THE KOHL CENTER

Badger Hockey has led the nation in attendance 29 years, including 24 consecutive years (1969-93). Since moving into the Kohl Center in 1998, Wisconsin has regained the position as the country's top attendance leaders.

College Hockey's Top Facility The Kohl Center

On Oct. 3, 1998, the UW hockey team opened play in its new home – the 15,237-seat Kohl Center. The second-largest college-owned hockey arena in the country marks its fifth year as the home of Wisconsin hockey program.

The facility is named after U.S. Senator Herb Kohl, a 1956 UW-Madison graduate who donated $25 million towards the construction of the arena. Kohl's gift is the single-largest private donation in UW history.

Albert "Ab" Nicholas, a former All-Big Ten basketball player for the Badgers, and his wife, Nancy Johnson Nicholas, pledged $10 million toward the project. For their generosity, the facility's basketball practice gymnasium is called the Nicholas-Johnson Pavilion.

The Kohl Center, which cost $76.4 million, is also the home of the Badger men's and women's basketball teams (seats 17,142 for basketball), women's hockey, as well as concerts, guest speakers, shows and sporting events.

The Kohl Center hosted one of the 2002 NCAA Final Four Regionals of the men's NCAA basketball tournament, and also set the NCAA attendance mark for women's volleyball with the 1998 NCAA Championship draw of 13,194 people.

Entertainers who have already performed at the Kohl Center include Elton John, Faith Hill and Tim McGraw, Shania Twain, Cher, The Moody Blues, The Dave Matthews Band, Matchbox 20, Billy Joel and the Backstreet Boys. The Dalai Lama has also made an appearance at the Kohl Center.

KOHL CENTER FUN FACTS

- There are eight locker rooms within the Kohl Center – home hockey, home men's and women's basketball, visiting basketball, visiting hockey, officials and two tournament locker rooms.
- No tax dollars were used in building the Kohl Center ... $49 million was raised from private donations and $27 million in State bonding will be paid back in operational revenues.
- The 40,000 cubic yards of concrete used in constructing the Kohl Center could build a sidewalk from Madison to Chicago.
- Eleven miles of coolant pipe is embedded in the hockey floor.
- It would take 1,351,990,520 hockey pucks to fill the Kohl Center.
- There are 15 pay phones, 26 restrooms and 36 luxury suites located within the Kohl Center.

THE BOB JOHNSON HOCKEY FACILITY

The Bob Johnson Hockey Facility is one of the premier hockey training facilities in the nation.

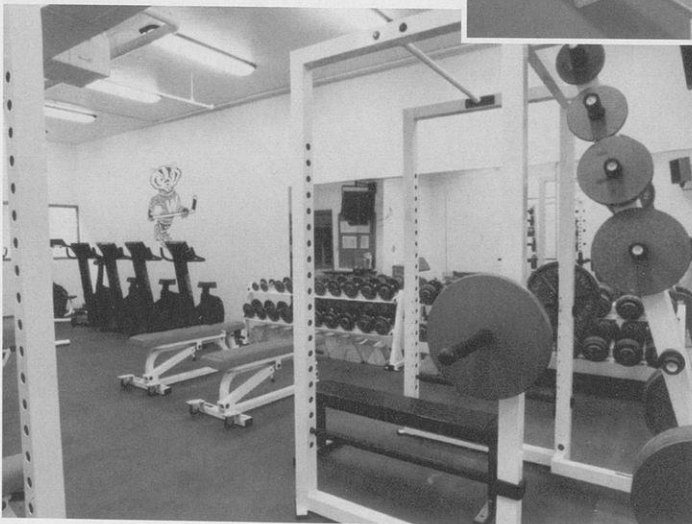

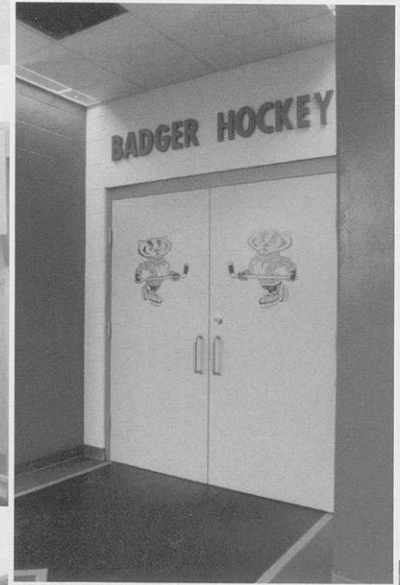

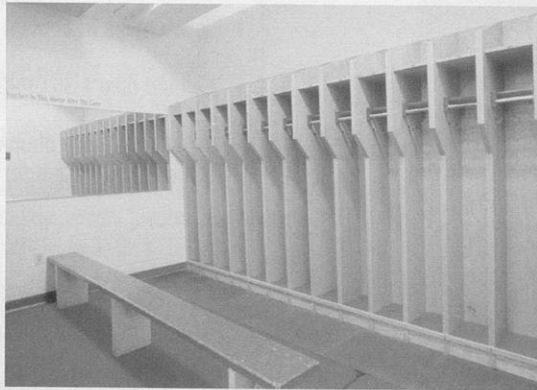

The facility is named after legendary Wisconsin head coach Bob Johnson, who directed the Badgers to three NCAA championships during his tenure from 1966-82. Johnson also coached the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team, as well as the NHL's Calgary Flames and Pittsburgh Penguins. He led the Penguins to their first Stanley Cup title during the 1990-91 season.

The complex, featuring state-of-the-art amenities for Badger hockey players, includes weight room and training room areas directly accessible from the main locker room area. Players have a private changing area equipped with personal lockers, and both the coaches and players have their own lounges.

The Bob Johnson Hockey Facility is conveniently located between the Alliant Energy Center's Veterans Memorial Coliseum and the Arena for easy access to both ice sheets.

Preseason Notebook

• Nineteen letterwinners return to the Badgers, while 10 newcomers join the program for 2003-04.

• Nineteen of the Badgers 29-man roster are either sophomores or freshmen.

• For the third time in the modern era (1963-current), Wisconsin will have tri-captains for the 2003-04 season as seniors Rene Borque, Dan Boeser and Andy Wozniewski will each wear the captain's "C". Wisconsin had tri-captains for 1974-75 and 1976-77.

• Three Badger freshmen were drafted in the 2003 NHL Entry Draft. The Nashville Predators selected defenseman Ryan Suter with the seventh pick overall. Forward Andrew Jouedrey was selected in the eighth round (249th) by the Washington Capitals, while goaltender Bill Elliott was chosen in the ninth round (291st) by the Ottawa Senators. In all, eight current Badgers belong to NHL clubs.

• Only two Badgers, senior Rene Borque (41 goals) and sophomore Ryan MacMurchy (10 goals) have reached double figures in career goal scoring.

• Five members of the 2003-04 Badgers are products of USA Hockey's national team development program with each having played for current Wisconsin head coach Mike Eaves while in the program. They are Jake Dowell, Robbie Earl, Jeff Likens, Tom Sawatske and Ryan Suter.

• Last season was the seventh losing season in the modern era of Wisconsin men's hockey (since 1963). In four of the previous six times, the Badgers have responded with a winning season. In those four winning seasons, Wisconsin won the WCHA twice and finished second the two other times.

• The UW has had four sons follow in their father's footsteps and wear the Badger uniform – Murray (1968-71) and Dany (1999-2001) Heatley; Gary (1970-74) and Brad (1999-2003) Winchester; Dean (1971-74) and Pete (2002-current) Talafous; and Bob (1975-79) and Ryan (2003-current) Suter.

• Head coach Mike Eaves and assistant coach John Hynes will serve in the same capacity for the 2004 U.S. National Junior Team when it competes in the 2004 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Junior Championship in Helsinki and Hameenlinna, Finland. The tournament runs Dec. 25, 2003 to Jan. 4, 2004.

• Troy Ward, a Badger assistant coach for 2002-03, is now the associate head coach for Wisconsin.

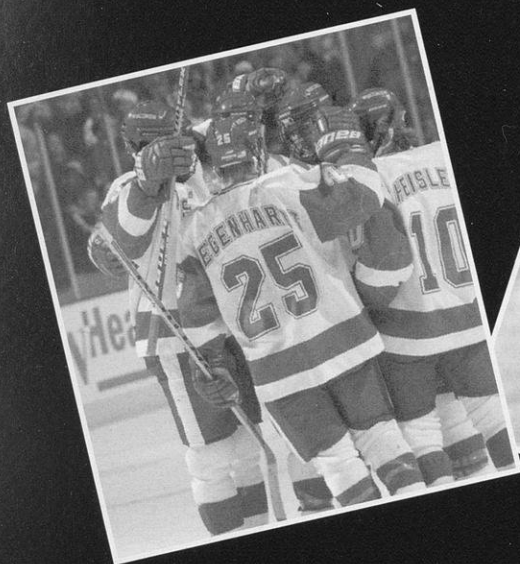

• The Badgers took just over four seasons to draw their one-millionth fan and after five years have welcomed 1,192,099 people to men's hockey at the Kohl Center.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

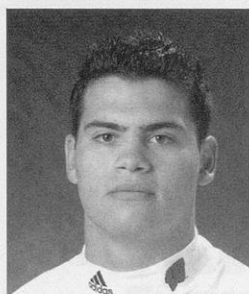

For a student who wants to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, one of the greatest opportunities available is an athletic scholarship. With the support of a scholarship, a student-athlete is able to take full advantage of the academic and athletic experience.

Many UW alumni and friends have chosen to contribute to the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics by establishing endowed scholarships. These funds, managed through the UW Foundation, provide annual income for scholarship support, while the principal remains in perpetuity to benefit the Division. These scholarships have a tremendous impact on the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics as they benefit today's student-athletes and also those in generations to come.

Following is a list of current members of the UW men's hockey team who are recipients of endowed scholarships this year. The scholarship is named for the donor or someone the donor wishes to honor and provides full or partial scholarship support for Badger student-athletes.

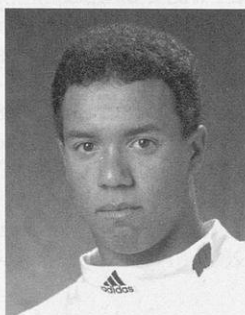

Our student-athletes, coaches and administrators thank you for your tremendous support of Wisconsin Athletics.

Mike Eaves spent four years at the University of Wisconsin as one of the best players to wear the cardinal and white jerseys synonymous with Badger men's hockey. Now in his second year as head coach, Eaves' legacy remains in its beginning stages.

Eaves returned to his alma mater last season, 25 years after helping the 1977 team to the NCAA championship. The 47-year-old Eaves has played and coached at nearly every level of hockey, from Division III UW-Eau Claire to the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and Philadelphia Flyers to Helsinki of the Finnish Elite League to Shattuck St. Mary's High School.

He returned to the UW after spending two seasons as the head coach of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP). A program designed to accelerate the development of elite under-20 American hockey players, Eaves led the group to a gold medal at the 2002 IIHF World Under-18 Championship in Piestany, Slovakia, the first-ever gold medal for the United States at the event.

Eaves' coaching days began in 1985 with the Calgary Flames (assistant) and since then he has held assistant coaching positions with the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and Philadelphia Flyers, and head coaching posts with the Helsinki Finnish Elite League, Shattuck (Minn.) St. Mary's High School and the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League (AHL). He also spent one season at St. Cloud State (assistant coach) and one season at UW-Eau Claire (head coach).

Eaves has also represented the U.S. in international competition both as a player and coach. He skated as a forward for Team USA at both the 1981 and 1984 Canada Cup tournaments and was a member of the 1976 and 1978 U.S. National Teams at the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Championships. As a coach, Eaves served as an assistant under Bob Johnson for Team USA at the 1991 Canada Cup and was also an assistant coach for the 1991 U.S. National Team at the IIHF World Championship in Finland.

■ In the Beginning

Eaves was recruited to play at Wisconsin by the legendary "Badger Bob" Johnson. He became both a standout student-athlete and one of the greatest players in Badger hockey history in his career (1974-78). A first-team All-American as a junior and senior, Eaves is still the UW's career scoring leader with 267 points (94-173) in 160 games. He helped lead the Badgers to the 1977 NCAA title by scoring 28 goals and adding 53 assists for 81 points during that championship season. He assisted on three goals in the championship game, including the game winner just 23 seconds into overtime, a 6-5 win over Michigan.

Eaves was a three-year team captain for the Badgers, earning Wisconsin's 1978 Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor, given to the athlete who best demonstrates proficiency in both academics and athletics. A 1992 UW Athletic Department Hall of Fame inductee, he ranks eighth on the WCHA's all-time scoring list and was named one of the WCHA's "Top 50 Players in 50 Years" as part of the league's celebration of its 50th anniversary during the 2001-02 season.

Following college, Eaves made the jump to the NHL, playing eight seasons for the Minnesota North Stars (1978-83) and Calgary Flames (1983-86), accumulating 226 points (83-143) in 324 games. He was the North Stars' rookie of the year in 1979-80 and was the Flames' 1984-85 nominee for the NHL's Bill Masterton Award, given annually to the player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to the game.

■ USA Hockey

As head coach of the NTDP, Eaves coached the nation's elite U-20 players for two seasons (2001-02). These U-18 and U-17 teams represent USA Hockey at international events such as the World U-17 Challenge, the World U-18 Championship and the World U-20 Championship, while playing a variety of games against junior, college and international competition throughout the year.

The NTDP experienced its most successful season during Eaves' second year when the U-18 team won the gold medal at the IIHF World Championship in Slovakia. Eaves and his team clinched the gold with a 3-1 victory over Russia to end the tourney with a 7-1-0 record. Excluding the Olympics, it is the only gold medal won by a U.S. National team at an IIHF World Championship since 1933.

Over 20 of his players from the NTDP have been drafted by the NHL and over 40 are playing division I college hockey.

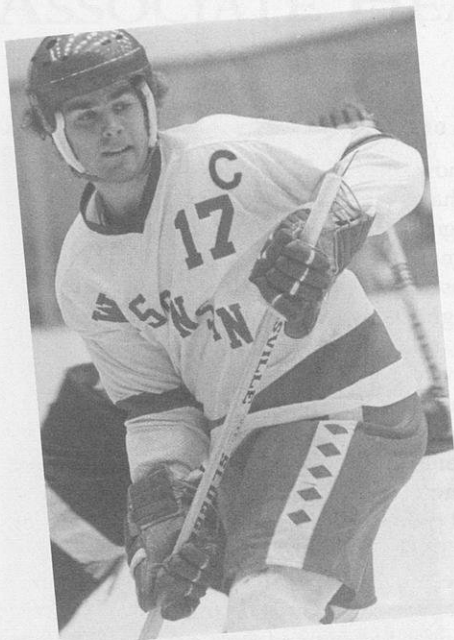

Because of his success, USA Hockey has once again called on the coach for the international stage. Eaves, along with Wisconsin assistant coach John Hynes, will direct the U.S. National Junior Team at the 2004 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship. The tournament will take place Dec. 25, 2003-Jan. 4, 2004, in Helsinki and Hameenlinna, Finland.

■ Behind the Bench Professional

His professional coaching career consists of stints with three different NHL teams, beginning with Calgary in 1985-86. During his final season as a player, Eaves also served as an assistant coach under Bob Johnson with the Flames. That year the Flames finished second in the Smythe Division with a 40-31-9 record, losing to Montreal in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup finals, 4-1.

He returned to the NHL in 1988 when he joined the Philadelphia Flyer staff for two seasons, during which the Flyers made it to the conference championship in 1989 before losing to Montreal in the finals. Eaves returned to Philly in 1993-94 again as an assistant coach (to Terry Simpson).

His most recent pro coaching job was at Pittsburgh. From 1997-2000, Eaves served as an assistant under Kevin Constantine (1997-2000). The Penguins won the Northeast Division (1997-98) with a 40-24-18 record, but lost in the conference quarterfinals. The next two seasons, Pittsburgh placed third in the Atlantic Division, ending its season in the conference semifinals both years. The Penguins had records of 38-30-14 (1998-99) and 37-31-8 (1999-2000) during those two campaigns.

HEAD COACH

College

Eaves' first collegiate coaching job was as the head coach at UW-Eau Claire (1986-87) in the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association (NCHA). Current UW associate head coach Troy Ward served in that same capacity under Eaves for that season.

From the Division III ranks, Eaves moved to the Division I level the next season (1987-88) becoming an assistant to Craig Dahl at St. Cloud State. The Huskies were in their first season as a division I college independent that year, ending the season at 11-25-1.

High School

At the prep level, Eaves took over the program at Shattuck (Minn.) St. Mary's from 1994-96. He coached both the Midget AAA team (1994-95) and the high school (1995-96) teams while at Shattuck.

EAVES HONOR ROLL

- Wisconsin's all-time leading scorer with 94-173=267 (160 games)
- Ranks second all time at UW with 173 career assists
- Ranks second at Wisconsin with 40 career power-play goals
- Three-time Badger team captain (1975-78)
- Two-time first-team All-American (1977, 1978)
- Two-time Badger MVP (1975-76, 1977-78)
- One of four UW hockey players to receive the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor
- Drafted by the St. Louis Blues in the 1976 NHL Draft (113th pick)
- The Minnesota North Stars' Rookie of the Year (1979-80)
- Nominated by Calgary (1984-85) for the Bill Masterton Award
- Inductee into the UW Athletic Department Hall of Fame (1992)
- USA Hockey's National Junior Coach of the Year (2002)

All in the Family

Hockey and coaching were two things Eaves grew up around. His father, Cecil, played hockey at the University of Denver (1956-57) and is also credited with helping to start the hockey program at Ohio State. He was the head coach at the University of Windsor (Ontario) and is a past director of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association (CAHA).

His brother Murray lettered two years at Michigan (1978-80) before playing for the Winnipeg Jets (1980-86) and the Detroit Red Wings (1987-88). He currently is the head coach at Shattuck St. Mary's High School.

A native of Denver, Colo., Mike and his wife, Beth, are the parents of two sons—Ben and Patrick—who both attend Boston College. Ben will captain the BC hockey team this season as a senior, while Patrick will be a sophomore on the Eagle hockey squad.

Ben became the second member of the Eaves family to win a national title when Boston College won the 2001 NCAA Championship.

Eaves graduated with honors from Wisconsin in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Q&A WITH COACH EAVES

Why should a student-athlete come to the UW?

"Everything a student-athlete would want out of their collegiate experience is here at the University of Wisconsin. From the first-class education, the faculty and staff, the incredible social experiences, top-rate facilities, a beautiful campus — this university has it all.

"As a student, you are attending one of the finest institutions around. As a student-athlete, the UW is one of the top athletic programs in the nation. The campus also has so much to offer with the lakes and its natural beauty. These things are why I decided many years ago to attend Wisconsin."

Did you ever think you would someday be the head coach at your alma mater?

"Not right away. When I graduated from the UW, my next step was the NHL and trying to make a living playing professional hockey, so coaching wasn't something I was thinking about at that point in my life. Once you establish yourself as a pro athlete, you want to know how good you can be and how long you can play at that level. I was able to play at that level for eight years.

"But then having to retire early from playing, my education then afforded me options that I would not have had otherwise. Instead of being limited because of not having an education, I had several options. My education allowed me to get into coaching and at one point in the early 90s, I did think it would be nice to get back to Madison and coach. After a few years of coaching at various levels, you are able to understand the scope of the coaching world and what path is best for you."

"With the way things unfolded the opportunity arose again, so I decided to put my name in the hat to see what happened."

What is your coaching philosophy?

"That's a tough question to answer concisely. Over time, I've come to realize that your coaching philosophy can come down to how other teams talk about you. 'Man they are hard to play against. They play hard and compete. They play smart and don't hurt themselves. They play as a team.' When teams talk about you in these terms with those comments then you have something that can become a great foundation for a successful program. That is what our philosophy is. We want to play hard, play smart and play as a team."

What are some of the characteristics you want to see out of your players?

"Playing hard and having good work habits is at the base of what we want established here and what we will do right away with our young players. Once we've got that in place, we teach them what our definition of playing smart is. We put them in game situations and give each player feedback on playing smart in key situations and creating opportunities we can take advantage of.

"If you have a group of players that aren't necessarily the most talented but they play as a team, you are going to be successful. If you can forecheck as a unit of five, if you can forecheck in the neutral zone as a unit of five, if you can play defensive hockey as a unit of five, you are collectively better than if you had five superstars on the ice."

What are the strengths of this staff?

"Well, first of all, we know each other. We have been to war together and back. We have slept together on busses. We've eaten more fast food together than we ever wanted to. We have won and lost tough games. There is an innate trust that comes with going through those experiences together. We can look at each other and know right away what we need to do. Our verbiage is the same. So, right away this staff has that trust and loyalty that doesn't have to be built up. We can go right to work and be effective with the student-athletes.

"Another strength of this staff is that we come from such varied backgrounds. Troy and I have been fortunate enough to have worked with a wide range of hockey players from prep-age athletes to the professional player. Because of this, our awareness of hockey and what is out there is vast and we can draw on those experiences. Because we as a staff have that awareness, we can create more awareness among the team. When you have awareness, you can make changes in people's lives. The players will be able to make changes in their own lives with this awareness.

"Most important, Troy and John are very good people. These kids won't care about what these guys know until they know they care. Once these young men see how much we care about them as human beings, they will be more open to receive what we are saying and will go to the wall for us."

What's it feel like to succeed 'Badger' Bob Johnson and Jeff Sauer?

"It's an honor. These gentlemen have come in and created a rich tradition of coaching here. They were here a long time and were very successful. The tradition that has been created here is something you can draw on for strength and inspiration. But after that, it goes back to day-to-day functions and what we can control day in and day out. If we are successful in our daily activities, we give ourselves the best chance of doing what these gentlemen did and have a long prosperous career and be successful."

What is your greatest moment or experience as a coach?

"As a coach, it would have to be the U-18 World Championship we won in Slovakia. We were playing in Europe in a hostile environment and were always the visiting team.

"Our captain stood up in our locker room before the first game and started talking about Flight 93 on Sept. 11 and how the passengers regained control of the plane and crashed it, saving who knows how many more lives. The last transmission from that plane was 'Let's roll,' which became one of our sayings. This 18-year old young man is trying to tell this story and choking back tears. That was really special to be a part of.

"Then the fact that we did end up winning the gold medal. When they played the national anthem, the fans were booing and whistling as they do in Europe and it gets very loud. Our kids were standing arm in arm on the blueline singing the national anthem and the volume of noise started to decrease to the point where you could hear our boys singing above any other noise that was in the arena. These people saw and felt how proud these boys were and how important this was to them. That coaching moment and being a part of that with those young men was probably my coaching highlight up to this time in my career."

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH TROY WARD

Troy Ward enters his second season at Wisconsin and his first as associate head coach. Ward serves as the Badgers' recruiting coordinator off the ice, while dealing primarily with the defense and penalty-killing units on the ice. He has been involved with hockey at all levels — NCHA, USHL, IHL, AHL, ECHL, NHL— either as a player or coach for 23 years.

Before joining the Badgers, he was Senior Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations for the East Coast Hockey League (ECHL). In this capacity, Ward was in charge of all the league's hockey operations and officiating departments, as well as the primary liaison with the NHL, AHL and other pro leagues.

During the 2000-01 season, Ward was named the ECHL's Coach of the Year as he led the Trenton Titans to a 61-26-4 record and the Northern Conference title in his only season as head coach.

From 1997-2000, Ward was an assistant coach for the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins. He was the team's defensive coordinator which involved working with the penalty killing unit. Ward also oversaw video coordination and off-ice improvement sessions with players. During the 1997-98 season, the team set a franchise record for penalty killing (86.7 percent) and lowest goals-against average. Among the players he coached were Jaromir Jagr and Ron Francis.

Ward's start in pro hockey came in 1995 as an assistant coach for the International Hockey League's Indianapolis Ice, which won the Eastern Conference Championship in his final season (1997) with the franchise. Prior to Indianapolis, Ward was the general manager and head coach of the Dubuque Fighting Saints of the United States Hockey League (USHL), a Junior A League. He led the Saints to a 63-45-5 mark and coached 18 players that received Division I scholarships in his two seasons there.

No stranger to the WCHA, Ward got his start in Division I hockey as an assistant coach at the University of Denver from 1990-93, under head coach Frank Serratore. He was responsible for the weight training and nutrition programs while also coaching the defensemen and special teams. Ward's start in coaching came at his alma mater, UW-Eau Claire, where he served as the head coach from 1987-90 and as an assistant to Mike Eaves for the 1986-87 season.

In the offseason, Ward is very active in summer camps, including being the owner and camp director of his Hockey and Sons Skill Camp. He also directed the Pittsburgh Penguins' Hockey Camp (1997-99) and has been involved with USA Hockey's Masters Symposium and Select 16 camps. Since 1994 Ward has been a coach at the C&O High Altitude Hockey Camp in Denver, which is a conditioning camp for professional players (NHL, IHL and AHL).

Ward, 41, earned a bachelor's degree in comprehensive physical education (1985) from UW-Eau Claire and a master's degree in athletic administration from UW-Eau Claire in 1989. The native of North St. Paul, Minn. has two sons, 12-year old Taylor and eight-year old Nathan.

ASSISTANT COACH JOHN HYNES

ASSISTANT COACHES

Like his two coaching colleagues, John Hynes begins his second year with the Badger hockey program. As an assistant coach, Hynes' duties include overseeing the strength and conditioning program and assisting with recruiting. On the ice, he works with both the forwards and defensemen.

Prior to his Wisconsin appointment, Hynes was a member of the coaching staff for the U-18 Team within USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP). He helped guide that team to its most successful season in program history, winning the gold medal at the 2002 World U-18 Championship in Trnava, Slovakia. The gold medal won by the U-18 team was the first United States national team to take gold at an IIHF tourney (excluding the Olympics) since 1933. The team finished with a 7-1-0 tourney mark, defeating Russia 3-1 in the championship game.

Additionally, Hynes served as an assistant coach for the USA National Junior Team which finished with a 4-1-2 mark at the world junior championship in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The native of Warwick, R.I., graduated from Boston University in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He played three years for the Terriers, lettering all three years and taking part in four straight NCAA Frozen Fours. BU won the 1995 NCAA Championship in Providence.

His first stint as an assistant coach was at his alma mater. After graduating in May of 1997, Hynes stayed on to serve as an assistant coach at BU under Jack Parker. That year the Terriers won the Hockey East regular-season title and made the NCAA tournament.

From there, Hynes joined the National Team Development Program in Ann Arbor, Mich., as a graduate assistant coach under Jeff Jackson. His duties included directing the strength and conditioning programs while working with both the Under-17 and Under-18 teams. He coached those teams in two U-18 world championships. With Hynes' help, 15 members of the the NTDP were drafted in the 2002 NHL Entry Draft, including five first rounders.

During the 2000-01 season, he was an assistant coach at the University of Massachusetts-Lowell. Hynes supervised and developed the recruiting system and also designed and ran the strength and conditioning program for the River Hawks. That year the team went from finishing in last place the year before (1999-2000) to the Hockey East finals.

Hynes is also active within USA Hockey, having served as the head strength and conditioning advisor and lecturer for USA Hockey's Select 15, 16 and 17 camps. In that capacity, he was responsible for all off-ice training, testing and education of players. He's also been a guest speaker at coaching symposiums and an instructor at various summer camps. Hynes' coaching has taken him from Slovakia to Sweden and from Finland to the Czech Republic as he has been an assistant coach for three gold medal and two silver medal-winning U-17 and U-18 teams.

Hynes will again represent USA Hockey this winter as an assistant coach for the U.S. national junior team at the 2004 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship. The tournament runs Dec. 25, 2003-Jan. 4, 2004 in Finland.

ASSISTANT COACH BILL HOWARD

Bill Howard returns to the UW hockey staff for his 30th season as a volunteer assistant coach in 2003-04. He is a veteran of all five Wisconsin NCAA championship teams and continues to be the man behind the goaltending success of Badger teams.

During the off-season, Howard is actively involved in numerous summer hockey camps and seminars, including intensive goaltending schools in Chicago, Madison, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Louis. After 34 years of teaching business law at Madison Memorial High School, Howard retired in the spring of 2000 from teaching.

In addition, Howard has also served as color commentator, both on radio and television, for Badger hockey.

During his tenure at the UW, Howard has helped develop All-Americans Julian Baretta (1977), Roy Schultz (1980), Duane Derksen (1992) and Kirk Daubenspeck (1997) plus eventual NHL standouts Mike Richter (New York Rangers), Curtis Joseph (Detroit Red Wings) and Jim Carey (Boston Bruins). His most recent standout in goal was Graham Melanson (1997-2001), who finished his career at Wisconsin with school records in wins (81), games played (140), saves (3,850) and minutes (8,179). Current Badger goaltender Bernd Brückler shares third on the all-time UW list with a .910 career save percentage and is fifth with a 2.83 goals-against average.

Before joining the UW staff full-time, Howard started the high school hockey program at Madison Memorial and was the Spartans' head coach for 10 years (1967-77). His teams won two state titles and posted a 136-72-1 (.653) record, including a perfect 44-0-0 mark from 1975-77.

Howard enjoyed a distinguished career at Colorado College as a goaltender, where he played for Bob Johnson. He lettered two years for the Tigers in 1964-65 and 1965-66, and was the starting goaltender during the 1965-66 campaign. Howard, a two-sport athlete at CC, was also a member of the Tiger baseball team.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING MIKE POTENZA

STRENGTH COACH

Mike Potenza is in his first year serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Badger men's hockey team.

A 2000 Springfield College graduate, Potenza earned his bachelor of science degree in applied exercise science. From there, the Providence, R.I., native went to Boston University where he was a graduate assistant until 2002, earning his master's degree in human movement.

Potenza comes to Wisconsin with an assortment of strength and conditioning coaching and internship experiences. At the University of Miami, he served as a weight training, speed and post workout coach for the Hurricanes, a nationally-ranked football team. While earning his master's degree, he instructed professional, amateur, and collegiate athletes for Mike Boyle Strength and Conditioning in various weight training, conditioning, agility, plyometric, rehabilitation and stretching programs.

Since graduating from Springfield, Potenza has held notable positions for Harvard University in Boston and most recently, Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. He assisted and supervised all phases of strength training programs for all intercollegiate programs at Harvard and held primary coaching responsibilities with football, men's and women's hockey, men's and women's basketball, lacrosse, and field hockey for both universities.

He resides in Madison with fiancé Bonnie Pitino.

"The Wisconsin hockey strength and conditioning program has a threefold approach: the improvement of a player's physical abilities (strength, speed, core stability, flexibility and endurance); an education on the synergy that exists among training, nutrition, and recovery; and an enhancement of the player's self-confidence that results from hard work and dedication.

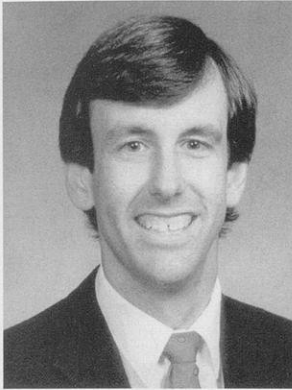

Our comprehensive program is aimed at maximizing each athlete's full potential, with the goal being success for the player on the ice and in life."

HOCKEY STAFF

Rob Malnory
Administrative Assistant

This season is the 25th for Rob Malnory with the UW hockey program and the 14th year as the administrative assistant to the coaching staff. He is a veteran of the 1981, 1983 and 1990 Badger NCAA Championships.

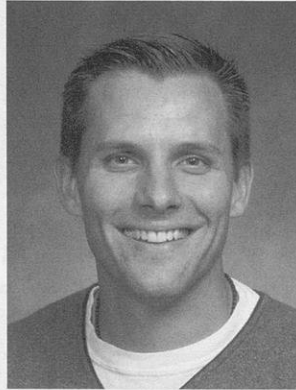

A native of Waupun, Wis., Malnory's duties include the planning and coordinating of all hockey road trips and serving as equipment manager.

Malnory has a wealth of international experience as well. He has twice been selected as the team manager for the touring WCHA All Star Teams, making trips to Switzerland (1998) and Norway (2000). He has served as equipment manager for the U.S. Select Team that played for the Tampere Cup in Finland (1997) and the USA Hockey Select 17 teams that traveled to Tokyo in 1993. In 1992, he served as equipment manager for USA Hockey's Over-20 team, which took part in tournaments in Finland.

He was the assistant equipment manager at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival in Greensboro, N.C., and has also worked with the 1988 USA Hockey Team at a training camp in Lake Placid, N.Y.

Malnory is a graduate of the UW, holding a bachelor's degree in accounting.

He lives in Madison.

Andy Hrodey
Athletic Trainer

Andy Hrodey is in his fifth season handling athletic training duties for the UW hockey team after being hired as a full-time staff member for the Badger athletic training staff in 1999-2000.

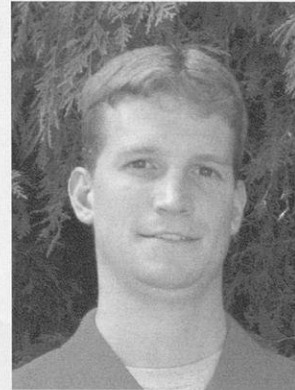

He returned to Wisconsin from the United States Military Academy where he served as a full-time athletic trainer for both the hockey and football teams.

Previously at the UW, Hrodey was a graduate assistant during the 1996-97 and 1997-98 seasons, working as a team trainer for both the UW football and wrestling programs.

A native of Sheldon, Ill., Hrodey attended the University of Illinois and worked as a student athletic trainer with the football, men's basketball, women's swimming and wrestling programs.

The 29-year old Hrodey is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and received his B.S. from Illinois (1996) and his M.S. from Wisconsin (1998). He is a licensed Athletic Trainer.

Hrodey, who married his wife Liz in the summer of 2003, resides in Madison.

Zach Remiker
Video Coordinator

Zach Remiker joins the Badger hockey staff as video coordinator for the 2003-04 season after spending the prior three years as a student assistant in Wisconsin's video services.

Remiker spent most of the time assisting video for the UW football program, but also served the Badger track and field program, as well as the swimming program, with their video needs.

A 2003 graduate of Wisconsin with a bachelor of arts degree in marketing, management and human resources, Remiker spent five years working for the athletic department in the mail room. He also worked four years on weekend security at Camp Randall Stadium and three years in concessions for hockey and basketball at the Kohl Center.

The 24-year old's duties include creating highlight films, taping games, assisting coaches with film breakdowns and helping with media video requests, among other responsibilities.

The Two Rivers, Wis., native lives in Madison.

Cheryl Marra
Sports Administration

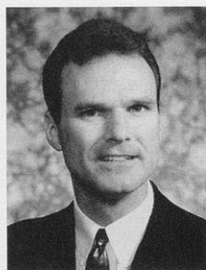

Cheryl Marra is in her second year as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration. Marra is also the school's Senior Woman Administrator for the Big Ten Conference and NCAA. She supervises 20 sports (with assistance from two staffers) and the academic affairs and compliance departments. Marra is the direct administrator for men's and women's hockey.

Hired in 1990 at the UW as an Associate A.D. for Women's Athletics, Marra was responsible for planning, scheduling, evaluations and supervision of 11 sports. She has been a regular participant on NCAA committees (post-graduate scholarship, women's athletics, women's soccer and women's basketball). Marra is in her second year as chair of the women's basketball committee.

The Director of Athletics for Women's Sports at Denison from 1983-90, Marra also served that school as an assistant professor and women's soccer (11 years) and track (nine) coach. Marra has a B.S. from Slippery Rock State (1977) and M.A. from Ohio State (1983).

College Hockey Showcase

The first four years of the Showcase were played at neutral sites — The Palace, The Target Center, The Bradley Center, Joe Louis Arena — with each school getting a chance to host the event. After the 1996 showcase, the event was moved to campus sites, rotating among the four Showcase schools.

DID YOU KNOW ...

- the same teams have made 92 NCAA tourney appearances?

THE 2002-03 SEASON

Final Records

Wisconsin completed its season 13-23-4 overall, 7-17-4 in the WCHA. The final WCHA mark was good for eighth-place in league standings.

Eaves' First Year

The third Wisconsin coach since 1966 began his tenure, as Badger all-time leading scorer Mike Eaves returned to his alma mater to take over the reins of the program.

The first victory of the new era came in the season's second game as the Badgers defeated No. 12 Northern Michigan, 4-3, in the third-place game of the Ice Breaker Invitational.

Rene Reigns

Forward Rene Bourque dominated nearly every offensive category for the Badgers. Bourque finished the season as the team's leader in goals (19), points (27), shots (162), power-play goals (7) and game-winning goals (4). Bourque also shared the team lead with 19 points in WCHA games, and led the team with 12 goals in league play. He also had the team's longest point streak of the season, going eight games with at least one point from Dec. 30 until Jan. 24.

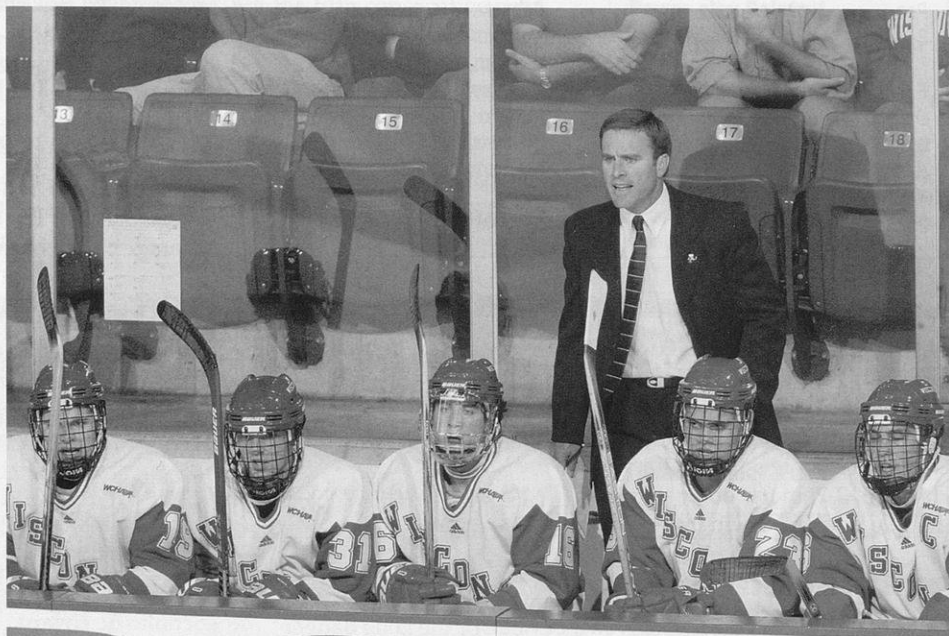

It All Starts in Goal

Goaltender Bernd Brückler saw the majority of the playing time in goal and reached the Badger top-10 list for goals-against average in a season with his 2.83 goals-against average. The mark ranks 10th on the single-season list. The figure also lowered his career goals-against average to 2.93, which ranks fifth all-time. His .910 career save percentage is good for a share of third all-time in the UW record book.

Newcomers Make an Impact

Newcomers made significant contributions to the UW effort in 2002-03. Two of the Badgers top three scorers played their freshman year of competition, while six of the the Badgers' top nine scorers were in their first season wearing cardinal and white.

Freshman forward Ryan MacMurphy led the group by ranking second on the team overall with 24 points on 10 goals and a team-leading 14 assists. Fellow rookie defenseman Tom Gilbert was third on the team in scoring with 20 points.

Also in the top eight were freshman Nick Licari, fifth with 15 points, sophomore Pete Talafoos, seventh with 14 points, and freshman John Funk, eighth with 13 points.

Walk-On Wiz

Walk-on forward John Funk provided the season's biggest and perhaps best surprise. After not playing in 14 of the team's first 16 games, Funk played the final 24 contests. In total, Funk skated in 26 games, but still ranked eighth on the UW scoring chart with 13 points. His six goals were good for fifth on the team and he was one of five Badgers to average at least a half point per game.

The Rearguard

Defenseman Tom Gilbert, third on Wisconsin's scoring chart, shared the WCHA lead among freshman defensemen with seven goals and 20 points.

Lending A Helping Hand

A freshman, Ryan MacMurphy played like a seasoned veteran on his way to collecting 24 points to rank second on the team. The team leader with 14 assists, he shared the team lead with 19 WCHA points and finished the campaign 10th among league rookie scorers.

Antipasto

Since the 1987-88 season, the Badgers have faced a foreign team each season. The Badgers continued their annual tradition when Team Italy visited the Kohl Center on Dec. 12. The Badgers won this year's exhibition, 7-0.

More Bang for the Buck

Wisconsin gave its fans their money's worth during a five-game stretch to open the 2003 portion of the 2002-03 season. Beginning with a 3-2 overtime loss to Minnesota State and finishing with a 2-1 overtime victory over Minnesota-Duluth, the Badgers played five straight games with extra time. Sandwiched between the loss and win was a 4-4 tie against the Mavericks and a pair of ties at Alaska Anchorage by 2-2 and 1-1 scores.

Showdown Champions

Wisconsin won its eighth Badger Hockey Showdown in the tournament's 14th year. The Badgers grabbed a 2-0 lead just past the midway point of the first period in the opener against Colgate and hung on for a 2-1 victory in the first round. They met Northern Michigan in the finals after the Wildcats edged Harvard, 3-2, in the other semifinal. The Badgers went on to take the title with a 3-1 win in the championship game.

Clamping Down

After taking a 2-1 lead through two periods of the 2002 Badger Hockey Showdown Championship Game, Wisconsin made sure they held their lead over Northern Michigan. For the first time in Badger hockey annals, the team held an opponent shotless throughout an entire period. Two times prior, against the same Northern Michigan team in 1982 and against Colorado College in 1983, the Badgers held an opponent to one shot in a period.

Technically Speaking

The Badgers had their largest offensive output of the season when they defeated Michigan Tech in Green Bay, Wis., on Mar. 1. The nine goals Wisconsin scored in the 9-5 victory were the most since the team's 9-6 victory over UMass-Amherst to open the 2000-01 season on Oct. 6.

Four Badgers recorded at least three points in the contest including Ryan MacMurchy, who collected three helpers, Rene Bourque, who scored two times and set up a third goal, Nick Licari, who scored once and assisted on two scores, and Dan Boeser, who assisted on four of Wisconsin's goals.

Players of the Week

Two Badger hockey players were honored as WCHA Players of the Week for their play in a sweep (4-1, 4-2) of visiting Alaska Anchorage on Feb. 7 and 8. Bernd Brückler was the Defensive POW while freshman Nick Licari was named Rookie of the Week.

Brückler started both games, helping lead the UW to a series sweep. He stopped 50 of 53 Seawolf shots on the weekend for a .943 save percentage, giving up just one even-strength goal in 120:00 of play. He also added an assist on the game-winning goal by Ryan MacMurchy during the Friday game.

Licari tallied back-to-back multiple-point games in the Badgers' two wins over the Seawolves. He factored in on both game-winning goals and played a role in four of the Badgers' eight goals on the weekend. He notched the game-winning goal in the first game and assisted on two of Wisconsin's four goals in the series finale.

Off the Ice

Several Badgers earned recognition for their academic performances during the 2002-03 school year. Listed below are those student-athletes honored with Academic All-Big Ten and Academic All-WCHA status.

Academic All-Big Ten: Jake Heisler/Jr. (Bloomington, Minn.), Mark Jackson/Sr. (St. Albert, Alberta), Brad Winchester/Sr. (Madison, Wis.)

Academic All-WCHA: Jake Heisler, Mark Jackson, Brad Winchester

Athletic Board Scholar: Mark Jackson was named an Athletic Board Scholar. The student-athlete with the highest grade-point average on his or her team is an Athletic Board Scholar.

The Nation's Best Fans

Wisconsin fans have shown their support in all sports throughout the years and their support for Badger men's hockey continues to be the best in the nation. For the fifth consecutive year, Wisconsin led the nation in attendance. The Badgers attracted 228,612 total people to average 11,431 fans during 20 home dates. Since the 1998-99 season, the team's first in the Kohl Center, the Badgers have paced collegiate attendance.

The Badgers boast 29 years of leading the nation in attendance including a 24-year stretch from the 1969-70 season until the 1992-93 season that took place while the UW played at the Dane County Coliseum.

Senior Salute

Another year, another graduating class of seniors for the Wisconsin hockey team.

Brian Fahey - Helped the Badgers to the 2002 Badger Hockey Showdown Championship and was named the tournament most valuable player.

Mark Jackson - Scored his first career game-winning goal on Oct. 18 against Alabama-Huntsville on his way to a career-best nine-point season.

Erik Jensen - Led the Badgers in penalty minutes his final two seasons and set Kohl Center records with six penalties in a series and three penalties in a period.

Scott Kabotoff - His .902 career save percentage ranks sixth on the Badger all-time list while his 3.26 career goals against average is ninth on UW charts.

Brad Winchester - Finished his career with a share of the all-time Kohl Center goal-scoring record with 24. He shares the mark with Calgary Flames forward Steve Reinprecht (1996-00)

This is the WCHA

The Western College Hockey Association (WCHA) is in the midst of its sixth decade of competition, where it has distinguished the league as the best in college hockey. Consider that the WCHA is home to 33 NCAA championship teams, more than 300 NHL'ers, 100 Olympians, 300 All-Americans, eight Hobey Baker winners and over 1,000 student-athletes who have earned all-academic status since 1985.

With over 50 years of history to fall back on, the WCHA can claim many other accomplishments that no other league can come close to. Among those:

- Leading the nation in attendance. The WCHA is the only league to draw more than 1,000,000 home fans in a season and has done that for nine years in a row. The 2002-03 season saw an incredible 1,166,229 fans witness league games.
- An unmatched record for producing future NHL stars. Tony Esposito, Keith Magnuson, Eddie Mio, Lou Nanne, Glenn Anderson, Curt Giles, Neal Broten, Chris Chelios, Brett Hull, Curtis Joseph, Ed Belfour and more recently Dany Heatley and Steve Reinprecht played in the WCHA.
- Being the first Division I college hockey conference to send an all-star team overseas when they toured Switzerland in August of 1998. That inaugural trip was followed by a tour of Norway (August, 2000). The league is now committed to sending a league all-star team overseas every other year.
- Showcasing one of the nation's top collegiate tournaments. The 2001, 2002 and 2003 WCHA Final Five Tournaments were played at the state-of-the art Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, Minn. Those two years drew 67,367, 75,151 and 72,786 fans, respectively, for a three-year total of 215,304 or an average of 14,357 fans for each Final Five game.

Mark Johnson

MVP/Player of the Year

From 1960-81, the league's MVP award was administered by the Denver Post. Since 1981, it has been selected through balloting of coaches, players, sports information directors and news media. In 1992, the MVP designation was changed to the WCHA Player of the Year.

Jeff Dessner

Rookie of the Year

The WCHA Rookie of the Year has been presented under three different sets of criteria since 1960. From 1959-60 through 1969-70, freshmen were not allowed to play in the WCHA and the rookie award went to the top sophomore. From 1970-71 through 1989-90, the award was known as the Freshman of the Year. In 1990, the WCHA adopted the Rookie of the Year Award for the top first-year player.

Final Five All-Tourney Team

The WCHA Playoff Championship Final Five tourney began selecting all-tournament teams in 1987-88. That year, the league implemented its current playoff format of playing its annual tournament at a neutral site instead of on campus sites. The first round of the league tourney is a best-of-three series on the campus sites of the top-five finishers, with the winners advancing to the WCHA Final Five.

WCHA PLAYOFF CHAMPIONSHIP

Attendance History

The WCHA moved its annual playoff championship from campus sites to one neutral site beginning with 1988 postseason action. Below is the attendance history and yearly host site from 1988 to the present.

1988	St. Paul	51,807	1996	Milwaukee	47,304
1989	St. Paul	50,232	1997	St. Paul	56,707
1990	St. Paul	47,845	1998	Milwaukee	38,707
1991	St. Paul	44,287	1999	Minneapolis	42,226
1992	St. Paul	44,079	2000	Minneapolis	49,717
1993	St. Paul	50,737	2001	St. Paul	67,611
1994	Milwaukee	61,367	2002	St. Paul	75,150
1995	St. Paul	55,908	2003	St. Paul	72,786
16-year Total				856,472

THE BROADMOOR TROPHY

Since 1985, teams winning the WCHA playoff championship have been awarded the Broadmoor Trophy, which was first presented to the conference in 1981 by the world-renowned Broadmoor Hotel and Resort in Colorado Springs, Colo. The Broadmoor hosted the NCAA Ice Hockey Championship 11 times between 1948 and 1969.

For the first three seasons (1981-84) of its partnership with the WCHA (due to the departure of league member and MacNaughton Cup custodian Michigan Tech to the CCHA), the trophy was presented to the Association's regular-season champion. When the Huskies returned to the WCHA for the 1984-85 season, the Broadmoor Trophy became and has since been the symbol of the league's post-season tournament championship.

The Badgers have won 11 playoff titles over the years:

Across the Border

The Wisconsin hockey program is one of the most successful in college hockey and without question part of that success has been the wealth of talent that has come from our neighbors to the north. Listed below is a province-by-province breakdown of how many Canadian student-athletes (85* total) have played for the Cardinal and White since the 1963-64 season.

Alberta.....	24
Ontario.....	22
British Columbia.....	16
Manitoba.....	9
Saskatchewan.....	9
Quebec.....	2
New Brunswick.....	1
NW Territory.....	1
Nova Scotia.....	1

*Includes only players who have lettered

Overseas

The Badger recruiting effort has also reached overseas. The first-ever European born player to don the Cardinal and White was Jan-Ake Danielson (1981-84), who hailed from Insjon, Sweden. Since then, Latvians Ulvis Katlaps (1992-94) and Yuri Gusak (1995-99) and Finnish-born player Niki Siren (1996-2000) have played at Wisconsin.

On the Badgers' current roster, Bernd Brückler (Graz, Austria) is the first European-born goaltender to ever play for the Badgers.

Fathers & Sons

Four sons have followed in their father's footsteps and become Badgers.

Dany Heatley, whose father Murray was a Badger from 1968-71, and Brad Winchester, whose father Gary played wing during the 1970-74 seasons, were both freshmen during the 1999-2000 season. Heatley signed with the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers following his sophomore season (2000-01) and Winchester graduated in 2003. Pete Talafous, who transferred to the UW from Alaska Anchorage, is the son of Dean Talafous who played center for the Badgers (1971-74). Newcomer Ryan Suter, is the son of former Badger defender Bob Suter (1975-79).

Oh Brother!

Over the years, 12 families have had two or more brothers play hockey at the University of Wisconsin.

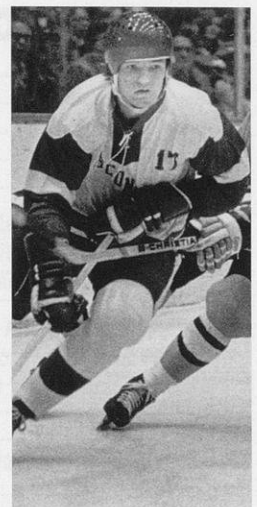

The Lundeens (Robert, Dave, Tom and Paul) all played in the 1970s. Tony, Don and Rob Granato were part of UW teams in the 1980s and 1990s.

The only set of twin brothers to become Badgers were Mark and Mike Strobel.

Mark and Peter Johnson, and John, Bob and Gary Suter were all local boys who became Badgers.

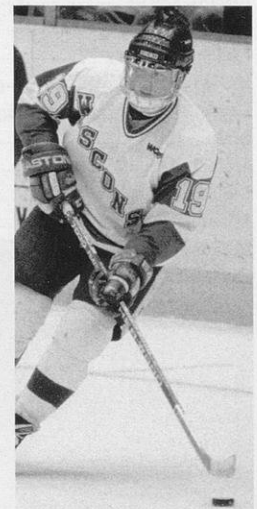

Rounding out the remaining brother combinations are Jeff and Rob Andringa, Jim and Mark Jefferies, Jim and John Johansson, Gary and Tom Kuklinski, Scott and Todd Lecy, Scott and Steve Sabo, and Jeff and Scott Sanderson.

In The Box

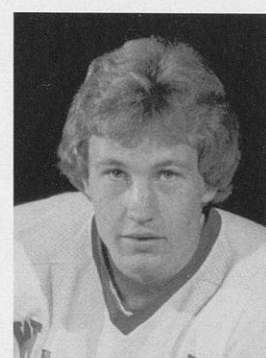

- Of the eight forwards who have earned first-team All-America accolades at Wisconsin, only two — Mark Johnson and Paul Ranheim — were born in the U.S. Mike Eaves, John Newberry, Patrick Flatley, Gary Shuchuk, Steve Reinprecht and Dany Heatley all hail from Canada.
- Roy Schultz (1980) was the last UW goaltender to earn first-team All-America recognition. Since his selection, the Badgers have had three netminders leave school early to sign NHL contracts — Mike Richter (New York Rangers), Curtis Joseph (Detroit Red Wings) and Jim Carey (Washington Capitals).
- The eight first-team All-America forwards scored 626-758=1,384 in their Badger careers in 854 games. That averages out to 1.6 points a game between the group.
- Five individuals have earned All-America status twice as a Badger: Mike Eaves, Mark Johnson, Tony Granato, Craig Norwich and Dany Heatley.
- The first five UW All-Americans were defensemen.
- Since 1970, Wisconsin is one of only two teams in the WCHA to have four All-Americans in one year. Following the 1987-88 season, Paul Ranheim and Paul Stanton (first team) and Steve Tuttle and Dean Anderson (second team) were all voted All-America.

 — supplemental draft

• — Indicates current Badger

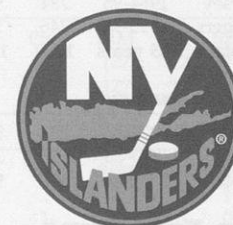

Mike Blaisdell was the 11th pick overall in the 1980 NHL Entry Draft. He was the Detroit Red Wings' top pick that year.

The 1984 NHL draft saw four Badgers selected, including Paul Ranheim in the second round by the Calgary Flames.

Pat Flatley was the second player in UW history taken in the first round. In the 1982 draft, the New York Islanders made Flatley the 21st pick overall.

Dany Heatley was the second player taken in the 2000 NHL Entry Draft, making him the highest-drafted Badger in UW history.

Ten Badgers on 2002-03 NHL Rosters

The University of Wisconsin had 10 alumni play for an NHL team during the 2002-03 season, including 21-year NHL veteran Chris Chelios, who was a member of the 2002 Stanley Cup Championship Detroit Red Wings. Listed below are 10 former Badgers who were listed on 2002-03 NHL rosters and their respective teams during the season.

The Badgers have had a representative on the last four straight Stanley Cup championship teams beginning with Brian Rafalski and the New Jersey Devils in 2000. Steve Reinprecht got his name on the Cup following the 2001 campaign when the Colorado Avalanche won the league title and Chelios added his name to the Cup for the second time in 2002 (first Stanley Cup title was with the Montreal Canadiens in 1986). Rafalski etched his name on the cup for the second time last year for the Devils.

Player	Team	Pos.
Chris Chelios	Detroit Red Wings	Defense
Dany Heatley	Atlanta Thrashers	Right Wing
Sean Hill	Carolina Hurricanes	Defense
Curtis Joseph	Detroit Red Wings	Goaltender
Scott Mellanby	St. Louis Blues	Right Wing
Brian Rafalski	New Jersey Devils	Defense

■ NHL Individual Team Records Held by Badgers

Atlanta Thrashers

• Dany Heatley is creating the Thrashers record book, setting franchise marks in 2002-03 for points (89), goals (41), power-play goals (19) and power-play points (39). His 26-41=67 set the Atlanta rookie record for goals, assists and points in 2001-02. He is also the Thrashers all-time leading scorer with 155 points.

Calgary Flames

• Gary Suter is tied for the franchise record with six assists tallied in one game (4-19-86).

Chicago Blackhawks

• Chris Chelios holds the team mark for most career penalty minutes (1,495).

Edmonton Oilers

• Goaltender Curtis Joseph holds Oiler records for most shutouts in a season (8) and career (14).

Florida Panthers

• Scott Mellanby holds Florida records for most games (552), most career goals (157) and most career points (354). He is tied for the franchise mark for most assists (4) in a game (11-26-97).

Washington Capitals

• Jim Carey recorded nine shutouts during the 1995-96 campaign, which still stands as the Capitals' top mark for a season.

ACADEMIC AWARDS

■ Academic All-Big Ten

In 1984, the Big Ten established an academic at-large team to honor student-athletes outside the sports of football, basketball and baseball, with a "B" average or better during their career. Beginning in 1986-87, the conference selected separate academic All-Big Ten teams for each conference sport that competed for a Big Ten championship.

■ Academic All-WCHA

Beginning in 1984-85, the WCHA recognized student-athletes who exemplified academic excellence. Those selected must have completed at least one year of residence at his present institution, must have a 3.00 grade-point average (4.00 scale) and competed in at least one-half of his institution's hockey games during the current season.

■ Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor

The Big Ten Medal of Honor (instituted in 1914) is awarded annually at each institution to a student-athlete in the graduating class that has demonstrated proficiency in scholarship and athletics.

Douglas McFadyen	1970
Mike Eaves	1978
John Johannson	1984
John Byce	1990

■ NCAA Division I Academic All-America

John Johannson is the only UW student-athlete to be honored with selection to the NCAA Division I All-Academic team. Following the 1983-84 season, Johannson was named an Academic All-American for his 3.60 GPA in the School of Business. In four years (1980-84) with the Badgers, he accumulated 64-112=176 in 171 games.

■ WCHA Student-Athlete of the Year

Tony Granato was the recipient of the WCHA's Student-Athlete of the Year Award in 1986-87. He is the only Badger to receive this distinction. Granato was also named second-team All-America in 1987 and is one of just two players in school history to score at least 100 goals and 200 points.

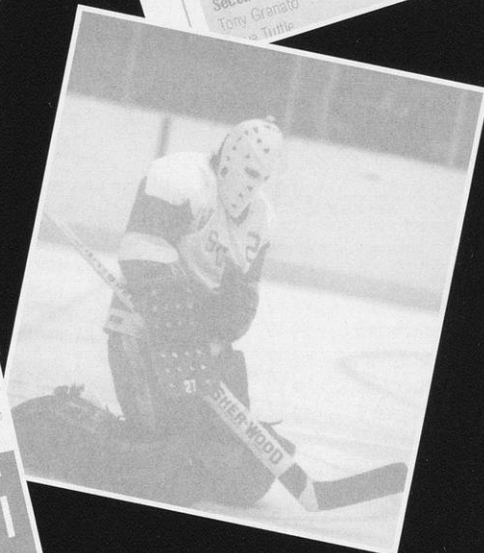

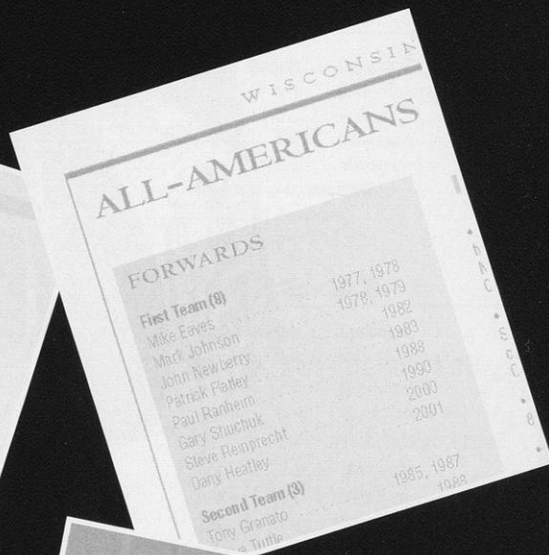

■ UW Athletic Board Scholars

The University of Wisconsin Athletic Board began honoring student-athletes who obtained the highest GPA in their respective sports, in 1986. Since then, hundreds of Badger student-athletes have been recognized as Athletic Board Scholars.

When the UW athletic counsel voted to officially recognize ice hockey as a varsity sport (1921-22), Dr. A.C. Viner was named the UW's first varsity ice hockey coach. But hockey at the UW was organized at the club level as far back as 1892. In the years leading up to that first season, Joe Steinauer coached Badger club teams from 1916-1919. His name is the earliest mention of a UW hockey coach, club or varsity level.

THE DECADE OF THE 60s

The first UW hockey team (1963-64) went 8-5-3 in its first season, with wins over Macalester, Illinois Club, Lake Forest, Carleton and Hamline that year. John Riley (below) was one of the main forces behind the return of hockey to Wisconsin.

In March of 1962 at an athletic board meeting, then-Athletic Director Ivan B. Williamson reinstated ice hockey as an intercollegiate sport at the University of Wisconsin. A year-and-a-half later, behind co-coaches Art Thomsen and John Riley, Badger hockey made its 'second debut'.

On November 29, 1963, seven days after the tragic death of President Kennedy, the Badgers faced off against St. Mary's College of Winona, Minn. That game signaled the return of hockey to Wisconsin after a 28-year absence.

The first Badger team of the modern era was formed by posting flyers around the campus during the Fall of 1962. The flyers asked any university students wishing to play ice hockey to report to an initial organizational meeting in Agricultural Hall. Only about 15-20 students showed up and because there were no scholarships, the team was molded from kids who did not receive offers from any other schools and a lot of local kids who just wanted to play the game.

So, from those humble beginnings, co-coaches Riley and Thomsen laid the foundation for what would become one of college hockey's winningest programs.

During the first full season (1963-64), a TOTAL of 8,937 fans watched 15 games at Kelsey's Hartmeyer Ice Arena. That number tripled just one year later as in the Badgers' second season, nearly 28,000 people came out to watch the 17-game home slate.

Said Riley, "We had great enthusiasm from those who came out to see what was going on. Although small in number, they were very dedicated, very loyal, very excitable and very vocal." These were the first of the now famous Wisconsin hockey fans.

From the start, the Badgers boasted strong goaltenders producing such names as Jim Duffy, Gary Johnson, Bob Vroman and Wayne Thomas between the pipes in the 60s. The first 20-goal scorer (season) was Ray Clegg, who led the team in scoring during the 1964-65 campaign with 27-22=49. Bert Dehate was the decade's most prolific scorer with 108 goals, 80 assists for 188 points from 1966-70. He left with UW records for career goals and points, and season goals and points, to name a few. On defense, John Jagger became the school's first All-American when he was named to the first team following the 1969-70 season. Don Addison paced the team in defensive scoring three straight seasons (1964-67) and led the team in scoring with 12-28=40 in 1966-67.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

March 1962 – Athletic Director Ivan B. Williamson announces the return of hockey as an intercollegiate sport after the sport was dropped in 1935.

November 29, 1963 – In the first game of the modern era, the Badgers lose a 13-6 shootout to St. Mary's (Winona, Minn.). The game was played in front of 695 fans at Hartmeyer Ice Arena.

The first modern-era goal came off the stick of Tom French (Ann Arbor, Mich.) on a penalty shot.

December 6, 1963 – A rebound goal by Chan Young (Madison, Wis.) gives the UW its first win in the modern era. In overtime, the Badgers defeated Macalester, 3-2.

December 11, 1964 – The UW takes a major step in the future of the program, scheduling eight games against teams from the WCHA, but the Badgers lose all eight.

February 22, 1966 – The UW breaks a 13-game winless streak versus WCHA teams, when it posts a 5-4 overtime win over the Minnesota Gophers.

April 1, 1966 – Following the retirement of John Riley, the UW hires Bob Johnson as its ninth coach in the history of the program.

March 1968 – Sophomore center Bert DeHate (St. Paul, Minn.) became the first Badger to win the national scoring title. He tallied 47-30=77, including a school-record seven hat tricks.

March 30, 1969 – Wisconsin joins the WCHA, becoming the ninth member of the most prestigious league in Division I college hockey.

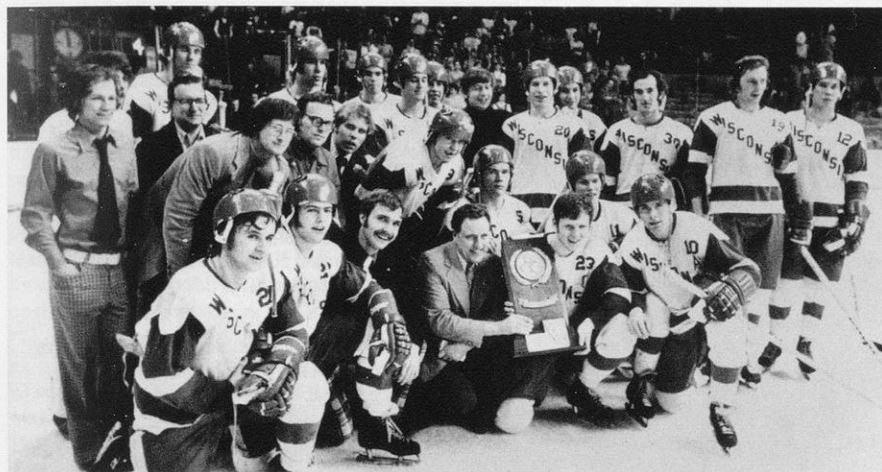

November 14-15, 1969 – The first-ever WCHA series was played against the Fighting Sioux of North Dakota. The Badgers upset UND, sweeping the series 8-4 and 7-4.

March 1970 – Wisconsin makes its first NCAA tournament appearance, finishing third. Defenseman John Jagger (Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario) is the first UW All-American.

THE DECADE OF THE 70s

The 1972-73 hockey team poses on the ice after winning the school's first NCAA championship. For head coach Bob Johnson, it was his first national title and one of three he would win at Wisconsin. (Johnson is also pictured below.)

The decade of the 70s established the University of Wisconsin hockey program as one of the nation's elite. After winning the WCHA playoff championship in its first season as a WCHA member (1969-70) and also making its first NCAA tourney appearance that year, Wisconsin entered the next decade with confidence and determination to take the program to the next level.

It didn't take long for the Badgers to make that step and return to the NCAA championship. In March of 1972, the UW lost to Boston University, but defeated Denver to place third at the NCAA tournament. It was the second championship appearance in three years for a Badger team. Then came the 1972-73 campaign – the 10th anniversary of the UW hockey program in the modern era. That year proved to be the best yet for a Wisconsin squad as the Badgers finished 29-9-2 and gave themselves the best anniversary present available in the college hockey world – an NCAA championship. It would be the first of three for Bob Johnson as the UW's mentor.

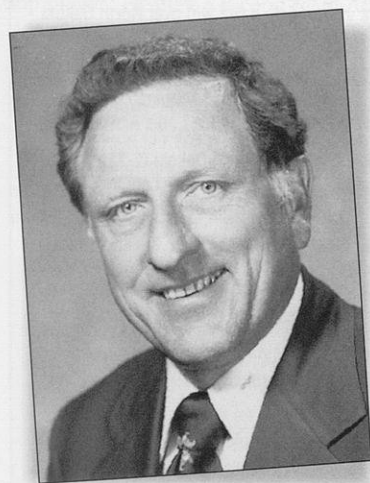

Just four years later, arguably the best college hockey team assembled, notched the first 30-win season in the school's existence ending the year 37-7-1. That team produced four first-team All-Americans in forwards Mike Eaves and Mark Johnson, defensemen Craig Norwich and goaltender Julian Baretta and Wisconsin's second NCAA title. The Badgers came from behind in both semi-final games to defeat New Hampshire and Michigan in overtime in two of the greatest comebacks in UW history. Both games were tied late in regulation by the UW and then won in overtime.

Wisconsin made another NCAA championship appearance in '77-78 (the fourth of the decade), finishing fourth after losing to Boston University and Bowling Green.

The UW watched two of its team members take part in the 'Miracle on Ice' during the 1980 Lake Placid Olympics. Mark Johnson and Bob Suter were both members of the United States' goal-medal winning team. Johnson led the team in scoring with 5-6=11.

The Badger hockey program had earned the respect of the college hockey world with the accomplishments and success during the 70s. Wisconsin made four NCAA appearances, won two NCAA championships, four WCHA playoff titles and one WCHA regular-season crown. Six 20-plus win seasons, including a 30-win campaign, were recorded. Individually, six players earned nine first-team All-America honors, while five players (and one coach) were Olympians during the decade of the 70s. Steve Alley, Bob Lundeen, John Taft and head coach Bob Johnson were members of the 1976 U.S. Olympic team, while Johnson and Suter played on the 1980 U.S. team.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

March 1972 – The Badgers make a second appearance in three years at the NCAA championships, finishing third.

March 16, 1973 – Wisconsin stuns Cornell, 6-5 in overtime, to advance to the finals of the NCAA championship. A goal with five seconds left in regulation (by Dean Talafous) ties the game. Then with 33 seconds left in overtime, Talafous gets the game-winner to give the Badgers their first national title.

February 19, 1977 – Wisconsin captures its first-ever MacNaughton Cup with a 6-4 win over Minnesota-Duluth at the Dane County Coliseum.

March 25, 1977 – The Badgers make it to college hockey's final four for the third time in school history. In semi-final action, Les Grauer ties the game and Mike Eaves get the game-winner to give the UW a 4-3 overtime win over New Hampshire.

March 26, 1977 – The best season in UW history is culminated when Steve Alley's goal at 0:23 into overtime gives Wisconsin a 6-5 win over Michigan for the school's second NCAA title in five seasons.

The Badgers finish the season at 37-7-1, becoming the first team to capture the Big Ten, WCHA and NCAA titles in the same season. Bob Johnson is named national coach of the year, while his son, Mark, is named the freshman of the year.

March 25, 1978 – Wisconsin fans take Providence, R.I., by storm for the 1978 NCAA Championship and are proclaimed the "World's Greatest Hockey Fans," by the city.

Mike Eaves ends his UW career as the school's all-time scoring leader, while he and Mark Johnson earn first-team All-America honors.

March 1979 – The Badgers play before 21 sellout crowds, averaging 8,654 (just eight short of a sellout) fans a game at the Dane County Coliseum.

Mark Johnson, the collegiate player of the year, closes out his UW career as the top goal scorer (125) in school history.

THE DECADE OF THE 80s

Ted Pearson (#24) gives the Badgers a 4-0 lead over the Minnesota Gophers at the 9:23 mark of the second period. That goal proved to be the game-winner as the UW went on to a 6-3 win and the 1981 NCAA title.

Wisconsin opened the 80s with three straight NCAA championship appearances (1980-81, 1981-82 and 1982-83) and two national titles (1981 and 1983). With three NCAA championships in seven years, Badger hockey had become the most successful collegiate hockey program in the nation.

Those three teams produced some of the best athletes to play the game. Consider that five members of those teams went on to distinguished NHL careers, including Bruce Driver (15 seasons/1,030 games), Pat Flatley (14/850), Brian Mullen (11/1,205), Dave Maley (9/512) and Chris Chelios, who marked his 20th season in the NHL in 2001-02 as a member of the Stanley Cup-winning Detroit Red Wings. Chelios, who has been named the NHL's best defenseman on three separate occasions, has played in 1,370 career NHL games.

In addition, four players – Flatley, Driver, John Newberry and Theran Welsh – were named first-team All-Americans. Welsh remains the Badgers' all-time leading defensive scorer (24-194=228) and is one of only four players in school history to reach the 200-point plateau.

Wisconsin won 20-or-more games every season in the decade of the 80s, including two 30-win campaigns. And, just as the UW entered the 80s, winning a national title, that is how it ended the 80s. The 1989-90 squad won the school's fifth NCAA title and posted the second-best record in school history (36-9-1).

The list of players that came out of the Badger hockey program during this decade is second to none. John Byce, Tony Granato, Sean Hill, Curtis Joseph, Scott Mellanby, Paul Ranheim, Barry Richter, Mike Richter, Gary Shuchuk, Gary Suter and Chris Tancill are just a few of the top players that came out of the 80s.

The Badgers became just the fourth school to win three or more titles in the same decade. Denver (60s) and Boston University (70s) won three and Michigan five (50s) championships in its respective decade.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

March 27, 1981 – For the sixth time in school history, the Badgers return to the NCAA tournament. After advancing past Clarkson in quarterfinal action a week earlier, the Badgers defeat Northern Michigan to earn the right to play for the national title.

March 28, 1981 – With a 6-3 win over arch-rival Minnesota, the Badgers grab the school's third NCAA title. The UW defeats the No. 1 teams in ECAC (Clarkson), the CCHA (Northern Michigan) and the WCHA (Minnesota) in its championship run.

March 27, 1982 – The Badgers make a second consecutive appearance in the NCAA title game, but lose to North Dakota, finishing second.

June 1, 1982 – Bob Johnson resigns after 15 years at Wisconsin. He led the program to three national titles, seven NCAA appearances and the highest attendance in the country.

July 8, 1982 – Jeff Sauer becomes the fourth coach (10th all time) in the modern era of Badger hockey.

March 5, 1983 – Wisconsin defeats North Dakota, 6-5 in triple overtime, to advance to the WCHA playoff championship. Chris Chelios ties the game with just 12 seconds left in regulation and Paul Houck wins it with a shorthanded goal in the third overtime. To date, it was the longest game in school history.

March 12-13, 1983 – With a sweep of the Gophers at Williams Arena, the Badgers earn the league playoff championship and the No. 1 seed in the West.

March 26, 1983 – For the third straight year, Wisconsin plays for the national title and wins the championship with a 6-2 victory over Harvard.

January 7, 1984 – Wisconsin becomes the only American collegiate team to defeat the 1984 U.S. Olympic squad (4-2) on its preparation tour.

November 23, 1985 – Wisconsin records the program's 500th modern-era victory with a 6-2 win over North Dakota at the Coliseum.

December 30, 1987 – The Badgers claim the Great Lakes Invitational tournament with wins over Michigan and Michigan State in front of 19,482 at Joe Louis Arena.

March 6-7, 1988 – A win over North Dakota (2-1) and Minnesota (3-2) at the St. Paul Civic Center nets the first-ever WCHA Final Four Playoff Championship.

December 28-29, 1989 – Wisconsin hosts its inaugural Bank One Badger Hockey Showdown at the Bradley Center in Milwaukee, Wis. The UW defeats Notre Dame (9-3) and Boston College (6-5) to capture the Pettit Cup.

February 16, 1990 – The Badgers play their 1,000th game since the resumption of the program in 1963. A 6-3 victory over Minnesota.

March 24, 1990 – The UW completes its sweep of Maine in the NCAA quarterfinals at the Dane County Coliseum. The Badgers advance to Detroit with a 4-3 overtime win.

March 30, 1990 – In front of 8,000 Badger fans in Joe Louis Arena, the Cardinal and White defeat Boston College 2-1 to advance to the 1990 NCAA Championship game.

April 1, 1990 – Head coach Jeff Sauer guides his Badger team to a second NCAA title, with a 7-3 victory over Colgate. It is the school's fifth national title as the UW's 36-9-1 mark is the second-best in UW history.

THE DECADE OF THE 90s

The Badgers entered the 1990s as the defending NCAA champions, coming off a decade which saw a Wisconsin team play for the national title four times. Trying to match that feat would be a challenge.

The 1991-92 team did its part, becoming the lowest seeded team (sixth) in NCAA playoff history to advance to the championship game (The Badgers lost to Lake Superior State, 5-3).

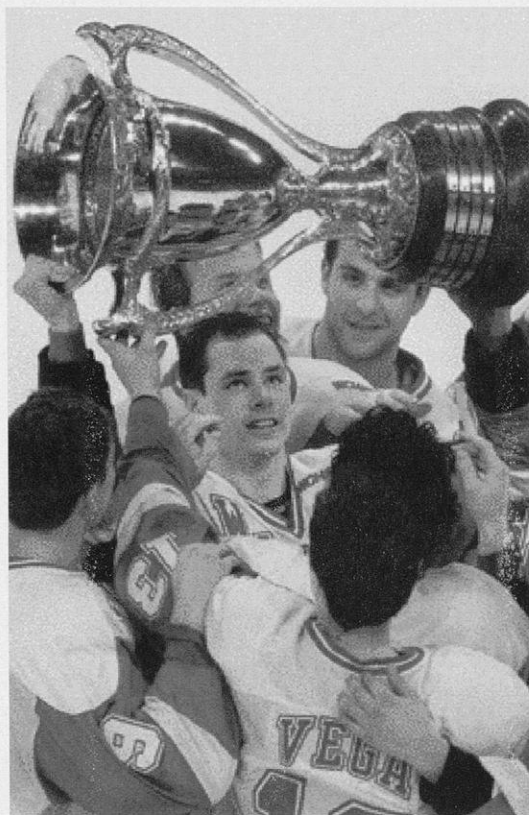

The following year, the 1992-93 squad came within inches of making it to Milwaukee and the 1993 NCAA Championships, but dropped a heart-breaking 4-3 decision to Michigan in overtime. Wisconsin managed NCAA berths in the next two years, but did not earn a trip to the NCAA's Frozen Four, despite additional NCAA bids in 1997-98 and 1999-2000.

The 1999-2000 squad boasted two of the most talented forwards that have played for the Badgers in Steve Reinprecht and Dany Heatley. Both helped lead the UW to the 2000 WCHA regular-season Championship and the MacNaughton Cup. It was the third time in school history a UW team had won the league title and the first since 1990.

Reinprecht earned first-team All-America honors, the first Badger forward since Gary Shuchuk (1990) to receive that distinction. He also finished his senior season as the runner-up (the highest finish ever for a Badger) for the Hobey Baker award, given to the nation's top player. Heatley, a second-team All-American as a freshman, was named a first-team All-American (2001), giving Wisconsin its first back-to-back All-America first teamers since Mike Eaves and Mark Johnson (1978 and 1979).

Three UW defensemen were named All-Americans – Barry Richter (1993), Brian Rafalski (1995) and Jeff Dessner (2000). In goal, Duane Derksen (1992) and Kirk Daubenspeck (1997) were second-team All-Americans.

Wisconsin made the 12-team NCAA tourney seven of 10 years in the 90s, averaging over 23 wins a season. The decade ended with the '99-00 team posting the third-best mark in school history, 31-9-1.

Captain Steve Reinprecht hoists the MacNaughton Cup after the championship presentation on March 3, 2000.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

April 2-4, 1992 – Wisconsin defeats Michigan, 4-2, to move into the national championship game against Lake Superior State. The Badgers lose 5-3, but become the lowest-seeded team to ever advance to a national title contest.

March 26-27, 1993 – The Badgers receive a sixth consecutive bid to the NCAA tournament. After a 3-1 win over Miami University, the UW drops a heart-breaking 4-3 decision to Michigan in overtime, missing the chance to appear in its third Frozen Four in four seasons.

March 25-26, 1994 – In its seventh straight NCAA appearance, the Badgers handle Western Michigan (6-3), but lose to top-ranked Boston University, 4-1.

March 17-18, 1995 – Wisconsin recorded wins over Denver and league champion Colorado College to claim the 1995 WCHA Playoff Championship, the school's 10th playoff title. The championship earns the Badgers an automatic NCAA berth, the eighth straight for the UW.

March 8, 1997 – Wisconsin and Colorado College make college hockey history playing in the longest game on record – 5 hours and 24 minutes. The first-round WCHA playoff game lasts until the 9:30 mark of the fourth overtime as the Tigers win the game, 1-0.

Badger netminder Kirk Daubenspeck sets a league and school record with 75 saves.

January 4, 1998 – Head coach Jeff Sauer becomes the WCHA's winningest coach when the UW defeats Denver 7-3. The victory is Sauer's 556th as a league coach and surpasses the legendary John MacInnes.

March 14, 1998 – With a 6-2 win over Alaska-Anchorage, the Badgers play their last regular-season game in the Dane County Coliseum. It had served as the home to Badger hockey for over 30 years.

March 20-21, 1998 – The Badgers take the 1998 WCHA Playoff Championship, with 5-2 and 3-2 wins over Colorado College and North Dakota, respectively. The win also gives Bucky an automatic spot in the 12-team NCAA tourney.

October 3, 1998 – Wisconsin opens the Kohl Center in the College Hockey Hall of Fame game vs. Notre Dame. Despite a 3-2 loss to the Irish, a record 13,398 fans turn out to see the Badgers' debut in their new home.

February 25, 2000 – For only the third time in school history, a Badger team wins the coveted MacNaughton Cup. The WCHA regular-season league championship is clinched with a 4-2 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers at Mariucci Arena.

A NEW CENTURY BEGINS — 2000

Wisconsin hockey began the 21st century as it had its previous three decades — with a 20-win season and a berth in the NCAA tournament. It was the 16th 20- or 30-win campaign for head coach Jeff Sauer and the 12th NCAA appearance for the Badgers under Sauer.

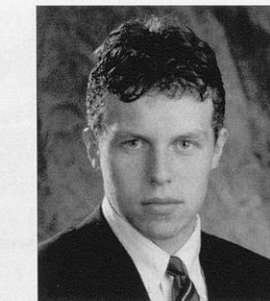

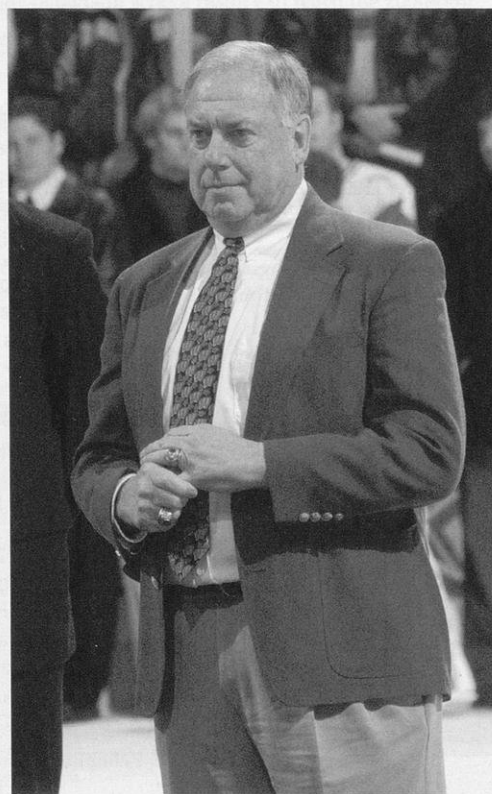

The Badger fans were also treated to a second year of watching Dany Heatley play as he opted to return for a second season (2000-01) with the Badgers instead of turning pro. Heatley, one of the most talented and gifted players to ever wear the Cardinal and White, was named the NHL's Rookie of the Year following the 2001-02 season. Drafted No. 2 overall in the 2000 NHL Entry Draft by the Atlanta Thrashers, he led all league rookies in scoring in 2001-02 before picking up NHL All-Star Game MVP honors in 2002-03.

Two seasons into the fifth decade of Badger hockey, the program said goodbye to the Jeff Sauer era as former Badger Mike Eaves became the fourth coach in the modern era of UW hockey. Sauer announced his retirement from coaching on Jan. 9, 2002 after 31 years coaching in the WCHA and 20 seasons behind the Badger bench. He is the winningest coach in league and school history and the fourth-winningest coach all time.

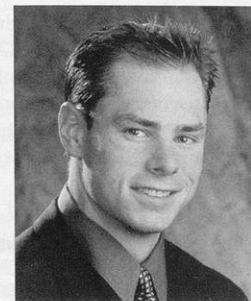

The Eaves Era began on March 19, 2002 when he was hired to replace Sauer. After 26 years, Eaves still remains the school's all-time scoring leader with 94-173=267 in 160 games during his four-year career as a Badger. He led the team in scoring during his freshman, sophomore and senior seasons and in his junior year, was the top-scoring Badger forward (28-53=81) on the 1977 NCAA Championship squad.

Mike Eaves became the fourth coach at the UW since 1963.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

June 24, 2000 — Dany Heatley, taken second overall in the 2000 NHL Entry Draft, becomes the highest player to be drafted in Badger history.

January 9, 2002 — Jeff Sauer announces he is retiring as the head coach of the Badgers after 20 years behind the UW bench and 31 years as a head coach in the WCHA.

March 19, 2002 — Mike Eaves is announced as the Badgers' fifth head coach in the modern era at a press conference in the Kohl Center.

October 19, 2002 — The Badger hockey program sees its 1,000,000th hockey fan come through the turnstiles at the Kohl Center when the Badgers defeat Alabama-Huntsville. After five years calling the Kohl Center home, Wisconsin has drawn a total of 1,192,099 fans for an average of 11,687 per game (102 home dates).

The Showdown Turns Fifteen

This December, the Badger Hockey Showdown marks its 15th event since the inaugural Showdown in December of 1989. The tournament has grown into one of the most successful and highly-attended college tournaments in the nation.

The brainchild of former Badger head coach Jeff Sauer, the Showdown has featured defending NCAA champions, Hobey Baker winners and finalists and numerous future NHL stars. Praised by coaches, players and fans as one of the best showcases of college hockey talent in the nation, the tourney has become one of the most successful in the college hockey history.

Since 1989, over 360,000 fans have witnessed the December spectacle in Milwaukee, averaging nearly 27,000 fans per year and over 13,000 spectators a day. This year, the tournament moves to the Kohl Center in Madison, opening a new era in the history of the Showdown.

Wisconsin has enjoyed much success at the Showdown, winning nine of the 14 championships. The Badgers have defeated hockey powers Boston College (1989), North Dakota (1990), Maine (1991), Northern Michigan (1993, 1997 and 2002), Bowling Green State (1994) and Boston University (2000) to win titles. Hockey East members Boston University (1992 and 1995) and New Hampshire (1996 and 2001) have each won the Showdown twice, while Bowling Green State was the first CCHA team to win the Showdown in 1998. At the 1999 event, North Dakota became the first WCHA team other than the Badgers to win the Pettit Cup. Wisconsin enters the 2003 event as the defending champions after defeating Northern Michigan in the 2002 championship game, 3-1.

Showdown 2003

The Badger Hockey Showdown makes its first appearance in Madison after 14 years at the Bradley Center in Milwaukee.

The Badgers invited three teams that have yet to take part in the Showdown as Ferris State, Union and UMass-Lowell are scheduled to participate. All three teams are unfamiliar to the Badgers having played Wisconsin a combined 11 times. Defending CCHA regular-season champion Ferris State met the UW for the only time in 1980. Wisconsin swept the home series. The Badgers own a 7-1-1 all-time mark against Mass.-Lowell, last facing the Riverhawks during 1988. The Bulldogs and Riverhawks open the tournament. The Badgers play their first game against Union in the two teams' first-ever meeting.

Most Goals In A Period

Only one player in UW history has ever scored four goals in a period. Mark Fitzgerald tallied four times in the second period in 1967 ... a feat that has not been equalled or bettered in nearly 35 years.

- 4 Mark Fitzgerald (2nd) vs. Ohio University (2/24/67)
 3 16 times: most recently by John Byce (2nd) vs. Michigan Tech (11/5/88)

Most Goals In A Game

The Badger record for most goals in a game is five, held by three different players. It has been over 24 years since the feat was last accomplished, by Mark Johnson during the 1977-78 season.

- 5 Bert DeHate vs. Ohio University (2/24/67)
 5 Mike Meeker vs. Michigan Tech (10/29/77)
 5 Mark Johnson vs. Michigan Tech (1/27/78)

The Hat Trick

There have been 182 hat tricks in UW history, including 154 three-goal, 25 four-goal and three five-goal 'tricks'. Listed below are the most recent players to record a three-, four- or five-goal game.

Three goals

Dany Heatley scored the most recent Badger hat trick at Alaska Anchorage on Feb. 19, 2000.

Four goals

Blaine Moore was the last player to score four goals in a game. On March 13, 1993, Moore scored four goals in a 10-3 win over Colorado College in the first round of the WCHA playoffs at the Dane County Coliseum.

Five goals

Second-year Badger women's hockey coach Mark Johnson is one of only three players in UW history to score five goals in one game. On Jan. 27, 1978, Johnson hit the back of the net five times in a 10-2 win over Michigan Tech in Madison. (Bert DeHate, 2/24/67 and Mike Meeker, 10/29/77 previously accomplished the feat.)

Natural hat trick

Only seven players have notched a natural hat trick. The most-recent Badger to accomplish a pure hat trick Dany Heatley at Alaska Anchorage on Feb. 19, 2000. He scored the first three goals in a 5-0 win by the Badgers.

■ Paul Capobianco Men's Hockey Contact

Paul Capobianco is in his fifth year as a member of the Wisconsin Sports Information staff. He handles media relations for the Badger men's hockey program after serving his first four years as the main contact for women's ice hockey. He also covers the men's and women's open and lightweight crew programs.

Capobianco, who worked Press Operations for hockey at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah, also served for three years as the publicity director for the women's Western Collegiate Hockey Association. A three-year letterwinner and member of Notre Dame's 1994 national championship fencing team, Capobianco graduated in 1996 with a B.S. in biology.

A native of Selden, N.Y., Capobianco and his wife, Laurie, were married in June of 2003.

COVERING THE BADGERS

Credentials

Requests for credentials must be placed with the UW Sports Information Office in writing (on your company's letterhead), at least one week in advance of the game(s) you wish to cover. Requests should be made by the media agency's sports editor or director and addressed to Paul Capobianco, Sports Information Assistant, 1440 Mon-roë Street, Madison, WI 53711. If faxing your credential request, the fax number is (608) 262-8184. Media covering the Badger beat may request credentials for road games through Capobianco.

Credentials are issued according to the following guidelines:

1. National publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication.
2. All newspapers designated by the visiting sports information director.
3. Television and radio stations originating a live broadcast.
4. Television and radio stations covering for nightly news.
5. All other requests will be evaluated on a space-available basis, with preferences given to those who regularly cover Wisconsin hockey.

Note: Spouses, dates, children and other non-workers are not allowed in any of the media areas.

Photographers

Requests should be submitted on your company's letterhead to the UW Sports Information Office and are granted on a priority first-come, first-served basis. Photographers are free to shoot from most locations in the Kohl Center but are reminded to be considerate of patrons. Credentials must be prominently displayed at all times.

Strobes are available for use by photographers and will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. Cost per event is $200.

Radio Originations

Radio stations wishing to broadcast Badger hockey games should contact the UW Sports Information Office at least one week in advance to place their credential requests. Radio talent work from the top row of the press area in section 208 of the Kohl Center.

Credential Pick Up

Upon receipt of applications, appropriate credentials are either mailed, made available at the Sports Information Office or left with the parking attendant at the entrance to Lot 91 off of Bedford Street on gamedays. A map showing parking locations is on page 170.

Video Services

Television stations desiring highlights of Badger players should contact Zach Remiker of the UW Video Department in Camp Randall Stadium. Phone: (608) 265-6146.

Phone Lines

All requests for installation of phone lines should be made to Rex Owens at (608) 265-4705. Cost per line per event is $100 ($140 for an unrestricted analog line or an ISDN line). Broadcast locations are assigned by the UW Sports Information Department based on involvement with the co-op line arrangement. If you are not part of the WCHA co-op agreement, you must make your phone line requests (especially if you need ISDN lines) at least one week in advance of the game(s).

There are two standard phone lines as well as ISDN lines for visiting radios which are part of the co-op line arrangement. Numbers for those lines are (608) 257-3416/4824 (standard lines) and (608) 250-2552/2634 (ISDN).

There are also courtesy phones made available by the UW Sports Information Office in the press area and in the media room located on the ice level of the Kohl Center.

Media Workroom

The Kohl Center features a large media workroom that contains the following:

- post-game interview area
- numerous working locations from which media can file stories
- platform for video cameras
- copy machine
- pre-game dining area
- photo darkroom
- men's and women's restrooms

Game programs, line charts, game notes and media guides are available in the workroom.

Media may store personal belongings in the workroom from the time they arrive at the Kohl Center until after the game.

The workroom is located at the northeast corner of the arena at ice level. To access the workroom from outside the arena, enter through the media gate and proceed down the stairs on your right.

Practice

The Wisconsin hockey team has three different practice locations — the Kohl Center, the Dane County Arena and occasionally the Dane County Coliseum. Please call the UW Sports Information Office for site and specific times of Badger practices.

Many times the Badgers conduct split practices and most players only participate in one of those sessions. If you need to interview a specific player, please call ahead to make sure he will be available.

Typical practice times are from 3:00-5:15, Monday-Wednesday. Thursday practices (during weeks of home games) normally run from 3:15-5:00. Practice times are subject to change.

Media attending practices should be aware that the Badger locker room and lounge area is closed.

■ Scouting Tickets

Per the Western Collegiate Hockey Association's policy, professional hockey scouts must purchase tickets through the UW Ticket Office at 1-800-GO-BADGERS or (608) 262-1440.

■ Interviewing Coach Eaves

Head coach Mike Eaves will be available for interviews after practice sessions, Monday-Thursday.

Eaves also holds a weekly media conference throughout the season. These sessions begin at 1 p.m. and will be held in the media room in the Kohl Center. Those not able to attend may watch the news conference live at UWBADGERS.COM.

On the road, Eaves is available at the Badgers' hotel or following practice sessions.

Those media wishing to conduct a phone interview with Coach Eaves should call the hockey office directly at (608) 262-3932. It is easiest to reach Eaves by phone in the mornings, Mondays through Wednesdays.

■ Player Interviews

Badger players are available for interviews AFTER practices (except on game days). Practices are generally held from 3:00-6:00 p.m. regardless of the site.

All player interviews should be arranged through the UW Sports Information Office. Please contact Paul Capobianco at the SID Office (608-263-1983) prior to the start of practice each day to secure interviews.

It is the policy of the UW Sports Information Office not to give out home telephone numbers of student-athletes. For out-of-town media members, requests for collect-call telephone interviews with players may be made through Capobianco.

WISCONSIN BROADCASTS

Paul Braun

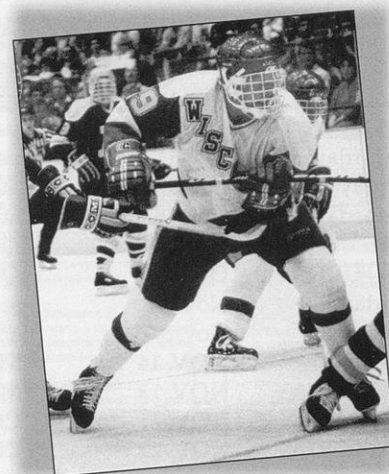

Tom Sagissor

Fox Sports North

Paul Braun, Wisconsin's television voice for nearly 30 years, once again calls the action for the Badgers on Fox Sports North. A veteran of four of Wisconsin's five NCAA hockey championships as a broadcaster, Braun helped start the statewide tape-delayed telecast of Badger hockey in 1973-74. He has called the game for both radio and television hockey broadcasts as well as being the play-by-play announcer for WHA-TV for delayed Wisconsin football and basketball telecasts.

Former Badger Tom Sagissor returns to the booth for his second season as an analyst for Fox Sports. Sagissor, who had 79 points in 162 career games with the Badgers as a forward, was part of the UW's 1990 NCAA championship team. He served as an ESPN analyst for the 2003 NCAA Midwest Regional men's hockey tournament in Ann Arbor, Mich., last season.

Brian Posick

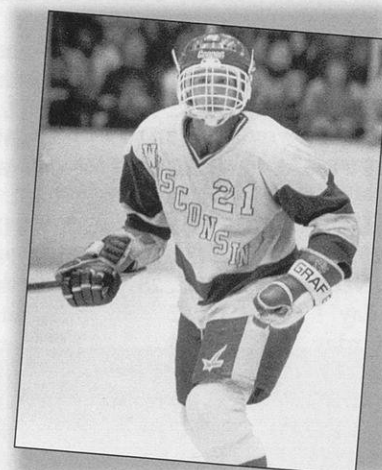

Rob Andringa

Radio Coverage - WIBA

Brian Posick begins his second year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the UW hockey team after spending seven years as the voice of Badger women's basketball. In his 13th year with the radio station, Posick serves as WIBA's sports director. The Madison sports veteran also called Badger hockey games on WHA-TV's delayed hockey broadcasts for two years prior to his current broadcasting duties with WIBA.

Like on both Fox Sports and WHA-TV, a former Badger will analyze 2003-04 Badger action. Rob Andringa, a four-year Badger letterwinner and former team co-captain, will sit beside Posick for the season. A 1990 NCAA champion with Wisconsin, Andringa tallied 104 points in a WCHA-record 179 games played as a defenseman. He spent the last seven seasons as color commentator for the Badgers' delayed television broadcast on Wisconsin Public Television.

Aaron Sims

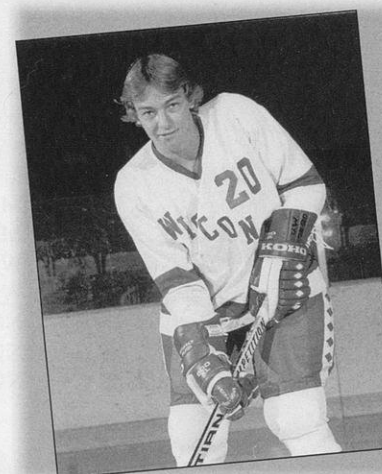

Ron Vincent

Wisconsin Public Television

Wisconsin Public Television is in its fourth decade of Badger hockey coverage. WPT airs UW's home games on a delayed basis on its seven-station network and on Milwaukee Public Television. This season WPT will air approximately 13 games and the first round of the WCHA playoffs, if the Badgers host.

In addition to its on-ice coverage, WHA-TV created the Jim Santulli 7th Man Award in 1980. It is voted on by the viewers and presented to a UW hockey player at the annual banquet.

This season, WPT's on-air team features Aaron Sims and former UW winger Ron Vincent. Sims is a veteran radio guy and all around hockey fan. Vincent was part of the 1981 NCAA championship team and is still sixth on the Badgers' career scoring charts. They will bring a depth of experience with them to the WPT broadcasts

A WORLD-CLASS UNIVERSITY

The University of Wisconsin, one of the nation's largest and most productive institutions of higher education, is dedicated to the support of academic freedom.

Founded in 1848, the first class of 17 students enrolled February 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,507 students.

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. Wisconsin has ranked among the top educational institutions in the country in every published survey of faculty and administrators since the early 1900s.

As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

The flagship school of the state system, UW-Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the University were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Bascom Hall serves as the centerpiece of the campus. It sits atop the beautiful tree-lined Bascom Hill, which offers a magnificent view of downtown Madison.

A university is known by the quality of its faculty. Wisconsin is a university that produces Nobel Prize winners, recipients of the National Medal of Science, Pulitzer Prize winners, and members of the National Academies of Science, Engineering, and Education. Only a handful of universities, along with UW-Madison, can claim top ranking in nearly every independent survey, year after year.

► U.S. News & World Report, 2003—Ranks Wisconsin as the seventh-best public university and 31st among all universities. The UW also ranked in the top five for academic reputation among public universities.

► Fiske Guide to Colleges, 2003—Gives the UW-Madison its highest academic ranking. In fact, UW-Madison is one of only eight public institutions in the country to receive the five-star rating. It is also one of 43 schools selected as "Best Buys."

► Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine, 2003—Ranked 12th among the 100 Best Values in Public Colleges

► Princeton Review, 2003—Lists Wisconsin in "The Best 345 Colleges"

► Greene's Guides, 2003—Lists Wisconsin as one of 17 "Public Ivies."

► Barron's Best Buys in College Education, 2002—Ranked among 260 schools as a best buy

Other Rankings

► Fortune 500 Companies—Ranks second in the number of graduates who become chief executives in Fortune 500 companies

► Peace Corps—Ranks first among number of alumni serving in the Peace Corps and second in the number of Peace Corps volunteers.

► Research & Development—Ranks first in research and development expenditures among public universities

► Voluntary Support—Ranks second in voluntary support among public universities

► Libraries—Ranks ninth in number of volumes (6.14 million) and campus libraries (44)

► Doctorates—Ranks second in research doctorates granted

STUDENT LIFE

Top: The Elvehjem Museum of Art offers free exhibitions of art works to support the teaching, research and public service missions of the UW.

Bottom: The Reverend Jesse Jackson is just one of many famous people who have visited Wisconsin.

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

UW students come from every county in the state, every state in the nation and over 100 countries around the world. Wisconsin ranks third in the nation in total foreign student enrollment. The UW is designed to encourage involvement—academically and socially. Students come here to be part of something bigger—to choose from a range of options seldom found.

More than 680 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes over 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

"The primary purpose of the University of Wisconsin-Madison is to provide a learning environment in which faculty, staff, and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all."

DID YOU KNOW?

Wisconsin is the only university in the nation with two student newspapers.

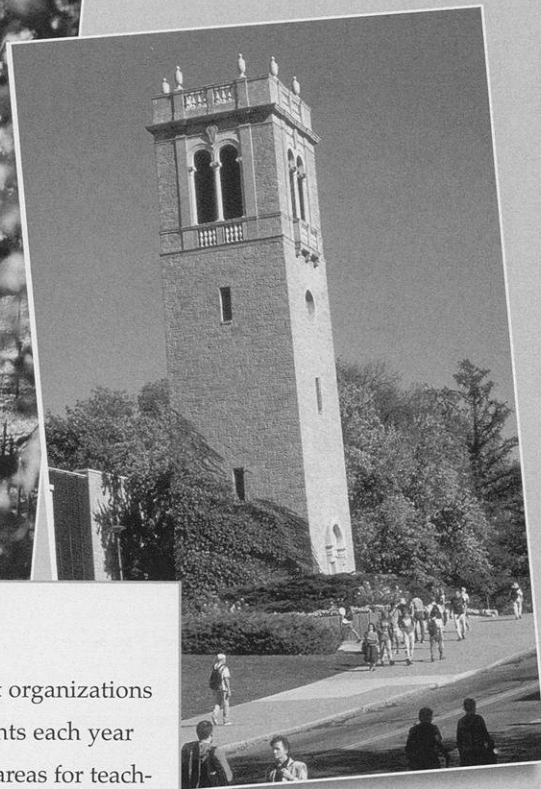

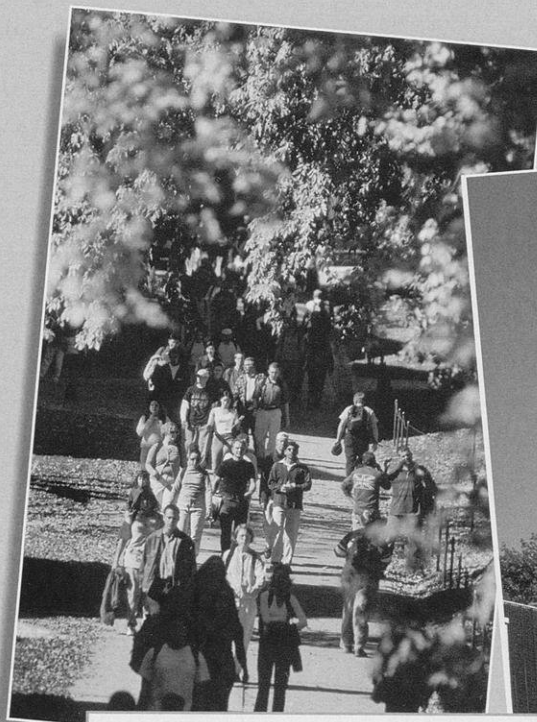

A BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS

The University of Wisconsin campus rolls for 930 acres along the shores of Lake Mendota, encompassing wooded hills, friendly shores, and the streets of downtown Madison.

Relax on the Memorial Union terrace with sailboats, canoes, sailboards, and kayaks in the background. The Lakeshore Path is a pedestrian and bicycle-only trail that runs from the Union to Picnic Point, a peninsula that juts out into Lake Mendota. Along the way are numerous beaches or spots to stop and enjoy the beautiful lake views.

Spend an hour alone with your thoughts walking the trails of the UW Arboretum, a 1,300-acre nature preserve right in the middle of the city. Or visit Wisconsin's majestic State Capitol building only minutes away from campus.

And if ever you find yourself with a free afternoon, you may wish to enjoy lunch or a latte with friends at one of the many restaurants lining State Street in the heart of downtown Madison.

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

More than 680 registered student organizations

About 1,500 performing arts events each year

Campus has 325 acres of natural areas for teaching, research and public enjoyment plus the 1,262-acre arboretum

More than 40 club and intramural sports

Five indoor athletic facilities and 63 areas of outdoor field space

DID YOU KNOW?

Babcock Dairy Store sells cheese and ice cream made fresh daily at the campus' own dairy plant.

The Lakeshore Path is a popular trail for pedestrians and bicyclists along the shores of Lake Mendota.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

John Wiley

John Wiley was named chancellor of Wisconsin in January 2001, becoming the university's 27th leader.

Prior to being named chancellor, Wiley served as the university's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. He was also the dean of the Graduate School and the university's senior research officer.

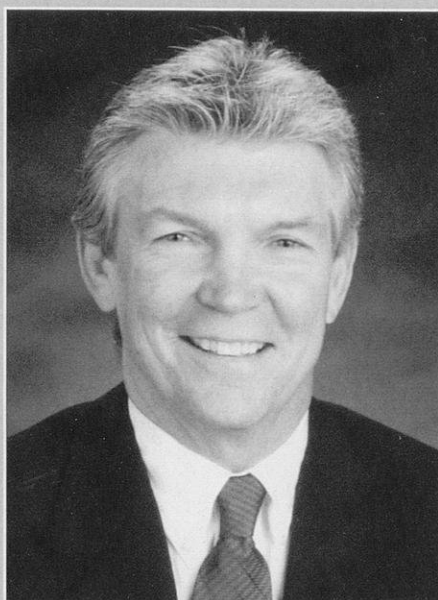

In his positions, Wiley has represented the institution for a variety of external constituencies. He has also been deeply involved in fundraising.

As provost, Wiley was chief operating officer and deputy chancellor working in the exercise of shared governance and the overall management of the institution.

Wiley received his bachelor's degree in physics from Indiana University in 1964. He attended graduate school at Wisconsin as a National Science Foundation fellow and received master's and doctoral degrees in physics in 1965 and 1968, respectively.

Wiley joined the Wisconsin faculty in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering in 1975. He was the co-founder of several highly successful research centers.

Wiley is married to Georgia Blanchfield and has a 19-year-old stepson, Kai Kennedy, and a 17-year-old stepdaughter, Blythe Kennedy.

Pat Richter

Pat Richter, a former UW student-athlete, professional football player, and successful businessman, became Wisconsin's athletic director in December of 1989.

An All-America tight end for Wisconsin's 1963 Rose Bowl football team, Richter had a distinguished career with the National Football League's Washington Redskins from 1963-71. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame.

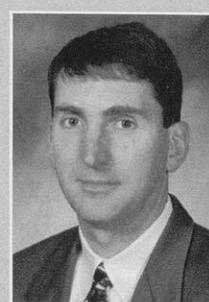

Richter earned his bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from the UW in 1964, earning Academic All-America honors in 1962. He was named Wisconsin's Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient in 1963. Richter received his law degree from the UW in 1971. In 1995, he was inducted into the Verizon/CoSIDA Academic Hall of Fame, and was honored as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award winner for post-college achievements.

After employment with a Madison law firm, he joined the Oscar Mayer Foods Corp., becoming vice president of personnel prior to joining the athletic department staff.

Pat and his wife, Renee, have four sons: Scott (wife Khaki and grandsons J.P. and Cole), Brad (wife Chrissy and grandson Max and granddaughter Samantha), Barry (wife Kim, grandson Blake, granddaughter Alexandra) and Tim.

A WINNING ATHLETIC PROGRAM

The University of Wisconsin offers its student-athletes one of the premier intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. Its student-athletes receive the best in education, coaching, support services, travel and competition on the national and conference levels.

Celebrating more than 100 years of competition in some men's sports, Wisconsin's men's teams compete in basketball, cross country, football, golf, ice hockey, rowing, swimming and diving, soccer, tennis, track and field, and wrestling.

Established July 1, 1974, the 12-sport women's athletic program offers basketball, cross country, golf, ice hockey, lightweight rowing, openweight rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

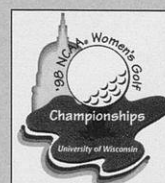

In the last 10 years, the University of Wisconsin has hosted five NCAA championships and an NCAA men's basketball regional.

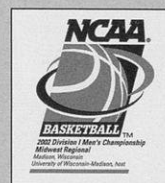

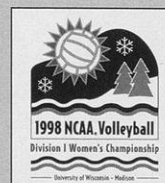

The Badgers have played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey championship in 1993 and 1997. The 1993 event sold out in three months, the fastest sellout in NCAA hockey history.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

WISCONSIN TRADITIONS

SCHOOL SONGS

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time.
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame.
Fight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
We'll win this game!

Var-sity! Var-sity!
U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our alma mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

Badger Nickname

The nickname "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the "Badger State." The name didn't come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song.

On Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

WISCONSIN ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison dedicates itself to the mission of providing athletic opportunities to a wide range of students and an environment in which all student-athletes can achieve their academic and competitive goals. The Division strives to provide equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff, regardless of gender or ethnic background. To honor its academic mission and that of the university, the Division supports the educational aspirations, academic progress and general welfare of the student-athlete. In competition, the Division fosters principles of sportsmanship, respect and fair play. In all of its activities, the Division insists on integrity, ethical conduct and accountability.

BADGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

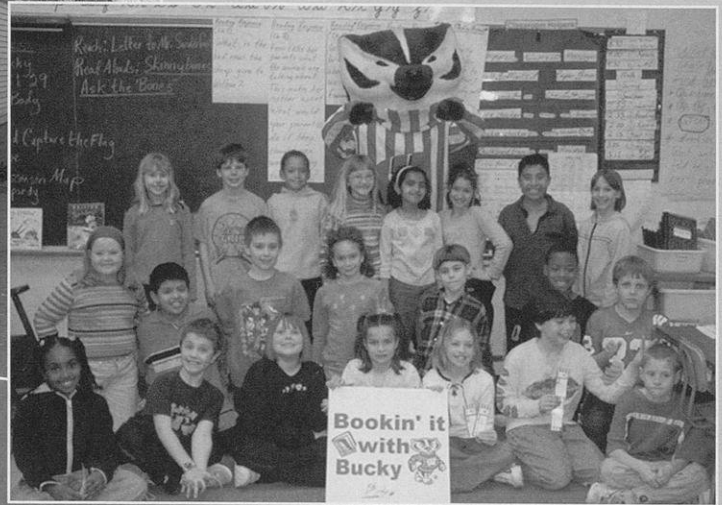

The Madison community is extremely supportive of the University of Wisconsin athletic teams and its many student-athletes. In return for that support, many student-athletes take time out of their busy schedules to show their appreciation and involvement in the city of Madison and Dane County through their community service efforts.

Student-athletes have assisted in a variety of service projects including the AIDS Support Network, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Habitat for Humanity, Special Olympics, United Way, Very Special Arts, visiting children in local hospitals with the Amanda the Panda program, and volunteering at local schools in the Bookin' It with Bucky program. The athletic department also donates a number of tickets and memorabilia to local charities for fund-raising purposes.

NCAA Compliance

As a member of the Big Ten Conference, Western Collegiate Hockey Association, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), the University of Wisconsin must abide by many rules and regulations. Below is general information on how these guidelines apply to prospective student-athletes and representative of athletics interests.

Definitions

A prospective student-athlete is any student who has started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, one becomes a prospective student-athlete if a college gives the individual (or his/her relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

A prospective student-athlete is recruited at a particular university when its coach approaches the prospect (or any member of the prospect's family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college by any one of the following three ways:

- Providing an official visit to the university's campus;
- Having an arranged, in-person, off-campus encounter with a prospect or the prospect's family; or
- Placing more than one telephone call to a prospect or any other member of his/her family.

A representative of the UW's athletics interests ("booster") is anyone who...

- is an alumnus of the UW
- has contributed to a Badger athletic program.
- has helped arrange employment of enrolled and prospective UW student-athletes.
- has been involved in any way promoting the Badger athletic program.

The Recruiting Process

Institutional staff members have very specific guidelines when it comes to recruiting that vary by sport. The major areas are: telephone calls, contacts, evaluations, campus visits, correspondence, and highlight films/videotapes.

In addition to general recruiting regulations, no booster can be involved in recruiting (e.g., no phone calls, letters, or in-person contacts).

Eligibility

Prospects who intend to participate in Division I intercollegiate athletics must register with and be certified by the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse. Please contact your high school counselor for more information on this process, especially regarding the requirements to be eligible.

Extra Benefits

By NCAA definition, an extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a booster to provide a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit that is not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. This is prohibited. If the benefit is demonstrated to be generally available to ALL UW STUDENTS or their relatives or friends determined on a basis unrelated to athletic ability, it is not a violation of NCAA rules.

Extra benefits are also not permissible for prospective student-athletes. They are called offers and inducements, and include any benefit such as cash, clothing, cars, improper expenses, transportation, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or attend an NCAA university. UW Compliance On-Line Training Program Compliance Rules and Regs is a compliance training program available on the internet. Student-athletes, coaches and designated athletic department staff are required to complete the program, while boosters are encouraged to participate. Please go to www.uwbadgers.com under the tab for "Compliance" to check it out.

Since this is not an all-inclusive summary, we encourage you to contact the UW Compliance Office at (608) 265-2973 with any questions. Information can also be found on the web at www.uwbadgers.com and www.ncaa.org.

FETZER STUDENT-ATHLETE CENTER

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center has been helping Wisconsin student-athletes to achieve their academic goals since 1997.

The 15,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility serves the needs of all student-athletes. The center features an open area with carrels that can accommodate up to 30 students. There are 11 study rooms of different shapes and sizes, including a 55-seat auditorium. A computer room houses 40 PCs while the entire center is wired with voice/data jacks and power ports.

Director David Harris supervises a staff of five advisors and three learning specialists who conduct the academic services offered to the more than 800 student-athletes. The advising staff of Tom Browne, Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman along with learning specialists Doug Tiedt, Maryellen Rock and Nancy Gatyas, have a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments. The staff renders quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assists coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and grant-in-aid staff whose offices are located in the center.

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Services Center, a state-of-the-art facility located in the lower level of the McClain Center, opened in 1997. The $2.1 million center is one of the best in the nation and includes 11 study rooms, a computer room, and a 55-seat auditorium.

B.I.G. R.E.D. LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

The University of Wisconsin dedicates itself to providing athletic opportunities to a wide range of students and an environment in which all student-athletes can achieve their academic and competitive goals.

The BIG RED (Building Integrity while Growing through Responsible and Educated Decisions) Life Skills Program, under the direction of Mike Moss, provides support to enable student-athletes to grow intellectually, physically, socially, emotionally and ethically.

- ◆ Academic Excellence
- ◆ Athletic Excellence
- ◆ Commitment to Serve
- ◆ Career Preparation
- ◆ Development of Personal Growth
- ◆ Development of Leadership

Advising sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The advising staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways. The Big Ten Conference honors scholar-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten honors while the UW Athletic Board recognizes Athletic Board Scholars for the highest grade-point average in each sport. In addition, student-athletes may be nominated for Academic All-America honors through the sports information office.

ENDOWED ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIPS

As more and more colleges and universities turn to innovative and effective ways of meeting the mounting financial challenges of supporting their intercollegiate athletic programs, it becomes increasingly evident that one of the most successful strategies is the establishment of endowed athletic scholarships.

At the University of Wisconsin-Madison, endowment funds to support athletic scholarships are normally created through gifts to the UW Foundation. A portion of the income from the endowed fund is used each year for scholarship support, and the remainder is reinvested in the principal.

The following endowed scholarships, named for the donor or for someone the donor wishes to honor, provide full or partial grants-in-aid to Badger student-athletes. Many thanks to our generous supporters!

SPORTS MEDICINE

The sports medicine staff provides all University of Wisconsin student-athletes with high quality health care. Wisconsin's Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of team physicians, dentists, athletic trainers, and a full-time nutritionist. The day-to-day care, prevention, and treatment of injuries to Badger athletes is supervised by a staff of 12 full-time and two graduate assistant National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Full-time athletic trainers Karen Bloch, Beth Cranley, Greg Ehlers, Chad Gabbard, Chuck Hart, Jan Helwig, Andy Hrodey, Mike Moll, Henry Perez-Guerra, Laura Walluk, and Ian Wood as well as graduate assistant trainers Greg Marcotte and Tracy Poro utilize functional measures, measure physiological capacity and outline program to improve flexibility.

Full-time nutritionist Jeremy Isensee provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of the student-athletes.

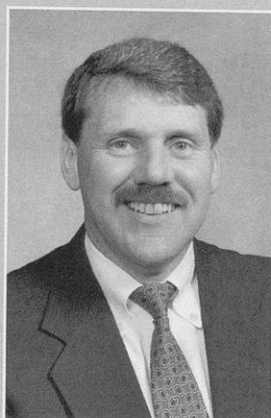

The Sports Medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool, and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nation's finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospitals and Clinics. Medical director Dr. Ben Graf, an orthopedic surgeon, is responsible for all services provided to student-athletes. Orthopedic care is also provided by team physician Dr. John Orwin and Dr. Lee Kaplan. General medical care is directed by the head of primary care, Dr. Greg Landry and he is joined by Dr. David Berhardt, Dr. Tom Best and Dr. Kathleen Carr.

In addition to the headquarters in the McClain Athletic Facility, auxiliary athletic training rooms are located in Camp Randall Stadium, Natatorium, UW Field House, and the Kohl Center. All training areas are equipped with the finest therapeutic modalities and rehabilitative apparatus.

The Wisconsin Sports Medicine facility features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool (bottom), and an on-site x-ray facility in the McClain Center.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component in all of the Badger teams' success on the playing field. The program's goal is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

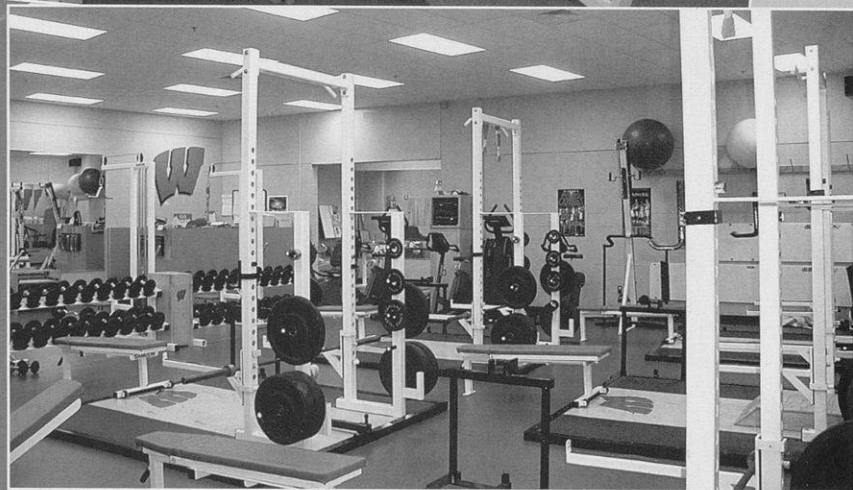

Strength and conditioning coordinator John Dettmann along with assistants Kerri Ariens, Brian Bott, Ben Herbert, Scott Hettenbach, Mike Potenza and Jim Snider work with the UW coaches to develop training programs to enhance each athlete's performance.

Badger athletes work on their strength programs in weight rooms in the McClain Center, Kohl Center and Camp Randall Stadium.

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features more than 45,000 pounds of free weights and more than 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

The Kohl Center weight room is equipped with five custom-built free weight power platforms and 4000 pounds of free weights. The room has nine pieces of cardiovascular equipment and three Vertimax jump trainers.

The Badger Den has five power stations with each station consisting of a platform for Olympic style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull-up station and a dip station. There are three lat-pull machines and seated row machines, a complete set of dumbbells and a complete set of plyometric boxes.

Wisconsin student-athletes benefit from seven full-time strength and conditioning coaches as well as three weight rooms in the McClain Center (top), Kohl Center (middle) and Camp Randall Stadium (right).

“The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the athletic field as possible.”

A GREAT COLLEGE TOWN

Madison is one of the hippest, healthiest and happiest cities in America. It is difficult to name another city that has garnered more accolades than Madison, Wisconsin. The capital city is truly a creative garden where dozens of world-renowned athletes, scientists, artists, inventors, musicians and world leaders were born, raised, educated and employed. The Madison area has it all—beauty, brains and a great personality!

Madison's downtown is on an isthmus, a half-mile wide strip of land between Lake Monona and Lake Mendota. The rest of the city, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus, wraps around the lakes. Madison's famed State Street, a one-mile pedestrian mall linking the state Capitol with the UW campus, is a great spot for people watching or hanging out at one of its many coffeehouses, bookstores, eclectic boutiques, ethnic eateries and nightclubs.

The city is a spectacular display of natural beauty that abounds with opportunities for outdoor recreation. With five area lakes and more than 200 parks, the area's rolling hills are host to many globally-recognized events, from the annual Paddle & Portage canoeing event to Madison Blues Festival and Ironman Wisconsin Triathlon. Madison is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts including joggers, hikers, skiers and especially bicyclists. Known as the bike capital of the Midwest, Madison boasts nearly 100 miles of bike trails. The city's main thoroughfares even have bike lanes!

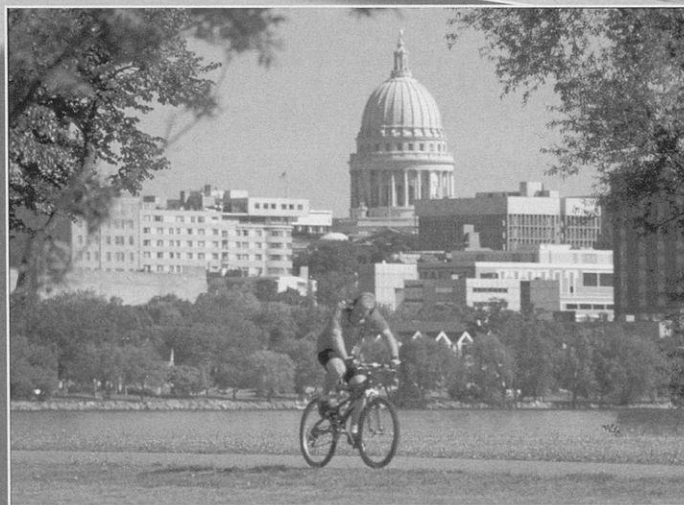

No matter your preference for recreation or relaxation, you'll find plenty to do in Madison and encounter a diverse group of individuals who all call this place "home."

"No better college atmosphere can be found anywhere than in Madison with so many things to do. People come just to see how much students care for and love the opportunities the campus offers."
