Dear Jingo and Stan:

Many thanks for the delightful visits, Jingo. The session with the Laamanens was great! It was a pleasure to hear a string-band play the old Finnish songs. Stan, thank you for sharing stories of your lumbering days with us--bacon, potatoes, and all.

We enjoyed having a home cooked meal with you folks. Diner food just doesn't cut it for one week straight. And the raspberry jam has been a real treat on toast and pancakes since we returned. We also were heartened to talk with some older, politically progressive people in these peculiar times. Thanks again for your talent and your openmindedness.

All the best--

Matthew Gallmann

P.S. Don't feel bad about our not seeing Bucky. We needed the rest that night anyhow.
