When the polls open this morning at 8 o'clock, the voting body of the university will voice its opinion on the 78 candidates who are running for office and will elect from the four score of aspirants 25 students. Voting will continue until 5 o'clock so that every one will have ample opportunity to cast his ballot.

Since the officers of the sophomore class have been elected by default, only sophomore student senate and Union board representatives will be elected in the second year class.

Electric Graph at Gym To Show Course of Play

Football fans who will not see the game at Minneapolis are expected to crowd into the men's gymnasium Saturday afternoon and get play-by-play reports on the Wisconsin-Minnesota homecoming football game which will be played at Minneapolis.

For the first time, a grid graph will be installed in the gym and fans will be enabled to watch the course of play. The grid graph shows, a few minutes after the play occurs, how much ground was gained or lost and in what direction the ball was carried. An electric light depicts the course. A simplified code system tells who carried the ball, who made the tackle, and whether the ball was advanced by pass, run or kick.

A special operator is coming here from Columbus, Ohio, to operate the grid graph. The athletic board, which is in charge of the reports, will continue its operation for other out-of-town games if the response is sufficient to cover a large expense. Admission will be 25 cents.

Badger Band Will Lead Rooters at Gopher Tilt

The entire First Regimental band of 50 pieces will be at Minnesota to lead the Wisconsin rooters at the game Saturday.

Leaving on the special train at 10 o'clock tonight, the band will reach Minneapolis Saturday mornin'.

"The students have responded liberally in the drive for funds to send the band with the team," declared Gus Tuckerman '23, who has conducted the subscriptions campaign. "We are going to send the band to Michigan too, for it is evident that the student body is heartily in favor of sending our band to the out of town games."

EVOLUTION IS NO SUBSTITUTE

—STEWART

Episcopal Rector Talks Before 1,200 at Music Hall

Dr. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Evanston, in his talk on "Evolution: A Witness to God" at Music hall last night, pointed out that evolution is not a substitute for God, but it is the process by which he works. Twelve hundred people crowded into the hall to hear the address, and many more were turned away.

"Evolution, the life-creating process of God, is no more God, himself, than the Bessemer process is the product, steel," said Mr. Stewart. With this example to back his argument he brought to light the invalidity of the common idea that evolution replaces God.

Contrary to the conceptions of people uninformed on the subject of evolution and its relation to religion, Dr. Stewart showed that the gradual development of life is not represented by a smooth, ascending curve, but the progress is interrupted by crests and depressions, showing the influences of existing forces.

"How can we believe that the teachings of the Bible are opposed to evolution when the Bible itself is an illustration of such a fact?" asked the speaker. "God revealed himself more and more clearly to the ancient peoples as they became more and more capable of bearing it. The Bible is a most wonderful story of the revelation of God."

Dr. Stewart called attention to the fact that at the time of the discovery of the law of gravitation, many people wanted to put Newton out of the church because he had substituted gravitation for God.

After the address, Dr. Stewart answered questions from persons in the audience. One or two hymns were sung at the beginning of the program, ad W. L. Huff '24, member of the Varsity quartet, sang a solo.

One Act Comedy Given By University Players

"Close the Book," a one act comedy by Susan Glaspell, featured the meeting of the Wisconsin University Players last night at Lathrop parlors. The library club method, in which the movement is explained by some one off the stage, worked successfully under the direction of Tannewitz.

In the business meeting it was decided that students going out for the club hereafter make their tryouts in plays to be presented by the club, not individual selections of their own. A period of probation will then follow.

A committee is to decide on the prom play which the club hopes to take on the road.

Octopus Editor Sends

"Contributions for the November Octopus must be in today," Hub Townsend, editor said yesterday. "They can be handed in at the office in the Union building or can be put in the contribution box in Bascom, Science, or Sterling halls."

FACULTY WORKS WITH STORES TO PROTECT TREES

Aust, Goodnight Make Plans For House Decorations

In order to prevent the ruthless destruction of campus trees and shrubbery during the Homecoming season, F. A. Aust, professor of landscape gardening, has arranged with private concerns to secure the decorations necessary for Homecoming. Dean Goodnight has sent letters to various groups, advising them where evergreens may be obtained, and if the groups telephone their orders before Saturday, the dealers in evergreens will try to fill the orders.

"Three thousand dollars worth of trees and shrubbery were destroyed by thoughtless people during the last year," declared Professor Aust yesterday.

"The fraternities and sororities have never failed to respond to a duty of this kind when the proposition has been put to them in the right light," Dean Goodnight said. His letter follows:

To the Fraternities and Sororities:

At Homecoming time, the question of decorations always arises. This year, Piper Brothers are offering to fill orders for evergreens for decorative purposes at reasonable prices, if the orders are placed before Saturday, November 4th. An evergreen tree four feet in height or thereabouts will retail at twenty-five to fifty cents, and one or two truck loads will be imported from Kilbourne if sufficient orders are placed to warrant it.

Please notify all members of your group that no evergreens grow wild here, which may be taken for such purposes. All evergreens have been planted on University grounds, on the grounds of the Madison Pleasure Drive and Park Association, or on private property, and the mutilating of trees or shrubbery on any of these premises is a punishable trespass. The arrangement which Piper Brothers offer to make, however, will supply every legitimate need at a very reasonable rate, and I hope that we may have a very successful Homecoming, unmarred by complaints of vandalism on the trees and shrubbery of our campus, our drives, and our parks.

Very sincerely yours,
S. H. Goodnight,
Dean of Men.

Four Lists of Seniors To Be Posted on Hill

"We do not wish any senior who desires to appear in the Badger to be left out, but at the same time we must meet a definite time schedule with the printer if the book is to come out on time," said Margaret L. Brown, class editor, yesterday.

In order to make sure that no one is left out through loss of his summary in the mails or through possible confusion in the office, the staff has decided to post a complete list of all the summaries which have been received, at four places on the hill, as soon as the list can be compiled. Seniors are asked to look over this list, and if their name does not appear, a limited time will be given to come to the Badger office and make arrangements.

This will give everyone an opportunity of appearing in the book, and no further extension will be given after these lists have been posted."

WEATHER: FAIR

Fair weather is predicted for Madison and vicinity for today with little change in temperature. Increasing cloudiness followed by rain is reported for tomorrow.

Acoth Sorority Changes Name to Phi Omega Pi

Because of the frequent misunderstanding arising over the spelling and pronunciation of its name, Acoth sorority has adopted a new Greek letter name, Phi Omega Pi.

The question was brought up and voted on at a meeting of the national council last summer, but was not accepted by all the chapters until this fall.

Although the name has not been known generally, it has been used on the sorority pins for some time. Phi Omega Pi will send formal announcements of the change to all the sororities and fraternities soon.

ELIGIBILITY OF MURRY IS FAR FROM SETTLED

Athletic Council Asks For Definite Charges on Player

Although Donald "Jab" Murry, Varsity tackle, will be unable to play in the Minnesota game on Saturday from closed and "Wisconsin will fight" to have the Badger football player re-instated, Coach John R. Richards declared last night.

"We will not sit back like kittens and permit Murry to be ruled out," Richards said.

The athletic council has already communicated with Professor Morgan, chairman pro tem of the Conference eligibility committee, and asked on what charge Murry was found guilty of professionalism and what basis of fact caused the committee to decide the Wisconsin man a "pro".

Received No Money

When questioned at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon, Murry maintained that he is innocent of all professionalism charges. He admits having played in the Taylorville-Carlinville game last fall, but says that he received no money for playing in.

Murry lives at Taylorville and had played on the American Legion team in that place previous to the Carlinville battle. He was not registered in any university at the time he participated in the contest.

Upon coming to Wisconsin, Murry told athletic authorities that he played with Taylorville, and after a thorough investigation, the athletic council gave him a clean bill of health. It has been the practice heretofore to oke records of athletes who have played professionally before entering college. Illinois players who worked in the illegal game were registered at the University of Illinois at the time they played. They were imported men while Murry was a home boy and a member of the Taylorville legion post and football team. Affidavits submitted by Murry and merchants from his home were to the effect that he had received no money for playing with the legion eleven.

Coach Lodges Complaint

Wisconsin informed Major Griffith, the Big Ten "Judge Landis", that Murry had played with Taylorville, but he opined that he had no jurisdiction over the case because the offense was committed before June 1. Griffith investigated the case of Roby, Michigan, and white-washed him last week however, although Roby's alleged offense was also committed before June 1.

Coach Richards said that he had lodged formal protest against five Illinois players. They are Allison

It will have a seating capacity of 75,000 and will be U-shaped. The colonnade will form the court of honor in the center, and the campanile will extend across the end.

CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS LEAVE FOR MINNESOTA

Stiff Distance Race is Expected With Gophers Saturday

Wisconsin will engage its second cross country meet of the season Saturday morning when Coach Meade Burke's squad of harriers will meet Minnesota on the Gopher course at Minneapolis.

While the harriers are not in the best of condition, Burke feels that he has the material for a winning team, and that if they work well tomorrow, they will have a good chance to win.

Tschudy and Vallely, the two men who have shown up best so far this season, have both been out of training for several days on account of sickness. They will be able to run in the meet with the Gophers and will doubtless be among the leaders at the finish.

Winters Excels

In Captain Winters, Minnesota has an excellent runner who will provide some stiff competition for the Badger runners. Winters ran for Minnesota last year when Wisconsin eked out a 28-27 victory over the Gophers. Ulrich, another man of experience who is running for Minnesota, has been showing up well lately. He also ran last year.

In the meet Saturday, Wisconsin will run on a five mile course for the first time this season. The Badgers will be at a still greater handicap because of the fact that the course at Minneapolis passes through the city streets and is apt to be confusing. The Gopher course however is over more level country than the course here.

The squad left Madison last night with the football team, and arrived at Minneapolis this morning. While a good rest will be in order for most of the day, the men may take a short workout in the afternoon. Some time will be spent in looking over the course so that the runners may find more at home in the race tomorrow.

Seven Men Comprise Team

Seven comprise the team which will attempt to win over the Gophers. Coach Burke has based his selection of men on the showing they made in the meet against Michigan two weeks ago, and on the results of the tryout race which was held last Saturday.

The men who will run for Wisconsin are: Capt. Ramsey, Tschudy, Wade, Moorhead, Schneidr, Perry and Vallely.

Richards to Fight For Eligibility of Jab Murry

Augur, regular tackle, Greene, center, Yates, fullback, Robinson, halfback, and Durant. Athletic Director George Huff, of Illinois, held a star chamber session with Augur and Green immediately after he heard of the Wisconsin charges. As a result of the conference, the two men were dropped from the squad. Huff maintains Green is not the man of that name whom Wisconsin protested.

It was said that Wisconsin authorities have direct evidence that charges of alleged professionalism against Durant, Yates, and Robinson are true. These charges were not pressed before because Coach Richards did not wish to disturb relations with Illinois. When Illinois took the initiative and sought to disbar Murry, the Badger officials acted quickly.

Director Huff charged Wisconsin with having violated an agreement to withhold any publicity regarding information sent from one school to another concerning ineligibility of players.

Phi Psi House Will Be Completed in December

The new Phi Kappa Psi fraternity house opposite the library is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy early in December, according to the latest report. The members, who are now living at 148 Langdon street, plan to move into their new quarters during Christmas vacation.

INTER-COLLEGE RACE TO BE NEXT FRIDAY

One of the best cross country races in the history of intercollegiate competition is expected when the annual meet will be held next Friday afternoon at 4:45. The shorter course of 2.9 miles will be used.

Teams from the College of Letters and Science, the Course in commerce, the College of Engineering, and the College of Agriculture will compete.

The meet is open to all men except those who are going to Minneapolis. It is one of the two meets which are held each year in which men may win their college insignia or class numerals.

To each member of the winning team will be awarded a college emblem on a track jersey. The first five men who finish will be awarded a college insignia.

Team captains who were elected last night at a meeting in the gym are as follows: Letters and Science, Bergstresser; commerce, Chase; ags Piper; engineers, Trier.

Maroons Work Savagely After Princeton Defeat

(Special to The Cardinal)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 2.—Savage over their downfall before the Princeton Tigers, the Maroons are practicing with a dash and spirit that bodes ill for the teams they will meet in the near future. Coach Stagg is doing all in his power to remove the disgrace of Saturday's defeat by pointing his men to take conference honors.

No serious injuries resulted from the East-West clash, and the Maroons should be in fine form when they meet the Buckeyes on November 11. Although the Stagmen expect to return from Columbus, victors, they fully realize that Ohio State is a hard nut to crack, and are developing a defense that should stop Coach Wilce's tricky backs.

Realizing that the failure to kick goal was largely responsible for the Princeton defeat, Stagg has been giving the men long drills on kicking the ball between the uprights. Rhorke showed well in this work and he may be used in future games.

Children Arrive For Ex-Kaiser's Wedding

DOORN, Holland—The Duchess of Brunswick, daughter of former Emperor William of Germany, accompanied by her suite and Pastor Vogel of Potsdam, arrived in Doorn Wednesday. Pastor Vogel is to celebrate the religious ceremony when Princess Hermine of Reuss and William are married.

There are a number of rumors afloat which it has been impossible to verify. Included among them is one to the effect that Princess Hermine has never left Doorn castle since her arrival there, and will only leave for the sake of appearances next Saturday, returning on Sunday for the wedding. It has been learned that former Crown Prince Frederick William will arrive here today at noon.

Mowry To Address Eau Claire Kiwanis Meet

Don Mowry, secretary of the Association of Commerce, left the city Wednesday noon for Eau Claire where he will address the Kiwanis meeting held there today. Mr. Mowry will return on Friday.

Complaints on City Zone Law up Friday

Complaints on the plan to zone the city will be heard at a public meeting of the city plan commission called for Friday evening at 7:30. The meeting will be open to the public and members of the city council who are requested to attend and give the commission their objections on the zoning of the city into districts limiting the height and type of buildings to be constructed.

Crisis Is Passed For 75 Year-Old Flagman

After a 48-hour fight for life, Thomas Kelley, 75, veteran flagman of the St. Paul road, who was run down and severely injured by a runaway automobile while on duty at the Bassett st. crossing Tuesday noon, has passed the crisis, according to hospital officials, and recovery is almost assured.

The poppy grows in the devil's garden.

HARRIS IS OUT OF LINEUP FOR REST OF SEASON

Badgers Clash in Most Important Big Ten Game

With Donald Murry ruled ineligible to play against Minnesota, and with Jack Harris, reserve halfback, injured so that he will be unable to engage in any more football this year, the Wisconsin squad, consisting of 30 players, Head Coach John R. Richards, and Trainer George Berg left at 9:35 last night for Minneapolis where on the morrow it clashes with Minnesota in the most important Big Ten game of the week's schedule.

Harris suffered another injury to his leg during the scrimmage Tuesday afternoon and doctors have forbidden him to play any more football this season. Murry was ruled a professional by the Conference eligibility committee.

Band Leaves Tonight

Accompanied by a crowd of rabid football fans, the Varsity squad entrained for the Twin cities, realizing that the breaks were against it, but determined to fight to the last minute of play. Hundreds of Wisconsin rooters will mingle with the Minnesota Homecoming crowd on Saturday, and a 50-piece band is scheduled to leave for the Gopher stronghold tonight.

"Although our aggressive was somewhat wrecked by loss of Murry, we are far from beaten," Coach Richards said last night. Murry accompanied the squad to Minnesota and he will not be dropped until the Conference committee delves deeper into his case and obtains positive proof of his professionalism.

Practice Today

Coach Richards will direct his men in a secret practice in Minneapolis this afternoon. In the last workout on the home gridiron at Camp Randall, he ordered three elevens to engage in light signal drills and watched the Varsity outfit go through a shadow scrimmage with the freshmen who were using Minnesota plays.

Every Wisconsin player is in good condition, according to the Badger coach. Capt. Rollie Williams and Eddy Gibson are slated to start at the halfback positions with Merrill Taft at fullback and Barr directing the team from his pilot position. Taft, who will bear much of the work with his educated toe, has developed into one of the most dependable players on the Badger team. He is a good punter and ranks with the best in the Big Ten. Captain Williams will be "rarin' to go" against Wisconsin's traditional enemy and Gibson, who

NEW MEN OUT FOR SOPH PIGSKIN SQUAD

The sophomore football stock took a jump last night when four more men reported to Coach Lowman for the squad. These are the first new men to report since the call for more sophomore material was issued. It is expected that many more will report in the next two days.

The sophomores feel very confident that they can down the frosh in their annual contest with the first year men. The line seems to be the weakest part of the team. If the new men that report to the squad prove to be real linemen it will take a good team to beat them.

Monday night will be the latest date that sophomores can report to the squad and be eligible for the Frosh-soph game. Coach Lowman will not allow any man to participate in the game who has not had at least two week's practice.

Shoes to Be Given First Scorer Against Gophers

To the first Wisconsin man crossing Minnesota's goal line tomorrow Huegal and Hyland's Boot Shop will give a choice of any pair of shoes in their store at 428 State street.

The Woman's Exchange has volunteered to give one of its large home-made cakes to the first man to cross Illinois' goal line in the Homecoming game on November 11.

It will be a large devil's food cake covered with red and white icing, and will be on display in the shop's window at 113 State street next Friday afternoon. Immediately after the game it will be sent to the man who has won it.

is recovering from a broken nose, is also expected to smash off the Gopher tackles and run the flanks.

Nichols will start at center. Irish and Tebell are slated to handle the ends. Both are stars in their positions. Gus Tebell is the most experienced wingman in the Conference. He is now playing his third year of "Big Time" football and his offensive and defensive playing make him one of the most valuable men in the game.

Badgers Won 19

Marty Below is back as regular right tackle after a layoff due to injuries. He is in the best of shape.

The men who made the trip to Minnesota are: Nichols, Pearse, Alton, Hohlfeld, Bieberstein, Sykes, Miller, Smith, Schernecker, Tebell, Irish, Polaski, Nolte, Bentson, Williams, Barr, Millman, Taft, Radtke, Gibson, Eagleburger, Opitz, Murry, Paige, Whitten, Saari, Stegner, Below, Field and Smedal.

Wisconsin and Minnesota have played 29 football games. The Gophers have won 14 and Wisconsin is credited with 13. The 1907 and 1911 games were tied. In the last two years, Wisconsin has whitewashed Minnesota, winning last year 35 to 0, and in 1920, 3 to 0.

MAT TEAM BIDS FAIR TO EXCEL FORMER SCORES

Enrollment Twice That of Last Year Grows Larger

The wrestling team, which works out regularly under the guidance of Coach George Hitchcock, promises to be better and more successful this year than ever before.

The men working out at the present time number between 70 and 75, which is twice the number last year. The squad is constantly growing larger. Many of the heavy weight men are out for football at present, and will add considerably to the strength of the squad when they can give their full time to wrestling.

Coach Hitchcock started to work with the men two years ago when there was interest enough to attract only 15 or 20 men to the sport. Last year the squad grew to about 40 in number, and by the end of this semester coach Hitchcock expects at least 150 men out.

Conference Matches Arranged
Hitchcock teaches a type of wrestling which requires the student of the sport almost two years to acquire its finer points.

Matches with Minnesota, Northwestern, Chicago and Ames have already been arranged, and efforts are being made to schedule games with Iowa and Indiana. Dual meets between the varsity and frosh squads will undoubtedly be arranged later in the fall, the regular matches not taking place until the second semester. About 60 to 65 men are expected to try out for the frosh squad.

Templin is Captain
Captain Templin will do the sterner work in the middleweight class, while Heuer and Hembre appear very likely candidates for the 145 pound division. Hembre has been showing up particularly well this year, and ought to make a very good showing in the matches next semester.

In the 135 pound division Cattau and Holmes are the most likely prospects. Holmes wrestled with the frosh squad last year. Stair can be depended upon to bolster up the teams' reputation in the 125 pound division.

Kiessling, Stepek, and Kingston, now out for football, will hold up the 175 pound division, and among the heavy weights, Shorty Barr, Bieberstein, Nichols, and Fox can be looked to for big things, although their time at present is also taken up by football.

Mr. John St. John, of the Gas and Electric company is on an extended trip in the east. He is expected to return next week.

FOOTBALL

SATURDAY Wisconsin again will face Minnesota on the football field. Once more the intense partisanship that has been kept alive by bitter strife each year for many years, since even before the great majority of the present student body was born, will be renewed. For what?

Tomorrow afternoon 11 men, possibly 20 men, representing Wisconsin will exert themselves against a like number of men representing the university of the neighboring state in a game, a sport, to assert their professed superiority in that branch of athletic competition. What does it mean?

The significance of the game is simply this. It will decide, as indicatively as it is possible, which institution of higher learning can select and develop from its enormous population a tiny group of men that through superiority of brain and physical co-ordination can conquer its rival's group under a definite code of hard, set rules.

The game then is a test, not only of the men on the team themselves, but of the university. Between two institutions as nearly equal in size and prestige as are Wisconsin and Minnesota it is a vital conflict. That is why it arouses the intensity of hope, and fear, and enthusiasm that it does.

Football is collegiate king of sports. It is a noble game. As conducted at Wisconsin it is an inspiration to all athletic, as well as non-athletic, activity.

For the attitude of the Wisconsinite toward his team is that becoming the follower of an activity untainted, unbesmirched by professionalism, by pettiness, by unfairness, or by countenance of disloyalty in adversity.

The Wisconsin man's or woman's slogan is: "Win! but win cleanly, and I'm behind you stronger if you lose." There are no quitters at Wisconsin.

Not only is football king; it is the tie that binds. For what in the realm of all endeavor can better instill in young devotees, and old ones as well, the feeling that football instills—a feeling of love and veneration for the heroes that have upheld their honor on the gridiron turf?

Who would not gladly exchange his laurels captured in the more prosaic fields of college life for the positions in people's hearts—not only of college mates, but college people of rival institutions, that are held by Ikey Karel, Pat O'Day, Eddie Cochems, Keckie Moll, Eddie Gillette, Allen Davey, and John Richards?

Saturday, and the three to follow it, are big days for Wisconsin. They mean a lot. Wisconsin wants to win, prayed to win, will fight to win.

THE ILLINI
COURTESY is the essence of hospitality.

Whether it be a stranger or a well known friend that is the guest hospitality is his due.

The chivalric courtesy of the South, the open-hearted friendliness of the West, are historic evidences of how highly valued is the unwritten code of hospitality.

Wisconsin knows how to be a good host. Witness the Indiana game.

The courtesy with which the Badgers welcomed the Hoosiers made such an impression on the guests that they were pleased to acknowledge it formally.

But Wisconsin should receive no credit for the courtesy showed to Indiana. It was due the Hoosiers and it was a pleasure as well as duty for the Badgers to play host to them.

Another such duty looms before Wisconsin. It should be every bit as much of a duty and a pleasure to welcome Illinois at Camp Randall on Homecoming Day. Courtesy should be extended to them in the same measure as it was extended to Indiana.

When Illinois is the host at Urbana to the Badgers, they are friendly, courteous hosts. But in the past Wisconsin has not always been so considerate of the Illini when they come to Madison. Badger fans have taken advantage of a catch phrase and used it to annoy their guests.

The term "suckers" has been plentifully used to designate Illinois teams and Illinois rooters. Illinois has no reason to like the term and Illinois does not like it.

Illinois students who are now enrolled at Wisconsin deplore the use of the obnoxious term "sucker".

And they have reason to deplore the use of the word. Illinois has for symbol the Indian. And sport writers that understand Illini aversion to the word "sucker" never

BAND MAY TAKE FALL CONCERT TOUR

That the First Regimental or Concert band may give a number of concerts outside of Madison during the winter is the opinion of Major E. W. Murphy, band leader of the band.

A committee consisting of John Wells '24, manager of the band; Thomas W. Morony '25, and William E. Warner '23, has been appointed to consider prospective concert engagements and formulate plans arranging for one or more ours to be made after the close of the football season.

"No definite announcements can be made now because plans are incomplete and we would not consider making such a tour until after the last football game," Murphy clared.

The ours will necessarily be short because a long trip would require the band members to be absent from too many classes.

Fellowship Meeting is Postponed For Speaker

The weekly Fellowship meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was postponed last night because of the address given by Dr. George Craig Stewart of Evanston, Ill. Out of respect for the Campus Religious council, which was instrumental in bringing Dr. Stewart here, it was decided to postpone the meeting until next Thursday evening. At this meeting "DAD" Elliott, student secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and a member of the International committee of the nine states, will speak.

Menorah Society Confabs On Homecoming Banquet

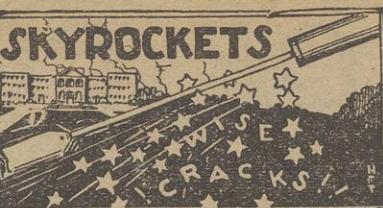

Plans for the Homecoming banquet were discussed last evening at the meeting of Menorah society. Owing to the fact that the hall could be obtained only for a certain length of time, there was no program. The meeting was purely business in nature, a matter of election being attended to. Some amendments to the constitution were taken up.

refer to them in any way but as Indians or Illini.

If Badger fans want to be courteous to their Homecoming opponents, let them forget to use any tactics or any terms that will displease the visitors.

In view of the recent action by Illinois in protesting the eligibility of a Wisconsin player, there is but more reason for showing the essence of hospitality to the Illini—the Indians.

Let Wisconsin show Illinois that it knows its duty as host and that that sense of duty will be unimpaired by any other consideration.

BLAINE ORDERS PRISON SURVEY

Desires to Protect Rights of Ex-Soldiers in Penal Institutions

Survey of all ex-service men in Wisconsin penal institutions was directed yesterday by Gov. J. J. Blaine to determine the mental, nervous and tubercular condition of former soldiers. He is asking Dr. William F. Lorenz director of the Wisconsin Psychiatric Institute and Dr. W. S. Middleton of the University clinic to conduct the survey.

The governor said that he would prepare a questionnaire for prison authorities to fill out at the time of examination of each man, so that he may carry out a plan he has to protect these men in their compensation, vocational training and other civil rights growing out of war service.

Following is the letter prepared today by Gov. Blaine directing Dr. Lorenz and Dr. Middleton to proceed with the examination:

"In accordance with the conferences I have held with you, I desire to ask you to make a survey of ex-service men now serving sentences in the state prison at Waukesha, the reformatory at Green Bay, and the house of correction at Milwaukee, with respect to the mental and nervous and tubercular condition under which a great number of the men may be suffering.

"Last March there were 352 ex-service men in those three institutions. Some of those men have been discharged on account of the expiration of their terms. Some have been paroled by the board of control and many others released through executive clemency but I find it utterly impossible for me to know the mental and physical condition of those men, except as their applications for executive clemency come to me. While many have been released in the manner above stated, in all probability others have succeeded them.

"Many of the men are without friends or relatives and without money, and those have been unable to present their respective cases to me for executive clemency.

"I also desire to suggest that I will prepare a questionnaire for the prison authorities to have filled out at the time of the examination of each man so that I may carry out a plan I have in mind to see that these men are protested in their compensation, vocational training and other civil rights growing out of their war service which because of their incarceration in all probability have been overlooked.

"In the cases that should receive immediate attention by transfer to the Psychiatric Institute or some sanitarium you can report to me from time to time, and under the statutes I will issue the necessary permit for their transfer as your report and advice suggests.

"I trust that the survey can be commenced as early as possible and completed as soon as possible, and knowing your intense interest in this movement I am leaving that to your own good judgment.

"After the survey is completed, I will then arrange through some department the necessary legal assistance to take care of the civil rights involving obligations of the state and federal government of those who have been unable to enforce such obligations.

"I know this survey will involve additional burdens upon you and I am very happy to know that you very generously offered to take on those additional burdens."

Increased Dairy Costs
Does Not Hit Students

Students will not be affected by the increased cost of dairy products which went into effect the first day of this month, when the Madison dairies raised the price of milk one cent a quart and the price of cream one cent a pint.

Restaurants will have to pay the new price for milk and cream, but as the advance is so small as to be almost negligible from their standpoint of distribution, it is not expected that there will be a similar increase in prices to patrons.

That the increase will continue in effect for an indefinite length of time is the information given out by the Kennedy Dairy company. The demands of the farmers for a better price on the milk they sell, and the favorable consideration of these demands on the part of the dairies, has been largely responsible for the increase.

Law school students held their first smoker of the year at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening. About 100 lawyers were present.

It was pointed out that the special inducement of admittance to the bar without examination should be given to men with a broader type of training given in the Wisconsin law school.

Dean H. S. Richards presided. Short talks were given by Prof. John D. Wickham, Prof. W. H. Page, editor of Wisconsin Law Review, H. W. Mathews and Justice Burr Jones of the state supreme court.

ENEMIES IN POLITICS ONLY

David Lloyd George and Premier Bonar Law on their way to the parliament building.

This photo, just received from London, throws an interesting sidelight on the political situation there. Although Bonar Law was head of the Unionist party which caused the overthrow of David Lloyd George and his cabinet and later was named premier to succeed Lloyd George the two are warm friends off the platform.

Milk Price in Madison
Now 9 Cents a Quart

The Kennedy Dairy Co. and the Capital Dairy have raised the price of milk in Madison to 5 cents for pints and 9 cents for quarts. This is a raise of one half cent and one cent respectively.

Dealers claim that the price of milk has been boosted by producers and that the present raise is in keeping with the new raw price. Cream in half pints is the other product affected by the new prices, being raised from 13 to 14 cents.

The suit of the Master Builders against the Keachie Construction Co. was dismissed from circuit court today by Judge E. Ray Stevens upon the payment of $350 to the Master Builders by the defendant.

Hatch Finds New Use
For Surplus Skim Milk

The market for skimmilk has not been injured by the recent action of the supreme court in prohibiting the manufacture and sale of filled milk.

K. L. Hatch, assistant director of the agricultural extension service at the Wisconsin college of agriculture, working in conjunction with commercial concerns in Milwaukee, has developed a process whereby the skimmilk is reduced in volume five to one by the use of an ordinary vacuum pan or concentrator. It is then mixed with an equal volume of good feed for young stock. This mixture is dried in a grain dryer of the type used for drying brewers' or distillers' grains. In this form it is sacked and ready for use.

The new mixture is being fed in an experimental feeding trial at the university by F. B. Morrison of the animal husbandry department. The experiments are being watched with more than usual interest by farmers, feed manufacturers and dealers.

City Has 69 Street
Signs Left Out of 500

Placing of 69 more street signs will be placed as applied for, announced by E. E. Parker, city engineer today. These signs are the remainder of the 500 signs ordered by the city council some time ago. The engineering department is preparing a map listing the signs to be placed at the principal intersections of the city for future reference. Requests for placing of signs by citizens may be made through their respective aldermen.

Radio Installation To Come Under State Code

To minimize the dangers from radio antennae, the industrial commission announced today that it has included in the new state electrical code a provision governing installation of wireless sets.

The code provides that antennae outside of buildings shall not cross over or under electric light or power wires of any circuit of more than 250 volts. They must be constructed and installed in a strong and durable manner and be so located as to prevent accidental contact with light and power wires by sagging and ripping.

According to the industrial commission, a number of fatalities have already taken place due to carelessness on the part of amateurs installing radio antennae over electric light wires.

The mothers are planning a tour of inspection through the plants of two milk companies. Regular morning milk deliveries will be made at the school by one of the companies.

Plans for a "service shop" and a new piano were also discussed.
