The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Judge Schultz,

Thank you for your letter of March 19 and your concern over the recent developments relating to the film which our Extension Division is working on.

Enclosed is a statement prepared by Dean Adolfson, which I believe gives the facts in the matter and answers the questions you raise.

I was especially concerned over your item #4 -- "breach of faith or a breach of contract" with the NAACP. I wish to point out that we have negotiated directly with the donors. There are three of them, and each of them has given his approval to the re-making of this film. Therefore, I believe there can be no breach of contract.

Sincerely yours,

C. A. Elvehjem,
President

The Honorable Joseph E. Schultz
Dodge County Judge
Juneau, Wisconsin
