OCTOPUS LIST BREAKS LAST YEAR RECORD

Thousand Extra Copies of "Come-back" Number Out Today

The "Come-Back" number of the Octopus, the campus humorous magazine, appears today with an edition larger than last year's by about a thousand copies. It will be sold at all the important buildings on the campus, and in fourteen stores and stands about Madison.

The subscription list is several hundred larger than ever before. Those who have subscribed will receive copies in this morning's mail, the subscription manager promises.

The first copy of the Octopus appeared a year ago after a long interval during which no humorous magazine was published at Wisconsin. The Octopus Publishing company was founded on October 7, by Lowell J. Ragatz, Marie Bodden, and Maurice K. Field. Since then the Octopus has steadily grown in circulation and popularity, so that now it is a university institution.

The Octopus board, which directs the policies of the magazine, is chosen from constant contributors, as is the editorial staff. The members of the board are Horace Carver, Noel Stearn, and Winifred Moss. The editorial staff is as follows: Frederick L. Sperry, managing editor; Henry C. Dennis, editor; Rodney C. Welsh, associate editor; Herbert S. Schleman, associate editor; Hubert F. Townsend, art editor.

Editorial assistants: Arthur M. Freytag, John M. Williams, Katherine E. Stoppenbach, Edith Worthington.

The business staff: Joseph N. Chamberlain, business manager; Willard J. Rendall, assistant business manager; Kenneth A. Cullen, advertising manager; Elizabeth A. Chandler, circulation manager.

Business assistants: Lydia A. Hendricks, Marjorie R. Ruff, Leslie A. Hill, Ferne Busby.

This latter talk was postponed from the last meeting.

This evening's program will be opened with a piano solo by M. S. La Porte and closed with a banjo selection, rendered by N. Grabin.

CROSS-COUNTRY SQUAD TO MEET MAROONS HERE

Badger Long-distance Men Chosen for Contest With Chicago Saturday

Coach G. T. Bresnahan is putting his cross-country squad through stiff practice in preparation for the meet with the Chicago runners to be held here Saturday morning, October 30. The Badgers covered six miles last night over a muddy course and seemed to be in tip-top condition for the meet with the Maroons.

The race will start at the gymnasium Saturday morning, the runners taking the course along the lake shore drive and past the stock pavilion. The pack will cross the marsh, round Picnic Point, and then double back along the same route. The course will be the regulation conference distance of five miles. Bresnahan has arranged the meet so that the run will be completed when students are passing from their fourth hour classes at 12:00, enabling a large number of students to see the finish.

The first seven men who finished in the time trials held Monday morning have been selected to compete against the Chicago squad, but the addition of Powell to the squad will mean that one of the seven qualifying men will be dropped. The men who finished within the time limit are: W. L. Dayton, '21, and M. H. Wall, '22, who tied for first in the time of 28 minutes and 49 seconds, W. E. Brothers, '21, and G. C. Wade, '23, tied, H. C. Dennis, '21, and G. C. Wille, '22, R. A. Noble, '23, who will be held in reserve.

CHICAGO ALUMNI WILL ENTERTAIN VISITING BADGERS

Plans for the rallying and entertainment of Wisconsin rooters at the Chicago game, November 20, are being formulated by the Chicago association of Wisconsin alumni. A full day of events, beginning with a dinner on Friday night and ending with a reception after the game Saturday, will be arranged for the Wisconsin alumni and students.

The Great Northern hotel has been selected as Wisconsin headquarters, and it is here that the Wisconsin representatives will gather before the game. From there they will march, led by the band, to the Van Buren street station of the Illinois Central, where they will take the train for Stagg field.

Besides the game, other festivities that have been planned are the dinner at the Hotel Sherman, Friday, 6:30, and the reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bertram W. Sippy, 5615 Woodlawn avenue, Saturday afternoon, following the game.

Reservations for the dinner, which will cost $3.00 a plate, and any other necessary arrangements must be made soon with I. R. Reynolds, 2004 Harris Trust building.

The Chicago university Glee club concert and dance will be held Friday evening, November 19, and opportunity will be given to purchase tickets for this entertainment if any Wisconsin students are interested in attending.

CURLS

Single Blessedness is Reward For Natural Marcelle in Japan

"The only way in which the Japanese girl can escape marriage, which means practical slavery in Japan, is to be born with curly hair," according to Charlotte Adams of the National Y. W. C. A. headquarters who told of the conditions prevailing in Japan, and what the Y. W. is doing, at the Y. W. C. A. building.

"The Japanese man does not like curly hair, and hence Japanese parents are often forced to send their curly-haired daughters to the United States to get a college education, for, with matrimonial hopes gone, it is the only alternative.

SENATE COMMITTEE TO ENFORCE RULES IN ELECTION FRIDAY

Senate election rules applying to advertising and solicitation of voters will be enforced to the letter in the student election on Friday, according to members of the senate election committee. Candidates who violate the rules will be disqualified from holding office.

The rules are as follows: Personal solicitation of voters by a candidate or his supporters is the extent to which any candidate may go in his campaign; but solicitation shall not take place in the polling places, room, hall, or part of building designated as such.

The defacing of campaign booklets, printing of handbills, cards, placards, use of automobiles, or use of money in any form for furthering the campaign, either by a candidate or his supporters, shall bar such candidate from holding office. Advertising which the committee finds was done with malicious intent of disqualifying a candidate shall not disqualify such a candidate.

CAPTAINS CHOSEN FOR BUTTON SALE

Captains of the Homecoming button sale teams were announced and plans for a vigorous drive were completed last night at the meeting of the Woman's Athletic association. The sale will begin Tuesday, November 9, and will not conclude until Saturday noon, when the most successful team and its energetic members will receive the coveted devil's food cake, the prize offered by the committee. The following women have been chosen as captains: Olga Anderson, Mary Babcock, Frances Drake, Elizabeth Kirk, Margaret Henry, Florence Hupprich, Helen Kasbeer, Romaine Berriman, Alice Tucker and Rosemary Lyons. Winifred Titus, chairman of the sale committee, wants to meet all the captains at 12:45 Wednesday, November 3, in the S. G. A. room, Lathrop. At this time the remaining members of the association will be divided into ten teams.

Edwin Booth dramatic society announces the election of Harold Benton, Kenneth S. Fagg, H. Hickman Powell, Henry S. Rubel, and Horace Wetmore.

ENGINEERS TO OPEN SALE OF TICKETS TODAY

Minstrel Shows to be Given Friday and Saturday of Homecoming Week

Mail order sale of tickets for the Engineers' minstrels opens this morning. The minstrels are given as a part of the general Homecoming program and two performances have been arranged: one Friday at 8:45, and a second Saturday night at 8:15. These times are so arranged as not to interfere with any other Homecoming events.

For each performance 1,000 seats at $1.50 and 500 seats at 75 cents are available. Fraternities and organizations desiring blocks of seats can arrange for them at once. All requests for seats will be answered in the order in which they are received. Each order is to be accompanied with a stamped self-addressed envelope, and complete information as to the number of seats desired must be given. Checks should be made payable to the Engineers' minstrels.

The show will be presented at the university gym upon a specially constructed 40 foot stage, erected at the north end of the building. This arrangement makes it possible to provide seating capacity of 1,800 with five aisles. The plan is that used at the pageant staged during the last summer session.

In the events on the Homecoming program the minstrel show is rated as a major event. It is produced entirely by engineering students and all proceeds will be turned over to the Memorial Union fund.

HALF-WAY MARK REACHED BY "Y"; TOTAL $2,027.50

Over half of the quota was subscribed at the end of the second day of the Y. M. C. A. campaign to raise $4,000 by student contributions. The total, $2,027.50 includes only a part of the campus returns, and not all of the returns of the fraternities.

The average subscription is estimated to be from four to five dollars, with one dollar a frequent sum and the top limit twenty-five dollars. The Y dormitory, with 85 men reported, averages $4.91 per man, or $418 in total, most of which was given on the first evening of the drive at a house meeting.

The reports of the fraternity canvassers are not yet complete, but those returned are given. The number of subscriptions and the total in each case are given in order. D. K. E., 25 men, $50; Sigma Phi, 18 men, $99; Beta, 20 men, $82; Lambda Chi, 25 men, $60; Alpha Gamma Rho, 15 men, $39.50; Chi Phi, 8 men, $25; Phi Kappa Sigma, 18 men, $35.50; T. K. E., 14 men, $24; Theta Xi, 16 men, $25; Theta Delta Chi, $54. All of the above reports are incomplete save the one by the D. K. E. captain.

A SUGGESTION

The modern girl we cannot kiss,
Tis fatal now to gain this bliss.
The rouge and paint and scented powder
That serve to make her beauty
louder,
Form on her face a deadly chowder.
Let man beware of this!

The face of any fair coquette,
Enameled like a bedroom set,
Recalls to mind the ancient rune,
That paint may camouflage a prune.
And beauty viewed beneath the moon
Quite often proves a losing bet.

What swains will do, is now the question
Since caress gives indigestion.
Why don't they use some sweet cement,
Harmless, of melting flavors bent?
Each kiss would then give nourishment.
At least this is a good suggestion.

Y. W. FINANCE DRIVE
PROGRESS IS RAPID

The Y. W. C. A. finance drive is progressing very successfully toward the $2,500 mark set as its goal, according to Ellen Correll, chairman of the drive. In 24 hours after the beginning of the drive $503.50 had been collected. The workers will continue on their jobs
through Friday of this week.

The captains, each in charge of a team of ten girls, are Katherine Bartholf, Cleo Parsley, Ellen Swetil, Pearl Lichtfeldt, Genevieve
van Gent, Belle Knights, Mary Baldwin, Josephine Walters, Margaret Duckett, and Josephine Dorring. The teams are making a personal canvass of every girl in the university.

Besides bringing in money for Y.
W. C. A., the workers on the drive are also obtaining more members for the organization. Many women have the association thus brought to their attention personally.

HOMECOMING

ANOTHER Homecoming will be in our midst within the short space of three weeks. This year, more than ever before, mere mention of the term sends that old time spirit running all the way down our spines, and makes us all feel that something extraordinary is going to happen when November 13 rolls around. It is indeed true, the 1920 Homecoming promises to eclipse all its predecessors.

And why not? From every corner of the United States old "grads," young "grads," and numberless persons who are interested in Wisconsin are coming back to get the hearty hand-shake of the true friend, the welcome that can come only from a Wisconsin student body. They are going to close shop, factory, and office; matters of state and family are to be subordinated for this annual pilgrimage to their Alma Mater.

In an exceedingly large measure the impression that visitors carry back with them at Homecoming time determines the degree of interest they continue to manifest in our welfare, or the degree of apathy with which they avoid any connection with university circles. The course of the student body is clearly defined. The task of putting Homecoming across in super-excellent style is a herculean task; it is not a one man job; it demands unanimous and unqualified support from every student.

For example, approximately 2,000 seats have been reserved for men in the rooting section at the game. Long before game time approaches every one of those ought to be accounted for with a lusty voiced rooter. The team is going to need that bleacher support against Illinois; a victory in the Homecoming game may mean the championship. What further argument is needed on this point?

Looking at the whole matter in its broadest aspect, the game is but an integral factor in an entire week end of festivities, all of which combine to make Homecoming. There is the Minstrel show, the Homecoming dance, and many other features to furnish round after round of excitement which will live long after the events have passed into the annals of Badger history.

Above all, and without a peer in importance, stands the manner in which we receive visitors. Homecoming means much this year—let's not lose the opportunity to make the most of it.

WEST MEETS EAST
IN FOOTBALL GAME

The University of Washington is to play Dartmouth this year as its Homecoming game, November 25. To this time Washington has usually held its homecoming during the spring quarter, but changed this year so that it would come at the time of the Washington-Dartmouth game. This will be the occasion of the opening of Washington's new stadium, which is built on the same style as those at Yale and Harvard. The stadium seats 60,000.

World-famous Violinist to Appear Under Direction of Union Board

Fritz Kreisler, the world-famous violinist, will come to Madison, Friday evening, November 5, in the second of the concerts given under the direction of the Union board. Kreisler is perhaps the most famous violinist of the day who is at the same time a composer of pieces which have a universal appeal. This concert will afford an exceptional opportunity for students and townspeople to hear the noted artist in a first class concert program at popular prices.

Kreisler is a personality in the musical world. He is an artist who does not stoop, for effects, to stage tricks and mannerisms. His personality and his genius make a direct and convincing appeal to his audiences.

All holders of season tickets for the concert series should send in their Kreisler coupons as soon as possible to the office of the bursar, together with a stamped envelope and return address. Money for additional tickets may be enclosed. There will be an open sale of tickets at the bursar's office after Friday, October 29. At this time coupons may be exchanged for reserved seats.

OCTOPUS STAFF
GATHER AT FIRST ANNUAL DINNER

The Octopi and the Octopets gathered at the Capitol cafe last night for the first annual Octopus banquet. Over fifty enthusiastic workers attended. The speakers of the evening were Fred Sperry, toastmaster; Noel Stearn, "Pat" Dennis, Joe Chamberlain, and "Hub" Townsend.

"The spirit of the school is largely dependent upon its humorous publication," said Stearn. "Whether they buy it or not everybody reads it. In fact, it's those who don't buy it who are the first to criticize, because when you've paid a perfectly good quarter for one you pat yourself on the back and try to appreciate it so as to get your money's worth."

Joe Chamberlain, business manager, outlined the mechanics of staff organization and emphasized the fact that no staff positions were sewed up. "Hub" Townsend, art editor, expressed the belief that there is enough talent at Wisconsin to put the drawings and cartoons on a par with those of old established college humorous publications.

Communication

PITY THE EDITORS

To the Editor of The Cardinal:
On its capital stock of boosts for every campus organization and enterprise, the student daily paper reaps an astoundingly large dividend of knocks.

It strikes me that Mr. Sanders' phrase-splitting tilt with your "brave musical critic" in this morning's communication column is typical of the hypercritical attitude that a good many persons assume toward the university newspaper.

The "competent musical critics" among whom "a great deal of indignation" was aroused because the visiting prima donna got squeezed into four inches of insufficiently superlative type might profitably tone down their susceptibilities of indignation and tone up their appreciation for the efforts of the heavy-eyed, ink-nosed, perspiring editors putting an issue of The Cardinal to press at 3:30 in the morning while the rest of the student population salubriously snoozes.

The Cardinal staff cheerfully takes this all-night gaff week in and week out, night after night through the school year in the largest and least appreciated service that there is on the campus.

Why not a little more appreciation and a little less captious criticism?

TAYLOR MERRILL.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED TO 167 STUDENTS

Two Men From China on List Exempted From Tuition Fee

The university committee on loans and scholarships has awarded non-resident scholarships to 167 out-of-state students. This means that Wisconsin has exempted from tuition fees 164 men and women, representing nearly every state in the union, two men from China, and one from South Africa.

Scholarships are granted on the basis of need, worth, and good grades. The average required grade is good, with no failures, incompletes, or conditions. This rule, however, is sometimes set aside in exceptional cases of students who may be ineligible, technically, in some way, but who can prove that they need and deserve such assistance. By law, the number of scholarships which may be awarded each year is 8 per cent of the non-serident attendance of the preceding year. Non-resident attendance last year was 2,087.

A new regulation which will be put into effect during this year creates 11 "Patriotic Scholarships", 10 for children of parents who are in the United States army or naval service, and one for an enlisted man.

In addition to this, there are offered yearly, fifty $100 scholarships to first-year students living within the state; and the committee wishes to remind first-year students of the existence of these funds, and urges those who wish to take advantage of the scholarships to communicate with Prof. Julius Olson, chairman.

Society Brand Clothes

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

© A. D. & C., 1929

To the college man who has a pet clothing store

You have the right idea. Next to having a banker that trusts you, there is no better business than buying your things from a merchant who is worthy of all your confidence.

If you haven't a pet clothing store, look up the one where Society Brand Clothes are sold.

In the first place, it's a selected store. We were attracted by the merchant and he was attracted by the style, quality, and integrity of our clothes.

Like attracts like. That is a law.

Go to that store and ask to look at his Society Brand Clothes. Try on until you get the style you like, which you surely will in a matter of minutes.

Then remember this. Men are not disappointed in Society Brand Suits. They give a very peculiar and interesting satisfaction.

It is the satisfaction that comes from knowing—even before you walk into the store—that you are going to get something you will always be glad you bought. How's that?

SECRETS DISCLOSED!

You Can't Fool 'Em Any
More After the Directories
Come Out

Only three weeks more and the secrets you have been treasuring since you entered the university will at last be revealed. No longer can your friend be deluded into considering you a senior when such is not the case, nor can you attempt to curry favor with "the girl" by trying to make her believe you are an important member of Chicago society instead of an insignificant resident of Hick's corner.

All these things and many more will be made known when the new directories are distributed. Therefore, beware of the stories you tell now, for your day of reckoning will soon come. Even the faculty members will have their share of publicity, for they also are to be listed in the directory this year.

All students who have not given their correct address, telephone number, and class to the registrar already should do so at once before the final proof goes to the printer.

CROSS-COUNTRY MEN
MEET MAROONS HERE

indicate that the Chicago runners will present one of the strongest hill and dale teams in years. Tom Eck, Maroon cross-country coach, has nine of last year's men on the 1920 squad, Moore, Hall, Harding, Brickwin, Dooley, Sweet, Roberts, Heeden, and Baker. "We have the best team this year in the five years that I have been training cross-country men at Chicago," said Eck. The veteran Chicago coach has had a squad of 100 runners from which to pick his varsity team. Only thirty-five men have regularly reported to Coach Bresnahan for long distance work.

Meet Gophers Soon

Following the Chicago meet at Madison, the Cardinal runners will travel to Minneapolis where they meet the Gopher cross-country team, November 6. The competition in the conference meet to be held at Urbana November 20 has become more complex since Purdue upset the dope and defeated the Illinois team 23 to 32. The Boilermakers will have to be reckoned with in the Big Ten meet, and Wisconsin chances, which have been fair at the best, have taken another slump since the entry of the Purdue runners as a factor in the conference competition.
