The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Chicken and Bull

The say on the road a bull encountered a rooster. The chicken was going all around at some distance. This bull was mischievous and he was insulted so he said, "What's happening to your feathers now?"

The chicken said, "I'm afraid of you - you always want to butt your head at me."

The bull replied saying, "As for you, the only thing you want is for them to throw corn at you."
