JUST ISSUED!

A New and Beautiful Song.

COME SILVER MOON

By the Greatest Melodist of the Age

—C. A. WHITE.—

A Song by the composer of "Marguerite," "Beyond the Shadows," "Evelena," "Only Tired," or any other of this most popular of all song writers, scarcely needs commendation. It has always been said of them that they "sing their own praises."

Mr. White has written but few songs of late, and this fact makes his MILLIONS OF ADMIRERS all the more eager to possess every new inspiration as soon as it is issued. "COME SILVER MOON" is a song of quiet beauty and reveals the composer in one of his most poetically musical moods. Individuality is the dominant quality in all Mr. White's writings, and this, his latest song, is a peer in the realm of melody.

Price, 40 cents.
