NEW AND BEAUTIFUL SONGS

RECENTLY PUBLISHED BY

S. BRAINARD & CO.,

203 SUPERIOR STREET, CLEVELAND, O.

MOTHER WAITING FOR THE NEWS.

Poetry by Mrs. SARA WOLVERTON; Music by HENRY CASTLE.

PRICE, 25 cents.

"Mother waiting for the news
From the dark red battle-ground,
Hear you not the host of angels
Fondly circling you around?
Bearing up amidst the fearing
Lighting Hope's enduring star,
Leaving strength of God's own giving,
Where the waiting Mothers are."

A beautiful new song and chorus fully equal to the popular song, "When this cruel war is over."

OH! I WISH THE WAR WERE OVER.

Words by JOHN K. HOLMES; Music by CHAS. MANVERS.

PRICE, 25 cents.

"Oh! I wish the war were over,
And my lover would return,
For this weary, lonesome waiting
Is a lesson hard to learn.
I have words wherewith to greet him,
Words of welcome every one;
And I know he'd smile to hear them,
Would he only, only come."

Those desirous of a really beautiful song, will not be disappointed in this one.

DOWN BY THE RIVER SIDE.

Words by GEO. P. MORRIS; Music by H. T. KNAKE.

PRICE, 35 cents.

"Down by the river side I stray,
As twilight shadows close,
And the soft music of the spray,
Lulls nature to repose."

An excellent ballad, one we can safely and cheerfully recommend to the lovers of song.

THE SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

Words by Mrs. JOHN C. WINANS; Music by H. T. KNAKE.

PRICE, 30 cents.

"I may not kiss your brow again,
I may not fold you here,
Nor never more gaze fondly o'er
The boy I love so dear."

EVANGELINE.

Song and chorus. Written and composed by WILL S. HAYS.

PRICE, 35 cents.

"Sweet Evangeline, my lost Evangeline,
We have lived and loved each other fond and true.
Ever true to thee, tho' far away I've been,
My heart has ever dwelt with you.
But Oh! those happy days will ne'er return,
Those happy days that we have seen,
For I am left to weep alone, my sweet Evangeline."

This charming song has already reached its fortieth thousand and the demand is no way abated. It is also arranged for Guitar. Price, 25 cents. Handsomely illustrated.

WILL MY BROTHER COME AGAIN: OR, MOTHER IS THE BATTLE OVER?

By BENEDICT ROEFFS.

PRICE, 25 cents.

"Mother is the battle over? Mother is the battle o'er?
Thousands, thousands have been killed they say.
Is my Brother coming? tell me
Has our army gained the day?"

An excellent and popular ballad.

DO YOU THINK OF THE DAYS THAT ARE GONE, JENNIE?

Written and composed by H. D. L. WEBSTER.

PRICE, 25 cents.

"Do you think of the days that are gone, Jennie?
As you sit by your fire at night,
Do you wish that the morn would bring back the time,
When your heart and step were so light." &c.

A beautiful ballad which cannot fail to become popular. Both words and music are very fine.

YOUR MISSION.

Song by S. M. GRANNIS, author of "Do they miss me at Home," "Strike for the right," &c.

PRICE, 25 cents.

"If you cannot on the ocean,
Sail among the swiftest fleet,
Rocking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storms you meet,
You can stand among the sailors
Anchored yet within the bay,
You can lend a hand to help them,
As they launch their boats away."

Our publications can be had in all the Music Stores in the country. Should they not have the Pieces required, write directly to us, and we will cheerfully send the music post-paid upon the receipt of the marked price.

TEACHERS will find it to their advantage to send their orders to us, for to this department of our business especial attention is given.
