RELIGIOUS MEET IS BROUGHT TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Sherwood Eddy Discusses the True Meaning of Life

"Find the true meaning of life," was the challenge made by Sherwood Eddy to the students of Wisconsin in his address Sunday afternoon at Lathrop gymnasium.

By vivid narrative and personal experience Mr. Eddy brought home to his audience the conceptions of the faith that has proved to be the rational faith for the modern man.

"Many students look out for plunder in life. The war taught us the futility of that materialistic view of life. Life is not a mere bundle of appetites. Others say life is pleasure. Those students make ship-wrecks of their lives, because they miss the target. They aim at pleasure and miss the meaning of life. Some look out on life and say, 'Not wealth, not pleasure, not power.' Napoleon conquered the world, but he tasted death for six years on St. Helena. Somehow he missed the meaning of life.

"What, then, is the meaning of life? Be right with God, right with ourselves, right with our fellow men, and we have found the meaning of life. The meaning of life is in Christ. I have found in 20 countries atheists, agnostics, pessimists,—every religion discovering this rational basis for faith working with great certainty.

"Now, have you found that secret of life? Have you found yourself? Are you happy or unhappy? Have you found God? We've taken

ATHLETIC REVIEW WILL BE SOLD AT GAME BY "W" MEN

Two Copies for a Quarter—
Mail Extra One Home

First appearance of the Wisconsin Athletic Review, revived student publication, will be made tonight at the Ohio State basketball game in the gymnasium. Copies of the 40-page magazine will be sold by "W" men at the price of two for 25 cents. The bargain double sale plan is intended to remind the buyer to mail the extra copy to some high school athlete who might be influenced by the Review to make Wisconsin his alma mater.

"It is primarily a basketball edition," said Al Frogner '21, editor-in-chief, speaking of the present issue yesterday. "It is dedicated to Dr. Meanwell and starts out with a biographical sketch of our returned coach. He reviews the season just ending and gives a forecast of future basketball prospects. Besides this there is a personal sketch of each of the basketball men and an article is also devoted to the freshman basketball squad."

Basketball is not the only sport touched upon by the Review this time for this edition more than those which are to succeed will cover a great variety, according to Editor Frogner. There are pictures of the football men who made the mythical all-star elevens picked by the different critics, a review of the season by Captain "Red" Weston '21, and a forecast of next season by Captain-elect Guy Sundt '22.

KUM KATY

Kill Kare at the Kommerce
Klub Kaper Friday Night at the Park

"K—K—Katy, won't you Kum with me to the Kommerce Klub Kaper?" said the Kommerce student as he told her of the Komedie Kalkulated to Kill Kare to be staged at the Park hotel Friday night.

Only 100 couples will be admitted and the affair is come as a climax to the previous activities of commerce week. Men and women Kommerce club members have tickets on sale for all commerce students. Admission price is $2.

Reginald Garstang '22 is in charge of special features and has arranged for "Sunny" Ray, star Haresfoot comedian, to give vaudeville skits and for "Doc" Dorward to sing some of his character songs.

Gene Casserly, formerly of Blossom Seeley company, will be among the star Thompson's orchestra which has been secured.

"We want this to be a Kaper that Kommerce students will never forget," declared William Rubert '21, president of Commerce club. "If you want to be sure of getting a ticket and a good time you are advised to see some member of the Commerce club immediately as tickets are going fast."

PHI SIGS TAKE BASKET TITLE

Betas Place Second, Kappa
Sigs Third, Alpha Sigs Fourth

By defeating the Beta Theta Pi squad 17 to 9 in the final game of the tournament, the Phi Sigma Kappa basketball five won the inter-fraternity basketball championship of Wisconsin last night.

Third place in the tournament went to the Kappa Sigma squad which vanquished Alpha Sigma Phi in the closest struggle of the evening by a 19 to 18 score.

In the championship battle, Phi Sigma Kappa took the lead at the start of the game and maintained a safe margin throughout. The Phi Sigss led 9 to 5 in the first half, and held their opponents to a meager four points in the last period, while they ran their score up to 17. Close guarding by both teams held the score down. The excellent defense of the victorious Phi Sigs led 9 to 5 in the first consistently to long distance tries for the basket, while Phi Sigma Kappa succeeded in piercing the Beta defense for some easy shots at the net.

Engelbrecht and Ruediger were the big point getters for Phi Sigma Kappa, each counting three baskets. Ruediger was hurt late in the second half, but he came back and counted the last two points for his team. Farrington was a power on the attack, and netted one basket and a couple of free tosses.

For the Beta Theta Pi quintet, Gunderson caged two field goals and Fitzgerald and Gill each one. Gunderson led the loser's attack and displayed a good defensive game. Fitzgerald, guard, played an excellent floor game for the Betas, besides scoring a basket and a free throw.

The lineup follows:
Beta Theta Pi Phi Sigma Kappa
Gunderson R. F. Farrington
Ellison L. F. Hofberger
Gill C. Engelbrecht
Gifford L. G. Ruediger
Fitzgerald R. G. Milliman
Baskets—Betas: Gunderson 2, Gill 1. Phi Sigma Kappa: Farrington 1, Engelbrecht 3, Ruediger 3.

Short Course Man is Killed at Dallas Texas by Airship

DALLAS, Texas—Joseph Fernandez, 26, of Chicago, and a student in the University of Wisconsin, was killed here today when struck by the propeller of an airplane from which he was alighting.

Fernandez is said to have been on his way to Cuba to visit a brother.

Fernandez is enrolled in the university here as a first year short course student. He had been rooming at 1220 St. James court. His home is said by university authorities to be in Lagrange, Ill., where his guardian, H. F. Williams resides.

Fernandez left Madison about two weeks ago, according to Mrs. William Egan, at whose home he roomed while at the university.

MORTAR BOARD TO RUN JITNEY DANCE

"Five cents for one ticket and 50 cents for ten," is the slogan of the sale of tickets for the Mortar Board matinee. Jitney dance to be given Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock at the Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Phi, Gamma Phi, and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority houses.

Sale of tickets is being carried on among both the men and women as the dance is not essentially a couple affair. Tickets are being sold in blocks of ten each with the intention that they be used in the same way as at an amusement park dance, that is paying for each dance in its turn.

Fraternities will be canvassed by the girls of Freshman commission at dinner time tonight. Freshman commission has entire charge of the sale of tickets among the men. Blocks will also be left at the various sorority, rooming houses and dormitories.

TICKETS GO FAST FOR FROSH DANCE

That upperclassmen may attend the Frosh dance was decided at a meeting of the Freshman dance committee last night. A great many tickets have already been sold but some few are to be had at Morgan's and the University pharmacy. "We are expecting a good crowd," said Gordon Roberts, dance chairman, when interviewed, "and we are doing our best to make the dance an affair well worth going to."

The dance will be held in Lathrop gymnasium next Saturday evening. Tickets sell for $1.50.

CHESTERTON WILL LECTURE TONIGHT

All the tickets for the Gilbert K. Chesterton lecture on "The Ignorance of the Educated," to be given at the Madison high school auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening have been sold.

However there are 100 vacant seats for which no tickets have been issued because of the contract with Chesterton's manager providing that not more than 1,200 tickets shall be sold. The seats will be placed on sale today if the lecturer consents to speak to a larger audience.

No people will be seated after the lecture commences, which will be at 8 o'clock sharp.

"W" MEN

Meeting of "W" men in the gymnasium office at 6:45 today. All men must wear "W" sweaters.

BADGERS ARE SET TO MEET OHIO QUINTET

Purdue and Michigan Are Now in Tie For Honors

LAST NIGHT'S SCORES

Michigan 28, Illinois 26.
Minnesota 29, Indiana 25.
Northwestern 31, Marquette 18.

The Badger basketball team will meet Ohio State here tonight in the final game of the season. The outcome of the game will determine whether or not Wisconsin can claim a share of the conference honors with Purdue and Michigan.

The men have been given a rest since the Minnesota battle and are in excellent shape for tonight's gam. Due to their overwhelming victory over Ohio at Columbus, the Badgers are given the edge tonight.

A triple tie for conference honors is now a certainty. Illinois and Michigan ended their schedules last night in a championship game that decided which team will compete with Purdue and Wisconsin for first place. Wisconsin has as clear a title as either of the other two contenders, and, at the present time, is one of the hardest teams in the conference to defeat. Illinois lost a clear claim to the title by losing to Chicago Saturday night.

Several of the conference teams have completed their season's schedules. Chicago and Purdue finished last Saturday night; and Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan, last night. Wisconsin and Ohio complete theirs with tonight's game. Minnesota finishes March 12, when they meet Northwestern; and the Purple and Hawkeyes complete

HARESFOOT LEAD WILL BE PLAYED BY R. W. GARSTANG

Ineligibility Makes Necessary
Several Changes in Cast

Reginald W. Garstang '22 is to play the leading role in the Haresfoot twenty-third annual production, "Miss 'Quita," which will be presented by the club in seven different cities in Illinois and Wisconsin, playing in Madison April 22 and 23.

Due to ineligibilities in the club the part as originally chosen had to be changed and Garstang has assumed the responsibility of carrying the most difficult role that has been undertaken by a Haresfoot man for several years. He appeared in last year's show, "Mary's Lamb," as the social secretary to Mary Marinda Lamb, the wife of the hen-pecked husband.

The play deals with a Mexican revolution that is brooding and when Ralph Waldo Emerson Smith of Chicago, played by Garstang, becomes involved in the catus conspiracy, he permits most of his actions be influenced by Mexican rum, thus leading him into many thrilling as well as humorous complications.

Rehearsals of both the cast and chorus are being carried on regularly. Coach Herbert of Chicago will arrive in Madison, March 25, to take complete charge of the coaching. In the meantime William Purnell has charge of the cast and "Sunny" Ray, with DeWitt Pinkerton as assistant, are rehearsing the chorus.

They were reading "Tom Jones" for English 30, when the innocent, timid one ran across an item that rather startled her.

The worldly-wise one examined the shocking paragraph. "Well, I can't say that I see anything in that to be surprised at. Did you ever read Rabelais?"

The timid one saw that she had committed a serious faux pas, "No," she answered. Then hopefully, "But I'm in a lecture course under Sunny Pyre."

theirs when they meet March 14. None of the remaining games, after tonight, are of title importance, except that if Minnesota wins from Northwestern, the Maroons will be forced into seventh place.

The game between Minnesota and Indiana last night did not have any bearing on first place as both the Gophers and the Levismen were put out of the running by the defeats they received last week.

Wisconsin and Michigan have been the "dark horses" of the conference this year. Both teams got away to poor starts and both have staged marvelous comebacks. The Badgers lost their first game of the season to Northwestern, the weakest team in the conference. After defeating the Wolverines, at that time a supposedly weak team, they were defeated by Chicago and were then considered out of the running. Since that time but two games have been dropped, both of which were avenged by brilliant victories in return games.

The Wisconsin rise has been equaled only by that of Michigan. Yost's men lost four consecutive games early in the season, but have shown themselves to be one of the most formidable fives in the conference by their recent string of victories over the strongest teams competing for honors.

Guard Mail Train Passing Through City

Additional precautions and defense methods have been taken on the railway mail cars running through Madison as a result of recent mail robberies. Mail car agents and operators are heavily armed and have been instructed to carefully guard against allowing anyone but known and trusted employees in the cars.

Fearing an attempt such as was successfully made in Toledo and Minneapolis, officials have given instructions for employees on the flyer of the Northwestern road, which reaches Madison at 1 a. m., enroute for Minneapolis from Chicago. This is declared the fastest train in the west, for there are but five schedule stops.

One of the best views of the capitol entrance and above the Bible used by George Washington which Harding used.

The "front porch" of the capitol was the scene of Warren G. Harding's inauguration to the highest office in the country. He took his oath on the Bible used by George Washington. The photographs show the capitol steps on which the inauguration stand was erected, also the Bible Harding used. Previous to the inauguration the Bible was resting in the rooms of the Masonic Lodge at Alexandria, Va. It was taken to Washington and used by Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court in swearing in the new president.

MANY SIGN UP FOR RELIGIOUS STUDY GROUP

Post-Conference Discussion to Be Led By Gilin

As a practical evidence of the results of Sherwood Eddy's influence on the campus and his hold on student interest gained during the religious conference over the weekend, 250 students Sunday night signed up for a five weeks' discussion course in the "Social Principles of Jesus," to be conducted under the general direction of Prof. J. L. Gillin of the sociology department. It is expected that this number will be augmented as the course gets under way this week, with the first discussion in groups on "Christianity in Business."

Twenty-five leaders have volunteered to conduct the discussions. These met yesterday afternoon to be coached in the method of the course and to have the substance of the first discussion, on the Christianization of business ethics, presented to them by Professor Gillin.

Need Higher Ethics

Professor Gillin put his message in practical business terms.

"Nearly every business man believes in a God," he said. "But it's the principle of abstract justice that it is sometimes hard to get across with him. We must capitalize the business man's religious belief—make it work in industry and in mercantile ventures, for social justice and social brotherhood."

In the first discussionals the relation of Christian ideals to business practice will be carefully worked out in detail with consideration of the problems of capital and labor, excessive profits, and the clash of self-interests with the Christian spirit on the part of both employers and employees.

ar student chairmen for the Y. M. C. A. in the discussion series. The Y. W. C. A. is co-operating with the men's association in giving the course. Discussion groups are to be organized in practically all the churches, to meet on Sundays. Other campus discussionals, meeting in fraternity and sorority houses, dormitories and lodging houses, will meet at such times during the week as is convenient for the group members. It is hoped to enlarge the number of students taking the course and to secure more group leaders.

PLAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

An industrial university to cost $5,000,000 will be erected in Shanghai if plans of Chinese educators and industrial agitators are attained. A novel feature of the proposed university will be the incorporation in it of a complete cotton mill which will employ its students and require them to perform productive toil as well as school work.

NATURE OF GENTLER SEX BAFFLES SOCIOLOGY CLASS

"If you want to study human nature, take sociology", the reporter heard "the-man-who-understood women" say to "the-girl-who-would-be-unconventional" as they went into general sociology lecture.

And the reporter, wanting to do just that, followed them.

"These questions," announced the professor in charge, are of special interest to the young ladies. The first one is this: "Is the friendship of two women a conspiracy against a third?"

"Certainly," announced "the-man-who-understood-women."

"A conspiracy against a man, not a woman", added the girl-who-would-be-unconventional.

"Professor! Professor!", insisted a determined feminine voice from the front row, "I object! Woman today, freed from the degrading bonds of domesticity, has risen above such pettiness."

"That", decided the reporter, making a note in her mental notebook, is "the Emancipated Woman."

"Can't we have some more discussion on the part of the ladies?" earnestly beseeched a man well toward the front of the assembly.

"I would really like to know the truth."

"And that", the reporter again mentally annotated, "is the Eager Soul groping for knowledge."

But, the professor, instead of acceding to the request of the Eager Soul, turned to another man who had been tolerantly awaiting his turn.

"After carefully considering the point from all angles and after reading all the authorities on woman nature, I find the epigram to be very true in some instances."

"Q. E. D. That is settled, and that is also a good name for you", decided the reporter, feeling like Noah naming the animals in the ark.

The bell rang and two by two they filed out and the reporter saw that the man-who-understood-women and the girl-who-would-be-unconventional were well in the lead.

ASKS MERGING STATE OFFICES

A special legislative committee to investigate the problem of consolidation of state departments as recommended in the governor's special message is provided in a resolution offered in the senate Monday. Senator H. E. Roethe presented the resolution which would authorize a committee of two senators and three assemblymen. The resolution was passed in the senate and was considered by the assembly when it met Monday.

The senate passed the Beyer bill authorizing municipalities to establish and operate plants for the preparation and distribution of milk. The fight against its engrossment last week was not repeated and the bill passed without opposition.

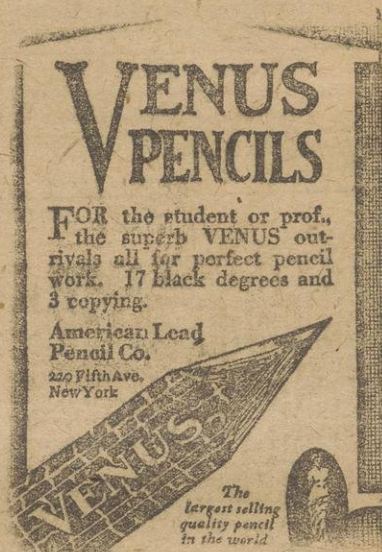

Sen. Dennhardt's bill providing official markers for the trunk lines of the state highway system mand prohibiting the use of any advertising materials within the highway limits was also passed.

Gov. Blaine has signed the bill appropriating $83,644 to the public property department as a deficiency.

New Modes of Spring Reflected In Our 1921 Opening.

Wonderfully inspiring are the exquisite new modes for Spring, the fabrics and trimmings and prices which make their initial appearance during opening week. Prices this season make a joyous event of the Spring exposition—the tension is past and every woman may take a genuine interest in the modes of Spring.

Spring Suits, Wraps and Frocks "Youthfully" Styled

Rarely were styles so simple and at the same time so gratifyingly graceful as they are at present in the Suit, Wraps and Frocks. Able tailoring, artful adornment, further emphasize the moderation of the prices.

Springtime Wraps

After all the wrap's a very practical bit of apparel, whether it be the trim belted street model, the cape, or the cape coat.

Fringe, embroidery, stitching, scarfs, collars and butterfly sleeves are a few of the high lights one notices in a hasty inspection.

This is a season when you may find a wrap whose lines are truly becoming, for the styles are many and exceedingly attractive.

Springtime Suits

Fashion wavers in her devotion to the youthful dash of box jacket suits and the impeccable lines of the semi-tailored models. Embroidery, beading, stitching, and girdles or sashes of moire, brocade and ribbon give the finishing touches to the chic suit of navy or pewter tricotine or Poirer Twill.

$18.50 to $125

Springtime Frocks

Navy and grey continue in the path of popularity, and women visiting the opening will find the collection of afternoon, street and sport dresses comprehensive in number as well as varied in price and style. One may see the trim little basques and circular skirts so reminiscent of old Spain or the slim graceful line typical of the Directoire in our showing of frocks

Springtime Hats

Opening week finds the store prepared to outfit milady for every Hat need from sports to dress. Hat styles have been ordained that will meet your immediate approval—so clever are the innovation, so varied the embellishments, so rainbow-like the hue.

FINANCIAL DRIVES

THE recent action by the joint-government committee of the student senate and the S. G. A. in the regulation of financial drives on the campus constituted a wise and necessary step on the part of those bodies. During the past two years, the number and the magnitude of the financial drives for various purposes have become vexingly large. The average student is at a loss in discriminating between the worthy and the unworthy causes. He is also financially unable to support every drive that is carried to the campus. Moreover, the method by which the drives have been carried on in the past have called forth serious criticism from the faculty and from persons outside the university.

In the future, all financial drives carried on in the university must have the approval of the authorities designated by the student senate and the S. G. A. Such action is calculated diminish the number of drives and to regulate the manner in which they are conducted.

The regulation of financial drives undoubtedly calls for a wise and varied use of discretion on the part of the senate and the S. G. A. If the policy of these bodies is too liberal, unworthy projects will be fostered. If the policy is too restrictive, worthy causes will suffer.

The student body eagerly awaits the working of the regulatory measures in regard to financial drives on the campus. The need of such regulation is indeed urgent.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

THE numerous communications in regard to the honor system that have appeared in the Cardinal have brought many interesting facts to light. Apparently the thought of those who are worthy of the honor system takes two different lines of approach to the problem.

One group of students hold hold that those persons who are worthy of writing an examination under the honor system are being imposed upon by the proctor system—that they are being held guilty until they are proved innocent—that fairness to the students demands the honor system.

The other group of students hold the proctor system advisable. It holds that restrictive measures are taken because of the exceptions to the general run of students, and that the students worthy of the honor system feel no more inconvenience at the proctor's presence than does a law-abiding citizen at the presence of a police officer on the street corner.

The two views represent different types of thought. The views have this in common: they both resent the present hybrid system—half honor and half proctor—as it is so frequently used.

A stricter adherence to the existing regulations is desired by all. These regulations provide that the honor system may be put into effect in any course by the instructor if the class petitions for such a system. Thus, when a class feels capable of assuming the honor system, that system may be put into effect. Such obligation once assumed, each student is bound to refrain from cribbing, to refrain from helping other students, and to report all dishonesty that he observes.

Where the honor system is not thus in force, a strict proctor system is to be resorted to.

This dual system seems to be the most applicable at present. It enables those who are worthy of the honor system and who want it to have it. At the same time it offers the honest student protection from the unfair competition of the dishonest student. Perhaps at some distant time the present dual system may give way to an honor system of a proctor system. It is now the general concurrence of opinion, both faculty and student, that the present system properly enforced would be a great advantage over the present lax and unsystematic procedure.

TWO OFFICIALS KNOWN HERE

Two important positions that have just been filled in administrative departments at Washington will be of interest to Madison people.

Courtland Smith, president of the American Press association, has been named by Postmaster General Will H. Hays as first assistant postmaster general and E. J. Henning of San Diego, Calif., has been named by Secretary of Labor John J. Davis as assistant secretary of labor to succeed Louis F. Post.

Mr. Smith was a member of the class of 1907 at the university. He came here through the influence of Richard Lloyd Jones, who was a friend of Maj. Orlando Smith, father of Courtland Smith. Mr. Smith was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity while here.

Mr. Henning is also well known in Madison. He is a former Milwaukee lawyer, a graduate of the law school and an associate of C. A. A. McGee, well known here.

WEATHER

Light rains and snows were recorded elsewhere in the north and west. An area of low barometer is crossing the plains preceded by southerly winds and warmer weather. It will be followed by northerly winds and colder on Tuesday.

Teeth Shine

When the film goes—watch and see

Learn now how teeth look—how they feel—when you combat the film.

Get from your druggist, without cost, this ten-day test. Note the instant results, then look in ten days.

Millions have already done this. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. Now show your home folks what clean teeth really mean.

The war on film

Dental science, the world over, is fighting a war on film. Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Those troubles have been constantly increasing. The ordinary tooth paste does not end film, so the tooth brush has proved inadequate. Millions know how well-brushed teeth have discolored and decayed.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And, despite all brushing, few escape these troubles caused by film.

New ways to fight it

Now dental science has found ways to fight film, day by day. Able authorities have proved the methods efficient. Leading dentists everywhere now urge their application.

The methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. To millions it has brought a new era in teeth cleaning. And to every home a ten-day test is offered free, so all may quickly know it.

Quick, visible results

Anyone can see and feel what Pepsodent is doing. No old method of brushing ever brought such effects. So we let this test convince you.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. The alkalinity of the saliva is multiplied also, and at once. That is to neutralize mouth acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

The effects of Pepsodent come with every application. We constantly combat, in efficient ways, the teeth's great enemies. And millions of teeth are given new protection and new beauty.

the effects

In every circle nowadays you see glistening teeth. Ask the owners. You will find, we think, that they are using Pepsodent.

Go get this free tube and try it for yourself. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Then let the children use it. Their teeth need it most. Very few children reach the age of 15 without some tooth decay.

Let the man who smokes see how it takes the stained film from his teeth.

Let all find out how much cleaner teeth feel, how much safer, when brushed in this new way. Then this ten-day test may bring to your home some lifetime effects.

Communication

DO POLICEMEN MENACE LAW AND ORDER?

Editor The Daily Cardinal:

"Proctors parading up and down the aisles are almost a challenge to try to crib," says one of the contributors to the symposium on the honor system in last Thursday's Cardinal.

By the same irresistible logic he possibly feels that policemen patrolling their beats on State street constitute a permanent incentive to commit crime?

By this argument your correspondent and others who use it in re-hashing the perennial issue of administering examinations, beg their whole question.

Real honor, the only sort that would render workable an honor system that was more than a false-fronted sham, is the kind that does not falter and flicker out so easily.

If there is enough real honor at Wisconsin to make an honor system thoroughly practicable, it ought to manifest itself at par value under the present proctor system, or any other system.

If the honor level has been raised within the last school year to a pinnacle making for a sturdy enough general opinion to sustain a system built wholly about it, then the seraphic transformation has been nothing short of a miracle; for some large examination sections last year were almost buzzing hives of petty crookedness. Professors called attention to the low morale from their lecture platforms. The Daily Cardinal in repeated editorials banged away in a campaign to freeze out cheaters.

If The Cardinal's campaign was expressive of real student opinion on the campus, as some honor advocates would now represent that opinion, the editors at least never received any communications last year supporting their stand.

The panacea to elevate public, or even university, morals by sweeping away normal deterrents doesn't appeal to cold common sense. Anything but a manifest tide of civic virtue swept Boston when the police force went on strike there in the autumn of 1919. Human nature is about the same, inside a university or out, idealistic advocacy to the contrary notwithstanding.

There will always be some weaklings in examination halls. Remove the proctors, institute an honor sys-

BUILDING COST GOING DOWN

Madison needs 500 new homes this season; cost of materials has been reduced from 10 to 45 per cent; building trades mechanics are asking a continuance of their present scale of wages for at least another year; real estate mortgages are hard to finance because of the competition of tax-exempt government securities and high interest industrial securities.

These facts were brought out by Paul E. Stark of the Stark Land company, L. W. Burch of the Electrical Supply company, Marcus E. Johnson, president of the Madison federation of labor, and Milo C. Hagan, cashier of the Merchants & Savings bank, at a discussion of the home building needs of Madison before the Kiwanis club Monday noon.

Homes Badly Needed

Real estate values cannot increase and industries cannot expand when no homes are being built, said Mr. Stark. On the basis of four persons to a dwelling unit, there is a shortage of 750 dwelling units here at present, he declared.

tem, and students would, theoretically, have to see that honor was enforced, if the system meant anything; and enforcement, in the last analysis, would involve some degree of odious student espionage. Honor system after honor system within recent years has gone to pieces on that point, because the motive power of "student opinion" was too feeble to turn the wheels of the machinery.

If students go into an examination room meaning business and minding their business without any thought of crookedness, there is no more reason why they should object to the presence of a proctor than a law-abiding citizen objects to a policeman being on his job on a street corner.

Some of us who go to an examination with that idea would not relish the imposition, indeed, would feel unwilling to subscribe to a theoretical obligation to administer the manner in which other students manage their blue books. That is not what we are the university for.

KARSTENS SELLS ALL HOLDINGS IN "HUB" TO SCHMITZ

F. W. Karstens disposed of his interest in the firm of Karstens and Schmitz, owners of The Hub. The firm will be now owned by Mr. Schmitz and his two sons.

Mr. Karstens was born in Madison in 1866. He attended the public schools and the high school. At the age of 16 he became a copy holder at The State Journal and later went to The Democrat as a proof reader. At one time he was secretary to L. M. Fay, of The Democrat. In 1887 he went to Chicago where he was a bookkeeper for a large wholesale clothing firm.

In 1895 he came to Madison. In 1898 in company with Mr. Schmitz he started The Hub. The store was located in the building where the Menges pharmacy now is located. Later they went into the present building occupied by The Hub.

Mr. Karstens has been active in the Association of Commerce where he has been a director and he has been chairman of the retail division of the organization.

Mr. Karstens in speaking of his future plans today, said: "I have no plans that are definite. I plan to take a most deserved rest for some time, and meanwhile, in the words of McCauley, 'Wait for something to turn up.' I believe that a business man, who for nearly 25 years has devoted his energy and such talents as he has to building up a business such as The Hub is today, has performed a real community service. I hope and expect to be able to devote many more years of community service in some form or other to our beloved Madison."

CHARITY BALL IS SET FOR APRIL 2

Extensive plans are being made for the first Charity ball ever held at the University of Wisconsin. The big ball and mixer will be held in the men's gymnasium April 2, and is the first dance to be staged there since the beginning of the basketball season.

Large committees are making every effort to insure a good time for all those who attend the Charity ball. Entertainments, features, stunts, and the best of music will be provided to add to the general good time which will be had in the men's gym the night of April 2.

The proceeds from the ball will go to the Wisconsin State Conference of Social Work to aid them in whatever ways it can. An admission fee of 50 cents will be charged each person.

Many other schools and colleges throughout the state have given these dances with so much success that a great benefit has been derived from them, and it is hoped that Wisconsin will be just as successful. There are still some committees that have open places and help and suggestions will be gladly accepted. Adrian Scolten is general chairman.

ILLINOIS LEADS

With contributions of $17,000, the University of Illinois leads all American universities in the amount of money collected for European relief through Hoover dinners. The Teachers' college of Columbia university in New York City is second with a total of $8,000 given for the relief work. The Princeton Theological Seminary has contributed almost $4 per capita.

EXAMINATIONS NOT BARBAROUS—HULL

Commenting on a statement, made by Prof. Frank A. Bernstorff of Northwestern university, that examinations are barbarous and ridiculous survivals of the dark ages, C. L. Hull of the psychology department says, "Of course we all know that examinations are a very poor method of grading, yet until a better method is advanced we must continue to use them."

"The work of many courses," continued Mr. Hull, "can be easily graded by the daily work, but a vast number of others leave the semester quiz as the only alternative. It is true that examinations and the cramming which precedes often befuddles the brain of the student, so it is wrong to mark entirely by the examination. Thus by this system alone can a fair trial be given to the nervous student who does conscientious work and the lazy student who tries to cram a semester's study into one week."

"Until a more practical plan is evolved we had better keep on with the examinations. Evidently Prof. Bernstorff has given the subject very little thought or else he could never have made so foolish a statement."

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall.

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of Vice President Marshall, has been presented with a silver service by the ladies of the U. S. senate. The presentation was made at the regular weekly luncheon meeting. These meetings were started during the war and after lunch the women sewed for the soldiers. Since the war the luncheons have continued and have become quite an event on the social calendar. ### AT THE FULLER

"When costume stories are in order, I have to study many old library volumes," explains Sophia Wachner, designer of gowns for Goldwyn pictures. "When the story for Geraldine Farrar, 'The Woman and the Puppet,' was given to me I realized I must make a special study of Spanish history in order to have every costume detail absolutely correct. One of Geraldine Farrar's beautiful gowns worn in this picture is made of yellow satin trimmed in green palmette poised on black net. There is a green bolera edged in gold fringe and with it she wears a rich lace mantilla. A dancing dress worn by the prima donna picture star was fashioned from imported Liberty satin in cerise. The bodice was tight, the skirt ankle length and very full and covered from hem to knees in cerise palmette trimming. There was also a pink satin princess gown and three marvelous shawls—a pure white embroidered crepe shawl worn in the Cadiz scene, a richly trimmed cerise shawl, and another edged with thirty yards of fine silk fringe."

Three hundred Spanish girls took part in the picture and embroidered shawls had to be provided for the younger girls, black lace mantillas for the older women, and the "majas," Spanish ladies of the highest class wore white lace. There were costumes to be supplied for the gypsy girls too, the cigarette girls, the French and Spanish sailors of the quay and cafe scene and the uniforms of the Spanish policemen.

"Those extra folk were difficult to fit for only one out of every hundred could speak a word of the English language," says Miss Wachner. This Spanish picture, "The Woman and the Puppet," will be shown at the Fuller theater beginning tomorrow.

AT THE MAJESTIC
Capacity audiences greeted Bert Smith's Ragtime Wonders at the Majestic yesterday, and "Are You a Mason?" is by far the best offering of the company so far. It is a clean, fast moving farce that has a story interwoven, and plays out to a satisfactory comedy finish. Many musical numbers are offered and all proved attractive and pleasing.

If one is attracted by clean comedy, attractive stage pictures and well rendered popular songs augmented by a classy good-looking chorus an hour and a half at the Majestic is eminently worth while.

AT THE STRAND A GOLDWYN PICTURE

The fighting front of France was the "cradle of courage" in which many a brave American soldier discovered his own moral value. At least, "Square" Kelly, a San Francisco safe-cracker, did. He reformed and joined the police force to wage a relentless fight against crime. How successful he was in this as well as in the game of love, is admirably depicted in William S. Hart's latest photoplay, "The Cradle of Courage" which will be displayed at the Strand theater Wednesday to Saturday. Mr. Hart is well supported by Ann Little.

Tom Moore, assisted by Sydney Ainsworth and Sylvia Ashton, "Hold Your Horses" will be the attraction at the Strand for the last times today. Fatty Arbuckle in "The Bell Boy" will be the added feature.

CHICAGO FISH MEET BADGER SQUAD FRIDAY

Wisconsin Team Made Up of Nearly All New Men

In the last dual swimming meet before the Big Ten competition under the auspices of Northwestern university, the Wisconsin swimming squad will meet the Chicago tankers at Chicago on Friday, March 11.

Coach Joseph C. Steinauer will send the same team against the Maroons that held Illinois to a 35 to 33 victory and forced Northwestern to the limit to defeat Wisconsin 37 to 31. Lambole, middle-distance swimmer, will take a special examination before the Chicago meet, and if the varsity swimmer passes, will be used against Chicago.

Wisconsin, handicapped by a long list of ineligibilities, has developed a strong team in the last two meets, and under the tutelage of Coach Steinauer, practically a new squad has been formed. With fourteen men declared ineligible for further conference competition a week before the Illinois meet, Steinauer placed his second-string team in the water and almost defeated the Illini. If the services of Lambole had been available for the relay event against the Northwestern conference champions, the Badgers would have captured five points necessary to win the meet.

Chicago possesses a strong swimming team. The Maroons have defeated Iowa and Illinois, the latter by a 37 to 31 score, and have lost only one meet to Northwestern by one point. "Doc" White, Chicago coach, has discovered a new record-smasher in Blinks, a sophomore. Blinks set a new tank record against Illinois in the 50 and 100-yard free style swims. Captain Yegge broke one tank mark, the 150-yard breast stroke event. In the meet against the Suckers, Chicago won six out of eight events, but lost the water basketball contest by a 4 to 0 count. Blinks, Captain Yegge, Allison, Schuh, Jenkins, and Gordon are the men upon whom Chicago is counting to beat Wisconsin. Gordon plunged 68 1/4 feet in the Illinois meet. In the 1920 struggle against Wisconsin at Madison, he broke the conference record with a 60 foot plunge in 17 seconds.

While the Badgers have lost their two dual meets this season, if they can defeat the potent Maroon team, Wisconsin stands an excellent chance of finishing in first division in the Big Ten swimming meet.

"We have fair chances of beating Chicago," said Coach Steinauer on Monday afternoon, "and if Lambole writes off his exam and returns to the squad, our chances will be greatly enhanced. He will complete a relay team which should be hard to beat. Chicago has had no difficulty in defeating every team it has met except the Purple, and if we can give the Maroons a close battle, Wisconsin will be up among the leaders in the Big Ten swimming meet at Patten gym, Evanston.

GLEE CLUB HAS CONCERT FRIDAY

The slogan of the Men's Glee club, "The Club That is Different," has been fulfilled according to all reports. Their home concert will be given Friday night. No announcements of the program have been made except that the club will adhere closely to their slogan.

The same program was given last week-end in Beloit and Rockford, Ill., where it was greatly appreciated. After March 11, the Glee club will start on a ten days tour, during which time every date has been booked.

CALIFORNIA HAS HIGH RATING OF U. W. AG SCHOOL

The University of Wisconsin college of agriculture was frequently referred to as a model in a discussion in the assembly chamber at Sacramento concerning changes in the college of agriculture of the University of California.

College professors, practical ranchers and legislators took part in the discussion which took the form of a public meeting. It was decided that large appropriations and higher scholastic standards were necessary in order to develop an institution comparable to eastern institutions such as the University of Wisconsin.

Prof. Elwood Meade, chief of the California land development board, developed the main points of the discussion in his references to the work of the Badger university. The California investigating committee took a stand in favor of an increase of one half million dollars in the agriculture college budget, but the plan for its separation from the university was resented by some.

FRANCES KENNEDY HEAD OF ORPHEUM BILL THIS WEEK

Bubbling with merriment, Miss Frances Kennedy, the ex-star of musical comedy, headlines the Orpheum bill for the first half of the week. With her happy personality, her clever chatter, and her funny songs, she keeps her audience in a continuous chuckle.

A close second is Charles Olcott, a familiar favorite, who has annexed an altogether winsome and sweet voiced young miss fresh from school who is known as "just Mary Ann." The two sing and dance and play and tell funny stories in a way that win them lots of favor.

Another clever couple is Miss Irene Prince, a tiny bundle of pep with red curls, and Ed Lowry, a big fellow. They are best liked because of their dancing.

Manipulating hats and hoops and boomerangs, Joe Melvin a "Frenchman" opens the bill.

Making a lot of noise on some wind instruments, the Rubeville bunch present what they term "Rubeville Follies." The quartet is good.

SERBIA IS TOPIC OF BISHOP TALK

"The Problem of Serbia in European Reconstruction" is to be the subject of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Nicolai's speech in 165 Bascom hall at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon. Having taken part in the reconstruction work now being carried on in Serbia, he is well fitted to describe conditions as they actually exist. He is president of the Serbian Advisory Council in Belgrade of the Serbian Child Welfare Association of America, which is furthering public health and child welfare work.

Bishop Nicolai can speak English fluently and is addressing various colleges and churches throughout the country, upon the invitation of the Institute of International Education and the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

In his tour of America, Bishop Nicolai is recognized everywhere as one of the most distinguished as well as one of the youngest prelates of the Eastern Orthodox church. He is also well known as an author and orator.

With their spectacular aerial act, the Curson Sisters complete the program.

AUTHORITIES SHOW NEED FOR HOSPITAL

Legislature Urged to Give Sum For Demented Soldiers

That the State of Wisconsin is confronted with the problem of caring for more than 500 ex-service men who are suffering from nervous and mental diseases, commonly known as shell shock, and it has only provided a 40 bed hospital for the treatment of these cases, was brought out in a talk which Dr. W. F. Lorenz gave before a recent joint hearing of the legislature.

Dr. Lorenz said that at the present time there are 110 shell shock cases at Mendota and that the soldiers' hospital cannot accommodate all these men, and the many others, mentally unbalanced, who should be given the kind of special treatment that is being given in the small 40-bed soldiers' hospital there. He proved convincingly that the treatment given the ex-soldiers is worth the cost by presenting to the legislature a number of letters from ex-patients who are now well, and letters from the parents of such patients. He declared that 40 per cent of the cases of shell shock treated at the Mendota hospital have completely recovered, and that it is not unreasonable to expect this percentage of cures in all the cases that can be properly treated in the Soldiers' Memorial hospital which the legislature will provide for by making the necessary appropriation of $500,000.

Mrs. R. Richards, of the State Federation of Women's clubs, in her talk, stated that the proposed building would impress upon the minds of the people of Wisconsin the meaning and the tragedy of war and that the women of the state are ready to make any sacrifice which will save the minds of those who may be saved, or alleviate the suffering of those who continue to go "over the top" even though the war is over.

In his short talk, Judge A. C. Hoppmann vividly told about the ex-soldiers who were brought into his court because they had committed prison offenses, and how upon examination each one was diagnosed by the expert medical opinion as being mentally unbalanced. He urged the members of the legislature to provide for the erection of a building in which such men could be cured—a building which would prevent placing such men among the insane.

Judge E. Roy Stevens impressed upon the legislature that the mentally deranged ex-soldiers were entitled to the best environment and the best treatment that the state could give them.

Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis began speaking about 10 o'clock. The assembly chamber was still packed, and the many persons who could hardly see or hear him, remained until he finished.

Among other things Judge Landis said: "There are economies and economies, but it is not real economy to postpone the duty we owe to the maimed and broken victims of the war."

"Approximately 50 out of 100 who are termed shell shocked, if put in the proper environment and given the right kind of treatment can be restored to normal."

"I can't get adjectives and adverbs enough, and I don't believe there are adjectives and adverbs enough in all the languages on earth, civilized and barbarous, to express what I feel towards the people who would deliberately adopt a policy which does not do justice to the maimed and broken victims of the war."

ALICE KEITH '16 IS TO DIRECT GUN AND BLADE APRIL PLAY

The remainder of the cast for the Gun and Blade play, to be given at the Fuller theater April 1 was completed today.

E. H. Myrland will play the part of Lieut. Dasher of the 32nd Division, and Paul Tobey will play the part of Bounder, champion oarsman of the Lakeville Boat club. Victor Van Steenber is to take the part of Slimson. One of the features of the play will be a hornpipe dance done by Ruth Laylin, Dewey Edson, and six others of the disabled men who belong to Gun and Blade.

The title of the play is "The Maid and the Middy," and the entire production is being directed by Miss Alice Keith who graduated from the university in 1916. While a student here she was a member of Red Domino, dramatic society, and played the part of Sylvia in Shakespeare's play "Two Gentlemen of Verona," an outdoor play given by the university of the spring of 1916.

Since graduation she has been city supervisor of public school music at La Crosse. Soon after war began, she became director of the dramatic work of the New England division of the War Camp Community service. Since then she has been playing a part in "The Little Journey," by Rachel Crothers, a play which finished a long run in New York last winter.

This year she has been engaged in organizing a community center at Galesville, the first and only model small town community center in Wisconsin.
