Memories

U

Christmas decorations are now gracing the dining areas throughout Winnebago State Hospital. But the memories of Thanksgiving linger on. The dinner, served to 171 guests and over 300 patients, started off with spiced tomato juice, followed by the traditional turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, French bread, and assorted relishes. The meal was topped off by pumpkin pie with whipped topping. A delicious meal for a commemorative day.

E

Tables were graced with white cloths and the walls in the dining room were decorated with a mural. Pilgrims preparing for the feast on front of their home, two Indians carrying a deer on a pole to their teepee. Large letters wishing a "Happy Thanksgiving" graced the top of the mural. Each mural varied somewhat as the women from Food Service in each unit did their own decorations.

Vol V Issue 20
Dec. 4, 1970

Patients without liberty could have their guests in their building's dining room; patients with liberty could accompany their guests to the service dining area. There the mural on the wall and bouquets of flowers as the tables added to the decorations.

Turkey, the traditional bird for Thanksgiving, now is a year around table fare with 25% of the households having it at least six times a year. More than half of the 115 million birds sold in 1970 were purchased between January and October, according to the Norbest Turkey Growers Assn.

Lean to start with, turkeys have been bred to have 45% more meat until now their breast are so heavy, they have trouble standing up in the barnyard. At 49¢ to 59¢ per pound, turkey is cheaper than beef and the price has been going down over the past 15 years. Turkey meat now shows up as one-meal products, too. These include turkey rolls, turkey slices and steaks, and even turkey salami and frankfurters.

WHAT A SWINGING EVENT!

The dancers and listeners were deeply saddened when the dance was called to an end and the band had to leave the spirit lifting Rumpus Room. They felt they could have danced all night.

The band was so superb that those dancing wanted to keep dancing. The dance floor was usually packed after a few couples started the movement going. The dance they had the most enjoyment doing was the Flying Dutchman.

The attendance of 260 was only 15 short of the record attendance of 275. There were 235 patients and 25 outsiders sharing the music enjoyment of our annual Thanksgiving dance.

Clarence Fouske, leader and player of the accordin and organ of the Casuals, brought in a band of great renown.

Clyde Cox did a marvelous job on the guitar as did Greg Bauer on the drums. Dave Otto was on the bass and our own Mr. Weber was sitting in and playing the piano. Mr. Fouske has had his own band and has played professionally for twenty-two years now. He sure is doing a great job as we have noticed. He also plays in nightclubs and at weddings all over in Wisconsin.

The patients enjoyed hearing the different kind of songs and feel more people should get on the floor and dance. Ralph Hoppe and Helen Langkau supervised the dance. The patients did make a few comments. They felt the dance was terrific and one of the few chances they have to get off the ward. They also feel we should have this band booked more often and think we should have more dances.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

SING-A-LONG

Come one, come all to the Sing-A-Long at 6:15 p.m., Wed., Dec 16 in the Canteen. Mr. Weber says that Christmas songs will be featured, so get in good voice and enjoy a bit of Christmas. Mr. Weber will play the piano and Mrs. Earl Sommers will play the organ. Come and enjoy the lovely music while singing the old favorites. The Sing-A-Long is scheduled early as a concert by students from Lourdes High School will follow immediately. They are known as the "New Dimensions" and vary from the usual, formal a cappella routine by marching up the aisles while singing--a truly thrilling, lyrical effect and a glorious prelude to Christmas.

LEGAL QUESTIONS

What You Should Know

Legal matters that involve privileges and duties in the outside world are always of interest to patients. What rights do they have, and what rights, if any are lost?

Dr. Treffert, superintendent of the hospital, has answered questions most frequently asked by patients. He also reviews some of the provisions in the new Mental Health Act pending before the state legislature and which will be considered when they next convene.

DO I HAVE THE RIGHT TO WRITE PERSONAL CHECKS?

A patient can cash personal checks by following this procedure: he endorses the check and the money is placed in his account at the hospital. For any amount up to $8.00 a week, the patient may sign a ward request for weekly withdrawal on Sunday evening. The money will be received on Wednesday. If money is needed between these withdrawal times, or more money is needed for a special need, a special-request slip signed by the patient and the doctor is needed to obtain any withdrawal.

The special-request slip may be presented to the business office any time between the hours of 7:45 and 11:55 a.m., and 12:45 and 4:15 p.m. Please note these hours as no money can be released after the cashier's window is closed.

YOU ARE ALLOWED TO COMMIT YOURSELF, THEREFORE CAN YOU SIGN YOURSELF OUT WHENEVER YOU WISH TO LEAVE?

Assuming that this would be a case of leaving against the doctor's order, a regular voluntary admittance can leave when he wants to except in a situation in which the doctors (or treatment team) feel the patient is dangerous to himself or others. In such a case, the hospital has thirty-five days to institute a regular commitment. The new Mental Health Act would reduce this time limit to ten days.

When a person is committed as mentally ill, the decision to release him rests with the treatment team. The patient is conditionally released for a twelve-month period and until this time is up, he may be readmitted to the hospital at the recommendation of the superintendent without going through the court procedure.

Inebriates, whether they come voluntarily or not, become court commitments, and can not leave until their doctor feels they are ready. They usually remain for about six weeks. The new Mental Health Act would eliminate such court commitments. This could make treatment difficult because inebriates might decide to leave the hospital before they are ready.

CAN YOU LOSE YOUR DRIVER'S LICENSE IF COMMITTED TO THE HOSPITAL AS MENTALLY ILL?

A patient's drivers license is taken for safe keeping when he is admitted. This does not mean that the patient is not capable of driving. The license is returned when he leaves the hospital. When an ex-patient applies for a license for the first time, or for a renewal, he is asked whether he has ever been mentally ill. The Motor Vehical Department might decide to write to the superintendent of the hospital to find out whether there are any mental or physical problems that could impair his driving. But the final decision is made by the Motor Vehicle Department.

WHY ARE SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS MADE OUT TO THE SPOUSE RATHER THAN THE PATIENT?

Social Security checks are not made out to the spouse in all cases.

An error occurred in the early placards announcing the date for the Sing-A-Long followed by the concert by the "New Dimentions", a choral group from Lourdes High School. The correct time and date is 6:15 on Wednesday, December, the 16th.

Your Laugh Is Showing

According to a recent survey, readers enjoy laughing. Feel like roaring with laughter?

It probably means you're feeling superior. At least, a University of Georgia professor thinks so. "There are countless theories. . . about what makes one person respond with laughter to a message and what leaves another person unsmiling," said Charles F. Gruner, an associate professor in the Speech Department.

"People giggle and laugh at the strangest things," he added. "A woman laughs when she should blush. This is something to which one may devote his entire life. It's like investigating the common cold. It's intriguing."

Gruner said he had come to one central conclusion in his studies. That a feeling of superiority actually produces the chuckles.

"This theory holds that every humorous incident is a more or less brief contest in which someone is made to appear or become inferior," he said. "Observing sudden inferiority -- a stupid mistake, for example -- makes the observer feel suddenly superior, a pleasant, victorious feeling, so the observer laughs."

Another theory, he said, holds that the laugh is a hangover from the roar of triumph with which primitive man would signal his victory over a hapless oponent. That roar slowly evolved into the laughter we produce when Charlie Chaplin slips on a banana peel, he said.

"When a person laughs, he reveals much about himself," he said. He has an atheist friend who laughs uproariously only at jokes that take Christianity to task.

Gruner, who holds a doctorate in communications from Ohio State University, related that once at the University of Nebraska (where he taught) he was in a play. The first night it was shown the audience burst out laughing at what should have been the most dramatic moment; a tender love scene culminated in the man killing the girl, then going to a room to play a violin. He diagnosed the laughter as the product of tension.

"As children grow and develop, becoming more civilized, the range of things they laugh at grows," he said. "They originally laugh at physical successes. . . They are quick to laugh at cripples or other unfortunates. Later, as they develop verbally and socially they delight in. . . riddles, then punning riddles and, much later, engaged in the more subtle verbal jests."

His study of satire, Gruner said, suggests that it is almost totally ineffective as a tool of persuasion because most people miss the point entirely.

He has also documented, he said, that humor is ineffective as a teacher.

He concludes that people today smile less and laugh in a more subdued fashion than during more tranquil periods of our history. This puzzles him, he said, because hard times in this country, have always produced a rebirth of humor. "There is a soberness to life these days," he said. "You walk down the street and there are no smiles."

Dear Compos:

Behold the sight of a hippie -- beyond compare -- in his underwear.

Dear Mentis:

If you use a power lawn mower to chop up leaves -- are toes good for fertilizer?

Dear Non:

Is the guy who always carries his lunch in a brief case instead of a lunch-bucket always a white collar man?

Dear Compos:

Maybe glacial ice may again drift down, but there's no need to put a "For Sale" sign on your home.

Dear Mentis:

Did you know that a young man seeking a political career would do well if he changed his name to Mark X Here.

Dear Non:

I just can't figure out why Thursday is called the food beyond the sea.

Dear Compos:

Bob is the name of a nice young man who wanted to see his name in a newspaper. By the way girls, his address is available.

Dear Mentis:

I suppose you heard that the birth rate doubled during the recent black out on the East coast.

Dear Non:

Now that we've seen "Planet of the Apes," how much do you want to bet that we'll soon be seeing "Return to Planet of the Apes?"

Dear Compos:

Miniskirts caused a division among the girls -- those with pretty legs and those who skirts were too short.

Dear Mentis:

Dear Non:

If you come in late on Monday morning will this humanize a bank's computer?

Dear Compos:

Women's Liberation Movement has chalked up another gain. In one town's production of "Hamlet," a woman has the starring role.

Dear Mentis:

The only thing that isn't compulsory as yet is poverty.

Dear Non:

We've heard that husbands are beginning to tell their wives everything they may somehow find out.

Dear Compos:

There was one bit of good news -- coffee prices are dropping.

LOVE & MY GAL

Love is the color of her hair
 Mine is blond
 Love is the texture of her hair
 Mine's soft
 Love is the color of her eyes
 Mine's blue
 Love is the way you look into her eyes
 Mine's loving
 Love is the sound of her voice
 Mine's soft
 Love is the texture of her lips
 Mine's soft
 Love is the way she walks
 Mine's graceful
 Love is her personality
 Mine's outgoing
 Love is the touch of her hands
 Mine's gentle
 Love is what you make it
 Mine's beautiful.

-- Randy

THE POWER OF LOVE

I am able to many things do
 Because my love for you is true
 I can tie the difficult ties
 Or say the necessary goodbys
 I can do the needed mending
 And handle the ingredients that need blending
 It's time now to get out the iron
 And clean those clothes that weigh a ton
 'Tis time now to sit and eat
 And get out of the horrible heat
 We might as well remain cool
 And not seem like such a fool
 'Tis all under the power of love
 And his presence we feel from above
 Under it our days gaily go by
 And your love is all mine.

--Vivian

LIFE

What is it when a child cries?
 What does it mean when you die?
 What does it mean to be hated?
 What does it mean to be loved?
 What does it all mean?

What does it mean to cry with tears
 in your eyes?

What does it mean to have loved?
 What does it mean when you want to die?

What does it mean to be dead?
 What does it all mean?

-- Jean

ETERNAL LOVE

Darling, you've taught me the art of making love

And you've given me the heart of a dove

Please don't walk out that door

Will your love for me keep growing?
 If so, darling, Eternal Love I'll keep showing

Kiss me again and tell me you care
 Then all our hopes and plans
 we'll share

Protect me and stay by my side

Our Love is our only guide

Never let doubt enter your mind

For then our love is blind

We both know we could never be blue
 Because our love is true

Maybe we're selfish with our love for each other

But we know we could never share it with another

So, kiss me again, and tell me you care

I love you, darling, no ifs, when or where

Let's live one day at a time

Let's love one moment at a time

Then share one kiss at a time

Then darling, we'll know it's

Eternal Love a'shine.

-- Nancy

CHRISTIANITY

What hypocrites we mortals be

Every Sunday at church we be

One day a week we praise God above

The rest of the week we show not his love

(reader's RHYMES continued)

Hatred abounds in this sick world of ours

Out of one week we praise God a few hours

We call ourselves Christians, but how can this be

When during the week we practice hypocrisy

God has mercy on mortals, though we don't deserve

Maybe through mercy, we'll do our best to serve.

-- D.

UNTITLED

Unless I can capture an old dream of rapture

All will be lost, but anxiously I think of the past

And regret is truly a thing of the past

Eagerly I anticipate future happinesses

And pray they will come to be

Making the eternal world forever last

Until the day I see my Lord's face

Of sin there'll be no trace

So may we all on earth abound in worthy wealth

Common to all humanity and sorrow for disharmony.

-- Donna

PEACE

There's one thing in the world that everybody is looking for Peace!

There's two things in the world that everybody's searching for Love and Peace!

There's one thing in the world that everybody is praying that will never come
War!

There's two things in the world that everybody is wishing that will never come
Chaos and War!

But there is one specific thing that not many people are doing in this world and that should be the first thing people are looking, searching, and praying, wishing that it will come some day

And that is the Messiah! -- Randy

HYPERACTIVITY

Running around we get rid of our excess energy

We're always on the go while they look for us high and low

We rush around at an early morn, wishing it was a larger dorm

We easily keep things from ending in a pile

When we run down that lengthy mile

We can easily stop on a dime when we realize it's bedtime

All day long we've had our fun as down goes the ol' sun.

-- V.

20 DAYS 'TIL CHRISTMAS

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,

And wild and sweet

The words repeat

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come

The belfries of all Christendom

Had rolled along

The unbroken song

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till, ringing, singing on its way

The world revolved from night to day

A voice, a chime,

A chant sublime

Of peace and earth, good-will to men!

-- From "Christmas Bells"

H. W. Longfellow

WHAT SHALL I GIVE --

What shall I give to the Child in the Manger?

What shall I give to the beautiful
Boy?

Grapes I will give to Him, hanging in clusters

Basket of figs for the Child to enjoy

What shall I give to the Child in the manger?

What shall I give to the beautiful
Boy?

Garland of flowers to twine in His fingers

Cherries so big for the Child to enjoy.

-- From a Spanish Carol

REMEMBER - 'TIS ONLY 20 DAYS
UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

DO YOU LIKE COUNTRY MUSIC?

I at one time lived in Nashville, Tennessee. I worked part-time at WSM Radio and TV stations. The reason for getting a job in Music City U.S.A. was that I would have an opportunity to meet many of the Country music stars whom I had admired over the years.

As you know, Country music is music about our everyday lives. Each song tells a story. It is also music that is easy to listen to. It doesn't jar one's mind. You can easily relax by listening to Country music.

Getting back to the big stars, I became to know the performers on the Grand Ole Opry as I worked at the Opry House on Friday and Saturday nights. After finishing my job, I assisted at WSM radio until 4 o'clock in the morning and I enjoyed every minute of it.

You may wonder how the big stars like Johnny Cash, Glen Campbell, June Carter, Hank Williams, Jr. Buck Owens, Don Rich and the Buckaroos and Minnie Pearl treat an assistant of their shows. Let me tell you, they are all down-to-earth people and they treat you just wonderfully. They are among the nicest people I've ever met.

I might add that one of my biggest thrills was when I met Elvis Presley. He's another nice fellow and he makes one feel at ease.

All in all, I had so much fun working and meeting with these stars of Country music, that after I left Nashville, I joined a Country music Fan Club. If any reader of the CUE desires to join such a club, contact me as I have many fan club addresses.

Legal Questions

It depends on whether or not the patient is judged capable of handling his own financial affairs.

CAN A PATIENT, ON HOME LEAVE, DRIVE A CAR?

Usually not because most of the patients are on medication that could interfere with their eyesight.

IS IT AGAINST THE LAW TO DRIVE WHILE ON MEDICATION?

No.

MAY A PATIENT REQUEST A CHANGE OF DOCTORS OR SOCIAL WORKERS?

A request for a change is possible. However such requests are only rarely granted, and then only in very unusual circumstances.

CAN A JUDGE EXTEND A PATIENT'S PERIOD OF OBSERVATION WITHOUT COMMUNICATING WITH THE HOSPITAL OR WITHOUT A PATIENT'S CONSENT?

Theoretically it is possible, but usually the doctor or other interested parties request the extension and it is okayed by the judge.

CAN A MAN BE DRAFTED WHILE A PATIENT HERE?

Yes. The hospital acts as an advisor by sending a final summary of the patient's condition. This helps the draft board decide whether the person in question is an acceptable candidate.

IF A PATIENT IS WORKING OUTSIDE THE HOSPITAL, IS HE ALLOWED TO SPEND HIS MONEY AS HE WISHES OR MUST IT BE TURNED IN TO THE BUSINESS OFFICE?

The hospital prefers to have the money placed in the patient's account for safe keeping. It is available to the patient through ward requests on Sunday, or through a special-request slip signed by the patient and the doctor and presented to the business office during the hours of 7:45 to 11:55 a.m., and 12:45 to 4:15 p.m.. Please note these hours as no money can be released after the cashier's window is closed.

CAN YOU GET MARRIED WHILE YOU ARE A PATIENT?

Yes, if the doctor decides you are legally competent.

CAN YOU GET A DIVORCE WHILE HERE AS A PATIENT?

Yes, if the doctor decides you are legally competent.

SING-A-LONG

Come one, come all to the Sing-A-Long at 6:15 p.m., Wednesday, December 16 in the Canteen. Mr. Weber tells us that Christmas songs will be featured so get in good voice, come to the Sing-A-Long, and enjoy a bit of Christmas. It will be a gay occasion as Mr. Weber will play the piano and Mrs. Earl Sommers will play the organ. Even if you do not like to sing, come and enjoy the beautiful music from these two accomplished musicians.

The early hour is a variation of the usual time for Sing-A-Long sessions. The time (6:15) was scheduled so that a concert by students from Lourdes High School can follow immediately. The students call themselves the "new Dimensions" and vary from 15 to 30 in number who deviate from the usual, formal a cappella presentation by marching through the audience while singing. The effect is thrilling, lyrical, sound encompassing. So remember Wednesday the 16th and be in the Canteen promptly at 6:15 for a choice seat for this thrilling, tingling concert which will be a glorious prelude to the Christmas Season.

WATERWOODXMAS PARTY

Christmas isn't too far away. Soon we'll be enjoying all the festive parties like the dance that is going to be held Dec. 17 in the Hughes Hall Rumpus Room.

The music will be live with Blue Horizon performing. The dance will be from 7:30 to 10:30. Food will be served to all the students. The party will be sponsored by the student council for Waterwood High.

All students are welcome.
