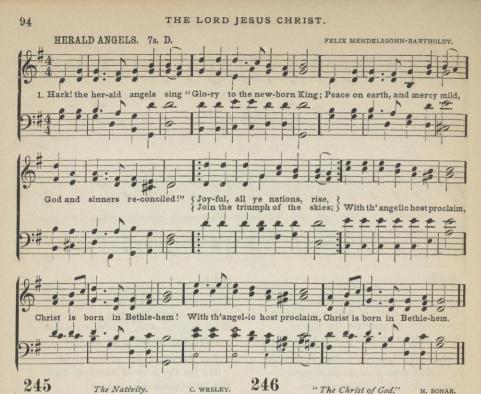

Incarnation. BEFORE the heavens were spread abroad, From everlasting was the Word;

I. WATTS.

With God he was, the Word was God! And must divinely be adored.

- 2 Ere sin was born, or Satan fell. He led the host of morning stars: His generation who can tell,
 - Or count the number of his years?
- 3 But lo, he leaves those heavenly forms: The Word descends and dwells in clay, That he may converse hold with worms, Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.
- 4 Mortals with joy behold his face, The eternal Father's only Son: How full of truth, how full of grace, When in his eyes the Godhead shone!
- 5 Archangels leave their high abode, To learn new mysteries here, and tell The love of our descending God. The glories of Immanuel.

HARK ! the herald angels sing "Glory to the new-born King; Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled 1" Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies; With the angelic host proclaim, Christ is born in Bethlehem !

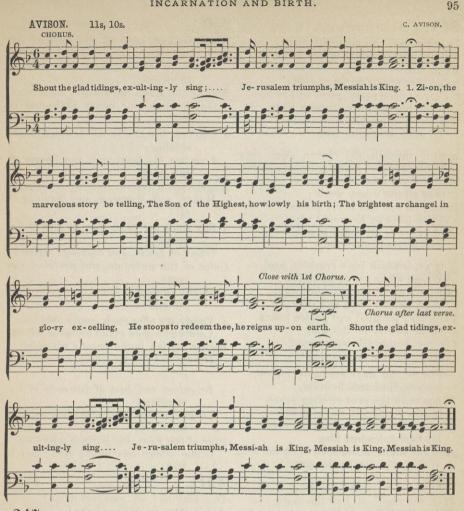

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord; Late in time behold him come, Offspring of the Virgin's womb: Vailed in flesh the Godhead see; Hail the incarnate Deity, Pleased as man with men to dwell; Jesus, our Immanuel!

3 Hail! the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of Righteousness! Light and life to all he brings, Risen with healing in his wings: Mild he lays his glory by, Born that man no more may die: Born to raise the sons of earth, Born to give them second birth. HE has come ! the Christ of God Left for us his glad abode; Stooping from his throne of bliss, To this darksome wilderness. He has come ! the Prince of Peace; Come to bid our sorrows cease; Come to scatter with his light All the shadows of our night.

2 He the mighty King has come! Making this poor earth his home; Come to bear our sin's sad load; Son of David, Son of God! He has come, whose name of grace Speaks deliverance to our race; Left for us his glad abode; Son of Mary, Son of God!

3 Unto us a child is born ! Ne'er has earth beheld a morn, Among all the morns of time, Half so glorious in its prime. Unto us a Son is given ! He has come from God's own heaven, Bringing with him from above Holy peace and holy love.

248 C. M. D. "The Age of Gold." E. H. SEARS. It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old,

- From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold;
- "Peace to the earth, good-will to man, From heaven's all-gracious King :"
- The earth in solemn stillness lay,

To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they With peaceful wings unfurled; [come,

And still celestial music floats

O'er all the weary world; Above its sad and lowly plains

They bend on heavenly wing, And ever o'er its Babel sounds,

The blesséd angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load, Whose forms are bending low,

Who toil along the climbing way, With painful steps and slow;—

Look up ! for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing ;

Oh, rest beside the weary road, And hear the angels sing !

4 For lo! the days are hastening on, By prophet-bards foretold,

When with the ever-circling years Comes round the age of gold !

When peace shall over all the earth Its final splendors fling,

And the whole world send back the song Which now the angels sing !

249 75, D. "All hail the morn!" GERMAN. HAIL the night, all hail the morn, When the Prince of Peace was born ! When, amid the wakeful fold, Tidings good the angels told. Now our solemn chant we raise Duly to the Saviour's praise; Now with carol hymns we bless Christ the Lord, our, righteousness.

2 While resounds the joyful cry, "Glory be to God on high, Peace on earth, good-will to men!" Gladly we respond, "Amen!" Thus we greet this holy day, Pouring forth our festive lay; Thus we tell, with saintly mirth, Of Immanuel's wondrous birth. 250 IIS, 105. "Star of the East." R. HEBER.

- BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning !
 - Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;
- Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
 - Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.
- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining;
 - Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall:
- Angels adore him, in slumber reclining, Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all!

3 Say shall we yield him, in costly devotion,

Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?

- Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
 - Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation, Vainly with gold would his favor secure:

Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration; Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

- 5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning !
 - Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;
- Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
- Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

251 75. Immanuel. S. SLINN. God with us! oh, glorious name! Let it shine in endless fame; God and man in Christ unite ; Oh, mysterious depth and height! 2 God with us! the eternal Son Took our soul, our flesh, and bone; Now, ye saints, his grace admire, Swell the song with holy fire. 3 God with us ! but tainted not With the first transgressor's blot; Yet did he our sins sustain, Bear the guilt, the curse, the pain. 4 God with us ! oh, wondrous grace ! Let us see him face to face; That we may Immanuel sing, As we ought, our God and King !

252 с. м.	Incarnation.	A. STEEL
AWAKE, awake	the sacred song
To our incar	mate Lord!

Let every heart and every tongue Adore the eternal Word.

2 That awful Word, that sovereign Power,

By whom the worlds were made-

Oh, happy morn ! illustrious hour !--Was once in flesh arrayed !

3 Then shone almighty power and love, In all their glorious forms.

4 Adoring angels tuned their songs To hail the joyful day ;

With rapture then let mortal tongues Their grateful worship pay.

253 C. M. The Promised Lord. P. DODDRIDGE. HARK, the glad sound! the Saviour The Saviour promised long; [comes,

Let every heart prepare a throne, And every voice a song.

2 He comes, the prisoner to release, In Satan's bondage held;

The gates of brass before him burst, The iron fetters yield.

3 He comes, from thickest films of vice To clear the mental ray,

And, on the eyes long closed in night, To pour celestial day.

4 He comes, the broken heart to bind. The bleeding soul to cure,

And, with the treasures of his grace, Enrich the humble poor.

5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace, Thy welcome shall proclaim,

And heaven's eternal arches ring With thy beloved name.

254 с. м. The Gospel Song. S. MEDLEY. MORTALS, awake, with angels join And chant the solemn lay;

Joy, love, and gratitude combine To hail the auspicious day.

2 In heaven the rapturous song began, And sweet seraphic fire

Through all the shining legions ran, And strung and tuned the lyre.

- 3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew. And loud the echo rolled :
- The theme, the song, the joy, was new. 'T was more than heaven could hold.
- 4 Down through the portals of the sky The impetuous torrent ran;

And angels flew, with eager joy, To bear the news to man.

- 5 Hark ! the cherubic armies shout. And glory leads the song ;
- "Good-will and peace" are heard thro'-Th' harmonious angel-throng. out
- 6 With joy the chorus we'll repeat,-"Glory to God on high!
- Good-will and peace are now complete; Jesus was born to die !"

255 L. M.

Yesus' Birth. ANON. WAKE, O my soul, and hail the morn, For unto us a Saviour's born ; See ! how the angels wing their way, To usher in the glorious day !

2 Hark! what sweet music, what a song, Sounds from the bright, celestial throng ! Sweet song, whose melting sounds impart Joy to each raptured, listening heart.

3 Come, join the angels in the sky, Glory to God, who reigns on high ; Let peace and love on earth abound, While time revolves and years roll round.

A. REED.

256 н. м. "The notes of joy."

Roll o'er the heavenly plains,

And seraphs find employ

For their sublimest strains : Some new delight in heaven is known; Loud sound the harps around the throne.

The joyful hosts descend ;

Jesus forsakes the sky,

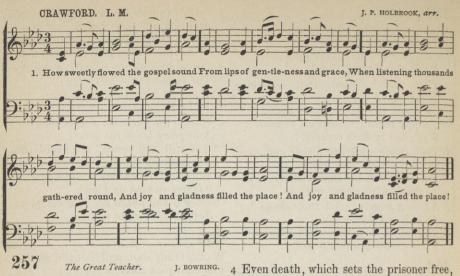

To earth his footsteps bend; He comes to bless our fallen race : He comes with messages of grace.

3 Bear—bear the tidings round; Let every mortal know

What love in God is found, What pity he can show;

Ye winds that blow! ye waves that roll! Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

THE LORD IESUS CHRIST.

How SWEETLY flowed the gospel sound From lips of gentleness and grace, When listening thousands gathered round, And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

And joy and gladness filled the place !

2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke, Illuming all my way of woe ! To heaven he led his followers' way;

Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke, Unvailing an immortal day.

3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home, Come, all ye weary ones, and rest:"

Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come, Obey thee, love thee, and be blest!

4 Decay then, tenements of dust; Pillars of earthly pride, decay:

A nobler mansion waits the just, And Jesus has prepared the way.

258 "Holy, harmless." A. C. COXE. How BEAUTEOUS were the marks divine. That in thy meekness used to shine, That lit thy lonely pathway, trod In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so bright, So pure, so made to live in light? Oh, who like thee did ever go So patient through a world of woe?

3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore The scorn, the scoffs of men, before? So meek, forgiving, godlike, high, So glorious in humility?

Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee; Yet love through all thy torture glowed.

Oh, in thy light be mine to go, And give me ever on the road To trace thy footsteps, Son of God.

259"He healed them." J. MONTGOMERY. WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere, The lowly Jesus wandered here, Where'er he went, affliction fled, And sickness reared her fainting head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night, Beheld his face—for God is light; The opening ear, the loosened tongue. His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps the halt and lame. To hail their great Deliverer came; O'er the cold grave he bowed his head, He spake the word, and raised the dead.

4 Despairing madness, dark and wild, In his inspiring presence smiled: The storm of horror ceased to roll. And reason lightened through the soul.

5 Through paths of loving-kindness led, Where Jesus triumphed we would tread; To all, with willing hands dispense The gifts of our benevolence.

LOWELL MASON.

My dear Redeemer, and my Lord, I read my duty in thy word; But in thy life the law appears, Drawn out in living characters. 2 Such was thy truth and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer; The desert thy temptations knew, Thy conflict and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear More of thy gracious image here; Then God, the Judge, shall own my name Among the followers of the Lamb.

261 "How shall I copy?" J. CONDER. How SHALL I follow him I serve? How shall I copy him I love?

- Nor from those blesséd footsteps swerve, Which lead me to his seat above?
- 2 Lord, should my path through suffering lie, 4 Forbid it I should e'er repine;

Still let me turn to Calvary,

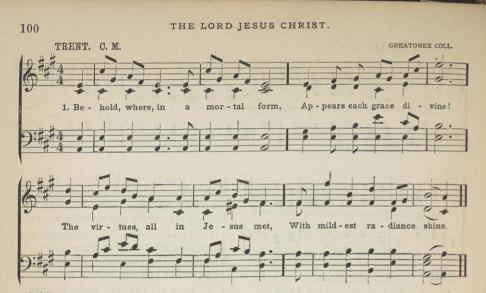

Nor heed my griefs, remembering thine.

3 Oh, let me think how thou didst leave Untasted every pure delight,

To fast, to faint, to watch, to grieve, The toilsome day, the homeless night:----

To faint, to grieve, to die for me! Thou camest not thyself to please:

And, dear as earthly comforts be, Shall I not love thee more than these?

262 "All in Jesus." WM. ENFIELD. BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form, Appears each grace divine !

The virtues, all in Jesus met. With mildest radiance shine.

- 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light, To give the mourner joy,
- To preach glad tidings to the poor, Was his divine employ.
- 3 'Mid keen reproach and cruel scorn, He meek and patient stood;
- His foes, ungrateful, sought his life, Who labored for their good.
- 4 In the last hour of deep distress, Before his Father's throne,
- With soul resigned he bowed and said,-"Thy will, not mine, be done !"
- 5 Be Christ our pattern, and our guide, His image may we bear;
- Oh, may we tread his holy steps,-His joy and glory share.

A lonely life. E. DENNY. A PILGRIM through this lonely world, The blessed Saviour passed;

- A mourner all his life was he, A dying Lamb at last.
- 2 That tender heart that felt for all, For all its life-blood gave;
- It found on earth no resting-place, Save only in the grave.

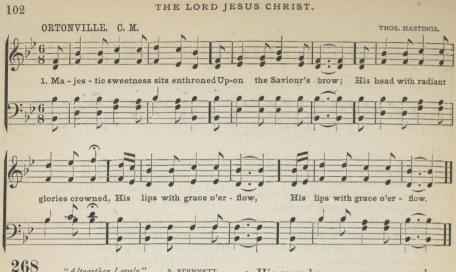

- 3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear The cross, with all its scorn?
- Or love a faithless evil world. That wreathed his brow with thorn?
- 4 No! facing all its frowns or smiles, Like him, obedient still,
- We homeward press through storm or calm, To Zion's blesséd hill.

264For our example. E. DENNY. WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone Around thy steps below;

What patient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe.

- 2 For, ever on thy burdened heart A weight of sorrow hung;
- Yet no ungentle, murmuring word Escaped thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile, Thy friends unfaithful prove;
- Unwearied in forgiveness still, Thy heart could only love.
- 4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee ! Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
- Far more for others' sins, than all The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with thyself, may every eye, In us, thy brethren, see
- The gentleness and grace that spring From union, Lord! with thee.

"Altogether Lovely." S. STENNETT. MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned Upon the Saviour's brow;

2 No mortal can with him compare, Among the sons of men;

Fairer is he than all the fair That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress, He flew to my relief;

For me he bore the shameful cross, And carried all my grief.

4 To him I owe my life and breath, And all the joys I have;

He makes me triumph over death, He saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of his abode, He brings my weary feet;

Shows me the glories of my God, And makes my joy complete.

6 Since from his bounty I receive Such proofs of love divine,

Had I a thousand hearts to give, Lord! they should all be thine.

269 "His free ways." F. W. FABER.

Он, see how Jesus trusts himself Unto our childish love!

As though by his free ways with us Our earnestness to prove. 2 His sacred name a common word On earth he loves to hear;

There is no majesty in him Which love may not come near.

- 3 The light of love is round his feet, His paths are never dim;
- And he comes nigh to us when we Dare not come nigh to him.
- 4 Let us be simple with him then, Not backward, stiff, nor cold,

As though our Bethlehem could be What Sinai was of old.

THE Saviour ! oh, what endless charms Dwell in the blissful sound !

Its influence every fear disarms, And spreads sweet comfort round.

2 The almighty Former of the skies Stooped to our vile abode;

While angels viewed with wondering eyes And hailed the incarnate God.

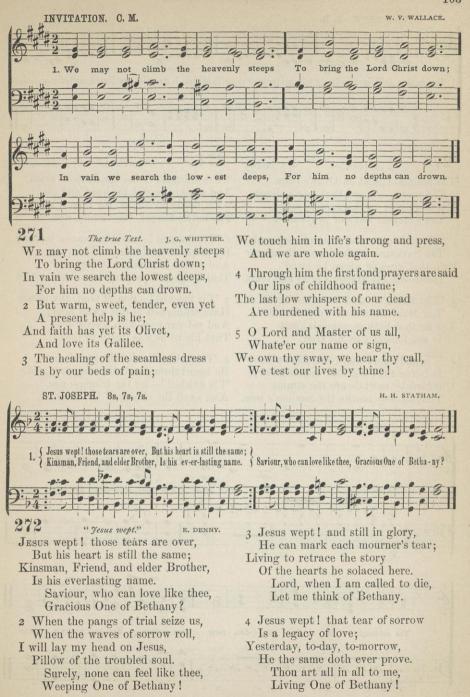

3 Oh, the rich depths of love divine ! Of bliss a boundless store !

Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine; I cannot wish for more.

4 On thee alone my hope relies, Beneath thy cross I fall;

My Lord, my Life, my Sacrifice, My Saviour, and my All!

His head with radiant glories crowned, His lips with grace o'erflow.

'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow The star is dimmed that lately shone:

104

'Tis midnight; in the garden, now The suffering Saviour prays alone.

2 'T is midnight; and from all removed, The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;

Ev'n that disciple whom he loved Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt Is not forsaken by his God.

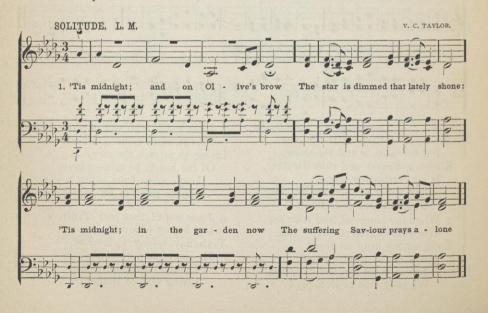

4 'T is midnight; and from ether-plains Is borne the song that angels know;

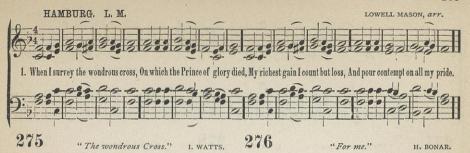

Unheard by mortals are the strains That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe. "'T is finished !"—so the Saviour cried, And meekly bowed his head and died: "'T is finished !"—yes, the race is run, The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'T is finished !—all that heaven foretold By prophets in the days of old; And truths are opened to our view That kings and prophets never knew.

3 'Tis finished !—Son of God, thy power Hath triumphed in this awful hour; And yet our eyes with sorrow see That life to us was death to thee.

4 'Tis finished !—let the joyful sound Be heard through all the nations round: 'Tis finished !—let the triumph rise, And swell the chorus of the skies.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross, On which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss,

And pour contempt on all my pride.

- 2 Forbid it, Lord ! that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ, my God;
- All the vain things that charm me most I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down;

Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 His dying crimson, like a robe, Spreads o'er his body on the tree;

Then I am dead to all the globe, And all the globe is dead to me.

5 Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a present far too small;

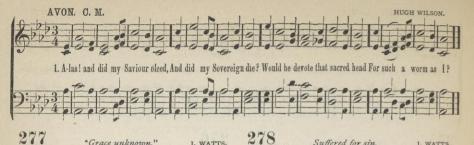

Love so amazing, so divine,

Demands my soul, my life, my all.

JESUS, whom angel hosts adore, Became a man of griefs for me; In love, though rich, becoming poor, That I through him enriched might be.

- 2 Though Lord of all, above, below, He went to Olivet for me:
- There drank my cup of wrath and woe, When bleeding in Gethsemane.
- 3 The ever-blesséd Son of God Went up to Calvary for me;
- There paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree.
- 4 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed, And did my Sovereign die?

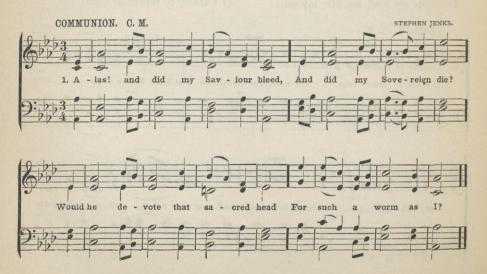

Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

- 2 Was it for crimes that I had done He groaned upon the tree?
- Amazing pity ! grace unknown ! And love beyond degree !
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide, And shut his glories in,
- When Christ, the great Creator, died For man, the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face While his dear cross appears;
- Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, And melt my eyes to tears.
- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay The debt of love I owe;
- Here, Lord, I give myself away, 'T is all that I can do.

OH, if my soul were formed for woe, How would I vent my sighs!

Repentance should like rivers flow From both my streaming eyes.

- 2 'T was for my sins my dearest Lord Hung on the curséd tree,
- And groaned away a dying life For thee, my soul! for thee.
- 3 Oh, how I hate these lusts of mine That crucified my Lord;
- Those sins that pierced and nailed his flesh Fast to the fatal wood !
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer—they shall die; My heart has so decreed;
- Nor will I spare the guilty things That made my Saviour bleed.
- 5 While with a melting, broken heart, My murdered Lord I view,
- I'll raise revenge against my sins, And slay the murderers too.

SUFFERINGS AND DEATH.

- J. NEWTON. The two Looks. I saw One hanging on a tree, In agony and blood;
- Who fixed his languid eyes on me, As near the cross I stood.
- 2 Sure, never, till my latest breath, Can I forget that look:
- It seemed to charge me with his death, Though not a word he spoke.
- 3 Alas! I knew not what I did,-But now my tears are vain;

Where shall my trembling soul be hid, For I the Lord have slain!

- 4 A second look he gave, that said, "I freely all forgive:
- This blood is for thy ransom paid; I die that thou may'st live."
- 5 Thus while his death my sin displays Ir. all its blackest hue,
- Such is the mystery of grace, It seals my pardon too!

280 "He remembers Calvary." I. WATTS.

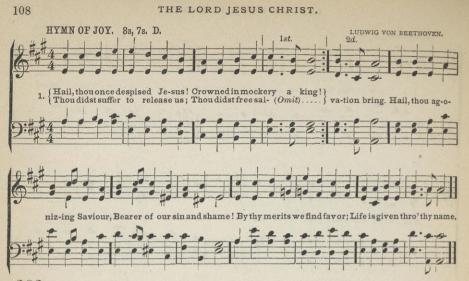

- How condescending and how kind Was God's eternal Son!
- Our misery reached his heavenly mind, And pity brought him down.
- 2 He sunk beneath our heavy woes, To raise us to his throne;
- There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows, But cost his heart a groan.

- 3 This was compassion, like a God, That when the Saviour knew The price of pardon was his blood, His pity ne'er withdrew.
- 4 Now, though he reigns exalted high, His love is still as great;
- Well he remembers Calvary, Nor let his saints forget.

"O Christ of God !" RAY PALMER. O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed,

- While at thy cross I kneel,
- Gaze on thy wounded, fainting head, And all thy sorrows feel.
- 2 My heart dissolves to see thee bleed. This heart so hard before;
- I hear thee for the guilty plead, And grief o'erflows the more.
- 3 I know this cleansing blood of thine Was shed, dear Lord, for me:
- For me, for all,-oh, grace divine !--Who look by faith on thee.
- 4 O Christ of God, O spotless Lamb, By love my soul is drawn;
- Henceforth, for ever, thine I am; Here life and peace are born.
- 5 In patient hope, the cross I'll bear, Thine arm shall be my stay;
- And thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare, On thy great judgment-day.

J. BAKEWELL.

Mocked. HAIL, thou once despiséd Jesus! Crowned in mockery a king!

Thou didst suffer to release us; Thou didst free salvation bring.

- Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
- Bearer of our sin and shame! By thy merits we find favor;

Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed, All our sins on thee were laid;

By Almighty Love anointed,

Thou hast full atonement made: All thy people are forgiven

Through the virtue of thy blood; Opened is the gate of heaven,

Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

283

R. LEE.

On the cross. WHEN I view my Saviour bleeding, For my sins, upon the tree;

Oh, how wondrous !---how exceeding Great his love appears to me!

Floods of deep distress and anguish, To impede his labors, came;

Yet they all could not extinguish Love's eternal, burning flame.

2 Now redemption is completed, Full salvation is procured;

Death and Satan are defeated, By the sufferings he endured. Now the gracious Mediator Risen to the courts of bliss, Claims from me, a sinful creature, Pardon, righteousness, and peace!

3 Sure such infinite affection Lays the highest claims to mine;

All my powers, without exception, Should in fervent praises join.

Jesus, fit me for thy service; Form me for thyself alone;

I am thy most costly purchase,-Take possession of thine own.

MORAVIAN.

CRoss, reproach, and tribulation! Ye to me are welcome guests, When I have this consolation, Reproached.

That my soul in Jesus rests. The reproach of Christ is glorious!

Those who here his burden bear,

In the end shall prove victorious, And eternal gladness share.

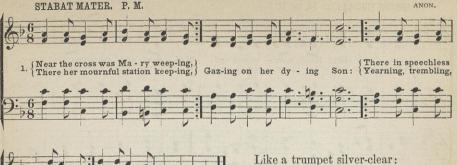

2 Bonds and stripes, and evil story, Are our honorable crowns;

Pain is peace, and shame is glory, Gloomy dungeons are as thrones.

Bear, then, the reproach of Jesus, Ye who live a life of faith!

Lift triumphant songs and praises Ev'n in martyrdom and death.

SUFFERINGS AND DEATH.

anguish groaning,) [gone. sighing, moaning, | Through her soul the sword had -0-

" Near the Cross." J. W. ALEXANDER, tr. NEAR the cross was Mary weeping, There her mournful station keeping, Gazing on her dying Son: There in speechless anguish groaning, Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning, Through her soul the sword had gone !

2 But we have no need to borrow Motives from the mother's sorrow.

At our Saviour's cross to mourn: "T was our sins brought him from heaven, These the cruel nails had driven:

All his griefs for us were borne.

3 When no eye its pity gave us, When there was no arm to save us,

He his love and power displayed: By his stripes he wrought our healing, By his death, our life revealing, He for us the ransom paid.

4 Jesus, may thy love constrain us, That from sin we may refrain us,

In thy griefs may deeply grieve: Thee our best affections giving, To thy glory ever living,

May we in thy glory live.

285

H. BONAR.

"It is finished." FROM the cross the blood is falling, And to us a voice is calling

'Tis the voice announcing pardon It is finished, is its burden, Pardon to the far and near.

2 Peace that glorious blood is sealing, All our wounds for ever healing.

And removing every load; Words of peace that voice has spoken, Peace that shall no more be broken,

Peace between the soul and God.

287 "Day of darkness." F. H. HEDGE, tr.

"T was the day when God's Anointed Died for us the death appointed,

Bleeding on the dreadful cross; Day of darkness, day of terror, Deadly fruit of ancient error, Nature's fall, and Eden's loss!

2 Haste, prepare the bitter chalice! Gentile hate and Jewish malice Lift the royal Victim high; Like the serpent, wonder-gifted, Which the prophet once uplifted, For a sinful world to die.

3 Conscious of the deed unholy, Nature's pulses beat more slowly, And the sun his light denied; Darkness wrapped the sacred city, And the earth with fear and pity Trembled, when the Just One died.

4 Not in vain for us uplifted, Man of sorrows, wonder-gifted, May that sacred symbol be; Eminent amid the ages. Guide of heroes and of sages, May it guide us still to thee.

Yet, though de - spised and thee go ry, to call iov mine. 288 289 " Upon the cross." The Lamb of God. J. G. DECK. J. WESLEY.

O JESUS, we adore thee, Upon the cross, our King:

We bow our hearts before thee: Thy gracious Name we sing:

That Name hath brought salvation, That Name, in life our stay;

Our peace, our consolation When life shall fade away.

2 Yet doth the world disdain thee, Still pressing by thy cross:

Lord, may our hearts retain thee; All else we count but loss.

The grief thy soul enduréd, Who can that grief declare?

Thy pains have thus assured That thou thy foes wilt spare.

3 Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned thee, And nailed thee to the tree:

- Our pride, O Lord, disdained thee;-Yet deign our hope to be.
- O glorious King, we bless thee, No longer pass thee by;

O Jesus, we confess thee Our Lord enthroned on high. O LAMB of God ! still keep me Near to thy wounded side; "T is only there in safety

And peace I can abide!

What foes and snares surround me, What doubts and fears within!

The grace that sought and found me, Alone can keep me clean.

2 'T is only in thee hiding I know my life secure-

Only in thee abiding,

The conflict can endure: Thine arm the victory gaineth O'er every hateful foe;

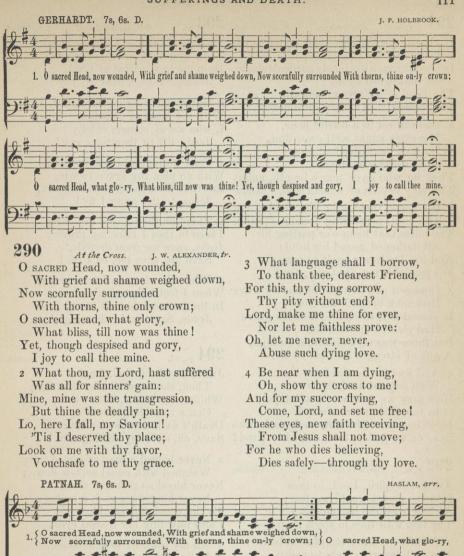

Thy love my heart sustaineth In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold thee, With rapture, face to face;

One half hath not been told me

Of all thy power and grace: Thy beauty, Lord, and glory, The wonders of thy love,

Shall be the endless story Of all the saints above.

Yet, though despised and go

What bliss, till now was thine!

joy to call thee mine.

291 C. L. M. Gethsemane. F. D. HEMANS. 293 75.

HE knelt, the Saviour knelt and praved, Thou who didst on Calvary bleed, When but his Father's eve

Looked through the lonely garden's shade, Help me in my time of need, On that dread agony

The Lord of all above, beneath, Was bowed with sorrow unto death.

2 The sun set in a fearful hour, The skies might well grow dim,

When this mortality had power So to o'ershadow him!

That he who gave man's breath, might The very depths of human woe. [know

3 He knew them all; the doubt, the The faint, perplexing dread ; [strife, The mists that hang o'er parting life,

All darkened round his head ; And the Deliverer knelt to pray ; Yet passed it not, that cup, away.

4 It passed not, though the stormy wave Had sunk beneath his tread ;

It passed not, though to him the grave Had yielded up its dead.

But there was sent him from on high, A gift of strength for man to die.

5 And was his mortal hour beset With anguish and dismay?

How may we meet our conflict yet, In the dark, narrow way?

How but through him, that path who Death's dark waters o'er me roll, Save or we perish, Son of God! [trod? Save, oh, save my sinking soul!

292 г. м. Christ in the Desert. J. F. THRUPP.

AWHILE in spirit, Lord, to thee Into the desert would we flee; Awhile upon the barren steep Thy fast with thee in spirit keep ;---

2 Awhile from thy temptation learn The daily snares of sin to spurn, And in our hearts to feel and own Man liveth not by bread alone.

3 And while at thy command we pray, Give us our bread from day to day, May we with thee, O Christ, be fed, Thou Word of God, thou Living Bread.

4 Incarnate Lord, we come to thee, Thou knowest our infirmity ; Be thou our Helper in the strife, Be thou our true, our inward Life.

" Jesus, Saviour."

Thou who dost for sinners plead,

Jesus, Saviour, hear my cry ! 2 In my darkness and my grief,

With my heart of unbelief,

I, who am of sinners chief, Jesus, lift to thee mine eye!

3 Foes without and fears within, With no plea thy grace to win, But that thou canst save from sin, Jesus, to thy cross I fly !

4 There on thee I cast my care, There to thee I raise my prayer, Jesus, save me from despair,

Save me, save me, or I die!

When the storms of trial lower, When I feel temptation's power, In the last and darkest hour,

Jesus, Saviour, be thou nigh!

294 75, 61. "Lamb of God."

RAY PALMER.

JESUS, Lamb of God, for me Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;

Whither-whither, but to thee, Can a trembling sinner fly !

2 Never bowed a martyr's head Weighed with equal sorrow down; Never blood so rich was shed,

Never king wore such a crown; To thy cross and sacrifice Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul, by love subdued, Melts in deep contrition there; By thy mighty grace renewed,

New-born hope forbids despair : Lord! thou canst my guilt forgive, Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel, Sinks the inward storm to rest ;

Life—immortal life—I feel

Kindled in my throbbing breast; Thine-for ever thine-I am ! Glory to thee, bleeding Lamb !

J. D. BURNS.

RESURRECTION AND REIGN.

295 L. M. "He lives again."	I. WATTS.
HE dies !- the friend of sinners	dies;
Lo! Salem's daughters weep	around;
A solemn darkness vails the ski
A sudden trembling shakes the	e ground.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree: The Lord of glory dies for men;

But lo ! what sudden joys we see, Jesus, the dead, revives again.

3 The rising God forsakes the tomb; Up to his Father's court he flies;

Cherubic legions guard him home,

And shout him welcome to the skies.

4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell How high our great Deliverer reigns ;

Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell, And led the tyrant Death in chains.

5 Say-live for ever, glorious King, Born to redeem, and strong to save !

Where now, O Death, where is thy sting? And where thy victory, boasting Grave?

296 с. м.

" Died for me." A. STEELE. To our Redeemer's glorious name, Awake the sacred song !

Oh, may his love-immortal flame-Tune every heart and tongue!

2 His love, what mortal thought can What mortal tongue display? [reach?

Imagination's utmost stretch, In wonder, dies away.

3 Dear Lord! while we adoring pay Our humble thanks to thee,

May every heart with rapture say,-" The Saviour died for me!"

4 Oh, may the sweet, the blissful theme, Fill every heart and tongue,

Till strangers love thy charming name, And join the sacred song.

297 75.

The Resurrection. T. SCOTT. ANGELS ! roll the rock away ; Death! yield up thy mighty prey; See! the Saviour leaves the tomb, Glowing with immortal bloom.

2 Hark! the wondering angels raise Louder notes of joyful praise; Let the earth's remotest bound Echo with the blissful sound.

3 Saints on earth, lift up your eyes,-Now to glory see him rise In long triumph through the sky. Up to waiting worlds on high.

4 Heaven unfolds its portals wide! Mighty Conqueror ! through them ride ; King of glory ! mount thy throne, Boundless empire is thine own.

298 65, 45. "Worthy the Lamb!" GLORY to God on high ! Let heaven and earth reply,

"Praise ye his name !" His love and grace adore, Who all our sorrows bore ; Sing loud for evermore, "Worthy the Lamb !"

2 While they around the throne Cheerfully join in one,

Praising his name,-Ye who have felt his blood Sealing your peace with God. Sound his dear name abroad, "Worthy the Lamb !"

3 Join, all ye ransomed race, Our Lord and God to bless;

Praise ye his name !

In him we will rejoice,

And make a joyful noise,

Shouting with heart and voice, "Worthy the Lamb !"

299 н. м. " Rejoice!"

REJOICE ! the Lord is King; Your Lord and King adore :

Mortals, give thanks and sing, And triumph evermore !

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice; Rejoice !---again I say, rejoice !

2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns, The God of truth and love;

When he had purged our stains, He took his seat above :

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice; Rejoice !--- again I say, rejoice !

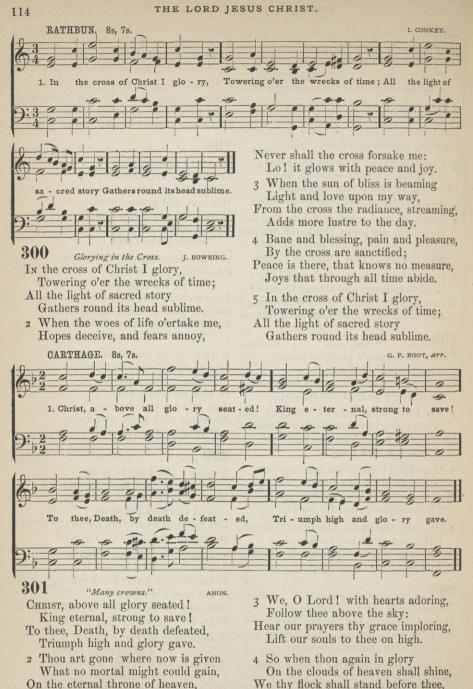

3 Rejoice in glorious hope: Jesus, the Judge, shall come,

And take his servants up To their eternal home :

We soon shall hear the archangel's voice; The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice !

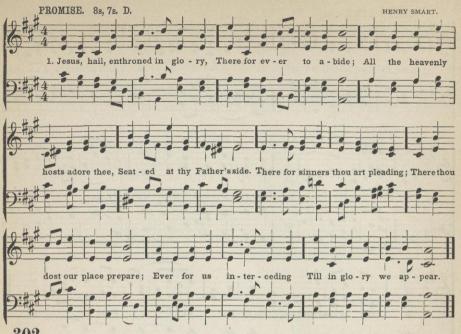

J. ALLEN.

C. WESLEY.

- In thy Father's power to reign.
- We thy flock shall stand before thee, Owned for evermore as thine.

RESURRECTION AND REIGN.

302"Enthroned in glory." J. BAKEWELL. JESUS, hail, enthroned in glory, There for ever to abide:

- All the heavenly hosts adore thee, Seated at thy Father's side.
- There for sinners thou art pleading; There thou dost our place prepare :

Ever for us interceding Till in glory we appear.

- 2 Worship, honor, power and blessing, Thou art worthy to receive;
- Loudest praises, without ceasing, Meet it is for us to give.

Help, ye bright angelic spirits, Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;

Help to sing our Saviour's merits, Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

303 "The blood that speaketh." C. WESLEY. FATHER, hear the blood of Jesus, Speaking in thine ears above:

From impending wrath release us; Manifest thy pardoning love.

Oh, receive us to thy favor,-For his only sake receive;

Give us to the bleeding Saviour, Let us by his dying live.

2 "To thy pardoning grace receive them," Once he prayed upon the tree;

ANON.

- Still his blood cries out "Forgive them; All their sins were laid on me."
- Still our Advocate in heaven

Prays the prayer on earth begun, ---"Father, show their sins forgiven:

Father, glorify thy Son !"

304 "Shall see his face."

"WE shall see Him," in our nature, Seated on his lofty throne,

Loved, adored, by every creature, Owned as God, and God alone!

There the hosts of shining spirits Strike their harps, and loudly sing

To the praise of Jesus' merits, To the glory of their King.

2 When we pass o'er death's dark river, "We shall see him as he is,"

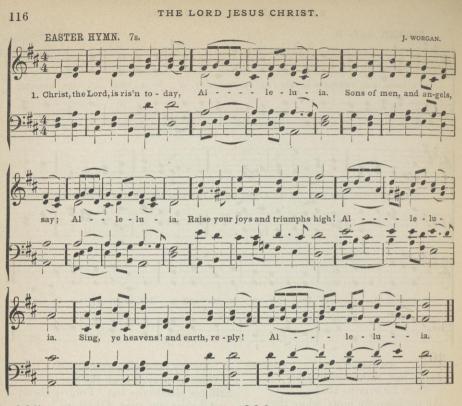

Resting in his love and favor, Owning all the glory his.

There to cast our crowns before him,

Oh, what bliss the thought affords! There for ever to adore him,

King of kings, and Lord of lords!

Joy in the Lord.

T. KELLY.

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day, Sons of men, and angels, say; Raise your joys and triumphs high ! Sing, ye heavens ! and earth, reply !

2 Love's redeeming work is done, Fought the fight, the battle won; Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er; Lo, he sets in blood no more.

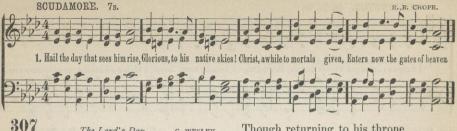

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal; Christ hath burst the gates of hell; Death in vain forbids his rise; Christ hath opened Paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King; "Where, O Death, is now thy sting?" Once he died our souls to save; "Where's thy victory, boasting Grave?"

5 Soar we now where Christ has led, Following our exalted Head; Made like him, like him we rise; Ours the cross, the grave, the skies! JOYFUL be the hours to-day; Joyful let the seasons be; Let us sing, for well we may: Jesus ! we will sing of thee.

- 2 Should thy people silent be, Then the very stones would sing: What a debt we owe to thee,
- Thee our Saviour, thee our King!
- 3 Joyful are we now to own, Rapture thrills us as we trace
- All the deeds thy love hath done, All the riches of thy grace.
- 4 'T is thy grace alone can save; Every blessing comes from thee—
- All we have, and hope to have, All we are, and hope to be.
- 5 Thine the Name to sinners dear ! Thine the Name all names before !

Blesséd here and everywhere; Blesséd now and evermore!

The Lord's Day. C. WESLEY. HAIL the day that sees him rise, Glorious, to his native skies ! Christ, awhile to mortals given, Enters now the gates of heaven. 2 There the glorious triumph waits; Lift your heads, eternal gates ! Christ hath vanquished death and sin; Take the King of glory in.

3 See, the heaven its Lord receives ! Yet he loves the earth he leaves: Though returning to his throne, Still he calls mankind his own.

4 Still for us he intercedes, His prevailing death he pleads; Near himself prepares a place, Great Forerunner of our race.

5 What, though parted from our sight, Far above yon starry height; Thither our affections rise, Following him beyond the skies.

"Hallelujah." C. WINKWORTH, tr. CHRIST the Lord is risen again, Christ hath broken every chain; Hark ! angelic voices cry, Singing evermore on high,

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! 2 He who bore all pain and loss, Comfortless, upon the cross, Lives in glory now on high, Pleads for us, and hears our cry: Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! 3 He who slumbered in the grave Is exalted now to save; Now through Christendom it rings That the Lamb is King of kings: Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

4 Now he bids us tell abroad How the lost may be restored, How the penitent forgiven, How we, too, may enter heaven: Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

309 The Return to Heaven. T. KELLY. JESUS comes, his conflict over,—

Comes to claim his great reward; Angels round the Victor hover,

Crowding to behold their Lord; Haste, ye saints ! your tribute bring, Crown him, everlasting King.

2 Yonder throne for him erected, Now becomes the Victor's seat;

Lo, the Man on earth rejected ! Angels worship at his feet: Haste, ye saints ! your tribute bring, Crown him, everlasting King.

3 Day and night they cry before him,— "Holy, holy, holy Lord !"

All the powers of heaven adore him, All obey his sovereign word:

Haste, ye saints ! your tribute bring, Crown him, everlasting King.

Who is that comes from Edom.

All his raiment stained with blood; To the slave proclaiming freedom;

Bringing and bestowing good: Glorious in the garb he wears, Glorious in the spoils he bears?

2 'T is the Saviour, now victorious, Travelling onward in his might;

"Tis the Saviour, oh, how glorious

To his people is the sight! Jesus now is strong to save; Mighty to redeem the slave. 3 Why that blood his raiment staining? 'T is the blood of many slain:

Of his foes there's none remaining, None the contest to maintain: Fallen they, no more to rise,

All their glory prostrate lies.

4 Mighty Victor, reign for ever; Wear the crown so dearly won;

Never shall thy people, never

Cease to sing what thou hast done; Thou hast fought thy people's foes; Thou hast healed thy people's woes.

311 All glory to Christ. T. KELLY.

GLORY, glory to our King ! Crowns unfading wreathe his head;

Jesus is the name we sing,— Jesus, risen from the dead; Jesus, Conqueror o'er the grave; Jesus, mighty now to save.

2 Jesus is gone up on high: Angels come to meet their King; Shouts triumphant rend the sky,

While the Victor's praise they sing: "Open now, ye heavenly gates ! "Tis the King of glory waits."

3 Now behold him high enthroned,

Glory beaming from his face, By adoring angels owned,

God of holiness and grace ! Oh, for hearts and tongues to sing— "Glory, glory to our King !"

HARK! ten thousand harps and voices Sound the note of praise above;

Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices;

Jesus reigns, the God of love: See, he sits on yonder throne; Jesus rules the world alone.

2 King of glory! reign for ever-Thine an everlasting crown;

Nothing, from thy love, shall sever Those whom thou hast made thine own;— Happy objects of thy grace,

Destined to behold thy face.

3 Saviour ! hasten thine appearing; Bring, oh, bring the glorious day,

When, the awful summons hearing, Heaven and earth shall pass away;— Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,— "Glory, glory to our King!"

SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph!

See the King in royal state,

Riding on the clouds, his chariot, To his heavenly palace gate !

- Hark! the choirs of angel voices Joyful hallelujahs sing,
- And the portals high are lifted To receive their heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory, With the trump of jubilee? Lord of battles, God of armies, He has gained the victory; He, who on the cross did suffer, He, who from the grave arose, He has vanquished sin and Satan, He by death has spoiled his foes.

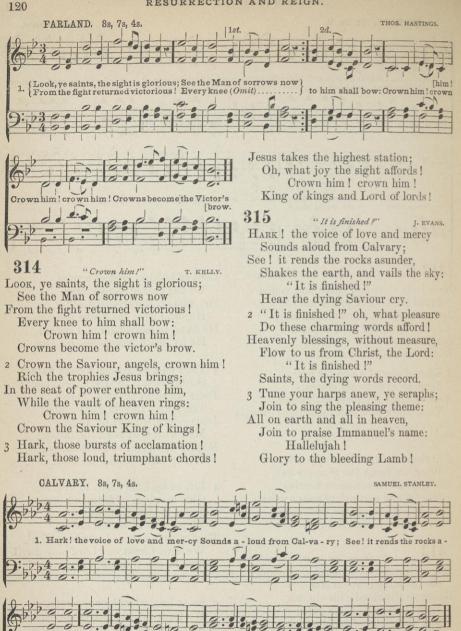

3 Thou hast raised our human nature, On the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with thee in glory stand; Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord! in thine ascension, We by faith behold our own.

4 Lift us up from earth to heaven, Give us wings of faith and love, Gales of holy aspirations, Wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted, We with Christ our Lord may dwell, Where he sits enthroned in glory, In the heavenly citadel.

5 So at last, when he appeareth, We from out our graves may spring, With our youth renewed like eagles', Flocking round our heavenly King, Caught up on the clouds of heaven, And may meet him in the air— Rise to realms where he is reigning,

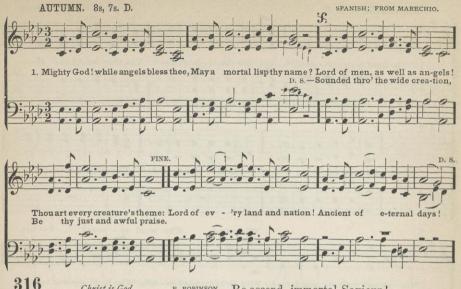

And may reign for ever there.

RESURRECTION AND REIGN.

sunder, Shakes the earth, and vails the sky; "It is finished:" "It is finished:" Hear the dving Saviour cry.

Christ is God. R. ROBINSON. MIGHTY God! while angels bless thee, May a mortal lisp thy name?

Lord of men, as well as angels !

Thou art every creature's theme: Lord of every land and nation !

Ancient of eternal days!

Sounded through the wide creation Be thy just and awful praise.

2 For the grandeur of thy nature,— Grand, beyond a seraph's thought; For the wonders of creation,

Works with skill and kindness wrought; Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour, For thy providence, that governs

Through thine empire's wide domain, Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;

Blesséd be thy gentle reign.

3 For thy rich, thy free redemption, Bright, though vailed in darkness long,

Thought is poor, and poor expression; Who can sing that wondrous song?

Brightness of the Father's glory! Shall thy praise unuttered lie?

Break, my tongue ! such guilty silence, Sing the Lord who came to die:-

4 From the highest throne of glory, To the cross of deepest woe,

Came to ransom guilty captives !---Flow, my praise! for ever flow:

Re-ascend, immortal Saviour !

Leave thy footstool, take thy throne; Thence return and reign for ever;-Be the kingdom all thine own !

"Lo, Jehovah!" W. GOODE.

CROWN his head with endless blessing, Who, in God the Father's name, With compassions never ceasing.

Comes salvation to proclaim.

Hail, ye saints, who know his favor, Who within his gates are found;

Let his courts with praise resound.

2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee: Thee our Saviour ! thee our God !

From his throne his beams of glory Shine through all the world abroad. In his word his light arises,

Brightest beams of truth and grace: Bind, oh, bind your sacrifices,

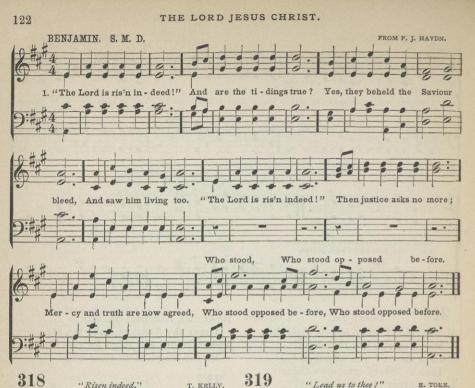

In his courts your offerings place.

3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing. Thee our God in praise we own:

Highest honors, never failing. Rise eternal round thy throne;

Now, ye saints, his power confessing, In your grateful strains adore;

For his mercy, never ceasing, Flows, and flows for evermore.

"Risen indeed." T. KELLY. "THE Lord is risen indeed !" And are the tidings true? Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed, And saw him living too. "The Lord is risen indeed !" Then justice asks no more; Mercy and truth are now agreed, Who stood opposed before. 2 "The Lord is risen indeed !" Then is his work performed; The mighty Captive now is freed, And death, our foe, disarmed. "The Lord is risen indeed !" He lives to die no more; He lives, the sinner's cause to plead, Whose curse and shame he bore. 3 "The Lord is risen indeed !" Attending angels! hear; Up to the courts of heaven, with speed The joyful tidings bear.

Then wake your golden lyres, And strike each cheerful chord;

Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs ! To sing our risen Lord Тноυ art gone up on high To mansions in the skies, And round thy throne unceasingly

The songs of praise arise. But we are lingering here

With sin and care oppressed: Lord! send thy promised Comforter,

And lead us to thy rest!

2 Thou art gone up on high: But thou didst first come down,

Through earth's most bitter misery To pass unto thy crown.

And girt with griefs and fears Our onward course must be;

But only let that path of tears Lead us at last to thee!

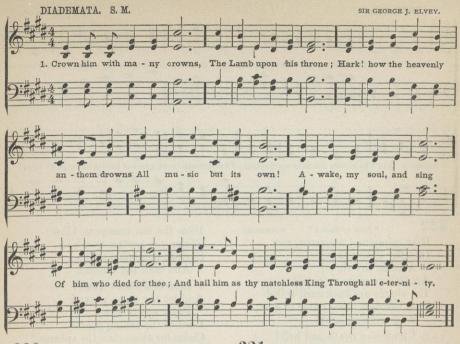

3 Thou art gone up on high: But thou shalt come again

With all the bright ones of the sky Attendant in thy train.

Oh, by thy saving power So make us live and die,

That we may stand in that dread hour At thy right hand on high!

RESURRECTION AND REIGN.

320 "Many Crowns." M. BRIDGES. CROWN him with many crowns, 321

CROWN him with many crowns, The Lamb upon his throne;

- Hark ! how the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own !
- Awake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee;
- And hail him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.
- 2 Crown him the Lord of love! Behold his hands and side,—

Those wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified:

No angel in the sky

Can fully bear that sight,

But downward bends his wondering eye At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him the Lord of heaven! One with the Father known,—

And the blest Spirit through him given From yonder Triune throne !

All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou hast died for me:

Thy praise and glory shall not fail Throughout eternity. 321 "The work is done."

BEYOND the starry skies.

Far as the eternal hills,

There in the boundless world of light Our great Redeemer dwells.

I. FANCH, alt.

Around him angels fair

In countless armies shine;

And ever, in exalted lays, They offer songs divine.

2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry, "Whose unexampled love, Moved thee to quit these glorious realms And royalties above."

And when he stooped to earth, And suffered rude disdain,

They cast their honors at his feet, And waited in his train.

3 They saw him on the cross,

While darkness vailed the skies,

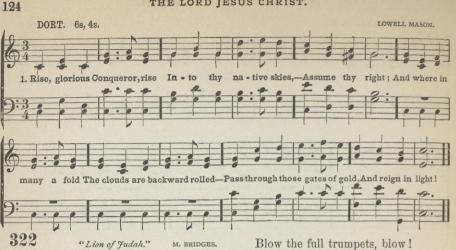

And when he burst the gates of death, They saw the conqueror rise.

They thronged his chariot wheels, And bore him to his throne;

Then swept their golden harps and sung,-"The glorious work is done."

123

RISE, glorious Conqueror, rise Into thy native skies,-Assume thy right; And where in many a fold The clouds are backward rolled-Pass through those gates of gold,

And reign in light!

2 Victor o'er death and hell! Cherubic legions swell Thy radiant train:

Praises all heaven inspire; Each angel sweeps his lyre, And waves his wings of fire,-

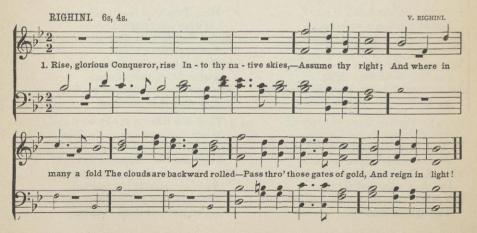

Thou Lamb once slain ! 3 Enter, incarnate God !--No feet but thine, have trod

The serpent down;

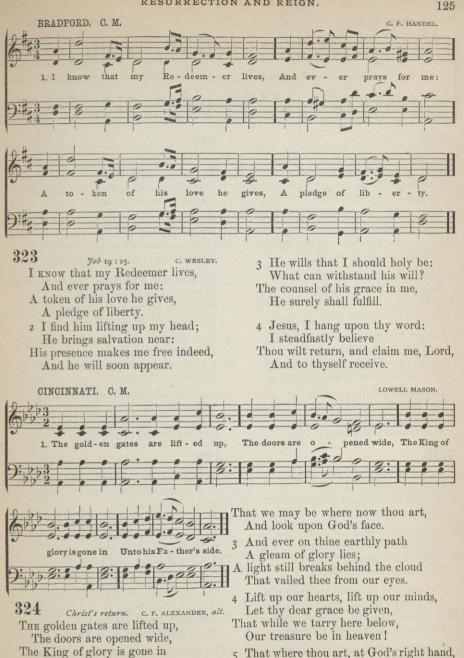

Wider yon portals throw ! Saviour triumphant-go, And take thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah-Hail! And let thy name prevail From age to age; Lord of the rolling years! Claim for thine own the spheres, For thou has bought with tears Thy heritage.

5 And then was heard afar Star answering to star-"Lo! these have come, Followers of him who gave His life their lives to save; And now their palms they wave, Brought safely home."

RESURRECTION AND REIGN.

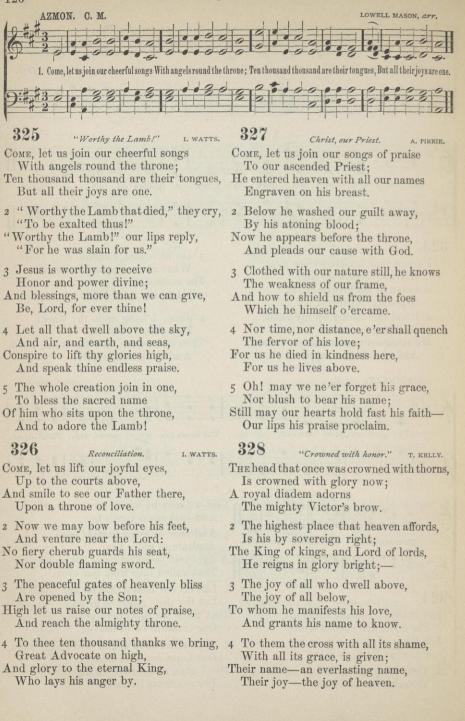

2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord, To make for us a place,

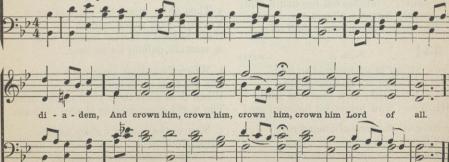

Unto his Father's side.

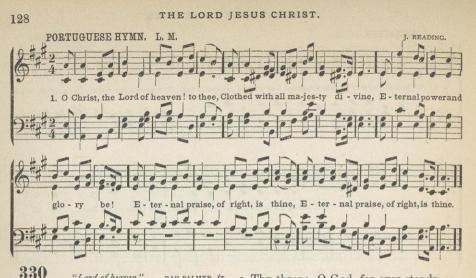

Our hope, our love may be; Dwell thou in us, that we may dwell For evermore in thee!

"Lord of heaven." RAY PALMER, tr. O CHRIST, the Lord of heaven! to thee, Clothed with all majesty divine, Eternal power and glory be! Eternal praise, of right, is thine.

- 2 Reign, Prince of life ! that once thy brow His oil of gladness on thy head;
- Reign, throned beside the Father now, Adored the Son of God first-born.
- 3 From angel hosts that round thee stand. With forms more pure than spotless snow, O CHRIST ! our King, Creator, Lord ! From the bright burning seraph band,
- Let praise in loftiest numbers flow.
- 4 To thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs, Born of deep fervent love, shall rise;
- All honor to thy name belongs, Our lips would sound it to the skies.
- 5 "Jesus !"-all earth shall speak the word; Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls "Jesus !"-all heaven resound it still;
- Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord! Thy praise the universe shall fill.

331 Psalm 45. I. WATTS.

Now BE my heart inspired to sing The glories of my Saviour King,-Jesus the Lord; how heavenly fair His form ! how bright his beauties are !

2 O'er all the sons of human race. He shines with a superior grace: Love from his lips divinely flows, And blessings all his state compose.

3 Thy throne, O God, for ever stands; Grace is the sceptre in thy hands; Thy laws and works are just and right; Justice and grace are thy delight.

4 God, thine own God, has richly shed Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn; And with his Sacred Spirit blessed His first-born Son above the rest.

332

"King, Creator, Lord." RAY PALMER, tr.

Saviour of all who trust thy word ! To them who seek thee ever near. Now to our praises bend thine ear.

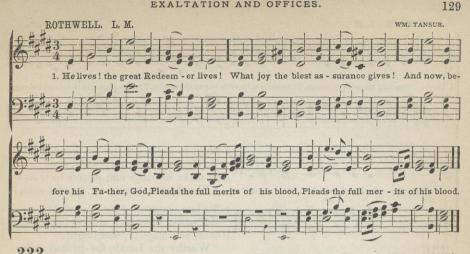

2 In thy dear cross a grace is found,— It flows from every streaming wound,-Whose power our inbred sin controls,

3 Thou didst create the stars of night; Yet thou hast vailed in flesh thy light, Hast deigned a mortal form to wear A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree, The quaking earth acknowledged thee; When thou didst there yield up thy breath, The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high, Great Conqueror ! never more to die, Us by thy mighty power defend, And reign through ages without end.

EXALTATION AND OFFICES.

Christ, our Advocate. A. STEELE. HE lives! the great Redeemer lives! What joy the blest assurance gives ! And now, before his Father, God, Pleads the full merits of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears. And justice armed with frowns appears; But in the Saviour's lovely face Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour, When sin and Satan join their power, Let this dear hope repel the dart, That Jesus bears us on his heart.

4 Great Advocate, almighty Friend! On him our humble hopes depend; Our cause can never, never fail, For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

334

"Behold the Way !" J. CENNICK.

JESUS, my All, to heaven is gone, He whom I fix my hopes upon; His track I see, and I'll pursue The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went, The road that leads from banishment, The King's highway of holiness, I'll go for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long had sought, And mourned because I found it not: My grief, my burden, long had been Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I strove against its power, I sinned and stumbled but the more; Till late I heard my Saviour say, "Come hither, soul, I am the Way!"

5 Lo! glad I come; and thou, dear Lamb, Shalt take me to thee as I am, Nothing but sin I thee can give; Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell, to sinners round. What a dear Saviour I have found; I'll point to thy redeeming blood, And say, "Behold the way to God !"

335

Atonement made.

I. WATTS.

- Now to the power of God supreme Be everlasting honors given; He saves from hell,-we bless his name,-
- He guides our wandering feet to heaven.
- 2 'T was his own purpose that began To rescue rebels doomed to die:
- He gave us grace in Christ, his Son, Before he spread the starry sky.

3 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last, And makes his Father's counsels known: Declares the great transactions past, And brings immortal blessings down.

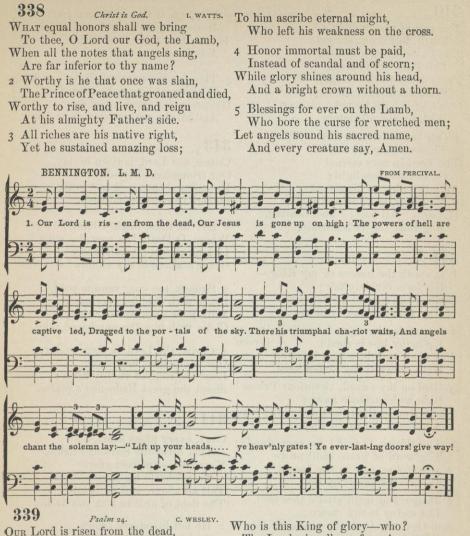

4 He dies; and in that dreadful night Doth all the powers of hell destroy; Rising, he brings our heaven to light, And takes possession of the joy.

130 THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. SAMSON. L. M. G. F. HANDEL. 1. Come, let us sing the song of songs, The saints in heaven began the strain, The homage which to God belongs: 2 Slain to redeem us by his blood, To cleanse from every sinful stain, And make us kings and priests to God-"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain !" fhe Lamb, for he was slain!" "Worthy To him, enthroned by filial right, 3 All power in heaven and earth proclaim, Honor, and majesty, and might: "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain !" 336 "The Song of Songs." J. MONTGOMERY. 4 Long as we live, and when we die, COME, let us sing the song of songs,-And while in heaven with him we reign: The saints in heaven began the strain-The homage which to Christ belongs: This song, our song of songs shall be: Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain !" "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain !" ALL SAINTS. L. M. WILLIAM KNAPP. 1. Now to the Lord, who makes us know The won-ders of his dy - ing love, 0 hum - ble hon - ors paid be - low, And strains of Be no - bler praise a - bove. 337 The atoning Priest. I. WATTS. Be everlasting power confessed ! Now to the Lord, who makes us know

- The wonders of his dying love, Be humble honors paid below,
- And strains of nobler praise above.
- 'T was he who cleansed our foulest sins. And washed us in his precious blood;
- "Tis he who makes us priests and kings, And brings us rebels near to God.
- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest, To Jesus, our eternal King,

Let every tongue his glory sing.

- 4 Behold ! on flying clouds he comes. And every eye shall see him move;
- Though with our sins we pierced him once, He now displays his pardoning love.
- 5 The unbelieving world shall wail, While we rejoice to see the day;
- Come, Lord! nor let thy promise fail. Nor let thy chariot long delay.

Our Jesus is gone up on high;

The powers of hell are captive led, Dragged to the portals of the sky. There his triumphal chariot waits.

- And angels chant the solemn lay: "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
- Ye everlasting doors! give way."
- 2 Loose all your bars of massy light, And wide unfold the ethereal scene:
- He claims these mansions as his right; Receive the King of glory in.

Who is this King of glory—who? The Lord who all our foes o'ercame; Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew; And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

- 3 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits, And angels chant the solemn lay:-
- "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates! Ye everlasting doors! give way."

Who is this King of glory-who?

The Lord of boundless power possessed; The King of saints and angels, too,

God over all, for ever blessed.

132

340 75, 65, D. The Lord's Day. J. M. NEALE, tr. 3 Yet there is One of human frame, THE day of resurrection,

Earth, tell it out abroad : The Passover of gladness,

The Passover of God. From death to life eternal, From earth unto the sky,

Our Christ hath brought us over, With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil, That we may see aright

The Lord in rays eternal

Of resurrection-light;

And, listening to his accents, May hear, so calm and plain,

His own "All hail!" and, hearing, May raise the victor-strain.

341 C. M. Psalm 45. I 'LL speak the honors of my King,-His form divinely fair ;

None of the sons of mortal race May with the Lord compare.

2 Sweet is thy speech, and heavenly Upon thy lips is shed; grace

Thy God, with blessings infinite, Hath crowned thy sacred head.

3 Gird on thy sword, victorious Prince ! Ride with majestic sway;

Thy terrors shall strike through thy foes, And make the world obey.

4 Thy throne, O God ! for ever stands ; Thy word of grace shall prove

A peaceful sceptre in thy hands, To rule the saints by love.

5 Justice and truth attend thee still, But mercy is thy choice ;

And God, thy God, thy soul shall fill With most peculiar joys.

342 г. м.

" Full Equality." I. WATTS. BRIGHT King of glory, dreadful God ! Our spirits bow before thy feet :

To thee we lift an humble thought. And worship at thine awful seat.

2 A thousand seraphs strong and bright And thence his mighty foes Stand round the glorious Deity ;

But who, among those sons of light, Pretends comparison with thee?

Jesus, arrayed in flesh and blood, Thinks it no robbery to claim A full equality with God.

4 Then let the name of Christ our King With equal honors be adored; His praise let every angel sing,

And all the nations own their Lord.

I. WATTS.

ANON

343 75. The Risen Redeemer. CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day, Our triumphant holy-day : He endured the cross and grave, Sinners to redeem and save.

2 Lo! he rises, mighty King! Where, O Death ! is now thy sting ? Lo! he claims his native sky! Grave! where is thy victory?

3 Sinners, see your ransom paid, Peace with God for ever made : With your risen Saviour rise; Claim with him the purchased skies.

4 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day, Our triumphant holy-day; Loud the song of victory raise ; Shout the great Redeemer's praise.

344 H. M. " The Debt of Love." S. STENNETT.

COME, every pious heart, That loves the Saviour's name, Your noblest powers exert

To celebrate his fame ; Tell all above, and all below, The debt of love to him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown, And laid his robes aside,

On wings of love came down, And wept, and bled, and died; What he endured, oh, who can tell, To save our souls from death and hell?

3 From the dark grave he rose, The mansion of the dead,

In glorious triumph led;

Up through the sky the Conqueror rode, And reigns on high, the Saviour God.

345 г. м. Psalm 45. I. WATTS. THE King of saints,-how fair his face ! Adorned with majesty and grace, He comes, with blessings from above, And wins the nations to his love.

2 At his right hand, our eyes behold The queen, arrayed in purest gold; The world admires her heavenly dress, Her robe of joy and righteousness.

3 Oh, happy hour, when thou shalt rise To his fair palace in the skies ; And all thy sons, a numerous train, Each, like a prince, in glory reign.

4 Let endless honors crown his head ; Let every age his praises spread; While we, with cheerful songs, approve The condescension of his love.

- 346 C. M. D. "The Fairest Face." P. STRYKER. I HEARD a voice, the sweetest voice
- That mortal ever heard : Oh ! how it made my heart rejoice,
- And every feeling stirred ! "T was Jesus spoke to me so mild; He called me to his side.
- And said, although with heart defiled. I might in him confide.
- 2 I saw his face, the fairest face That mortal ever saw;
- I longed the Saviour to embrace, From him new life to draw.
- "Come unto me," he kindly said, "And I will give thee rest;
- The ransom-price I fully paid-Repent! believe ! be blest !
- 3 I felt his love, the strongest love That mortal ever felt;
- Oh! how it drew my soul above. And made my hard heart melt !
- My burden at his feet I laid. And knew the joy of heaven,
- As in my willing ear he said The blessed word, "Forgiven !"
- 347 с. м.
- Psalm 47. OH, for a shout of sacred joy To God, the sovereign King ;
- Let every land their tongues employ. And hymns of triumph sing.
- 2 Jesus, our God, ascends on high. His heavenly guards around

Attend him rising through the sky. With trumpets' joyful sound.

- 3 While angels shout and praise their Let mortals learn their strains; [King, Let all the earth his honor sing ;-
- O'er all the earth he reigns.
- 4 Rehearse his praise with awe pro-Let knowledge lead the song; [found;
- Nor mock him with a solemn sound Upon a thoughtless tongue.
- 5 In Israel stood his ancient throne :---He loved that chosen race:
- But now he calls the world his own : The heathen taste his grace.
- 348 с. м.
- Psalm 71. I. WATTS. My Saviour ! my almighty Friend : When I begin thy praise,
- Where will the growing numbers end,-The numbers of thy grace?
- 2 Thou art my everlasting trust; Thy goodness I adore ;
- And, since I knew thy graces first, I speak thy glories more.
- 3 My feet shall travel all the length Of the celestial road;
- And march, with courage, in thy strength, To see my Father God.
- 4 How will my lips rejoice to tell The victories of my King!
- My soul, redeemed from sin and hell, Shall thy salvation sing.

I. WATTS.

- 349 с. м. Our High-Priest. P. DODDRIDGE. Now let our cheerful eyes survey Our great High-Priest above.
- And celebrate his constant care, And sympathetic love.
- 2 Though raised to a superior throne, Where angels bow around.
- And high o'er all the shining train, With matchless honors crowned ;----
- 3 The names of all his saints he bears Engraven on his heart;
- Nor shall a name once treasured there E'er from his care depart.
- 4 So, gracious Saviour ! on my breast May thy dear name be worn,
- A sacred ornament and guard, To endless ages borne.

ETERNAL Spirit, we confess And sing the wonders of thy grace: Thy power conveys our blessings down From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray, Our shades and darkness turn to day; Thine inward teachings make us know Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within, And break the chains of reigning sin; All our imperious lusts subdue, And form our wretched hearts anew.

351 "Veni, Creator!" E. CASWALL, tr.

COME, O Creator Spirit blest! And in our souls take up thy rest; Come, with thy grace, and heavenly aid, To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2 Great Comforter! to thee we cry; O highest gift of God most high! O fount of life! O fire of love! Send sweet anointing from above!

3 Kindle our senses from above, And make our hearts o'erflow with love; With patience firm, and virtue high, The weakness of our flesh supply.

4 Far from us drive the foe we dread, And grant us thy true peace instead; So shall we not, with thee for guide, Turn from the path of life aside. COME, blesséd Spirit! source of light! Whose power and grace are unconfined, Dispel the gloomy shades of night—

The thicker darkness of the mind.

- 2 To mine illumined eyes, display The glorious truths thy word reveals; Cause me to run the heavenly way,
- Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.
- 3 Thine inward teachings make me know The mysteries of redeeming love,

The vanity of things below, And excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray, Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad, To show the dangers of the way,

And guide my feeble steps to God.

353 Spirit of grace. P. DODDRIDGE. COME, sacred Spirit, from above, And fill the coldest heart with love: Oh, turn to flesh the flinty stone, And let thy sovereign power be known.

2 Speak thou, and from the haughtiest eyes Shall floods of contrite sorrow rise; While all their glowing souls are borne To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh, let a holy flock await In crowds around thy temple-gate ! Each pressing on with zeal to be A living sacrifice to thee.

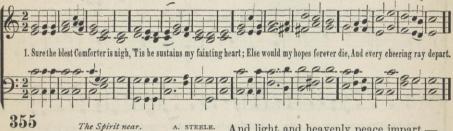

COME, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove, With light and comfort from above: Be thou our guardian, thou our guide ! O'er every thought and step preside.

4 Lead us to God, our final rest, To be with him for ever blest: Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share-Fullness of joy for ever there !

ZEPHYR. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

A. STEELE.

SURE the blest Comforter is nigh,

"Tis he sustains my fainting heart; Else would my hopes for ever die,

And every cheering ray depart.

2 Whene'er, to call the Saviour mine, With ardent wish my heart aspires,-

Can it be less than power divine, That animates these strong desires?

3 And, when my cheerful hope can say,-I love my God and taste his grace,-Lord ! is it not thy blissful ray,

That brings this dawn of sacred peace?

4 Let thy good Spirit in my heart For ever dwell, O God of love!

STEWART.

Giver of Rest. COME, Holy Spirit ! calm my mind, And fit me to approach my God: Remove each vain, each worldly thought, And lead me to thy blest abode.

2 Hast thou imparted to my soul A living spark of holy fire? Oh, kindle now the sacred flame:

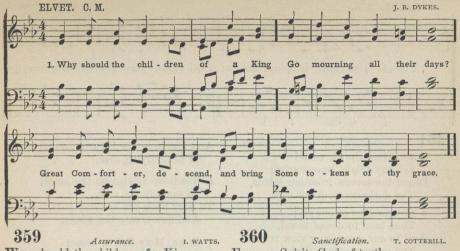

Make me to burn with pure desire.

3 A brighter faith and hope impart, And let me now my Saviour see: Oh, soothe and cheer my burdened heart, And bid my spirit rest in thee.

- Among created things!
- Our helplessness a stay,
- And grieve thee, heavenly Dove, 3 Where should our feebleness find strength, Would seek thee, and would welcome thee. How would they prize thy love !

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

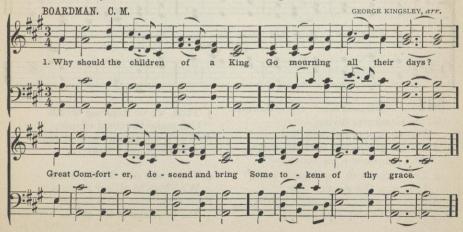

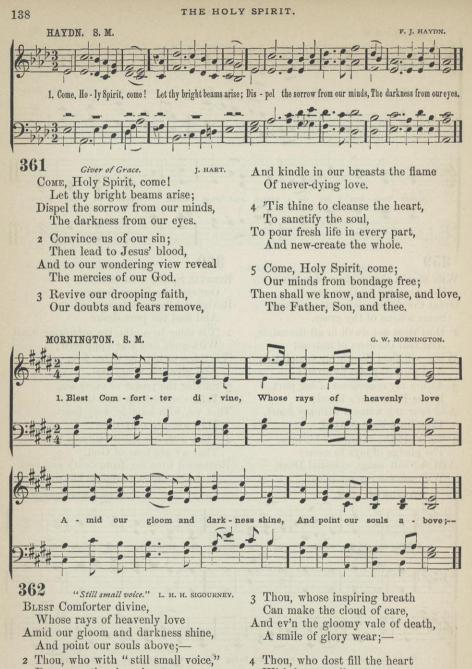

- WHY should the children of a King Go mourning all their days?
- Great Comforter, descend, and bring Some tokens of thy grace.
- 2 Dost thou not dwell in all the saints, And seal the heirs of heaven?
- When wilt thou banish my complaints, And show my sins forgiven ?
- 3 Assure my conscience of her part In the Redeemer's blood;
- And bear thy witness with my heart, That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of his love, The pledge of joys to come;
- And thy soft wings, celestial Dove, Will safe convey me home.

OUD Sanctification. T. COTTERILL ETERNAL Spirit, God of truth, Our contrite hearts inspire;

- Revive the flame of heavenly love, And feed the pure desire
- 2 'T is thine to soothe the sorrowing mind, With guilt and fear oppressed;
- 'T is thine to bid the dying live, And give the weary rest.
- 3 Subdue the power of every sin, Whate'er that sin may be,
- That we, with humble, holy heart, May worship only thee.
- 4 Then with our spirits witness bear That we are sons of God,
- Redeemed from sin, from death and hell, Through Christ's atoning blood.

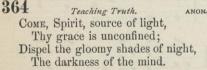

Dost stop the sinner's way, And bid the mourning saint rejoice, Though earthly joys decay;— With love to all our race;— Blest Comforter, to us impart The blessings of thy grace.

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

- 363 The heart melted. B. BEDDOME. COME, Holy Spirit, come, With energy divine; And on this poor benighted soul, With beams of mercy shine.
 - 2 Oh, melt this frozen heart; This stubborn will subdue; Each evil passion overcome, And form me all anew.
 - 3 Mine will the profit be, But thine shall be the praise; And unto thee will I devote The remnant of my days.

2 Now to our eyes display The truth thy words reveal; Cause us to run the heavenly way, Delighting in thy will.

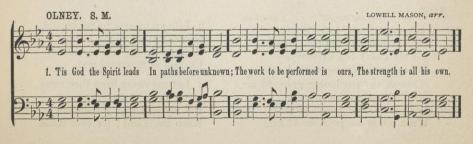

- 3 Thy teachings make us know The mysteries of thy love. The vanity of things below, The joy of things above.
- 4 While through this maze we stray, Oh, spread thy beams abroad; Disclose the dangers of the way, And guide our steps to God.

365 He works in us. J. MONTGOMERY. 'TIS God the Spirit leads

In paths before unknown; The work to be performed is ours, The strength is all his own.

2 Supported by his grace We still pursue our way; And hope at last to reach the prize, Secure in endless day.

- 3 'T is he that works to will, 'T is he that works to do;
- His is the power by which we act, His be the glory too.

368 "Oh, come to-day." RAY PALMER, tr. COME, Holy Ghost! in love, Shed on us, from above, Thine own bright ray: Divinely good thou art; Thy sacred gifts impart, To gladden each sad heart; Oh, come to-day!

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest !
With sooothing power;
Rest, which the weary know;
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow;
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow;
Cheer us, this hour !

3 Come, Light serene ! and still Our inmost bosoms fill; Dwell in each breast:

We know no dawn but thine; Send forth thy beams divine, On our dark souls to shine, And make us blest.

4 Exalt our low desires; Extinguish passion's fires; Heal every wound; Our stubborn spirits bend; Our icy coldness end; Our devious steps attend, While heavenward bound.

5 Come, all the faithful bless, Let all, who Christ confess, His praise employ: Give virtue's rich reward; Victorious death accord, And, with our glorious Lord, Eternal joy !

369 "Let there be light." J. MARRIOTT. THOU! whose almighty word Chaos and darkness heard, And took their flight, Hear us, we humbly pray, And, where the gospel's day Sheds not its glorious ray, "Let there be light!"

2 Thou ! who didst come to bring, On thy redeeming wing, Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,—
Oh, now to all mankind, "Let there be light !"

3 Spirit of truth and love, Life-giving holy Dove! Speed forth thy flight: Move o'er the waters' face, Bearing the lamp of grace, And in earth's darkest place, "Let there be light!"

4 Blesséd and holy Three, All-glorious Trinity,— Wisdom, Love, Might! Boundless as ocean's tide Rolling in fullest pride, Through the world, far and wide,—-"Let there be light!"

370 с. м. Pentecost. J. KEBLE. 373 с. м. The Promise. н. ли WHEN God, of old, came down from Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed heaven,

In power and wrath he came;

- Before his feet the clouds were riven, Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when he came the second time, He came in power and love;
- Softer than gales at morning prime, Hovered his holy Dove.
- 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down In sudden torrents dread,
- Now gently light a glorious crown On every sainted head.
- 4 Like arrows went those lightnings forth,

Winged with the sinner's doom ;

But these, like tongues, o'er all the earth Proclaiming life to come.

371 75. "The things of Christ." W. HAMMOND. Oh, make our hearts thy dwelling-place, HOLY Spirit ! gently come,

Raise us from our fallen state ; Fix thy everlasting home

In the hearts thou didst create.

2 Now thy quickening influence bring, On our spirits sweetly move;

Open every mouth to sing Jesus' everlasting love.

3 Take the things of Christ, and show What our Lord for us hath done ;

May we God the Father know Through his well-beloved Son.

372 75, 65, 85. The Witness. A. M. TOPLADY. BLESSED Comforter, come down, And live and move in me; Make my every deed thy own, In all things led by thee; Bid my every lust depart, And now with me, vouchsafe to dwell; Our unutterable need, Faithful Witness, in my heart Thy perfect love reveal. 2 Let me in thy love rejoice, Thy shrine, thy pure abode; Tell me, by thine inward voice, I am a child of God: Lord, I choose the better part, Jesus, I wait thy peace to feel; Send the witness, in my heart The Holy Ghost reveal.

H. AUBER.

His tender, last farewell,

- A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed, With us on earth to dwell.
- 2 He came in tongues of living flame, To teach, convince, subdue ;
- All powerful as the wind he came, And all as viewless, too.
- 3 He came, sweet influence to impart, A gracious, willing Guest,

While he can find one humble heart Wherein to fix his rest.

4 And every virtue we possess, And every victory won,

- And every thought of holiness, Is his and his alone.
- 5 Spirit of purity and grace ! Our weakness pitying see;

Purer and worthier thee !

374 75, 55. "Comforter Divine !" G. RAWSON.

HOLY Ghost, the Infinite ! Shine upon our nature's night With thy blessed inward light, Comforter Divine!

2 We are sinful : cleanse us, Lord ; We are faint: thy strength afford; Lost,-until by thee restored, Comforter Divine !

3 Like the dew, thy peace distill; Guide, subdue our wayward will, Things of Christ unfolding still, Comforter Divine !

4 In us, for us, intercede, And, with voiceless groanings, plead Comforter Divine!

5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,— Earnest of our bliss on high, Seal of immortality.-Comforter Divine!

6 Search for us the depths of God; Bear us up the starry road, To the height of thine abode, Comforter Divine!

ANON.

375 S. M. The Light. LORD, bid thy light arise

On all thy people here, And when we raise our longing eyes, Oh, may we find thee near !

2 Thy Holy Spirit send, To quicken every soul:

And hearts, the most rebellious, bend To thy divine control.

3 Let all that own thy name Thy sacred image bear;

And light in every heart the flame Of watchfulness and prayer.

4 Since in thy love we see Our only sure relief,

Oh, raise our earthly minds to thee, And help our unbelief.

376 L. M.

Quiet Influence. J. RIPPON. As when in silence vernal showers Descend and cheer the fainting flowers, So, in the secrecy of love, Falls the sweet influence from above.

2 That heavenly influence let me find In holy silence of the mind. While every grace maintains its bloom, Diffusing wide its rich perfume.

3 Nor let these blessings be confined To me, but poured on all mankind, Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise, And a young Eden bless our eyes.

377 L. M. Veni, Creator. J. DRYDEN, tr. CREATOR Spirit, by whose aid The world's foundations first were laid. Come, visit every waiting mind; Come, pour thy joys on human-kind.

2 Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire, Our hearts with heavenly love inspire; Come, and thy sacred unction bring To sanctify us, while we sing.

3 O Source of uncreated light, The Father's promised Paraclete,-From sin and sorrow set us free, And make us temples worthy thee!

4 Make us eternal truths receive, And practise all that we believe ; Give us thyself, that we may see The Father and the Son, by thee.

378 с. м.

Invocation. COME. Holy Ghost! our hearts inspire.

Let us thine influence prove; Source of the old prophetic fire!

- Fountain of life and love!
- 2 Water with heavenly dew thy word, In this appointed hour;
- Attend it with thy presence, Lord, And bid it come with power.
- 3 Open the hearts of them that hear, To make the Saviour room ;
- Now let us find redemption near; Let faith by hearing come.
- 379. н. м.
- Luke 11: 13. O THOU that hearest prayer ! Attend our humble cry;

And let thy servants share

Thy blessing from on high: We plead the promise of thy word, Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord!

- 2 If earthly parents hear Their children when they cry;
- If they, with love sincere, Their children's wants supply;
- Much more wilt thou thy love display, And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou,-We-children of thy grace,-

Oh, let thy Spirit now Descend and fill the place;

That all may feel the heavenly flame And all unite to praise thy name.

380 L. M. "Baptize the Nations !" J. MONTGOMERY. O SPIRIT of the living God,

In all thy plenitude of grace, Where'er the foot of man hath trod,

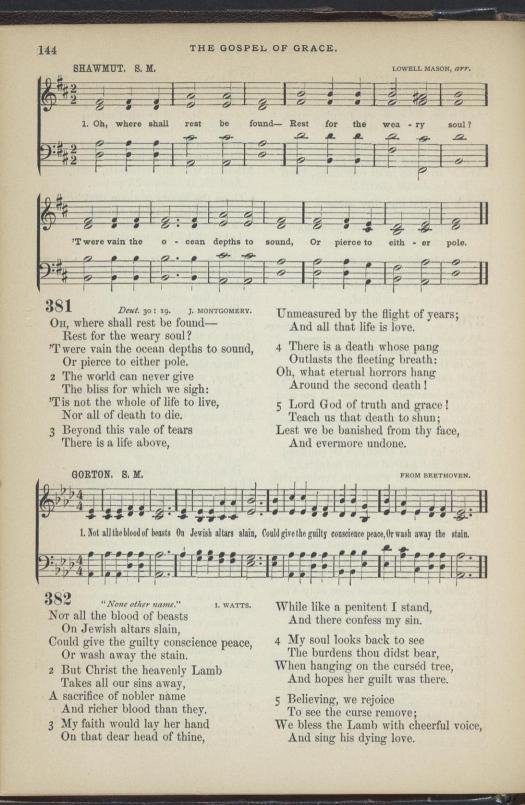

- Descend on our apostate race.
- 2 Give tongues of fire and hearts of love, To preach the reconciling word;
- Give power and unction from above, Where'er the joyful sound is heard.
- 3 Be darkness, at thy coming, light; Confusion, order, in thy path;
- Souls without strength inspire with might;

Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

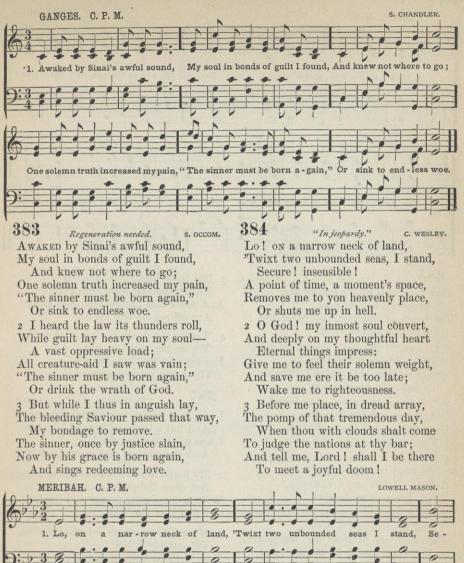

- 4 Baptize the nations ! far and nigh, The triumphs of the cross record;
- The name of Jesus glorify, Till every people call him Lord.

J. BURTON.

MAN'S LOST CONDITION.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE.

385 The load of Sin. A. STEELE. How HELPLESS guilty nature lies, Unconscious of its load !

- The heart, unchanged, can never rise To happiness and God.
- 2 Can aught, beneath a power divine, The stubborn will subdue?
- 'T is thine, almighty Spirit! thine, To form the heart anew.
- 3 'T is thine, the passions to recall. And upward bid them rise;
- To make the scales of error fall From reason's darkened eyes ;----
- 4 To chase the shades of death away, And bid the sinner live;
- A beam of heaven, a vital ray, "Tis thine alone to give.
- 5 Oh change these wretched hearts of ours, And give them life divine;
- Then shall our passions and our powers, Almighty Lord! be thine.

386 No escape. I. WATTS. In vain we seek for peace with God

- By methods of our own: Nothing, O Saviour ! but thy blood
- Can bring us near the throne.
- 2 The threatenings of the broken law Impress the soul with dread:
- If God his sword of vengeance draw, It strikes the spirit dead.

3 But thine illustrious sacrifice Hath answered these demands:

- And peace and pardon from the skies Are offered by thy hands.
- 4 'T is by thy death we live, O Lord! 'T is on thy cross we rest:
- For ever be thy love adored. Thy name for ever blessed.

387

LORD, how secure my conscience was, And felt no inward dread!

"Sin revived: I died."

I. WATTS.

- I was alive without the law, And thought my sins were dead.
- 2 My hopes of heaven were firm and bright; But since the precept came
- With a convincing power and light, I find how vile I am.
- 3 My guilt appeared but small before, Till terribly I saw
- How perfect, holy, just, and pure, Was thine eternal law.
- 4 Then felt my soul the heavy load; My sins revived again:
- I had provoked a dreadful God, And all my hopes were slain.
- 5 My God, I cry with every breath For some kind power to save,
- To break the yoke of sin and death. And thus redeem the slave.

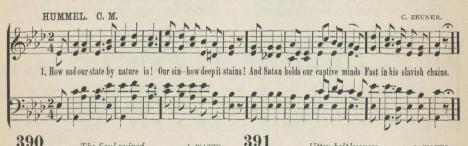

"All Guilty." I. WATTS. VAIN are the hopes, the sons of men On their own works have built;

- Their hearts, by nature, all unclean, And all their actions, guilt.
- 2 Let Jew and Gentile stop their mouths, Without a murmuring word;
- And the whole race of Adam stand Guilty before the Lord.
- 3 Jesus ! how glorious is thy grace;-When in thy name we trust,
- Our faith receives a righteousness, That makes the sinner just.

The Strait Way. I. WATTS. STRAIT is the way, the door is strait, That leads to joys on high;

'T is but a few that find the gate While crowds mistake and die.

- 2 Belovéd self must be denied. The mind and will renewed,
- Passion suppressed, and patience tried. And vain desires subdued.
- 3 Lord ! can a feeble, helpless worm Fulfill a task so hard !
- Thy grace must all my work perform, And give the free reward.

390

I. WATTS.

I. WATTS.

How SAD our state by nature is ! Our sin-how deep it stains !

And Satan holds our captive minds Fast in his slavish chains.

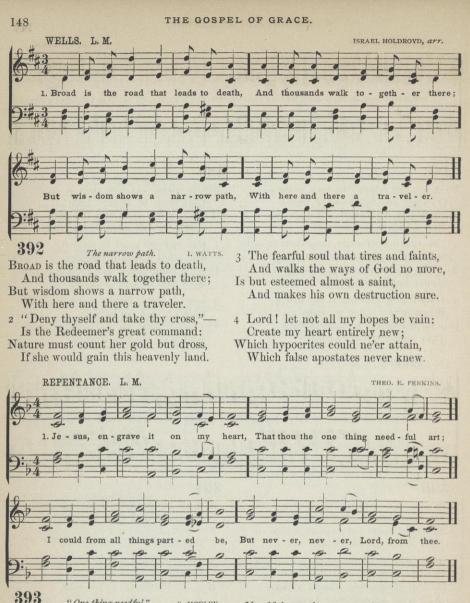

The Soul ruined.

- 2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace, Sounds from the sacred word ;
- "Ho! ye despairing sinners, come, And trust a pardoning Lord."
- 3 My soul obeys the almighty call, And runs to this relief;
- I would believe thy promise, Lord: Oh, help my unbelief!
- 4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm, On thy kind arms I fall;
- Be thou my Strength and Righteousness, My Saviour and my All.

Utter helplessness. Nor all the outward forms on earth,

Nor rites that God has given.

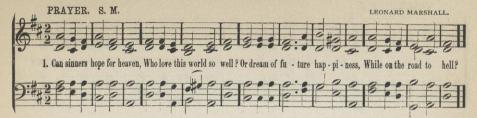

- Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth, Can raise a soul to heaven
- 2 The sovereign will of God alone Creates us heirs of grace;
- Born in the image of his Son, A new, peculiar race.
- 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind, Breathes on the sons of flesh,
- New-models all the carnal mind. And forms the man afresh.
- 4 Our quickened souls awake and rise From the long sleep of death;
- On heavenly things we fix our eyes, And praise employs our breath.

593 "One thing needful." S. MEDLEV.
JESUS, engrave it on my heart, That thou the one thing needful art; I could from all things parted be, But never, never, Lord, from thee.
2 Needful is thy most precious blood, To reconcile my soul to God; Needful is thy indulgent care; Needful thy all-prevailing prayer.

3 Needful art thou, my guide, my stay, Through all life's dark and weary way; Nor less in death thou'lt needful be, To bring my spirit home to thee.

4 Then needful still, my God, my King, Thy name eternally I'll sing ! Glory and praise be ever his,— The one thing needful Jesus is ! ANON.

394

Pardon and Purity. CAN sinners hope for heaven. Who love this world so well? Or dream of future happiness, While on the road to hell?

- 2 Shall they hosannas sing, With an unhallowed tongue? Shall palms adorn the guilty hand
- Which does its neighbor wrong? 3 Thy grace, O God, alone,
- Good hope can e'er afford! The pardoned and the pure shall see
- The glory of the Lord.

395 "All downward." I. WATTS. LIKE sheep we went astray, And broke the fold of God-

Each wandering in a different way, But all the downward road.

2 How dreadful was the hour, When God our wanderings laid, And did at once his vengeance pour

Upon the Shepherd's head !

3 How glorious was the grace. When Christ sustained the stroke! His life and blood the Shepherd pays, A ransom for the flock.

149

- 4 But God shall raise his head. O'er all the sons of men,
- And make him see a numerous seed, To recompense his pain.

396

H. BONAR. Nor what these hands have done Can save this guilty soul:

" Yesus only."

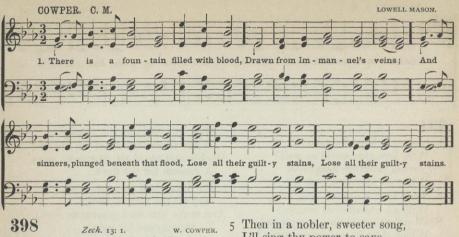

- Not what this toiling flesh has borne Can make my spirit whole.
- 2 Not what I feel or do Can give me peace with God;
- Not all my prayers, and sighs, and tears, Can bear my awful load.
- 3 Thy work alone, O Christ, Can ease this weight of sin;
- Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,

Can give me peace within.

- A CHARGE to keep I have, A God to glorify,
- A never-dying soul to save, And fit it for the sky.
- 2 To serve the present age. My calling to fulfill;
- Oh, may it all my powers engage To do my Master's will.
- As in thy sight to live: And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare A strict account to give.
- 4 Help me to watch and pray, And on thyself rely, Assured, if I my trust betray, I shall for ever die.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE.

THERE is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins: And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,

Lose all their guilty stains.

150

- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day;
- And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away.
- 3 Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood Shall never lose its power,
- Till all the ransomed church of God Be saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply,

Redeeming love has been my theme, And shall be, till I die.

- I'll sing thy power to save,
- When this poor lisping, stammering tongue Lies silent in the grave.

S. MEDLEY.

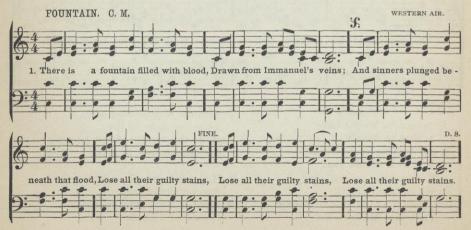

399 The Gospel. OH, what amazing words of grace

Are in the gospel found, Suited to every sinner's case

Who hears the joyful sound !

- 2 Come, then, with all your wants and Your every burden bring; [wounds;
- Here love, unchanging love, abounds,-A deep celestial spring.
- 3 This spring with living water flows. And heavenly joy imparts:

Come, thirsty souls ! your wants disclose And drink, with thankful hearts.

THE ATONEMENT.

400"Amazing grace." J. NEWTON. AMAZING grace ! how sweet the sound

- That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found-
- Was blind, but now I see.

8;

8.

- 2 'T was grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved;
- How precious did that grace appear, The hour I first believed !
- 3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come;
- "Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
- 4 Yea-when this flesh and heart shall fail. And mortal life shall cease.
- I shall possess, within the vail,
 - A life of joy and peace.

- 5 The earth shall soon dissolve like snow, The sun forbear to shine:
- But God, who called me here below. Will be for ever mine.

401

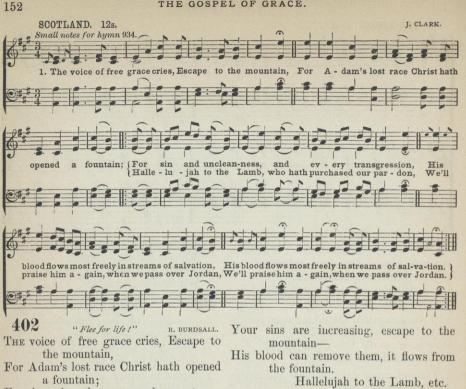

"Salvation." SALVATION !--- oh, the joyful sound ! 'T is pleasure to our ears:

I. WATTS.

- A sovereign balm for every wound. A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin. At hell's dark door we lay;-
- But we arise by grace divine, To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation !---let the echo fly The spacious earth around: While all the armies of the sky Conspire to raise the sound.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE.

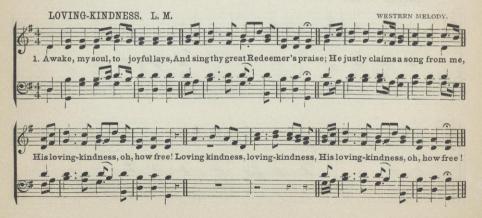

- For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression,
- His blood flows most freely in streams of With harps in our hands we will praise him salvation.

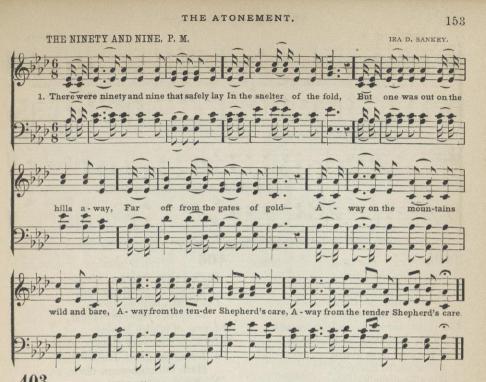

Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

- 2 Ye souls that are wounded! oh, flee to the Saviour !
- He calls you in mercy, 'tis infinite favor;
- 3 With joy shall we stand when escaped to the shore:
- the more!
- We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river,

And sing of salvation for ever and ever !

Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

"To save the lost." E. C. CLEPHANE. THERE were ninety and nine that safely lay In the shelter of the fold,

But one was out on the hills away,

Far off from the gates of gold-Away on the mountains wild and bare, Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

2 "Lord, thou has there thy ninety and nine: 4 But all through the mountains, thunder-Are they not enough for thee?"

But the Shepherd made answer: "This of There rose a cry to the gate of heaven, Has wandered away from me: mine

And although the road be rough and steep I go to the desert to find my sheep."

404 L. M. Loving-kindness. S. MEDLEY. A WAKE, my soul, to joyful lays, And sing thy great Redeemer's praise; He justly claims a song from me: His loving-kindness, oh, how free! 2 He saw me ruined in the fall, Yet loved me, notwithstanding all; He saved me from my lost estate: His loving-kindness, oh, how great !

3 But none of the ransomed ever knew How deep were the waters crossed;

Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through

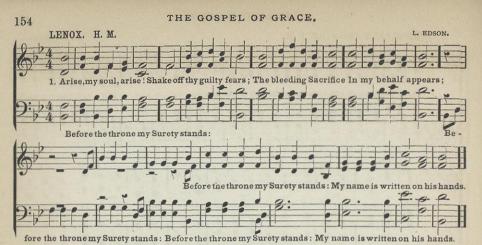

Ere he found his sheep that was lost; Out in the desert he heard its crv-"T was helpless and sick, and ready to die.

And up from the rocky steep, [riven,

"Rejoice ! I have found my sheep !" And the angels echoed around the throne, "Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own !"

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes. Though earth and hell my way oppose, He safely leads my soul along: His loving-kindness, oh, how strong !

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud, Has gathered thick and thundered loud, He near my soul has always stood: His loving-kindness, oh, how good !

405 Our Surety. C. WESLEY. ARISE, my soul, arise ! Shake off thy guilty fears; The bleeding Sacrifice In my behalf appears; Before the throne my Surety stands: My name is written on his hands.

2 He ever lives above, For me to intercede, His all-redeeming love,

His precious blood to plead; His blood atoned for all our race, And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

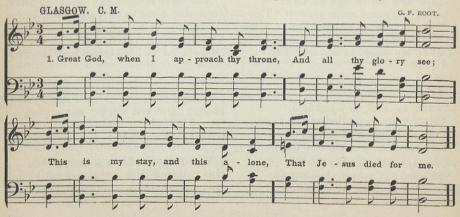

3 My God is reconciled;

His pardoning voice I hear; He owns me for his child;

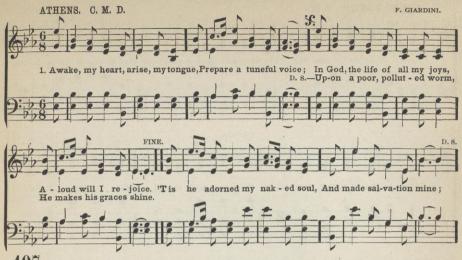

I can no longer fear; With confidence I now draw nigh, And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

406 Year of Jubilee. C. WESLEY BLOW ye the trumpet, blow:-The gladly solemn sound :----Let all the nations know. To earth's remotest bound. The year of jubilee is come: Return, ye ransomed sinners, home. 2 Jesus, our great High-Priest, Hath full atonement made: Ye weary spirits, rest; Ye mournful souls, be glad: The year of jubilee is come: Return, ye ransomed sinners, home. 3 Extol the Lamb of God. The all-atoning Lamb: Redemption in his blood

Throughout the world proclaim: The year of jubilee is come; Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

THE ATONEMENT.

- " The Seamless Robe." I. WATTS. AWAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue, Prepare a tuneful voice;
- In God, the life of all my joys, Aloud will I rejoice.
- 'T is he adorned my naked soul, And made salvation mine;
- Upon a poor, polluted worm, He makes his graces shine.
- 2 And lest the shadow of a spot Should on my soul be found,
- He took the robe the Saviour wrought, And cast it all around.

"Fesus died for me." ANON. GREAT God, when I approach thy throne, JESUS, -and didst thou leave the sky, And all thy glory see;

This is my stay, and this alone, That Jesus died for me.

2 How can a soul condemned to die, Escape the just decree?

- Helpless, and full of sin am I, But Jesus died for me.
- 3 Burdened with sin's oppressive chain, Oh, how can I get free?
- No peace can all my efforts gain, But Jesus died for me.
- 4 And Lord, when I behold thy face, This must be all my plea;
- Save me by thy almighty grace, For Jesus died for me.

How far the heavenly robe exceeds What earthly princes wear ! These ornaments, how bright they shine ! How white the garments are!

- 3 The Spirit wrought my faith and love, And hope and every grace;
- But Jesus spent his life to work The robe of righteousness.

Strangely, my soul, art thou arrayed, By the great sacred Three;

In sweetest harmony of praise, Let all thy powers agree.

Divine compassion.

To bear our griefs and woes?

And didst thou bleed, and groan and die, For thy rebellious foes?

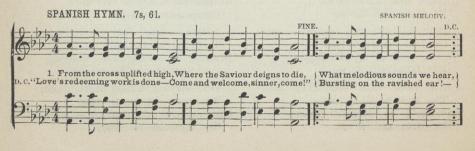

- 2 Well might the heavens with wonder view A love so strange as thine !
- No thought of angels ever knew Compassion so divine!
- 3 Is there a heart that will not bend To thy divine control?
- Descend, O sovereign love, descend, And melt that stubborn soul.
- 4 Oh! may our willing hearts confess Thy sweet, thy gentle sway;
- Glad captives of thy matchless grace, Thy righteous rule obey.

The debt paid. E. M. HALL.
I HEAR the Saviour say, Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray, Find in me thine all in all.
CHO.—Jesus paid it all, All to him I owe; Sin had left a crimson stain; He washed it white as snow

 Lord, now indeed I find Thy power, and thine alone,
 Can change the leper's spots, And melt the heart of stone.—CHO.

- 3 For nothing good have I Whereby thy grace to claim—
- I'll wash my garment white In the blood of Calvary's Lamb.—Сно.
- 4 When from my dying bed My ransomed soul shall rise, Then "Jesus paid it all" Shall rend the vaulted skies.—Сно.
- 5 And when before the throne I stand in him complete.
- I'll lay my trophies down,
 - All down at Jesus' feet.—Сно.

411 "Atoning blood." L. HARTSOUGH. I HEAR thy welcome voice,

That calls me, Lord, to thee,

- For cleansing in thy precious blood, That flowed on Calvary.
- CHO.—I am coming, Lord ! Coming now to thee; Wash me, cleanse me, in the blood That flowed on Calvary!
- 2 Though coming weak and vile, Thou dost my strength assure;

412 75, 61. "Come and welcome." T. HAWEIS. FROM the cross uplifted high, Where the Saviour deigns to die, What melodious sounds we hear, Bursting on the ravished ear !--"Love's redeeming work is done-Come and welcome, sinner, come ! 2 "Sprinkled now with blood the throne-4" Soon the days of life shall end-Why beneath thy burdens groan? On my piercéd body laid, Justice owns the ransom paid— Bow the knee, and kiss the Son-Come and welcome, sinner, come !

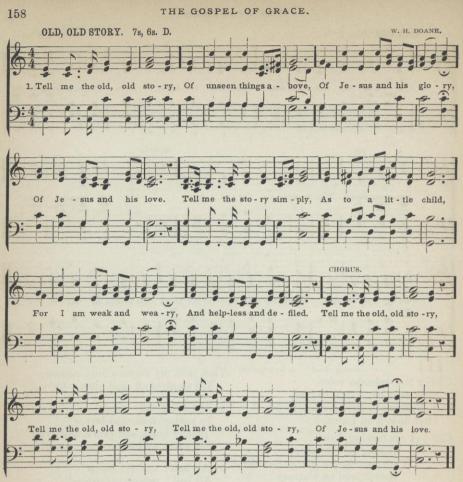

- Thou dost my vileness fully cleanse, Till spotless all, and pure.—Сно.
- 3 'Tis Jesus calls me on
- To perfect faith and love, To perfect hope, and peace, and trust, For earth and heaven above.—Сно.

4 All hail! atoning blood! All hail! redeeming grace! All hail! the gift of Christ, our Lord,

Our Strength and Righteousness.—Сно

3 "Spread for thee, the festal board See with richest bounty stored; To thy Father's bosom pressed, Thou shalt be a child confessed, Never from his house to roam: Come and welcome, sinner, come !

Lo, I come-your Saviour, Friend! Safe your spirit to convey To the realms of endless day, Up to my eternal home-Come and welcome, sinner, come !"

413 The story of the Cross. K. HANKEY. TELL me the old, old story Of unseen things above, Of Jesus and his glory,

- Of Jesus and his love.
- Tell me the story simply, As to a little child,
- For I am weak and weary, And helpless and defiled.—Cho.
- 2 Tell me the story slowly, That I may take it in—

That wonderful Redemption, God's remedy for sin!

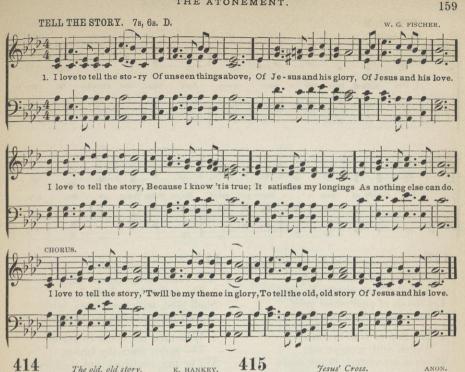

- Tell me the story often, For I forget so soon!
- The "early dew" of morning
 - Has passed away at noon !---CHO.

3 Tell me the story softly, With earnest tones and grave;
Remember ! I'm the sinner Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always, If you would really be,
In any time of trouble, A comforter to me.—CHO.
4 Tell me the same old 'story, When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory

Is drawing on my soul,

Tell me the old, old story:

"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."-CHO.

The old, old story. I LOVE to tell the story Of unseen things above, Of Jesus and his glory, Of Jesus and his love. I love to tell the story. Because I know 't is true; It satisfies my longings As nothing else can do.-CHO. 2 I love to tell the story: 'Tis pleasant to repeat What seems each time I tell it, More wonderfully sweet. I love to tell the story: For some have never heard . The message of salvation. From God's own holy word.—Сно. 3 I love to tell the story:

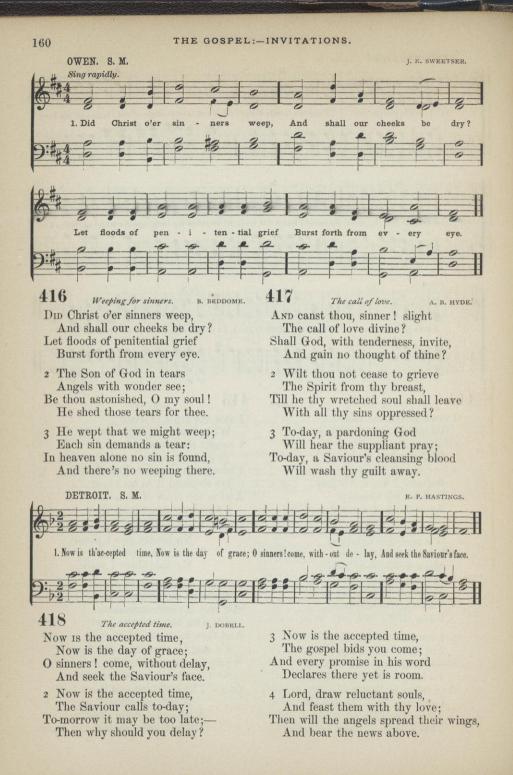

For those who know it best Seem hungering and thirsting To hear it like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the New, New Song, 'T will be the OLD, OLD STORY

That I have loved so long.—CHO.

I saw the cross of Jesus, When burdened with my sin; I sought the cross of Jesus, To give me peace within; I brought my soul to Jesus, He cleansed it in his blood; And in the cross of Jesus I found my peace with God. Сно.—No righteousness, no merit, No beauty can I plead; Yet in the cross I glory, My title there I read. 2 Sweet is the cross of Jesus! There let my weary heart Still rest in peace unshaken, Till with him, ne'er to part; And then in strains of glory

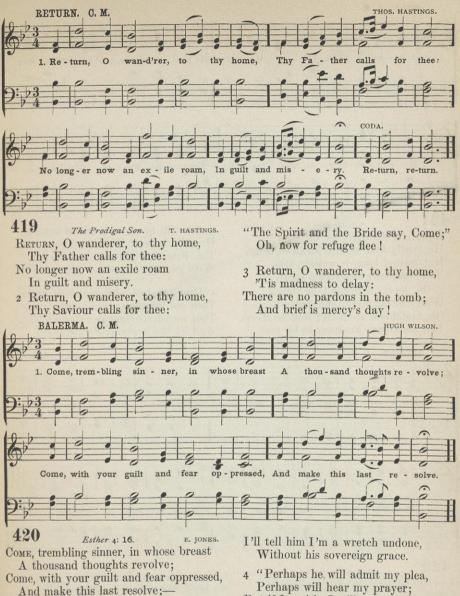

I'll sing his wondrous power, Where sin can never enter, And death is known no more.

- CHO.-I love the cross of Jesus, It tells me what I am:
 - A vile and guilty creature, Saved only through the Lamb.

THE GOSPEL :- INVITATIONS.

2 "I'll go to Jesus, though my sins

Like mountains round me close; I know his courts, I'll enter in,

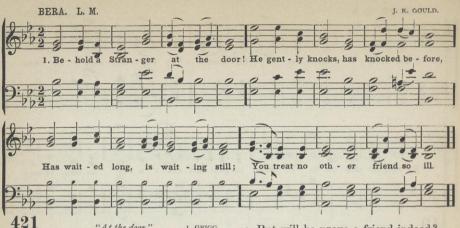

3 "Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,

Whatever may oppose.

And there my guilt confess;

- Perhaps will hear my prayer; But if I perish, I will pray, And perish only there.
- 5 "I can but perish if I go; I am resolved to try; For if I stay away, I know I must for ever die."

THE GOSPEL :-- INVITATIONS.

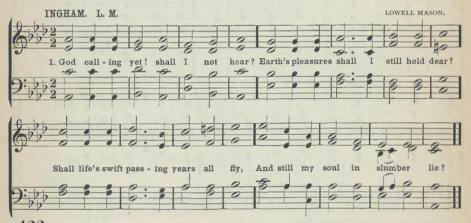

¹² "At the door." J. GRIGG. BEHOLD a Stranger at the door ! He gently knocks, has knocked before, Has waited long, is waiting still; You treat no other friend so ill.

162

2 Oh, lovely attitude ! he stands With melting heart and laden hands; Oh, matchless kindness ! and he shows This matchless kindness to his foes. 3 But will he prove a friend indeed? He will, the very friend you need— The Friend of sinners; yes, 't is he, With garments dyed on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine, Turn out his enemy and thine, That soul-destroying monster sin, And let the heavenly Stranger in.

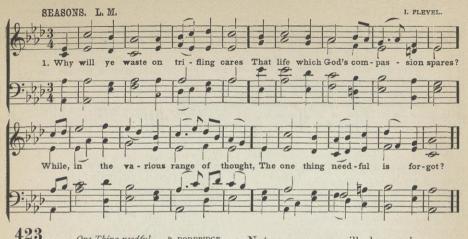

422 "God calling yet." J. BORTHWICK. God calling yet ! shall I not hear? Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear? Shall life's swift passing years all fly, And still my soul in slumber lie? 2 God calling yet ! shall I not rise? Can I his loving voice despise, And basely his kind care repay? He calls me still; can I delay?

3 God calling yet! and shall I give No heed, but still in bondage live? I wait, but he does not forsake; He calls me still; my heart, awake!

4 God calling yet! I cannot stay; My heart I yield without delay; Vain world, farewell! from thee I part; The voice of God hath reached my heart.

THE GOSPEL :- INVITATIONS.

425 One Thing needful. P. DODDRIDGE. WHY will ye waste on trifling cares That life which God's compassion spares? While, in the various range of thought, The one thing needful is forgot? 2 Shall God invite you from above? Shall Jesus urge his dying love?

Shall troubled conscience give you pain?

And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view Those objects which you now pursue; Not so will heaven and hell appear, When death's decisive hour is near. 163

4 Almighty God ! thy grace impart; Fix deep conviction on each heart: Nor let us waste on triffing cares That life which thy compassion spares.

424 "Why not to-night?" H. BONAR. OH, do not let the word depart,

And close thine eyes against the light; Poor sinner, harden not thy heart:

Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise To bless thy long-deluded sight;

This is the time; oh, then be wise! Thou woulds the saved; why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;

And wilt thou thus his love requite? Renounce at length thy stubborn will; Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

4 Our blessed Lord refuses none

Who would to him their souls unite; Then be the work of grace begun: Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

THE GOSPEL:-INVITATIONS.

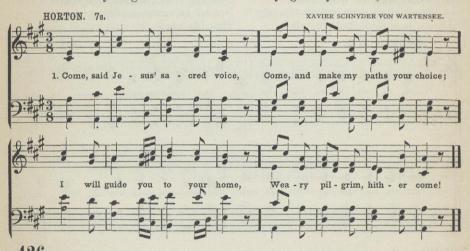

Ezekiel 33:11. C. WESLEY. SINNERS, turn, why will ye die? God, your Maker, asks you—Why? God, who did your being give, Made you with himself to live; He the fatal cause demands, Asks the work of his own hands,— Why, ye thankless creatures, why Will ye cross his love, and die?

164

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die? God, your Saviour, asks you—Why? He who did your your souls retrieve, Died himself that ye might live. Will ye let him die in vain? Crucify your Lord again? Why, ye ransomed sinners, why Will ye slight his grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die? God, the Spirit, asks you—Why? He, who all your lives hath strove, Urged you to embrace his love: Will ye not his grace receive? Will ye still refuse to live? Why, ye long-sought sinners! why, Will ye grieve your God, and die?

426 "Whosoever will." A. L. BARBAULD. Come, said Jesus' sacred voice, Come, and make my paths your choice; I will guide you to your home, Weary pilgrim, hither come!

2 Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn, Long hast borne the proud world's scorn, Long hast roamed the barren waste, Weary pilgrim, hither haste. 3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain, Seek for ease, but seek in vain; Ye, by fiercer anguish torn, In remorse for guilt who mourn;—

4 Hither come ! for here is found Balm that flows for every wound, Peace that ever shall endure, Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

J. HOPKINS.

"Why will ve die?"

OH, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, When God in great mercy is coming so nigh? Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, Come, And angels are waiting to welcome you home. 3 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace,

- 2 In riches, in pleasures, what can you obtain.
- To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain?
- To bear up your spirit when summoned to die.
- Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?
- 3 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive.

Oh, how can you question, if you will believe?

If sin is your burden, why will you not come?

'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.

428

- " I made haste."
- T. HASTINGS. And peace, like the dewdrop, shall fall on DELAY not, delay not, O sinner, draw near, thy head, The waters of life are now flowing for And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.
- thee; No price is demanded, the Saviour is here; ² Acquaint thyself quickly, O sinner, with God, Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.
 - And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad:
- 2 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come, Thy Safeguard in danger that threatens thy For Mercy still lingers and calls thee topath; day: Thy Joy in the valley and shadow of death.

Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;

- Her message unheeded will soon pass awav.
- Long grieved and resisted, may take his sad flight.
- And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race.

To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

- 4 Delay not, delay not, the hour is at hand, The earth shall dissolve and the heavens
 - shall fade,
- The dead, small and great, in the judgment shall stand;
 - What power then, O sinner, will lend thee its aid !

KNOX.

429 "Acquaint thyself."

A CQUAINT thyself quickly, O sinner, with God. And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road,

WEEPING will not save me— Though my face were bathed in tears, That could not allay my fears, Could not wash the sins of years,—

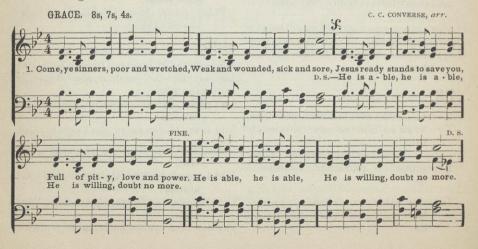

Weeping will not save me.—Сно.

2 Working will not save me— Purest deeds that I can do, Honest thought and feelings too, Cannot form my soul anew,—

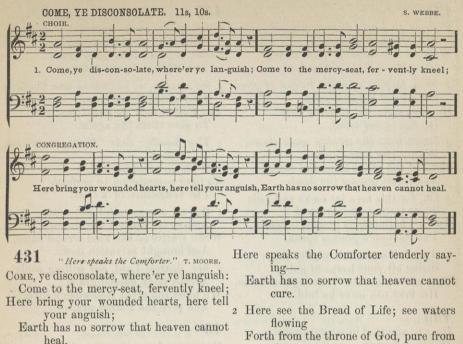

Working will not save me.-CHO.

2 Joy of the comfortless, light of the stray- Come to the feast of love: come, ever knowing ing,

Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;

432 "Ho, ye needy!" J. HART. Come, ye sinners, poor and wretched, Weak and wounded, sick and sore,

Jesus ready stands to save you,

Full of pity, love and power. He is able.

He is willing, doubt no more.

2 Ho, ye needy; come, and welcome; God's free bounty glorify !

True belief and true repentance, Every grace that brings us nigh, Without money, Come to Jesus Christ, and buy.

3 Let not conscience make you linger, Nor of fitness fondly dream;

All the fitness he requireth Is to feel your need of him; This he gives you; 'Tis the Spirit's rising beam.

J. ALLEN.

SINNERS, will you scorn the message, Coming from the courts above?

Earth has no sorrow but heaven can re-

Mercy beams in every passage ; Every line is full of love; Oh! believe it. Every line is full of love.

2 Now the heralds of salvation Joyful news from heaven proclaim ! Sinners freed from condemnation,

Through the all-atoning Lamb! Life receiving

Through the all-atoning Lamb!

3 O ye angels, hovering round us, Waiting spirits, speed your way; Haste ye to the court of heaven,

Tidings bear without delay: Rebel sinners Glad the message will obey. 167

434 c. m. "Oh, amazing Love !" I. WATTS. PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,

We wretched sinners lay,

- Without one cheerful beam of hope, Or spark of glimmering day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace 2 So strange, so boundless was the love Beheld our helpless grief;

He saw, and—oh, amazing love !--He ran to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above, With joyful haste he fled,

Entered the grave in mortal flesh, And dwelt among the dead.

4 Oh, for this love let rocks and hills Their lasting silence break ;

And all harmonious human tongues The Saviour's praises speak.

5 Angels ! assist our mighty joys; Strike all your harps of gold :

But, when you raise your highest notes, His love can ne'er be told.

435 L. M. Psalm 136. I. WATTS. GIVE to our God immortal praise; Mercy and truth are all his ways; Wonders of grace to God belong; Repeat his mercies in your song. 2 He sent his Son, with power to save From guilt, and darkness, and the grave : Wonders of grace to God belong ;-Repeat his mercies in your song. 3 Through this vain world he guides our feet. And leads us to his heavenly seat ; His mercies ever shall endure,

When this vain world shall be no more.

436 C. M. "Ho! Every One." I. WATTS. LET every mortal ear attend,

And every heart rejoice ;

- The trumpet of the gospel sounds, With an inviting voice.
- 2 Ho! all ye hungry, starving souls, That feed upon the wind,
- And vainly strive with earthly toys To fill the immortal mind,—
- 3 Eternal wisdom has prepared A soul-reviving feast,
- And bids your longing appetites The rich provision taste.

437 C. M. "Not to Condemn, but Save." I. WATTS. Come, happy souls, approach your God With new, melodious songs;

- Come, render to almighty grace The tribute of your tongues.
- That pitied dying men,

The Father sent his equal Son To give them life again.

3 Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not armed

With an avenging rod,

No hard commission to perform The vengeance of a God.

4 But all was merciful and mild, And wrath forsook the throne,

When Christ on the kind errand came, And brought salvation down.

5 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls Accept thine offered grace ;

We bless the great Redeemer's love, And give the Father praise.

438 L. M. "To Save Sinners." I. WATTS. Nor to condemn the sons of men,

Did Christ, the Son of God, appear; No weapons in his hands are seen,

No flaming sword nor thunder there.

2 Such was the pity of our God, He loved the race of man so well.

- He sent his Son to bear our load Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
- 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word; Trust in his mighty name, and live :

A thousand joys his lips afford, His hands a thousand blessings give.

439 S. M. The Bride says, Come. J. MONTGOMERY. Come to the land of peace :

From shadows come away;

- Where all the sounds of weeping cease, And storms no more have sway.
- 2 Fear hath no dwelling here; But pure repose and love
- Breathe through the bright, celestial air The spirit of the dove.
- 3 Come to the bright and blest, Gathered from every land ;
- For here thy soul shall find its rest, Amid the shining band.

443 75. Winning Souls.

W. HAMMOND

Would you win a soul to God? Tell him of a Saviour's blood, Once for dying sinners spilt, To atone for all their guilt.

2 Tell him—it was sovereign grace Led thee first to seek his face; Made thee choose the better part. Wrought salvation in thy heart.

3 Tell him of that liberty. Wherewith Jesus makes thee free ! Sweetly speak of sins forgiven, Earnest of the joys of heaven.

444 L. M. "Only Knock." J. B. WATERBURY

INFINITE Love! what precious stores Thy mercy has prepared for us!

The costliest gems, the richest ores Could never have endowed us thus.

2 But thy soft hand, O gracious Lord ! Can draw from suffering souls the sting:

And thy rich bounty to our board Can bread for hungering sinners bring.

3 How rich the grace ! the gift how free ! "T is only ask—it shall be given;

"T is only knock, and thou shalt see The opening door that leads to heaven.

Of him who died on Calvary.

A fountain opened. J. MONTGOMERY. COME to Calvary's holy mountain, Sinners, ruined by the fall ! Here a pure and healing fountain Flows to you, to me, to all,-

In a full, perpetual tide, Opened when our Saviour died.

2 Come, in sorrow and contrition. Wounded, impotent, and blind ! Here the guilty, free remission,

PASS ME NOT. 8s, 5s.

2 Leave me not, my strength, my trust; Oh, remember I am dust: Leave me not again to stray; Leave me not the tempter's prey: Fix my heart on things above; Make me happy in thy love.

3 Hear and save me, gracious Lord ! For my trust is in thy word; Wash me from the stain of sin, That thy peace may rule within: May I know myself thy child, Ransomed, pardoned, reconciled.

Look and live. A. M. TOPLADY.

SURELY Christ thy griefs hath borne, Weeping soul, no longer mourn; View him bleeding on the tree, Pouring out his life for thee: There thy every sin he bore; Weeping soul, lament no more.

2 Weary sinner, keep thine eyes On the atoning sacrifice:

There the incarnate Deity Numbered with transgressors see; There his Father's absence mourns, Nailed, and bruised, and crowned with thorns.

3 Cast thy guilty soul on him," Find him mighty to redeem; At his feet thy burden lay, Look thy doubts and cares away; Now by faith the Son embrace, Plead his promise, trust his grace.

453

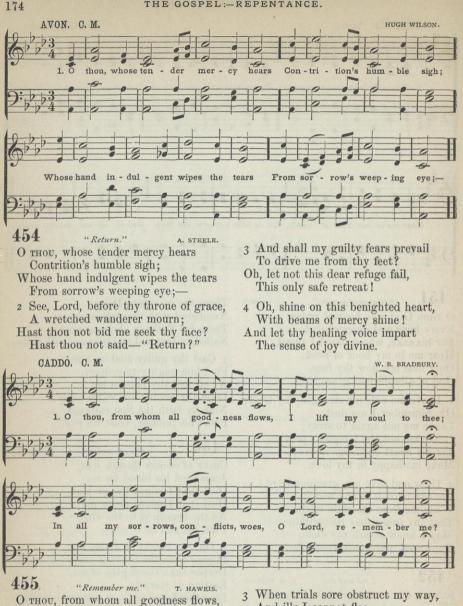

" Chief of sinners." CHIEF of sinners though I be, Jesus shed his blood for me; Died that I might live on high, Died that I might never die; As the branch is to the vine, I am his and he is mine.

2 Oh, the height of Jesus' love! Higher than the heavens above, Deeper than the depths of sea, Lasting as eternity; Love that found me, -wondrous thought !--Found me when I sought him not!

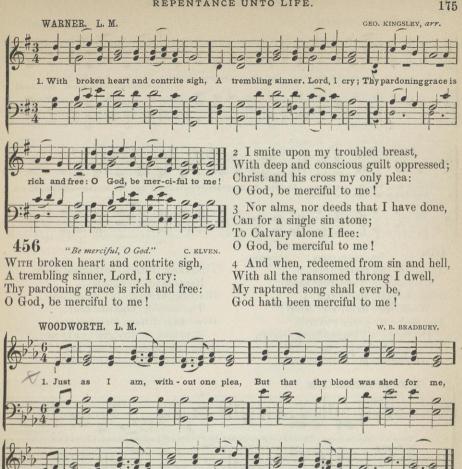

3 Chief of sinners though I be, Christ is all in all to me; All my wants to him are known, All my sorrows are his own; Safe with him from earthly strife, He sustains my hidden life.

- I lift my soul to thee;
- In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes, O Lord, remember me!
- 2 When on my aching, burdened heart My sins lie heavily,
- Thy pardon grant, new peace impart; Thus, Lord, remember me !
- And ills I cannot flee,
- Oh, let my strength be as my day-Dear Lord, remember me!

At the door. W. W. HOW. O JESUS, thou art standing Outside the fast-closed door, In lowly patience waiting To pass the threshold o'er: We bear the name of Christians. His name and sign we bear: Oh, shame, thrice shame upon us! To keep him standing there. 2 O Jesus, thou art knocking: And lo! that hand is scarred, And thorns thy brow encircle, And tears thy face have marred: Oh, love that passeth knowledge, So patiently to wait! Oh, sin that hath no equal, So fast to bar the gate! 3 O Jesus, thou art pleading In accents meek and low,-"I died for you, my children, And will ye treat me so?" O Lord, with shame and sorrow We open now the door: Dear Saviour, enter, enter, And leave us nevermore ! 13

465"Give us pardon." RAY PALMER. WE stand in deep repentance, Before thy thrane of love; O God of grace, forgive us; The stain of guilt remove; Behold us while with weeping We lift our eyes to thee: And all our sins subduing. Our Father, set us free! 2 Oh, shouldst thou from us fallen Withhold thy grace to guide, For ever we should wander, From thee, and peace, aside; But thou to spirits contrite Dost light and life impart, That man may learn to serve thee With thankful, joyous heart. 3 Our souls—on thee we cast them, Our only refuge thou ! Thy cheering words revive us, When pressed with grief we bow: Thou bearest the trusting spirit Upon thy loving breast, And givest all thy ransomed

A sweet, unending rest.

THE GOSPEL :- REPENTANCE.

466 " To whom shall we go !" A. STEELE. THOU only Sovereign of my heart,

My Refuge, my almighty Friend-And can my soul from thee depart, On whom alone my hopes depend !

2 Whither, ah ! whither shall I go, A wretched wanderer from my Lord?

Can this dark world of sin and woe One glimpse of happiness afford?

3 Eternal life thy words impart; On these my fainting spirit lives; Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart, Than all the round of nature gives.

4 Thy name my inmost powers adore; Thou art my life, my joy, my care; Depart from thee—'tis death, 'tis more:

'T is endless ruin, deep despair !

5 Low at thy feet my soul would lie; Here safety dwells, and peace divine; Still let me live beneath thine eye,

For life, eternal life, is thine.

467 "Thou hast died." C. WESLEY. JESUS, the sinner's Friend, to thee Lost and undone, for aid I flee; Weary of earth, myself, and sin, Open thine arms and take me in.

2 Pity and save my ruined soul; "Tis thou alone canst make me whole; Dark, till in me thine image shine, And lost I am, till thou art mine.

3 At last I own it cannot be That I should fit myself for thee: Here, then, to thee I all resign; Thine is the work, and only thine.

4 What can I say thy grace to move? Lord. I am sin.—but thou art love: I give up every plea beside, Lord, I am lost,-but thou hast died !

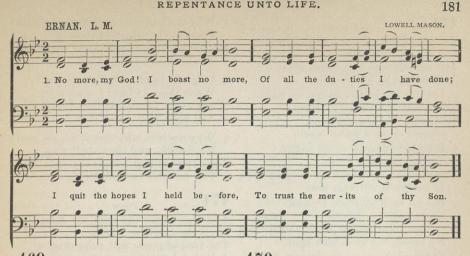

468 Psalm 51. I. WATTS. Show pity, Lord! O Lord! forgive; Let a repenting rebel live: Are not thy mercies large and free? May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 Oh, wash my soul from every sin, And make my guilty conscience clean: Here on my heart the burden lies, And past offences pain mine eyes.

3 My lips with shame my sins confess. Against thy law, against thy grace: Lord ! should thy judgments grow severe, I am condemned, but thou art clear.

4 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath. I must pronounce thee just in death: And, if my soul were sent to hell, Thy righteous law approves it well.

5 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord! Whose hope, still hovering round thy word, Would light on some sweet promise there, Some sure support against despair.

I. WATTS. Philippians 3: 7-10. No MORE, my God! I boast no more, Of all the duties I have done:

- I quit the hopes I held before, To trust the merits of thy Son.
- 2 Now for the love I bear his name. What was my gain, I count but loss;
- My former pride I call my shame, And nail my glory to his cross.
- 3 Yes,—and I must, and will esteem All things but loss for Jesus' sake;
- Oh, may my soul be found in him, And of his righteousness partake.
- 4 The best obedience of my hands Dares not appear before thy throne:
- But faith can answer thy demands,

By pleading what my Lord has done.

470 "Look unto me !" S. MEDLEY. SEE a poor sinner, dearest Lord, Whose soul, encouraged by thy word, At mercy's footstool would remain. And then would look,-and look again. 2 Ah! bring a wretched wanderer home. Now to thy footstool let me come. And tell thee all my grief and pain, And wait and look, - and look again ! 3 Take courage, then, my trembling soul: One look from Christ will make thee whole: Trust thou in him, 'tis not in vain, But wait and look, -and look again ! 4 Ere long that happy day will come. When I shall reach my blissful home: And when to glory I attain.

Oh, then I'll look and look again !

S. STENNETT.

471 C. M. Deep Penitence.

- PROSTRATE, dear Jesus ! at thy feet, A guilty rebel lies,
- And upwards, to thy mercy-seat, Presumes to lift his eyes.

2 Let not thy justice frown me hence; Oh, stay the vengeful storm;

- Forbid it, that Omnipotence Should crush a feeble worm.
- 3 If tears of sorrow could suffice To pay the debt I owe,
- Tears should, from both my weeping eyes, In ceaseless currents flow.
- 4 But no such sacrifice I plead To explate my guilt;
- [shed,-No tears, but those which thou hast No blood, but thou hast spilt.
- 5 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord ! And all my sins forgive;

Then justice will approve the word. That bids the sinner live.

472 L. M. Pardon Implored. T. HASTINGS. FORGIVE US, Lord! to thee we cry,

Forgive us thro' thy matchless grace; On thee alone our souls rely,

Be thou our strength and righteousness.

2 Forgive thou us, as we forgive The ills we suffer from our foes :

Restore us, Lord ! and bid us live; Oh! let us in thine arms repose.

- 3 Forgive us, for our guilt is great ! Our wretched souls no merit claim ;
- For sovereign mercy still we wait, And ask but in the Saviour's name.

4 Forgive us,-O thou bleeding Lamb ! Thou risen, thou exalted Lord !

Thou great High-Priest, our souls redeem.

And speak the pardon-sealing word.

473 с. м. Psalm 42. H. F. LYTE. As pants the hart for cooling streams, When heated in the chase,

- So longs my soul, O God, for thee, And thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For thee, my God-the living God, My thirsty soul doth pine;
- Oh, when shall I behold thy face, Thou Majesty divine!

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul? Trust God; who will employ

His aid for thee, and change these sighs To thankful hymns of joy.

- 4 I sigh to think of happier days, When thou, O Lord ! wast nigh ;
- When every heart was tuned to praise, And none more blest than I.
- 5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul? Hope still; and thou shalt sing

The praise of him who is thy God, Thy health's eternal spring.

474 L. M. Psalm 51. I. WATTS. A BROKEN heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring : The God of grace will ne'er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

2 My soul lies humbled in the dust. And owns thy dreadful sentence just : Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye, And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways; Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace; I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood, And they shall praise a pardoning God.

4 Oh, may thy love inspire my tongue ! Salvation shall be all my song; And all my powers shall join to bless The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

476 85, 75, D. Contrition. C. WESLEY. 478 85, 75. Full of trembling expectation, Feeling much, and fearing more,

Mighty God of my salvation !

I thy timely aid implore ;

Suffering Son of Man! be near me, All my sufferings to sustain.

By thy sorer griefs to cheer me, By thy more than mortal pain.

2 Call to mind that unknown anguish, In thy days of flesh below ;

When thy troubled soul did languish Under a whole world of woe;

When thou didst our curse inherit, Groan beneath our guilty load,

Burdened with a wounded spirit, Bruiséd by the wrath of God.

3 By thy most severe temptation,

In that dark, satanic hour; By thy last mysterious passion,

Screen me from the adverse power ! By thy fainting in the garden,

By thy bloody sweat, I pray,

Write upon my heart the pardon, Take my sins and fears away.

I Peter 1: 12. A. L. HILLHOUSE. TREMBLING before thine awful throne,

O Lord ! in dust my sins I own : Justice and mercy for my life

Contend! oh, smile and heal the strife ! 2 The Saviour smiles! upon my soul

New tides of hope tumultuous roll-

His voice proclaims my pardon found-Seraphic transport wings the sound.

3 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven, The new-born peace of sin forgiven!

Tears of such pure and deep delight, Ye angels! never dimmed your sight.

4 Ye saw of old, on chaos rise The beauteous pillars of the skies :

Ye know where morn exulting springs, And evening folds her drooping wings.

- 5 Bright heralds of the eternal Will, Abroad his errands ye fulfill;
- Or, throned in floods of beamy day, Symphonious, in his presence play.
- 6 But I amid your choirs shall shine, And all your knowledge will be mine :

Ye on your harps must lean to hear A secret chord that mine will bear.

Matt. 11: 28-30. I. E. RANKIN LABORING and heavy-laden

With my sins, O Lord, I roam, While I know thou hast invited

All such wanderers to their home.

- 2 Make my stubborn spirit willing To obey thy gracious voice,
- At the cross to leave its burden, And departing to rejoice.

3 Thy sweet yoke I'd take upon me. And would learn, O Lord, of thee;

Thou art meek in heart, and lowly, Teach me like thyself to be.

4 Laboring and heavy-laden.

Lord, no longer will I roam : Here I fix my habitation,

In thy sheltering love at home.

479 75, 65, 85. "Jesus Only." VAIN, delusive world, adieu. With all of creature good!

Who bought me with his blood:

All thy pleasures I forego:

I trample on thy wealth and pride; Only Jesus will I know,

And Jesus crucified.

2 Other knowledge I disdain; "T is all but vanity :

Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,-He tasted death for me.

Me to save from endless woe.

The sin-atoning Victim died: Only Jesus will I know,

And Jesus crucified.

482Backsliding confessed. J. NEWTON. ONCE I thought my mountain strong, Firmly fixed no more to move;

Then my Saviour was my song,

Then my soul was filled with love; Those were happy, golden days, Sweetly spent in prayer and praise.

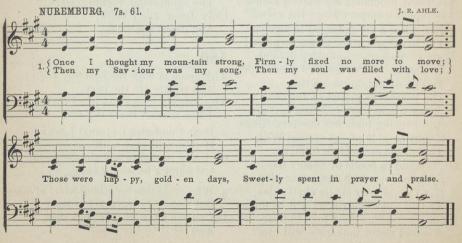

2 Little then myself I knew. Little thought of Satan's power; Now I feel my sins anew;

Now I feel the stormy hour ! Sin has put my joys to flight; Sin has turned my day to night.

3 Saviour, shine and cheer my soul, Bid my dying hopes revive;

Make my wounded spirit whole, Far away the tempter drive;

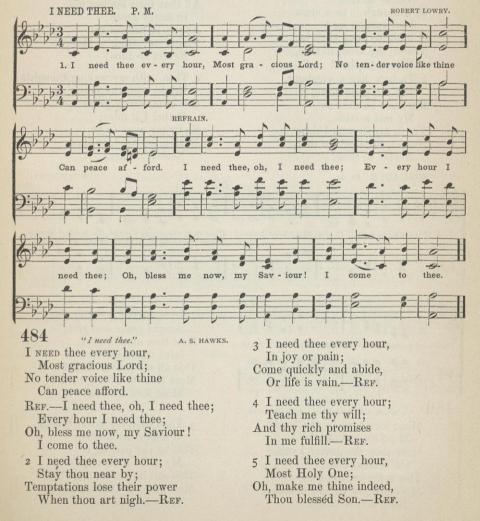

Speak the word and set me free, Let me live alone to thee.

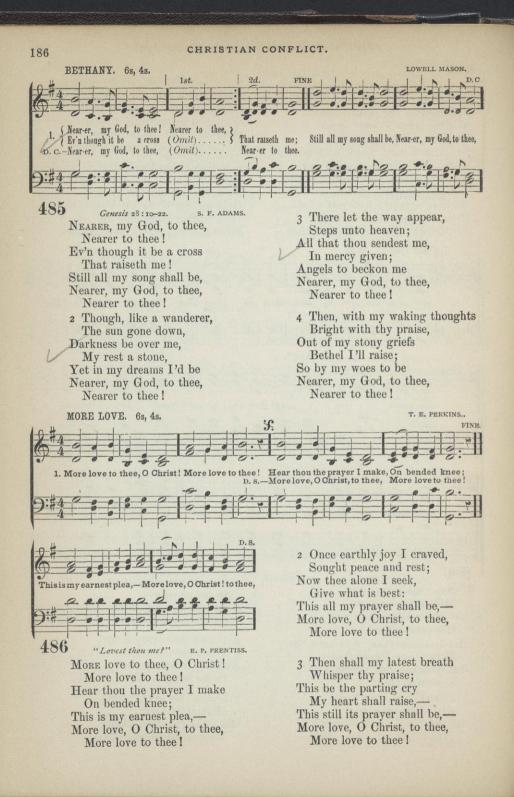

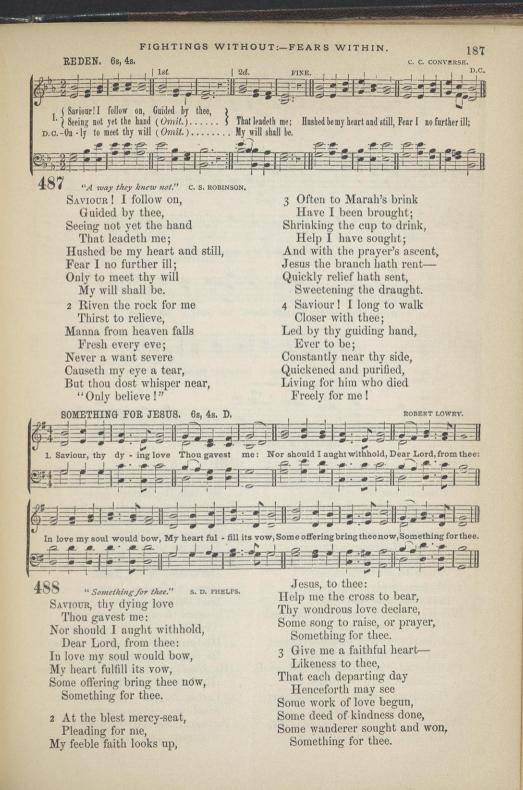

483 "Weary, Lord." A. D. F. RANDOLPH. WEARY, Lord, of struggling here With this constant doubt and fear, Burdened by the pains I bear, And the trials I must share— Help me, Lord, again to flee To the rest that's found in thee. Weakened by the wayward will Which controls, yet cheats me still; Seeking something undefined With an earnest, darkened mind— Help me, Lord, again to flee To the light that breaks from thee.

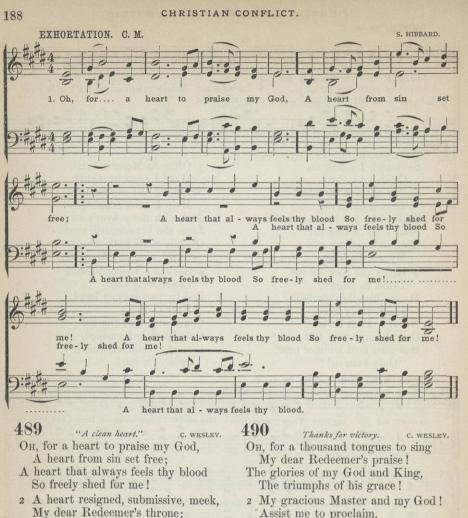

3 Fettered by this earthly scope In the reach and aim of hope, Fixing thought in narrow bound Where no living truth is found— Help me, Lord, again to flee To the hope that's fixed in thee. 185

- Assist me to proclaim,
- To spread, through all the earth abroad, The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus—the name that calms my fears, That bids my sorrows cease;
- 'T is music to my ravished ears: 'T is life, and health, and peace.
- 4 He breaks the power of canceled sin, He sets the prisoner free:
- His blood can make the foulest clean; His blood availed for me.
- 5 Let us obey, we then shall know, Shall feel our sins forgiven;

Anticipate our heaven below, And own that love is heaven.

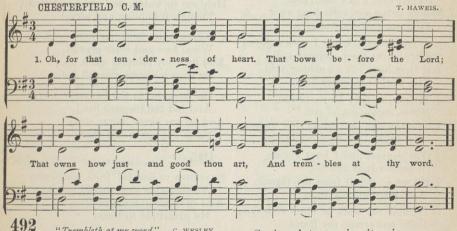

491 Greatness in Service. ANON. OH, not to fill the mouth of fame My longing soul is stirred: Oh, give me a diviner name!

- Call me thy servant, Lord!
- 2 No longer would my soul be known As uncontrolled and free;
- Oh, not mine own, oh, not mine own ! Lord, I belong to thee!

3 Thy servant,-me thy servant choose; Naught of thy claim abate ! The glorious name I would not lose. Nor change the sweet estate.

4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven, This is the name for me!

The same sweet style and title given Through all eternity.

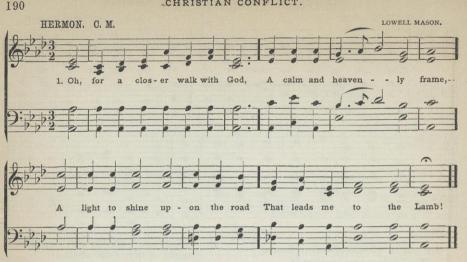

"Trembleth at my word." C. WESLEY. OH, for that tenderness of heart,

- That bows before the Lord; That owns how just and good thou art, And trembles at thy word.
- 2 Oh, for those humble, contrite tears, Which from repentance flow;
- That sense of guilt which, trembling, fears The long-suspended blow !
- 3 Saviour ! to me, in pity give, For sin, the deep distress;

The pledge thou wilt, at last, receive, And bid me die in peace.

- 4 Oh, fill my soul with faith and love, And strength to do thy will;
- Raise my desires and hopes above,-Thyself to me reveal.

493The closer walk. W. COWPER. OH, for a closer walk with God. A calm and heavenly frame,---

- A light to shine upon the road That leads me to the Lamb!
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew When first I saw the Lord?
- Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus and his word?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed ! How sweet their memory still !

But they have left an aching void The world can never fill.

- 4 Return, O holy Dove, return, Sweet messenger of rest!
- I hate the sins that made thee mourn. And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be,
- Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God. Calm and serene my frame;

So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

494 "What hourly dangers!" A. STEELE. 'ALAS! what hourly dangers rise!

- What snares beset my way!
- To heaven, oh, let me lift mine eyes, And hourly watch and pray.

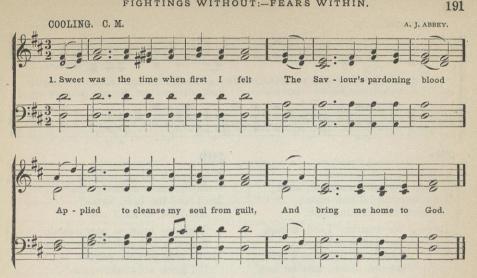

- 2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain, And melt in flowing tears !
- My weak resistance, ah, how vain ! How strong my foes and fears!
- 3 O gracious God! in whom I live, My feeble efforts aid;
- Help me to watch, and pray, and strive, Though trembling and afraid.
- 4 Increase my faith, increase my hope, When foes and fears prevail;
- And bear my fainting spirit up, Or soon my strength will fail.
- 5 Oh, keep me in thy heavenly way, And bid the tempter flee!
- And let me never, never stray From happiness and thee.
 - 495 "Search me, O God." G. P. MORRIS.

SEARCHER of hearts! from mine erase All thoughts that should not be,

And in its deep recesses trace My gratitude to thee!

- 2 Hearer of prayer ! oh, guide aright Each word and deed of mine;
- Life's battle teach me how to fight, And be the victory thine.
- 3 Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost! Thou glorious Three in One!
- Thou knowest best what I need most, And let thy will be done.

496 "Where is the blessedness?" Sweet was the time when first I felt

- The Saviour's pardoning blood Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt, And bring me home to God.
- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed, His praises tuned my tongue;
- And, when the evening shade prevailed, His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord, In joys the world can never give, And saw his glory shine;

And when I read his holy word, I called each promise mine.

- 4 Now, when the evening shade prevails, My soul in darkness mourns;
- And when the morn the light reveals, No light to me returns.
- 5 Rise, Saviour ! help me to prevail, And make my soul thy care;

J. NEWTON. I know thy mercy cannot fail, Let me that mercy share.

> 497 "Nearer to thee." B. CLEVELAND. OH, could I find, from day to day, A nearness to my God,

- Then would my hours glide sweet away While leaning on his word.
- 2 Lord, I desire with thee to live Anew from day to day.
- Nor ever take away.
- 3 Blest Jesus, come and rule my heart. And make me wholly thine,
- That I may never more depart, Nor grieve thy love divine.
- 4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath. Thy goodness I'll adore;
- And when my frame dissolves in death. My soul shall love thee more.

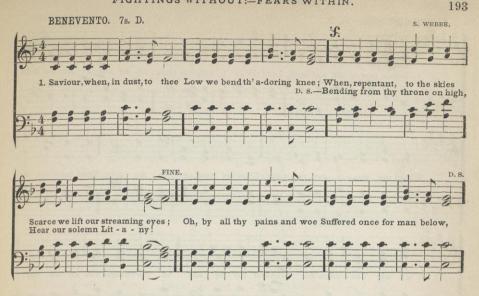

My repentings are kindled." c. WES
DEPTH of mercy !—can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God his wrath forbear?
Me, the chief of sinners, spare?
I have long withstood his grace;
Long provoked him to his face;
Would not hearken to his calls;
Grieved him by a thousand falls.

3 Kindled his relentings are; Me he now delights to spare; Cries, How shall I give thee up?— Lets the lifted thunder drop.

4 There for me the Saviour stands; Shows his wounds and spreads his hands! God is love ! I know, I feel: Jesus weeps, and loves me still. FIGHTINGS WITHOUT :- FEARS WITHIN.

501The Ancient Litany. R. GRANT. SAVIOUR, when, in dust, to thee Low we bend the adoring knee; When, repentant, to the skies Scarce we lift our weeping eyes; Oh, by all thy pains and woe Suffered once for man below, Bending from thy throne on high, Hear our solemn Litany!

2 By thy helpless infant years, By thy life of want and tears, By thy days of sore distress In the savage wilderness; By the dread mysterious hour Of the insulting tempter's power,-Turn, oh, turn a favoring eye; Hear our solemn Litany!

"Yesus, visit me." R. P. DUNN, tr.
JESUS, JESUS ! visit me;
How my soul longs after thee !
When, my best, my dearest Friend !
Shall our separation end ?
Lord ! my longings never cease;
Without thee I find no peace;

'Tis my constant cry to thee,— Jesus, Jesus ! visit me. 3 Mean the joys of earth appear, All below is dark and drear; Naught but thy belovéd voice Can my wretched heart rejoice.

4 Thou alone, my gracious Lord! Art my shield and great reward; All my hope, my Saviour thou,— To thy sovereign will I bow. FIGHTINGS WITHOUT:-FEARS WITHIN.

JESUS ! lover of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly While the billows near me roll, While the tempest still is high; Hide me, O my Saviour ! hide, Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide; Oh, receive my soul at last! 2 Other refuge have I none; Hangs my helpless soul on thee; Leave, ah ! leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me. All my trust on thee is stayed; All my help from thee I bring; Cover my defenceless head With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ! art all I want; More than all in thee I find; Raise the fallen, cheer the faint, Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name, I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am, Thou art full of truth and grace.
4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,— Grace to pardon all my sin;

Freely let me take of thee; Spring thou up within my heart, Rise to all eternity.

508 L. M. "Come to Me!" C. ELLIOTT. WITH tearful eyes I look around; Life seems a dark and stormy sea; Yet, 'mid the gloom, I hear a sound, A heavenly whisper, "Come to me."

2 It tells me of a place of rest; It tells me where my soul may flee : Oh, to the weary, faint, oppressed, How sweet the bidding, "Come to me!"

3 "Come, for all else must fail and die ! Earth is no resting-place for thee; To heaven direct thy weeping eye, I am thy portion; come to me."

4 O voice of mercy ! voice of love! In conflict, grief, and agony, Support me, cheer me from above ! And gently whisper, "Come to me." 509 L. M. Our Companion. L. WATTS. My God! permit me not to be A stranger to myself and thee; Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove, Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,

And thus debase my heavenly birth ? Why should I cleave to things below, And let my God, my Saviour, go ? 3 Call me away from flesh and sense ; One sovereign word can draw me thence ; I would obey the voice divine, And all inferior joys resign.

3 Come, gracious Lord! thy love can raise My captive powers from sin and death, And fill my heart and life with praise, And tune my last expiring breath.

511 C. M. "His great love." S. BROWNE.

LORD ! at thy feet we sinners lie, And knock at mercy's door :

Psalm 130. I. WATTS. FROM deep distress and troubled thoughts, 4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place,

To thee, my God, I raise my cries ; If thou severely mark our faults,

No flesh can stand before thine eyes.

2 But thou hast built thy throne of grace, Free to dispense thy pardons there;

That sinners may approach thy face, And hope and love, as well as fear.

3 As the benighted pilgrims wait,

And long, and wish for breaking day, So waits my soul before thy gate :

When will my God his face display?

4 My trust is fixed upon thy word, Nor shall I trust thy word in vain ; Let mourning souls address the Lord,

And find relief from all their pain.

Satan, with malicious art,

Watches each unguarded part:

But, from Satan's malice free, Saints shall soon victorious be: Soon the joyful news will come, "Child, your Father calls—come home !"

3 But of all the foes we meet, None so oft mislead our feet. None betray us into sin, Like the foes that dwell within; Yet let nothing spoil our peace, Christ shall also conquer these: Soon the joyful news will come. "Child, your Father calls-come home !"

Now begin the heavenly theme, Sing aloud in Jesus' name; Ye who Jesus' kindness prove, Triumph in redeeming love.

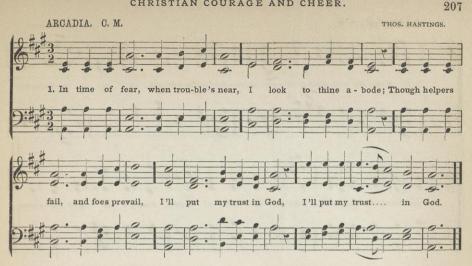

2 Ye who see the Father's grace Beaming in the Saviour's face, As to Canaan on ye move, Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears; Banish all your guilty fears; See your guilt and curse remove, Canceled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin opprest, Welcome to his sacred rest; Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring, Strike aloud each joyful string; Mortals, join the host above, Join to praise redeeming love.

536 "What time I am afraid." T. HASTINGS. In time of fear, when trouble's near, I look to thine abode;

- Though helpers fail, and foes prevail, I'll put my trust in God.
- 2 And what is life, 'mid toil and strife? What terror has the grave?
- Thine arm of power, in peril's hour, The trembling soul will save.

- In robes of victory through the skies. The glory shall be thine.

541 "I'm not ashamed. I. WATTS.

I'M NOT ashamed to own my Lord, Or to defend his cause:

- Maintain the honor of his word. The glory of his cross.
- 2 Jesus, my God !--- I know his name--His name is all my trust;
- Nor will he put my soul to shame. Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne his promise stands, And he can well secure
- What I've committed to his hands, Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will he own my worthless name Before his Father's face.

And in the new Jerusalem Appoint my soul a place.

- 2 His hand divine shall lead you on, Through all the blissful road;
- Till to the sacred mount you rise, And see your gracious God.
- 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength; Pursue his footsteps still;

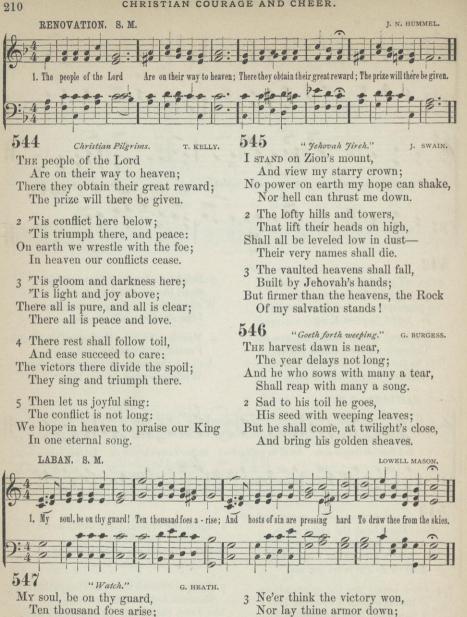

209

And let the prospect cheer your eye While laboring up the hill.

- No cross, no crown. T. SHEPHERD, alt. MUST Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free? No, there's a cross for every one,
- And there's a cross for me.
- 2 How happy are the saints above, Who once went sorrowing here! But now they taste unmingled love, And joy without a tear.
- 3 The consecrated cross I'll bear, Till death shall set me free;
- And then go home my crown to wear, For there's a crown for me.

- 4 Upon the crystal pavement, down At Jesus' piercéd feet,
- Joyful, I'll cast my golden crown, And his dear name repeat.
- 5 And palms shall wave, and harps shall ring, Beneath heaven's arches high;
- The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing, That lives no more to die.
- 6 Oh, precious cross ! oh, glorious crown ! Oh, resurrection day !
- Ye angels, from the stars come down, And bear my soul away.

And hosts of sin are pressing hard Thine arduous work will not be done. To draw thee from the skies. Till thou obtain thy crown.

2 Oh, watch, and fight, and pray !

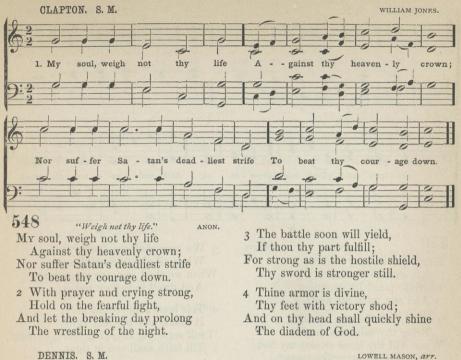

The battle ne'er give o'er;

Renew it boldly every day.

And help divine implore.

- 4 Fight on, my soul, till death Shall bring thee to thy God !
- He'll take thee at thy parting breath, Up to his blest abode.

549 "He careth." P. DODDRIDGE. How GENTLE God's commands! How kind his precepts are!

- Come, cast your burdens on the Lord, And trust his constant care.
- 2 Beneath his watchful eye His saints securely dwell;
- That hand which bears creation up Shall guard his children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load Press down your weary mind? Haste to your heavenly Father's throne, And sweet refreshment find.
- 4 His goodness stands approved, Unchanged from day to day:
- I'll drop my burden at his feet, And bear a song away.

I. WATTS.

MINE eyes and my desire Are ever to the Lord; I love to plead his promises, And rest upon his word.

2 Lord, turn to thee my soul; Bring thy salvation near:

When will thy hand release my feet -From sin's destructive snare?

Psalm 25.

3 When shall the sovereign grace Of my forgiving God

Restore me from those dangerous ways My wandering feet have trod?

4 Oh, keep my soul from death, Nor put my hope to shame!

For I have placed my only trust In my Redeemer's name.

- 5 With humble faith I wait To see thy face again;
- Of Israel it shall ne'er be said, He sought the Lord in vain.

Psalm 60.

T. KELLY.

ARISE, ye saints, arise ! The Lord our Leader is; The foe before his banner flies, And victory is his.

- 2 We follow thee, our Guide, Our Saviour, and our King !
- We follow thee, through grace supplied From heaven's eternal spring.

3 We soon shall see the day When all our toils shall cease; When we shall cast our arms away,

And dwell in endless peace.

- 4 This hope supports us here; It makes our burdens light;
- 'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer, Till faith shall end in sight.
- 5 Till, of the prize possessed, We hear of war no more:

And ever with our Leader rest, On yonder peaceful shore.

H. F. LYTE.

My spirit on thy care, Blest Saviour, I recline;

Thou wilt not leave me to despair, For thou art love divine.

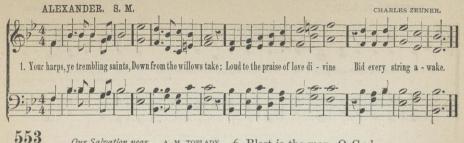

Psalm 31.

- 2 In thee I place my trust; On thee I calmly rest:
- I know thee good, I know thee just, And count thy choice the best.
- 3 Whate'er events betide, Thy will they all perform; Safe in thy breast my head I hide, Nor fear the coming storm.

4 Let good or ill befall,

It must be good for me,— Secure of having thee in all,

Of having all in thee.

Our Salvation near. A. M. TOPLADY. Your harps, ye trembling saints, Down from the willows take:

Loud to the praise of love divine Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land, We are not far from home: And nearer to our house above We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end Stronger and brighter shine; Nor present things, nor things to come, Shall quench the spark divine.

4 When we in darkness walk, Nor feel the heavenly flame,

Then is the time to trust our God, And rest upon his name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears Subside at his control;

His loving-kindness shall break through When fully he the work has wrought. The midnight of the soul.

6 Blest is the man, O God, Who stays himself on thee; Who waits for thy salvation, Lord, Shall thy salvation see.

"Be of good courage." J. WESLEY, tr. GIVE to the winds thy fears:

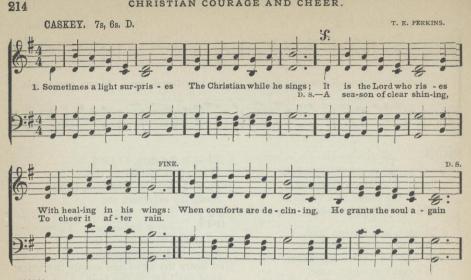

Hope, and be undismayed; God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears; God shall lift up thy head.

2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms, He gently clears thy way;

Wait thou his time; so shall this night Soon end in joyous day.

- 3 What though thou rulest not! Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
- Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne, And ruleth all things well.
- 4 Far, far above thy thought His counsel shall appear.
- That caused thy needless fear.

555 Matthew 6: 25-34. W. COWPER. Sometimes a light surprises The Christian while he sings; It is the Lord who rises With healing in his wings:

When comforts are declining, He grants the soul again A season of clear shining,

To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation, We sweetly then pursue The theme of God's salvation.

And find it ever new: Set free from present sorrow, We cheerfully can say,

Let the unknown to-morrow Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing, But he will bring us through;

Who gives the lilies clothing, Will clothe his people too:

Beneath the spreading heavens, No creature but is fed; And he who feeds the ravens,

Will give his children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither, Their wonted fruit should bear, Though all the fields should wither,

Nor flocks, nor herds be there;

Yet God the same abiding, His praise shall tune my voice, For while in him confiding. I cannot but rejoice.

Perfect peace.

A. E. WARING.

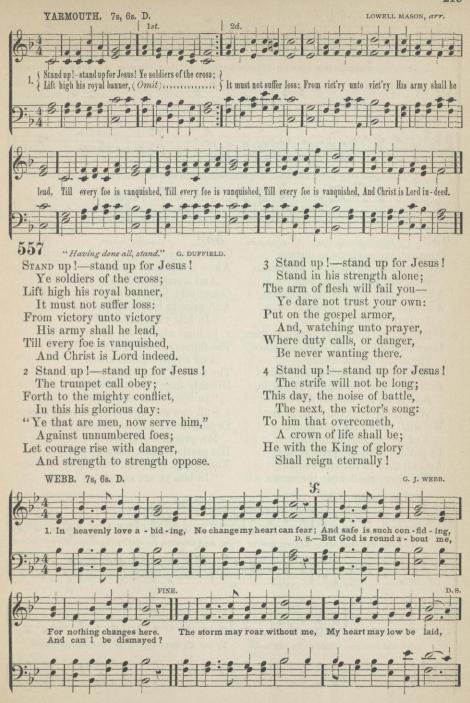

556

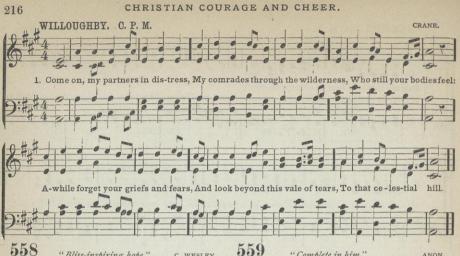

In heavenly love abiding, No change my heart shall fear, And safe is such confiding. For nothing changes here: The storm may roar without me, My heart may low be laid, But God is round about me, And can I be dismayed? 2 Wherever he may guide me, No want shall turn me back; My Shepherd is beside me, And nothing can I lack: His wisdom ever waketh. His sight is never dim: He knows the way he taketh, And I will walk with him. 3 Green pastures are before me, Which yet I have not seen; Bright skies will soon be o'er me,

Where darkest clouds have been. My hope I cannot measure;

My path to life is free; My Saviour has my treasure,

And he will walk with me.

Come on, my partners in distress, My comrades through the wilderness,

Who still your bodies feel: Awhile forget your griefs and fears, And look beyond this vale of tears, To that celestial hill.

2 Beyond the bounds of time and space, Look forward to that heavenly place,

The saints' secure abode; On faith's strong eagle-pinions rise, And force your passage to the skies, And scale the mount of God.

3 Who suffer with our Master here, We shall before his face appear,

And by his side sit down; To patient faith the prize is sure:

And all that to the end endure

The cross, shall wear the crown.

Come join, ye saints, with heart and voice, Alone in Jesus to rejoice,

And worship at his feet; Come, take his praises on your tongues, And raise to him your thankful songs,

"In him ye are complete !"

2 In him, who all our praise excels, The fullness of the Godhead dwells,

And all perfections meet: The head of all celestial powers,

Divinely theirs, divinely ours;-"In him ye are complete!"

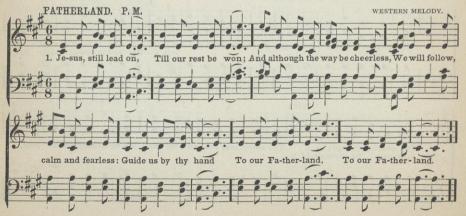

3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,

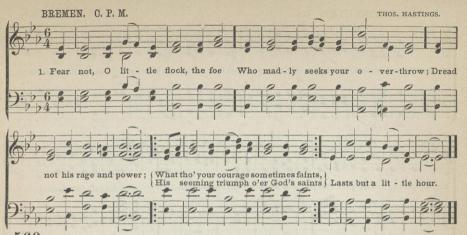

Dependent on him day by day,

His presence still entreat;

His precious name for ever bless,

Your glory, strength, and righteousness,— "In him ye are complete !"

560 FEAR not, O little flock, the foe Who madly seeks your overthrow;

Dread not his rage and power; What the' your courage sometimes faints, A mighty chorus to thy praise. His seeming triumph o'er God's saints Lasts but a little hour.

2 Be of good cheer; your cause belongs To him who can avenge your wrongs;

Leave it to him, our Lord! Though hidden yet from mortal eyes, He sees the Gideon that shall rise To save us, and his word.

3 As true as God's own word is true, Not earth nor hell with all their crew

Against us shall prevail; A jest and by-word are they grown;

God is with us, we are his own, Our victory cannot fail!

562 P. M. "Lead on." ZINZENDORF. JESUS still lead on, Till our rest be won; And although the way be cheerless, We will follow, calm and fearless; Guide us by thy hand To our Fatherland.

2 If the way be drear, If the foe be near, Let not faithless fears o'ertake us, Let not faith and hope forsake us; For, through many a foe. To our home we go.

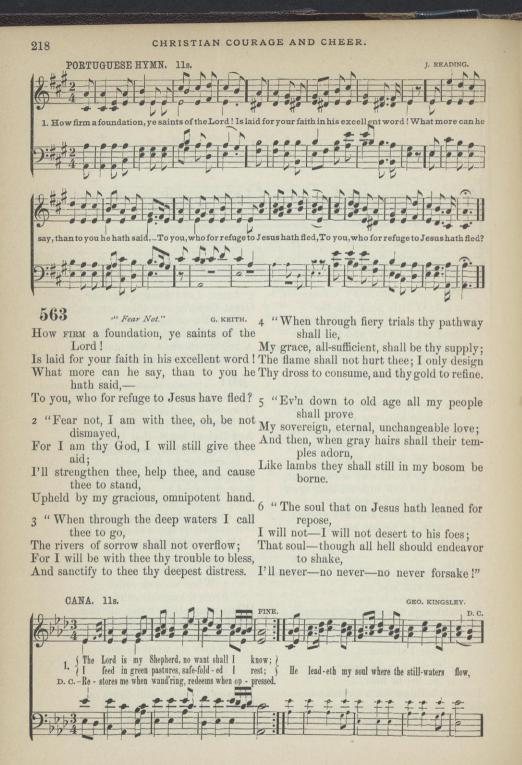

"Fear not, little flock." C. WINKWORTH, tr. 4 Amen, Lord Jesus, grant our prayer! Great Captain, now thine arm make bare, Fight for us once again!" So shall thy saints and martyrs raise World without end: Amen!

561 "Casting all care on God." J. ANSTICE. O LORD! how happy should we be, If we could cast our care on thee, If we from self could rest; And feel, at heart, that One above, In perfect wisdom, perfect love, Is working for the best! 2 How far from this our daily life. Ever disturbed by anxious strife, By sudden, wild alarms! Oh, could we but relinquish all Our earthly props, and simply fall On thine almighty arms!

3 When we seek relief From a long-felt grief, When temptations come, alluring, Make us patient and enduring; Show us that bright shore Where we weep no more.

4 Jesus, still lead on. Till our rest be won; Heavenly Leader, still direct us, Still support, console, protect us, Till we safely stand In our Fatherland.

Hear, Lord ! my feeble cries ;

With humble supplication

To thee my spirit flies :

My heart with grief is breaking; Scarce can my voice complain :

- Mine eyes, with tears kept waking, Still watch and weep in vain.
- 2 Thee, with the tribes assembled, O God, the billows saw;

They saw thee and they trembled, Turned, and stood still with awe

The clouds shot hail,-they lightened,-The earth reeled to and fro ;

The fiery pillar brightened The gulf of gloom below.

- 3 Thy way is in great waters:
- Thy footsteps are not known: Let Adam's sons and daughters
- Confide in thee alone : Through the wild sea thou leddest

Thy chosen flock of yore : Still on the waves thou treadest,

And thy redeemed pass o'er.

In strength and weakness, joy and woe, To God's high calling true !--

Why move ye thus, with lingering tread, A doubting, mournful band?

Why faintly hangs the drooping head? Why fails the feeble hand?

2 Oh, weak to know a Saviour's power, To feel a Father's care !

A moment's toil, a passing shower, Is all the grief ye share.

The orb of light, though clouds awhile May hide his noon-tide ray,

WAIT, my soul, upon the Lord,

To his gracious promise flee, Laving hold upon his word,

" As thy days thy strength shall be."

2 If the sorrows of thy case Seem peculiar still to thee,

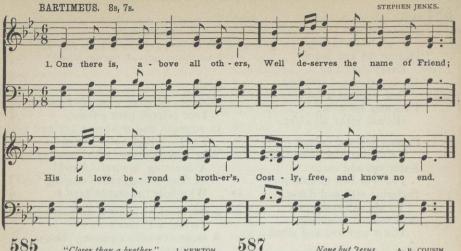

God has promised needful grace-"As thy days thy strength shall be."

3 Days of trial, days of grief, In succession thou mayst see;

This is still thy sweet relief-"As thy days thy strength shall be."

4 Rock of Ages, I'm secure, With thy promise full and free; Faithful, positive, and sure-

"As thy days thy strength shall be."

ONE there is, above all others,

- Well deserves the name of Friend; His is love beyond a brother's, Costly, free, and knows no end.

Reconciled in him to God.

What a friend we have above.

JESUS only, when the morning Beams upon the path I tread; Jesus only, when the darkness

Gathers round my weary head.

2 Jesus only, when the billows Cold and sullen o'er me roll;

Jesus only, when the trumpet Rends the tomb and wakes the soul.

3 Jesus only, when, adoring, Saints their crowns before him bring; Jesus only, I will, joyous,

Through eternal ages sing.

None but Gerst: his merit hides me, He was faultless—I am fair:

- None but Christ, his wisdom guides me, He was out-cast—I'm his care.
- 2 None but Christ: his Spirit seals me, Gives me freedom with control;
- None but Christ, his bruising heals me, And his sorrow soothes my soul.

None but Christ, his love constrains me, He is mine and I am his.

Always with us, always with us— Words of cheer and words of love:

From ms dweimig-place above.

2 With us when we toil in sadness, Sowing much and reaping none; Telling us that in the future

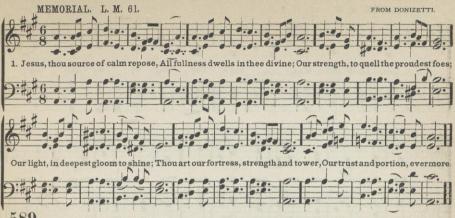

Golden harvests shall be won.

3 With us when the storm is sweeping O'er our pathway dark and drear;

Waking hope within our bosoms, Stilling every anxious fear.

4 With us in the lonely valley, When we cross the chilling stream— Lighting up the steps to glory

With salvation's radiant beam.

589 "All fullness." C. WESLEY. JESUS, thou source of calm repose,

All fullness dwells in thee divine; Our strength to quell the proudest foes;

Our light, in deepest gloom to shine; Thou art our fortress, strength, and tower, Our trust and portion, evermore.

2 Jesus, our Comforter thou art;

Our rest in toil, our ease in pain; The balm to heal each broken heart.

In storms our peace, in loss our gain; Our joy, beneath the worldling's frown; In shame, our glory and our crown;—

In bonds, our perfect liberty; Our refuge in temptation's hour:

Our comfort when in grief and thrall; Our life in death; our all in all.

"Not your own." S. F. SMITH.

- OH, not my own these verdant hills,
- And fruits, and flowers, and stream, and wood;
- But his who all with glory fills, Who bought me with his precious blood.
- 2 Oh, not my own this wondrous frame, Its curious work, its living soul;
- But his who for my ransom came; Slain for my sake, he claims the whole.
- 3 Oh, not my own the grace that keeps My feet from fierce temptations free:
- Oh, not my own the thought that leaps, Adoring, blesséd Lord, to thee.
- 4 Oh, not my own; I'll soar and sing, When life, with all its toils, is o'er,

And thou thy trembling lamb shalt bring Safe home, to wander nevermore.

In pastures green; he leadeth me The quiet waters by.

- 2 My soul he doth restore again; And me to walk doth make
- Within the paths of righteousness, Ev'n for his own name's sake.
- 3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, Yet will I fear no ill;
- For thou art with me, and thy rod And staff me comfort still.
- 4 My table thou hast furnished In presence of my foes;
- My head thou dost with oil anoint, And my cup overflows.
- 5 Goodness and mercy, all my life, Shall surely follow me;
- And in God's house for evermore My dwelling-place shall be.

- Do NOT I love thee, O my Lord Behold my heart, and see; And turn the dearest idol out That dares to rival thee.
- 2 Is not thy name melodious still To mine attentive ear?
- Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound, My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 3 Hast thou a lamb in all thy flock I would disdain to feed ?
- Hast thou a foe, before whose face I fear thy cause to plead?
- 4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood In honor of thy name?
- And challenge the cold hand of death To damp the immortal flame?
- 5 Thou knowest that I love thee, Lord; But, oh, I long to soar
- Far from the sphere of mortal joys, And learn to love thee more.

The vail of sense hangs dark between Thy blesséd face and mine !

- 2 I see thee not, I hear thee not, Yet art thou oft with me; And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
- As where I meet with thee.
- When slumbers o'er me roll, [sought,
- Thine image ever fills my thought, And charms my ravished soul.
- 4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone;
- I love thee, dearest Lord !--- and will, Unseen, but not unknown.
- 5 When death these mortal eyes shall seal, 5 Thy mercy-seat is open still, And still this throbbing heart,

The rending vail shall thee reveal,

All glorious as thou art!

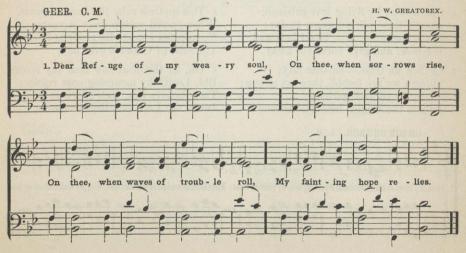

On thee, when sorrows rise, On thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

235

- 2 To thee I tell each rising grief, For thou alone canst heal;
- Thy word can bring a sweet relief For every pain I feel.
- 3 Like some bright dream that comes un-3 But oh, when gloomy doubts prevail, I fear to call thee mine:
 - The springs of comfort seem to fail. And all my hopes decline.
 - 4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee? Thou art my only trust;
 - And still my soul would cleave to thee, Though prostrate in the dust.

Here let my soul retreat,

With humble hope attend thy will, And wait beneath thy feet.

OH, sweetly breathe the lyres above,

236

When angel's touch the quivering string, And wake, to chant Immanuel's love, Such strains as angel-lips can sing !

 2 And sweet, on earth, the choral swell, From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
 When pardoned souls their raptures tell, And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.

3 Jesus, thy name our souls adore; We own the bond that makes us thine; And carnal joys that charmed before, For thy dear sake we now resign.

4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,

Accept thine offered grace to-day; Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed, We bow, and give ourselves away.

5 In thee we trust,—on thee rely; Though we are feeble, thou art strong; Oh, keep us till our spirits fly

To join the bright, immortal throng !

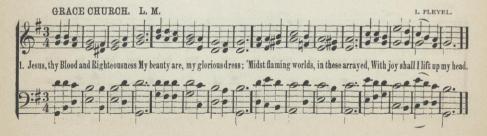

Robe of Righteousness. J. WESLEY, tr. JESUS, thy Blood and Righteousness My beauty are, my glorious dress; 'Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed, With joy shall I lift up my head.

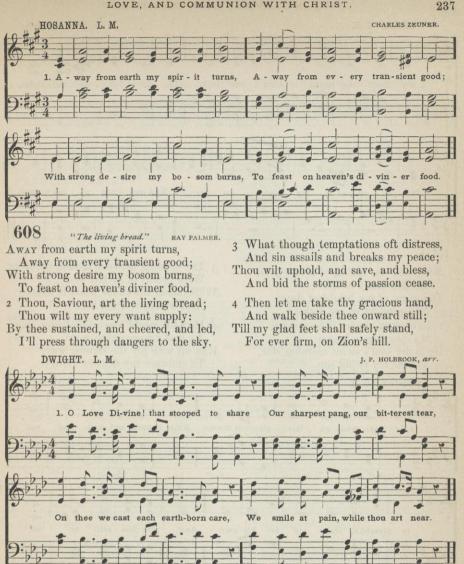

2 Lord, I believe thy precious blood,— Which, at the mercy-seat of God, For ever doth for sinners plead,— For me, ev'n for my soul, was shed.

3 When from the dust of death I rise To claim my mansion in the skies— Ev'n then, this shall be all my plea: Jesus hath lived, hath died for me.

4 This spotless robe the same appears, When ruined nature sinks in years; No age can change its glorious hue, The robe of Christ is ever new.

5 Oh, let the dead now hear thy voice: Bid, Lord, thy mourning ones rejoice; Their beauty this, their glorious dress, Jesus, the Lord our Righteousness.

609 " Thou art near." O. W. HOLMES. O LOVE Divine! that stooped to share

Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear, On thee we cast each earth-born care.

We smile at pain, while thou art near.

2 Though long the weary way we tread, And sorrow crown each lingering year, No path we shun, no darkness dread,

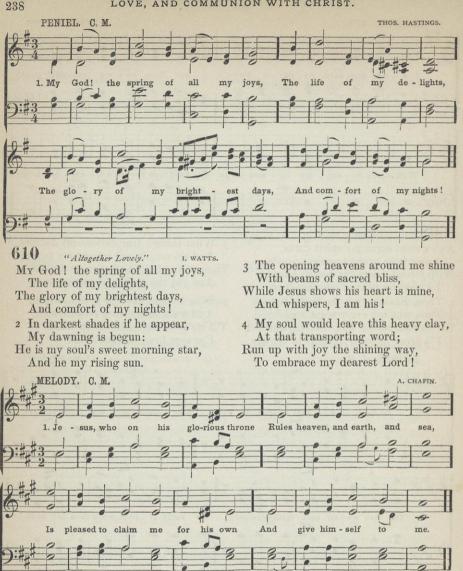

Our hearts still whispering, thou art near.

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief, And trembling faith is changed to fear,

The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf, Shall softly tell us thou art near.

4 On thee we fling our burdening woe, O Love Divine, for ever dear;

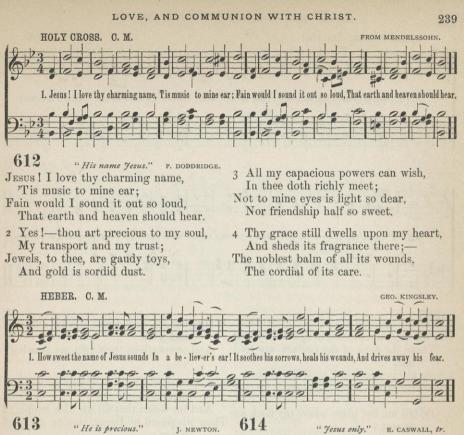

Content to suffer while we know, Living or dying, thou art near !

611 "To live is Christ." I. NEWTON. JESUS, who on his glorious throne

Rules heaven, and earth, and sea, Is pleased to claim me for his own

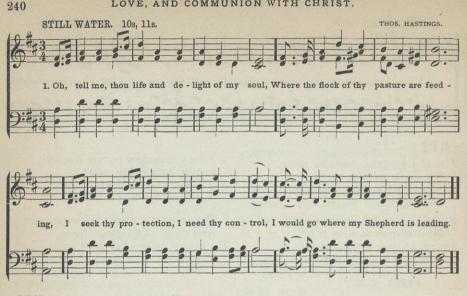

- And give himself to me.
- 2 His person fixes all my love. His blood removes my fear;
- And while he pleads for me above, His arm preserves me here.
- 3 His word of promise is my food, His Spirit is my guide;
- Thus daily is my strength renewed, And all my wants supplied.
- 4 For him I count as gain each loss. Disgrace for him renown;
- Well may I glory in my cross, While he prepares my crown.

- How sweet the name of Jesus sounds In a believer's ear!
- It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds, And drives away his fear.
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole, And calms the troubled breast:
- "T is manna to the hungry soul, And to the weary, rest.
- 3 Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend, 3 O Hope of every contrite heart! My Prophet, Priest, and King;
- My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End, Accept the praise I bring.
- 4 Weak is the effort of my heart, And cold my warmest thought;
- But when I see thee as thou art, I'll praise thee as I ought.
- 5 Till then I would thy love proclaim, With every fleeting breath;
- And may the music of thy name, Refresh my soul in death.

- JESUS, the very thought of thee, With sweetness fills my breast; But sweeter far thy face to see And in thy presence rest.
- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame, Nor can the memory find
- A sweeter sound than thy blest name, O Saviour of mankind !
- O Joy of all the meek!
- To those who fall, how kind thou art! How good to those who seek !
- 4 But what to those who find? Ah! this, Nor tongue nor pen can show;
- The love of Jesus, what it is, None but his loved ones know.
- 5 Jesus, our only joy be thou, As thou our prize wilt be;
- Jesus, be thou our glory now, And through eternity.

615 Cant. 1: 7, 8. THOS. HASTINGS. OH, tell me, thou life and delight of my soul, Where the flock of thy pasture are feeding;

- I seek thy protection, I need thy control, I would go where my Shepherd is leading.⁴
- - Where the noontide will find them reposing;
- The tempest now rages, my soul is distressed.

- 3 And why should I stray with the flocks of thy foes,
 - ing,

Where hunger and thirst, where affliction and woes,

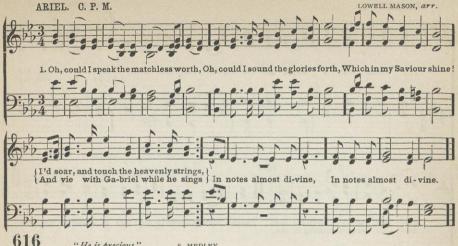

And temptations their ruin are proving?

- Ah, when shall my woes and my wanderings cease,
- 2 Oh, tell me the place where thy flock are Thou Shepherd of Israel, restore me that peace.
 - Thou dost give to the flock thou art keeping.

And the pathway of peace I am losing. 5 A voice from the Shepherd now bids me return

- By the way where the footprints are lying;
- In the desert where now they are rov- No longer to wander, no longer to mourn: And homeward my spirit is flying.

OH, could I speak the matchless worth, Oh, could I sound the glories forth,

Which in my Saviour shine! I'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings, And vie with Gabriel while he sings

In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt, My ransom from the dreadful guilt.

Of sin and wrath divine ! I'd sing his glorious righteousness, In which all-perfect heavenly dress

My soul shall ever shine.

617 75, 61 "Only thee." G. DUFFIELD. BLESSED Saviour ! thee I love, All my other joys above; All my hopes in thee abide, Thou my hope, and naught beside: Ever let my glory be, Only, only, only thee. 2 Once again beside the cross,

All my gain I count but loss; Earthly pleasures fade away,— Clouds they are that hide my day: Hence, vain shadows! let me see Jesus, crucified for me.

3 Blesséd Saviour, thine am I, Thine to live, and thine to die; Height, or depth, or earthly power, Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more: Ever shall my glory be Only, only, only thee ! 3 I'd sing the characters he bears, And all the forms of love he wears, Exalted on his throne: 241

In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,

I would to everlasting days Make all his glories known.

4 Well-the delightful day will come,

When my dear Lord will bring me home, And I shall see his face:

Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,

A blest eternity I'll spend, Triumphant in his grace.

618 75, 61. "I am thine. F. R. HAVERGAL. JESUS, Master, whose I am, Purchased thine alone to be, By thy blood. O spotless Lamb,

Shed so willingly for me; Let my heart be all thine own,

Let me live to thee alone.

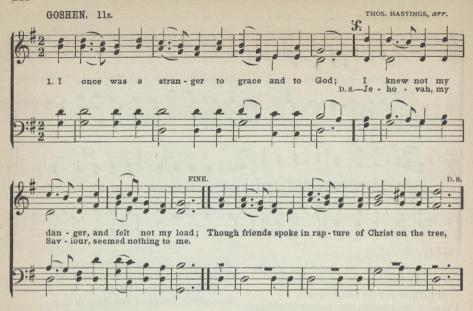

2 Other lords have long held sway; Now thy name alone to bear,

Thy dear voice alone obey, Is my daily, hourly prayer. Whom have I in heaven but thee?

Nothing else my joy can be. 3 Jesus, Master, I am thine; Keep me faithful, keep me near;

Let thy presence in me shine

All my homeward way to cheer. Jesus, at thy feet I fall, Oh, be thou my All in all.

619 Love and assurance. R. M. MC CHEYNE. I ONCE Was a stranger to grace and to God; O EYES that are weary, and hearts that

I knew not my danger, and felt not my load; Though friends spoke in rapture of Christ Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow nomore! on the tree,

Jehovah, my Saviour, seemed nothing to me.

2 When free grace awoke me by light from on high.

Then legal fears shook me: I trembled to die: No refuge, no safety, in self could I see: Jehovah, thou only my Saviour must be!

- 3 My terrors all vanished before his sweet name:
- My guilty fears banished, with boldness I came

To drink at the fountain, so copious and free: Jehovah, my Saviour, is all things to me.

4 Jehovah, the Lord, is my treasure and 4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty boast;

Jehovah, my Saviour, I ne'er can be lost; Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face; In thee I shall conquer, by flood and by Shall know how his love went before me field.

Jehovah my anchor, Jehovah my shield!

are sore!

- The light of his countenance shineth so bright.
- That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.
- 2 While looking to Jesus, my heart cannot fear:
- I tremble no more when I see Jesus near: I know that his presence my safeguard
- will be.
- For, "Why are you troubled?" he saith unto me.
- 3 Still looking to Jesus, oh, may I be found, When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round:

They bear me away in his presence to be: I see him still nearer whom always I see.

- and grace
- each day,
- And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.

When Jesus no longer I see ! The woodlands, the fields, and the flowers,

Have lost all their sweetness to me.

His name yields the richest perfume, And softer than music his voice;

His presence can banish my gloom, And bid all within me rejoice.

2 Dear Lord! if indeed I am thine, And thou art my light and my song; Say, why do I languish and pine,

And why are my winters so long? Oh, drive these dark clouds from the sky,

Thy soul-cheering presence restore;

Or bid me soar upward on high,

Where winters and storms are no more.

His praises aloud I'll proclaim: And join with the armies above, To shout his adorable name.

To gaze on his glories divine

Shall be my eternal employ; To see them incessantly shine, My boundless, ineffable joy.

2 He freely redeemed with his blood My soul from the confines of hell.

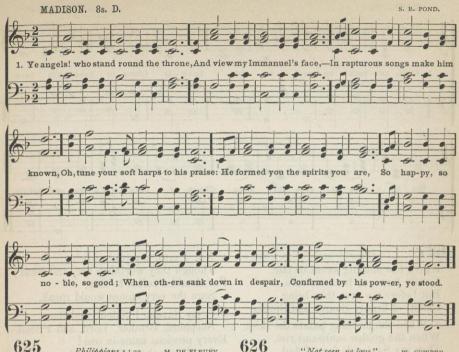

To live on the smiles of my God,

And in his sweet presence to dwell:— To shine with the angels in light,

With saints and with seraphs to sing, To view, with eternal delight,

My Jesus, my Saviour, my King!

YE angels! who stand round the throne, And view my Immanuel's face,—

In rapturous songs make him known,

Oh, tune your soft harps to his praise: He formed you the spirits you are,

So happy, so noble, so good; When others sank down in despair, Confirmed by his power, ye stood.

2 Ye saints ! who stand nearer than they, And cast your bright crowns at his feet,

His grace and his glory display, And all his rich mercy repeat;

He snatched you from hell and the grave, He ransomed from death and despair:

For you he was mighty to save, Almighty to bring you safe there.

- 3 Oh, when will the period appear When I shall unite in your song?
- I'm weary of lingering here,
- And I to your Saviour belong ! I want—oh, I want to be there,

To sorrow and sin bid adieu—

Your joy and your friendship to share— To wonder, and worship with you ! 020 "Not seen, ye love." w. COWPER. My Saviour, whom absent I love,

245

Whom, not having seen, I adore, Whose name is exalted above

All glory, dominion, and power,— Dissolve thou these bands that detain

My soul from her portion in thee; Ah, strike off this adamant chain, And make me eternally free!

And make me eternany nee!

2 When that happy era begins, When arrayed in thy glories I shine, Nor grieve any more, by my sins,

The bosom on which I recline,

Oh, then shall the vail be removed, And round me thy brightness be poured !

I shall meet him, whom absent I loved, I shall see, whom unseen I adored.

3 And then, nevermore shall the fears, The trials, temptations, and woes, Which darken this valley of tears,

Intrude on my blissful repose:

To Jesus, the crown of my hope, My soul is in haste to be gone;

Oh, bear me, ye cherubim, up, And waft me away to his throne !

EARTH has nothing sweet or fair, Lovely forms or beauties rare, But before my eyes they bring Christ, of beauty Source and Spring.

2 When the morning paints the skies, When the golden sunbeams rise, Then my Saviour's form I find Brightly imaged on my mind.

3 When the star-beams pierce the night, Oft I think on Jesus' light; Think how bright that light will be, Shining through eternity.

4 Come, Lord Jesus ! and dispel This dark cloud in which I dwell, And to me the power impart To behold thee as thou art.

I. NEWTON.

"Immanuel." SWEETER sounds than music knows Charm me in Immanuel's name:

All her hopes my spirit owes To his birth, and cross, and shame.

2 When he came the angels sung, "Glory be to God on high:"

Lord, unloose my stammering tongue; Who should louder sing than I?

3 Did the Lord a man become. That he might the law fulfill.

Bleed and suffer in my room,-And canst thou, my tongue, be still?

"Altogether lovely." F. E. cox, tr. 4 No; I must my praises bring, Though they worthless are, and weak; For should I refuse to sing. Sure the very stones would speak.

I will love thee without end.

CHRIST, of all my hopes the Ground. Christ, the Spring of all my joy,

" To live is Christ."

Still in thee let me be found, Still for thee my powers employ.

2 Fountain of o'erflowing grace! Freely from thy fullness give:

Till I close my earthly race, Be it "Christ for me to live !"

3 Firmly trusting in thy blood. Nothing shall my heart confound:

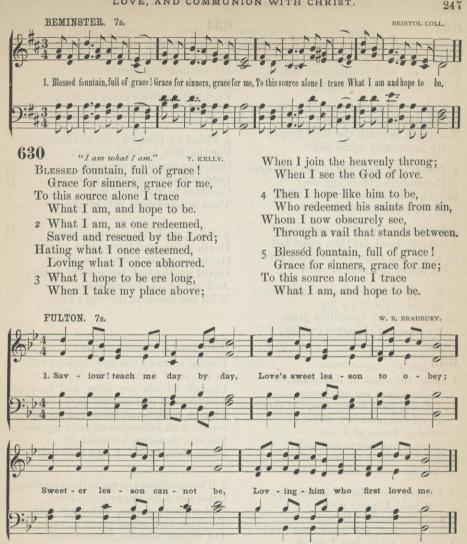

Safely I shall pass the flood, Safely reach Immanuel's ground.

4 When I touch the blesséd shore. Back the closing waves shall roll!

Death's dark stream shall nevermore Part from thee my ravished soul.

5 Thus—oh, thus an entrance give To the land of cloudless sky:

Having known it "Christ to live," Let me know it "gain to die."

631 "Who first loved us." ANON. SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day, Love's sweet lesson to obey: Sweeter lesson cannot be, Loving him who first loved me. 2 With a childlike heart of love, At thy bidding may I move; Prompt to serve and follow thee, Loving him who first loved me. 3 Teach me all thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in thy grace;

Learning how to love from thee, Loving him who first loved me.

4 Love in loving finds employ-In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving him who first loved me.

5 Thus may I rejoice to show That I feel the love I owe; Singing, till thy face I see, Of his love who first loved me.

Like thy beloved name;

Nor aught beneath the skies inspire My heart with equal flame.

3 Where'er I look, my wondering eyes Unnumbered blessings see; But what is life, with all its bliss, If once compared with thee?

4 Hast thou a rival in my breast? Search, Lord, for thou canst tell

If aught can raise my passions thus, Or please my soul so well.

5 No; thou art precious to my heart, My portion and my joy :

For ever let thy boundless grace My sweetest thoughts employ.

Jesus' Words. H. BONAR. I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,-"Come unto me and rest : Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon my breast !" I came to Jesus as I was. Weary, and worn, and sad, I found in him a resting-place, And he hath made me glad. 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,-"Behold I freely give The living water; thirsty one, Stoop down, and drink, and live !" CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE AND GRACES.

Brotherly Love. I. HUMPHREYS. BLESSED are the sons of God, They are bought with Christ's own blood; They are ransomed from the grave; Life eternal they shall have: With them numbered may we be, Here, and in eternity.

2 They are justified by grace, They enjoy the Saviour's peace; All their sins are washed away; They shall stand in God's great day: With them numbered may we be, Here, and in eternity.

3 They are lights upon the earth. Children of a heavenly birth,-

They are but as idle songs.

If no love my heart inspire; All the eloquence shall pass As the noise of sounding brass.

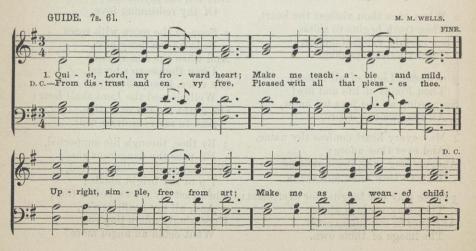

2 Though I lavish all I have On the poor in charity,

Though I shrink not from the grave, Or unmoved the stake can see,-

Till by love the work be crowned, All shall profitless be found.

3 Come, thou Spirit of pure love. Who didst forth from God proceed. Never from my heart remove;

Let me all thy impulse heed: Let my heart henceforward be Moved, controlled, inspired by thee.

CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCES AND GRACES.

QUIET, Lord, my froward heart, Make me teachable and mild, Upright, simple, free from art, Make me as a weanéd child: From distrust and envy free, Pleased with all that pleases thee.

Calm in the closet's solitude. Calm in the bustling street,-

Calm in my poverty or wealth, Calm in my loss or gain,-

Each thought of unbelief and fear, Each lingering shade of gloom.

3 I praise the God of peace: I trust his truth and might;

He calls me his, I call him mine, My God, my joy, my light.

4 'Tis he who saveth me, And freely pardon gives: I love because he loveth me; I live because he lives.

5 My life with him is hid, My death has passed away, My clouds have melted into light, My midnight into day.

CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE AND GRACES.

654 Faith. F. W. FABER. OH, gift of gifts ! oh, grace of faith ! My God! how can it be

- That thou, who hast discerning love, Shouldst give that gift to me?
- 2 How many hearts thou mightst have had More innocent than mine!
- How many souls more worthy far Of that sweet touch of thine !
- 3 Ah, grace ! into unlikeliest hearts It is thy boast to come,
- The glory of thy light to find In darkest spots a home.
- 4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross, Seem trifles less than light-
- Earth looks so little and so low When faith shines full and bright.
- 5 Oh, happy, happy that I am ! If thou canst be, O Faith,
- The treasure that thou art in life, What wilt thou be in death !

Godly sincerity. WALK in the light ! so shalt thou know That fellowship of love,

His Spirit only can bestow, Who reigns in light above,

- 2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt find Thy heart made truly his,
- Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined, In whom no darkness is.

3 Walk in the light! and ev'n the tomb No fearful shade shall wear:

Glory shall chase away its gloom. For Christ hath conquered there.

4 Walk in the light! and thou shalt see Thy path, though thorny, bright,

For God by grace shall dwell in thee. And God himself is light.

656

D. TURNER.

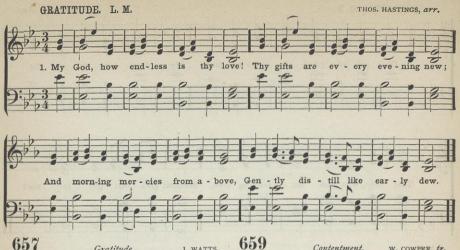

Faith. FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss, And saves me from its snares:

Its aid, in every duty, brings, And softens all my cares.

2 The wounded conscience knows its power The healing balm to give:

- That balm the saddest heart can cheer; And make the dying live.
- 3 Wide it unvails celestial worlds. Where deathless pleasures reign:
- And bids me seek my portion there, Nor bids me seek in vain.
- 4 It shows the precious promise sealed With the Redeemer's blood;
- And helps my feeble hope to rest Upon a faithful God.
- 5 There—there unshaken would I rest. Till this frail body dies;
- And then, on faith's triumphant wings, To endless glory rise.

Gratitude. My God, how endless is thy love! Thy gifts are every evening new;

256

And morning mercies from above, Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night, 2 To us remains nor place nor time: Great Guardian of my sleeping hours;

- Thy sovereign word restores the light, And quickens all my drowsy powers.
- 3 I yield my powers to thy command; To thee I consecrate my days;
- Perpetual blessings from thine hand Demand perpetual songs of praise.

658 J. NEWTON. Faith.

By faith in Christ I walk with God,

- With heaven, my journey's end, in view; Secure of finding God in all. Supported by his staff and rod,
 - My road is safe and pleasant too.
- 2 Though snares and dangers throng my path,

And earth and hell my course withstand, I triumph over all by faith.

- Guarded by his almighty hand.
- 3 The wilderness affords no food,

But God for my support prepares, Provides me every needful good,

- And frees my soul from wants and cares.
- 4 With him sweet converse I maintain: Great as he is, I dare be free;
- I tell him all my grief and pain, And he reveals his love to me.

Contentment.

W. COWPER, tr.

O LORD, how full of sweet content Our years of pilgrimage are spent ! Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee, In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.

Our country is in every clime: We can be calm and free from care On any shore, since God is there.

3 While place we seek, or place we shun, The soul finds happiness in none; But with our God to guide our way, 'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

4 Could we be cast where thou art not. That were indeed a dreadful lot: But regions none remote we call.

Voiceless Prayer. GREEK HYMN.

O BLESSED God, to thee I raise My voice in thankful hymns of praise: And when my voice shall silent be. My silence shall be praise to thee.

2 For voice and silence doth impart The filial homage of my heart; And both alike are understood By thee, thou Parent of all good—

3 Whose grace is all unsearchable. Whose care for me no tongue can tell, Who loves my loudest praise to hear, And loves to bless my voiceless prayer. CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE AND GRACES.

Faith.

I. WATTS.

'T is by the faith of joys to come,

We walk through deserts dark asnight; Till we arrive at heaven, our home,

Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies; She makes the pearly gates appear;

Far into distant worlds she pries,

And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through, While faith inspires a heavenly ray;

Though lions roar, and tempests blow, And rocks and dangers fill the way.

J. KEBLE.

IF on our daily course our mind Be set, to hallow all we find, New treasures still, of countless price, God will provide for sacrifice.

Self-denial.

2 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be, As more of heaven in each we see; Some softening gleam of love and prayer Shall dawn on every cross and care.

3 The trivial round, the common task, Will furnish all we ought to ask;-Room to deny ourselves, a road To bring us daily nearer God.

4 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love, Fit us for perfect rest above; And help us, this and every day, To live more nearly as we pray.

HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews, And nobler speech than angels use, If love be absent, I am found Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.

Love.

2 Were I inspired to preach and tell All that is done in heaven and hell-Or could my faith the world remove, Still I am nothing without love.

3 Should I distribute all my store To feed the hungry, clothe the poor; Or give my body to the flame, To gain a martyr's glorious name:---

4 If love to God and love to men Be absent, all my hopes are vain; Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal. The work of love can e'er fulfill.

So LET our lips and lives express The holy gospel we profess; So let our works and virtues shine, To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad The honors of our Saviour God; When his salvation reigns within, And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Religion bears our spirits up, While we expect that blessed hope,-The bright appearance of the Lord: And faith stands leaning on his word.

665 с. м. Docility .- Ps. 131. Is there ambition in my heart?

- Search, gracious God, and see; Or do I act a haughty part?
- Lord, I appeal to thee.
- 2 I charge my thoughts, be humble still, And all my carriage mild;
- Content, my Father, with thy will, And quiet as a child.
- 3 The patient soul, the lowly mind, Shall have a large reward;
- Let saints in sorrow lie resigned, And trust a faithful Lord.

666 C. M. " The Head, even Christ." C. WESLEY. BLEST be the dear, uniting love,

That will not let us part : Our bodies may far off remove;

We still are one in heart.

We still in Jesus' footsteps tread, And show his praise below.

3 Oh, may we ever walk in him, And nothing know beside !

Nothing desire, nothing esteem, But Jesus crucified!

4 Partakers of the Saviour's grace, The same in mind and heart,

Not joy nor grief nor time nor place Nor life nor death can part.

667 C. M. "Watch and Pray." T. HASTINGS. THE Saviour bids thee watch and pray Through life's momentous hour;

- And grants the Spirit's quickening ray To those who seek his power.
- 2 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray, Maintain a warrior's strife;
- O Christian ! hear his voice to-day : Obedience is thy life.
- 3 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray; For soon the hour will come
- That calls thee from the earth away To thy eternal home.
- 4 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray, Oh, hearken to his voice,
- And follow where he leads the way, To heaven's eternal joys!

Living to Christ. P. DODDRIDGE.

- My gracious Lord, I own thy right To every service I can pay,
- And call it my supreme delight To hear thy dictates and obey.
- 2 What is my being, but for thee, Its sure support, its noblest end?
- Thine ever-smiling face to see, And serve the cause of such a Friend.
- 3 I would not breathe for worldly joy, Or to increase my worldly good;

Nor future days nor powers employ To spread a sounding name abroad.

- 4 'T is to my Saviour I would live, To him who for my ransom died;
- Nor could the bowers of Eden give Such bliss as blossoms at his side.
- 5 His work my hoary age shall bless, When youthful vigor is no more ;

And my last hour of life confess His dying love, his saving power.

- Forgotten in unthankfulness, And without praises die.
- 3 'T is he forgives thy sins,

"T is he relieves thy pain,

- "T is he that heals thy sicknesses, And makes thee young again.
- 4 He crowns thy life with love, When ransomed from the grave;
- He that redeemed my soul from hell, Hath sovereign power to save.
- 5 He fills the poor with good; He gives the sufferers rest:
- The Lord hath judgments for the proud, And justice for the oppressed.
- 6 His wondrous works and ways He made by Moses known;
- But sent the world his truth and grace By his belovéd Son.

CHOSEN not for good in me, Waked from coming wrath to flee, Hidden in the Saviour's side, By the Spirit sanctified-Teach me, Lord, on earth to show, By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud, Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud: But, when fear is at the height, Jesus comes, and all is light; Blesséd Jesus! bid me show Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign-Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain; But a night thine anger burns-Morning comes, and joy returns: God of comforts! bid me show To thy poor how much I owe.

4 When in flowery paths I tread, Oft by sin I'm captive led; Oft I fall, but still arise-Jesus comes-the tempter flies : Blesséd Jesus! bid me show Weary sinners all I owe.

Psalm 34. THROUGH all the changing scenes of life, In trouble, and in joy,

The praises of my God shall still My heart and tongue employ.

2 Of his deliverance I will boast, Till all, who are distressed,

From my example comfort take, And charm their griefs to rest.

3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me, With me exalt his name !

How blest are they, and only they, Who in his truth confide.

LORD, how secure and blest are they Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!

Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea, They still shine on from age to age ;-Their minds have heaven and peace within.

2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads, Made up of innocence and love;

And soft and silent as the shades, Their nightly minutes gently move.

3 Quick as their thoughts their joys come on, But fly not half so swift away:

Their souls are ever bright as noon, And calm as summer evenings be.

- 4 How off they look to heavenly hills, Where streams of living pleasures flow;
- And longing hopes and cheerful smiles Sit undisturbed upon their brow!

5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys, But spend the day, and share the night, In numbering o'er the richer joys

That heaven prepares for their delight.

Remembrance. J. BOWRING.

EARTH's transitory things decay; Its pomps, its pleasures pass away; But the sweet memory of the good Survives in the vicisitude.

2 As, 'mid the ever-rolling sea, The eternal isles established be, 'Gainst which the surges of the main Fret, dash, and break themselves in vain;-

3 As in the heavens, the urns divine Of golden light for ever shine; Tho' clouds may darken, storms may rage.

4 So, through the ocean tide of years, The memory of the just appears; So, through the tempest and the gloom, The good man's virtues light the tomb.

Perseverance. I. WATTS.

WHO shall the Lord's elect condemn? 'T is God who justifies their souls: And mercy, like a mighty stream.

O'er all their sins divinely rolls.

Who shall adjudge the saints to hell? 'Tis Christ who suffered in their stead; And their salvation to fulfill,

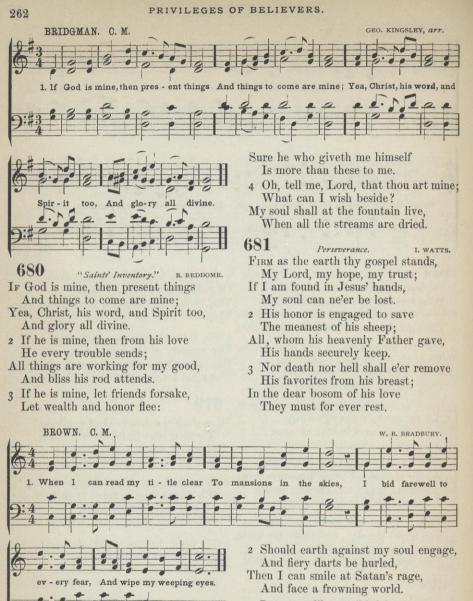

Behold him rising from the dead!

He lives! he lives! and sits above. For ever interceding there:

- Who shall divide us from his love. Or what shall tempt us to despair?
- 4 Shall persecution or distress, Famine, or sword, or nakedness?
- He who hath loved us bears us through, And makes us more than conquerors too.

5 Not all that men on earth can do. Nor powers on high, nor powers below, Shall cause his mercy to remove,

Or wean our hearts from Christ, our love.

3 Let cares like a wild deluge come, And storms of sorrow fall,

May I but safely reach my home, My God, my heaven, my all !---

4 There shall I bathe my weary soul In seas of heavenly rest;

And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

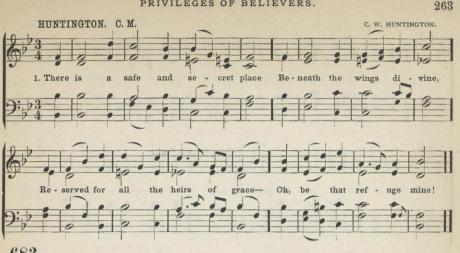

To mansions in the skies, I bid farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eves.

 Those wakeful eyes | Shall Israel keep That never sleep, | When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day, Nor blasts of evening air, Shall take my health away, If God be with me there;
Thou art my sun, And thou my shade, By night or noon.

4 Hast thou not given thy word To save my soul from death ? And I can trust my Lord To keep my mortal breath :

I'll go and come, Nor fear to die, Till, from on high Thou call me home. 702 L. M. At Jesus' Feet. OH, that I could for ever dwell, Delighted at the Saviour's feet; Behold the form I love so well, And all his tender words repeat!

3 This is the hidden life I prize— A life of penitential love; When most my follies I despise, And raise my highest thoughts above;

4 When all I am I clearly see, And freely own, with deepest shame; When the Redeemer's love to me Kindles within a deathless flame.

5 Thus would I live till nature fail, And all my former sins forsake; Then rise to God within the vail, And of eternal joys partake.

704 "Balm in Gilead."

Hath taught each scene the notes of woe, Did ever trouble yet befall Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,

And let thy tears forget to flow; Behold, the precious balm is found, To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed; On Jesus, cast thy weighty load; In him thy refuge find, thy rest,

Safe in the mercy of thy God; Thy God's thy Saviour-glorious word ! For ever love and praise the Lord.

705 " Eben-ezer." J. NEWTON. BE still, my heart! these anxious cares To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares; They cast dishonor on thy Lord, And contradict his gracious word; Brought safely by his hand thus far, Why wilt thou now give place to fear?

2 When first before his mercy-seat Thou didst to him thy all commit,

w. SHIRLEY. He gave thee warrant from that hour PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan To trust his wisdom, love, and power: And he refuse to hear thy call?

> 3 He who has helped thee hitherto, Will help thee all thy journey through; Though rough and thorny be the road, It leads thee home, apace, to God; Then count thy present trials small. For heaven will make amends for all.

"As thy days." L. H. H. SIGOURNEY.

WHEN adverse winds and waves arise, And in my heart despondence sighs: When life her throng of cares reveals, And weakness o'er my spirit steals, Grateful I hear the kind decree, That "as my day, my strength shall be."

2 One trial more must yet be past. One pang-the keenest and the last; And when, with brow convulsed and pale, My feeble, quivering heart-strings fail, Redeemer ! grant my soul to see That "as my day, my strength shall be."

Around me fall the shades of night, The night of death, the grave's repose;

To crown my joys, to end my woes, At evening time let there be light.

2 At evening time let there be light; Stormy and dark hath been my day— Yet rose the morn divinely bright;

Dews, birds, and blossoms cheered the Shall guard me in that dangerous hour. way;--

Oh, for one sweet, one parting ray! At evening time let there be light.

3 At evening time there shall be light! For God hath spoken; it must be;

Fear, doubt, and anguish take their flight; His glory now is risen on me;

Mine eyes shall his salvation see;

'T is evening time, and there is light!

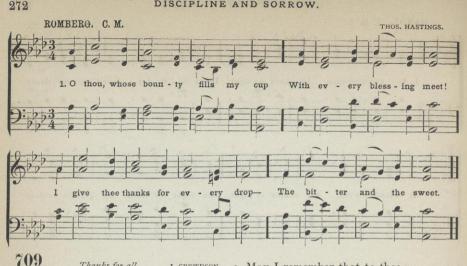

708 "Jesus wept." R. GRANT. WHEN gathering clouds around I view, And days are dark, and friends are few, On him I lean, who, not in vain, Experienced every human pain; He sees my wants, allays my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray From heavenly virtue's narrow way,— To fly the good I would pursue, Or do the sin I would not do,— Still he, who felt temptation's power, Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When sorrowing o'er some stone, I bend, Which covers all that was a friend, And from his voice, his hand, his smile, Divides me, for a little while, My Saviour sees the tears I shed, For Jesus wept o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh, when I have safely passed Through every conflict, but the last,... Still, still unchanging, watch beside My painful bed,...for thou hast died; Then point to realms of cloudless day, And wipe my latest tear away.

DISCIPLINE AND SORROW.

Thanks for all. J. CREWDSON. O THOU, whose bounty fills my cup With every blessing meet !

- I give thee thanks for every drop-The bitter and the sweet.
- 2 I praise thee for the desert road, And for the river-side:
- For all thy goodness hath bestowed, And all thy grace denied.
- 3 I thank thee for both smile and frown, And for the gain and loss;
- I praise thee for the future crown, And for the present cross.
- 4 I thank thee for the wing of love, Which stirred my worldly nest;
- And for the stormy clouds which drove The flutterer to thy breast.
- 5 I bless thee for the glad increase, And for the waning joy;
- And for this strange, this settled peace, Which nothing can destroy.

710 "I firmly trust." J. MONTGOMERY.

- ONE prayer I have-all prayers in one-When I am wholly thine;
- Thy will, my God, thy will be done, And let that will be mine.
- 2 All-wise, almighty, and all-good, In thee I firmly trust;
- Thy ways, unknown or understood, Are merciful and just.

- 3 May I remember that to thee Whate'er I have I owe: And back, in gratitude, from me
- May all thy bounties flow.
- 4 And though thy wisdom takes away. Shall I arraign thy will?
- No, let me bless thy name, and say, "The Lord is gracious still."
- 5 A pilgrim through the earth I roam, Of nothing long possessed;
- And all must fail when I go home, For this is not my rest.
 - 711 "Sweet to lie passive." A. M. TOPLADY.

WHEN languor and disease invade This trembling house of clay,

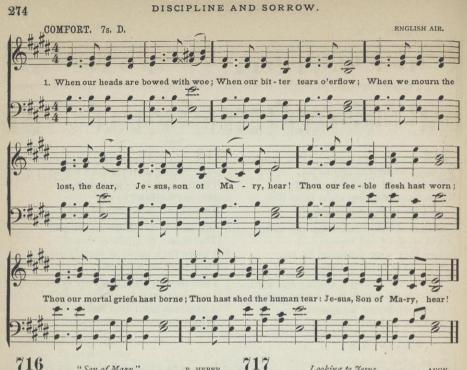

- 'T is sweet to look beyond my pain, And long to fly away:-
- 2 Sweet to look inward, and attend The whispers of his love;
- Sweet to look upward to the place Where Jesus pleads above;-
- 3 Sweet on his faithfulness to rest, Whose love can never end;
- Sweet on his covenant of grace For all things to depend;-
- 4 Sweet, in the confidence of faith, To trust his firm decrees:
- Sweet to lie passive in his hands, And know no will but his.

And soar above these clouds of night, My Saviour's bliss to share !

S AWAY,

Oh, say, when flesh and heart shall fail,— "T is I; be not afraid."

"Son of Mary." R. HEBER. WHEN our heads are bowed with woe;---When our bitter tears o'erflow;-When we mourn the lost, the dear, Jesus, Son of Mary, hear ! Thou our feeble flesh hast worn; Thou our mortal griefs hast borne: Thou hast shed the human tear: Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

2 When the heart is sad within, With the thought of all its sin: When the spirit shrinks with fear, Jesus, son of Mary, hear! Thou the shame, the grief hast known; Though the sins were not thine own, Thou hast deigned their load to bear: Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

3 When our eyes grow dim in death: When we heave the parting breath; When our solemn doom is near, Jesus, Son of Mary, hear! Thou hast bowed the dying head; Thou the blood of life hast shed: Thou hast filled a mortal bier: Jesus, Son of Mary, hear !

Looking to Jesus. When along life's thorny road, Faints the soul beneath the load, By its cares and sins oppressed. Finds on earth no peace or rest: When the wily tempter's near, Filling us with doubt and fear: Jesus, to thy feet we flee, Jesus, we will look to thee.

ANON.

2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne List'nest to thy people's moan; Thou, the living Head, dost share Every pang thy members bear; Full of tenderness thou art, Thou wilt heal the broken heart; Full of power, thine arm shall quell All the rage and might of hell.

3 Mighty to redeem and save, Thou hast overcome the grave; Thou the bars of death hast riven. Opened wide the gates of heaven; Soon in glory thou shalt come, Taking thy poor pilgrims home; Jesus, then we all shall be. Ever-ever-Lord, with thee.

2 When the secret idol's gone That my poor heart yearned upon,— Desolate, bereft, alone, Saviour, comfort me !

3 Thou, who wast so sorely tried, In the darkness crucified, Bid me in thy love confide; Saviour, comfort me!

²*Love seen in trials.* w. COWPER. ²T is my happiness below Not to live without the cross,

But the Saviour's power to know, Sanctifying every loss.

2 Trials must and will befall; But with humble faith to see

Love inscribed upon them all,— This is happiness to me.

3 God in Israel sows the seeds Of affliction, pain and toil;

- These spring up and choke the weeds Which would else o'erspread the soil.
- 4 Did I meet no trials here, No chastisement by the way, Might I not with reason fear I should prove a castaway?

722Hereafter. J. EDMESTON. ALONG my earthly way,

How many clouds are spread !

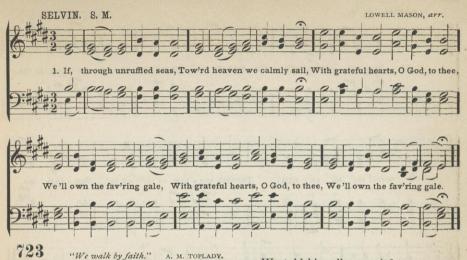

- Darkness, with scarce one cheerful ray, Seems gathering o'er my head.
- 2 Yet, Father, thou art Love; Oh, hide not from my view!

But when I look, in prayer, above, Appear in mercy through !

3 My pathway is not hid; Thou knowest all my need; And I would do as Israel did,-Follow where thou wilt lead

- 4 Lead me, and then my feet Shall never, never stray; But safely I shall reach the seat Of happiness and day.

Be thou my Guide, my Strength, My Wisdom and my All.

2 What though the world deceitful prove, 2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind. And earthly friends and hopes remove; With patient, uncomplaining love, Still would I cling to thee.

Though oft I seem to tread alone Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown, Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone, Still whispers, "Cling to me!"

4 Though faith and hope are often tried, I ask not, need not, aught beside; So safe, so calm, so satisfied.

The soul that clings to thee!

A will resigned. I ASK not now for gold to gild,

With mocking shine, an aching frame; The yearning of the mind is stilled-

J. G. WHITTIER.

I ask not now for fame.

I make my humble wishes known;

I only ask a will resigned, O Father, to thine own.

3 In vain I task my aching brain, In vain the sage's thoughts I scan;

I only feel how weak I am, How poor and blind is man.

4 And now my spirit sighs for home, And longs for light whereby to see; And, like a weary child, would come,

O Father, unto thee.

To break the dream of human power, For now my shallow cistern's spent, I find thy fount and thirst no more.

Behold thy face, and doubts remove; Who would not yield his wavering will

- To perfect truth and boundless love !

Where thou, Almighty One, dost move; But I can always, always say, That God is love, that God is love.

Swift the night of death advances; Shall it be the night of rest?

3 Lonely seems the vale of shadow; Sinks my heart with troubled fear;

- 4 Let me hear thy voice behind me, Calming all these wild alarms;
- Let me, underneath my weakness, Feel the everlasting arms.
- 5 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying, Lord, I cast myself on thee;
- Tarry with me through the darkness; While I sleep, still watch by me.
- 6 Tarry with me, O my Saviour! Lay my head upon thy breast
- Till the morning; then awake me-Morning of eternal rest !

ANON.

748 6s, d. More like God.

I DID thee wrong, my God, I wronged thy truth and love; I fretted at the rod,-

Against thy power I strove.

Come nearer, nearer still;

Let not thy light depart; Bend, break this stubborn will; Dissolve this iron heart!

2 Less wayward let me be, More pliable and mild;

In glad simplicity

More like a trustful child. Less, less of self each day,

And more, my God, of thee;

Oh, keep me in the way, However rough it be.

3 Less of the flesh each day,

Less of the world and sin : More of thy Son, I pray,

More of thyself within. More moulded to thy will,

Lord, let thy servant be; Higher and higher still,

More, and still more, like thee !

GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God !

He, whose word cannot be broken, Formed thee for his own abode:

288

On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake thy sure repose?

With salvation's walls surrounded, Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

2 See! the streams of living waters, Springing from eternal love,

Well supply thy sons and daughters, And all fear of want remove:

Who can faint, while such a river Ever flows their thirst to assuage?—

Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver, Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fire appear

For a glory and a covering,

Showing that the Lord is near ! Thus deriving from their banner,

Light by night, and shade by day, Safe they feed upon the manna

Which he gives them when they pray.

HEAR what God, the Lord hath spoken; O my people, faint and few,

Comfortless, afflicted, broken, Fair abodes I build for you;

Scenes of heartfelt tribulation

Shall no more perplex your ways; You shall name your walls "Salvation,"

And your gates shall all be "Praise."

2 There, like streams that feed the garden, Pleasures without end shall flow;

For the Lord, your faith rewarding, All his bounty shall bestow.

Still in undisturbed possession Peace and righteousness shall reign;

Never shall you feel oppression, Hear the voice of war again.

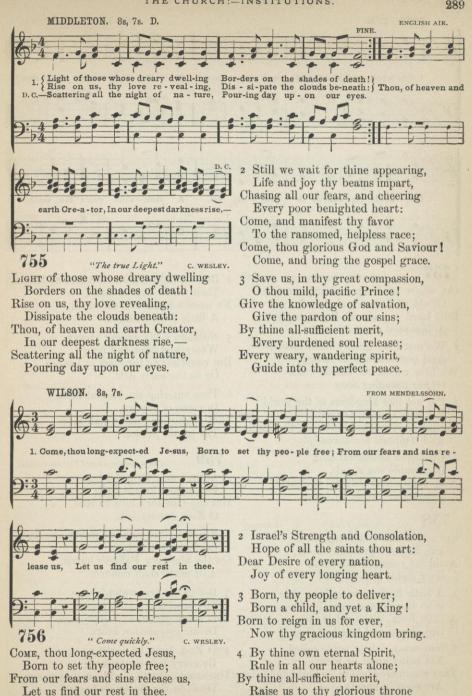

3 Ye, no more your suns descending, Waning moons no more shall see,

But, your griefs for ever ending, Find eternal noon in me.

God shall rise, and shining o'er you, Change to day the gloom of night;

He, the Lord, shall be your Glory, God, your everlasting Light.

757 A growing kingdom. A. C. COXE. OH, where are kings and empires now,

- Of old that went and came? But. Lord, thy church is praying yet, A thousand years the same.
- 2 We mark her goodly battlements, And her foundations strong;
- We hear within the solemn voice Of her unending song.
- 3 For not like kingdoms of the world
- Thy holy church, O God!
- Though earthquake shocks are threatening And tempests are abroad;-

4 Unshaken as eternal hills, Immovable she stands.

A mountain that shall fill the earth, A house not made by hands.

"Little Flock."

H. BONAR.

CHURCH of the ever-living God. The Father's gracious choice. Amid the voices of this earth

How feeble is thy voice!

- 2 A little flock !---so calls he thee Who bought thee with his blood;
- A little flock, disowned of men. But owned and loved of God.
- 3 Not many rich or noble called. Not many great or wise;
- They whom God makes his kings and priests Unchanging truth, and love, and power, Are poor in human eyes.

- 4 But the chief Shepherd comes at length: Their feeble days are o'er,
- No more a handful in the earth. A little flock no more.
- 5 No more a lily among thorns, Weary and faint and few;
- But countless as the stars of heaven, Or as the early dew.
- 6 Then entering the eternal halls, In robes of victory,

[her, That mighty multitude shall keep The joyous jubilee.

759

A. STRELR.

A MOTHER may forgetful be. For human love is frail; But thy Creator's love to thee,

O Zion, cannot fail.

2 No: thy dear name engraven stands, In characters of love,

"Can a mother forget?"

- On thy almighty Father's hands. And never shall remove.
- 3 Before his ever-watchful eve Thy mournful state appears.
- And every groan, and every sigh, Divine compassion hears.
- 4 O Zion, learn to doubt no more, Be every fear suppressed:
 - Dwell in thy Saviour's breast.

- The peace that dwelleth without end, Serenely by thy side !
- 3 May erring minds that worship here Be taught the better way;
- And they who mourn and they who fear, Be strengthened as they pray.
- 4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm, 4 May they that Jesus whom they preach, And pure devotion rise,

2 They watch for souls for whom the Lord Did heavenly bliss forego-

291

- For souls that must for ever live In rapture or in woe.
- 3 All to the great tribunal haste, The account to render there:
- And shouldst thou strictly mark our faults, Lord! how should we appear?
 - Their own Redeemer, see,
- While round these hallowed walls the storm And watch thou daily o'er their souls, Of earth-born passion dies. That they may watch for thee.

762 The Ministry. A. STEELE.

How BLEST are those, how truly wise, Who learn and keep the sacred road!

How happy they whom heaven employs To turn rebellious hearts to God:-

2 To win them from the fatal way,

Where erring folly thoughtless roves, And that blest righteousness display

Which Jesus wrought and God approves.

3 The shining firmament shall fade, And sparkling stars resign their light: But these shall know nor change nor shade.

For ever fair, for ever bright.

763 Installation. J. MONTGOMERY.

WE bid thee welcome in the name Of Jesus, our exalted Head:

Come as a servant: so he came, And we receive thee in his stead.

2 Come as a shepherd; guard and keep

This fold from hell, and earth, and sin; Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep.

The wounded heal, the lost bring in.

- 3 Come as a teacher, sent from God, Charged his whole counsel to declare;
- Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod, While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

4 Come as a messenger of peace, Filled with the Spirit, fired with love ! Live to behold our large increase.

And die to meet us all above.

For Dedication. N. P. WILLIS. THE perfect world, by Adam trod, Was the first temple,-built by God; His fiat laid the corner-stone. And heaved its pillars, one by one.

2 He hung its starry roof on high-The broad, illimitable sky: He spread its pavement, green and bright, And curtained it with morning light.

3 The mountains in their places stood. The sea-the sky-and "all was good;" And when its first pure praises rang, The "morning stars together sang."

4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea. And earth, and sky, a house for thee; But in thy sight our offering stands-An humbler temple, "made with hands."

765 The Ministry. B. BEDDOME. FATHER of mercies, bow thine ear. Attentive to our earnest prayer; We plead for those who plead for thee; Successful may they ever be.

2 Clothe thou with energy divine Their words, and let those words be thine; Teach them immortal souls to gain. Nor let them labor, Lord, in vain.

3 Let thronging multitudes around Hear from their lips the joyful sound; And light through distant realms be spread Till Zion rears her drooping head.

THE CHURCH -- INSTITUTIONS.

Convocation. J. MONTGOMERY. Pour out thy Spirit from on high; Lord ! thine assembled servants bless;

Graces and gifts to each supply,

2 Wisdom and zeal, and faith impart, Firmness with meekness from above, To bear thy people on our heart,

And love the souls whom thou dost love: — And arm him to obey thy will.

3 To watch and pray, and never faint; By day and night strict guard to keep; To warn the sinner, cheer the saint, Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep;-

4 Then, when our work is finished here, In humble hope our charge resign:

When the chief Shepherd shall appear, O God! may they and we be thine!

Seeking a Pastor. P. DODDRIDGE.

O LORD, thy pitying eye surveys Our wandering paths, our trackless ways: Send forth, in love, thy truth and light, To guide our doubtful footsteps right.

2 In humble faith, behold we wait: On thee we call at mercy's gate; Our drooping hearts, O God, sustain,-Shall Israel seek thy face in vain?

3 O Lord! in ways of peace return, Nor let thy flock neglected mourn; May our blest eyes a shepherd see, Dear to our souls, and dear to thee.

Prayer for Pastor. WITH heavenly power, O Lord, defend Him whom we now to thee commend; Thy faithful messenger secure, And clothe thy priests with righteousness. And make him to the end endure.

> 2 Gird him with all-sufficient grace; Direct his feet in paths of peace; Thy truth and faithfulness fulfill,

Church Dedication.

OH, bow thine ear, Eternal One! On thee our heart adoring calls;

To thee the followers of thy Son Have raised, and now devote these walls.

2 Here let thy holy days be kept; And be this place to worship given,

Like that bright spot where Jacob slept, The house of God, the gate of heaven.

3 Here may thine honor dwell; and here, As incense, let thy children's prayer,

From contrite hearts and lips sincere. Rise on the still and holy air.

4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung; Here let thy truth beam forth to save, As when, of old, thy Spirit hung,

On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.

5 And when the lips, that with thy name Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,

On others may devotion's flame Be kindled here, and purely burn!

770 s. M. Psalm 48. FAR as thy name is known. The world declares thy praise; Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne, Their songs of honor raise. 2 With joy thy people stand On Zion's chosen hill, Proclaim the wonders of thy hand, And counsels of thy will. 3 Let strangers walk around The city where we dwell, Compass and view thine holy ground, And mark the building well-4 The order of thy house, The worship of thy court. The cheerful songs, the solemn vows : And make a fair report. 5 How decent, and how wise ! How glorious to behold ! Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes, And rites adorned with gold. 6 The God we worship now Will guide us till we die; Will be our God, while here below, And ours above the sky. 771 75, 65. The Church is Christ's. S. J. STONE. DAUGHTER of Zion ! awake from thy sad-THE Church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ her Lord; She is his new creation By water and the word : From heaven he came and sought her, To be his holy bride; With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died. 2 Elect from every nation, Yet one o'er all the earth. Her charter of salvation One Lord, one faith, one birth ; One holy name she blesses, Partakes one holy food, And to one hope she presses, With every grace endued. 3 Though with a scornful wonder. Men see her sore oppressed. By schisms rent asunder, By heresies distressed, Yet saints their watch are keeping, Their cry goes up, "How long?" And soon the night of weeping Shall be the morn of song.

Psalm 48. GREAT is the Lord our God, And let his praise be great;

He makes his churches his abode. His most delightful seat.

2 These temples of his grace. How beautiful they stand !

The honors of our native place, The bulwarks of our land.

3 In Zion God is known. A refuge in distress : How bright has his salvation shone Through all her palaces !

4 Oft have our fathers told. Our eves have often seen. How well our God secures the fold Where his own sheep have been.

5 In every new distress We'll to his house repair.

We'll think upon his wondrous grace, And seek deliverance there.

773 115, 105. "Daughter of Zion !"

ness :

- Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more :
- Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star of gladness;

Arise! for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm that subdued them,

And scattered their legions, was mightier far ;

They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge that pursued them;

For vain were their steeds and their chariots of war !

- 3 Daughter of Zion! the Power that hath saved thee,
 - Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be :
- Shout! for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee.
 - Th' oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free !

YE messengers of Christ! His sovereign voice obey :

Arise, and follow where he leads, And peace attend your way.

The Master, whom you serve, Will needful strength bestow :

Depending on his promised aid, With sacred courage go.

3 Mountains shall sink to plains, And hell in vain oppose ;

The cause is God's-and will prevail, In spite of all his foes.

776 75, 65. Departing Missionaries. J. EDMESTON. ROLL on, thou mighty ocean ; And, as thy billows flow, Bear messengers of mercy

To every land below.

Arise, ye gales, and waft them Safe to the destined shore; That man may sit in darkness, And death's black shade no more.

2 O thou eternal Ruler, Who holdest in thine arm The tempests of the ocean,

Protect them from all harm !

Thy presence, Lord, be with them, Wherever they may be :

Though far from us, who love them, Still let them be with thee.

777 с. м. Church Opening.

ARISE, O King of grace, arise, And enter to thy rest :

Lo! thy church waits, with longing eyes, Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter with all thy glorious train, Thy Spirit and thy word ;

All that the ark did once contain Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows, Here let thy praise be spread;

Bless the provisions of thy house, And fill thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign, Let God's Anointed shine;

Justice and truth his court maintain, With love and power divine.

5 Here let him hold a lasting throne, And as his kingdom grows,

MRS. VOKE. Fresh honors shall adorn his crown, And shame confound his foes.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! 2 Patriarchs erst and priests aspiring, Kings and prophets long desiring, Saw not this before they died :-Lo! the light to them denied! See its beams to earth directed ! Welcome, O thou long-expected !

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! 3 In our stead himself he offers, On the accurséd tree he suffers, That his death's sweet savor may Take our curse for ave away; Cross and curse for us enduring, Hope and heaven to us securing :

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! 4 Rent the temple curtain's centre; Come, ye nations, freely enter Through the vail the holy place ! Freely stand before his face, Here your grateful tributes bringing : Come thou Bride, for ever singing, Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

WORK while it is to-day ! This was our Saviour's rule; With docile minds let us obey, As learners in his school.

2 Lord Christ, we humbly ask Of thee the power and will,

With fear and meekness, every task Of duty to fulfill.

3 At home, by word and deed, Adorn redeeming grace;

And sow abroad the precious seed Of truth in every place:—

4 That thus the wilderness May blossom like the rose,

And trees spring up of righteousness, Where'er life's river flows.

5 For thee our all to spend, Still may we watch and pray, And, persevering to the end,

Work while it is to-day.

780

W. W. HOW.

WE give thee but thine own, Whate'er the gift may be:

Contribution.

All that we have is thine alone, A trust, O Lord, from thee.

2 May we thy bounties thus As stewards true receive,

And gladly, as thou blessest us, To thee our first-fruits give.

- 3 To comfort and to bless, To find a balm for woe,
- To tend the lone and fatherless Is angel's work below.

4 The captive to release, To God the lost to bring,

To teach the way of life and peace— It is a Christ-like thing.

5 And we believe thy word, Though dim our faith may be; Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord, We do it unto thee.

MOURN for the thousands slain, The youthful and the strong;

- Mourn for the wine-cup's fearful reign, And the deluded throng.
- 2 Mourn for the ruined soul,— Eternal life and light
- Lost by the fiery, maddening bowl, And turned to hopeless night.
- 3 Mourn for the lost,—but call, Call to the strong, the free; Rouse them to shun the dreadful fall,
- And to the refuge flee.
- 4 Mourn for the lost,—but pray, Pray to our God above,

To break the fell destroyer's sway, And show his saving love.

HARK ! the voice of Jesus calling,— Who will go and work to-day? Fields are white, the harvest waiting,-

Who will bear the sheaves away? Loud and long the Master calleth,

Rich reward he offers free; Who will answer, gladly saying, "Here am I, O Lord, send me."

2 If you cannot cross the ocean And the heathen lands explore,

You can find the heathen nearer, You can help them at your door;

If you cannot speak like angels, If you cannot preach like Paul,

You can tell the love of Jesus, You can say he died for all.

3 While the souls of men are dying, And the Master calls for you,

J. RIPPON.

OH, what stupendous mercy shines Around the majesty of heaven?

Rebels he deigns to call his sons-

Their souls renewed, their sins forgiven. Be witnessed by each rolling sun.

Forbearance.

- 2 Go, imitate the grace divine-
- The grace that blazes like the sun; Hold forth your fair, though feeble light,
- Through all your lives let mercy run. 3 When all is done, renounce your deeds,

Renounce self-righteousness with scorn: Thus will you glorify your God,

And thus the Christian name adorn.

ONE cup of healing oil and wine, The world's dark night is hastening on; One offering laid on mercy's shrine, Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee, Than lifted eye or bended knee.

Faith and Works.

2 In true and inward faith we trace The source of every outward grace; Within the pious heart it plays,

3 Kind deeds of peace and love betray Where'er the stream has found its way: But, where these spring not rich and fair. The stream has never wandered there.

305

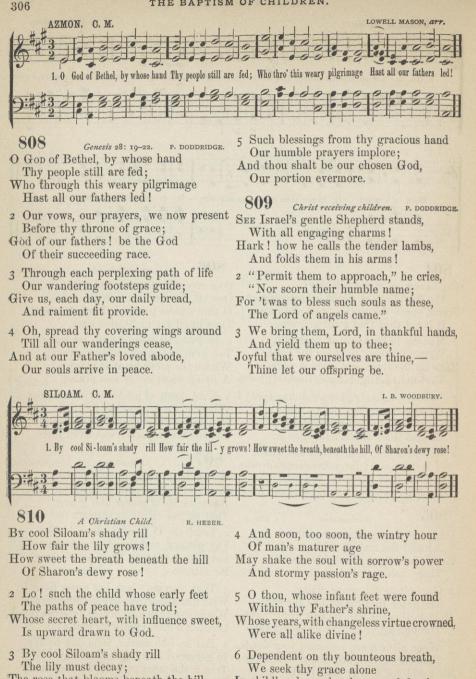

WHEN Jesus dwelt in mortal clay, What were his works from day to day, But miracles of power and grace, That spread salvation through our race?

Liberality.

2 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view Thy pattern, and thy steps pursue; Let alms bestowed, let kindness done,

3 That man may last, but never lives. Who much receives, but nothing gives; Whom none can love, whom none can thank, Creation's blot, creation's blank!

4 But he who marks, from day to day, In generous acts his radiant way, Treads the same path his Saviour trod. The path to glory and to God.

- The rose that blooms beneath the hill Must shortly fade away.
- In childhood, manhood, age and death, To keep us still thine own.

815 Lambs of the Fold. D. A. THRUPP. SAVIOUR, like a shepherd lead us:

Much we need thy tender care; In thy pleasant pastures feed us, For our use thy fold prepare:

We are thine: do thou befriend us, Be the guardian of our way:

Keep thy flock, from sin defend us, Seek us when we go astray.

2 Thou hast promised to receive us, Poor and sinful though we be;

Thou hast mercy to relieve us, Grace to cleanse, and power to free: Early let us seek thy favor,

Early help us do thy will; Holy Lord, our only Saviour!

With thy grace our bosom fill.

SAVIOUR King, in hallowed union, At thy sacred feet we bow; Heart with heart, in blest communion, Join to crave thy favor now !

Though celestial choirs adore thee, Let our prayer as incense rise:

And our praise be set before thee, Sweet as evening sacrifice.

2 Heavenly Fount, thy streams of blessing, Oft have cheered us on our way;

By thy power and grace unceasing, We continue to this day: Raise we then with glad emotion Thankful lays: and while we sing, Vow a pure, a full devotion To thy work, O Saviour King!

- 3 When we tell the wondrous story Of thy rich, exhaustless love,
- Send thy Spirit, Lord of glory, On the youthful heart to move!

Oh, that he, the ever-living, May descend, as fruitful rain;

Till the wilderness, reviving, Blossoms as the rose again!

817

SAVIOUR! who thy flock art feeding With the shepherd's kindest care, All the feeble gently leading,

While the lambs thy bosom share; Now, these little ones receiving,

Fold them in thy gracious arm; There, we know, thy word believing, Only there, secure from harm.

2 Never, from thy pasture roving, Let them be the lion's prey;

Let thy tenderness, so loving, Keep them all life's dangerous way:

Then, within thy fold eternal, Let them find a resting-place,

Feed in pastures ever vernal, Drink the rivers of thy grace. 819 Br Christ r

That tramples down, and casts behind The lures of pleasing ill;—

3 I want a godly fear, A quick-discerning eye,

 - And watching unto prayer.

2 Vine of heaven! thy blood supplies This blest cup of sacrifice: Lord ! thy wounds our healing give, To thy cross we look and live.

3 Day by day, with strength supplied. Through the life of him who died: Lord of life! oh, let us be, Rooted, grafted, built on thee!

Wounded for us. JESUS, Master! hear me now. While I would renew my vow. And record thy dying love; Hear, and help me from above.

2 Feed me. Saviour, with this bread. Broken in thy body's stead; Cheer my spirit with this wine, Streaming like that blood of thine.

3 And as now I eat and drink, Let me truly, sweetly think, Thou didst hang upon the tree, Broken, bleeding, there-for me!

- 2 Thy body, broken for my sake, My bread from heaven shall be:
- Thy testamental cup I take, And thus remember thee.
- 3 Gethsemane can I forget? Or there thy conflict see,

Thine agony and bloody sweat, And not remember thee?

- 4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes, And rest on Calvary,
- O Lamb of God, my sacrifice ! I must remember thee:--
- 5 Remember thee, and all thy pains And all thy love to me;
- Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains, Will I remember thee.
- 6 And when these failing lips grow dumb, And mind and memory flee.
- When thou shalt in thy kingdom come, Then, Lord, remember me !

863 " The cup of blessing." C. WESLEY.

JESUS, at whose supreme command. We now approach to God,

Before us in thy vesture stand,

22

Thy vesture dipped in blood.

- - "Meet and remember me !"
 - 4 Remember thee—thy death, thy shame, Our sinful hearts to share !--
 - O memory! leave no other name But his recorded there.

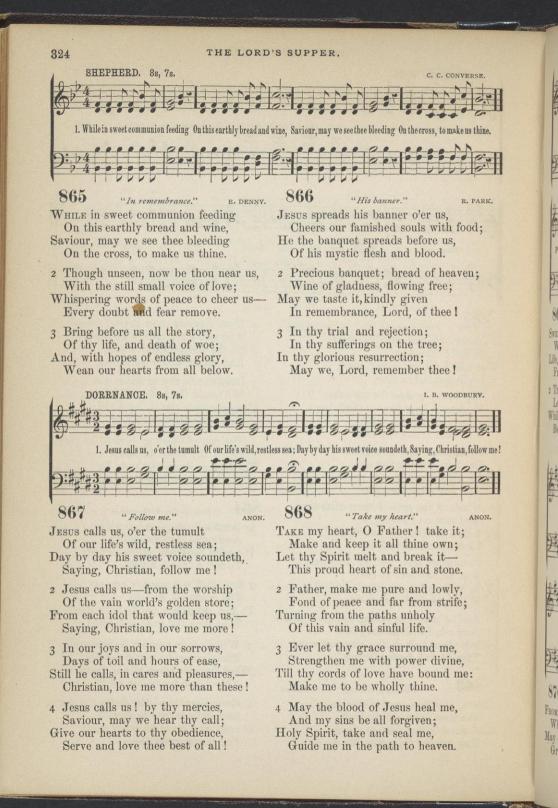

2 Now, Saviour, now thyself reveal. And make thy nature known; Affix thy blessed Spirit's seal, And stamp us for thine own.

- 3 Obedient to thy gracious word, We break the hallowed bread,
- Commemorate our dying Lord, And trust on thee to feed.
- 4 The cup of blessing, blessed by thee, Let it thy blood impart: The broken bread thy body be,
 - To cheer each languid heart.

864

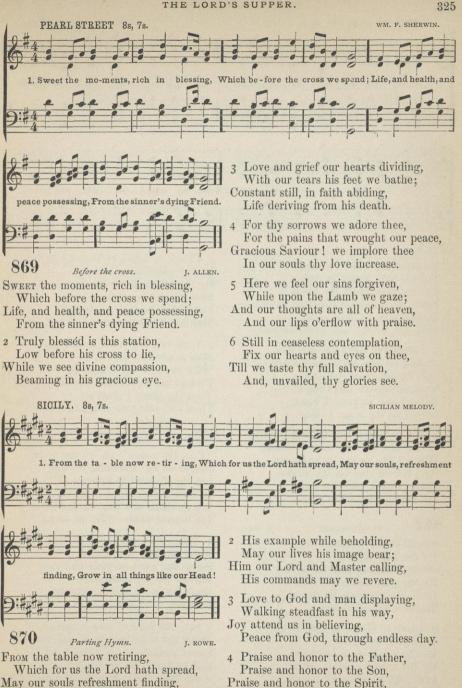

"Greater love hath no man." G. T. NOEL.

- IF human kindness meets return, And owns the grateful tie:
- If tender thoughts within us burn, To feel a friend is nigh;-
- 2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell The gratitude we owe
- To him, who died our fears to quell-Who bore our guilt and woe!
- 3 While yet in anguish he surveyed Those pangs he would not flee,
- What love his latest words displayed,-

871 The Rock of Ages. A. M. TOPLADY. Rock of Ages, cleft for me ! Let me hide myself in thee; Let the water and the blood, From thy wounded side that flowed, Be of sin the perfect cure; Save me, Lord ! and make me pure.

2 Should my tears for ever flow, Should my zeal no languor know, This for sin could not atone, Thou must save and thou alone: In my hand no price I bring; Simply to thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath, When mine eye-lids close in death, When I rise to worlds unknown, And behold thee on thy throne, Rock of ages, cleft for me ! Let me hide myself in thee.

" Manifest thyself."

872

R. MANT.

Son of God! to thee I cry: By the holy mystery Of thy dwelling here on earth, By thy pure and holy birth, Lord, thy presence let me see, Manifest thyself to me.

2 Lamb of God ! to thee I cry: By thy bitter agony, By thy pangs to us unknown, By thy spirit's parting groan, Lord, thy presence let me see, Manifest thyself to me. 3 Prince of Life! to thee I cry: By thy glorious majesty, By thy triumph o'er the grave, Meek to suffer, strong to save, Lord, thy presence let me see, Manifest thyself to me.

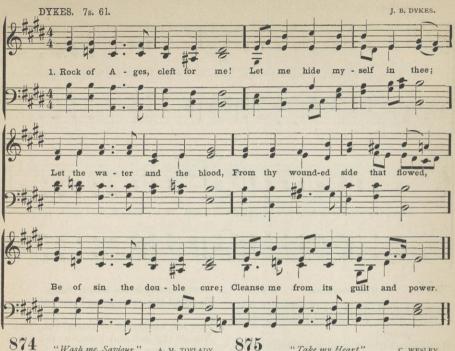

4 Lord of glory, God most high, Man exalted to the sky ! With thy love my bosom fill, Prompt me to perform thy will; Then thy glory I shall see, Thou wilt bring me home to thee.

873 "Till he come." E. H. BICKERSTETH. "TILL He come:" oh, let the words Linger on the trembling chords; Let the little while between In their golden light be seen; Let us think how heaven and home Lie beyond that—"Till he come."

2 When the weary ones we love Enter on their rest above, Seems the earth so poor and vast, All our life joy overcast? Hush, be every murmur dumb; It is only—"Till he come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread, Drink the wine, and break the bread; Sweet memorials,—till the Lord Call us round his heavenly board; Some from earth, from glory some, Severed only—"Till he come."

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

874 "Wash me, Saviour." A. M. TOPLADY. ROCK of Ages, cleft for me! Let me hide myself in thee; Let the water and the blood, From thy wounded side that flowed. Be of sin the double cure; which Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labor of my hands Can fulfill the law's demands; Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears for ever flow, All for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to thy cross I cling; Naked, come to thee for dress, Helpless, look to thee for grace; Vile, I to the fountain fly, Wash me, Saviour, or I die !

4 While I draw this fleeting breath, When my eyelids close in death, When I soar to worlds unknown, See thee on thy judgment throne, Rock of Ages, cleft for me! Let me hide myself in thee. FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost, One in Three, and Three in One, As by the celestial host, Let thy will on earth be done;

327

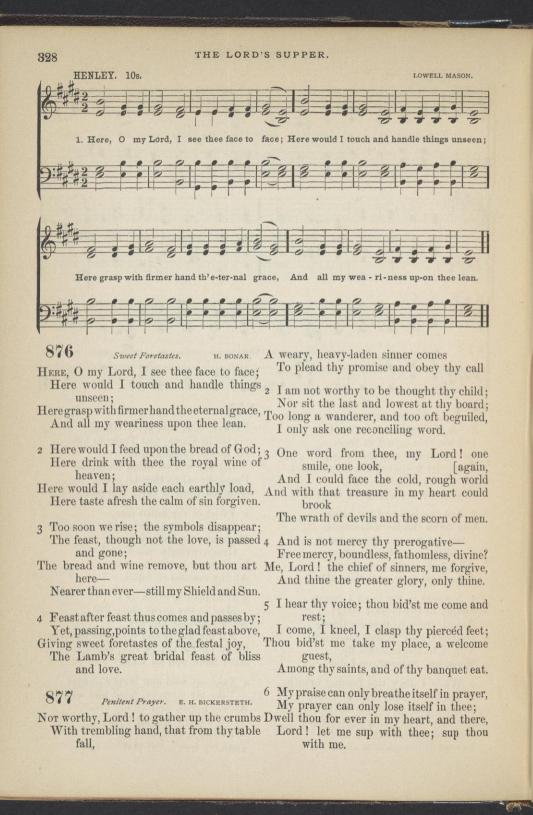

Praise by all to thee be given, Glorious Lord of earth and heaven !

2 Vilest of the fallen race, Lo, I answer to thy call; Meanest vessel of thy grace, Grace divinely free for all;
Lo, I come to do thy will, All thy counsel to fulfill.

3 If so poor a worm as I May to thy great glory live, All my actions sanctify,

All my words and thoughts receive; Claim me for thy service, claim All I have, and all I am.

4 Take my soul and body's powers, Take my memory, mind and will, All my goods, and all my hours, All I know and all I feel, All I think, or speak, or do; Take my heart, but make it new.

880 75, 65, 8s. " Calvary." C. WESLEY. LAMB of God, whose dving love We now recall to mind, Send the answer from above, And let us mercy find : Think on us who think on thee, And every struggling soul release; Oh, remember Calvary, And bid us go in peace! 2 By thine agonizing pain, And bloody sweat, we pray, By thy dying love to man. Take all our sins away : Burst our bonds, and set us free; From all iniquity release; Oh, remember Calvary, And bid us go in peace! 3 Let thy blood, by faith applied, The sinner's pardon seal; Speak us freely justified, And all our sickness heal : By thy passion on the tree, Let all our griefs and troubles cease ; Oh, remember Calvary, And bid us go in peace ! 881 P. M. Cant. 5: 1. T. HASTINGS. FORGET thyself! Christ bade thee come To think upon his love, Which could reverse the sinner's doom, And write his name above ; Bid the returning rebel live, And freely all his sins forgive. 2 Forget thyself! and think what pain, What agony he bore, To wash away each guilty stain, To bless thee evermore : To fit thee for his high abode, The temple of the living God. 3 Forget thyself! but let thy soul With memories o'erflow, Rejoice in his supreme control, And seek his will to know: With thankful heart approach the feast, And thou wilt be a welcome guest.

On earth to live in thee; Then, death the vail removing,

Thy glorious face to see.

886 75, 65, D. Hope at the Cross.

WHEN human hopes all wither, And friends no aid supply,

Then whither, Lord, ah! whither Can turn my straining eye?

'Mid storms of grief still rougher, 'Midst darker, deadlier shade,

That cross where thou didst suffer. On Calvary was displayed.

2 On that my gaze I fasten, My refuge that I make;

Though sorely thou mayst chasten, Thou never canst forsake :

Thou, on that cross didst languish, Ere glory crowned thy head !

And I, through death and anguish, Must be to glory led.

And still the fragrant wounds are fresh.

JESUS! our best belovéd Friend, On thy redeeming name we call;

Jesus! in love to us descend. Pardon and sanctify us all.

2 Our souls and bodies we resign, To fear and follow thy commands ;

Oh, take our hearts, our hearts are thine, Accept the service of our hands.

3 Firm, faithful, watching unto prayer, Our Master's voice will we obey,

Toil in the vineyard here, and bear The heat and burden of the day.

Be all our conversation there.

Around one altar kneeling. One common Lord adore?

Shall all that now divides us Remove and pass away,

Like shadows of the morning Before the blaze of day?

3 Shall all that now unites us More sweet and lasting prove,

A closer bond of union. In a blest land of love?

Shall war be learned no longer. Shall strife and tumult cease.

All earth his blesséd kingdom, The Lord and Prince of Peace?

4 O long-expected dawning. Come with thy cheering ray!

When shall the morning brighten, The shadows flee away?

O sweet anticipation ! It cheers the watchers on,

To pray, and hope, and labor, Till the dark night be gone.

Day-gleams are o'er it brightening, And promise clothes the soil; Wide fields, for harvest whitening, Invite the reaper's toil. 2 Go, where the waves are breaking On California's shore, Christ's precious gospel taking, More rich than golden ore;

On Alleghany's mountains, Through all the western vale. Beside Missouri's fountains,

- 2 Come, for thy saints still wait; Daily ascends their sigh;

The Spirit and the Bride say, Come! Dost thou not hear the cry?

- 3 Come, for creation groans, Impatient of thy stay,
- Worn out with these long years of ill, These ages of delay.
- 4 Come, and make all things new, Build up this ruined earth,
- Restore our faded paradise,-Creation's second birth.
- 5 Come, and begin thy reign Of everlasting peace; Come, take the kingdom to thyself,
- Great King of Righteousness!

- OH, for the happy hour When God will hear our cry, And send, with a reviving power, His Spirit from on high.
- 2 We meet, we sing, we pray, We listen to the word,
- In vain;-we see no cheering ray, No cheering voice is heard.

3 While many crowd thy house. How few, around thy board, Meet to recount their solemn vows, And bless thee as their Lord!

- 4 Thou, thou alone canst give Thy gospel sure success; Canst bid the dying sinner live
- Anew in holiness.
- 5 Come, then, with power divine, Spirit of life and love !
- Then shall this people all be thine, This church like that above.

"Revive thy work." P. H. BROWN, alt.

O LORD, thy work revive, In Zion's gloomy hour, And make her dying graces live

- By thy restoring power.
- 2 Awake thy chosen few To fervent earnest prayer; Again may they their vows renew.
- Thy blessed presence share. 3 Thy Spirit then will speak
- Through lips of feeble clay, And hearts of adamant will break, And rebels will obey.
- 4 Lord, lend thy gracious ear; Oh, listen to our cry;
- Oh, come and bring salvation here: Our hopes on thee rely.

CHURCH :- MISSIONS AND GROWTH.

God is the refuge of his saints, When storms of sharp distress invade; Ere we can offer our complaints,

344

Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled Down to the deep, and buried there,

Convulsions shake the solid world-Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar-In sacred peace our souls abide; While every nation, every shore, Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

- 4 There is a stream, whose gentle flow Supplies the city of our God:
- Life, love, and joy, still gliding through, And watering our divine abode.

5 That sacred stream, thy holy word, Our grief allays, our fear controls; Sweet peace thy promises afford,

6 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love, Secure against a threatening hour; Nor can her firm foundation move. Built on his truth, and armed with power.

3 The heathen lands, that lie beneath The shades of overspreading death, Revive at his first dawning light, And deserts blossom at the sight.

4 The saints shall flourish in his days. Dressed in the robes of joy and praise; Peace, like a river, from his throne, And give new strength to fainting souls. Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

921 "Triumphant Zion." P. DODDRIDGE. TRIUMPHANT Zion, lift thy head From dust, and darkness, and the dead; Though humbled long, awake at length, And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength. 5 By foreign streams no longer roam;

2 Put all thy beauteous garments on, And let thy various charms be known: The world thy glories shall confess, Decked in the robes of righteousness.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade, And fill thy hallowed walls with dread; No more shall hell's insulting host Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

4 God, from on high, thy groans will hear; His hand thy ruins shall repair; Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease To guard thee in eternal peace.

922

Ancient Israel. J. JOYCE. WHY on the bending willows hung, Israel! still sleeps thy tuneful string ?-

Still mute remains thy sullen tongue. And Zion's song denies to sing?

- 2 Awake! thy sweetest raptures raise; Let harp and voice unite their strains:
- Thy promised King his sceptre sways: Jesus, thine own Messiah, reigns!

3 No taunting foes the song require; No strangers mock thy captive chain; But friends provoke the silent lyre,

And brethren ask the holy strain.

- 4 Nor fear thy Salem's hills to wrong, If other lands thy triumphs share:
- A heavenly city claims thy song; A brighter Salem rises there.
- Nor, weeping, think of Jordan's flood:
- In every clime behold a home, In every temple see thy God.

Home Missions. W. C. BRYANT. LOOK from thy sphere of endless day,

O God of mercy and of might! In pity look on those who stray,

Benighted in this land of light.

- 2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen, In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
- How many of the sons of men Hear not the message sent from thee!
- Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
- The thoughtless young, the hardened old, A scattered, homeless flock, till all
- Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.
- 4 Send them thy mighty word to speak, Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
- To awe the bold, to stay the weak, And bind and heal the broken heart.
- 5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene, That makes us sadden as we gaze,

Shall grow with living waters green, And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

CHURCH:-MISSIONS AND GROWTH.

924 L. M. Psalm 87. I. WATTS. God, in his earthly temple, lays Foundations for his heavenly praise ; He likes the tents of Jacob well; But still in Zion loves to dwell.

2 His mercy visits every house That pay their night and morning vows, But makes a more delightful stay Where churches meet to praise and pray.

3 What glories were described of old! What wonders are of Zion told ! Thou city of our God below ! Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.

4 Egypt and Tyre, and Greek and Jew, Shall there begin their lives anew; Angels and men shall join to sing The hill where living waters spring.

5 When God makes up his last account Of natives in his holy mount, 'T will be an honor to appear, As one new-born, or nourished there.

925 L. M. Psalm 80. I. WATTS. GREAT Shepherd of thine Israel ! Who didst between the cherubs dwell, And lead the tribes, thy chosen sheep, Safe through the desert and the deep ; -2 Thy Church is in the desert now : Shine from on high and guide us through; Turn us to thee, thy love restore ; We shall be saved, and sigh no more. 3 Hast thou not planted, with thy hand, A lovely vine in this our land? Did not thy power defend it round. And heavenly dews enrich the ground? 4 Return, almighty God ! return. Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn : Turn us to thee, thy love restore; We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

926 85, 75, 61. "Alleluia." HALLELUJAH! song of gladness, Song of everlasting joy; Hallelujah! song the sweetest

That can angel-hosts employ; Hymning in God's holy presence

Their high praise eternally.

2 Hallelujah ! church victorious. Thou mayst lift this joyful strain : Hallelujah ! songs of triumph

Well befit the ransomed train : We our song must raise with sadness. While in exile we remain.

3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness Suit not souls with anguish torn ;

Hallelujah! notes of sadness Best befit our state forlorn :

For, in this dark world of sorrow. We, with tears, our sin must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication. Holy God, we raise to thee ;

Bring us to thy blissful presence, Make us all thy joys to see;

Then we'll sing our Hallelujah,-Sing to all eternity.

ANON.

927 75, 65, D. Psalm 14. H. F. LYTE. OH, that the Lord's salvation Were out of Zion come, To heal his ancient nation, To lead his outcasts home ! How long the holy city Shall heathen feet profane? Return, O Lord, in pity, Rebuild her walls again. 2 Let fall thy rod of terror. Thy saving grace impart : Roll back the vail of error, Release the fettered heart; Let Israel, home returning, Their lost Messiah see; Give oil of joy for mourning, And bind thy Church to thee. 928 75, 65, D. The Gospel Banner. T. HASTINGS. Now be the gospel banner. In every land unfurled ; And be the shout, --- "Hosanna!"

Re-echoed through the world; Till every isle and nation, Till every tribe and tongue,

Receive the great salvation, And join the happy throng.

2 Yes,-thou shalt reign for ever, O Jesus, King of kings!

Thy light, thy love, thy favor, Each ransomed captive sings : The isles for thee are waiting,

The deserts learn thy praise, The hills and valleys greeting, The song responsive raise.

SEE! how great a flame aspires,
Kindled by a spark of grace !
Jesus' love the nations fires,—
Sets the kingdoms on a blaze;
Fire to bring on earth he came ;
Kindled in some hearts it is;
Oh, that all might catch the flame,
All partake the glorious bliss !

3 Sons of God ! your Saviour praise; He the door hath opened wide:

He hath given the word of grace; Jesus' word is glorified ;

He alone the work hath wrought ; Worthy is the work of him,-

Psalm 102. I. WATTS.

LET Zion and her sons rejoice— Behold the promised hour !

Her God hath heard her mourning voice, And comes to exalt his power.

2 Her dust and ruins that remain Are precious in our eyes ;

Those ruins shall be built again, And all that dust shall rise.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem, And stand in glory there : Nations shall bow before his name. And kings attend with fear.

4 He sits a sovereign on his throne. With pity in his eyes ;

He hears the dying prisoners' groan, And sees their sighs arise.

5 He frees the souls condemned to death : Nor, when his saints complain.

Shall it be said that praying breath Was ever spent in vain.

SY. 931 с. м. Isaiah 52: 1, 2. J. MONTGOMERY. DAUGHTER of Zion ! from the dust Exalt thy fallen head ;

- The day of freedom dawns at length,-The Lord's appointed day.
- 3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge, And send thy heralds forth:
- Say to the south, --- "Give up thy charge, And keep not back, O north !"
- 4 They come ! they come ! thine exiled bands.

Where'er they rest or roam.

Have heard thy voice in distant lands. And hasten to their home.

2 In this world of care and pain, Lord, thou wouldst no longer leave it; To the sunny heavenly plain

Thou dost now with joy receive it; Clothed in robes of spotless white, Now it dwells with thee in light. 3 Ah, Lord Jesus, grant that we

Where it lives may soon be living, And the lovely pastures see

That its heavenly food are giving; Then the gain of death we prove, Though thou take what most we love.

936 " Ye shall live also. F. E. COX, tr. JESUS lives! no longer now

Can thy terrors, Death, appall me; Jesus lives! and well I know,

From the dead he will recall me; Better life will then commence— This shall be my confidence.

2 Jesus lives! to him the throne Over all the world is given;

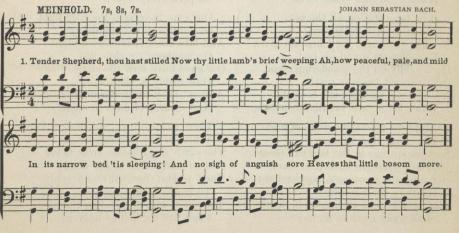

I shall go where he is gone,

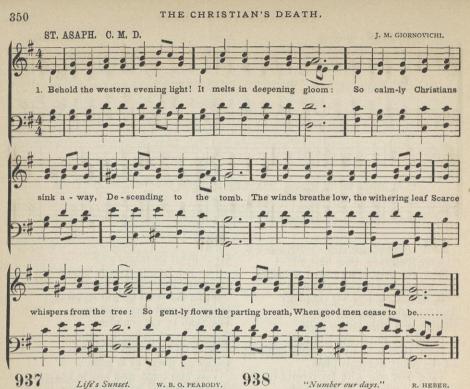

Live and reign with him in heaven: God is pledged; weak doubtings, hence! This shall be my confidence!

3 Jesus lives! henceforth is death Entrance into life immortal:

Calmly I can yield my breath,

Fearless tread the frowning portal; Lord, when faileth flesh and sense, Thou wilt be my confidence!

937 Life's Sunset. W. B. O. PEABODY. BEHOLD the western evening light! It melts in deepening gloom: So calmly Christians sink away, Descending to the tomb. The winds breathe low, the withering leaf Scarce whispers from the tree: So gently flows the parting breath, When good men cease to be. 2 How beautiful on all the hills The crimson light is shed! 'T is like the peace the Christian gives To mourners round his bed. How mildly on the wandering cloud The sunset beam is cast! "Tis like the memory left behind When loved ones breathe their last. 3 And now above the dews of night The rising star appears: So faith springs in the heart of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears. But soon the morning's happier light Its glory shall restore,

And eyelids that are sealed in death Shall wake to close no more.

BENEATH our feet and o'er our head Is equal warning given; Beneath us lie the countless dead. Above us is the heaven! Death rides on every passing breeze, And lurks in every flower; Each season hath its own disease. Its peril every hour! 2 Our eyes have seen the rosy light Of youth's soft cheek decay: And fate descend in sudden night On manhood's middle day.

R. HEBER.

Our eyes have seen the steps of age Halt feebly to the tomb;

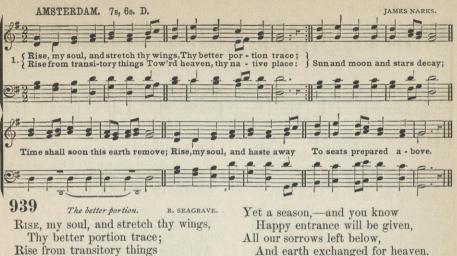

And yet shall earth our hearts engage. And dreams of days to come?

3 Then, mortal, turn! thy danger know: Where'er thy foot can tread,

The earth rings hollow from below. And warns thee of her dead!

Turn, mortal, turn! thy soul apply To truths divinely given:

The dead, who underneath thee lie. Shall live for hell or heaven!

Toward heaven, thy native place: Sun and moon and stars decay; Time shall soon this earth remove;

Rise, my soul, and haste away To seats prepared above.

Asleep in Jesus ! oh, how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet !
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost its venomed sting !

3 Asleep in Jesus ! peaceful rest ! Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear—no woe, shall dim the hour That manifests the Saviour's power.

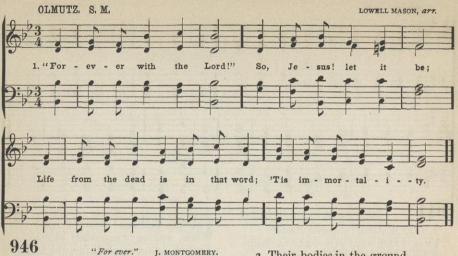

4 Asleep in Jesus ! oh, for me May such a blissful refuge be: Securely shall my ashes lie, And wait the summons from on high.

945 Death of an Infant. A. STEELE. So FADES the lovely, blooming flower,— Frail smiling solace of an hour ! So soon our transient comforts fly, And pleasure only blooms to die. 2 Is there no kind, no lenient art, To heal the anguish of the heart? Spirit of grace ! be ever nigh, Thy comforts are not made to die.

3 Thy powerful aid supports the soul, And nature owns thy kind control; While we peruse the sacred page, Our fiercest griefs resign their rage.

4 Then gentle patience smiles on pain, And dying hope revives again; Hope wipes the tear from sorrow's eye, And faith points upward to the sky.

- 5 So, when my latest breath Shall rend the vail in twain, By death I shall escape from death, And life eternal gain.

 Nearer to-day the great white throne, Nearer the crystal sea.

"I shall go to him." H. K. WHITE. THROUGH sorrow's night, and danger's path, Amid the deepening gloom,

- We, followers of our suffering Lord, Are marching to the tomb.
- 2 There, when the turmoil is no more. And all our powers decay,
- Our cold remains, in solitude, Shall sleep the years away.
- 3 Our labors done, securely laid In this our last retreat,
- Unheeded o'er our silent dust The storms of earth shall beat.
- 4 Yet not thus buried or extinct, The vital spark shall lie:
- For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise To seek its kindred sky.

- 5 These ashes, too, this little dust. Our Father's care shall keep.

Resurrection sure. WHEN downward to the darksome tomb I thoughtful turn my eves.

Frail nature trembles at the gloom. And anxious fears arise.

2 Why shrinks my soul ?--- in death's embrace Once Jesus captive slept:

- And angels, hovering o'er the place, His lowly pillow kept.
- 3 Thus shall they guard my sleeping dust. And, as the Saviour rose,
- The grave again shall yield her trust, And end my deep repose.
- 4 My Lord, before to glory gone, Shall bid me come away;
- And calm and bright shall break the dawn Of heaven's eternal day,
- 5 Then let my faith each fear dispel, And gild with light the grave;
- To him my loftiest praises swell. Who died, from death to save.

- 2 Are we not tending upward, too, As fast as time can move?
- Nor would we wish the hours more slow, To keep us from our love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey Their bodies to the tomb? There the dear flesh of Jesus lay, And scattered all the gloom.

4 The graves of all the saints he blessed, And softened every bed;

- Where should the dying members rest, But with the dying Head?
- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high, And showed our feet the way;
- Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly At the great rising-day.

Life is but a dving taper-O my soul, why wish to stay? Why not spread thy wings and fly Straight to yonder world of joy?

2 See that glory, how resplendent ! Brighter far than fancy paints;

There, in majesty transcendent, Jesus reigns-the King of saints. Why not spread, etc.

3 Joyful crowds his throne surrounding. Sing with rapture of his love;

Through the heavens his praise resounding. Filling all the courts above. Why not spread, etc.

4 Go, and share his people's glory, 'Midst the ransomed crowd appear; Thine a joyful wondrous story, One that angels love to hear. Why not spread, etc.

957 C. P. M. The Tribunal. LADY HUNTINGTON. WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come 3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace. To take thy ransomed people home, Shall I among them stand? Shall such a worthless worm as I, Who sometimes am afraid to die,

Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet thy people now, Before thy feet with them to bow, Though vilest of them all; But, can I bear the piercing thought, What if my name should be left out, When thou for them shalt call?

Be thou my only hiding-place, In this the accepted day: Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear. To still my unbelieving fear, Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found, Whene'er the archangel's trump shall sound, To see thy smiling face;

Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,

While heaven's resounding mansions ring With shouts of sovereign grace.

961 "Where is thy victory?" G. W. BETHUNE. It is not death to die— To leave this weary road,

- 2 It is not death to close The eye long dimmed by tears, And wake, in glorious repose To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to bear The wrench that sets us free From dungeon chain,-to breathe the air Of boundless liberty.
- 4 It is not death to fling Aside this sinful dust,

Thy chosen cannot die;

Like thee, they conquer in the strife, To reign with thee on high.

- 2 The voice at midnight came; He started up to hear;
- A mortal arrow pierced his frame; He fell, but felt no fear.

- 3 His spirit with a bound Left its encumbering clay:
- His tent, at sunrise, on the ground A darkened ruin lay.
- 4 The pains of death are past, Labor and sorrow cease,
- And, life's long warfare closed at last, His soul is found in peace.
- 5 Soldier of Christ, well done ! Praise be thy new employ;
- And, while eternal ages run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

H. BONAR.

MAKE haste, O man, to live, For thou so soon must die;

"With thy might."

- Time hurries past thee like the breeze; How swift its moments fly !
- 2 To breathe, and wake, and sleep, To smile, to sigh, to grieve,
- To move in idleness through earth-This, this is not to live.
- 3 Make haste, O man, to do Whatever must be done;
- Thou hast no time to lose in sloth, Thy day will soon be gone.
- 4 Up, then, with speed, and work; Fling ease and self away-

This is no time for thee to sleep-Up, watch, and work, and pray!

Psalm oo. Our God, our help in ages past,

Our hope for years to come;

Our shelter from the stormy blast,

And our eternal home :---Under the shadow of thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure ;

Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.

2 Before the hills in order stood. Or earth received her frame,

From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same.

A thousand ages, in thy sight, Are like an evening gone ;

Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.

3 Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away :

- They fly, forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.
- Our God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,

P. thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home.

965 P.M. Death is Transition. R. P. DUNN, tr. No, no, it is not dving To go unto our God ; This gloomy earth forsaking, Our journey homeward taking, Along the starry road.

2 No, no, it is not dying Heaven's citizen to be; A crown immortal wearing, And rest unbroken sharing, From care and conflict free.

3 No, no, it is not dying To wear a heavenly crown; Among God's people dwelling, The glorious triumph swelling, Of him whose sway we own.

4 Oh, no ! this is not dying, Thou Saviour of mankind ! There, streams of love are flowing, No hindrance ever knowing; Here, only drops we find.

966 L. M. Burial of Believers. I. WATTS. UNVAIL thy bosom, faithful tomb ! Take this new treasure to thy trust,

1. WATTS. And give these sacred relics room To seek a slumber in the dust.

> 2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear, Invade thy bounds ;---no mortal woes

- Can reach the peaceful sleeper here, While angels watch the soft repose.
- 3 So Jesus slept: God's dving Son Passed thro' the grave and blessed the bed !
- Resthere, blest saint! till, from his throne, The morning break, and pierce the shade.
- 4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn! Attend, O earth ! his sovereign word;

Restore thy trust ;---a glorious form

Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

967 Irr. M. The Soul Departing. A. POPE. VITAL spark of heavenly flame ! Quit, oh, quit this mortal frame ; Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying-Oh, the pain !- the bliss of dying ! Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife, And let me languish into life !

2 Hark ! they whisper ; angels say, "Sister spirit, come away; What is this absorbs me quite ?---Steals my senses, shuts my sight, Drowns my spirits, draws my breath ?---Tell me, my soul, can this be death?

3 The world recedes-it disappears ! Heaven opens on my eyes !---my ears With sounds seraphic ring! Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly! "O Grave! where is thy victory? O Death! where is thy sting?"

John 17: 24. C. ELLIOTT. LET me be with thee where thou art, My Saviour, my eternal Rest;

Then only will this longing heart Be fully and for ever blest.

2 Let me be with thee where thou art, Thine unvailed glory to behold;

- Then only will this wandering heart Cease to be false to thee and cold.
- 3 Let me be with thee where thou art, Where none can die, where none remove;

There neither death nor life will part Me from thy presence and thy love.

Where, life's vain tumults past,

- The appointed house, by heaven's decree, Receives us all at last.
- 2 The wicked there from troubling cease: Their passions rage no more;
- And there the weary pilgrim rests From all the toils he bore.
- 3 There servants, masters, small and Partake the same repose ; [great,

970 с. м. To die is gain. W. H. BATHURST. WHY should our tears in sorrow flow, When God recalls his own ;

- And bids them leave a world of woe For an immortal crown?
- 2 Is not ev'n death a gain to those Whose life to God was given ?
- Gladly to earth their eyes they close, To open them in heaven.
- 3 Their toils are past, their work is done, And they are fully blest :

The Cemetery. J. MONTGOMERY. This place is holy ground !

World, with its cares, away ! A holy, solemn stillness, round

This lifeless, mouldering clay ; Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear, Can reach the peaceful sleeper here.

2 Behold the bed of death,

The pale and mortal clay ! Heard ye the sob of parting breath ?

Marked ye the eye's last ray? No! life so sweetly ceased to be, It lapsed in immortality.

- R. BLAIR. 3 Bury the dead, and weep
 - In stillness o'er the loss !

Bury the dead! in Christ they sleep Who bore on earth his cross ;

And from the grave their dust shall rise, In his own image to the skies.

972 IOS.

Death at Prime. J. MONTGOMERY. Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime ! In full activity of zeal and power ;

- A Christian cannot die before his time ;
- The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.
- 2 Go to the grave; at noon from labor [done; cease :
- Rest on thy sheaves, thy harvest-task is Come from the heat of battle, and in peace, won.
- Soldier! go home; with thee the fight is
- 3 Go to the grave, for there thy Saviour lay

In death's embraces, ere he rose on high;

And all the ransomed, by that narrow way,

Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.

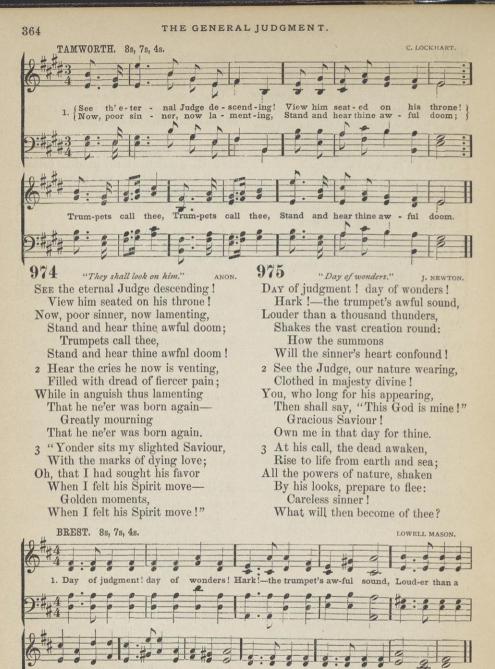

- 4 Go to the grave? no, take thy seat above !
- Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord, Where thou for faith and hope hast per-
- fect love,
- And open vision for the written Word.

973 L. M. Be Pitiful, O God. C. F. ALEXANDER. O Son of God, in glory crowned,

- The Judge ordained of quick and dead! O Son of man, so pitying found
 - For all the tears thy people shed !
- 2 Be with us in this darkened place,-This weary, restless, dangerous night;
- And teach, oh, teach us, by thy grace, To struggle onward into light !
- 3 And since, in God's recording book, Our sins are written, every one,-
- The crime, the wrath, the wandering look, The good we knew, and left undone ;---
- 4 Lord, ere the last dread trump be heard.

And ere before thy face we stand,

Look thou on each accusing word, And blot it with thy bleeding hand.

thousand thunders, Shakes the vast creation round : How the summons Will the sinner's heart con-found !

GREAT God, what do I see and hear! The end of things created !

The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glory seated:

The trumpet sounds; the graves restore The dead which they contained before; Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise, At the last trumpet's sounding— Caught up to meet him in the skies,

With joy their Lord surrounding; No gloomy fears their souls dismay,

His presence sheds eternal day On those prepared to meet him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears, Behold his wrath prevailing;

For they shall rise, and find their tears And sighs are unavailing:

The day of grace is past and gone;

Trembling they stand before the throne, All unprepared to meet him.

4 Great God! what do I see and hear! The end of things created!

The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glory seated:

Beneath his cross I view the day

When heaven and earth shall pass away, And thus prepare to meet him.

WHEN my last hour is close at hand, My last sad journey taken,

- Do thou, Lord Jesus! by me stand; Let me not be forsaken:
- O Lord ! my spirit I resign

Into thy loving hands divine; 'Tis safe within thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore, My sins may then appall me;

Yet, though my conscience vex me sore, Despair shall not enthrall me;

For as I draw my latest breath,

I'll think, Lord Christ ! upon thy death, And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain, Since thou death's bonds hast severed: By hope with thee to rise again,

From fear of death delivered.

I'll come to thee, where'er thou art,-

Live with thee, from thee never part; Therefore I die in rapture.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go, My longing arms extending; So fall asleep, in slumber deep, Slumber that knows as and Slumber that knows no ending; Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son, Opens the gates of bliss, leads on To heaven, to life eternal.

All over and gone. EARTH is past away and gone, All her glories, every one, All her pomp is broken down ; God is reigning, God alone !

2 All her high ones lowly lie, All her mirth hath passed by, All her merry-hearted sigh ; God is reigning. God on high !

3 No more sorrow, no more night; Perfect joy and purest light! With his spotless saints and bright, God is reigning in the height !

4 Blessing, praise and glory bring ; Offer every holy thing ; Everlasting praises sing; God is reigning, God our King !

979 5. м.

BEHOLD, the day is come: The righteous Judge is near; And sinners, trembling at their doom, Shall soon their sentence hear.

The Last Day.

2 How awful is the sight ! How loud the thunders roar ! The sun forbears to give his light,

And stars are seen no more.

3 The whole creation groans; But saints arise and sing :

They are the ransomed of the Lord, And he their God and King.

980 s. m. Now is the time. P. DODDRIDGE. AND will the Judge descend, And must the dead arise, And not a single soul escape His all-discerning eves?

2 How will my heart endure The terrors of that day,

When earth and heaven before his face Astonished shrink away ?

3 But, ere the trumpet shakes The mansions of the dead.

Hark, from the gospel's cheering sound What joyful tidings spread !

4 Ye sinners! seek his grace Whose wrath ye cannot bear; Fly to the shelter of his cross, And find salvation there.

H. ALFORD. 981 L. M. "The Day of the Lord." W. SCOTT.

> THE day of wrath ! that dreadful day, When heaven and earth shall pass away! What power shall be the sinner's stay? How shall he meet that dreadful day ?-

> 2 When, shriveling like a parchéd scroll, The flaming heavens together roll. And louder yet, and yet more dread, Swells the high trump that wakes the dead !

> 3 Oh, on that day, that wrathful day, When man to judgment wakes from clay, Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay, Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

982 85, 75, 4. " The Mighty God."

W. GOODE.

B. BEDDOME. LO ! the mighty God appearing-From on high Jehovah speaks ! Eastern lands the summons hearing,

O'er the west his thunder breaks: Earth beholds him : Universal nature shakes.

2 Zion, all its light unfolding, God in glory shall display :

Lo ! he comes, --- nor silence holding, Fire and clouds prepare his way : Tempests round him Hasten on the dreadful day.

3 To the heavens his voice ascending, To the earth beneath he cries-

"Souls immortal now descending, Let the sleeping dust arise ! Rise to judgment; Let my throne adorn the skies.

4 "Gather first my saints around me, Those who to my covenant stood :

Those who humbly sought and found me, Through the dying Saviour's blood : Blest Redeemer ! Choicest sacrifice to God!"

5 Now the heavens on high adore him, And his righteousness declare : Sinners perish from before him.

But his saints his mercies share : Just his judgment ! God, himself the Judge, is there.

THE GENERAL JUDGMENT.

983 75. 31. "Dies Ira." DAY of anger! that dread day Shall the sign in heaven display, And the earth in ashes lay !

2 Oh, what trembling shall appear, When his coming shall be near, Who shall all things strictly clear !

3 When the trumpet shall command. Through the tombs of every land, All before the throne to stand !

4 What shall I before him say? How shall I be safe that day-When the righteous scarcely may?

5 King of awful majesty, Saving sinners graciously,-Fount of mercy ! save thou me !

6 Leave me not, my Saviour ! one, For whose soul thy course was run ! Lest I be that day undone!

7 Though unworthy is my prayer, Make my soul thy mercy's care, And from death eternal spare!

8 When thy voice in wrath shall say, Cursèd one, depart away! Call me with thy blest, I pray !

The Lord Coming. R. HEBER. THE Lord shall come! the earth shall quake !

The mountains to their centre shake : And, withering from the vault of night, The stars withdraw their feeble light.

2 The Lord shall come ! but not the same As once in lowly form he came,-A silent Lamb before his foes, A weary man, and full of woes.

The Lord shall come ! a dreadful form, With wreath of flame, and robe of storm, On cherub-wings, and wings of wind, Anointed Judge of human kind !

4 While sinners in despair shall call, "Rocks, hide us! mountains, on us fall!" The saints, ascending from the tomb, Shall sing for joy, "The Lord is come !"

H. ALFORD. 985 L. M. 7 1. Isa. 57: 15. ETERNITY ! eternity ! How long art thou, eternity !

And yet to thee time hastes away, Like as the war horse to the fray, Or swift as couriers homeward go, Or ships to port, or shafts from bow ; Ponder, O man, eternity!

2 Eternity ! eternity ! How long art thou, eternity ! As long as God is God, so long Endure the pains of hell and wrong, So long the joys of heaven remain; Oh, lasting joy ! oh, lasting pain ! Ponder, O man, eternity !

3 Eternity ! eternity! How long art thou, eternity ! O man, full oft thy thoughts should dwell Upon the pains of sin and hell, And on the glories of the pure, That do beyond all time endure; Ponder, O man, eternity !

986 85, 75, 45. "Lo! he comes!" C. WESLEY.

Lo! he comes with clouds descending, Once for favored sinners slain !

Thousand thousand saints attending, Swell the triumph of his train ! Hallelujah ! Jesus omes, and comes to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold him, Robed in dreadful maje ty !

Those who set at naught and sold him, Pierced and nailed him to the tree,

Deeply wailing, Shall the true Messiah see !

3 Lo! the last long separation, As the cleaving crowds divide,

And one dread adjudication Sends each soul to either side! Lord of mercy !

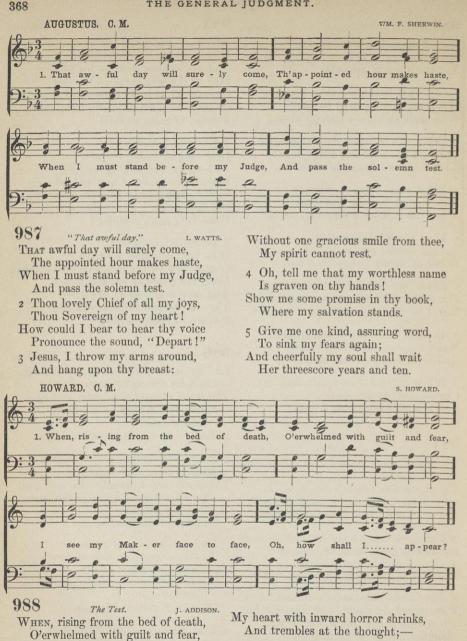

How shall I that day abide?

4 Yea, Amen! let all adore thee, High on thine eternal throne !

Saviour, take the power and glory; Make thy righteous sentence known! Men and angels

Kneel and bow to thee alone !

- 2 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene, That rises to my sight!
- Sweet fields arrayed in living green, And rivers of delight!
- 3 O'er all those wide extended plains Shines one eternal day;
- There God, the Son, for ever reigns, And scatters night away.
- 4 No chilling winds, or poisonous breath, Can reach that healthful shore;
- Sickness and sorrow, pain and death, Are felt and feared no more.
- 5 When shall I reach that happy place, And be for ever blest?
- When shall I see my Father's face, And in his bosom rest?

O PARADISE, O Paradise, Who doth not crave for rest? Who would not seek the happy land Where they that loved are blest? Where loval hearts and true Stand ever in the light, All rapture through and through, In God's most holy sight.

I KNOW NO life divided, O Lord of life, from thee; In thee is life provided For all mankind and me: I know no death, O Jesus, Because I live in thee; Thy death it is that frees us From death eternally.

2 I fear no tribulation, Since, whatsoe'er it be,

It makes no separation Between my Lord and me. If thou, my God and Teacher, Vouchsafe to be my own, Though poor, I shall be richer Than monarch on his throne.

3 If, while on earth I wander, My heart is right and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder, In perfect peace and rest?
Oh, blessed thought ! in dying We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing, A kingdom our reward.

For thee, O dear, dear Country, Mine eyes their vigils keep; For very love, beholding Thy happy name, they weep. The mention of thy glory Is unction to the breast, And medicine in sickness, And love, and life, and rest.

2 With jasper glow thy bulwarks, Thy streets with emeralds blaze;

The sardius and the topaz Unite in thee their rays;

Thine ageless walls are bonded With amethyst unpriced;

The saints build up its fabric, The corner-stone is Christ.

3 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean; Thou hast no time, bright day:

Dear fountain of refreshment To pilgrims far away:

Upon the Rock of ages They raise thy holy tower;

Thine is the victor's laurel, And thine the golden dower.

The love that through all trouble To him alone will turn:

What are they but forerunners To lead you to his sight?

What are they save the effluence Of uncreated light?

The manifold temptations That death alone can cure:

What are they, but his jewels Of right celestial worth?

What are they but the ladder, Set up to heaven on earth?

Blest seats ! thro' rude and stormy scenes, Then shall my labors have an end. I onward press to you.

Why should I shrink at pain and woe! Or feel, at death, dismay?

- I've Canaan's goodly land in view, And realms of endless day.
- 3 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there, Around my Saviour stand;

And soon my friends in Christ below. Will join the glorious band.

My soul still pants for thee;

When I thy joys shall see.

1010 P.M. "Jordan's Strand." D. NELSON. My days are gliding swiftly by, And I, a pilgrim stranger, Would not detain them as they fly. Those hours of toil and danger. For, oh, we stand on Jordan's strand, Our friends are passing over; And just before, the Shining Shore We may almost discover!

2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear, Our heavenly home discerning; Our absent Lord has left us word,

Let every lamp be burning.-REF.

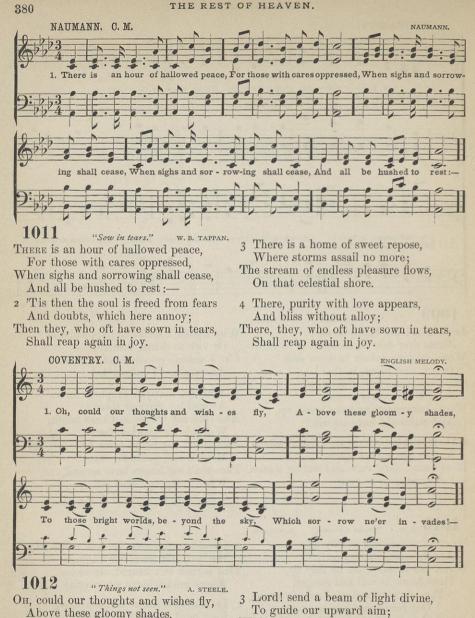

3 Should coming days be cold and dark, We need not cease our singing:

That perfect rest naught can molest, Where golden harps are ringing.—REF.

- 4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow, Each cord on earth to sever:
- Our King says, Come, and there's our home For ever, oh, for ever!

For, oh, we stand on Jordan's strand, Our friends are passing over;

And just before, the Shining Shore We may almost discover!

- To those bright worlds, beyond the sky, Which sorrow ne'er invades!-
- 2 There, joys, unseen by mortal eves Or reason's feeble ray,
- In ever-blooming prospect rise, Unconscious of decay.
- To guide our upward aim:
- With one reviving touch of thine. Our languid hearts inflame.
- 4 Oh, then, on faith's sublimest wing. Our ardent hope shall rise
- To those bright scenes, where pleasures spring Immortal in the skies.

2 There is a home for weary souls, By sin and sorrow driven,— When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals, Where storms arise, and ocean rolls, And all is drear—but heaven. 3 There faith lifts up her cheerful eye To brighter prospects given; And views the tempest passing by, The evening shadows quickly fly, And all serene—in heaven

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom, And joys supreme are given; There rays divine disperse the gloom; Beyond the confines of the tomb Appears the dawn of heaven !

THIS is not my place of resting,-Mine's a city yet to come; Onward to it I am hasting-On to my eternal home.

- 2 In it all is light and glory; O'er it shines a nightless day: Every trace of sin's sad story, All the curse, hath passed away.
- 3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us By the streams of life along,-On the freshest pastures feeds us, Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary, Soon we bid farewell to pain; Never more are sad or weary, Never, never sin again !

1016 "The sea of glass." C. WORDSWORTH.

HARK ! the sound of holy voices, Chanting at the crystal sea, Hallelujah, hallelujah,

Hallelujah, Lord, to thee!

2 Multitudes, which none can number, Like the stars in glory stand, Clothed in white apparel, holding

Palms of victory in their hands.

- 3 They have come from tribulation, And have washed their robes in blood, Washed them in the blood of Jesus:
- Tried they were and firm they stood.

- 4 Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented, Sawn asunder, slain with sword.
- They have conquered death and Satan By the might of Christ the Lord.
- 5 Love and peace they taste for ever. And all truth and knowledge see

In the Beatific Vision Of the blessed Trinity.

The City. DAILY, daily sing the praises Of the City God hath made:

S. BARING-GOULD.

In the beauteous fields of Eden Its foundation-stones are laid.

- 2 In the midst of that dear City Christ is reigning on his seat.
- And the angels swing their censers In a ring about his feet.
- 3 From the throne a river issues. Clear as crystal, passing bright,

And it traverses the City Like a sudden beam of light.

4 There the wind is sweetly fragrant. And is laden with the song

Of the seraphs, and the elders, And the great redeemed throng.

5 Oh, I would my ears were open Here to catch that happy strain !

Oh, I would my eyes some vision Of that Eden could attain !

1018 "The King in his beauty." C. WINKWORTH, tr.

TIME, thou speedest on but slowly, Hours, how tardy is your pace! Ere with Him, the high and holy,

I hold converse face to face. Here is naught but care and mourning;

Comes a joy, it will not stay; Fairly shines the sun at dawning, Night will soon o'ercloud the day.

2 Onward then ! not long I wander Ere my Saviour comes for me,

And with him abiding yonder, All his glory I shall see.

- Oh, the music and the singing Of the host redeemed by love!
- Oh, the hallelujahs ringing Through the halls of light above !

I. CONDER.

JESUS, blesséd Mediator ! Thou the airy path hast trod;

The Consummation.

Thou the Judge, the Consummator ! Shepherd of the fold of God ! Can I trust a fellow-being ? Can I trust an angel's care ? O thou merciful All-seeing !

Beam around my spirit there. 2 Blesséd fold ! no foe can enter,

And no friend departeth thence; Jesus is their sun, their centre, And their shield—Omnipotence ! Blesséd, for the Lamb shall feed them, All their tears shall wipe away,

To the living fountains lead them, Till fruition's perfect day.

3 Lo! it comes, that day of wonder! Louder chorals shake the skies: Hadés' gates are burst asunder; See! the new-clothed myriads rise! Thought! repress thy weak endeavor; Here must reason prostrate fall; Oh, the ineffable Forever! And the eternal All in All!

I. M. NEALE. tr.

JERUSALEM, the glorious ! The glory of the elect,-

"A City."

O dear and future vision

That eager hearts expect! Ev'n now by faith I see thee,

Ev'n here thy walls discern; To thee my thoughts are kindled. And strive, and pant, and yearn !

2 The Cross is all thy splendor, The Crucified, thy praise;

His laud and benediction Thy ransomed people raise;-

Jerusalem! exulting On that securest shore,

I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee, And love thee evermore !

3 O sweet and blessed Country! Shall I e'er see thy face?

O sweet and blesséd Country! Shall I e'er win thy grace?

Exult, O dust and ashes! The Lord shall be thy part;

His only, his for ever, Thou shalt be, and thou art!

1021 "Lamps trimmed." J. BORTHWICK, tr. REJOICE, rejoice, believers!

And let your lights appear !

The shades of eve are thickening. And darker night is near:

The Bridegroom is advancing: Each hour he draws more nigh:

- Up ! watch and pray, nor slumber: At midnight comes the cry.
- 2 See that your lamps are burning. Your vessels filled with oil:
- Wait calmly your deliverance From earthly pain and toil.
- The watchers on the mountains Proclaim the Bridegroom near,

Go, meet him, as he cometh, With hallelujahs clear.

3 The saints, who here in patience Their cross and sufferings bore.

With him shall reign for ever, When sorrow is no more:

Around the throne of glory The Lamb shall they behold,

Adoring cast before him Their diadems of gold.

4 Our hope and expectation, O Jesus, now appear !

Arise, thou Sun so looked-for, O'er this benighted sphere !

With hearts and hands uplifted, We plead, O Lord, to see

The day of our redemption, And ever be with thee.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion, All jubilant with song, And bright with many an angel, And all the martyr throng; The Prince is ever in them, The daylight is serene: The pastures of the blessed

Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David; And there, from care released, The song of them that triumph, The shout of them that feast: And they who, with their Leader, Have conquered in the fight For ever and for ever

Are clad in robes of white.

"Short toil." BRIEF life is here our portion: Brief sorrow, short-lived care; The life, that knows no ending, The tearless life, is there: Oh, happy retribution ! Short toil, eternal rest; For mortals, and for sinners. A mansion with the blest !

2 And there is David's fountain. And life in fullest glow: And there the light is golden. And milk and honey flow: The light, that hath no evening. The health, that hath no sore. The life, that hath no ending. But lasteth evermore. 3 There Jesus shall embrace us. There Jesus be embraced.-That spirit's food and sunshine:

Whence earthly love is chased: Yes! God my King and Portion.

In fullness of his grace, We then shall see for ever,

And worship face to face.

THE REST OF HEAVEN.

BRIDE of the Lamb, awake, awake ! Why sleep for sorrow now?

- The hope of glory, Christ, is thine, A child of glory thou.
- Thy spirit, through the lonely night, From earthly joy apart,
- Hath sighed for one that's far away,-The Bridegroom of thy heart.
- 2 But see! the night is waning fast, The breaking morn is near;
- And Jesus comes, with voice of love. Thy drooping heart to cheer.
- Then weep no more; 'tis all thine own, His crown, his joy divine;
- And, sweeter far than all beside, He, he himself is thine !

ANON.

Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come; Ye wedding-guests, draw near,

" Behold, I come quickly."

And slumber not in sin, when he, The Son of God, is here!

- Come, let us haste to meet our Lord, And hail him with delight;
- Who saved us by his precious blood, And sorrows infinite !

2 Beside him all the patriarchs old. And holy prophets stand: The glorious apostolic choir, And noble martyr band.

As brethren dear they welcome us, And lead us to the throne, Where angels bow their vailed heads. Before the Three in One:-

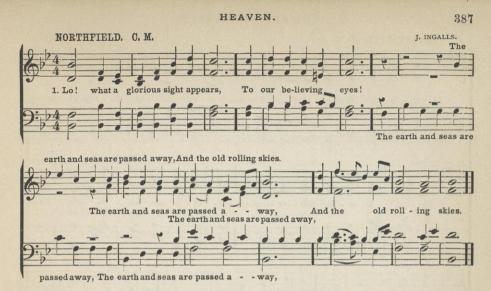

- 3 Where we, with all the saints of God, A white-robed multitude.
- Shall praise the ascended Lord, who deigns To bear our flesh and blood!
- Our lot shall be for aye to share His reign of peace above:
- And drink, with unexhausted joy, The river of his love.

1026 " Come, Lord Jesus."

E. DENNY

HOPE of our hearts, O Lord, appear, Thou glorious Star of day ! Shine forth, and chase the dreary night, With all our tears, away. No resting-place we seek on earth. No loveliness we see: Our eye is on the royal crown. Prepared for us-and thee ! 2 But, dearest Lord, however bright, That crown of joy above, What is it to the brighter hope Of dwelling in thy love? What to the joy, the deeper joy, Unmingled, pure, and free, Of union with our living Head. Of fellowship with thee?

- Men, the dear objects of his grace, And he their loving God:—
- 5 "His own soft hand shall wipe the tears From every weeping eye;
- And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears, And death itself shall die !"

1028 Messiah's Reign.

M. BRUCE.

BEHOLD, the mountain of the Lord In latter days shall rise 26

- On mountain tops, above the hills, And draw the wondering eyes.
- 2 The beam that shines from Zion's hill Shall lighten every land:
- The King who reigns in Salem's towers Shall all the world command.
- 3 No strife shall vex Messiah's reign, Or mar the peaceful years;
- To ploughshares men shall beat their swords, To pruning-hooks their spears.
 - 1029 "Come, blessed Lord?" E. DENNY.

LIGHT of the lonely pilgrim's heart! Star of the coming day! Arise, and with thy morning beams

- Chase all our griefs away.
- 2 Come, blesséd Lord ! let every shore And answering island sing

The praises of thy royal name, And own thee as their King.

- 3 Jesus! thy fair creation groans,— The air, the earth, the sea,— In unison with all our hearts, And calls aloud for thee.
- 4 Thine was the cross, with all its fruits Of grace and peace divine; Be thine the crown of glory now,

The palm of victory thine.

THERE is a land immortal, The beautiful of lands;
Beside its ancient portal A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it, And open wide the door;
And mortals who pass through it, Are mortal nevermore.
Though dark and drear the passage That leadeth to the gate,

Yet grace attends the message, To souls that watch and wait:

And at the time appointed A messenger comes down,

And guides the Lord's anointed From cross to glory's crown.

3 Their sighs are lost in singing, They're blessed in their tears; Their journey heavenward winging,

They leave on earth their fears:

Death like an angel seemeth; "We welcome thee," they cry;

Their face with glory beameth— 'Tis life for them to die ! D31 The New Paradise. T O PARADISE eternal ! What bliss to enter thee, And, once within thy portals,

Secure for ever be!

In thee no sin nor sorrow, No pain nor death, is known;

But pure glad life, enduring As heaven's benignant throne.

2 There all around shall love us, And we return their love;

One band of happy spirits, One family above:

There God shall be our portion, And we his jewels be;

And gracing his bright mansions, His smile reflect and see.

3 So songs shall rise for ever, While all creation fair,

Still more and more revealéd, Shall wake fresh praises there:

O Paradise eternal! What joys in thee are known!

O God of mercy ! guide us, Till all be felt our own.

1032"Eye hath not seen." T. GIBBONS. Now LET our souls, on wings sublime, Rise from the vanities of time, Draw back the parting vail, and see The glories of eternity.

2 Born by a new celestial birth, Why should we grovel here on earth? Why grasp at transitory toys, So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Should aught beguile us on the road, When we are walking back to God? For strangers into life we come, And dving is but going home.

4 To dwell with God-to feel his love, Is the full heaven enjoyed above; And the sweet expectation now Is the young dawn of heaven below.

П,

RAY PALMER.

"A Rest." LORD, thou wilt bring the joyful day ! Beyond earth's weariness and pains,

Thou hast a mansion far away,

Where for thine own a rest remains.

2 No sun there climbs the morning sky, There never falls the shade of night; God and the Lamb, for ever nigh,

O'er all shed everlasting light.

3 The bow of mercy spans the throne. Emblem of love and goodness there;

While notes to mortals all unknown, Float on the calm celestial air.

4 Around that throne bright legions stand, Redeemed by blood from sin and hell; And shining forms, an angel band, The mighty chorus join to swell.

5 O Jesus, bring us to that rest, Where all the ransomed shall be found,

In thine eternal fullness blest, While ages roll their cycles round !

1034"Many mansions." RAY PALMER. THY Father's house ! thine own bright home ! And thou hast there a place for me! Though yet an exile here I roam, That distant home by faith I see.

2 I see its domes resplendent glow, Where beams of God's own glory fall;

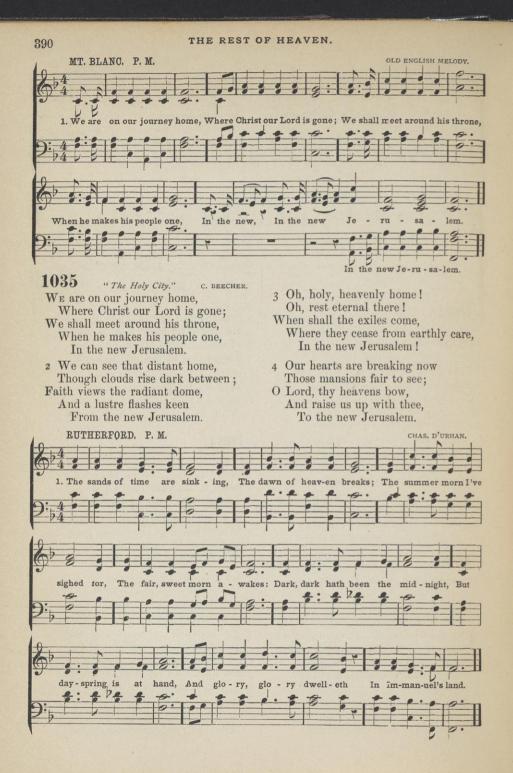

And trees of life immortal grow, Whose fruits o'erhang the sapphire wall.

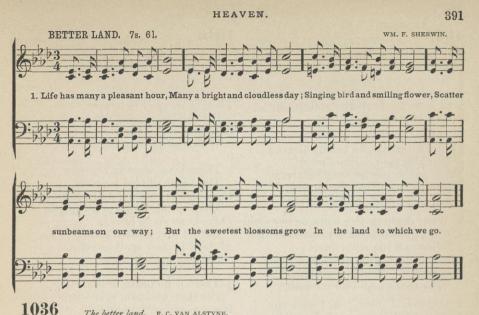

3 I know that thou, who on the tree Didst deign our mortal guilt to bear, Wilt bring thine own to dwell with thee, And waitest to receive me there !

4 Thy love will there array my soul In thine own robe of spotless hue: And I shall gaze, while ages roll, On thee, with raptures ever new !

5 Oh, welcome day ! when thou my feet Shalt bring the shining threshold o'er;

A Father's warm embrace to meet, And dwell at home for evermore !

2 Earth has many a cool retreat, Many a spot to memory dear;
Oft we find our weary feet Lingering by some fountain clear; Yet the purest waters flow In the land to which we go. 3 Like a cloud that floats away, Like the early morning dew, Here the fairest things decay;

There, are pleasures ever new. Only joy the heart will know In the land to which we go.

4 'T is the Christian's promised land; There is everlasting day;
There a Saviour's loving hand Wipes the mourner's tears away; Oh ! the rapture we shall know In the land to which we go.

1037 P. M. Immanuel's Land. A. R. COUSIN.

The sands of time are sinking, The dawn of heaven breaks, The summer morn I've sighed for, The fair sweet morn awakes: Dark, dark hath been the midnight, But day-spring is at hand, And glory, glory dwelleth In Immanuel's land.

2 Oh, Christ, he is the fountain, The deep sweet well of love; The streams of earth I've tasted, More deep I'll drink above. There to an ocean fullness His mercy doth expand, And glory, glory dwelleth In Immanuel's land.

3 The bride eyes not her garment, But her dear bridegroom's face;

I will not gaze at glory, But on my King of Grace—

Not at the crown he gifteth, But on his piercéd hand;— The Lamb is all the glory Of Immanuel's land.

THE REST OF HEAVEN.

1038 C. P. M. Celestial Praise. ANON. THY mighty working, mighty God ! Wakes all my powers; I look abroad,

And can no longer rest; I, too, must sing when all things sing, And from my heart the praises ring The Highest loveth best.

2 If thou, in thy great love to us, Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus

O'er this poor earth of ours ; What nobler glories shall be given Hereafter in thy shining heaven, Set round with golden towers !

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight Christ's garden beams in cloudless light

Where all the air is sweet ; Still laden with the unwearied hymn From all the thousand seraphim

Who God's high praise repeat !

4 Oh, were I there ! oh, that I now Before thy throne, my God, could bow,

And bear my heavenly palm ! Then, like the angels, would I raise My voice, and sing thine endless praise In many a sweet-toned psalm.

1039 L. M. "The Lamb is the Light." A. STEELE. 1041 C. M. OH, for a sweet, inspiring ray,

To animate our feeble strains,

From the bright realms of endless day-The blissful realms where Jesus reigns!

2 There, low before his glorious throne, Adoring saints and angels fall;

And, with delightful worship, own His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.

3 Immortal glories crown his head. While tuneful hallelujahs rise.

And love and joy, and triumph spread Through all the assemblies of the skies.

4 He smiles,—and seraphs tune their songs

To boundless rapture, while they gaze; Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues Resound his everlasting praise.

- 5 There all the followers of the Lamb Shall join at last the heavenly choir :
- Oh, may the joy-inspiring theme Awake our faith and warm desire!

1040 S. M. D. "No night there."

F. KNOLLIS.

THERE is no night in heaven ; In that blest world above

Work never can bring weariness, For work itself is love.

There is no grief in heaven : For life is one glad day,

And tears are of those former things Which all have passed away.

2 There is no want in heaven; The Lamb of God supplies

Life's tree of twelve-fold fruitage still, Life's spring which never dries.

There is no sin in heaven : Behold that blesséd throng !

All holy is their spotless robe, All holy is their song.

3 There is no death in heaven ; For they who gain that shore

Have won their immortality, And they can die no more.

There is no death in heaven : But when the Christian dies,

The angels wait his parted soul, And waft it to the skies !

The New Song. I. WATTS. EARTH has engrossed my love too long; "T is time I lift mine eves

Upward, dear Father, to thy throne, And to my native skies.

2 There the blest Man, my Saviour, sits; The God, how bright he shines !

And scatters infinite delights On all the happy minds.

3 Seraphs with elevated strains Circle the throne around;

And move, and charm the starry plains With an immortal sound.

4 Jesus, the Lord, their harps employs; Jesus, my love, they sing ;

Jesus, the life of both our joys, Sounds sweet from every string.

5 Now let me dwell on earth no more. But mount in haste above.

To bless the God that I adore, And sing the Man I love.

1042 75, 65, D. " A Holy City." ANON. THERE is a holv city. A happy world above, Beyond the starry regions, Built by the God of love; An everlasting temple-And saints arrayed in white, There serve their great Redeemer, And dwell with him in light. 2 The meanest child of glory Outshines the radiant sun ; But who can speak the splendor Of that eternal throne Where Jesus sits exalted. In god-like majesty? The elders fall before him, The angels bend the knee. 3 The hosts of saints around him Proclaim his work of grace; The patriarchs and prophets, And all the godly race, Who speak of fiery trials And tortures on their way-They came from tribulation To everlasting day. 4 And what shall be my journey, How long my stay below, Or what shall be my trials, Are not for me to know; In every day of trouble. I'll raise my thoughts on high; I'll think of the bright temple, And crowns above the sky. 1043 6s, D. The Rest remaineth. H. W. BAKER. All who wear Christ's lowly chain : And, his last award esteeming, Gladly share his cup of pain.

1045 P. M. "The Golden Shore."

Lo, the seal of death is breaking; Those who slept its sleep are waking, Heaven opes its portals fair ! Hark ! the harps of God are ringing,

Hark! the seraph's hymn is flinging Music on immortal air.

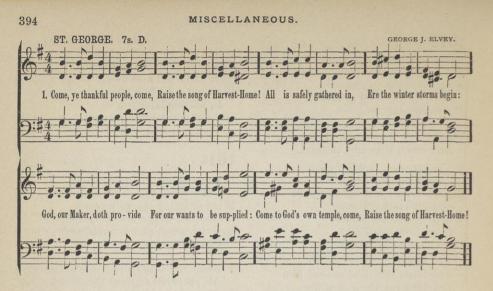

2 There, no more at eve declining, Suns without a cloud are shining O'er the land of life and love;
There the founts of life are flowing, Flowers unknown to time are blowing, In that radiant scene above.

Hearts will bleed or break no more ; Past is all the cold world's scorning, Gone the night and broke the morning Over all the golden shore !

1046Song for Harvest. H. ALFORD. COME, ye thankful people, come, Raise the song of Harvest Home ! All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin: God our Maker doth provide For our wants to be supplied: Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of Harvest Home!

2 We ourselves are God's own field, Fruit unto his praise to yield: Wheat and tares together sown, Unto joy or sorrow grown: First the blade, and then the ear. Then the full corn shall appear: Grant, O Harvest-Lord, that we Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come. And shall take his harvest home: From his field shall in that day All offences purge away: Give his angels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast: But the fruitful ears to store In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church Triumphant, come, Raise the song of Harvest Home! All are safely gathered in, Free from sorrow, free from sin:

There, for ever purified, In God's garner to abide: Come, ten thousand angels, come, Raise the glorious Harvest Home!

The close of the year. RAY PALMER. THOU who roll'st the year around, Crowned with mercies large and free, Rich thy gifts to us abound, Warm our praise shall rise to thee. Kindly to our worship bow, While our grateful thanks we tell, That, sustained by thee, we now Bid the parting year-farewell ! 2 All its numbered days are sped. All its busy scenes are o'er. All its joys for ever fled, All its sorrows felt no more. Mingled with the eternal past, Its remembrance shall decay: Yet to be revived at last At the solemn judgment-day. 3 All our follies, Lord, forgive ! Cleanse us from each guilty stain; Let thy grace within us live, That we spend not years in vain. Then, when life's last eve shall come. Happy spirits, may we fly

To our everlasting home,

To our Father's house on high!

- Through burning climes they pass unhurt, And breathe in tainted air.

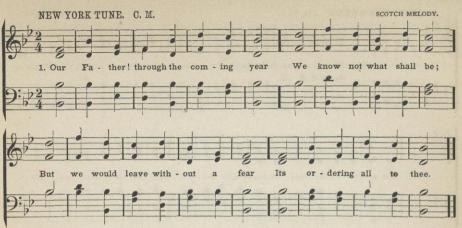

- 3 When by the dreadful tempest borne High on the broken wave,
- They know thou art not slow to hear. Nor impotent to save.
- 4 The storm is laid, the winds retire, Obedient to thy will:
- The sea, that roars at thy command. At thy command is still.
- 5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths, Thy goodness we'll adore:
- We'll praise thee for thy mercies past, And humbly hope for more.

1054New Year. ANON. Our Father! through the coming year We know not what shall be: But we would leave without a fear Its ordering all to thee.

- 2 It may be we shall toil in vain For what the world holds fair; And all the good we thought to gain Deceive and prove but care.
- 3 It may be it shall darkly blend Our love with anxious fears,

And snatch away the valued friend, The tried of many years.

4 It may be it shall bring us days And nights of lingering pain; And bid us take a farewell gaze Of these loved haunts of men.

5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest; No fears our trust shall move; Thou knowest what for each is best, And thou art Perfect Love.

Close of the Year. THEE we adore, eternal Name! And humbly own to thee How feeble is our mortal frame, What dying worms are we!

2 The year rolls round, and steals away The breath that first it gave;

Whate'er we do, where'er we be, We're traveling to the grave.

3 Great God! on what a slender thread Hang everlasting things! The eternal state of all the dead

Upon life's feeble strings!

- 4 Infinite joy, or endless woe, Attends on every breath:
- And yet, how unconcerned we go Upon the brink of death !
- 5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense, To walk this dangerous road !
- And if our souls are hurried hence. May they be found with God.

Close of the Year. P. DODDRIDGE. AWAKE, ye saints ! and raise your eyes,

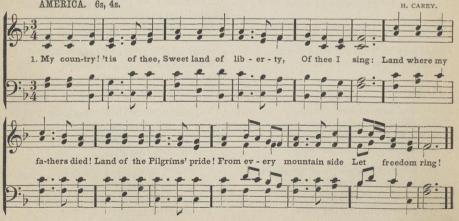

And raise your voices high:

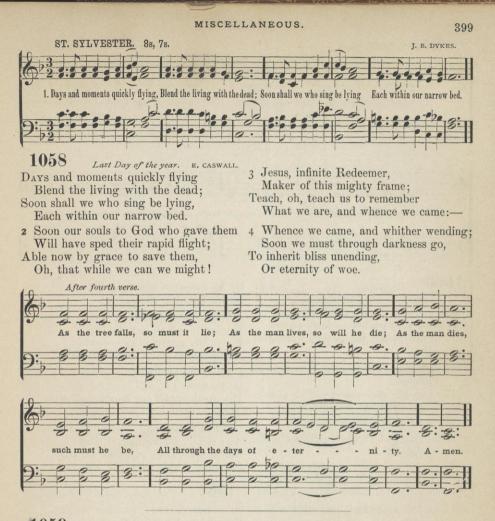

Awake, and praise the sovereign love, That shows salvation nigh.

2 Swift on the wings of time it flies, Each moment brings it near:

- Then welcome each declining day, Welcome each closing year.
- 3 Not many years their rounds shall run, Nor many mornings rise.
- Ere all its glories stand revealed, To our admiring eyes.
- 4 Ye wheels of nature ! speed your course; Ye mortal powers ! decay:
- Fast as ye bring the night of death, Ye bring eternal day.

1059 68, 48. National Song. S. F. SMITH. My country ! 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died ! Land of the Pilgrims' pride! From every mountain side Let freedom ring! 2 My native country, thee-Land of the noble, free— Thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills; My heart with rapture thrills Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze, And ring from all the trees Sweet freedom's song: Let mortal tongues awake; Let all that breathe partake; Let rocks their silence break,— The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God ! to thee, Author of liberty, To thee we sing: Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light; Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King !

1060 Forefathers' Day. L. BACON. O GOD, beneath thy guiding hand,

Our exiled fathers crossed the sea, And when they trod the wintry strand, With prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.

2 Thou heardst, well pleased, the song, the prayer—

Thy blessing came; and still its power Shall onward through all ages bear

The memory of that holy hour.

3 What change ! through pathless wilds no more

The fierce and naked savage roams: Sweet praise, along the cultured shore, Breaks from ten thousand happy homes.

4 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God Came with those exiles o'er the waves,

And where their pilgrim feet have trod, The God they trusted guards their graves.

5 And here thy name, O God of love, Their children's children shall adore, Till these eternal hills remove.

And spring adorns the earth no more.

1061 The New Year. P. DODDRIDGE. GREAT God! we sing that mighty hand By which supported still we stand; The opening year thy mercy shows; Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his incessant bounty fed, By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own; The future, all to us unknown, We to thy guardian care commit, And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed, Be thou our joy, and thou our rest; Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise, Adored through all our changing days.

5 When death shall interrupt our songs, And seal in silence mortal tongues, Our Helper, God, in whom we trust, In better worlds our souls shall boast.

1062 The New Year. P. DODDRIDGE. OUR Helper, God ! we bless thy name, Whose love forever is the same; The tokens of thy gracious care Open, and crown, and close the year.

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand, Supported by thy guardian hand; And see, when we review our ways, Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm has led me on; Thus far we make thy mercy known; And while we tread this desert land, New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls, on Jordan's shore, Shall raise one sacred pillar more; Then bear in thy bright courts above, Inscriptions of immortal love.

Life's Sea. ANON. JESUS, Saviour, pilot me, Over life's tempestuous sea; Unknown waves before me roll, Hiding rock and treacherous shoal; Chart and compass came from thee: Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

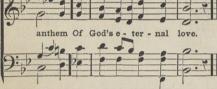

2 As a mother stills her child, Thou canst hush the ocean wild; Boisterous waves obey thy will When thou say'st to them "Be still!" Wondrous Sovereign of the sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

3 When at last I near the shore, And the fearful breakers roar "Twixt me and the peaceful rest, Then, while leaning on thy breast, May I hear thee say to me, "Fear not, I will pilot thee !"

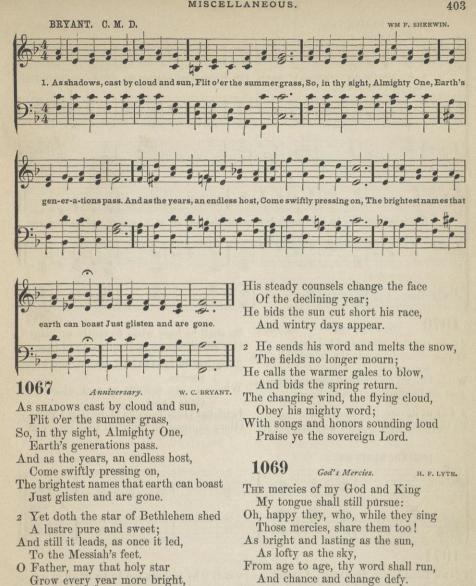

1065 Giving of thanks. W. F. SHERWIN. GRANDER than ocean's story, Or songs of forest trees— Purer than breath of morning, Or evening's gentle breeze— Clearer than mountain echoes Ring out from peaks above— Rolls on the glorious anthem Of God's eternal love. The truest friends bestow; Stronger than all the yearnings, A mother's heart can know; Deeper than earth's foundation's, And far above all thought; Broader than heaven's high arches— The love that Christ has brought. 3 Richer than all earth's treasure, The wealth my soul receives; Brighter than royal jewels, The crown that Jesus gives; Wondrous the condescension, And grace beyond degree 1 I would be ever singing The love of Christ to me.

INDEX OF FIRST LINES OF HYMNS.

HYMN,	HYMN.
A broken heart, my God, my King 474	Ascend thy throne, almighty King 910
A charge to keep I have	Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep
A few more years shall roll 948	Assembled at thy great command
A mighty fortress is our God 215	At evening time let there be light
A mother may forgetful be 759	At the Lamb's high feast we sing
A parting hymn we sing	At thy command, our dearest Lord
A pilgrim through this lonely world 263	Awake, and sing the song
Abba, Father, hear thy child 644	Awake, awake the sacred song
Abide with me! Fast falls the eventide 127	Awake, my heart, arise, my tongue 407
According to thy gracious word	Awake, my soul, and with the sun 48
Acquaint thyself quickly, O sinner 429	Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve
Again our earthly cares we leave 108	Awake, my soul, to joyful lays 404
Again returns the day of holy rest1070	Awake, our souls! away, our fears
Alas! and did my Saviour bleed 277	Awake, ye saints! and raise your eyes
Alas! what hourly dangers rise 494	Awaked by Sinai's awful sound 383
All hail the power of Jesus' name	Away from earth my spirit turns
All people that on earth do dwell	Awhile in spirit, Lord to thee
All praise to thee, eternal Lord 243	Cherness
Along my earthly way 722	Be merciful to me, O God 475
Along the mountain track of life 572	Be still, my heart! these anxious cares
Always with us, always with us 588	Be tranquil, O my soul
Am I a soldier of the cross	Before Jehovah's awful throne
Amazing grace! how sweet the sound 400	Before the heavens were spread abroad 244
And can it be that I should gain 689	Begin, my tongue, some heavenly theme 208
And canst thou, sinner! slight 417	Begone, unbelief, my Saviour is near 576
And dost thou say, "Ask what thou wilt ?" 76	Behold a Stranger at the door 421
And is the time approaching 893	Behold the day is come 979
And is there, Lord, a rest 996	Behold the glories of the Lamb
And will the Judge descend 980	Behold, the mountain of the Lord1028
Angels rejoiced and sweetly sung 239	Behold the throne of grace
Angels! roll the rock away 297	Behold the western evening light
Another six days' work is done 47	Behold what wondrous grace 693
Approach, my soul! the mercy-seat 515	Behold, where, in a mortal form 262
Arise, my soul, arise 405	Beneath our feet and o'er our head 938
Arise, O King of grace, arise	Beyond, beyond the boundless sea 227
Arise, ye saints, arise 551	Beyond the smiling and the weeping 992
Arm of the Lord! awake, awake 904	Beyond the starry skies
Art thou weary, art thou languid 569	Bless, O my soul, the living God 41
As oft with worn and weary feet 590	Blesséd are the sons of God
As pants the hart for cooling streams 473	Blesséd are the dead who die in1085
As shadows, cast by cloud and sun1067	Blesséd Comforter, come down
As when in silence vernal showers	Blesséd Fountain, full of grace
As with gladness men of old 63	Blesséd Salem, long expected1044

HYMN.
I bless thee, Lord, for sorrows sent
I build on this foundation1003
I cannot always trace the way
I did thee wrong, my God 748
I feed by faith on Christ; my Bread 849
I have a home above
I hear the Saviour say 410
I hear the words of love
I hear thy welcome voice
I heard a voice, the sweetest voice
I heard the voice of Jesus say
I know no life divided1002
I know that my Redeemer lives
I lay my sins on Jesus 463
I love thy kingdom, Lord 35
I love to steal awhile away 65
I love to tell the story 414
I'll praise my Maker with my breath 90
I'll speak the honors of my King 341
I'm a pilgrim, and I 'm a stranger
I'm but a stranger here
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord 541
I need thee every hour 484
I need thee, O my God
I saw One hanging on a tree
I saw the cross of Jesus
I sing the almighty power of God 205
I stand on Zion's mount
I was glad when they said unto me1078
I would not live alway; I ask not to
If God is mine, then present things
If human kindness meets return
If life in sorrow must be spent
If on our daily course our mind 662
If, through unruffled seas
If you cannot on the ocean
In all my vast concerns with thee 200
In every trying hour
In heavenly love abiding 556
In the cross of Christ I glory 300
In the dark and cloudy day 718
In thy name, O Lord, assembling 57
In time of fear, when trouble's near 536
In time of tribulation 580
In vain we seek for peace with God 386
Infinite Love! what precious stores

	Like Noah's weary dove
	Like sheep we went astray
	Like the eagle, upward, onward
309	Lo, God is here! - let us adore 110
510	Lo! he comes with clouds descending 986
393	Lo! on a narrow neck of land
302	Lo! the mighty God appearing
612	Lo, the seal of death is breaking
	Lo! what a glorious sight appears
	Look from thy sphere of endless day 923
	Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious
504	Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee 266
459	Lord, at this closing hour 124
294	Lord, at thy feet we sinners lie

Our Father! through the coming year1054
Our God, our Help in ages past 964
Our heavenly Father calls
Our helper God we bless thy name
Our Lord is risen from the dead 339
Our Lord is risen from the dead
Pass me not, O gentle Saviour 446
Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan 704
Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
"Perfect in love!" Lord, can it be 512
Planted in Christ, the living vine
Plunged in a guil of dark despair
Praise God, from whom all blessings
Praise, Lord, for thee in Zion waits
Praise the Lord, who reigns above 106
Praise to God, immortal praise
Praise to thee, thou great Creator 104
Praise ye the Lord; exalt his name 42
Praise ye the Lord; my heart shall join
Preise weits in Zion Lord! for thee
Prayer is the breath of God in man
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire
Prepare us. Lord, to view thy cross 860
Prostrate, dear Jesus, at thy feet
Purer yet, and purer 581
Quiet, Lord, my froward heart 642
Rejoice in God alway 653
Retoice, retoice, believers
Rejoice! the Lord is king 299
Rejoice to-day with one accord
Return, my roving heart, return
Return, O wanderer, to thy home 419
Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise.322Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings.939Rise, O my soul, pursue the path.535
Rise, O my soul, nursue the nath
Rock of Ages, cleft for me
Roll on, thou mighty ocean
Safely through another week 13
Salvation is for ever nigh 696
Salvation!

TURN THE

Нуми.	Нумя.
Sing to the Lord, our Might	The mistakes of my life are many 447
Sing we the song of those who stand 23	The morning light is breaking
Sinners, turn, why will ye die 425	The peace which God alone reveals
Sinners, will you scorn the message 433	The people of the Lord
So fades the lovely, blooming flower	The perfect world, by Adam trod
So let our lips and lives express	The promises I sing
Softly fades the twilight ray	The roseate hues of early dawn
Softly now the light of day	The sands of time are sinking1037
Soldiers of Christ, arise	The Saviour bids thee watch and pray
Son of God, to thee I cry	The Saviour kindly calls
Songs of praise the angels sang	The Saviour! oh, what endless charms
Soon may the last glad song arise	The Son of God goes forth to war
Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come1025	The spacious firmament on high
Soul, then know thy full salvation	The Spirit breathes upon the word
Sovereign of worlds! display thy power
Sow in the morn thy seed	The starry firmament on high
Speak to me, Lord, thyself reveal	The swift declining day
Stand up and bless the Lord 156	The voice of free grace cries, Escape
Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears 524	Thee we adore, eternal Name
Stand up!-Stand up for Jesus	Thee will I love, my Strength, my Tower 591 There is a blesséd home
Still, still with thee, my God 120	There is a book that all may read
Strait is the way, the door is strait	There is a fountain filled with blood
Sun of my soul! thou Saviour dear	There is a holy city
Sure the blest Comforter is nigh	There is a house not made with hands
Surely Christ thy griefs hath borne	There is a land immortal
Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer 73	There is a land of pure delight
Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve 140	There is a safe and secret place
Sweet is the memory of thy grace 107	There is an hour of hallowed peace
Sweet is the work, my God, my King 43	There is an hour of peaceful rest1013
Sweet is the work, O Lord	There is an hour when I must part
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go 149	There is no night in heaven
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing	There were ninety and nine that safely 403
Sweet the time, exceeding sweet 50	There's a wideness in God's mercy 214
Sweet was the time when first I felt 496	They who seek the throne of grace
Sweeter sounds than music knows 628	Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love 44
Swell the anthem, raise the song1049	Thine for ever! God of love
	Thine holy day's returning 17
Take me, O my Father, take me! 460	Think gently of the erring one 800
Take my heart, O Father, take it	This child we dedicate to thee 813
"Take up thy cross," the Saviour said	This is not my place of resting1015
Tarry with me, O my Saviour 747	This is the day the Lord hath made 19
Tell me the old, old story	This place is holy ground
Ten thousand times ten thousand	Thou art gone to the grave! but we will 934
Tender Shepherd, thou hast stilled	Thou art gone up on high 319
Thank and praise Jehovah's name 100	Thou art my hiding-place, O Lord
That awful day will surely come	Thou art the way; to Thee alone 265
The church has waited long	Thou, from whom we never part 152
The church's one foundation	Thou lovely Source of true delight 164
The day is past and gone, Great God. 122	Thou, O Lord, in tender love
The day is past and gone, The evening 123	Thou only Sovereign of my heart
The day, O Lord, is spent	Thou very present Aid
The day of praise is done	Thou who art enthroned above 103
The day of rest once more comes round	Thou who didst on Calvary bleed 293
The day of wrath! that dreadful day	Thou who roll'st the year around1047
The God of Abraham praise	Thou! whose almighty word 369
The golden gates are lifted up	Though faint, yet pursuing, we go 565
The harvest dawn is near	Though I speak with angel tongues
The head that once was crowned with thorns 328	Though now the nations sit beneath 905
The heavens declare his glory	Though sorrows rise and dangers roll
The heavens declare thy glory, Lord 158	Though troubles assail, and dangers
The King of saints,-how fair his face	Through all the changing scenes of life
The Lord descended from above	Through every age, eternal God
The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not	Through the love of God our Saviour
The Lord is my Shepherd, no want 564	Thus far the Lord has led me on 116
"The Lord is risen indeed"	Thy Father's house! thine own bright
The Lord my pasture shall prepare	Thy home is with the humble Lord 480
The Lord my Shepherd is	Thy mighty working, mighty God
The Lord of glory is my light 91	Thy way, not mine, O Lord
The Lord, our God, is full of might	Thy way, O Lord, is in the sea 206
The Lord shall come! the earth shall 984	Thy will be done! I will not fear
The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want 602	Thy will be done! in devious way
The mercies of my God and King1069	"Till he come:" oh, let the words 873

INDEX OF FIRST LINES OF HYMNS.

HYMN.
Time is winging us away 940
Time, thou speedest on but slowly1018
'Tis a point I long to know 499
'Tis by the faith of joys to come 661
"'Tis finished!"-so the Saviour cried
'Tis God the Spirit leads 365
'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow 273
'Tis my happiness below
'Tis not a cause of small import 761
'Tis not that I did choose thee 178
To God the Father, God the Son
To God the only wise
To Jesus, our exalted Lord
To our Redeemer's glorious name
To thee, my God and Saviour
To thee, O God, we raise
To thy pastures fair and large 4
To thy temple we repair
To us a Child of hope is born
Together with these symbols, Lord
Traveling to the better land
Triumphant, Lord, thy goodness reigns 228
Triumphant, Loru, thy goodness reighs
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head
'Twas on that dark, that doleful night 845
'Twas the day when God's Anointed
I was the day when dou's Anomicut
Unshaken as the sacred hill 571
Unvail thy bosom, faithful tomb
Upon the gospel's sacred page 163
Upon the gospel's sacred page
Vain are the hopes the sons of men 388
Vain, delusive world, adieu 479
Vainly through night's weary hours 791
Vital spark of heavenly flame 967
Wait, my soul, upon the Lord 584
Wait, O my soul! thy Maker's will 182
Wake, O my soul, and hail the morn 255
Wake! the welcome day appeareth
Walk in the light! so shalt thou know
We are on our journey home
We are watching we are waiting 787
We are watching, we are waiting
We bless thee for thy peace, O God
We come, O God, before thy throne1053
We give immortal praise
We give immortal praise.230We give thee but thine own.780
We may not climb the heavenly steeps 271
We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge1074
We shall see Him, in our nature 304
We stand in deep repentance 465
We would see Jesus - for the shadows
Weary, Lord, of struggling here weeping will not save me 430
Welcome, delightful morn 10
Welcome, sweet day of rest 30
What a Friend we have in Jesus 567
What cheering words are these
What equal honors shall we bring
What finite power, with ceaseless toil
What is life? Itis but a wares
What is life ? 'tis but a vapor

What shall I render to my God 186 What sinners value I resign 955 What various hindrances we meet..... 77 When adverse winds and waves arise 706 When all thy mercies, O my God 187 When along life's thorny road 717 When, as returns this solemn day 53 When gathering clouds around I view 708 When God, of old, came down from heaven 370 When human hopes all wither 886 When I can read my title clear 682 When I survey the wondrous cross...... 275 When I view my Saviour bleeding 283 When Jesus dwelt in mortal clay 807 When languor and disease invade...... 711 When, like a stranger on our sphere 259 When, marshaled on the nightly plain 241 When musing sorrow weeps the past 714 When my last hour is close at hand 977 When on Sinai's top I see...... 835 When, overwhelmed with grief...... 699 When our heads are bowed with woe...... 716 When, rising from the bed of death 988 When sins and fears, prevailing, rise 527 When streaming from the eastern skies..... 0 When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come 957 When waves of trouble round me swell 715 Where high the heavenly temple stands...... 75 Where the woodman's axe is ringing 899 Where two or three, with sweet accord...... 59 While in sweet communion feeding...... 865 While my Redeemer's near 578 While shepherds watched their flocks 238 While thee I seek, protecting Power 185 While we lowly bow before thee 153 While, with ceaseless course, the sun...... ... 1048 Who are these in bright array 999 Who is this that comes from Edom...... 310 Who shall the Lord's elect condemn...... 679 Why do we mourn departing friends 953 Why is thy faith, O child of God1083 Why on the bending willows hung 922 Why should our tears in sorrow flow 970 Why should the children of a King 359 Why should we start, and fear to die 941 Why will ye waste on trifling cares 423 With all my powers of heart and tongue...... 233 With broken heart and contrite sigh 456 With deepest reverence at thy throne..... 180 With heavenly power, O Lord, defend 768 With joy we hail the sacred day 24 With tearful eyes I look around 508 Work, for the night is coming 783 Work while it is to-day 779 Would you win a soul to God 443 Ye angels! who stand round the throne 625 Ye messengers of Christ..... 775 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim 97 Your harps, ye trembling saints..... 553 Zion! awake, thy strength renew...... 906 and they sung a new song saying with a loud voire,

Aorthy is the Kamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.

And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying,

Blessing, and honor, and glorg, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.
