Make the Most of Your Membership: Take Mini Courses

The Mini Course program has been offering opportunities for Union members to meet people and learn new skills for almost twenty years now. The program has come a long way since it began in the summer of 1972 with 121 participants and 22 courses. During the heyday of the disco era, a single term in the spring of 1978 set an all-time enrollment record with over 2,400 participants. Thirty-five percent of those participants were taking disco!

Currently the program enrolls over 7,300 people annually making it one of the five largest Union-sponsored, non-credit programs in the country. This year a new record was set for summer term enrollment with over 2,000 people registered for more than 250 courses.

Participation by Union members has been increasing steadily for the past five years. Members now account for more than forty percent of the total Mini Course enrollment.

As a Union Member you can take Mini Courses at the lowest possible fee! Registration for the fall term, with over 300 noncredit opportunities, is occurring right now. Details are in the Mini Course catalog. If you requested a catalog you should have received it last week. If you have not yet received yours, call 262-3156 and we will mail you one. Join the fun, learn something new and meet other Union members; take a Mini Course!

Mini Courses Now Offering First Aid and CPR

You can become Red Cross certified in CPR and First Aid all in one day by taking a Saturday workshop through Mini Courses. The course will cover basic CPR and First Aid for all common emergencies. Workshops will be held on September 21, October 19 and November 16 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The cost for Union members is $35. Call Mini Courses at 262-3156 to register.

DENNIS BARRIE

Wednesday, October 23, 1991

As director of the Contemporary Arts Center (CAC) of Cincinnati, Dennis Barrie was at the center of the storm surrounding the controversial Robert Rauschenberg exhibition, "The Perfect Moment." Barrie and the CAC were indicted on two counts each of "pandering obscenity" and "the illegal use of a minor in nudity-oriented materials." Barrie served as the Midwest director of the Smithsonian Institution Archives of American Art before becoming the director of the CAC, one of the nation's largest institutions dedicated to contemporary programming.

Renovation Update

According to Memorial Union Operations Manager Dick Pierce, the new air conditioning system for Great Hall and Tripp Commons is being installed right on schedule. It should be functioning by the end of September.

An unexpected benefit has resulted from the project. "There were spaces left in the walls from the removal of the old air conditioning unit," said Pierce. "We will be able to use these alcoves for catering purposes such as keeping warm coffee right in Great Hall."

"The new air conditioning system will be the first and messiest part of a general facelift," Pierce continued. "Once the dust clears we will begin painting, and replacing drapes and carpets." The entire project should be completed by early October.

A second renovation project, the upgrading of the Commons Desk/Lobby Area in Memorial Union is currently out to bid. Construction will begin in the middle of fall, with much of the work being completed during the slow periods around the winter holidays. This is a change from the original plans which called for construction to begin in mid-July. "Doing the project this way will inconvenience as few people as possible, with no major construction being done during critical use periods," said Pierce.

Tudor Dinner Concerts

Enjoy an evening of feasting and merry-making just like in the days of old at the Union during the annual Tudor Dinner Concerts, December 4 - 8, 10 and 11.

Great Hall will be transformed into an old English banquet room with a feast to please the most gluttonous. The Madison Philharmonic Chorus, under the direction of Professor Samuel Jones, will provide traditional English carols. "Greetynges," "proclamaciounes," "presentaciounes" and "ceremoniales" will round out the evening. (Not to mention "carousynge" and general "merryemakyng" which shall be left up to the guests.) The festivities will begin at 6:15 p.m. each night.

Notification and specific information about the Tudor Dinners will be mailed to all non-student resident members (living within a 40 mile radius of Madison). Non-resident members and UW-Madison students may receive this mailing by contacting the Membership Office, Room 410, Memorial Union; 800 Langdon St.; Madison, WI 53706; (608) 262-2263.

Tickets go on sale October 28, 1991. Orders received early will not be processed. Ticket orders, including walk-ins, must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Be sure to order your tickets early as the Tudor Dinners are extremely popular and have sold out in the past.

Little Red Mug Now "Cooler" Than Ever

Wisconsin Union recycling mugs will be "cooler" than ever when Union goes to use them to buy cold drinks at a discount. Beginning this fall, little red mugs can be filled with soda, juice, milk, ice tea, hot tea or coffee for only $.50 at any Memorial Union or Union South restaurant. Cold drink fans and others who have not yet purchased their little red mugs can pick them up for $2 at the Memorial Union Deli and the Red Oak Grill at Union South.

Share your Union Fun with a Friend

Is there a special someone with whom you would like to share your Union privileges? Now there are three options from which to choose:

AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Union members may purchase one $10 affiliate membership for a friend or relative each year.* Affiliate memberships must be purchased by the member and are valid for one year or until the end of the corresponding member's term, whichever is shorter. Affiliate members have all of the privileges of Union membership with the following exceptions:

- Affiliate members do not receive Union mailings.
- Affiliate membership fees do not accumulate toward life membership.
- Affiliates may not have temporary guest privilege cards issued to their friends.

JOINT LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Life members of the Wisconsin Union may purchase joint life memberships for their spouses for $45. A joint life membership entitles the spouse to all of the privileges of Union membership.

SPOUSE CARD

The spouse card program was replaced by the affiliate program in September, 1990. However, if you became a Union member before September, 1990, you are still eligible to receive a free spouse card, entitling your spouse to all of the privileges of Union membership. This original benefit of your membership has not been taken away.

* Members with active spouse privilege cards may not purchase affiliate memberships.

Additional options to allow your friends to enjoy the Union as much as you do include the standard annual and life memberships. They make great gifts!

To introduce a friend to the many benefits of Union membership, stop by the Membership Office in Room 410, Memorial Union; charge by phone at (608) 262-2263; or fill out and return the application on the back page.

Use this application form to purchase a Wisconsin Union membership for a friend or relative. Options are described on page 7.

Notice to Union Members

The Membership Office has upgraded its record-keeping system in order to cut down on paperwork. This change will enable us to service our members better, but should not otherwise affect your membership in any way. However, if you notice any change in the mailings you normally receive, please contact us at (608) 262-2263, so we can correct the mistake. Thank you!
