

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Wisconsin alumnus football bulletin. Volume 59, Number 4 Oct. 28, 1957

[s.l.]: Wisconsin Alumni Association, Oct. 28, 1957

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/QGZB5COYM65WR83>

This material may be protected by copyright law (e.g., Title 17, US Code).

For information on re-use, see

<http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/Copyright>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

WISCONSIN ALUMNUS FOOTBALL BULLETIN

RECEIVED

NOV 4 1957

UNIV. WIS. LIBRARY

Serials Dept.

% Memorial Libr., Univ. of Wis.,
Madison 6, Wis.

Vol. 59 OCTOBER 28, 1957

No. 4

Published by the Wisconsin Alumni Association

Tough Ones to Lose

Wisconsin 7, Iowa 21

Wisconsin 13, Ohio State 16

By Jim Mott

Sports News Service

IN A BATTLE of unbeaten football teams, Iowa's defending Big Ten champions and 1957 Rose Bowl victors downed a surprising Wisconsin team by a score of 21-7. The largest crowd ever to witness a football game in the state of Iowa, 58,147, saw Coach Milt Bruhn's "Baby" Badgers battle the Past the outstretched fingers of Jon Hobbs—whose specialty has been blocking punts—went Don Sutherin's successful field goal attempt, the one that provided Ohio State's winning margin. Number 41 is Bob Altmann. One chagrined Badger fan remarked after the game: "Why can't Ohio State boot one our way just once?" (Wisconsin State Journal Photo by Edwin Stein.)

THE WISCONSIN ALUMNUS, published once monthly in December, January, February, March, April, May, June, July and September and three times monthly in October and November. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Madison, Wis., under the act of March 3, 1879. Subscription price (included in membership dues of the Wisconsin Alumni Association) $2.50 a year; subscription to non-members, $5.00 a year. Editorial and business offices at 770 Langdon St., Madison 6, Wis. If any subscriber wishes his magazine discontinued at the expiration of his subscription, notice to that effect should be sent with the subscription, or at its expiration. Otherwise it is understood that a continuance is desired.

takin' it easy—you bet!

Retirement age may seem far away . . . but if a man really wants to “start living” at age 60 or 65, the best time to begin planning is right now.

Now, while your premium payment is the lowest it will ever be, you can begin a planned insurance program that will guarantee you a monthly pay check for the rest of your life.

A National Guardian Life program offers you protection and savings in addition to retirement benefits. Why not call us or see us today?

National
Guardian Life
Insurance Company
HOME OFFICE • MADISON

Hawkeyes to a near standstill for three quarters before they finally bowed in defeat. They bowed, yes, but they were not whipped.

The game was packed with thrills from start to finish, and pitted Iowa, first in the nation in rushing defense, and second in the nation in total offense, against a Wisconsin team ranked second in rushing offense, and third in total offense. So, before anyone ever entered the Iowa stadium on this day, they knew they were going to see a battle, and a battle it was.

Wisconsin won the toss, and elected to receive. Three running plays netted the Badgers 17 yards, and then quarterback Sidney Williams took to the air-lanes. His first pass was intercepted by Hawkeye defender Mike Hagler, and the Iowans had the ball on their own 25 yard line.

It took Iowa fifteen plays, and twice they had to make first down yardage on a fourth down, to march 75 yards to cross the Badger goal with 6:35 left to play in the first quarter. Quarterback Randy Duncan was the key to the Iowa attack, passing complete three times in three attempts for gains of 12, 9, and 15 yards, and running on three other plays for 19 yards. The drive was climaxed when halfback Mike Hagler swept wide around his own left end for the final eight yards and the touchdown.

The Badgers could not move the ball following the kickoff, and when they punted out of danger, Iowa had the ball on the Badgers' 47 yard line. (This was Wisconsin's only punt of the game).

The Iowans immediately moved to Wisconsin's 21 yard line, where, on third down, Danny Lewis intercepted Duncan's pass into the end zone and returned it to Wisconsin's 17 yard line.

Here, the Badgers showed their offense to the Hawkeyes in detail, and moved down to Iowa's 29 yard line before giving the ball up on a fourth down play that was just a yard short of a first down. The drive consumed 13 plays, covered 54 yards, with Williams calling the plays, using Zeman, Steiner, and Lewis through the middle or off tackle, and for variety, running the keeper play himself, or passing. He completed 2 of 3 passes for 18 yards, although the Iowa line was not reluctant one bit to rush the passer. Wisconsin and Iowa partisans alike still wonder how Sidney managed

Big Ten Standings

	W	L	T	Pct.	TP	OP
Iowa -----	3	0	0	1.000	74	14
Ohio State -----	3	0	0	1.000	93	20
Michigan State -----	3	1	0	.750	121	40
Michigan -----	2	1	0	.667	64	56
Minnesota -----	2	2	0	.500	82	81
Wisconsin -----	1	2	0	.333	43	51
Illinois -----	1	2	0	.333	55	53
Purdue -----	1	2	0	.333	51	57
Indiana -----	0	3	0	.000	7	157
Northwestern -----	0	3	0	.000	20	81

Other Scores

October 19

Illinois 34, Minnesota 13
Ohio State 56, Indiana 0
Michigan 34, Northwestern 14
Purdue 20, Michigan State 13

OCTOBER 26

Michigan 24, Minnesota 7
Iowa 6, Northwestern 0
Michigan State 19, Illinois 14
Purdue 37, Miami (Ohio) 6
Indiana 14, Villanova 7 to get his passes away during the afternoon. (He completed 8 of 13).

The Badgers got their initial threat underway when they held Iowa on downs, and a poor punt by their fullback John Nocera went only to the Hawkeye 42. But, four plays and one first down later, Billy Hobbs fumbled a pitchout from Ron Carlson, and Duncan recovered on the Iowa 33.

Iowa immediately drove down the field to Wisconsin's 17 yard line, using just four plays and two first downs, but a hard tackle by Williams of Hawkeye back Geno Sessi separated ball-carrier and the ball. Williams retrieved the ball and Wisconsin took over on its own 17 yard line.

Again Wisconsin mounted a drive, this one for 57 yards in 9 plays, which ended when Williams' pass to end Jim Holmes was intercepted on the goal line by Mike Hagler (he caught the ball after it trickled off Holmes' fingertips), and he returned the ball to the Iowa 11. Key play in the Wisconsin drive was a 31 yard aerial, Williams to Hill, that put the ball on Iowa's 42. Three plays later, Hill just missed making a circus catch of a long pass on the goal line from Williams that would have tied the score.

Wisconsin's defense made up for the frustrations suffered on offense in the early moments of the third quarter and moved the Badgers into a 7-7 tie that had Wisconsin partisans dreaming briefly of an upset in the offing.

Iowa couldn't gain following the Badgers' kickoff to open the third period, and on fourth down a wave of white led by guard Jerry Stalcup swept in to block Nocera's punt, and the ball bounded back toward the Iowa goal, where Jim Holmes tried to pick up the ball, and advance into the end zone. He fumbled the ball, and Jon Hobbs, Wisconsin's "Johnny-on-the-Spot" in the past two games, fell on the ball in the end zone for the touchdown. He also added the extra point, and the score was knotted at 7-7 with just 2:18 of the third quarter played.

But, the Iowans, poised as champions are supposed to be, came right back, and in six plays went 76 yards for a score, with sophomore fullback Don Horn bulling his way the final 35 yards, a la Alan Ameche for the tally. The aroused Iowans had scored in just 2 minutes and 32 seconds after the badgers had tied the score.

The Badgers fought back in an effort to score again, but drives to Iowa's 42

65-RT
James Heineke

97-RE
Pete Zouvas

Wisconsin 7, Iowa 21

and 37 yard lines fizzled out, and Iowa's counter-drive to Wisconsin's 15 yard line ended when their quarterback, Randy Duncan, threw a fourth down pass away intentionally, and Wisconsin took over on their own 41.

The Wisconsin attack drove to Iowa's 37, as mentioned above. Then a fumble by Billy Hobbs was recovered by Iowa's fine left end, Jim Gibbons. Five plays later, Iowa's other end, Bob Prescott, caught a pass good for ten yards, fumbled, and Steiner recovered for Wisconsin on their own 40 yard line.

On second down, Wisconsin's hopes were shattered, as Iowa halfback Bill Gravel intercepted a Williams' pass near the sidelines, intended for Danny Lewis, and ran it back 45 yards for a touchdown. When Bob Prescott converted the Hawkeyes had a 21-7 lead, and that was the final score.

Over 13 minutes remained to be played, and the Badgers, paced by their sophomore quarterback, Dale Hackbart, twice moved deep into Iowa territory before they were stopped. Both drives went 57 yards, the first one being stopped on fourth down on Iowa's 16 yard line, and the second one ending when Iowa's right end Don Norton broke in to deflect the ball as Hackbart was attempting to pass on Iowa's 12 yard line, and Iowa guard Frank Bloomquist intercepted the ball, and with it secured the game for Iowa.

The Badgers, in losing, impressed everyone in the stands, and the line play of tackle Dan Lanphear and guard Jerry Stalcup, along with the play of Sidney Williams, Danny Lewis, Billy and Jon Hobbs, and all the rest of the cast, were praised immensely. Indeed, it won't be long, and Bruhn's "Babies" will be a mature, experienced football team.

Wisconsin 13, Ohio State 16 October 26

THE BADGERS had 'em, and then they didn't! A Dad's Day gathering of 50,051 saw Wisconsin lose a tough one, 16-13, to Ohio State in a hard fought football game that saw the Badgers ahead in most everything but the final score when the game ended.

An action packed first quarter that saw each team tally twice gave fans the impression that here was to be another high scoring thriller like the 1941 game (46-34) or the 1948 contest (34-32), but it was not to be so on this gray Sat-

TEAM STATISTICS

	Wis.	Iowa
First Downs
Rushing	11	10
Passing	8	7
Penalty	0	0
NET RUSHING YARDAGE	160	214
Number of rushes	50	45
NET PASSING YARDAGE	154	116
Number of passes	20	15
Passes completed	13	9
Passes intercepted by	1	4
PUNTS	1	3
Total punt yardage	45	23
FUMBLES BY	8	5
Fumbles lost by	2	2
PENALTIES ON	1	2
Yards lost on penalties	15	20

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS

Wisconsin
Passing	Att.	Comp.	Int.	Yds.
Williams	13	8	3	96
Hackbart	6	4	1	59
Carlson	1	1	0	-1
Pass Receiving	Caught	Yardage
Lewis	3	23
Kocourek	1	18
Hill	4	71
Zeman	1	-1
Holmes	1	17
J. Hobbs	2	19
B. Hobbs	1	7
Rushing	Att.	Net.	Ave.
Carlson	1	12	12.0
Altmann	1	3	3.0
Hackbart	5	6	1.2
Hart	2	4	2.0
J. Hobbs	4	10	2.5
W. Hobbs	9	39	4.3
Lewis	11	26	2.4
Steiner	5	23	4.6

Zeman	5	17	3.7
Williams	7	20	2.9
Punting	Punts	Total Yds.	Ave.
Luksik	1	45	45

PLAYERS (UW)

LE—Holmes, Kocourek
LT—Lanphear, Jenkins, Cooper
LG—John Heineke, Morris
C—Teteak, Chryst
RB—Stalcup, Zouvas, Fraser
RT—Jim Heineke, Holzwarth, Allen
RE—Hill, Peters
QB—Williams, Carlson, Hackbart
LH—Steiner, B. Hobbs, Altmann
FB—Zeman, Hobbs

OFFICIALS

Referee—Howard Wirtz; Umpire—Edward Herbert; Field judge—Robert Jones; Head linesman—Charles Leadbetter; Back judge—Joel Burghalter.

SCORING SUMMARY

Iowa—Hagler, running, 7 yds., 6:35 remaining in 1st qtr.; PAT—Prescott, Placekick.

Wisconsin—Jon Hobbs, blocked punt, recovered in end zone, 12:42 remaining in 3rd qtr.; PAT—John Hobbs, placekick.

Iowa—Horn, running 35 yds, 10:10 remaining in 3rd qtr.; PAT—Prescott, placekick.

Iowa—Gravel, intercepted pass, 45 yds, 11:30 remaining in 4th qtr.; PAT—Prescott, placekick.

SCORE BY QUARTERS

Iowa	7	0	7	7—21
Wisconsin	0	0	7	0—7
Attendance: 58,147 (new stadium record); old record of 58,137, Michigan game, 1956) urday afternoon.

Coach Milt Bruhn's young Badgers, with four sophomores in the starting line-up—as contrasted to six the week previous against Iowa—played Ohio State off its feet in the first ten minutes of the game, then saw the Buckeyes bounce back to tie the score, with a third quarter field goal by Ohio's Don Sutherin finally deciding this battle.

So complete was Wisconsin's domination of the early play, that Ohio State was able to pick up just seven yards from scrimmage in seven running plays,

Robert M. Altmann
41—LH

Richard D. Teteak
50—C

losing the ball twice on punts and once on a fumble, which set up the Badgers first score.

The Badgers kicked off to Ohio State, and the Buckeyes, after two running plays, punted on third down to Wisconsin on the Wisconsin 47. From here the Badgers marched 44 yards to Ohio's 9 yard line, where a fourth down option play by Sidney Williams was spilled for a loss, and Ohio took over on downs. Feature of the drive was a 30 yard run by Danny Lewis that gave Wisconsin a first down on the Buckeyes' 15 yard line.

Two plays later, however, Earl Hill pounced on an Ohio fumble on the 11 yard line, and in two plays Lewis had scored, sweeping right end for 7 yards and the touchdown. Jon Hobbs missed the extra point, and with 8:53 left to play, Wisconsin led 6-0.

Ohio State could not get its offense going after the ensuing kickoff, and a poor punt by quarterback Frank Krem-blas gave Wisconsin possession on the Ohio State 43 yard line. It took the Badgers just seven plays to score, with Lewis again crossing the goal line.

Second team quarterback Dale Hackbart engineered this march, and the prime mover for the Badgers was fullback Bob Zeman, who carried four times—8, 5, 6 and 11 yards—the final run giving Wisconsin a first down on the Ohio 7 yard line. Sophomore right halfback Billy Hobbs carried twice in the march, and then Lewis slammed over from the six, with Hackbart using the pitchout to the outside to get Lewis underway for the tally. Karl Holzwarth added the extra point, and Wisconsin led 13-0, with 5:03 left to play in the first period.

Badger fans had high hopes here, and well they might. They envisioned Wisconsin's first win over the Buckeyes since 1946, but as in the past two games at Madison, it was not to be. Let's review, for a moment. In 1953, Wisconsin led 19-7 going into the 4th quarter, only to have the Ohioans sweep back to snatch the win away from Wisconsin by 20-19. A last second field goal by tackle Bill Miller was just wide for the Badgers that day and Ohio prevailed. In 1955, Wisconsin had a 14-0 lead after five minutes of the second quarter, then rested its laurels, and Ohio went on to win 26-16.

So, again, this day. On the second play from scrimmage after the kickoff, Ohio's swift left halfback, Don Clark, swept around his own right end, and went 71 yards for the touchdown. The Bucks had scored in just one minute and nine seconds. Don Sutherin added the extra point.

More woe was added to the Badgers cause when on the kickoff Billy Hobbs fumbled and Ohio's John Marshall recovered on the Wisconsin 18 yard line. In five plays the Buckeyes had the tying score, with fullback Galen Cisco ramming the final five yards for the six points. Don Sutherin then missed his first conversion attempt of the year, and the score was knotted 13-13. And still there was 1:18 left to play in the first quarter. But, there was to be no more goal line crossing for either team the remainder of the game. Instead, it was to be a 14 yard field goal by Sutherin late in the third quarter that decided the outcome.

In the second quarter, Wisconsin marched 73 yards from their own 19 to the Buckeye 8 yard line, being stopped there on downs when an official measurement by the officials showed the ball to be just short—by the length of the ball—of sustaining the 16 play drive that might have culminated in a score. Ohio State ran three plays, then punted. Wisconsin did the same, and Frank Luksik's kick gave Ohio the ball on their own 26. Here, just before the half, second team quarterback Andy Okulovich demonstrated that Ohio State could pass, completing two passes to Clark for 33 and seven yards, moving the ball to the Wisconsin 39 as the half ended.

Play in the third quarter harkened one back to pre-forward pass days, as each team stayed exclusively on the ground until Ohio State had scored on the afore-mentioned field goal. Both teams gave up the ball early in the quarter, Wisconsin on Luksik's punt, and Ohio, by losing the ball on a fumble on Wisconsin's 36. Wisconsin could not move the ball, though, and Earl Hill punted to the Buckeye's 27.

On third down, Fullback Galen Cisco broke over the right side of the Wisconsin line, and raced 40 yards to the Badgers 27. Three more plays, all with Cisco carrying, gave Ohio a first down on the Wisconsin four yard line.

The Buckeyes moved to the 2 yard line in two plays, and when, on third down, Clark was spilled for a 2 yard loss, back to the four, Coach "Woody" Hayes of the Buckeyes saw the handwriting on the wall, and sent in Sutherin for the field goal attempt. It was from an angle, but good, and Ohio State led 16-13. That was the ball game, or was it?

The Badgers tried their first forward pass of the game on the final play of the third quarter, and Hackbart's pitch was intercepted by reserve fullback Joe Cannavino, and returned 41 yards to Wisconsin's 7 yard line. Would the Buckeyes turn the game into a rout? All hoped not, but there they were on the 7 yard line, and the fourth quarter coming up.

On the second running play, Ohio's Dick LeBeau fumbled and Bob Altmann recovered for Wisconsin on the Badgers' 11 yard line. Three plays were just short of a first down, and Frank Luksik then boomed a 70 yard punt—as pretty a kick as we've ever seen—down to the Ohio State 10 yard line. It ranks as the longest punt by a Big

Wisconsin 13, Ohio State 16

TEAM STATISTICS

First Downs	Wis.	O.S.
Rushing	16	7
Passing	0	1
Penalty	0	0
NET RUSHING YARDAGE	271	203
Number of rushes	67	49
NET PASSING YARDAGE	3	48
Number of passes	3	4
Passes completed	1	3
Passes intercepted by	0	1
PUNTS	4	6
Total punt yardage	180	185
FUMBLES BY	3	4
Fumbles lost by	3	3
PENALTIES ON	1	2
Yards lost on penalties	5	10

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS (Wisconsin)

Passing	Att.	Comp.	Int.	Yds.
Williams	2	1	0	3
Hackbart	1	0	1	0
Pass Receiving	Caught	Yardage	TD
Lewis	1	3	0
Rushing	Att.	Net	Ave.
Altmann	4	11	2.8
Hackbart	5	11	2.2
J. Hobbs	12	47	3.9
W. Hobbs	5	12	2.4
Lewis	18	103	5.7
Zeman	7	34	4.9

Williams	16	53	3.3
Punting	Punts	Total Yds.	Ave.
Luksik	3	148	49.3
Hill	1	32	32.0

WISCONSIN PLAYERS

LE—Kocourek, Holmes
 LT—Lanphear, Jenkins, Cooper
 LG—Jo. Heineke, Morris
 C—Teteak, Chryst
 RG—Freser, Stalcup
 RT—Holzwarth, Allen
 RE—Hill, Peters
 QB—Williams, Hackbart
 LH—Lewis, Carl
 RH—Altmann, Wm. Hobbs, Luksik
 FB—Jon Hobbs, Zeman

SCORE BY QUARTERS

Wisconsin	13	0	0	0—13
Ohio State	13	0	3	0—16

SCORING SUMMARY

Ohio State: TD—Clark (71, run). Cisco (5, plunge). Field Goal—Sutherin (14).
 PAT—Sutherin.
 Wisconsin: TD—Lewis 2 (7, run; 6, run).
 PAT—Holzwarth.

OFFICIALS

Referee—Mike Delaney; Umpire—Carl Bauer, Jr.; Field Judge—Wally Marks; Head Linesman—Jerry Katherman; Back Judge—Corby Davis.

Ten player this season, and topped Frank's best previous effort—a 66 yarder against Marquette in the season's opener.

Ohio State never got beyond its own 24 yard line the rest of the game, and by the same token, despite two golden opportunities, the Badgers failed to cross the Ohio State goal line for that winning score.

Ohio State could not move the ball, and punted, with Lewis returning the ball to the Ohio 37. The Badgers got a first down on the Buckeyes 25, then stalled on the Ohio State 21. The Buckeyes could not move the ball, either, and a short punt by Sutherin gave the Badgers position on the Buckeyes 38. With Hackbart at the helm, it was Jon Hobbs for 6 and 4; first down. It was Lewis for 3, and then 4; and Jon Hobbs for 3; first down. Hackbart moved for seven yards, then on fourth down slammed into the center for two yards and a first down on the five yard line.

On the first play, Hackbart was spilled for a three yard loss by Clark and Baldacci as he tried to go wide on an option play. A handoff to Lewis, who plowed into the line on the next play ended Wisconsin's hopes for the day. Lewis fumbled when hit, and Ohio's Bob White grabbed the ball in mid-air, returning to the 12 yard line.

Ohio quarterback Frank Kremblas then ran out the clock on three plays without ever moving the ball forward. Coach Milt Bruhn's "Baby" Badgers had come close, but the scoreboard read Ohio State 16, Wisconsin 13, and Ohio State's "jinx" over the Badgers prevailed.

★ From the Sidelines

Here's what some of the Iowa players had to say about the Wisconsin team and players:

Alex Karras, All-American tackle: The coaches told us those guys were going to be tough, and they were right. Wisconsin has a real good club, and they'll be better as they go along.

Dick Klein, another All-American tackle: That line was hitting fast and blocking well, but those backs of theirs! My gosh, those guys really hit when they carried—tackle one of them, and you'll know it.

Kevin Furlong, halfback: Danny Lewis is the best runner we've faced since John Herrnstein of Michigan last year. Lewis has the size and the speed, and he had all the determination in the world. He's a tremendous threat. He could break a game wide open.

Mike Hagler, halfback: They had good runners and good passers. We had been told what they'd use, but I guess they were just good enough that there wasn't much you could do about it.

*

With something almost approaching generosity, Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes remarked after the game: "I think we deserved to win by about three points, but we were willing to settle for one."

*

The Badgers' almost complete refusal to pass against Ohio State was a major topic of post-game musings on what might have been. After the game, Coach

Bruhn naturally was pressed on this point. He commented: "We planned to run. When we found we could move on the ground we just stayed with it."

*

Bruhn's estimation of his team was revealed when he was asked if he expected a Wisconsin letdown against Michigan State. "Not a chance with these fellows," he said, "they want to play too much."

*

The Ohio State game was marked by an absence of penalties that was virtually complete. Ohio State was penalized twice for 10 yards and Wisconsin only once for five yards. The Badgers refused a 15-yard clipping penalty.

*

The Ohio State game was the first in which the Badgers failed to block a punt. But they came close on several occasions and Ohio States punters managed to make only an average of 30.8 yards on half a dozen kicks in the face of Wisconsin's determined rushing.

This was not a typical scene in the Ohio State game, but the camera recorded some interesting action as Sid Williams (left) breaks up a pass intended for Brown (85), while Danny Lewis moves up. The Badgers didn't throw a pass during the first half; both teams threw only seven passes during the entire game. (Wisconsin State Journal Photo).

No fewer than six sophomores started for the Badgers against Iowa—Jim Holmes, left end; Dan Lanphear and Jim Heineke, tackles; Jerry Stalcup, right guard; Ron Steiner, right halfback, and Bob Zeman, fullback. Of 27 players in the game for Wisconsin, 3 were sophomores.

*

The Badgers made their first appearance in the national football ratings in some two years anyway. The week of Oct. 7 Wisconsin was rated seventeenth in the nation. Following the conquest of Purdue on Oct. 12, the team moved up four notches to the number thirteen slot. This reign among the top twenty abruptly ended after their 21-7 defeat by Iowa on Oct. 19.

*

In Wisconsin's first four games, the Badgers scored 19 touchdowns. Twelve were via running plays, four on passes, one on a blocked punt, one on a pass interception, and one on a fumble.

Of the twelve runs, eight of them were from within the 10-yd. line, and five came from within the two yard line. Going to the other extreme, three of the other four TD runs were 73 yards or more. Halfback Danny Lewis romped 80 yards for one score and 86 for another. Quarterback Sidney Williams ran 73 yards for a TD.

*

The "long and short" of the Badger's passing attack was split evenly. Two long scores (56 and 62 yards) and two short ones (19 and 10 yards) were made.

Halfback Ron Steiner came close to setting a new Badger record when he intercepted a West Virginia pass, and scampered 94 yards for a TD against the mountain boys.

You'll Like Homecoming: 1957

Les Brown and Illini Will Both Play

By John McEvoy

King Joe Irwin

OLD GRADS and not-so-old grads will soon be directing their attention to the week end of Nov. 15, 16 and 17 as the autumn days breeze past and Wisconsin's 1957 Homecoming moves up on the calendar.

The "really big" week end of the fall season, the theme of which this year is "Dreamland", annually represents renewed friendships, dances, parties, decorations and a top gridiron attraction. And this autumn's escapades promise to be just as exciting as ever.

Wisconsin's Homecoming opponent this year is the rough and tough outfit from Champaign, Ill., coach Ray Elliot's fighting Illini. The Badger's head man, Milt Bruhn, knows that his boys will have to be at their best for the fray, which is renewal in the lengthy series between the two Big Ten schools.

Pre-game activity gets underway Friday in gaudy fashion with decoration judging and a parade of floats constructed by the various campus groups, who every fall turn their efforts to producing cleverly constructed vehicles of prize-winning stature.

After the parade, the traditional "Yell Like Hell" pep rally, which is an annual exercise for healthy students with durable vocal chords, will be held at the Union entrance. This silence-shattering session noisily sets the stage for the week end.

Friday night the Field House will be scene of the annual music show, which this year features the big band of Les Brown. Male vocalist Andy Williams will join the Brown aggregation for what is expected to be a real "swingin'" evening. When the show closes, all official entertainment for Friday night is over and the informal celebrations take the spotlight.

Morning coffee is an American institution whether or not one needs it after a night of being strenuously welcomed back. So the Memorial Union custom of coffee time from 9:30 to 12:30 will once again be renewed. This period of pleasant morning relaxation is known as the Re-Union Coffee Hour and provides a good opportunity for former students to get reacquainted with old friends and faculty members.

Name tags will be provided and free coffee and donuts will be served by hosts and hostesses from the Union Social committee. The committee is also planning some mid-morning entertainment in the Lounge.

Saturday afternoon's encounter with Illinois will not only provide some outstanding Western Conference football but also is a chance for the many returnees to see Wisconsin's famous marching band in action once more. Badger Block, one of the midwest's flashier card sections, will also add color to the proceedings.

In addition to the many campus parties scheduled for Saturday night, there will be a dance in the Great Hall of the Union with Bobby Christian's band providing musical background for the occasion.

That's an outline of Homecoming '57. The only factor that has been left to chance is the actual attendance of the now out-of-school Badgers. The hope is that a good many can come back for another fling on the college scene at their alma mater.

Warm welcome always

Wisconsin hospitality — a 55,000-voice chorus saluting the visiting team. In Wisconsin homes, another kind of warm welcome — with comfort provided by Mueller Climatrol.

Your Mueller Climatrol dealer can show you how easy it is to enjoy perfect winter comfort. He'll make a heating survey of your home —without obligation—and recommend the exact unit for your needs from America's most complete line of heating and cooling equipment.

... Climate control for healthful living

Mueller Climatrol®

MILWAUKEE 1, WISCONSIN

DIVISION OF WORTHINGTON CORP.

