Book of Friends: May it include the wise, the witty and the shrewd,
And such as own the double art, that makes them friends of head and heart.
May those who stand recorded here grow dearer with each added year;
Acquaintance into friendship grow, and friendship ever brighter glow.

Old friends are best, we lightly say—but, as they fall upon the way,
Keep full the ranks with newer friends, till time the adjective amends.
And if old friends still seem the best, the adage should be thus expressed:
Friends are not best because they're old, but old, because the years that rolled—
The years that try, and mar and mend, have proved them worth the title friend.

STORY OF THE PLAY

ROFESSOR PHIDDLE D.D., the eccentric uncle of Strad and Viola refused to consent to the engagement of Strad with a young lady whom he has met while at school in New York, because he wishes to pick his nephew's fiancee himself. Viola writes to the young lady, to tell her to come to her uncles home, She is introduced as Mlle. Pom Pom, Viola's French teacher. Tommy Trip, a friend of Strad's is admitted into the scheme of fooling the old Professor and to complicate matters he sends for Lem E. Stimgum, a person who thinks he is a detective, to come to Professor Phiddles to find certain diamond smugglers.

Stingum arrives disguised as a quack doctor. Luke Warm, disguised as Strad's and Viola's aunt, arrives also. She leads Stingum on to believe that there are diamond smugglers on the place, and at the same time pretends to fall in love with him. The Professor is attached to Mlle. Pom Pom, and proposes to her. She tells him that there is another with whom she is in love not knowing the deception that Strad is using.

The Professor tries to persuade her to lead Strad on pretending she is in love with him and then throw him over explaining that his nephew is so conceited that he thinks every girl he meets is in love with him. She goes to Strad who explains to her that it is the only way in which they can become engaged. Stingum loses his letter from Tommy with the directions. The letter falls into the hands of the Professor who demands an explanation. They all explain to him the different parts they have played after which he consents to Muriel's and Strad's engagement.

RULES REGARDING FAILURES AND CONDITIONS

- 1. A failure can be made good only by taking the study again in class. This must be done as soon as the study is repeated in the University program, and studies in which a student has failed take precedence of all others in the arrangement of his course.
- 2. A condition must be made good by passing an examination which is regularly held at the end of the semester following that in which the condition was incurred. If the condition is not made up at this time it becomes a failure and the study must be repeated in class.

A special examination will be held on the first Saturday of the first semester for students conditioned in studies of the second semester, or the summer session, under the following conditions:

- a. A conditioned student who desires such an examination must notify the teacher or department concerned, on the first Thursday of the semester, so that examination questions may be prepared. He must also notify the Registrar on or before the same day, so that arrangements may be made for the examination. Unless such notice is received, neither department nor Registrar will arrange for an examination.
- b. The regular examination for students so conditioned will be held near the end of the first semester. A conditioned student may take the examination at the opening of the semester or that near the close, but cannot enter both examinations. If he is unable to pass in the examination which he enters, the condition becomes a failure.

PRICE THREE CENTS.

The Oratorical Contest.

Mr. Pyre Carries off the Honors

Mr Turner Takes Second Place

On the last Wednesday of the winter term the preliminary contest to select our representative to the Western Oratorical League at Evanston was held at Library Hall. The contestants were J. F. A. Pyre, H. A. Adrian, J. H. Turner and P. S. Reinsch, and Mr. Pyre was awarded the choice by the judges with a percentage of 92½ on a scale of 100. Mr. Turner was second with 90½. The judges on thought and style were Mrs. W. F. Allen, Rev. George H. Ide and Judge Romanzo Bunn; on delivery, Mrs. J. G. McMynn, Hon. Burr W. Jones and Mr. John M. Olin. In-terspersing the program were sev-eral musical numbers. A piano duet by Miss Coriane Garbier and eral musical numbers. A piano duet by Miss Covisine Gartheisand Miss Alice Bunting was exceedingly well executed. Mr. F. J. W. Millar sang Shelly's bass solo entited "Love's Sorrow," and responded to an encore with "Pauline." Mr. F. D. Silber rendered Chopin's Polanaise in A in a creditable manrolanase in A in a creditable man-ner, and was heartily encored. Mr. Pyre's subject was "Poetry and Freedom." He outlined the progress of mankind in its strug-gles for freedom; and deplored the ever increasing demand for realism, for cold, hard facts. Science would for cold, hard facts. Science would assume dominion over all man's thoughts and endeavors. But while science gropes in dark closets, poetry walks in the wide parks and among our fellow men. The poet's song is part of nature itself, and each generation finds new revelations in its beauty.

Mr. Adrian had for his subject "Revelation and Interpretation." He dwelt upon the increasing beaurie dweit upon the increasing beau-ties and appreciations of our spir-itual conceptions. Our forefathers saw spiritual power in material things, but finally they began to appreciate God's guidance in the rule of the universe. Basson has appreciate Goo's glidance in the rule of the universe. Reason has sharpened the wonders of God and the destiny of man. But while new thoughts accompany new ages, the Bible's interpretations fit all ages.

Mr. Turner's oration was on the "Genesis of Liberty." He told of the constitutional struggles of the English people with King John, and how on the plains of Runnymede they assembled, and the barons of England formed a conspiracy against John, and compelled him, on the 15th of June, 1215, to sign that famous bulwark of Eng-lish liberty, the Magna Charta, trips taken by students during the Upon this as a foundation the whole of England's constitutional growth in by Messrs, Hackney, Alverson,

SONGS

Kappa Kappa Gamma

ETA TOAST.

Eta of Kappa, Kappa Gamma,
Here's a toast to you,
Here's to the blue and blue,
The owl, the key, the fleur-de-leis
Are emblems of our loyalty
To the best fraternity,
Now together,
Eta ever,
Here's to K. K. G.

Chorus.

Then sing we of the light the dark blue,
Sing we of the flower, the flower of fleurde-lies
For here's to Eta of Kappa Kappa Gamma Here's to all the girls who wear the golden key.

YOU MAY WANDER THE WORLD O'ER.

Tune—Princeton.

You may wander the world o'er You may seek in lands afar You may traverse angry oceans To the oriental star, But in four years of college And in friendships that you glean, Now nearer, now nearer To the class of '17.

SHE'S A KAPPA GIRL.

She's a Kappa girl
With her pile of books and her sober looks,
She works hard all day
In exams she gets an "A,"
How lovely!
Never stops to play
Goes to classes all the day
Consciousness of duty done
Is her only thought of fun
For she is a K. K. G.

She's a Kappa girl
With her Kappa smiles and her Kappa wiles,
She writes home to say
How many dates she's had that day!
One, two, three; just before exams
She stays up all night and crams,
Doesn't quite know what to do
But she always squeezes through
For she is a K. K. G.

MY LITTLE KAPPA LADY.

My little Kappa lady Queen of the fleur-de-leis, Won't you come back, my baby, Won't you come back to me? I'll build a Beta castle Locked by the golden key My little Kappa lady My little K. K. G.

MRS. BLUEBEARD.

Mrs. Bluebeard was the first one—
To wear a Kappa key,
It was the very one in fact
That shone in history.
The one all red and gory—
To husband's closet door,
Wherein all gone to glory
Were the wives he'd had before.

Chorus

Poor Mrs. Bluebeard, Now I begin to see How you were made so blue and blue, By so much tragedy.

But Mrs. Bluebeard was not one,
To let things keep her down,
She did the very thing in fact
To bring her most renown.
On her shirtwaist she pinned the key,
And then she told a friend.
'Twas the emblem of her family tree
She'd wear it to the end.

Chorus

Oh Mrs. Bluebeard, It really seems to me That you deserve much credit from The girls who wear the key.

So it became the fashion— With all the girls who knew, About the key—presently To find them something too. They pinned on kites and arrows, The reason you can see, Because they saw how very smart, It looked to wear a key.

Chorus

Oh Mrs. Bluebeard, Now I begin to see You were the germ that made the term, Fraternity.

SOME SAY FRATERNITIES ARE FULL OF FOLLY.

Air-Funiculi Funicula.

Some say fraternities are full of folly, But not so we of K. K. G.
We find the life within is very jolly
We all agree, we all agree.
We love to plan a lark in deepest darkness
Quite unforeseen by freshmen green
We love to put the brains of every shark in
The chafing dish with awful swish.

Chorus

Kappa Gamma keys, and bolts, and bars
Kappa Gamma freshmen bruise, and bumps,
and scars,
Initiation chants a gruesome dance
And when once you are in
You join the ranks of revelry
For bucking win.

WHEN I WENT TO COLLEGE

Air-"Jolly Sophomores."

My father was a minister, a Beta Theta Pi— My brother is in college now—a young Phi Kappa Psi.

My uncle was a howling sport and joined the Sigma Nu

So when I went to college they all told me what to do.

My father said, "Now daughter dear, I'll give you good advice.

Your mother was a Kappa girl, a gem of matchless price,

So if the Kappa's bid you, don't refuse the honor high,

Be a wise girl as your mother was and pass the others by."

My brother said, "Now listen, sis, don't be a little chump.

It you should make a mess of this the family'd get a bump—

There's only one fraternity—it's Kappa Kappa Gam,

And for all the rest I wouldn't give a little tinker's dam.

My uncle Jim, he puffed his pipe and blew the smoke away.

"Before you go to college, I've just one word to say.

In choosing a fraternity just take the best you see

And I'll send you fifty dollars for a pretty Kappa key."

My mother said, "My daughter dear—you're old enough to know

That Kappa Kappa Gamma is the only thing to go.

So at the rushing parties where the girls wear the golden keys

Is the place for you to make a hit for they are K. K. G's.

So when I went to college I thought I knew a lot

And Kappa Kappa Gamma was "Johnny-onthe spot."

And others tried to rush me, but their stories wouldn't do,

So now my heart is beating 'neath a knot of blue and blue.

Poor thing!

SISTERS LET US SING AGAIN

Air-"Kentucky Babe."

Sisters let us sing again
The joys of friendship sweet,
Friendship true and strong
All the love that fills our hearts
When loyal Kappas meet,
Weave into our song.—

Sing the blue we've borrowed from the depths of summer skies,

Sing the blue we've borrowed from the calm lake's deeper dies,

Sing our gold key gleaming With its hidden meaning Sing our love for thee.

Chorus

Kappa dear,
Once again our mystic vows we will all renew

Kappa dear,

Once again we offer thee, loyal hearts and true.

Thine forever bound together In fraternity.

What the years may bring to us
Which of us can tell
Whether weal or woe?
Land and seas may sever wide
The friends we loved so well
Friends of long ago;

Yet though happy college days may fade into the past,

Still within the fortress of our hearts imprisoned fast

Failing, fading never, There shall live forever, Love for K. K. G. Our fraternity's the sun Shining in the sky Shining on our college days As the years go by.

Chorus

Dear K. K. G. Here's a song to thee Mother of a thousand joys Our fraternity!

Our fraternity's the moon Shining in the night. When old age has dimmed our eyes Will see thy kindly light!

Chorus

Dear K. K. G. Here's a song to thee Mother of a thousand joys Our fraternity!

PARAGONS OF EXCELLENCE.

Paragons of excellence we seldom see,
Pertaining to such perfection as we!
In costumes fastidious
Eschewing the hideous
Of Phi Beta Kappa we're not yet oblivious!
Lofty aspirations we pursue
Peerless and proper in all that we do
Our predominating quality
Is without hyperoble
Transmagnificanuality.

TELL ME WHAT TO GO!

Sing a song of college days
Tell me what to go.
I really don't know what to do
They all have rushed me so!
Alpha Phi's for mackinaws
Pi Phi's for puffs and curls.
The Delta G's may have the men,
But the Kappas have the girls!

K. K. G.

Flower that is best and sweetest Colors that are blue true blue Girls that are the dearest, dearest, Kappa holds in store for you! Friendship that will last the longest Locked by the golden key, All the memories dear of college Are signified by K. K. G.

ONE, TWO, THREE WORDS.

One, two, three words
Run through the heart of our song,
One, two, three words
Carry our love along,
One, two, three words
Locked by the golden key,
To all who read
They spell our creed
K. K. and G.

I LOVE YOU TRULY, K. K. G.!

Tune—"I Love You Truly."
I love you truly, K. K. G..
I love you truly, the fleur-de-leis,
I love your badge, the golden key,
For I love you truly, K. K. G.

I'VE GOT A KEY.

I've got a key, You've got a key, All good Kappas have a key. In all kinds of weather We are bound together By that good, old golden key. Together, together, We are bound together By that good, old golden key.

HERE'S TO THE CLASS OF '17.

Here's to the class of '17
We come to offer you
Our pledge of love and loyalty
To Eta we'll be true.
We'll always wear our golden key
Our flower the fleur de-leis
The blue and blue
We'll e'er be true
Our loving thoughts of you
The blue and blue
We'll e'er be true
Our loving thoughts of you!

Girl, Birdcage, and Bandbox appear. The Girl is bubbling over with a glorious Secret, which she will not tell the Bird. She teases him and finally puts him on his stand, leaving him to guess. She, in the meantime, seems to be looking for someone, who does not come. Distressed for the moment, she brings forth a letter and immediately becomes happy again. The Bird is rather scornful until the Girl, a little indignantly, rushes to read him the letter. The Secret is told. ## WAR DEPARTMENT OFFICE OF THE SURGEON GENERAL WASHINGTON

August 8th, 1918.

Miss Dorothy A. Kruger, 217 Lake Lawn Place, Madison, Wisconsin.

Dear Madam:

I am directed by the Surgeon General to ask you to notify this office promptly by mail, whether you will accept appointment as laboratory assistant at Base Hospital, Camp Grant, Illinois, on or about August 20th, 1918.

The salary will be $720 per annum with maintenance and transportation, quarters being provided for you in the hospital.

State exactly when you will be available. The appointment is to be made immediately. A prompt reply is therefore necessary.

Yours very truly,

G. F. McCann, Contract Surgeon.

A-933

Note: If you accept appointment, await receipt of orders and transportation.

UT. SLOAN ENTERTAINED LAST MAY BY PRESENT HOSTS OF WILSON

Garvni Thomas of Louiseville. He is a cousin of the princess and has made his home in southern France for 10 years.

"Princess Murat was Miss Helen Stallo of Cincinnati. During May, I attended many social functions with Thomas and the princess in the Riviera. There were few American officers in Nice at the time but there were several American families, which formed a sort of American colony.

"Mrs. Dulaney Hunter, wife of the American consul at Nice, was active in entertaining American officers on leave. In fact she and other Americans living along the coast started the American officers' club at Nice last spring. This club has been a great attraction to officers on leave.

Paris Delightful

"Princess Murat returned to Paris the latter part of May and promised a birthday party for me at her Paris home when I came thru May 30. Needless to say I arrived in Paris on the 30th. I had several days of leave left. They were spent in Paris. It was all too short. Paris is delightful!"

The storyteller caught his breath while the less fortunate officers who didn't get across heaved sighs of jealousy.

"I was greeted in Paris by Big Bertha. In fact I received a greater ova-

Slowly they toil along the broad highway, A miserable procession hopeless, sad With deep exhaustion shown in every step_ What care they if it be the night or day The sunshine brings no joy to them And night-time with its thousand twinkling stars Brings no repose. These are the victims of the War God, Mars!

MOTHER GOOSE DINNER

"Old Mother Hubbard went to her cupboard and smiled with delight at the sight.

There were cakes, pies and meat, and even pig's feet.

Said she, "I'll have a party tonight."

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

SEPTEMBER THE THIRTIETH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETEEN

Pease porrise hot
Pease porrise cold
Pease porrise in the pot
Nine days of

Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye,
Four and twenty blackbirds baked in a pie,
When the pie was opened
The birds began to sing,
Wasn't that a dainty dish to set before a king?

Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers, A peck of pickled peppers Peter Piper picked.

Hot Cross buns! Hot Cross buns!
One a penny, two a penny,
Hot Cross buns!

Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet
Eating her curds and whey,
Along came a spider and sat down beside her
And frightened Miss Muffet away.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner Eating his Christmas pie, He put in his thumb and pulled out a plumb, And said, "What a good boy am I!" Polly put the Kettle on, Polly put the Kettle on, Polly put the Kettle on, Let's have coffee.

Hoping that you realize the danger of and return this duined to the zoo of once I remain your most deceitful friend The Mule wirthout a Rick.

Dear Madam: (mostly dam). I have been informed through many false rumors that you are harboring the wild creature tonsilitis that just escaped from the zoo in Noo Youk. also that you are feeding it aspilie and other dangs that can be obtained in quantities through. friendly relations of the talk Drug store. Do you realize that harbornig such a creature results in Temporary todselitis in the minds of the rest of the victeins of the Terripille nouries? I wonder of your realize how many bankengtres you are cousing while men stand in groups wasting time discussing whether it the the amindal Sombilities or Durall Fox that you are extertaining;
