ILLINOIS COACH TO PRESIDE AT DEBATE FRIDAY

Audience Will Question
Speakers at Close of Contest

Prof. C. H. Woolbert, coach of the Illini negative team, will act as chairman of the season's first inter-collegiate debate between Wisconsin and Illinois at Music hall at 7:30 Friday night on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should at once formally recognize the Soviet Government of Russia."

Prof. Woolbert, who heads the department of speech at Illinois, conducted a course in public speaking at summer session last year and will also be here this summer. He was chosen to preside because it was thought best to have an experienced teacher of speech in charge of a debate at which the audience is to be permitted to question the debaters at the close of the contest.

The tremendous wave of popular interest which the debate subject brought about is becoming keener and more marked as the time for the contest approaches. It is expected that many Madisonians will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the pros and cons of recognition of soviet Russia advanced, and the Forensic board, in charge of arrangements, warns students, who expect to attend to be on hand early.

Negative at Michigan

While the Wisconsin affirmative is arguing for recognition at home, the negative team will be telling students and town people at Ann Arbor why the United States should not recognize soviet Russia. Prof. A. T. Weaver, who will accompany the negative team will preside at the Michigan debate.

Both contests are looked upon as classics in inter-collegiate debate circles in the mid-west because of the great forensic rivalry existing between Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin. In years past the schools have won about an equal share of the debates, and although the contests this year are "no-decision" affairs, this fact will not in the least detract from the keen competition which invariably makes itself manifest.

The debate at Michigan is formal as far as the contestants are concerned, and all speakers appear in evening clothes. An attempt was made to make debates at Wisconsin formal but has as yet failed to materialize.

In order to permit other engagements for the evening the home contest will start promptly at 7:30.

HARESFOOT COVER DESIGN IS CHOSEN

Hubert Townsend '23 submitted the best cover to the 7890$.N.. the best cover to be used for the score book of the Haresfoot twenty-third annual production, "Miss 'Quita.'" The score will be the first to be published in five years, and will be sold in every city on the Haresfoot tour as well as in Madison.

The cover submitted by Townsend was selected from an assortment of 15, many of them almost tying for first place honors with the one chosen.

Twenty-three crippled children from the Sparta home are being treated at the University of Wisconsin hospital, as the first step in the work of the new State General hospital now being built.

AXLEY AND ASSOVSKY WILL OPEN AGAINST ILLINOIS AND MICHIGAN

RALPH AXLEY '23

Axley who will open the debate for Wisconsin against Illinois, Friday night, on the question of recognition for Soviet Russia represented Hesperia in this year's joint debate. He won the freshman declamation last year with an original speech. He is the youngest speaker on either team and one of the two sophomores representing the university in inter-collegiate debating.

CHARLES D. ASSOVSKY '21

Assovsky made the brilliant opening speech for Philomathia in the joint debate and will open for Wisconsin against Michigan Friday night. He is a member of Artus, honorary economics fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, an officer in Philomathia, and president of the Forensic board. He won sophomore honors and closed one of Philomathia's semi-public debates.

HEROES ALL

Eight Co-eds Join World War
Veterans in University
Legion Post

"Say, Helen, are you going to the legion meeting tonight?"

"Oh, my dear, I should say I am. Jack X. Dougherty is going to call for me at 7 and Dorothy is going with Howard X. Gob."

These are likely to be some of the whispered conversations you will hear in the "lib" from now on if you listen closely, for eight pretty co-eds (all co-eds are pretty, you know) joined the University post of the American legion last Sunday.

Time was when the buck private hummed "I Don't Want to Get Well," as the white-aproned nurse lingered a minute by the bed and the "jackie" sought excuses to pay unnecessary visits to the desk of a smiling yeomanette.

Now he can call her "comrade," put on his Christmas necktie and "ice-cream" trousers, take her by the arm and make faces at his ex-lieutenant as he escorts her to the legion meeting.

But the girls are not joining the post to keep the men from getting lonesome. They are already making plans to help with the legion program of sick visitation and entertainment. They are applying for a charter for a woman's auxiliary which will include immediate relatives of service men and are undertaking an active campaign for more members for the post.

The eight who have already joined are: Isabelle Holdahl '22, Rhea Hunt '21, Sophia D. Kellen '22, Viola Knowlan '23, Vera Milum '21, Margaret Shnitter, Helen Sherman '21, Dorothy Wiesler '24.

Helen Sherman has been appointed temporary chairman to arrange for securing a charter for the woman's auxiliary.

SENIORS TO GIVE PARTY AT LATHROP

A senior party will be held in Lathrop gymnasium, Friday night, March 18, at 8:30 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at Morgan's and the University pharmacy for $1.50. Thompson's orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody is invited.

STATE BASKET CONTEST HERE MARCH 24-26

Winners of Normal Meets
Will Compete for Title

The following high school teams, winners of the sectional tournaments, will contend for honors in the basketball tournament to be held in the armory March 24-26. Madison, La Crosse, Platteville, Menominee, Racine, Rhinelander, Superior, Neilsville, Appleton, and Elmwood.

The Rhinelander-Wautoma game was probably the most closely contested battle of the sectional finals, Rhinelander winning 11 to 10. The Madison-Wisconsin High and the Racine-Waukesha games were also hotly contested, Madison and Racine each winning by three points. The Menominee High won its final game from Spring Valley by a 57 to 10 score. Superior Central High, who won the state tourney here last year, experienced little difficulty in defeating Ashland for sectional honors, and it is expected that they will put up a strong bid for honors this year.

Willard Duncan is general chairman of arrangements. Assisting him as chairman of committees are: Lathrop Follett, programs; Dexter Brown, entertainment; Carson Lyman, advertising.

The team winning first place will receive a cup and gold watch fobs; while the winners of second and third places will be awarded cups and silver watch fobs. Consolation prizes will be presented to the losing teams.

The visiting men will be entertained at fraternity houses during their stay in the city. They will be shown around the campus and given an opportunity to acquaint themselves with university environment. Smokers, dinners, and theater parties are among the functions planned to make the visitors' stay more pleasant. However, the big event in the line of entertainment comes on Saturday night when the "W" club will give a banquet in honor of the visitors at the Y. M. C. A. At that time the various trophies will be awarded to the teams and this year's varsity basketball men will receive their letters. Doctor Meanwell and Mr. Chamberlain, state president of the W. I. A. A., will speak at the banquet.

The committee in charge of the tournament is planning to issue a souvenir booklet containing records, pictures, etc., of the participating teams. Business men and others who desire advertising space may notify Mr. Frank Nickerson at the university gymnasium.

PRESS CLUB PLANS NOVELTY PROGRAM

A novelty program will be given at the regular meeting of Press club to be held at 5:30 tonight in Lathrop hall. A discussion of journalistic subjects conducted by the members themselves is the plan for the evening. Talks will be limited to five minutes, as there is important business to come up.

Rodney Welsh '22 will talk on "The Publicity Nuisance," Raymond Bartels '22 on "How a Desk Man Keeps People Out of Trouble," and Willet Kempton '23 on "Journalism Versus the Movies as a Medium for Expressing Thought." John Baker '21 will talk on the journalism exposition committee.

The members are to assemble in the cafeteria line at 5:30.

TICKET SALE FOR MILITARY BALL TO COMMENCE TODAY

Pasteboards Will Sell At $3.50

Spectator Seats
at $.75

Ticket sale for the Military ball opens this morning, and reservations should be made immediately by all fraternities and other organizations desiring tickets. As far as possible the tickets will be disposed of this year through such groups, and all men who wish to attend are advised to join or form a club of some sort and make their reservations in a body.

The former service men, in honor of whom the ball is being given, are asked to apply for tickets through one of the many campus clubs composed of ex-service men. These clubs have all agreed to co-operate with the cadets in taking care of these men. All orders for group reservations must be mailed to Larry Warner, chairman of ticket committee, at 625 N. Henry. The price of the tickets is $3.50.

Group reservations will close March 25 and after that date, orders for individual tickets will be accepted until March 31. Open sale will begin April 1. Spectator tickets have also been placed on sale at 75 cents. Cadets desiring tickets should follow the notice posted on the bulletin board in the armory.

Arrangements for boxes may also be made now. Any organization will be able to secure a box by mailing its order to Fred Ruffalo, 1022 Regent. Only mail orders will be accepted and should include the number of couples in the party. The boxes will range in price according to their size.

While the military uniform will be the strictly proper dress for the occasion, it is very probable that full evening dress will be quite generally worn, especially by the men who have not been in the service and who are not members of the cadet corps. All former service men, however, are strongly urged to wear their uniforms.

IT was an awfully low day for contribs yesterday. We spent half the afternoon looking for an inspiration. On peering into the little red box where our missives usually are found, we could only discover the following paraphernalia:

One hair pin.
One stick Wrigley's, used.
Two thumb tacks.
One rubber band.
One note, torn up.
A contrib. which follows.

Co-ed: I took an exam this morning and it was so hard. I thought I'd kid the instructor along, so I added at the bottom, "I came, I saw, I flunked."

Her Candid Room-mate: Incorrect, wasn't it? What you should have written was, "I came, I couldn't see, I flunked."

ALMOST the zero in contribs. We only hope it doesn't draw out a column of communications, re-opening the honor system to slander and reviling names.

GOOD thing about communications, though, they're always funny. Y'can't miss a laugh.

WELL, we're on the second page now. That's a start. The next is a verse from our esteemed contemp., Mr. Berry Patch, C. D. III.

S. G. A. DONATES TO CURIE RADIUM FUND

S. G. A. has contributed $25 to the Madam Marie Curie Radium fund which is being raised by a committee of women educators and scientists of the United States.

The goal of the fund is $100,000 and with it the committee will buy one gram of radium which will be presented to Madam Curie for her experiments.

Madam Curie will arrive in this country sometime in May to attend Harvard and Yale and receive her honorary degrees from them.

FOUR ARE ELECTED TO TWELFTH NIGHT

Twelfth Night dramatic club announces the election of the following freshmen: Theora Tefft, who gave a selection from "Clarence," Alethea Smith, who read a part of "The Universal Impulse," Viola Swain who spoke "Snow White," and Pearl Kulp, whose reading was from "Mercedes."

Initiation of the new members will be held within the next two weeks.

Y. W. NEEDS ONLY $87 TO END DRIVE

Already $4,261 of the annual budget of Y. W. C. A. has been collected as reported by Auta Lyman '22, chairman of the finance committee, at a joint meeting of the advisory board and cabinet yesterday. This money has been collected in alumni, faculty, and student drives, and from the candy sale and bazaar. Only $87 remain to be collected by Jan. 1, 1922, in order to make the drive completely successful.

Miss Abbe Marlatt of the advisory board conducted a meeting in which the committee heads of the cabinet were called on for their reports of the year's work. Margaret Thomas '22 reported on the religious council; Helen Kaabeer '23 reported for the social service committee; Ima Winchell '22 reported on the work of cabinet council; Martha Whitlock '22 reported for the industrial committee; and Carol Parkinson reported on the Y. W. C. A. vespers.

SPEAKING of using the dead Lits to line the pantry shelves, D. O. T. writes from the Irving to tell us that the deed, the Cardinal, is just the right size to line the bottom of their garbage can.

THAT still leaves us with no solution as to the best way to get rid of the Commerce mag.

SPRING FEVER TO BE OCTOPUS THEME

Copy for the "Spring Fever" number of the Octopus has been passed by the board of editors and is now in the hands of Prof. O. J. Cambell, faculty censor. The magazine will appear March 30.

With the strain of examinations passed, the editors declare that more satisfactory copy has been turned in for this issue than for any previous.

ANNAPOLIS FACULTY TO CONSIDER HAZING

Hazing has reached such a point at Annapolis as to cause the authorities to take drastic measures for its prevention. Several of the "plebes" have sent home complaints to their parents in order to be relieved of these outrages. At the present time the "plebes" are confined in one building, and the upper classes in another. It is expected that a few dismissals will result.

AT THE ORPHEUM

George Yeoman and Lizzie in a little travesty. "Editor of the Assassinated Press," heads the bill at the Orpheum. With a clever prattle of puns George almost leads his audience into convulsions cracking what-nots about the government and our dear city, and not failing to touch on the prohibition question. This brings hi many lughs.

To those who expected a high class "banner act" as before advertised of Marie Kavanaugh in "Danceology" and her partner Paul Everett, there was quite a bit of disappointment. The Wynn Sisters did some clever dancing, and received quite a lot of applause, not enough for an encore, however. The good looking young pianist, Paul Humphrey, did exceptionally well on the piano, and much credit must be given him.

"A Few Moments at the Club," presented by a trio of good singers with a lot of pep, was another act.

Black and O'Donnel as "The Violinist and the Boob," were entertaining. Mme. Berzac's "Circus," composed of two shetland ponies and a balking mule completed the rather poor bill for this week.

APPLE PIE

Burley Agrics Must Have Pie, So A. W. A. Will Provide It

"Tis a sin

To steal a pin—"

So says the sign at Ag. hall where but yesterday lay a golden pie filled with ambrosial apples and "richly tinted with cinnamon." All day it teased beholders with its insinuating succulence. They read with clenched eyes and gnashing lips that it was, in the language of the hated Hun, "verboten" (i. e., forbidden)—at least until Tuesday.

"Wait until Tuesday—then you may have a piece. A. W. A. will serve pie all day," said the sign.

But these men were red-blooded Americans—men who declared "Give me pie or I'll know why!"

So night fell upon the project, and they fell upon the pie. Today nothing but a few crumbs remained where once lay a "perfect pie."

Investigation was started at once. Two burly Agrics were prevailed upon to undertake to ferret out the fugitives. These men have sworn (merely in a legal sense) to bring the offenders to an outraged justice and 1234566N..6N..68T90ta tice, and make them pay 50 cents for the pie. The two know exactly who did the stealing and want the culprits to give themselves up at once. They say that if the law-breakers do not report soon they will offer a reward to find out who did it. One Agric when interviewed reported that he had strong suspicions of the Ag. hall cockroaches. These animals reach an astonishing size and ferocity in that vicinity, and he thinks a group of them could easily eat a pie.

The demand for pie which this incident clearly discloses is to be met on Tuesday by the Agricultural Women's association. Pie will be served all day in generous slices to all who have dimes. There is even a possibility that ice cream may be added to the menu.

ST. OLAF'S CHOIR TO HOLD CONCERT HERE

The St. Olaf Lutheran choir, composed of 50 young men and women from St. Olaf's college, Northfield, Minn., will give a choral concert in the university gymnasium, Thursday evening, April 7 at 8:15, under the auspices of the Union board.

Last spring the St. Olaf's student choir gave concerts in all the large cities of the east, including New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. In spite of requests for return engagements from every city, the present tour will not take the organization east of Chicago.

The tour is not for the purpose of making money but to stimulate the growth of sacred music in the Lutheran churches and in communities at large. The choir specializes in singing the great masterpieces of choral music, such as the chorals of Bach, Hadyn, and Handel, instead of the lighter music use by most college clubs.

BLAINE PRESIDES AT ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION

Dr. T. L. Harrington Speaker at Program in Music Hall Thursday

Dr. T. L. Harrington of Milwaukee a well known friend of the Irish cause, will be the speaker at a St. Patrick's day celebration at Music hall Thursday at 3 p. m. under the auspices of the Mercier club of the university, in cooperation with the local branch of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic. Gov. Blaine will preside.

The subject of the talk, "America's Problem: Ireland," will be treated from the standpoint of its application to American promises made on our entrance into The Great War, rather than from a purely sympathetic standpoint. Dr. Harrington was a captain in the A. E. F. and, while in Europe, visited Ireland.

ACHOTH AND ALPHA GAMMA ARE TIED IN SORORITY BOWLING

Achoth and Alpha Gamma Delta sororities are now tied in the bowling tournament which ends Thursday, March 24. Sorority standings are as follows:

Alpha Gamma Delta	31	5	85.7
Alpha Xi Delta	23	5	84.8

WARM WEATHER TO RETURN IN 2 DAYS

Warm weather and sunshine within two days, is the prediction of E. R. Miller of the U. S. Weather bureau in North hall.

"A current of cold air from Canada struck a current of warm air, here," said Mr. Miller. "The warm air made the rain, and the cold air underneath it turned it into sleet. We shall probably have rain all today and tonight, but tomorrow it ought to clear up and be warmer."

Goloshes and fur coats then may be safely stowed in the far end of your closet. Winter, it seems, is over!

LOST OPPORTUNITIES

TAKING advantage of the educational facilities of the university consists in more than merely attending classes. It consists also in utilizing to the fullest degree the opportunities that the university offers in addition to the class-room instruction.

Many of the educational opportunities offered by the university are too often neglected by the students. Lectures, concerts, and art exhibits are often passed up for some less valuable pastime or for no pastime at all. In fact, many of the most effective agencies for intellectual betterment that are found in the university are unknown to a large portion of the student body.

The university has made special effort through its lectures committee to obtain worthwhile speakers. The men thus obtained are of high standing. They bring valuable and interesting thought on the questions of the day—questions in the educational, political, social, scientific, literary, and economic fields. Several of the lectures have been held in the past few weeks; more will be held at frequent intervals before the close of the semester in June.

Besides the faculty committee on lectures, various student organizations bring, at different times, speakers of national reputation to Madison.

Similarly, concerts of recognized merit are given frequently under the auspices of student organizations or of the music school of the university. These concerts bring the best of music before the student body.

In the museum of the library, from time to time, art exhibitions are open to the public. In general, these are the work of some prominent present day artist.

The art exhibits are free; the lectures and concerts are free or have a very moderate charge. They are within the reach of all students.

It behooves the students to keep awake to the extra-curricular advantages that the university offers. Of course, no student can attend all the lectures, concerts, and art exhibits. Discrimination and judgment must be exercised. Every student should, however, wisely use the privileges extended him.

MID-SEMESTERS

WITHIN a few weeks, mid-semester examinations will again be with us. In addition, work will be piling up. Topics will be due. The session of sleepless nights will be reinstated.

The wise students will take advantage of the time remaining before examinations. It is far easier to spread work over three or four weeks than it is to do a half semester's work in a few days. A long period of time, if properly utilized, will absorb many of the difficulties of exam time.

Foresight enough to stop procrastination is what most students fail to exercise and what most of them need. At present, it is a lot easier to put off the job until tomorrow. Tomorrow, there will be regret that the task was not done yesterday.

Safety lies in beginning to get ready for the coming mid-semester now. Time will prove a saving grace for more than only a few students.

Slipstickers to Honor St. Pat in Parade Up State Street and Around Square

Things mechanical, electrical, and chemical, but all hardly practical, are to feature the Engineers' Annual St. Patrick's parade Saturday afternoon. Ingenuity and accumulated constructiveness are given their yearly airing in this moving display up State street and around the square.

The traditional blarney stone is again to be exhumed from its secret vault under the Engineering building; carried in state throughout the parade; and then reverently kissed by every son of St. Pat. Last year's enrollment of engineers included a "daughter" of St. Pat, and as a result the latter process lost much of its formality.

High-top boots, flannel shirts, and clay pipes will be in order for all participants, and it is hoped that each engineer will be further identified by the specially grown moustache. Considerable gathering of data and proportionate calculation has led to the development of an involved empirical formula, the terms of which only the slipstickers are said to understand, which indicates that most growths will be ready by Saturday noon.

In addition to the many floats, at least one of which is to be prepared by each engineering society, will be numerous group attractions. Prizes are offered for the best make-ups and for the best take-offs on other colleges. It is expected that the "left-handed monkey wrench which screwed the Law Shop 'nut' of the bench" and other similar exhibits will be available.

Tractors have been loaned by a local dealer to furnish motive power, and with but one exception, everything will be motorized. The parade will form on Park street near the shop building and will start down State street at 1:30 Saturday afternoon.

AG TRIANGLE HEARS TALK ON RELIGION BY STATE OFFICIAL

"Religion at Work" was the subject of an address by George F. Comings, lieutenant governor of Wisconsin, to the members of Agric triangle, Sunday morning, March 13.

"The way to serve God is to serve your fellowmen," declared Mr. Comings. "The time to serve your fellowmen is from Monday morning until Saturday night."

Mr. Comings explained that the support of the present school system is based on the principle of love of our fellowmen. The rich and the property owners are taxed in order that the poor may receive a better education.

"Whenever the public takes that attitude toward education," said Mr. Comings, "it is putting into practice the second great commandment, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself.'"

AX MAY BE TROPHY FOR STANFORD GAME

To make the Ax a perpetual trophy for the winner of the California-Stanford Big Game is the suggestion that has been made by California Unmack in the current issue of the Alumni Fortnightly.

Judge Brown who, with several others, stole the Ax from Stanford in 1899, when asked for his opinion said: "The idea appeals to me very much. Of course I have not had time to think it over but I can't see why it shouldn't be an excellent idea and add to the historic and sentimental value of the weapon."

The Ax is California's most prized trophy and is kept in a safe-deposit vault in San Francisco. It is brought from its hiding place once a year, at the Spring baseball rally, and Stanford has tried many times to regain it but without success.

AMERICAN STUDENTS PRAISE FRENCH LIFE

The American University union, which is looking after 400 American students in French universities, is warm in praising the conditions under which the students are living and the kindly reception accorded them outside of university circles in the French capitol. Life for Americans in Paris is easy, considering rates of exchange of about 14 franc to the dollar. The students are received in universities with a cordial warmth that delights them. Seven hundred francs or $50 a month is considered as sufficient to cover a student's expenses.

After Professor Vanni's death, the faithless wife, now known as Mrs. Martyn, takes Alice to New York and proceeds to commercialize her beauty and her talent as a dancer. Four years later, Alice, a famous dancer, is in Monte Carlo with her mother and meets Captain Maxwell, a young engineer. Mrs. Martyn, however, desiring an ambitious match for her daughter, has induced her to show interest in Signor Castelli, and, after he has been trapped into a confession of his love, tries to blackmail him. After a series of dramatic events, Alice wins the man of her choice.

Vera Gordon

Vera Gordon the mother of "Humoresque," will be seen at the Strand theater Wednesday to Saturday in her latest picture "The Greatest Love."

AT THE MAJESTIC

The Coudy show of 1921 proved to be different in many ways than any of the previous musical shows that have played the Majestic, starting without the usual hurrah opening it goes right into the action of the piece. Mr. Elmer Coudy stepped quietly out without a vestige of makeup and mighty quickly proved that he did not need grease paint to win his audience. His droll manner of speech drew many a hearty laugh from the capacity house Sunday night.

The plot has to do with two young men who land in a town ruled by young women. The boys are on a vacation and decide to spend it at the home of one of the cousins who has told them they may use the home provided they do not take possession of the second floor which is supposedly occupied by the Women's Industrial union. The cousin shows up at the opportune time and explains that it was all in fun and as a matter of fact she is running a Girls' Seminary and all has a most amusing ending.

Special mention should be made of other members of the cast. Mr. Hines as the friend is possessed of a most pleasing personality, and pleasant voice which he uses to good advantage. Mr. DuFault as the Frenchman is most amusing and later on in the show gives a most remarkable specialty with a violin, which consists of one string which he masters. Miss Murst as the cousin is good to look at and has mastered the art of looking good in really envious gowns. Dan Malumby as the Irish janitor is a true delineator of the type as one could wish to see and keeps the audience in good humor each and every time he is on the stage.

Special mention should be made of the chorus who are all young and good to look at and are costumed up to the minute.

BADGERS HAVE CHANCE IN BIG TEN TANK MEET

Northwestern and Chicago
Will Fight For First Place

Although the Wisconsin swimming team has suffered consecutive defeats by Illinois, Northwestern, and Chicago, the Badger squad has an excellent chance of gaining a second or third place in the conference swimming meet at Patten pool, University of Northwestern, on Thursday, and Friday, Marh 17-18. The preliminary races will be held Thursday, and all swimmers who weather the time trials will enter the final swims Friday night.

The three teams which have defeated Wisconsin are the strongest in the Big Ten, and with the exception of Chicago, they were forced to accept indecisive victories over the Badger. Illinois won the first meet of the season by a 35 to 33 score, and Northwestern earned a 37 to 31 win by capturing the last event of the meet. In the swim against Chicago the Maroons won easily 46 to 22 while Edward Blinks, Maroon sophomore star, was breaking the national inter-collegiate record by one second in the 220 yard swim and smashing the conference 100 yard record in 56 4-5 seconds.

Michigan will enter a duo of long distance swimmers and Iowa has a pair of good divers, but with the exception of a few scattered points which will be won by these teams and possibly Minnesota, the majority of the scores will be divided between Chicago, Northwestern, Illinois, and Wisconsin. The Badgers are strong in the dives, in which event Collins and Captain John Koch won first and third places against Chicago. Bach pushed the record-breaking Blinks in the 40-yard and the 100-yard dashes, and Peterson defeated Jenkins of Chicago in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Chicago will depend upon Captain Yegge in the 150-yard back stroke, Blinks in the dashes, and Gordon in the plunge for most of the Maroon counters. Against Wisconsin, Gordon plunged 60 yards in 21 4-5 seconds. He holds the conference record.

Northwestern, 1920 Big Ten champion, has Paver and Hayford in the short events, and Dickson in the plunge. Paver and Hayford were members of last year's championship team and this season defeated Chicago by one point in a meet which was decided by the relay.

"Chicago and Northwestern will fight it out to the first two places at Evanston," said Coach Joseph C. Steinauer on Monday afternoon. "Blinks of Chicago seems unbeatable and without doubt he is the best dash man in the Big Ten. Al-

An equal number of blue tickets for the women and yellow tickets for the men will be sold on the campus to make certain that everyone has a dancing partner.

Many special features have been planned to make this affair entirely different from the usual and large committees are at work. The committees as announced by general chairman, Adrian Scolten yesterday are:

Feature — Erwin J. Presser, though Northwestern beat Chicago in the dual meet, some of the weaker squads will pick up points in the conference meet and enable the Maroons to slide by with a victory.

"Wisconsin is assured of several second and third places and perhaps a first in the 200-yard breast stroke and these points will be enough to land the Badgers in the first division.
