EXHIBITS FACE LIMITATION OF FLOOR CAPACITY

Arrangement of Exhibits For University Exposition Displayed on Blue Prints

"The most interesting as well as the most embarrassing problem connected with the university exposition so far has been the demands of the 80 supervisors of the exhibits for twice as much floor space as they can have," was the comment of Fred Gustorf '25, assistant general chairman of the exposition, yesterday.

"Space for the exhibits is limited to the gym floor of the armory, the annex and a certain amount of space in the locker room and the swimming tank. Naturally, each of the 86 exhibits can have only a limited amount of space," Gustorf said.

Faculty Directs Exhibits

Supervisors for the exhibits have been chosen from the faculty or from students appointed by the faculty members. Work of assigning the exhibits has been going on for some time in the exposition offices located in the Old Clinic building.

Blue prints have been sent to all supervisors, one showing the entire floor plan, two copies of another showing the plan of the particular exhibit. One of these is returned to the chairman showing the arrangements of fixtures, lighting arrangements and other details that will be necessary for the exhibit. The other copy the supervisor keeps.

Four Department Heads

The exhibits have been arranged under four general heads with a chairman for each. Thane Blackman '26 is in charge of that for the College of Letters and Science, Wenzel Fabera '25, for the College of Engineering; William Zaunmeyer '25, for the College of Agriculture, and Lloyd Gladfelter '26, for special schools and departments.

The chairmen are in their offices in the Clinic building almost every afternoon. Fred Gustorf will be there every afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock to talk over and help supervisors with the problems they have encountered in the planning of their exhibits.

FRESHMEN WOMEN ARE GUESTS OF CASTALIA

Castalia Literary society will hold its first meeting of the semester tonight. It will be open to all university women. All freshman women interested in organizing a literary society are urged to be present at this meeting.

The details of the new organization will be explained by the president, Alberta Johnson '26 and Dean A. F. Miller will give an address on the possibilities of literary societies. Castalia has invited its patroness, Mrs. John Donald, Miss White, Miss McCahey, Miss Eastman and Miss Miller to be present.

Y. M. C. A. GROUPS PLAN CONVOCATION

March 27, 28, and 29 Designated For Annual Campus Religious Conference

March 27, 28 and 29 have been set as the dates for the annual religious conference, conducted by the Y. M. C. A.

Arrangements are already afoot for this year's meeting. At a joint meeting of freshman and junior councils yesterday at the association building, plans were discussed whereby the Y. M. C. A. and other campus groups would be brought into cooperation with the Y. M. C. A. in undertaking the religious conference.

Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick of New York city, recently brought into prominence by his defense of modernism in the church, is the speaker for the occasion.

The Kegonsa social conference, which takes place in May also received the attention of freshman and junior Y. M. C. A. groups.

Outing Club Pins Awarded to Four; Elect Five Women

Four members of Outing club were given pins and five new members were taken in at the first meeting of the second semester, last night.

Those given pins are: Amy Barstad '26, Elizabeth Kuenzli '27, Harriet Liggett '26, and Venus Walker '25. Irma Schroeder '25, Grace Baird '25, Hazel Hyer '25, Grace Goldsmith '25, and Halcyon Lallier '26, are the new members.

The club is planning a skating party to be given Tuesday night at Camp Randall. Refreshments will be served during the evening at the field house. The party is not restricted to members and all those wishing to go should sign up beforehand at Lathrop hall.

If the weather interferes with these plans, the club will give a party at Lathrop hall or take a hike with a picnic supper on the drive. Mildred Hanson '25 was appointed chairman of arrangements.

SOPH DEBATE IS SET FOR MARCH 6

Question Regards Manufacture of Light Alcoholic Liquors By Legislation

"Resolved, that the manufacture of light wines and beers should be permitted by legislation," is the subject of the annual sophomore semi-public debate, which will be held on March 6, under the direction of the Forensic board.

The affirmative side of each team debates in its own room, while the negative meets its opponents in the latter's room. This year Philomathia's affirmative team debates against Hesperia's negative, Athenae's affirmative against Philomathia's negative, and Hesperia's affirmative against Athenae's negative.

The closers for Philomathia are Robert MacArthur, Gary, Indiana; and William Kahr, Manitowoc; for Athenae, Leo Diamond, Gary, and John Kyle, Whitewater; for Hesperia, Meyer Cohen, Green Bay, and Gustav Winters, Antigo.

Each debate is decided by its own judges, and the points are figured on the aggregate in order to determine the winning society.

UNION BOARD DANCES BEGIN AGAIN FRIDAY

The Union board dances at Lathrop hall, which ran all last semester, will begin again this Friday night to continue throughout the rest of the year, according to Norton V. Smith '25, in charge of the Union board dances. Lathrop parlors have been completely redecorated. The cafeteria and grill room service also has been improved.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO HOLD TEA DANCE

A tea and dancing party will be given by the Girls' Glee club from 2 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Sigma Alpha Iota house, 148 Breese Terrace, for the purpose of getting the new and the old members better acquainted. The club which is under the direction of Dr. C. H. Mills of the School of Music, has started plans for a spring concert trip.

Co-eds Crave Dainty Bonbons Rather Than Lacy Valentines

The swains of the world may hesitate as to whether to send a comic or a sentimental valentine to the ladies of their respective choices but there seems to be no hesitation among the campus sheiks as to what is appropriate for a co-ed.

Everyone knows that figures do not lie so who can dispute when statistics prove that 18 out of 20 men prefer to send a box of candy rather than a bit of painted pasteboard with a sweet sentiment on it. Candy will not be a lasting remembrance but neither will the traditional valentine if the young lady should, in a fit of anger, cause it to repose in the furnace.

Women Scribes Plan Issue of "Varsity Vogue" Style Oracle

Theta Sigma Phi Special Edition Will Detail Fashion's Decrees

Varsity Vogue, a Wisconsin oracle of spring fashions for students, will appear on the campus early in March, sponsored by members of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalistic sorority.

A 16-page paper, modeled after the Cardinal, Varsity Vogue will be devoted exclusively to news, features, personals, and advertisements pertaining to spring fashions of interest to students, both men and women. Style notes are being gleaned from all the big fashion centers, and the local merchants are cooperating by giving advance information about their spring stock.

Every detail in the publication of the paper, with the exception of the actual printing, will be handled by the members of the sorority. Helen J. Baldauf '25 was appointed editor of the Vogue at an organization meeting last night.

Other staff members are Dorothy Zimmerman '25, business manager; Alice Drews '26, and Alice Bruns '25, advertising managers; Ruth Martin '25, news; Mary Elizabeth Hussong '25, features; Irene Norman '25, personals; Adeline Pepper '25 and Kathryn Shattuck '25, desk editors.

Friday, February 20, 7:45 o'clock, author's readings of the translations of the old English Beowulf verse, by Prof. William Ellery Leonard, English department.

Music School Aids In Entertainment of Wisconsin Teachers

Both students and faculty of the School of Music will entertain visiting teachers at the sessions of the Southern Wisconsin Teachers' association here, today and tomorrow. On the program this evening at the Central high school auditorium are Dr. Mill's glee club and talks by Miss A. M. Borge and Prof. E. B. Gordon of the School of Music. At a meeting in Central auditorium this morning, Helen Maclean, pianist, and Helen Patterson, vocal soloist, will entertain. Tomorrow morning, at the same place, Miss Ruth Patterson will play the violin and Miss Kathrine Reed will sing.

Junior Prom Has Deficit Due to Poor Attendance

A deficit, the exact amount of which has not yet been determined, was revealed by the official auditing the books of the junior Prom, which is being carried on under the guidance of Dean Scott H. Goodnight.

According to Dean Goodnight, the deficit is due to a great falling off in attendance this year, from a record mark of 900 couples last year, ticket sales indicate a drop to about 500 couples this year.

The deficit will have to be made up by the junior class, but the method to be employed has not yet been set. An assessment is likely. The exact amount of the deficit will not be determined until the auditing, which is now in progress, is completed.

KAISER TO HANDLE STOCK SHOW FUNDS

Wisconsin International Provides Financial Aid For Stock Judging

All receipts and expenditures of the Wisconsin International, including $1,000 in prizes and awards, will be handled by J. G. Kaiser '25, finance chairman of the stock show.

"The Wisconsin International is primarily held as an educational and entertaining event, but it also serves to provide funds for members of stock judging teams in the fall of the year," explained Kaiser. "The Saddle and Siroloin club has established a perpetual fund for the purpose, and all money secured above show expenses is deposited with the faculty."

Every committee chairman of the exposition must turn over all receipts and bills to the finance chairman and after the show a careful survey is made.

DR. HART'S LECTURE IS POSTPONED TO MONDAY

Dr. Joseph K. Hart, lecturer in the new school of social research, will speak on "The Discovery of Intelligence" in 165 Bascom hall, Monday, instead of yesterday as was first announced. The lecture, given under the auspices of the department of education, deals with the phases of education and educational ideas, particularly in a historical manner.

BETAS FIND NEW HOME ON LANGDON STREET

The Beta chapter moved into the O'Shea home at 140 Langdon street, yesterday. They will occupy this house until the end of the school year.

No attempt will be made to repair the structure which was destroyed by fire on February 10, but an entirely new home will be built on the old site, according to J. H. Coe, president of the First National bank, and an active alumnus of the Wisconsin chapter.

PHI PT'S HOLD TEA IN HONOR OF CHAPERON

Phi Omega Pi sorority gave a tea in honor of the chaperon, Mrs. F. C. Conover, in the chapter house, 629 North Frances, from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. The guests were chaperones and one senior from the campus sororities.

Phi Omega Pi will give a tea for patronesses and for the members of the Past Worthy Matrons' club of the Eastern Star at the chapter house from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

"TWO GEORGES" TO ADDRESS MEN AT MASSMEETING

Haight, Alumni President, and Little, Speak in Gym Feb. 18

A huge Union massmeeting of all the men in the university, at which "the two Georges", who recently have stepped into prominent university positions, will be introduced as speakers, will be held next Wednesday evening, February 18, at 7 o'clock in the men's gymnasium.

The first of "the two Georges" will be George I. Haight, who last fall was elected president of the Wisconsin Alumni association, and who is being brought here from Chicago by the Wisconsin union especially for this massmeeting.

"The Two Georges" To Speak

The fact that George Little, newly appointed athletic director, will be in Madison on that date, affords an opportunity to introduce him to the men students of the university and he will be the second "George" on the program. This meeting is expected to take the form of an official welcome to Director Little on the part of the student body.

Meeting Only For Men

A special committee consisting principally of upperclassmen, is working on the details of the massmeeting. Because of the nature of the meeting and the limitations of the armory, the meeting will be exclusively a men's affair.

Mr. Haight is a graduate of the university, class of 99, and was president of his class. He is engaged in legal practice in Chicago, and has a national reputation as a barrister. He always has maintained a keen interest in all affairs connected with the campus, and after his election to the presidency of the Alumni association, he energetically started a campaign to strengthen that organization and bring it into closer contact with the needs and problems of the university.

Haight Here Before

He was responsible for the book setting forth the achievements and present needs of the university recently published by the alumni association.

Mr. Haight recently addressed the local Kiwanis club and was enthusiastically received by the business men. He is an able orator and several students who were present immediately started to lay plans to bring him to the campus for a general convocation.

Director Little has been in Madison twice since his appointment, but as yet has had no opportunity to meet the entire student body. He intimated a desire for such an opportunity on the occasion of his first visit, and it is understood that he will briefly outline his program for the coming year and will make clear the policies in regard to athletics at the massmeeting Wednesday night.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB DEPARTS ON TOUR

Four Appearances Scheduled For Wisconsin Towns; Advance Sales Heavy

The Men's Glee club leaves at noon today on the first lap of its first concert tour of the year. The club will sing at the Washington high school in Milwaukee tonight.

The night will be spent in Milwaukee. This does not mean that members will see much of the city, for according to Professor Swinney, the doors of the club's private car will be locked at 11 o'clock, and all the men must be in before that time.

The club will go to Sheboygan tomorrow, to Manitowoc, Sunday, and will return for a concert at South Milwaukee, Monday night. According to advance reports from Milwaukee and Sheboygan, capacity crowds will hear the concerts in both these cities.

Twenty-four men of the concert club, with Professor Swinney, R. C. Nethercut, pianist, and J. H. Murphy, business manager, will make the trip.

Daily Reports of Badger Teams

CARDINAL SPORTS Athletics in the Collegiate World

CHANCES FOR WIN OVER WOLVERINE SPLASHERS POOR

Sampson, of Michigan, Strong in Three Events; Sure Point Winner

With his squad narrowed to one-half its original size by ineligibility Coach Joe Steinauer's chances for a victory over the Michigan swim team here tomorrow night look rather slim, especially in view of the fact that the Wolverine splashes, in their last conference meet, overwhelmingly defeated Chicago 43 to 25.

Sampson, Michigan football man, high, is the star of the team which is traveling to Madison tonight with high hopes and good chances for a victory. In the meet with Chicago Gow took first in the 40 yard swim. His time for the 40 was better than the Badger star, Herschberger, has officially made this season. Herschberger and Sampson look about equal in the 100.

Relay Team Good

Wisconsin's undefeated relay team has been making slightly better time this season than the Michigan team, but this event will be very closely contested, as the comparative times of the two teams do not vary by more than a fraction of a second.

Sampson will unquestionably win the 200 yard free style. His time in this event against Chicago was 2:38 2-5, and it is not probable that any of the Wisconsin men can come within striking distance of him in this race.

It is quite possible that Kerr of Michigan may beat out Gilbreath of Wisconsin in the 150 yard back stroke. Michigan is weak in the plunge and comparatively so in diving.

Team Not Picked.

Coach Steinauer has not definitely picked the men who will swim on the varsity tomorrow night. The relay team at this time holds the names of Hipple, Radcliffe, Gilbreath, Herschberger and Flueck. Two divers will be chosen from Hall, Simpkins, and Wheatley. Herschberger, Gilbreath, and Flueck are the 40-yard dash men on the slate at the present, while Bardeen, Abendroth, and Hotten are the men working on the breast stroke.

After the meet there will be the usual exhibition water basketball game. The majority of the Wisconsin swimmers are sophomores and inexperienced men, and their showing against the more experienced Wolverines is apt to be temporarily discouraging.

Two Drivers Pay Fines For Forgetting Lights

A. L. Huegel and H. E. Hefty were fined $5 and costs each Thursday in superior court when they pleaded guilty to parking unlighted automobiles after 11 o'clock at night.

Cage Jottings

Iowa has a good team, but not a marvelous one. Laude, Janse, Van Dusen, Raffensberger, and McConnell form a powerful quintet, but seem to lose due to breaks.

If comparative scores count for anything, the Hawkeyes should win easily from us. Minnesota defeated Wisconsin, Northwestern won from Minnesota and Iowa ran over Northwestern by a 35 to 20 score last Saturday night. 'Nuff said.

Every team in the conference but Wisconsin and Northwestern play tomorrow night. Chicago at Illinois; Minnesota at Ohio, Indiana at Michigan, Iowa at Purdue are the games scheduled.

It looks like the Minnesota-Ohio fracas should be the evening's classic. The Chicago-Illinois game should be interesting. I'll guess the winners tomorrow, but the season has been so hectic so far that guesses don't go so well.

Doc Meanwell was right the other night when he told the students to stop the booing of referee's decisions. We can't always expect to win, and as Doc said, let's make it as easy as possible for the boys to win, and cut out the booing.

Don't forget.... "Send the Hawkeyes back to the tall corn with a thrashing."

CAGERS POINT TO HAWKEYE BATTLE

Meanwell Works on New Offensive to Replace Hole Left By Wackman

The Wisconsin team, crippled by the loss of its two best offense men and with only a week in which to put itself in shape, lost an easy game to the fast "wonder five" from Franklin.

Coach Meanwell used every possible combination in a vain effort to secure the victory. The starting lineup was the most effective, but failed to last for any length of time. This combination ought to give any of the conference teams trouble after more practice together. The two forwards were not accustomed to playing together and thus the passing of the two offense men was a bit ragged.

After drilling Wackman as a forward, Meanwell is now faced with the problem of forming a new pair, for both Wackman and Martell are out of the game. With only a week in which to drill this new set of offense men a strong attack could not be developed. The team does not see action for the rest of this week, and it is certain that the Iowa team will face a new and hard attack in the game here next Monday.

The spirit of the team was most commendable. Although it has 1st four conference games and has a dark outlook for the rest of the conference season with their two best offense men lost, yet they played

Badger Grapplers Ready For Match Against Carleton

With elimination contests for the different divisions over last night, Coach Hitchcock has almost decided on the lineup for the match with the Carleton wrestlers at Northfield, Minnesota, Saturday night.

Elmer Hanson won from Quentin Meenswen and Randall Elmer in the practice matches this week and will make the trip to Carleton as bantamweight wrestler. Hanson had some conference experience last year until an injury forced him out.

Either William Bundy or Ivan Phelps will be the 125-pound representative. William O'Laughlen has his first competition with the Cardinal squad Saturday. Captain Lisle Zodtner will wrestle in the 145-pound class. Harvey Chada in the 158-pound division, William Solees in the light-heavyweight and Raymond Stipek in the heavyweight division.

JEWISH STUDENTS

Orthodox services will be held at 5:30 o'clock Friday evening in Hillel foundation.

hard from the opening whistle till the shot of the final gun.

The rest of this week will be spent in grooming the team into shape for the important contest with Iowa on February 16.

Today's Intramural News

Interfraternity Wrestling

Interfraternity wrestling, which has gained great popularity and success at Michigan and Ohio, is to be promoted at Wisconsin. Arrangements have been made which provide for very good facilities for this new addition to intramural sports.

Saturday afternoons and Monday afternoons have been scheduled for practice periods. The mat will then be open to the Greek grapplers who wish to practice before the official opening of the sport. Men who are interested should see Director George Berg.

Tonight's Interfraternity Basketball Games

5:45 o'clock, Phi Beta Pi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, court 1; Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Delta Sigma Pi, court 2; Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Phi Delta Theta, court 3.

6:45 o'clock—Phi Chi vs. Phi Sigma Delta, court 1; Zeta Beta Tau vs. Square and Compass, court 2; Phi Alpha Delta vs. Sigma Pi, court 3.

Interfraternity Hockey

Games in the Interfraternity Hockey league must be played off as soon as possible, it was announced at the intramural office. Camp Randall rinks are now available for these matches. Teams may get the equipment for play from Robert

Earle at the intramural office between 4 and 5:30 o'clock in the afternoons.

Intramural Block League Basketball

Organizers will go into the rooming house district around the university on Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week to start things rolling for this season's block league basketball play. Indications point to a greater turnout than that of last year.

UNIVERSITY RADIO TO FEATURE BASKETBALL

Basketball games Wednesday evening and next Monday evening have displaced the musical concerts from the WHA program. Sin-fonia, musical fraternity, furnished the radio music broadcast from Music hall station last Monday, while Sigma Alpha Iota, musical sorority, will entertain next Wednesday evening at 7:45 from WHA. The School of Music broadcasting room is being permanently wired to make the musical performances more satisfactory.

PHILOMATHIA

Philomathia will hold its first meeting of the second semester at 7:30 o'clock tonight in 220 Bascom hall.

Have You Thought of This?

The alteration of a suit is one of the most important considerations for the purchaser. No doubt there have been suits which you have bought which, later, you did not like, and no doubt, also, this dislike was occasioned by the way the suit was fitted.

The very rapid growth of our clothing business with university men has been due in equal measure to the facts that we sell clothes of makers who are specialists in collegiate apparel, and to the expert tailoring service which every customer receives regardless of the cost to us. Farter Versus Frater Dual a Feature of Puck Game Tonight

Tonight marks the opening of a brothers battle when the Wisconsin and Minnesota hockey teams meet on the lower campus rink in the first of two puck games this weekend. The Iverson brothers are the two who will battle most, because these two men have been plying their teams the whole year for the coming games.

"I'm not at all confident of a victory either tomorrow night or Saturday afternoon," said the Wisconsin Iverson last night. "The loss of 12 of my 16 men has left me helpless as far as a team goes, and it is untried men who will face the Gopher team."

Iverson in Exhibit.

A canvas siding has been erected around the rink, and bleachers are being constructed to accommodate the crowd. The admission will be 50 cents, and in conjunction with the hockey game, either of the Iversons will give a fancy skating exhibition between periods.

At Minnesota, hockey has been a major sport since 1922, and for this reason good teams have been developed. The squad this year is no exception, as shown by their string of 10 straight victories in as many starts. Hockey is also a very popular sport easily drawing 3,000 spectators to all games.

Little to Attend.

At this game, students will have their first chance to see George Little, new athletic director, as he will attend the game tonight and probably will see the one Saturday afternoon.

The game will start at 7:30 o'clock tonight, and the pep band and cheer leaders will be there.

The starting lineups:

WISCONSIN

Center—Gross, captain.
Right wing—Jansky.
Goal—Manierre.
Spares—Sarles.

MINNESOTA.

Center—Peterson.
Right wing—Bros.
Goal—Schade (C).
Spares—Kuhlman, Lowther.

SOPHOMORE RIFLEMAN BECOMES CRACK SHOT

In the last few months of his shooting, Clyde A. Morley '26 has clearly demonstrated that he is the outstanding man on the Badger rifle team. This is Morley's first year at the game, and Coach Ray Shire thinks he is the steadiest man he has ever seen. Morley shoots perfect scores consistently, and in the Sixth Corps Area match now being fired he is the only man who has succeeded in shooting a possible target in the standing position thus far.

Britain Will Return To Gold Standard

LONDON—Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer replying to a question in the House of Commons today said the British government was fully agreed to a reversion to the gold standard at the earliest possible moment.

In Exhibition Tonight

Kay Iverson

Since his arrival at Wisconsin Coach Iverson has changed hockey, from a sport in which no one took much interest, to one over which everyone is most enthusiastic. In between periods of the Minnesota-Wisconsin hockey match tonight, Kay Iverson and his brother, coach of the Gopher team, will give an exhibition of fancy skating.

ICE CARNIVAL DATE POSTPONED; POOR ICE

On account of the warm weather the ice carnival scheduled for this week has been postponed until some date in the future. The ice is in no condition at present to give a good exhibition of fancy or speed skating. It is also hoped that by this postponement that added feature attractions can be procured.

JONES PICKS MEN FOR RELAY TEAMS, LEAVE TOMORROW

Entries Limited to 25; Men Have to Run in Two Events

Coach Jones will send the varsity track team through a light workout this afternoon before leaving for Evanston tomorrow morning to participate in the second annual indoor quadrangular meet there.

Final selections of who will run in the meet for the Badgers were made yesterday by Coach Jones. Each of the four universities are limited to 25 men so he was forced to double up the men in some events causing a man to run more than one race.

Fleuck, Hill, Hilberts and Kennedy are the four men picked to run a quarter each in the relay. This event looks like the surest point winner for Wisconsin.

Two-Mile Team Picked

The men running the half miles in the two-mile relay are Valley, Hilberts, Carter and Lewis. Although Hilberts is running in both this and the mile relay the events come far enough apart so that he will not be too tired to give a good account of himself in the last race.

Bergstresser, Piper and Valley or Schutt will run a mile apiece on the four-mile quartet. If the race is exceedingly close Valley will be called upon to run the last mile but if the Badgers are well in the lead Schutt will tear off the final mile and Valley will be saved for the medley relay.

The two quarter miles in the medley event will be taken care of by Francis and N. V. Smith. Either Valley or Carter will run the half mile while Piper or Petaja will run the last mile.

Enter Special Events

In the special events Coach Jones has entered McAndrews, McGiveran, N. V. Smith and Francis in the 40-yard dash. Tuhtar, McGinnis, Jirtle and Roberts will run the high hurdles, while McGiveran, Roberts, Jirtle and N. V. Smith will compete in the low stick event.

Tuhtar, only varsity high jumper on the squad, will be augmented by McGinnis, O'Neil and Roberts in this event while Kreiger, Smith and possibly Fox are the Wisconsin entries in the pole vault.

Only two Badgers are entered in the shot put. Herb Schwarze, sophomore star, looks like a sure first in the event, while Wayne Limberg, the other entry, stands a fair chance of breaking into the point column with a pretty toss.

The squad is leaving tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock and will return to Madison Sunday noon.

DAD CARDINAL'S LETTERS

TO "DOC" MEANWELL

Dear Doc: That was a good talk last night on sportsmanship. The fans have got to learn that teams have their poor seasons as well as their good ones. And just because the referee has to call the obvious violations of the rules is no sign the crowd should hiss and boo. I think that talk went home. I don't think there will be any more trouble on that score or any more fouls called on the crowd.

Yours for better sportsmanship,
DAD CARDINAL

TO RALPH WACKMAN

Dear Wack: Your basketball days are over, and although your loss will be felt by the team for some time, I want to let you know that basketball fans and all who are close to the "other things" of college life here wish you well in your undertakings. They appreciate your services to Wisconsin. That is a short story, but it's deep-rooted.

Good luck,
DAD CARDINAL

TO CHESTER GROSS

Dear Chet: I can't write a letter to all the hockey men who will start against Minnesota today, but I'm appealing to you, as captain of the team, to do your darndest to come out on top in this series of games. I'm sure there will be a big crowd of fans on hand to see the contest. And remember that you've got to help Kay defeat his brother's team. Besides, Director Little will be on hand to see his first contest as director of Wisconsin athletics.

Don't spare the net,
DAD CARDINAL.

TO J. F. A. P.

Dear Sunny: I hope you'll use your influence with the council at its next meeting to get a favorable report on James Brader as line coach for 1925 football. Then get him. He's a good coach, knows football, and I know the boys will work hard for him there in the precincts of the line.

Ever,
DAD CARDINAL

RADIO PIANIST WILL GIVE VALENTINE PARTY PLAY AT ORPH SOON

Harry Snodgrass, the radio pianist, is to come to the Orpheum theater on March 5, 6 and 7.

Snodgrass is the man who entertained a multitude of radio fans while in prison. So much was his playing admired that when the time for his release came, he was besieged by every manager of vaudeville circuits in the country.

The Orpheum people were fortunate enough to have been able to offer Snodgrass an acceptable contract, and Madison is the smallest city in which he will appear.

Mail orders are now being taken.

ALUMNI HEAD HERE TO CONFER WITH FACULTY

ANOTHER BEQUEST

Kemper K. Knapp '79 has given the university student loan fund $3,000, according to a recent announcement. The university seldom receives bequests of large amounts as do Yale and Michigan and many other universities, but it does have many small bequests such as this. And for that reason, perhaps, they are the more welcome.

The student loan fund is one of the most worthy things that money can be given to. It helps students who need help and who will appreciate it enough to repay the borrowed amount, as they always have done. Mr. Knapp saw a need and he is helping to satisfy it.

SEND THE TRACK TEAM WEST

Wisconsin this year has an opportunity to send its track team on a western tour with the terminus and principal stop at the University of California. The athletic council is now considering the step, and the only real impediment now is the matter of dates.

It would be possible, if this trip were made, to have practically all the expenses paid by guarantees from the universities which the Cardinal team would meet. The universities of New Mexico, Utah and Denver are being considered as stopping places, and the team would probably also compete at the Kansas relays. Thus the itinerary would be a full one.

If Wisconsin can have the date with California which it desires, April 11, it would mean that the members of the team would miss only a couple of days of school, since the majority of the trip would include the spring recess.

Furthermore, most of the members of the track team (and the coach could not take less than 20) are not only seniors but honor students. Their grades are well above the average of the general student body.

It would be difficult to think of anything which would be of more value to the university than such a trip as this. Athletic advertising is perhaps not the most desirable kind that can be had, but there is no doubt that it is worth-while, especially as the members of the team are naturally representative of the student body. If the men showed the sportsmanship and grit and fight that they are bound to show, that Wisconsin knows they will show, the trip would bring Wisconsin before the eyes of the west as it has never been brought before. For this would be the first time that such a trip has been made.

Wisconsin athletic fans have been calling for intersectional football games a long while now. But the intersectional meets that would be held on such a trip as this would mean as much to the institution as would an intersectional football game. The crew goes east; the track team should go west when such an opportunity as this offers itself. Other universities in the Big Ten have made such trips to their own advantage. Why not Wisconsin?

AWAY WITH THE DUST

One of the most enjoyable results of modern invention is the increased facility and ease of travel. Until recently this has been fairly expensive, and still is if one desires to travel first class, but thanks to the recent immigration law which is now in force, the big steamship companies have found their third class accommodation practically without patronage. They have, therefore, changed the nature of this class to some extent, renamed it tourist class, and cater exclusively to students and teachers. The extent of the saving that can be effected by travelling "tourist" to Europe over the cost of even a second class ticket can be realized fully when one learns that a round trip tourist class cost $162, while a single journey second class costs $140. This will enable a great many more students to explore the mysteries of Europe during their summer vacations than was formerly possible.

It is an established fact that travel is educational; so, therefore, to the student, of art or literature, what could be more enjoyable, and at the same time more valuable, than a trip to Europe, the home of those arts? To see different countries, different peoples, different customs, different architecture, and different scenery, is to experience a mental stimulus and a vacation that will breed memories forever. And what is more, such an experience will enable one to come back home with a new and broader outlook on life in general and studies in particular.

Not only may the student obtain special rates on the steamers, but the cost of such a holiday is brought within his sight, at any rate, by what are known as student tours. These tours enable the student to travel for about a month in Europe and England, under the supervision of a conductor, for $330, which, of course, includes tourist accommodation on Atlantic steamers. If, however, one wishes to get off the "beaten track" and do things on his own initiative, it can be done at less expense and at a slight sacrifice of comfort.

If you would shake the provincial dust off your shoes, now is your opportunity.

Branding Brothers

You have seen moving pictures known as "western films". You must remember how in them was shown the great round-up of the herd. A beautiful steer caught by the cow-puncher's artful rope, thrown to the ground, its legs bound. And then the momentary torment. A branding iron drawn red-hot from the fire and pressed to the animal's flank. The cow-punchers hold the beast the while it writhes with anguish.

And while the steer is branded watch the picture. Imagine it fading into another similar picture, as movies often do, imagine it changing. The steer is now a young man, a freshman, held down by other young men who press a similar red-hot brand against the neophyte's shoulder, thereby making him a brother in the bonds.

You have heard of how savages go through agony untold simply that they may make their bodies what they think beautiful with lacerations and burns and welts; of how religious fanatics do likewise. Yet the one are savages, barbarians; the other, fanatics, idiots to a certain extent.

Fraternity initiations are approaching. The round-up and branding will commence.

Is it a case of cattle, savages, or idiots?

AGONISTES.

Seniors, class day exercises won't be such a bore this year.

The sororities are crashing through on their return Prom dates this weekend. Poor girls, it's rather hard on them, except those who have been candid enough to cut off even speaking acquaintances with their erstwhile Prom kings.

A new winter sport has started at Wisconsin, that of tobogganing behind ice-boats. It's all right until the skipper of the boat decides to cross a crack and runs into open water. This should be allowed only on Saturday nights.

As Shakespeare would say: "Holy Mike! I'm back again."

"It gives me great pleasure to give you this 81 in your course," said the Math instructor.
Student: "Aw, give me a hundred and have for yourself a time."

Conductor: "Yes, I've been on this same Madison street car for seven years."

Passenger: "That so? Where did you get on?"

KID BIFF SAYS:
"The Pre-Prom play reminds me that in my day making faces was called making faces, but now making faces is called acting."

First Burglar: "Whereya been?"
Next Burglar: "In a fraternity house."

First Burglar: "Lose anything?"

We heard a man the other day Say he was a woman hater, We saw this man with fourteen girls

Three and one-half days later, And now we learn that this same man

Considers this a joke, And pulls this same old line of bunk Whenever he is broke.

EASY GLOSSARY TO SWIMMING TERMS TO BE USED AT ANY MEET.

Dive—Roundhouse.
Tank—Man who is still living after Prom.

Crawl—Methods of walking used by small children.

Plunge—The way a man first falls in love.

Jack-Knife—Instrument used for trimming the toe-nails.

Back-Stroke—Method used to pet dogs.

"Where do bugs go in the winter time?"
"Search me!"

With the Betas finally succeeding in burning down the Chateau, we suppose that there will be other houses about the campus that will profit by the example of how to get a new house. The trophies were all saved, and we suggest that they be melted up and the silver sold so as to start a sinking fund toward the new castle.

We read in a paper The other day, That a man had Committed suicide. By drinking some Ox blood. But then we believe, That in spite of, This that it was. ALL BULL.

"Are you Scotch by birth?"
"Nay—Nay— by absorbtion."

We have been wondering for a long time just what is wrong with college life, and after much deep thought we have come to the conclusion that it is the classes, and they sure do interfere with a man's education.

I'm sorry, but you can return after you stay out one semester.

Yours for a heated talk, MEPHISTOPHILIS.

AT THE THEATERS

Foreign and
Local NewsVariety of Theme is Feature
Of Weeks' Theatre Programs

By H. E. R.

A wide variety of themes is to be presented by Madison theater owners next week, as can be seen by the list of productions offered. The Parkway will show "Dante's Inferno."

The Strand is going to show us Lon Chaney in his latest, "He Who Gets Slapped." Every review that we have seen has pronounced it to be well worth the time. Norma Shearer and John Gilbert are the co-stars, and should add greatly to the charm of the picture. The last half of the week "Inez from Hollywood," in which Anna Q. Nilsson, Lewis Stone, and Mary Astor are the principals, will be shown. Ann is portrayed as a "wamp" from Hollywood.

As we were saying before, the Parkway will present "Dante's Inferno." The cast is an all-star, and demanded the services of hundreds of Hollywood's most beautiful girls, according to the reports that we received. All of the fires that are supposed to be endured by some of our most famous co-eds and eds are supposed to be shown therein.

Lionel Barrymore will then take over the screen for the rest of the week in his latest picture, "I am the Man." Barrymore never fails to show the long-suffering public some of the real acting that can be done, so we are looking forward to the picture. Seena Owen is the leading lady.

A Civil war picture, "The Warriors of Virginia" will be shown at the Madison the first part of the week. This will be one of the more modern interpretations of the old, old story of the Union officer who fell in love with a Confederate maiden. An added attraction will be "Under the Eagle's Wing," the purpose of which is to stimulate interest in old age pensions. The last half of the week will feature the return of Theodore Roberts to the screen. He will be seen in "Locked Doors," with Betty Compson. A good combination, we would say.

The Billy Purl Revue of "By the Sea" will be one of the features of the Orpheum the first part of the week. The act is composed of seven people, six of whom are girls. Bernard and Kellar have an act in the same show entitled, "Mamma Loves Papa." The last part of the week features an orchestra. Lillian Fitzgerald, the individual comedienne, is also on the same bill.

After the week of heavy stuff the Majestic theater is going to revert to the light comedy. The play will be "What Is Your Wife Doing?" and is all about a young fellow that loved his wife dearly, and wanted to divorce her. Sounds interesting, and is said to be one of the cleanest pieces of laugh-inciters that has been "done" so far.

English Majors Find Welcome
In Rendezvous, Arden House

An ideal has been realized! It was just a year ago when Prof. Henry B. Lathrop of the English department said before a small group of enthusiastic, idealistic students, that he had a vision of a place on this campus where students and professors could come together to read or talk or listen to music, or simply to relax for quiet, deep thinking and cultured surroundings, permeated with the spirit of the arts.

And now with the beginning of the new semester such a very spot on this campus is to be found. The Arden club, the home of the English majors and the rendezvous of all those interested in literature in its many forms, has been established with Carrie Rasmussen '25 at its head, at 433 N. Frances street.

Though the exterior is unpretentious, once across the threshold, the visitor can sense the atmosphere of

Mask and Wig
By CHATTY

About the only thing in the line of campus dramatics which is holding the interest of students right now is Haresfoot. In fact, from now on until the middle of April, Haresfoot will hold the center of the stage here, and even after that, for Tom Morony says he has some music which is as good as any that has been turned in during the last four years. Which means that we'll be humming Haresfoot music well into the summer.

The advent of E. Mortimer Shuter, who again will direct the show, is something like the rescuing of friend Collins way down in Kentucky. Just as the rescuers are about to reach Collins there is a cave-in or something.

But Shuter will be along before many more days are out; if not the first of next week as is now reported, at least before the end of the month, to put in some heavy work rounding the show into shape.

In the meantime, the loft is a pretty busy place, with the force working overtime doing what can be done before the big man arrives, and in almost every fraternity house regular and irregular practices are going on, with boys dancing and tripping all over each other.

Music and lyric writers are also at work and the authors, worthy men both of them, are going over and over the book until even it has difficulty recognizing itself. It is a wonder that Port and Jack haven't been forced to take up separate lodgings, but they manage to keep peace one way or another.

One of the best pictures of the year is due Sunday at the Strand, or at least it ought to be one of the best. It's "He Who Gets Slapped," by Anton Tchekov. Not a very pleasant piece on the whole, but one worth seeing; unusual for a movie in that it is really what other movies are advertised as being—strong.

Lon Chaney is taking the role which Richard Bennett had on the stage, which bodes well for the screen version. I haven't found out who takes the role of Consuelo—which was played by Margolo Gilmore in New York and Martha Bryan Allen in Chicago—and upon that will depend a good share of the success of the play. But you'd better plan to see it.

This Dante's Inferno business is something of a mystery. Wonder what it will be like.

The bill introduced by the senator would give cities the right to pass ordinances regulating the operation of stop signals by automatic devices.

"The Dixie Handicap"
At the Strand
Featuring Claire Windsor

It's thrilling!
All horse races are expected to be, of course. But "The Dixie Handicap" has a particularly flavory raciness to it that makes us get a fresh thrill out of a somewhat threadbare plot.

When a southern family is shorn of its prestige there is disaster in store. This southern family has its glory magically restored—all because of the horse and his trainer, two heroes. To be sure the love angle is introduced and interwoven with the other thrills. Good enough!

Gerald Beaumont wrote "Dixie," a story that ran in the Red Book Magazine. "The Dixie Handicap" has been revamped from Beaumont's theme. Claire Windsor, Frank Keenan, and Lloyd Hughes do justice to their respective roles and reputations.

Cross word puzzle fans will find an added feature in "Judge's Cross Word Puzzle," a novelty in screen showings.

A Night in Rome
Starring Laurette Taylor
Presented at the Parkway

A plot of novel construction and the inimitable Laurette Taylor form the only merits of this week's picture at the Parkway. The adoption of this famous play to the screen has been very poorly executed and the direction is maligning to its former success. The wronging of an innocent woman by the avenging father of her murdered husband proves a sufficient basis for the action.

Many Familiar
Artists Reign on
Orpheum Stage

By J. F. W.

This is kind of old home week at the Orph. Several of the acts are making their second bow in Madison, albiet that a year or two has lapsed since their last appearance. Of these, that ubiquitous but still funny playlet, "Go Into the Kitchen" is the best.

Towa & D'Hortys

Whatever these two and their dog don't do with balls simply can't be done. Of course, it's another juggling act, but for one a good one.

Walter Fishter

Four clever people put on a conversational playlet in commendable style. It's old, but still good for some mighty good laughs.

Nada Norraine

She is called the "girl with the phenomenal voice," apparently because her range is so wide she sings in both soprano and contralto. Also

W. S. G. A. COLLECTS OUTSTANDING DUES

Tentative Budget For Coming
Year Submitted at Last
Board Meeting

All but $200 of the approximate $3,000 W. S. G. A. dues has been collected, according to the report of the district chairman, Emily Davidson '25. A drive is being launched this week to collect the remaining amount, which has been due since the beginning of the first semester. Dues of the women who have entered school this semester, are also being collected.

"In the past there has been only one case in which dues were not paid, this is the only dollar that was owed to W. S. G. A. that we did not collect," Alice Corl '25, president, said.

The following tentative budget for the year was submitted at the last board meeting in order that the women of the university might see definitely where their dollar goes:

Printing, $254.90; telephone, typewriter and dictionary, $105.50; library, $68.23; gifts to loan funds, etc., $175.00; class organizations, $19.36; office secretary salary, $256.20; entertainment, $132.83; district parties, $31.50; office upkeep, $64.61.

Well-Known Men to Address Soph Luncheon Club

Sophomores coming to the Sophomore Lunch club during the semester, will enjoy a program of varied interest.

In describing plans for this semester, Robert Schwenger '27, said that a number of prominent men were already booked for definite dates, and a goodly number of others were being considered.

Carl Russel Fish, professor of history, Prof. V. G. Rice of the Law school, and Prof. Pitman B. Potter, have already consented to appear before the Sophomore group. Professor Rice talks next Monday on "The Treaty to Outlaw War." As a leader of the Madison Peace council, he is considered well qualified to discourse on such a subject. On the Monday following Washington's birthday, the next meeting of the club, Professor Potter is to talk on "The American Foreign Service in Europe." He has spent the past semester abroad, studying the diplomatic situation.

Rubber Industry Shown Engineers In Movie Reels

Three reels of films showing the manufacture of rubber insulated cable complete from the gathering of rubber to the loading of the finished product for shipment were shown before a joint meeting of A. I. E. E. and A. S. M. E. in the auditorium of the Engineering building, Wednesday night.

Steps in the manufacture of insulation of wire and cable that were illustrated are gathering of crude rubber, preparation of insulation material from the crude rubber and filler compounds, drawing of copper wires, covering wires with insulation, and vulcanizing the resulting insulation covering.

Intricate machinery is used both in the drawing and insulation of the wire.

PROF. LUSK, CORNELL, TO SPEAK ON PHYSIOLOGY

Prof. Graham Lusk of the Physiology department of the Cornell Medical School in New York city, will give a lecture in the Biology building auditorium, February 19, at 8 o'clock on "Problems of Metabolism." Professor Lusk is a distinguished contributor and research worker in the field of nutrition. The Medical school faculty will entertain Professor Lusk before his lecture at a dinner given at the Madison club.
