The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

COUNCIL OF TEN RESOLUTION

(As amended April 6, 1970)

It is in the interest of the University community to insure that there are mechanisms in each Department that give students and teaching assistants an opportunity to participate in a meaningful way in educational planning. Such departmental mechanisms shall be developed by the faculty of each department on the Madison campus in collaboration with the students and teaching assistants involved in the courses offered by that department. Such mechanisms, however, shall not infringe upon the ultimate responsibility of the faculty for curriculum and course content.
