Come to my Heart, my Love.

A magnificent song on the very old but ever new story, arranged for Soprano or Tenor in Eb, Contralto or Bass in C.

When the Old Church Clock Struck Ten.

By JULIAN JORDAN and GUSSIE L. DAVIS.

The combined talents of these two famous authors has produced a masterpiece which all lovers of a good song will hail with delight.

Mamma Will Rock You to Sleep, Lullaby.

The thousands who have heard with delight his other beautiful lullaby, "GOING TO DREAMLAND," the most popular lullaby in America—will do well to possess themselves of a copy of this one, the peer of anything he has ever written.

Love's Captivity.

Love again! True; but on what other subject can the true composer give to the world, in song, the sweetest and tenderest strains which so move the human heart. No other subject is so exhaustless; no other subject is so pleasing to both singers and public, and there is no author to-day who can do greater justice to this sentiment than JULIAN JORDAN.
