"CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS"

WISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

1995-96 DIRECTORY AND RECORDS BOOK

The Wisconsin State University Conference presents this 29th edition of the Directory and Records Book as a means of informing educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This book is published annually to provide a record of all sports in the conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage intercollegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System marked its twenty-fourth anniversary in the fall of 1995. The UW System was created in October 1971, by a law placing all of the state's public university campuses under a single Board of Regents. The UW System is composed of 13 universities and 13 two-year UW Centers, and UW-Extension which provides outreach services from offices in every county. Although only 24 years old, the UW System was one of the first statewide higher educational systems in the nation and has pioneered in developing coordinated and high quality programs and services on a statewide basis. System administrative offices are in Madison.

Universities are at Eau Claire, Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Kenosha (Parkside), Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Menomonie (Stout), Superior and Whitewater. Centers are at Baraboo, Fond du Lac, Janesville, Manitowoc, Marinette, Marshfield, Menasha, Rice Lake, Richland Center, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Wausau, and West Bend.

DR. DENNIS J. KEIHN, COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Dennis J. Keihn is heading into his third year as commissioner of the Wisconsin State University Conference after assuming his duties Aug. 16, 1993.

Keihn is former director of athletics, intramurals and recreation at Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago. For the year prior to joining the WSUC he did consulting work in California.

Keihn is the University of Wisconsin System's chief administrative officer for men's athletic programs. He is also the commissioner of the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference (WCC - men's and women's athletic conference), which is composed of the 13 two-year UW Center campuses. He served at Northeastern Illinois from 1988 to 1992 and previously was athletic director at California State University of Los Angeles from 1982 to 1988.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Keihn graduated from Lincoln High School in Cambridge City, Ind., and received a B.A. degree in physical education from Ball State University in 1968. He also holds a M.S. degree in physical education and a P.E.D. degree in physical education/athletic administration, both from Indiana University.

Keihn's first position out of college was at the Indiana Institute of Technology, where he served from 1969 to 1971 as assistant athletic director, intramural director, sports information director, assistant basketball coach and head coach of soccer, volleyball, golf and baseball.

He then was athletic director and men's basketball coach at Inver Hills Community College in St. Paul, Minn., and later served as athletic director, chair of Physical Education and Dance Department and head basketball coach at Macalester College in St. Paul.

Keihn is the WSUC's third commissioner. He succeeded Max R. Sparger, who retired July 15, 1993 after 22 years as head of the conference. Sparger replaced Fred Jacoby, the first commissioner, in July of 1971.

DON PAGE, WSUC SUPERVISOR OF OFFICIALS

Don Page retired as UW-River Falls athletic director in 1992 following a varied career in athletics as a player, coach, administrator and official. The Madison native starred in five sports at West High School (football, basketball, tennis, track and volleyball) and went on to win letters in basketball and tennis at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

He earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in football and basketball twice when the Regents won titles in each sport both years. He won the conference basketball scoring championship twice and sparked West to the WIAA state basketball championship in 1945. He also won the Big Eight tennis singles championship twice.

Page earned his Bachelor's degree from the UW-Madison in 1950 and his Master's from there in 1953. While an undergraduate he was a regular forward on the 1949-50 Badger basketball team that compiled a 17-5 record and finished second in the Big Ten Conference.

Following coaching stints at Edgerton and Madison West High Schools, Page was head basketball, baseball and tennis coach at UW-River Falls and served as the university's athletic director from 1970 to 1992.

Page was a football official from 1949 to 1993 and officiated basketball from 1949 until 1982. He taught two officiating classes at UW-River Falls for 30 years and served as an official observer of football and basketball officials in the WSUC for 22 years.

He developed the "Football Course Outline" for the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association and is a member of the National Federation Interscholastic Officials Association. He recently received "Distinguished Service Awards" from the Wisconsin High School Football Coaches Association, the National Federation of Interscholastic Coaches Association, and the Pierce/St. Croix Officials Association. He was inducted into the Madison Sports Hall of Fame in 1988.

Page is probably the only person in Wisconsin history to play (1945 champions), coach (1957 runnerup) and officiate (1968, '70, '72, '73, '74) in the WIAA State High School Boys Basketball Tournament.

He also officiated the first WIAA Class A Girls Basketball Championship game in 1976 and has worked Shrine All-Star and State High School Football Playoffs.

TOM BUTLER, WSUC SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Tom Butler joined the WSUC staff part-time May 1, 1967, to assist the Commissioner with the dissemination of sports information. The Madison native graduated from East High School in 1942.

Following three years in the Navy during World War II, he received a B.A. degree in journalism from the UW-Madison in January of 1950. After working as sports editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal and the Daily Jefferson County Union (Fort Atkinson), Butler joined the Wisconsin State Journal as a sports writer February 1, 1953. He retired from the State Journal June 30, 1987. He covered practically every Badger athletic team at one time or another and wrote a regular sports column for 26 years. He was voted Wisconsin Sports Writer of the Year in 1964 and 1965.

Butler is the author of "The Badger Game," a reflection on UW-Madison football from Mickey McGuire to Al Toon. The book recounts highlights from some 55 years of Badger football and includes stories about many of the great teams and players during that span. Butler covered Badger football as his principal "beat" at the State Journal for 25 years.

PREVIEW OF 1995 WSUC FOOTBALL SEASON

Whenever WSUC football coaches discuss the coming season each August, three schools annually pop up as favorites--La Crosse, River Falls and Whitewater. That's not unusual. The Eagles have figured in nine championships over the past 20 years and the Falcons and Warhawks in eight each.

Although seven of the eight conference schools still competing in football won titles during that span, the "big three" dominated. Eau Claire owns two outright championships, Stevens Point captured one clear title and tied for another, and Platteville shared two crowns and Oshkosh one.

Stout hasn't figured in a championship since 1965, when the late Max Sparger, who headed the conference as commissioner for 22 years, was still in Menomonie coaching Blue Devil gridders.

The annual run has been even less competitive during the past seven years when La Crosse wrapped up four undisputed titles and Whitewater three. Despite the precedence, coaches from competing conference schools are not ready to ship the 1995 trophy off to La Crosse or Whitewater. Coaches refuse to concede anything in August.

Still, they will tell you the "big three" remain the teams to beat but are ready for another crack at ending that domination. La Crosse missed its fourth straight championship last fall after bowing to last-place Eau Claire, 13-8, on the final Saturday of the season. Nobody yet has come up with a more shocking upset in the history of the WSUC.

Whitewater emerged as champion with its 6-1 record compared with the 5-2 registered by La Crosse, River Falls and Stevens Point. That didn't deter most coaches and interested observers from labeling the Eagles as preseason favorites in 1995. Those familiar with the WSUC over the years insist coach Roger Haring possesses the "horses" and will accept the trophy again in November.

A perusal of La Crosse's roster of returning lettermen backs the coaches' contention. Start with the all-important quarterback position and you find senior Craig Kusick, an all-conference performer who dominated that position last season. Many people insist he has a National Football League arm. This is his last shot to do what his predecessor, Jason Gonnion, accomplished twice at La Crosse, lead the Eagles to a WSUC championship.

Whitewater lost all-American running back Spencer Johnson, but coach Bob Berezowitz seems to come up with quality players just when opposing coaches think they have caught him with a short stack. Even now rumors persist some recruits, who will don the purple and white this fall, can run with the best.

Coach John O'Grady has some holes to plug in River Falls' offensive line but the guys who make his "wishbone" click in the backfield--quarterback Adam Kowles and fullback Chris Guenterburg--return to weave their magic once more. They missed cracking the top spot by one game a year ago. All hands know what went wrong and they aim to remedy that situation in the coming weeks.

Tom Fitzgerald starts his second season at quarterback for Stevens Point and hopes to make his mark on the WSUC. Like River Falls, the Pointers frequently stumble at the most inopportune times. One of coach John Miech's objectives this season is to keep his gridders focused for every game and not fall into that trap that forced them into a "bridesmaid" role in recent years.

Platteville coach Jim Kinder faces a major rebuilding job on offense, but this could be the year Stout cracks the first division behind talented quarterback Forrest Schneider and Mike Bechtel, a fine running back.

PROSPECTS FOR 1995

Coach Greg Polnasek and his 1994 Blugolds engineered one of the most shocking upset in WSUC history when they knocked off La Crosse, 13-8, in the final game of the season. It ruined the Eagles' bid for a fourth straight championship. Whether this will provide the impetus for a dramatic resurgence of the Eau Claire football program is a question hovering over the start of preseason practice.

The offensive backfield will be critical if the Blugolds are to improve this season and newcomers must step forward to make this happen. All three 1994 starters--quarterback Derek Schutz, running back Rick Crutchley and fullback Matt Annis--are gone. Junior Jim Hoffmann figures to take Schutz's place. He saw action in five games last season, completing 15 of 33 passes for 120 yards. Also competing for the job will be redshirt freshmen Josh Welsh and Brian Siegmann. Senior Chad Buss and junior Charlie Hoyard will be auditioning for ball-carrying chores.

The wide receiver position has a good mix of young talent and seasoned veterans. The group is headed by senior Jeremy Brayton, who led the team last year with 337 receiving yards and caught two touchdown passes. Included in the mix are senior Mark Christiansen, junior Jon Schueller and sophomore Steve Crutchley, Rick's brother. Senior tight end Chris Repenshek caught Polnasek's attention when he started the last four games last year, catching nine passes for 91 yards and one touchdown.

The offensive line returns four of five starters, although the departure of John Farrell, voted last year's outstanding lineman, leaves a huge void. Sophomore Eric Schreller, who started all 10 games at left tackle, returns along with fellow sophomores Aaron Hank and Matt Thompson and junior Ted Solberg. Also back is sophomore Chuck Wavrunek, who started the La Crosse game. So, the Blugolds begin with a solid nucleus.

Junior Sam McMahon is the lone returnee in the defensive line, which will require a massive rebuilding project. Senior Ryan Danner and sophomores Peter Vacho and Eric Sharp, all letterwinners last fall, must step up if the defense is to mature quickly. Senior Marc Hobbs and Randy Greerman head returning linebackers. Mark Scully and Geoff Zernicke started every game in the secondary last season.

It's shocking but true. La Crosse did not win its fourth straight Wisconsin State University Conference football championship last fall. The Eagles finished the season with the best total offense and defense in the conference and needed only to beat cellar-dwelling Eau Claire in the 1994 finale to claim the school's 12th undisputed crown.

Then, a funny thing happened on the way to the big victory celebration. The Blugolds found a chink in the vaunted La Crosse armor and carved out a 13-8 victory. Was that a fluke or did Eau Claire reveal to the rest of the conference a vulnerability opponents might exploit in the future. "Dream on!" partisans on the banks of the Mississippi reply to such suggestions.

Glance down the Eagles roster or listen to Roger Harring, the dean of WSUC coaches, and any neutral observer would have to agree La Crosse should be making room for another trophy in its well-stocked showcase. "I think we have the ability to strike quickly with some burners in the backfield and a quarterback with a great arm," the coach said. "And, we have plenty of size on the offensive line. When we're consistent there, we can be very good."

The quarterback is senior Craig Kusick, an all-conference performer who led the league in passing and total offense in '94. He completed almost 60 percent of his passes and threw for a school record 25 touchdowns. "We will be very pleased if he plays just like he did last year," Harring said. "All he has to do is what he's capable of and what he has already proven he can do."

Operating in the same backfield will be seniors Trevor Rogers and Jason Tarkowski, a pair of devastating runners. Sophomore John Barrett, another solid ball-carrier and an exceptional return specialist, also might see action at flanker this season. Guards Erik Halverson and Chad Hoier, tackle Ryan O'Leary and center Chris Schultz anchor an impressive looking offensive line.

The Titans' fate on the football field in '95 will be determined by linemen on both sides of the football. The loss of three starters in the offensive line and two more in the defensive front brings 12th-year coach Ron Cardo reason for concern. The biggest challenge is replacing three-year starting offensive tackle Nick DeLuca and center Burke Griffin, a two-year starter.

Dan Goosherst and Steve Ritter return as starting guards, but center and tackle spots are up for grabs. Leading candidates for starting berths are Jason Krausfeldt, Scott Pierner, Stewart Schaumann and Brian Wraalstad. Tackle Dino Traxel is the only starter back in the defensive line. Cardo looks to Dan Mirabelli, Dale Springhetti, Mike Washington and Doug Young to make major contributions.

If the line jells, the Titans possess quality running backs in Alexis Griffin and Mike Lindholm. This looks like the strongest area offensively at the outset. Rick Radies and Jeff Steckbauer are expected to complement Griffin and Lindholm. Cory Colvin and Rob Stoltz, the Titans' two top receivers last year, are back. Sean Nowak, Todd Stennett and Chris Timm provide depth as wide receivers and Brian Diehls is starting his third season at tight end.

A huge question mark surrounds the quarterback position, where sophomores Ryan Hinske and Brian Tomalak are expected to battle for the starting job. Tomalak started last year's opener against St. Norbert but suffered a wrist injury and missed the rest of the season. Hinske started the last six games, completed 58 of 144 passes for 656 yards and two touchdowns and also ran for three scores.

Kelly Schmitt, Greg Herlihy and Brad Beisbier head a solid linebacking crew. Howard Spearman, Mike Grether, Justin Lotharius and Todd Skarban, all starters in '94, return to the secondary. The kicking game rests on the capable toe of Mike Alioto, the first team all-conference punter last fall. He also will do the placekicking.

If the Pioneers ever could get their act together early in the season, they might be challenging for the championship in November. Last fall was a case in point. Coach Jim Kinder's club finished with a 3-4 conference record and 5-5 overall. They lost their first four games and then won five of their last six. Kinder jokingly would insist that's when good coaching started to kick in.

The outset of this season could pose a problem again because newcomers must take over for graduated veterans, including quarterback Bill Altmann and running backs Rob Dal Santo, a first team all-conference pick, and Jeremy Krachey. Dal Santo averaged 98 yards a game rushing and 5.5 yards a carry last season, good for fourth place in the conference. Altmann was the league's fourth-ranked passer, throwing for 148 yards a game.

Among the strengths of the current squad should be the pass receiving dual of Brunson Parish and Russ Jacques. The latter led the WSUC in receiving two years ago, while Parish made the first all-conference team last fall as the all-purpose back. He caught 19 passes in seven conference games, scoring five touchdowns and averaging 21.2 yards per reception. Also back are two experienced tight ends, John Baker and Gregg Robers.

Kinder is pinning his hopes on a defensive unit which returns a strong corps from the group that ranked second in the conference against the run last season. Leading that bunch will be linebacker Dan Fox, 6 feet and 225 pounds, and down lineman Matt Reddeman, 6-2 and 240. Fox made the all-conference first team and Reddeman the second unit.

Of course, finding a new quarterback always presents problems. Forrest Paul, a 6-2, 190 sophomore, is the only returning letterman at that position and he has seen just limited playing time in the past. Newcomers will be challenging Paul for the starting job or, more likely, the backup role.

The Falcons were right on line toward great things last season but faltered down the stretch. They beat defending champion La Crosse, 31-20, and boasted a 5-0 conference record heading into the final two weeks of the WSUC season. As events later proved, coach John O'Grady's team needed only one victory in those two games for a share of the championship.

Then disaster struck. Not only did the Falcons bow to eventual champion Whitewater, 37-31, they lost by 28-21 to Stevens Point and were forced to share second place with the Pointers and La Crosse. This year O'Grady hopes such team strengths as an experienced offensive backfield, a strong defensive line and a group of aggressive linebackers can keep his 1995 edition on track for the entire season.

Starting with quarterback Adam Kowles, a veteran at directing the Falcon "wishbone" attack, and fullback Chris Guenterburg, O'Grady has the makings of an extremely productive offense. Guenterberg, a first team all-conference running back, and Kowles, a second team pick, averaged 123 and 102 yards a game rushing, respectively, last season. Each scored seven touchdowns in seven conference games.

The defensive line includes a group of solid underclassmen, headed by Woody Fangmeier, who made the second all-conference team last year as a sophomore. O'Grady can keep the linebacking corps fresh with Ryan Sinn, Jim Stockinger, Jim Carver, Adam Flanders, Jeremy Gazdik, Brent Klefstad, Ryan Lamb, Chad Landsom, Mark Madigan, Chad McCune and Reid Olson.

Problems facing O'Grady's staff at the outset will be replacing center Rob Nutt and offensive guard Jim Jackman, both of whom made all-conference first team a year ago, along with tight end Jason Vorlicek, a second team choice. Voids in the defensive secondary are of equal concern, especially the loss of perennial all-conference performer Eddie Simes. Also gone are the always dependable Kurt Knuth and Mark Hauri.

PROSPECTS FOR 1995

One would expect Stevens Point to feel satisfied with its 15-5 football record over the last two seasons. Such is not the case. Despite that sparkling .750 winning percentage that included numerous offensive explosions and solid defensive efforts, the Pointers have nothing to show for their exploits except a nice looking record. Coach John Miech's charges were denied a shot at post-season play, not to mention the WSUC championship in each of the last two seasons.

This year Miech and the Pointers want to take the next step. The Pointers always have fielded a potent offense and leading the pro-style attack this year will be Tom Fitzgerald, heading into his second season as the starting quarterback. Also returning is running back Nate Harms, who led the team in rushing last season as a sophomore. And, Stan Strama heads a crew of talented but relatively inexperienced running backs.

Fitzgerald, who averaged 178 yards a game passing, will be throwing to such capable wideouts as Tim and Bill Ott and Jose Banda. Tim Ott caught 25 passes in seven conference games last season. A major problem for Miech and his staff will be finding a replacement for tight end Nick Schneider. The offensive line lost some key performers, including all-conference tackle Brian Drummy, but the veteran coach insists returnees possess plenty of strength, quickness and depth.

Defensively, Miech's major concern is in the line, where departed all-conference end Bret Hanmer led the attack last season. Coaches will be looking for more than one person to step forward. Linebackers Dave Diemel and Nate Van Zeeland lead a basically veteran group at a position that traditionally has been strong at Stevens Point.

The secondary features the strongest group of returnees despite the loss of all-American Randy Simpson. Clayt Birmingham is the top returnee along with Jay Krcmar, plus a group of hungry 1994 part-time starters and backups. The loss of three-time all-conference kicker Todd Passini to graduation leaves a large hole. This job is wide open. Eric Berendsen returns to punt after a consistent first season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1995

Coach Ed Meierkort heads into his third season at the helm of the Blue Devils with optimism. Despite the 4-6 record, 2-5 in the conference, he emphasizes the positives, including 36 returning lettermen, 15 of whom started at one time or another in 1994. His team finished sixth in the WSUC last year and he is aiming for the first division this season.

The biggest plus for the Blue Devils is the return of quarterback Forrest Schneider to direct Meierkort's pro-set. He ranked second in conference passing last season, throwing for 1,614 yards and 12 touchdowns in 10 games. He expects to aim most of his passes at Matt Doke, Stout's leading receiver last year. He caught eight touchdown passes and averaged 16.7 yards per reception.

Junior Mike Bechtel and sophomore Gene Cameron figure to handle most of the ball-carrying chores. Bechtel led the team in rushing last season with 612 yards, 4.8 yards per carry. He scored six touchdowns, including one scoring run covering 72 yards. The pair will be operating behind a big, experienced offensive line that includes Kevin Feeney (6-7, 295) Louis Linder (6-3, 240) and Jason Lehman (6-4, 297). The biggest loss was all-conference Rodger Lowe, who led the team with 27 solo tackles and 82 assists as well as quarterback sacks (6.5) and tackles for losses (11).

Linebackers and defensive backs show promise but the kicking game is a concern for Meierkort. The linebacking corps is bolstered by the return of Nick Kaiser (6-1, 220), Ben Dahlman (6-2, 230) and Justin Meyer (6-2, 220). LaRue Pierce (6-5, 240) is expected to make a transition from defensive end to linebacker. Gone is all-conference defensive back Tim Thompson, but the secondary still has Tony Aizpurua and Chuck Morning at the corners and Ryan Zeman at free safety. Morning led Stout in interceptions with three and Zeman led the WSUC two years ago as a freshman with four steals.

"I feel we have improved our team speed drastically," the coach concluded. "We need to put more playmakers on the field. Obviously we still are trying to catch most of the programs in this league, but I do feel the gap is narrowing."

PROSPECTS FOR 1995

Question marks abound at the offensive skill positions for the defending WSUC champion Warhawks. First of all, coach Bob Berezowitz must replace all-American running back Spencer Johnson, who ran for a Whitewater record 1,697 yards and scored 18 touchdowns last season on the way to the WSUC's most valuable player award. It's doubtful he can be replaced but somebody must play that position.

The Warhawks also must replace starting quarterback Bryan Pytleski and fullback Erin Ryan. Pytleski threw 131 passes last year, completing 41, mostly to top receiver Aaron Buss, who also must be replaced. Ryan rarely touched the football, but helped clear the way for Johnson.

Eddie McKennie, a 5-7, 138-pound scatback, figures to be Johnson's replacement. He will operate behind arguably the best offensive line in the conference. All five starters return, headed by all-WSUC tackle Joel Schenk and second-team picks Derrick Levake and Scott Hawig. Junior split end Richard Newton will be the most accomplished target for senior quarterback Dan Runaas, the likely replacement for Pytleski.

"We have a good nucleus in the offensive line and we have a number of good receivers", Berezowitz said. "Our big void right now is in the backfield where we have to have someone step up at quarterback and we have to replace Ryan and Johnson. We have some good backs but it's just a matter that they don't have the experience."

The strength of the defense will lie in its secondary with 1994 starters Craig Havertape at strong safety and David Dodds at cornerback returning. All-conference defensive lineman Eric Melka also returns.

"Unlike recent years, it won't have to be a couple of 'name' players that will have to hold us together," Berezowitz said. "I think we'll probably have more depth at the defensive positions than we've had in a long time. That makes for good competitiveness because it will bring players to a different level."

Berezowitz Football Coach of the Year

Bob Berezowitz, who guided Whitewater to the WSUC football championship in 1994, was named conference football coach of the year by his peers. He received the George Chryst Award, named for the late Platteville coach. Whitewater Warhawks finished 6-1 in the conference and 8-2 overall.

RAWLINGS and TOM KAMLAY
congratulate all student athletes and coaches
of the Wisconsin State University Conference.

FALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

River Falls' Ed Simes, Stevens Point's Jeremie Johnson and Whitewater's Greg Fink were named Max R. Sparger Scholar-Athlete Award winners for 1994 Fall sports in the Wisconsin State University Conference. Simes received the award for football, Johnson for cross country and Fink for soccer. The award is named in honor of the late WSUC commissioner, who guided the conference from 1971 to 1993.

Simes of Grand Meadow, Minn., earned a 3.379 grade point average as a Business major with a minor in Mathematics. Johnson of Brule compiled a grade point average of 3.55 in Aquatic Biology and Water Resources. Fink of Homewood, Ill., carried a 3.58 in Physical Education and Coaching.

PREVIEW OF THE 1995-96 BASKETBALL SEASON

The problem Platteville encounters on the heels of an undefeated (31-0) season and the NCAA Division III championship can be found in the question facing returning Pioneers and coach Bo Ryan, "What can you do for an encore?"

The heart of that championship team left with the departure of Ernie Peavy, Tim O'Connell and Aaron Lancaster. But, Platteville partisans insist the heart might be gone but not the soul. Returnees are instilled with the same intensity epitomized by the Pioneers since Ryan became head coach.

Scott Borroughs, Erik Holmgren, Ben Hoffman, John Paulsen and Pete Stremlow will bring that to the gym every day starting Oct. 15. Whether newcomers can step up right away and fill those huge voids left by last season's standouts probably will be answered early.

Platteville will open the season by representing the WSUC and NCAA Division III at the Tournament of Champions hosted by the University of Alaska-Fairbanks. The tourney also features Division II and NAIA Division I champions from 1995. The 1994-95 Pioneers set the tone for their unbeaten season by destroying Division II North Dakota, 87-58, last November in the UW-Madison Field House.

Many conference coaches are looking forward to one of the most competitive races in recent years. They don't expect Platteville to reach the level of a year ago and see several young teams from last season starting to mature. Stout coach John Muraski put it this way: "The conference is pretty wide open. It should be a great race. A lot of teams will feel they have a shot at the title."

Stevens Point is one of those teams. Coach Bob Parker has all of his key players from last season back. Although the team struggled through a 12-13 season, his young players gained valuable experience and know what it takes to be competitive in a tough conference.

There is plenty of excitement around Oshkosh, where the Titans proved last season they can score with the best. Forrest Olson led the WSUC in scoring with a 17.8 average and Brent Nerat finished fourth with a 16.2 mark. And, Dennis Ruedinger, who averaged 16.8 the previous season, suffered a groin injury in the first game a year ago and missed the rest of the season. All three are back.

Stout cracked the first division for the first time since 1987 and its nine returning lettermen bring a burst of enthusiasm into the new season. La Crosse coach Charlie Gross also is encouraged by what seems to be more balanced competition in the league and his young squad includes 6-6 Eric Dudek, who scored a school-record 43 points in a game against Whitewater last February.

River Falls is coming off an up-and-down season in which the Falcons won at Stevens Point by one point and lost to the Pointers at home by the same margin. They won by 13 at Oshkosh and lost by 10 at La Crosse. Despite losing four key players, coach Rick Bowen still has enough to cause trouble in a much more balanced league.

Whenever favorites are discussed, Eau Claire and Whitewater usually are mentioned in the first breath. The Blugolds finished uncharacteristically 8-8 in the conference last season and 15-10 overall. That's called a "down year" at Eau Claire but coach Ken Anderson doesn't stay "down" long.

Whitewater is considered the top favorite in many people's eyes and coach Dave Vander Meulen starts with arguably the conference's best returning player in Tirrell Carter. Even Superior, struggling in the second division for so many years, is determined to be a doormat no longer. Coach Jeff Kaminsky's goal is for his Yellowjackets to be the most improved team in the league.

The Blugolds finished uncharacteristically in fourth place last season, eight games behind champion Platteville. No Eau Claire team coached by Ken Anderson ever had lost eight conference games in his previous 26 years at the helm. The closest they came was a 9-7 mark in 1982-83. That season the Blugolds finished 15-12 overall, their worst record under the veteran coach.

This is a new beginning and nobody expects Anderson to experience successive "down" seasons. Although the Blugolds lost three quality seniors in Jerney Nicolet, Dennis James and Martrice Manuel, a strong nucleus returns, headed by point guard Marcus Buckley, center Cory Kulig and wing Andy Fisher.

Buckley made the all-conference team in 1992 and again last season. He is bidding to become the school's career leader in assists. He has 434, only 34 behind the record. He also figures to top 1,000 points in scoring with 841 heading into this season. He averaged 13.9 points in the conference last season, and Kulig 11.9 with 8.2 rebounds per game.

The Blugolds should possess good outside shooting, leadership, experience, ball-handling and passing but must shore up the defense, something that Anderson's teams featured for so many years. They also must improve their inside game, rebounding and overall quickness. The team expects to be bolstered by newcomers Jason Eikman, a 6-7 transfer from Minneapolis Community College; Joshua Hermesen, a 6-7 graduate of Fond du Lac (Goodrich), and Brett and Brad Borne, 6-1 twins from Dodgeville.

Coach Charlie Gross and his Eagles know this is the season they have a chance to move upward in the standings. Many of the conference's top stars from a year ago graduated and the teams seem much more evenly matched. Gross expects the Eagles to be improved; just how much he's not sure.

Nine lettermen return, including 6-6, 215-pound junior Eric Dudek, who led the Eagles in scoring last season, averaging 13.9 points a game and set a school record with 43 points in a loss to Whitewater. That rankles Gross. If Dudek has gotten a little more support in that game, the Eagles might have engineered a major upset.

Consistency, or lack of it, is the key word in every coach's vocabulary. Gross is no exception. He believes more consistency could help reverse some of those losses, such as the two-point setback at Eau Claire and the 59-58 heartbreaker at home against Stout.

No one from La Crosse made even honorable mention all-conference at the conclusion of last season but Eagle partisans feel Dudek was slighted. The experience gained during the 8-17 season figures to help Dudek, as well as two other juniors, 6-7 pivot Melvin Veasley and 6-1 wingman Chuck Simpson, who averaged 9.7 and 9.6 points a game, respectively, last season.

Coach Ted Van Dellen is hoping for a relatively injury-free season after his Titans were plagued a year ago by a rash of bad luck. The worst blow occurred early in the season. Dennis Ruedinger suffered a groin injury after only five games, one in the conference, and was sidelined the rest of the season.

Ruedinger was off to a fast start and Van Dellen entertained high hopes. He averaged 22.4 points in those five starts and sank 17 of his 34 shots from three-point range. He is only a junior and brings a wealth of game experience into the coming campaign. He joins Forrest Olson, the defending conference scoring champion who averaged 17.8 points a game.

Olson already has scored 1,005 points in his Titan career, while Ruedinger and Brent Nerat, a senior, are on course to hit the 1,000-point mark with a little luck. Ruedinger has scored 743 and Nerat 634. Also encouraging is the return of guard Brett Davis and forward Aaron Harding, both of whom made the coaches' all-freshman team after last season. Davis was named the WSUC freshman of the year.

Van Dellen will concentrate on rebounding at both ends of the floor and shoring up the defense at the outset this year. The Titans had no trouble scoring last season, averaging 86.8 points a game, but they yielded 87.2. They were outrebounded, 41.8-38.9 during their 10-15 campaign.

Even the most ardent Pioneer basketball fanatic doesn't expect another 31-0 season like 1994-95, something unprecedented in WSUC annals. The NCAA Division III championship was the second for coach Bo Ryan during his Platteville tenure but that "dream season" puts pressure on all who follow.

The task of just defending the WSUC crown is complicated by the loss of all-American Ernie Peavy and such talented teammates as Tim O'Connell, Aaron Lancaster, Mike Uppena and Gabe Miller. The death of Miller shortly after the season cast a pall over post-tournament celebrations. "We lost several players to graduation," said Ryan, "but the biggest loss was suffered off the court in the passing of Gabe Miller."

Ryan lost seven players, including his three top scorers. Peavy finished second in the conference with a 17.1 average. O'Connell averaged 13.4 and Lancaster 10.2. The latter also was the best free throw shooter in the conference and a tenacious rebounder.

The point guard position remains a question mark due to the loss of Peavy and Miller, but the team will be competitive and defensively strong. The five returning lettermen bring exceptional experience because of Ryan's player rotation philosophy. They include Scott Borroughs, Erik Holmgren, Ben Hoffman, John Paulsen and Pete StremLOW.

Veteran coach Rick Bowen showed little or no optimism last spring while looking over the remnants of his basketball program. He lost the heart of his squad, including all-conference Chris O'Neal, as well as his chief assistant, Paul Costanzo, who left to become Dick Bennett's administrative assistant at UW-Madison.

O'Neal ranked fifth in WSUC scoring last season with a 15.6 average to go with his 8.6 rebounds per game. Also gone are Nick Kuehl, Howard Crutcher, Marcus Knox and Diangelo Tyler. Knox averaged 12.9 points and 4.4 assists a game.

"Without sounding sarcastic," Bowen said when asked to list his team's strengths, "I'm not sure we have any at this time. We must entirely rebuild." The rebuilding process is expected to revolve around three of the nine returning lettermen--Luke Madsen, Kevin Cummings and Chad Meschke.

Bowen wants desperately to bring a championship to River Falls, which hasn't celebrated such an event in 45 years. Although his pessimistic evaluation seemed out of character, the Indiana native concluded on a high note when he assured, "We will put a competitive and good team on the floor next November."

While many coaches tend to sing the blues over prospects for the coming season, Bob Parker waxes enthusiastically about Stevens Point's future, despite finishing 7-9 in the conference last season and 12-13 overall. "We will be a contender and expect to make the Division III playoffs," he said while discussing Pointer chances.

Parker has a young team with only one senior, 6-4 guard Brad Hintz, who shared second in WSUC scoring last season, averaging 17.1 points a game. He joins 6-9 center Mike Paynter as the nucleus around whom Parker hopes to build a contender. Paynter averaged 13.9 points and 6.9 rebounds and received all-conference honorable mention with Hintz.

Paynter and 6-6 Jim Danielson give the Pointers a strong inside game and Danielson can score from outside, too. Joining Hintz in the backcourt will be Dave Grzesk, Russ Austin, Dan Deniston, Curt Richardt and Brian Nelson, all of whom gained valuable experience as freshman last season.

Parker also expects newcomers to contribute in time, including 6-7 Clinton Dieselhorst, a transfer from UW-Superior. Explaining his reasons for optimism, Parker said, "We have experience, size, intelligence and a good team attitude returning." He feels these attributes can elevate the Pointers to new heights.

PROSPECTS FOR 1995-96

The Blue Devils are coming off their best season in eight years. They were third in the WSUC last season, duplicating the finish of the 1986-87 Blue Devils. Their 10-6 record in the conference and 17-8 overall mark give coach John Muraski and nine returning lettermen added confidence heading into the new season.

Clouding the optimism somewhat is the loss of all-conference performers Zak Alwin and Tuwan Clayton, who averaged 15.1 and 13.9 points, respectively, in the WSUC last season. Also graduated was Brian Fravert, a key to the Blue Devils' late surge, when they won eight of their last nine games.

Returnees include Brad Markwell, Thaddeus Hilliard, Justin Peters and DeWayne Pollard, all of whom started at one time or other last season. Peters averaged 12.1 points per game in the conference and Markwell 9.2. "We lost a lot but we will be very competitive," Muraski assured.

Probably the biggest loss was at point guard where Alwin started for four years. Sophomore Tim Schulte relieved Alwin last year and should be ready to assume those key responsibilities with a season under his belt. "For us to stay in the top three, we will need our freshmen and new kids to step up," Muraski emphasized.

Jeff Kaminsky starts his second year as coach of the Yellowjackets with a greater understanding of life in the WSUC. He knows the pitfalls of coaching in arguably the toughest NCAA Division III conference in the country but is probably more focused on the challenge heading into 1995-96.

The Yellowjackets lost considerable firepower with the graduation of Chris Dettmann and Don Stahl, who averaged 12.4 and 12.2 points per game in the conference last season. But, junior John Wiley returns after a highly productive sophomore season in which he averaged 14.2 points and 5.8 rebounds per game in the WSUC.

Kaminsky is looking for someone or several players to step up and assume a leadership role as the Yellowjackets battle for respectability against the rugged WSUC competition. Lack of outside shooting has hampered Superior in recent years and Kaminsky hopes some newcomers can fill that void this season.

A home-floor 76-71 victory over Eau Claire highlighted last season's play and provided Kaminsky and his squad with some confidence that they can compete. The second-year coach cited defense, attitude and depth on the perimeter as strengths at the outset. He believes his squad has the realistic goal of being the most improved team in the WSUC this season.

When considering favorites as teams prepare for the 1995-96 season, the Warhawks have as much right to claim that tag as anybody in the WSUC. Coach Dave Vander Meulen's squad includes quality returnees headed by all-conference Tirrell Carter, who averaged 15.4 points a game last season and led the WSUC in rebounding with 8.9 caroms a game.

Also back is 6-4 forward Allan Wassil, a starter last season, along with 6-1 Eric Burdette and 6-4 Chad Stelse, who gained valuable experience as freshmen a year ago. Redshirts Chris Keehn of River Grove, Ill., Jaron Perry of Milwaukee (King) and Matt Wieseckel, a three-sport star from Sheboygan Falls, also figure in the mix.

The Warhawks finished second to Platteville with a 12-4 record last season and were 19-8 overall. Vander Meulen has coached two NCAA Division III championship teams and has averaged 20 victories a season during his 17 years at the helm of Whitewater's basketball program. The Warhawks have been perennial contenders under his leadership.

Carter and Wassil are mainstays but Burdette and Stelse must step up to fill the void left by departed point guard Daryl Hilliard, and replacements must be found for Rob Graetz and James Jackson, two reasons why Whitewater led the conference in rebounding again last season.

Fall Scholar-Athletes Honored

River Falls' Ed Simes, Stevens Point's Jeremie Johnson and Whitewater's Greg Fink were named Max R. Sparger Scholar-Athlete Award winners for 1994 Fall sports in the Wisconsin State University Conference. Simes received the award for football, Johnson for cross country and Fink for soccer. The award is named in honor of the late WSUC commissioner, who guided the conference from 1971 to 1993.

Simes of Grand Meadow, Minn., earned a 3.379 grade point average as a Business major with a minor in Mathematics. Johnson of Brule compiled a grade point average of 3.55 in Aquatic Biology and Water Resources. Fink of Homewood, Ill., carried a 3.58 in Physical Education and Coaching.

OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD SECTION

Three Win National Titles

Platteville's Chip Schneider, Stout's Terry Anders and La Crosse's Mike Schnur won National Championships in NCAA Division III track and field meets during the 1995 indoor and outdoor seasons.

Schneider won the long jump and Anders the 400-meter dash at the National indoor meet at Ada, Ohio. Schneider leaped 23 feet, 6 inches to win his title and Anders finished first in the 400 in 49.01 seconds. Schnur finished second indoors at 16-8. Schneider also was sixth in the 55-meter hurdles in :07.68.

Outdoors at Northfield, Minn., Schneider won the 400 hurdles in :52.16, Anders the 400 in :47.93 and Schnur the pole vault with a mark of 17 feet, 1/4 inch. Anders also was third in the 200 (:21.72) and Schneider fifth in the long jump (23-4 3/4).

Lincoln University of Pennsylvania won both the indoor and outdoor team championships. WSUC champion La Crosse finished third indoors and sixth outdoors.
