FEATURE FILM PREVIEW

"Chuka"

Thursday, June 20th at 7:15 in the Hughes Hall Gym, brave cavalry versus attacking Indians. But this one, says Life magazine, is a notch above the rest.

Rod Taylor plays Chuka, an Indian scout. Cavalry mainstays are John Mills as the colonel, and Ernest Borgnine in the role of a sergeant.

There is a fine climax to the film says Life. The fort is attacked: scouts are sent out to get help, but each scout is cut down in turn. The men in the beleaguered fort begin to fight among themselves. Mutiny looms.

Richard Jessup wrote the script from his novel. Gordon Douglas is the director. The film is a 1967 Paramount release.

Bring your popcorn.

SHERMAN HALL

On Sunday, April 15, 1965 the Post Crescent ran an article announcing the start of a 2.6 million dollar project which would begin at Winnebago State Hospital. That was the first public statement of a proposed Sherman Hall. On September 3, 1966 the Northwestern stated that the project was 99% completed.

When the structure, which was named for Adin Sherman, superintendent from June 10, 1910 to March 31, 1930, was finished it had two hundred beds and cost $2,550,000.

On April 21, 1967, the Dedication of the new building was held with Gov. Warren Knowles as a guest speaker, but the first patients were moved into the new site on March 15, 1967.

In the lobby of Sherman is an American flag posted which was given to the Staff by Congressman Wm. A. Steiger. The flag has been flown over the Capitol in Washington D.C.

Mr. Paul Kilp of Berners, Schober & Kilp was the architect for the modern building. He was also on the speakers roster for the day of Dedication.

In 1973, Winnebago State Hospital will be celebrating the one-hundredth

Chaplain's Message

Kappy Birthday

It is difficult to endure a trying situation, put up with harassing problems and suffering, but when these predicaments drag on and on, with no foreseeable cessation, even the best among us are strongly tempted to give up, back out, retreat, capitulate.

We have documented evidence that these temptations were no less prevalent among the earliest of Christians than it is among us - even though ours isn't essentially a religious persecution.

Among the first in Jerusalem to embrace faith in the Lord Jesus were a number of Jewish priests steeped in the sacred traditions of the chosen people, and constantly participating in the splendid liturgical services with the great temple. Upon joining the swelling ranks of believers in Jesus, these men became targets of ridicule, slander, imprisonment, beatings and murder. Loyal to their baptismal promises, they proved courageous in withstanding these dreadful onslaughts for their own people. Finally, under overwhelming pressures, they elected to leave the Sacred City so dear to them and find refuge in one of their Christian convictions in greater peace.

Nonetheless, living in exile and still longing for the magnificence of the temple courts and the religious ceremonies, and the comfort of their way of life before they had come to know Christ, these same men, who had earlier endured persecution, now were sorely tempted to give up all, abandon their commitment to Christianity and return to their original life.

At this juncture the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews sent them a stirring letter, entreating them to be faithful, long-suffering, persistent and courageous, and reminding them that their new faith was really the fulfillment of the Old Law, and alone offered them the sharing in the Kingdom of Heaven. HOW OFTEN HAVE WE THOUGHT OF SOMETHING WE WOULD LIKE TO DO FOR ANOTHER - TO MAKE A GIFT - TO PREPARE A TREAT. AND HOW OFTEN WE HAVE NOT HAD TIME TO DO IT. PRESSURE OF WORK, FAMILY AND THE SEARCH FOR ENTERTAINMENT HAVE PREVENTED US. HOW WE REGRET THAT LACK OF TIME AND SKILLS HAVE KEPT US FROM OUR IDEA.

MANY TIMES WE THINK OF SOMETHING A FRIEND OR MEMBER OF OUR FAMILY WOULD LIKE - AND WE CAN'T FIGURE OUT HOW TO BRING THIS THOUGHT INTO REALITY. WE NOW KNOW WE CAN FIND SOMEONE WHO CAN GUIDE US - PERHAPS TO SHOW US HOW TO PREPARE AND MAKE SOMETHING OF LEATHER, WOOD OR FABRIC.

NOW WE KNOW WE HAVE THE GOLDEN GIFT OF TIME AND HELP TO AID US IN PREPARING A GIFT.

Dear Editor,

I would like to nominate Wes Baldry, Aide on Sherman 1&2 as aide of the month. He is particularly adept with certain techniques that bring patients around to reality in a limited amount of time. He is always courteous and will always take time out to explain things to patients that are a little confused about certain issues.

I have, also, observed how he works with the rest of the treatment team and have always found him open to new ideas. His sympathy and empathy with the patient enabled many patients, like myself, to respond in a positive manner towards reality.

This hospital and any institution that may employ Mr. Baldry's services can be assured that they have a loyal and dedicated employee.

Wayne B.
Sherman 1&2

This month's employee of the month Wes Baldry, has been employed at WSH for fifteen years. During this time he has seen a lot of changes in the hospital. Wes says that the advent of tranquilizers has brought about many of the changes.

Wes lists his hobbies as hunting and fishing. In fact he seems to always come back from deer hunting with his buck. He also has a mink ranch with about 1500 mink and this keeps him busy when he is not here at the hospital.

His advice to patients is to do what the doctor and nurse tells you and to never run away. All this does when you run away is set back your treatment a couple weeks or so.

SPRING FASHION SHOW

Thank you Mary and all your lovely models for bringing a wonderful fashion show to Hughes Hall on May 21st.

The colors were simply gorgeous from bright orange to the bluest blue. If you missed this show, you really missed a treat; however, we had a full house and everyone had a good time. The ladies and children modeled things from sleep-wear to after five, and Rain-wear.

Mary acted as commentator and I do not see how she did it, because the things modeled were indescribably beautiful. She quoted prices and they are priced very moderately. She also modeled a stunning suit.

Door prizes given to the following: Vera, Mrs. Mary, Shirley, Sue, Mrs. J., Pam, Marlene, Anna, and Geraldine. Free cake, cookies and coffee were enjoyed by all. Last but certainly not least we thank Miss and the Seasonal Planning Committee for promoting such a lovely affair.

I hope that we will be having many more shows of this nature because I felt like I'd been on a shopping trip. Men you are invited! Be sure and stop by MARY'S TOYS & TOG SHOP, Oshkosh.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When cleaning fish that are caught from slimy water, put a few tablespoons of vinegar in a sinkful of water and soak the fish for about a half hour in the solution. The vinegar will not distort the flavor in anyway; and the solution will cut the slime on the fish's scales.

Submitted by Barbara

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When preparing to wax hard surfaced floors such as linoleum, vinyl or tile, go over the entire floor with a mop or sponge wrung out in vinegar water, after using your usual cleaning agent and before applying the wax. The vinegar will neutralize the alkali.

Use one-fourth cup of vinegar to a gallon of lukewarm or cold water. The wax lasts weeks longer.

KITCHEN FACIAL TREATMENT

An egg facial is recommended to cleanse the pores and tighten the skin. It should be used only on skin tough enough to withstand its drawing power.

The white of an egg lightly beaten is spread on the face and allowed to dry, 3 to 5 minutes. Honey has drawing power and may be added, using one teaspoon to the beaten egg white. Remove with warm water. Apply lotion and dry face. Apply make-up.

LEMON SPONGE

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon liquid non-caloric sweetener
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3/4 cup lemon juice
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Low calorie dessert topping (optional)

Soften gelatin in 1/4 cup cold water. Dissolve in 1 cup boiling water. Then add sugar, sweetener and salt and stir until sugar is dissolved. Stir in lemon rind and juice and 1 3/4 cups cold water. Chill until gelatin begins to thicken. Beat with rotary beater until frothy, then fold in egg whites. Pour into bowl and chill until firm. Serve plain or with low-calorie topping, if desired. Makes 8 servings.

MOTHER, YOU'RE A DRUNKEN BUM!

Children, all children, are very precious people. Troubled and wayward children sadden me. Family unity, and family harmony and love can prevent emotional problems in children. In 1957 I was doing a fine job of destroying myself, my husband and my children thru my alcoholic drinking. Family unity and love went right out the window.

My oldest son, John, was thirteen, a big boy, an excellent student, an athlete, handsome and healthy.

After several years of protecting me and never faltering in his loyalty to me, John reached a point when he could no longer endure my drunkenness. We were out doors and I was making a fool of myself in front of my friends. Suddenly he grabbed me, picked me up and literally threw me in the house. "Mom," he said, "you're nothing but a drunken bum." Those words cut deep; deep enough to start me thinking about my future and our future. Not long after that day, I came into A.A.. And with God's help the help of A.A. friends and the help of an understanding family, I have had continuous happy sobriety.

When John came home from college after his Junior year, I thanked him with all my heart for all he had done for me during my drinking days and during my recovery. To "break the ice" a bit I added, "But you're such a fine capable person, and you have such a good father, you probably would have done well even if I hadn't stopped drinking. He looked up, looked me straight in the eye and said, "Mother, I don't think I would have had the incentive.

IF ONLY-----WERE DIFFERENT

It seems that most of the difficulties that some of us have with the A.A. program stem from the fact that they blame others for what happens to them.

The thing that comes to my mind first is the perpetual quest for happiness. Whenever I think of happiness I set up train of thought.

I am not happy because; my job is not right, my wife is cross, my bills are too big, my car needs fixing; my house is too small; A.A. is not what it used to be.

Stop, think, listen to yourself. Do you sound like this when things do not go just as you want them to.

Occasionally I find myself thinking this way. Why? The A. A. Program I believe has the answer, because we are not following the 12 steps to the letter. This is the time to really "let go and let God." It is the time to look at what we really have gained since becoming sober.

I cannot really blame other people for the state of my spiritual life and most of these gripes are on the materialistic side when I really look at them.

So with this as with booze, it is a matter of taking the 12 steps on a day to day basis, particularly the 1 and 2 steps. This means admitting and accepting the fact that "I am an Alcoholic." Many people will admit to this to gain something (Eg) boss off my back, wife off my back, out of a jam of one sort or another; but never really accept it.

Men at some times are masters of their fate.

The fault, dear Brutus, lies not in our stars,
But in ourselves that we are underlings.

After a week off during the holiday period, softball teams in the Hospital League square off with a pair of games scheduled for tomorrow June 8.

Hughes Hall A will play Kempster-Gordon; and Sherman Hall takes on Hughes Hall B.

The league lead is at stake in the Hughes A - Kempster contest; and the other match 3rd place is at stake with the loser occupying the cellar spot.

Game time for both tilts is at 9:30 a.m.

WINNEBAGO WINS AT OSHKOSH

A vastly improved Winnebago softball team traveled to Oshkosh Friday, May 31 and defeated Scharpf's Office Supply 12 to 9.

Two home runs, one each by John and Dennis featured the Winnebago attack.

Dave Daggett on the mound for the locals gave up 12 hits but kept them scattered. Winnebago got 17 hits. Winnebago got 2 runs in each of the first 4 innings and added 4 in the 4th.

Best sticker for Winnebago was Don with 4 hits, one of them a double. Winnebago's record in games at Oshkosh now stands at 1 win and 2 losses.

ANDYS DEFEATS WINNEBAGO

Winnebago lost its second game in a row at Oshkosh Friday evening, May 24, this time to Andy's Library by a score of 11 to 5.

Winnebago garnered 13 hits but couldn't bunch them. They led early in the game 4-3 but Oshkosh took the lead in the 3rd and held Winnebago scoreless in the last 5 innings. The Oshkosh team got 3 runs in the 4th, 2 in the 5th and a solo in the 6th. All the hits were singles and errors were frequent on the part of the Local.

and both got two hits all singles while Lemieux doubled.

Winnebago got 3 in the first and 2 more in the 2nd. That concluded their scoring, however.

Making the trip to Oshkosh were Dave Daggett, Chuck Lemieux, Dave , Phil Long, , John , Dennis , Dave , Erhardt Gary , Marv , Don , Bill and John .

GAMES ON MAY 29TH

In games played May 29th Hughes B tumbled Kempster-Gordon to the tune of 10 to 9 and the other match it was 17 to 9 in favor of Hughes A over Sherman Hall.

Hughes A had a big inning in the 3rd when 11 runs crossed the plate which was two more than Sherman Hall tallied in the entire game.

Hughes A also got 1 run in the 1st got 4 players to score in the 4th and ended up with 1 more in the 5th.

Sherman Hall got a single run in the 1st; then got 3 runs in each of the 3rd and 4th innings. Their final runs

AMONG GRASS

Lying here among grass, am I dead am I sleeping amazed among silence you touch me never.
 Here deep under, the small white moon cries like a dime and do I hear?

The sun shone copper or I dissolve no touch no touch a tactless land denies my death my fallen hand silence runs down the riverbeds.

One tall wind walks over my skin breeze, memory
 bears to my body (as the world fades) going in very late in the world's night to see roses opening.
 Remember, love, lying among roses.
Did we not lie among roses?

AS STRONG AS GRACE

My courage is my faith in God...
 as now I hope to win...
 My only fear is weakness, as...
 I try to conquer sin...
 I know that I am soft and frail...
 as human beings are...
 And yet my hands reach out to touch...
 that everlasting star...
 The star that guides me to the goal...
 that God has set for me...
 Where I may share His Kingdom great...
 for all eternity...
 My hands reach out in fervent prayer... for that enduring grace...
 And all the strength I need to meet...
 the problems I must face...
 Because in courage, faith, and hope...
 wherever I may plod...
 I am no stronger than the grace...
 that I receive from God.

THE STARS ABOVE

The stars above;
 Are stars of love
 They shine,
 They glow,
 They grow and grow.

Cuddled in his tender arms,
 The stars carry me off
 In his wonderful charms.
 Into his wonderful love.
 I seek no trouble;
 I seek no fear.
 I want him lovable

Letters to the Editors

To the Editorial Staff of the CUE.

In regard to your article and survey about the staffs availability and willingness to assist the patient in a concerned and understanding manner, with problems as they arise.

First of all, I think there are some things the patients should consider and think about. Are you an admission ward? If you are, the aides are probably very busy with routine duties -- transfers, admissions, trips to Dentist, Xray, Lab, etc. And performing other what may seem small but are multiple duties (cigarettes, candy, fruit and money) that are not so necessary on the other wards where the patients have proven themselves. In general, those who can be trusted with personal hygiene, take care of their own belongings and need less supervision.

After doing all these things the aides have a minute to sit down. They watch TV. Is that so terrible? I know for a fact that if you approach them in a decent and respectful manner most all are willing to get up from a chair and meet your need. You might have to wait a few minutes but patience is a virtue. There are probably 30 or 40 other people in the room who have needs also.

The reason I mention the above is because I have worked as a nurse and the demands placed on any member of a hospital staff -- doctors, RN's and aides alike -- are great. This is true no matter what type of hospital it is and personnel are always limited to some degree as far as number goes.

As for "listening to problems goes", how would you like to sit down every day and have only five persons approach you with problems? Expecting to have them solved or just listened to -- each for say only 10 minutes a day? That's an hour for one aide and chances are if he is a good listener it would be more like a half-hour or hour with each patient. Remember, the aide is not a Psychiatrist. It takes years for a Psychiatrist to just learn how to help you realize (not solve) your problems and simply accept and face up to them. These aides are not trained for that. Even the RN's and LPN's are not. I do think many of the patients are under the illusion that the aides are suppose to be our "Soul Confessors," and comforters. This is just not so. And even at that, many of them are, out of the goodness of their hearts.

So let us appreciate that much and approach each day of our hospitalization with a more positive attitude. If we can do this much it will make our stay here that much easier.

Nancy

For sometime now, Kempster Hall, has been "looked down on" as being "inferior" to the other units of WSH for several reasons:

1. K.H. liberty is in effect from 9:00 A.M. - 7:00 P.M. where as the other units liberty hours are from 7:00 A.M. - 8:00 P.M.
2. Many patients being denied going on walks and going to the Canteen after 6:00 P.M. (If they do manage to go to the Canteen, they are only allowed to remain there for approximately  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour after 7:00 P.M. with liberty patients excluded.
3. K.H. patients are denied the privilege of attending Mass or Church other than on Sunday, unless they wish to subtract an hour of their liberty to participate in the service

What are the reasons behind these actions? May it be that the patients are not capable or do not have self-control, that K.H. does not allow its patients the same privileges as H.H., G.H., S.H., etc. Or possibly the personnel are afraid to miss a coffee break.

Letters to the Editors

From the time the ward personnel sign in until they sign out, very seldom are the patients able to get ahold of an aide or nurse. There are two places on the ward where we can find them; the coffee room or the day room playing checkers or ping-pong. Is this the job of the staff, or is it to watch over the patients and to keep discipline and order on the ward?

We, the patients hope that someday all will become normal again --and united.

R.L.

Dear Editor;

Please print this letter so that the Patients Activity Planning Committee will know that we are in disagreement with their activities. Can you imagine how we feel, being locked up? Day and night, months and years. This is why we get RESTLESS!

Here are some suggestions:

1. Dance at least once aweek (Use Records.)
2. Plan something to keep us busy (each hour of the day some supervised game or something)
3. Take patients for a walk at least twice a week (Do you know how it feels to be cooped up in this place?)
4. Why don't you correspond with other mental hospitals and see what they are doing to improve Patient-Staff relationship. Such as Chicago State, Pontiac State, Eloise).

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Drusilla

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

We are led to believe that this letter accomplished what its author intended. These somewhat unsteady Christian converts deepened their adherence to Christ, became more resolute in their convictions, and armed themselves to face persecution, even martyrdom, rather than abandon their faith. Perhaps their constancy was due most of all to the kindly concern of the letter writer who knew and understood well their temptation to quit, and without chiding or belittling them, encouraged them to new heights of perseverance and courage.
