VOL. IV.—No 35]

MADISON, WIS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1894.

CHICAGO DID NOT SCORE.

SPLENDID WORK WINS FOR WISCONSIN.

THE UNIVERSITY RUNS UP A TOTAL OF THIRTY POINTS.

Good Interference and Steady Playing the Features—Great Strength of the Line.

The clean record of the Wisconsin team was sustained in the game with the University of Chicago Saturday. The score was 30 to 0. The game put up by the Wisconsin team was one of the best ever seen in the west. The ball was almost always advanced for good gains and when it was secured by the Chicago team it was soon regained on downs. Once the ball came within one-half a yard of the Wisconsin goal line but it could go no further and was soon far up the field and out of danger.

Wisconsin had the ball in the first half and with a good kick sent it far into Chicago's territory. The ball was then forced up the field but after a loss of five yards on one down Gale punted to Wisconsin's 15 yard line. Richards caught the ball but could make no gain. Chicago obtained the ball on a fumble and brought it to the 5 yard line but there it was lost on downs. From the 5 yard line the Wisconsin team swept down the field until Richards carried the ball over the line for a touchdown. Lyman kicked goal. Score, Wisconsin, 6; Chicago, 0. Chicago kicked off and Richards gained 10 yards before he was downed. In one of the rushes that followed Lyman was hurt but refused to stop. Karel soon made a fine run of 25 yards for a touchdown but the ball was brought back on account of holding by the Wisconsin team. Ten yards for an offside play and 30 yards around the right end by Nichols brought the ball into Wisconsin's territory but the Chicago team was soon forced to kick. The ball was secured by Chicago on the 25 yard line and brought into dangerous proximity to Wisconsin's goal line but the magnificent defence of the Wisconsin team was too much for Chicago and the ball was given up after four downs. The first half ended with no further score by the Wisconsin team. Score, Wisconsin, 6; Chicago, 0.

Chicago kicked off in the second half but Lyman gained 11 yards. Good gains by Wisconsin and two offside plays by Chicago, secured a touchdown by Bolzendahl four minutes after the ball was put in play. No goal. Wisconsin, 10; Chicago, 0.

Chicago again kicked off and was unable to stop the steady progress of the Wisconsin team. After several large gains through the line Bolzendahl carried the ball over the line for another touchdown. No goal. Wisconsin, 14; Chicago, 0.

On the kick off Nelson gained 15 yards. Karel went around the left end for 16. Nelson then made 35 yards around the left end and after a few rushes Karel made a touchdown from which a goal was kicked. Wisconsin, 20; Chicago, 4.

Lyman made a good gain after the next kick-off but the ball went to Chicago but she could not gain and the ball was given back to Wisconsin. Nelson went through the line for 15 yards. Several good gains were made through the line. Bolzendahl was injured and Alexander took his place. Richards went through the center for the fifth touchdown. No goal. Wisconsin, 24; Chicago, 0.

Lyman caught the ball on Chicago's kick-off and brought it to the center of the field before he was tackled. From there it went steadily up the field and another touchdown was secured by Richards, who also kicked the goal. Time was called in a few minutes, leaving the score, Wisconsin 30; Chicago, 0.

Bolzendahl was the only one of Wisconsin's men who had to leave the field although Lyman was injured several times. Chicago was not so fortunate. Flint, at left guard had to give way to Parker. Gary started in to play right end but after Coy, the left half-back was injured he went back to half. Tony took his place but he also was hurt and was replaced by Chase. Nichols also had to be replaced by Larny.

Individual praise or criticism is difficult in a game like this. It was by the perfect team work more than by individual work of the men that the victory was secured. Lyman played a plucky game as he was injured repeatedly. The running work of the backs and tackles was one of the features of the game but the gains were made behind the massed interference of the whole team.

UNIVERSITY MASS MEETING

WILL BE HELD TOMORROW NOON.

THE PURDUE GAME TO BE DISCUSSED.

Lyman Will Address the Meeting—Classes to Be Excused.

There will be a mass meeting of the university at 12 o'clock tomorrow in Library hall. The Purdue game will be discussed and Purdue's conduct explained by the members of the team. Professors may suspend their classes at 12 o'clock tomorrow if they wish to do so. A large attendance is desired.

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS.

A large number were present at an interesting meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon. J. M. Bessel presented the cause of missionary work and a class was organized for the study of missions, using as text book Smith's History of Missions. Six Sunday meetings throughout the year are given up to the discussion of topics along this line, one coming next Sunday. Papers will be read on lives of leading missionary heroes.

At present there are in the university five students who are fitting themselves for foreign missionaries, two medical and three evangelistic. Miss Catharine Schaeffer, '96, sailed for Kuing Chan, Haiman Chin, September 12th from San Francisco, reaching her destination Oct. 12th. She engages in missionary labors.

The Christian associations in their endeavor to afford means and encouragement for developing active Christian characters in the students, invite inspection of other lines or phases of work also. The department of Bible study, although not altogether the work of the associations, is closely connected with it and is proving a success in all its features. Courses are carried on as follows: Greek New Testament, Prof. Smith; History and Literature of the Jewish Nation, Prof. Williams; Jeremiah, Prof. Skinner; "Thirteen Weeks with Athletes of the Old Book," Story of the Psalms, Mr. Decker; and a class is conducted by Prof. Birge.

The social side receives due attention, beginning with the opening reception and continued with two socials during the term. Recently, a bureau of information has been established by which new students desiring work can learn of opportunities to help themselves. It has already been of assistance to students working their way through the university.

At the last cabinet meeting of the two associations a motion was passed requesting Dr. Updike to furnish the manuscript of his address, "Christianity and the State Universities." He kindly consented and through the generosity of the U. W. 5,000 copies have been published. One thousand copies were distributed at the meeting of the American Board and a copy of the sermon will be sent to every minister of the state. The outlook for the coming year is a favorable one. Twenty-five new members have been added to the Y. M. C. A. which now numbers one hundred forty, while together the two associations have an enrollment of over two hundred. The officers for the year are as follows:

C. H. Kummel, '95, president; Grant Showerman, '96, secretary; G. V. Ahara, '95, treasurer; W. G. Bleyer, '96, corresponding secretary; John Rogers, '97, recording secretary; John M. Bessel, '94, general secretary.

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL GAMES.

—Beloit secured a splendid victory over Northwestern by a score of 42 to 6. Northwestern's six points were by fluke. Hollister, Beloit's coach, did the star playing for his team.

—Illinois overcame Lake Forest by a score of 54 to 6. Woody, who played quarter for Illinois, was injured after making a touchdown from the kick-off.

—Cornell scored one touchdown on Princeton while the latter was only able to carry the ball over Cornell's line twice. The final score was Princeton 12, Cornell 4.

—Michigan played off the tie with the Military Academy and won by a score of 34 to 0.

—Other games resulted as follows:
At Boston—Harvard, 32; Williams, 0.

At Oberlin—Oberlin, 12; Wittenberg, 0.

South Bend—Notre Dame, 6; Albion, 6.

At Lincoln—Nebraska, 22; Iowa, 0.

At Nashville—Vanderbilt, 6; Center, 0.

At New York—Rutgers, 8; New Jersey A. C., 0. (Unfinished.)

At West Point—Military Academy, 42; Massachusetts Institute, 0.

At Providence—Brown, 26; Wesleyan, 0.

At Orange—Yale, 24; Orange A. C., 0.

At Brooklyn—Pennsylvania, 18; Crescent A. C., 10.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

The engineers completed the organization of their debating society last Saturday night. The following officers were elected for the present term: W. S. Hanson, president; A. L. Goddard, vice president; C. Parr, treasurer; C. McDonald, censor; C. L. Lloyd, recording secretary; F. Schneider, corresponding secretary. The committee on the program for the next meeting, which occurs Friday evening, at 47 o'clock, is Messrs. Hartwell, Warner, Broenniman, Conlee, and Ford.

LAW'S FOOTBALL.

The senior and junior law football teams will line up against each other Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The two classes have put teams in practice which in every way will make an interesting game. The law game last year furnished almost as much excitement as an ordinary Varsity game. The two teams have had coaching from members of the regular Varsity eleven and will undoubtedly be closely matched. Tomorrow's issue will have the names of the men as they will line up.

Any failure to receive the Daily Cardinal promptly should be reported to the Business Manager.

It is hoped that all classes will be suspended tomorrow in order that the students may attend the mass meeting. This is an opportunity for the professors to show that their loyalty to our athletic interests, so strong in the past, is not waning.

In a few weeks our city lecture courses are to begin. While these have been quite generally patronized by U. W. students it is well to suggest them to our freshmen. Madison has had a number of unusually good lectures in the past and this season promises to be no exception.

Everyone should turn out at the mass meeting tomorrow. That there may be no doubts in the minds of the students in regard to the game at Purdue, the management take this way to explain the circumstances and to show that Wisconsin was justified in leaving the field. Captain Lyman will address the meeting and every one should be there to show that they do not believe the charge made against him. The story of the conduct of Balliet will convince every one that there was a deliberate attempt to steal the game from Wisconsin. Just how he went about the matter will be told tomorrow. Every one should turn out.

The Choral Union holds its second rehearsal tonight and it is hoped that all who desire to avail themselves of this musical training be present. There were only seventy-five in attendance last week who applied for admission. Prof. Parker hopes to find at least one hundred and fifty for the chorus, and it is necessary for all to join in good season so as to thoroughly master the selections. The music is classical in nature and such as is suited to all choruses of the capacity mentioned. We trust that the required number will be secured as promptly as possible.

Our football team has a record to be proud of. Their victory Saturday over the much lauded Chicago University team, although not unexpected, was very gratifying. It showed outsiders what we are capable of. This the papers are not slow to acknowledge, and many of the Chicago papers, yesterday, contained high praise of the Wisconsin eleven. Wisconsin is advancing rapidly in athletics and the greatest advance seems to be in football.

At the annual convention of the Western College Press association held in Chicago last June it was decided to make the circular letter a sort of a link that would bind the college publications of the west into a firmer and lasting union. The circular letter had been recommended by a couple of previous conventions but it had proved rather an indefinite sort of an institution concerning which nobody had any very clear ideas and with no rules to govern it. The June convention adopted a plan for the letter by which each paper in the association was assigned a definite date for the publication of its part of the letter which was to appear every two weeks beginning with October 15th, on which date the Cardinal, the official paper, was to begin it.

The dates as arranged at the convention were as follows:
Daily Cardinal, Oct. 15.
University of Chicago Weekly, Oct. 30.

Pegasus, Nov. 15.
Earlhamite, Nov. 30.
Illini, Dec. 15.
Kenyon Collegian, Dec. 30.
U. of M. Daily, Jan. 15.
Adelbert, Jan. 30.
Stentor, Feb. 15.
De Pauw Weekly, Feb. 28.
Pleiad, March 15.
Northwestern, March 30.
Aegis, April 15.
Inlander, April 30.
Collegian Forensa, May 15.

Of course these dates are only approximate and the papers will publish their letters as near their date as possible.

One of the subjects quite widely discussed at the convention was the extension of our membership and this should be one of our first duties this year. We should make the association a representative one and every college paper in the great west should be a member of it. It is only by making it the representative body of western college journalists that the association can be of any use to its members.

There are many phases of college journalistic activity that the association can follow out and it is to bring these before the public that our circular letter is especially adapted. This is an age of great inter-collegiate movements and the college paper is in a position to be very instrumental in aiding any such movement. Therefore unanimity in this sort of work should be attempted as much as possible. And lastly it is hoped that throughout the year we may become acquainted with each other through our papers and that this acquaintanceship may be strengthened at the annual gathering next June.

We have not followed the exact wording of the executive committee's report that the circular letter should be "a treatment of some phase of college journalism" but have simply set down a few random thoughts that occurred to us in regard to the year's work.

CHANGES AT HARVARD.

Early in the term there were rumors of a division of Harvard University, somewhat after the plan at Oxford. The Harvard Daily News gives the following detail of the scheme:

"The Graduates' Magazine for September contains some very valuable features. To the undergraduate body, the first article, 'An Administration Problem,' by the late Frank Bolles, is by far the most interesting.

"The editor comments: 'This article was prepared by Mr. Bolles shortly before his death, although the subject had been long in his mind, as earlier drafts of the article and as many conversations could testify. It should be stated that Mr. Bolles did not claim that the remedy herein suggested is the best; he was fully aware of the difficulty of suggesting any remedy that would be immediately feasible; but he hoped to call attention to the grave problem which confronts the university, and, by promoting discussion, to hasten a solution.'

"No better proof of his devotion to Harvard students and his deep interest in the university could be found than this argument to relieve the pressure on certain officers of the college.

"The present condition of affairs is clearly and forcibly set forth in the beginning, showing how remarkably the work has grown until now, it is almost impossible for the Recorder to have charge of 2,176 records and attend to his other duties, while twenty years ago the registrar was responsible for only six hundred. The article traces the various changes which have taken place from time to time in order to relieve the constantly growing strain. The organization of the special student committee of the faculty were of material advantage in one way; nevertheless it left nearly 1,500 in charge of one dean.

"Harvard College, with one dean and one administrative board," says the article, "cannot, in reason, be held responsible for the health, morals and studies of 1,656 students. Its present dean, self-sacrificing and conscientious to a fault, is exhausting his strength in attempting to do equal justice and kindness to this army, nearly one-third of which changes each year. Can Harvard college be divided? If it can, shall it be by classes or territorially?"

"The plan offers a division of the students into sections of five hundred each; the dissolution of the administrative board, and suggests the erection of four boards to have charge respectively of Holworthy division or college, Wadsworth division, Quincy division, and Agassiz division, and to share among them the college dormitories, private dormitories and private houses. The details of the plan are interesting and afford much food for thought, both to the officers, graduates and undergraduates.

"That something must be done, is evident to the reader, when, in closing, it is stated that in 1950, with the same rate of growth and under the present system, the dean and recorder will be personally caring for 6,500 students."

H. S. BEATS BELOIT.

The High School team met the Beloit College second eleven on the lower campus Saturday afternoon. The game was called at 3 o'clock. The High School won the toss and chose the north goal. Beloit started the game by a kick-off by Spooner. Berryman captures the ball and makes goal gains. On a fumble Paige, of Beloit, gets the ball and makes a good run of over half the field and scores a touchdown. Knutson fails to kick goal. Beloit 4, High School 0.

High School kicks off and Keith, of Beloit, advances it 20 yards. Beloit loses ball on downs. Anderson makes a good run but is tackled four feet from goal by steadily bucking Beloit's center. High School scores a touchdown. Johnson kicks goal. Score—High School 6, Beloit 4.

The teams lined up as follows:

MATHEMATICAL CLUB.

A meeting of the Mathematical club was held Saturday afternoon in room 21, Science hall. Prof. Van Velzer read a paper on Commander Craig's Negative Reciprocal Equations. The properties of these equations were first studied by Commander Craig of the United States navy in order to facilitate his work with them. They are purely algebraic equations and such that if minus the reciprocal of x be substituted for x the equations remain unaltered. The paper was a very interesting one and was enjoyed by more than the usual number. The next meeting of the club will be held at the same place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Nov. 3.

CARDINAL STAFF:—There will be a meeting of the editors of the Cardinal in room 7, Democrat block, tomorrow at 3 p. m.
