GUN AND BLADE DELEGATES KEPT BUSY FIRST DAY

Business Session, Baseball Game and Theater Party Open Convention

A business session in the morning at the senate chamber of the capitol, a baseball game between the local members and the visiting delegates in the afternoon, and a theater party at the Orpheum in the evening comprised the activities of the delegates to the third annual convention of the Gun and Blade clubs of the middle west at its opening meetings yesterday.

The preliminary business of the convention was transacted at the morning session. A number of resolutions were made and turned over to the committee on resolutions. Action on the resolutions will be taken upon the recommendation of the committee at the business session this morning.

Following lunch at the Capitol cafe the delegates went to Vilas park to see the baseball game which had been arranged between a team composed of local members and one of visiting delegates. The locals won with a score of 4-3. The delegates were entertained at the Orpheum last night.

Election of officers will take place at the business session at the capitol at 10 o'clock this morning. After a tour of the city this afternoon the delegates will go to the baseball game at Camp Randall. A banquet tonight at the city Y. M. C. A. will conclude the convention program.

This is the first convention that has been held in Madison, the former conventions having met in Chicago.

SUICIDES INCLUDE 32 UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Thirty-two college students are found among the 12,948 suicides in the United States during 1923. The triviality of the reasons for suicide is remarkable. One girl died of gas because she was "not permitted to bob her hair, roll her stockings down, and be a regular flapper." The oldest suicide was 97 and the youngest 6.

Y. M. C. A. NEEDS MEN FOR CLEANING JOBS

Warm weather has brought with it an increase in the demands for men students to fill part-time jobs. The Y. M. C. A. employment office reports calls from Madison housewives for men to rake lawns, wash windows, and do other spring house cleaning jobs. During spring vacation 60 students obtained work through the Y. M. C. A.

PRESBYTERIAN GUILD WILL INITIATE EIGHT

Eight Presbyterian women will be initiated into the Sarah Ely chapter of the Westminster Guild at their regular noon luncheon today at Presbyterian headquarters. Miss Christine Wilson, of New York, national secretary of the Guild will be the guest of honor at the initiation.

Isabel Capps '23, Will Preside at Y. W. Assembly

"Eight unsolved problems" have been chosen for discussion of the Student Assembly of the Young Women's Christian associations, which will be held in New York, April 29 to May 6.

Isabel Capps '23 was elected president of the assembly at the meeting in Hot Springs, Kas., two years ago, following five years of activities in Y. W. C. A. and war work.

The aim of the assembly is to bring the girls in close relationship with girls of other races and to diminish race prejudice, to arouse interest in the prevention of war, and to interest students in Christian service.

Chinese Students Entertain Tonight For Mrs. Reinsch

The Chinese students' club will entertain at a dinner at 6 o'clock tonight in the University Methodist church parlors in honor of Mrs. Paul S. Reinsch, widow of Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, late United States Minister to China, and former professor of political science here.

Twenty invitations have been sent out by the secretary of the club to faculty members and townspeople who have shown interest in the Chinese students. In addition to the formal invitations each member is privileged to bring one or more guests. J. C. Liu, secretary, stated.

"It has been our custom to entertain our American friends each year in the spring," said Matthew Shen '22, president of the club. "We presented what we called 'Chinese Night' in former years, but this year we decided to give a dinner for our friends."

UNIVERSITY CLUB WILL BE SUPREME —HYDE

New Building Finest in Any College Town; 100 Dormitory Rooms

"The new University club when it is finished will be the finest university club in any college town and the largest non-commercial building in Madison outside of the campus," Prof. Grant M. Hyde, a member of the building committee said yesterday.

According to Prof. Emil Troug, chairman of the building committee, the first floor of the new addition will contain the main entrance on State street, a large lobby, and a lounge room with an open log fireplace. On the same floor will be the office, the Murray street ladies' entrance and parlor, and an office for the manager and bookkeepers.

In the basement will be the kitchen, storage rooms, serving rooms, a large banquet hall with a log fireplace, and card rooms. A reading and writing room is to overlook State street on the second floor. The remainder of the space on this floor will be taken up by nine rooms for transient guests, such as guests of club members and non-resident club members.

STEINAUER TO SHOW HANDLING OF CANOES

Now that the lake is open the necessity again arises to give warning to the many who will soon venture out on the water in canoes, according to Joe Steinauer, swimming coach. Because Lake Mendota invariably claims victims every year, arrangements have been made to give advice to the students each season in regard to the correct handling of the frail craft.

Under the direction of Steinauer a canoe will be put in the swimming tank today and pictures will be taken showing the right method of procedure after the canoe has turned over. These pictures will be printed in The Cardinal.

NORTHWESTERN HONOR FRATERNITY ELECTS

Deru fraternity, an honor organization native to Northwestern, announces the election of fifteen members selected from the junior class of Evanston schools. The organization was established for the development of Northwestern.

Members elected are John Tomlinson, Evanston, Gail Belden, St. Joseph, Mo., Ralph T. Breyer, Chicago, Robert H. Weinecke, Glenview, Ill., Glenn W. Fawcett, Rochester, Minn., Ralph Countryman, Mandan, N. D., Alva W. Graham, Evanston, Wesley Israel, Washington, D. C.

Jap Exclusion Is Endorsed By Lesochier In Interview

"Unquestionably, Japanese exclusion should be written into the immigration bill," Prof. D. D. Lesochier of the economics department declared in an interview yesterday. "As long as there are color differences there will be continual conflicts in America."

"The Japanese are not in any way inferior to the Americans. They have just as great a capacity for development and advancement. But it would be better for both nations if the Japanese developed separately and we developed separately."

"Congress did right in passing the bill in spite of the protest of the Japanese government," Professor Lesochier continued. "No great nation in the world has endured so patiently as we have interference by foreign nations in their domestic affairs."

"My study of the immigration question has brought me to the conclusion that there should be a complete stoppage of immigration from 25 to 50 years, so that the immigrants now in the country can be thoroughly assimilated before new ones are received."

"The children of immigrants in many cases produce more serious problems for our country than do the immigrants themselves. Until both the first and second generations are completely assimilated, and by assimilation a great deal more is meant than mere reading and writing of the English language, immigration should be reduced to an absolute minimum," Prof. D. D. Lesochier said was his opinion.

Theta Sigma Phi Takes Charge of Easter Cardinal

Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary and professional journalistic fraternity, will have charge of the Sunday issue of The Cardinal. Features on Easter fashions and traditions, as well as special book reviews and complete news of the journalism department will be specialties in the edition in addition to all of the regular departments.

All members of the regular Cardinal staff and desk staff, with the exception of the sport department, will be given a holiday today.

Deliveries will be made the same as usual.

S. G. A. LIBRARY ADDS FIVE BOOKS

Novels By Zona Gale and Professor Leonard Lead List

Five new books have been added to the S. G. A. library by Edith Miller '26 and Mary Elizabeth Hussong '25, the new librarians. One of these books, "The Vaunt of Man", is written by William Elbery Leonard, associate Professor of English in the University. Another, "Birth", by Zona Gale, is one of the successes of the New York season in its dramatized version. Edward O'Brien's "Best Short Stories of 1923," "The Prisoner Who Sang," by Bojer, the most illustrious contemporary writer of Norway, and "A Few Figs from Thistles," a collection of poems by Edna St. Vincent Millay, complete the list.

Besides these works of fiction and poetry, it is planned to add collections of plays, essays and biographical works. The library will be kept as up-to-date as possible, and new books will be added as often as can be done. The librarians are considering sending the older books to hospitals or other institutions as more recent ones are obtained.

It is also planned to conduct an S. G. A. Corner in the Sunday Cardinal in which one of the late library books will be reviewed.

AUTO LIGHT VIOLATORS BROUGHT INTO COURT

Madison police, on the lookout for "ghost cars" without tail lights arrested eleven persons who were caught violating automobile ordinances.

CARDINAL WORKERS GET DAY'S RESPITE

Members of The Cardinal editorial and desk staffs, with the exception of the sport department need not report today as Theta Sigma Phi is taking over all of the editorial work for tomorrow's issue.

TWO BADGER MEN CHOSEN TO STUDY UNDER BELGIANS

Alfred Wolfson and Professor Carl Stephenson Receive Fellowships

Alfred M. Wolfson '22, and Carl Stephenson, Professor of History, are among the eight Americans who have been awarded fellowships in the Belgian universities for the year 1924-25, by the Commission for Relief in Belgium Educational foundation.

Wolfson is a graduate of Cornell who obtained his master's degree in the university here, and will study botany. Professor Stephenson obtained his bachelor's degree from Depauw, and his doctor's degree from Harvard. He will continue his work in history.

The Commission for Relief in Belgium Educational foundation was organized in January 1920 as a permanent memorial to the relief work of America in Belgium during the year. The Belgian government in 1919 invited Herbert Hoover to suggest some means whereby the funds remaining with the Commission for Relief in Belgium, upon the completion of its services, might be utilized for the benefit of Belgium.

Mr. Hoover proposed that these funds be devoted to the extension of education in Belgium and to the systematic exchange of intellectual ideas between Belgium and America. A parallel Foundation in Belgium, the Foundation Universitaire, was made possible from the same sources.

The exchange fellowship plan is now in full operation and 31 Belgian graduate students are now enrolled in 16 universities and scientific institutions. The American students will enroll at the universities of Brussels, Liege, Louvain and Ghent.

Robert M. Stephenson, a brother of Professor Stephenson, has also been awarded a fellowship. Mr. Robert Stephenson, too, is a graduate of Depauw, obtained his master's degree from Harvard, was the Rhodes scholar from Indiana in 1916, and graduated from Oxford in 1920. At present he is Professor of History in Princeton.

MYSTERY PROWLER NEAR SUNSET POINT

A mysterious prowler has been molesting couples in the neighborhood of Sunset Point and is reported having jumped out from behind trees and grabbed the horses ridden by co-eds on the University drive. The unidentified man, who is said to be about 30 years old, roughly dressed and wearing a slouch hat, is being sought by the police.

UTILITIES MEN HEAR ELY AT MILWAUKEE

Dr. Richard T. Ely, director of the Institute for Research in Land Economics and Public Utilities of the university stressed the importance of public utilities before the Wisconsin Utilities association which is meeting in Milwaukee at present.

Forest Products Spring Classes Enroll 52 Men

Spring classes at the Forest Products laboratory started Monday morning with one of the largest enrollments ever registered for educational work. Of the 52 men enrolled, two are from the Pacific Coasts, two from the Gulf states and 12 from the Atlantic seaboard.

The widespread interest in these classes is evidenced by a cablegram just received from London asking about dates of the next courses. More men applied for admission than could be accommodated.

Men in the kiln drying course will be here for two weeks, and those taking the work in boxing, crating, gluing of wood, and wood properties and uses will complete their studies in one week.

WICKS EXPLAINS ENGLISH UNIONS

British Journalist Lauds Labor Organizations in Bascom Hall Speech

"Unless you have been following British politics carefully you may think we have been having a revolution in England, but we do not have such things there these days," said Sidney F. Wicks of the Manchester Guardian speaking in Bascom hall yesterday afternoon on "The Labor Government and the Labor Party of England."

"The basis of labor in England is the trade union," Mr. Wicks went on to say. "The Labor party has a history of its own and cannot be compared with labor organizations in other countries."

The trade unions are not understood in other countries because they appear only occasionally in the newspapers when they have been violent, which occurs only spasmodically, Mr. Wicks pointed out.

The trade union has been led to believe that it could accomplish more for labor and national life as a political unit rather than as an economic unit, the speaker said. Then there came into contact with the trade union a remarkable force, the intellectual force.

"When I was 9 years old," Mr. Wicks said, "the first labor leader was elected to Parliament. Now there are 192 of them in Parliament."

Mr. Wicks praised Ramsay MacDonald, England's new Labor minister: "He possesses great moral elevation, he cannot be bought or bribed. He is the most widely traveled minister England ever had and has come in contact with labor leaders in every country in the civilized world."

"His greatest advantage is that he has had no experience in government. He knows nothing of European diplomacy—that is what makes English people want him as their minister."

Mr. Wicks said that there has been a belief that the New Testament should be the basis of all economic life. This is the idea that is behind the labor party, according to Mr. Wicks.

"Let us get the idea of world patriotism," he concluded. "Let us put aside bitterness and hatreds. And may Old Glory and the Union Jack, both strained with the blood of those who have died for freedom, ever float side by side."

FORMER MADISON HIGH ATHLETE COMING HERE

Glenn Brown, graduate of Madison high school and for two years star athlete at LaCrosse normal school now plans to enter the university next fall. Brown is in Madison now on a vacation. While at LaCrosse he was captain of the 1923-24 basketball team which won the normal school championship. He also played on the football team for two years.

"Petting Parties" Under Ban Inquiring Reporter Is Told

"The drive," that favorite spot of lovesick young couples, and the source of supply for Skyrocket's annual spring jokes, will lose some of its attraction when Chief of Police Thomas Shaughnessy's ruling on "petting parties" goes into effect.

Chief Shaughnessy has declared that he will send a motorcycle policeman around the drive every night to interrupt anyone who has stopped there for any other purpose than that of changing a tire or cleaning a spark plug.

When questioned over the telephone regarding the new rule, Chief Shaughnessy demanded,

"What's the big idea: are you planning to do some sparking yourself?"

The reporter with her sweetest voice hastened to deny any such intentions. The Chief chuckled.

"Where else besides Mendota drive are you going to look for petters?" the reporter inquired. The Chief exploded.

"Say, do you think I'm going to tell YOU that?"

Nevertheless, anyone who parks on any public highway or drive in the city limits "will find himself brought to court charged with obstructing or disturbing the peace."

Wesleyans Give Benefit Play For Foreign Students

The Wesley players of the University Methodist church gave a performance of "The Rock" for the benefit of the student friendship drive Thursday night at the Christ Presbyterian church.

"The Rock" by Mary P. Nandin, is a religious drama dealing with the crucifixion of Christ. It was presented by the Wesley players last Sunday and was enthusiastically received by the audience. The play was given first prize in a contest conducted by the Drama League of America. It is non-sectarian in character, though distinctly religious.

The benefit performance united the campus churches and gave Madison people an opportunity to contribute to the student friendship fund. While the Wesley players is an organization of the University Methodist church, other campus churches cooperated in publicity, solicitation, and ushering at the play.

Mrs. Pittman Potter, assisted by A. D. Ludden of the chemistry department, coached the play.

EIGHT WOMEN'S TENNIS COURTS IN SHAPE SOON

Eight tennis courts will soon be ready for women players. This is the report of the physical education department. At present the courts are soft and the nets are not yet placed. Players are requested not to use them until they are finished.

"We would like to have everyone cooperate with us in getting the courts ready. If they are played on now, it will take longer to get them prepared. Marking them off with sticks and playing on them now will only delay the work," said Miss Myra Emery, of the physical education department, who is in charge of women's tennis this semester.

ATHLETICS IN THE
COLLEGIATE WORLD1,000 ATHLETES ARE ENTERED IN KANSAS RELAYS5 Conference Teams Entered;
Iowa Seems to Have Best Chances

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 18—More than 1,000 athletes from 100 universities, colleges, military academies and high schools of fifteen states are entered for the second annual University of Kansas Relays here tomorrow. The states represented are Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, California, New Hampshire, Texas, Oregon and Oklahoma.

The Kansas Relays program includes seventeen relays and nine special events, and one extra event, the 400 metre hurdles which is to be run by Ivan Riley of the Illinois Athletic club and Earl Frazier of Baylor university, Texas, both of whom are considered sure members of the American Olympic team this year. Riley and Frazier each hold numerous hurdle records.

Entries Increased

The Kansas games have drawn a entry list of 20 more institutions than did the first Kansas relays last year. The event will open the outdoor track season in the middle east and will give the first good line on the ability of athletes to perform out doors, all of which means that the performance here will be especially interesting to coaches having hopes of their men making the Olympic team.

All of the universities, colleges and other class institutions which won in the relays last year are back to defend their titles to meet records with the exception of Illinois which won the four mile. The Illinois which won the four mile. The Illinois are having a dual meet on the coast this Saturday and will be represented in the Kansas relays only by two weight men.

Five Big Ten Entries

Five Western conference schools are entered, being Illinois, Iowa, Northwestern, Minnesota and Wisconsin. All of the Missouri Valley conference schools are also entered except Missouri, Iowa is favored to win several of the university class relays as the Hawkeyes are bringing a large list of men and are entered in all the relays and all the special events with one or two exceptions. Most of the Missouri Valley conference schools have entered in most of the events of the program.

Springlike weather has been prevailing here for two weeks and should any kind of favorable day dawn for the meet there will doubtless be some new meet records hung up by the fast field of entries.

Firemen, Police,
Besiege Crazy
Man In Baraboo

BARABOO.—(Special)—

It required the combined efforts of two fire companies, a dozen or so special policemen, and several hundred citizens of Baraboo to take into custody Richard Brandt, 37, when he went violently insane and barricaded himself in his home at 217 First ave. Thursday night.

Armed with a butcher knife in each hand, Brandt held his pursuers at bay for nearly four hours. Attempts to drive him out with gas only served to drive him upstairs. He relinquished ground slowly and finally made his forte on the roof of the house from where he defied the crowd and officers, throwing bricks from the chimney at any one who dared come within his range.

He was finally captured by a squad composed of Sheriff W. H. Ode, Police Chief Otto Harmel, Night Patrolman Roy Capener, and Deputies Michael Pelouquin, A. C. Allen and Frank Schuster. He was handcuffed, hands and feet, and taken by auto to the asylum at Mendota. Brandt was committed to the asylum in January, and released again about six weeks later.

The first home baseball game of the season takes place today when the Badgers meet Northwestern out at Mr. Randall's field. The old peanut shucking, gum chewing, pop bottle throwing crowd will be there.

Spring football practice will begin next Monday. Eighty candidates turned out for spring practice at Northwestern last week.

More than 200 games will be played at the Independent, Block, and Intercollegiate baseball leagues this spring. Who says the national pastime is losing popularity?

S. S. T.

At the coming first annual high school relay carnival to be held here in May, the athletic department plans to take moving pictures of the finish of all the relay races. This is to make sure that in case of close finishes the judges made no mistakes in picking the winner.

The contractor who is building the new stadium at Minnesota must have the 50,000 seats finished by Nov. 1, or pay $2 apiece for each one that is unfinished.

Hi Spots: The lake is open so is the hospital at Mendota, so beware you early season swimmers.

This is great news for the pony oxford tossing experts. The intramural committee is planning a horse shoe tournament for this spring.

The armory annex appears forlorn and deserted now with track and baseball teams practicing at Randall.

Dear Spots: The soccer team deserves a world of credit (as Roundy would say) for getting out on lower campus and slipping around in the mud for two hours trying to take a good substantial kick at that ball.—Jimmy G.

A hint for the little fellows, sometimes rudely called shrimps or shorties. Go out for coxswain of the crew: it's one way a small man can win a "W".

Ekern Opens Fight On Chicago Drainage Plan

WASHINGTON—Herman Ekern, attorney general of Wisconsin, today continued his attack before the house rivers and harbors committee on the Hull bill for the diversion of Lake Michigan water for Chicago sewage purposes.

Mr. Ekern asserting that Chicago has abundant means to install a modern sewage disposal plant charge the city has wasted great sums in propaganda in favor of the bill. He showed a full page advertisement which, he said, had appeared in every Wisconsin paper urging leaders to back the measure.

The witness was of the opinion that in future bargainings with Canada over water diversion the U. S. would be at a great disadvantage if the proposed diversion were authorized.

Victors Come Up From Behind;
Watch Charms to Be Awarded

Championship in the Wisconsin Intramural Basketball league went to the Elliot five last night when they out-scored the Knollins, 17 to 12 in a fast game. The match was closely contested throughout, the Elliotts winning only in the last few minutes of play.

Good work by Cartwright, Lounsberry, and Wing gave the lead to the Knollins in the first half by a 7 to 5 count, as Jacobs and Plettner, of the Elliotts, were held to two field goals and one free throw.

In the second half, however, Jacobs let loose. Helped by Zeischold, the game was evened up in the third quarter, and won in the latter part of the fourth.

Jacobs Stars

With six field ringers and one free throw to his credit, Jacobs, forward for the Elliotts, was the big light of the battle. Anderson, on the other hand, sank the greater number of baskets for the losers.

Watch charms will be given to the Elliott players by George Berg, director of intramural athletics, as awards for clinching the Wisconsin league title.

This game closes the intramural basketball play for this season. An even bigger response than the one this year is expected by George Berg in next year's play.

MUSIC APPRECIATION IS OBJECT OF MEN'S CLUB

To educate a greater number of students in the appreciation of good music is the purpose of the organization of the Men's Music club recently started by the students for the promotion of a higher standard of music among men, in the University of Texas.

The musical programs which are arranged by the club include enough popular material to be appreciated by an ordinary audience seeking amusement, and yet have enough permanent value to appeal to the discriminating taste.

Membership in the Men's Music club is by invitation only, and the members are chosen by their interest in musical activities.

GREEKS ARRANGE FOR TENNIS PLAY

Representatives from 24 fraternities met yesterday noon in the trophy room of the gym and made arrangements for the entry of their teams in this season's fraternity tennis play. E. P. Meyer, Phi Alpha Delta, L. L. Stebbins, Phi Sigma Kappa, and S. R. Durand, Sigma Chi, were appointed as committee in charge.

Four leagues of six fraternity teams each will be formed, round-robin play to start the latter part of next week. Each chapter will put a team in the field, each team not to exceed four men in number. One doubles entry and two singles entry will be allowed each fraternity.

The four squads which top each league will engage in an elimination match for the championship after the round-robin schedule has been completed. Another meeting will be held in the trophy room next Wednesday noon to arrange pairings.

TICKET SALE PLAN
STILL UNDECIDEDHunter Makes Recommendation to Council; Coupon
Books on Sale

Plans for the sale of football tickets next fall are still hanging fire. Recommendations were made to the athletic council January 2 by Paul Hunter, who is in charge of the ticket sales. The council has acted upon these recommendations but there are still several minor points yet to be decided. Until these details are settled Mr. Hunter does not wish to make any definite statement in regard to the method of sale.

The athletic council desires to improve upon the method of selling tickets used in previous years so that the student body, the alumni and the general public will all be satisfied.

Tomorrow the athletic department will offer to the students its annual spring bargain in the way of ticket sales. Coupon books containing tickets to 11 spring contests seven of them for baseball games, three for tennis matches and one for the quadrangular track meet will be sold for $2. If these contests were to be paid for individually at the regular student rate of 50 cents per game the price would amount to $5.50.

Coupon books can be secured at the office of Mr. Hunter tomorrow and they will also be placed on sale at the Wisconsin-Northwestern baseball game tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The supply of these books is limited, only 200 being placed on sale tomorrow.

NINE LOOKS LIKE
WINNER AGAINST
PURPLE STICKERSClash With Northwestern at 2:30 at Camp Randall
This Afternoon

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Coach Lowman's warriors climb onto the diamond at Camp Randall for the first home game of the season, with every prospect of trimming their opponent, Northwestern and keeping their record clean.

This is the second conference tilt of the year, the Cardinals having taken Chicago by an 8 to 6 count last Tuesday. The nine is up on its toes and looks like conference champs, and barring accidents and upsets should come through the season with flying colors.

Team Good Hitters

Either Johnson or Christianson is slated to start on the mound with the same lineup in the infield and garden that vanquished Chicago and won four out of the six training trip games.

A gang of two fisted, hard hitting sluggers is what Wisconsin has needed more than anything else during the past few years, and the coach sure has uncovered some ball mauling bat wielders in this year's outfit.

Emanuel, in the field, has been pounding the pill unmercifully, and socked out a homer against Armour Tech. He has never played conference ball before, but is showing considerable promise for the experience he has had.

Goss, whom the coach moved from third to the key stone sack is another heavy slugger, and covers his position in clever style. Tange is a new man at third but is fast and a sure fielder, as well as a fair hitter.

Aschenbrenner Good

Capt. Eddie Aschenbrenner is one of the best backstops in the Big Ten and is a handy man to have around when it comes to polling out triples and the like. He had some hard luck on the Southern trip, and hit into a disastrous double play at Chicago, but is nevertheless reliable and accurate.

Johnny has been hitting well, and is the exception that proves the rule that pitchers are poor hitters. His flinging has improved to a considerable degree this spring, and his control is far better than it was last season.

The game is called for 2:30 o'clock sharp and seats will go on sale at the gate. Coupon books for the entire season, costing $2 each, will also be sold.

PLAY BALL

The calendar says that spring is here on March 21; the fashion designer calls Easter the landmark; various others have similar notions about the opening of the season for outdoor sports, but one sure sign is the crack of the bat. The ear of America is tuned for the first game of the season; from the youngster in the grade school to the veteran of the training camp all wait anxiously for the umpire's call.

There is something about the game of baseball that fascinates the normal American to the point of a craze. Forty thousand fans crowded into the park to see the Yanks play their opening game in New York last Tuesday; every other big league team played to a capacity crowd at its opener.

Wisconsin goes to bat at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Camp Randall. Northwestern will be the opponent of the Cardinal in the first home game of the Big Ten season. The Purple will be a worthy foe on the diamond; its baseball teams have often taken rank with its swimmers in the past.

Prospects for a contending team this year are brighter than they have been for several years. The Badgers already have disposed of one Big Ten opponent. The final standing will be determined largely by the support they receive from the bleachers. Our batting average today should be about 2,500.

You're on deck.

A NEW DECALOGUE

Medicine and surgery, as every one knows, have made tremendous strides during the last century, and the last decade in particular. Who knows but what it may be only a matter of a few more years before an absolute cure for the dreaded cancer will be discovered? In every branch of medicine scientists are fast nearing the point where they will have a cure for everything and anything.

Because these facts are true, nevertheless, is no reason why people should more and more bank on the devices of science, and mortgage their health as they are reported to be doing. Life is speeding up faster and faster, and we are ever becoming more careless of our health. We go and go and go, night after night; ride everywhere; eat anything which pleases our palates.

On the ground that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," doctors are advocating methods to prevent illness. Along with the doctors comes Miss Maria Leonard, dean of women at the University of Illinois, with a decalogue for health which seems uncommonly sound. Here it is—

Eat less, chew more.
Ride less, walk more.
Clothe less, bathe more.
Worry less, worry more.
Idle less, play more.
Talk less, think more.

Go less, sleep more.
Waste less, give more.
Scold less, laugh more.
Preach less, practice more.

Health at its best, says Dean Leonard, means resistance to disease, relaxation from mental tension, regularity at all times, re-creative power in work and play, and a radiance from life abundant.

Mendota Is Not Healthy Place.
To Be In Storm, Jones Warns

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Thomas E. Jones, physical director, has been kind enough to contribute the following article to The Cardinal warning students of the dangers of being careless on Lake Mendota.

By THOMAS E. JONES

The Cardinal is certainly to be commended for its editorial the morning of April 17 warning the students of the dangers of getting on Lake Mendota too early. The cooperation of The Cardinal is certainly appreciated, but it will also be necessary for the students to cooperate in the observance of the rules to prevent the loss of life.

The bright sun and warm breeze in the early spring is always a temptation to get on the lake, but the danger at this time is particularly great due to the intense coldness of the water. No matter how warm the sun shines, the water in Lake Mendota is icy cold and it warms up very slowly.

Of course there is always more or less danger of canoes upsetting, and for that reason very rigid rules have been drafted, a city ordinance passed, and a University Life Saving Station maintained in an effort to prevent the loss of life, but it is only the cooperation of the students which will make this possible.

Too few people realize the great danger of being thrown into the icy cold water. An expert swimmer with a most rugged constitution would only be able to remain above the surface a very few minutes. The numbing cold of the water would soon make swimming impossible and likewise the struggle to remain above the surface until the lifeboat arrives.

Human life is far too sacred to be risked, yes, sacrificed by the venturesome, yet in the past many canoeists have evaded or violated the rules, thereby endangering not only their own lives but the lives of others whom they induced to enter the canoe or boat with them.

Students must accept a personal responsibility in cooperating with the university life saving station by complying in every way with the rules and the city ordinance. Every student should familiarize himself with those rules, with the provisions of the ordinance and with the warning signals and should see that they are rigidly observed. Only when this is done will the beautiful lake continue to be the great asset to the University of Wisconsin that it is capable of being.

For the benefit of all, the provisions of the city ordinance and the warning signals are published below:

Section 1. That all canoes, row boats, sail boats, and motor boats shall carry one government inspected life preserver for each passenger when on the waters of Lake Mendota.

Section 2. That canoes sixteen feet or under in length shall not carry more than two passengers; that canoes over sixteen and under eighteen feet in length shall not carry over three passengers.

Section 3. That the Life Guard shall have authority to determine the passenger capacity of all canoes over eighteen feet in length, all row boats, and all motor boats not already under city inspection, and shall determine the fitness of persons to handle such craft.

Section 4. That all swimmers along the City and University shores shall remain within the buoy line established by the Life Guard, except when accompanied by a canoe or boat which carries an extra life preserver for each swimmer so accompanied.

Section 5. That no swimming shall be permitted from sail boats when said sail boats are under sail.

Section 6. That any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, or refusing to obey the orders of the Life Guard when said person is on or in the waters of Lake Mendota, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

WARNING STORM SIGNALS

(Explanation—When storm is approaching that threatens danger on the lake the university life saving service will warn canoeists and others by sounding the university fog horn, as follows:)

1. General warning—approaching storm—Three short blasts, 15 seconds duration each, with 15 seconds intervals. All canoeists should leave the open water and keep near the shore.

2. Special—storm coming rapidly—Continuous repetition of general warning. Leave water quickly.

3. Cardinal call—long blast—One or two minutes as may be necessary. Will be used only to call the Cardinal or Isabell when it is away from the boat house.

Readers Say-So

RUSSIAN TRUTH

Editor, The Cardinal:
I read Professor Rostovzeff's speech attacking Russia and Mr. Bassett and I wish to refute the erroneous ideas created. I have known Bassett, Bender and Miss Zaturenska for a considerable length of time and have studied Russia for the last six years.

Professor Rostovzeff accuses Russia neglecting and even stifling education, but so hard pressed is the professor, that he must needs tell the ruth and presume that people are too ignorant to understand plain English. For instance, he says, "Only the proletariat have the class privilege of education," this speaks for itself when we know that the proletariat comprises not only the factory workers but also the white collar slaves and that class, the dirt farmers. Thus over 95% of Russia's population has the privilege of an education. Formerly Russia was notorious for her illiteracy.

The Professor next makes his gravest charge, that there is no thinking and that free thought is prohibited. Here in America with the finest public school system, libraries, university extension bureaus, etc., we have the least thinking, and with a few possible exceptions as Italy or Spain, the least free thought despite the fact that we have no need of a dictatorship. In Russia on the other hand, there is more real thinking than in any other country.

The figures on education are particularly misleading without explanation of what is going on in Russia. What des he say of the factory schools, the continuation schools that did not exist before but are now turning out hundreds of thousands of graduates?
If Mr. Bassett had taken his material from the Russian Izvestia or Pravda, the German Rote Fahne, or our own Daily Worker or Liberator, I doubt if it would be published. He might have been expelled for communist propaganda and you surely would have dismissed it with, "Clearly now, that is bolshevik propaganda." Professor Sorokine while claiming to take it from communist papers so twisted and garbled it that it was almost beyond recognition. If we are too immature to think for ourselves, why doesn't the Professor answer Mr. Berger's reply to Professor Sorokine—March 11th Capital Times?

ASKS FOR IMPROVEMENT

Editor, the Cardinal:
I would like to ask if air pressure closers cannot be put on the two doors forming the main entrance to Bascom hall. Probably this is the wrong place to make such a request, but I and many other students feel that something should be done.

It is a matter of general knowledge that whenever people go through the main entrance the doors are a menace. Somebody is always getting hit, and everybody must always be on the look-out that he is not a victim of these heavy portals. Furthermore traffic is invariably held up between classes because of the care which each person must exercise in entering Bascom hall. One cannot always stop to hold the door for the next student.

Y. W. FACULTY DRIVE
NEARS COMPLETION

The Y. W. C. A. faculty drive being conducted by the Y. W. C. A. cabinet has netted $408 of the $500 quota.

The drive is officially over, but there are still some faculty members who have not been reached and the Y. W. C. A. will get in touch with these by telephone during the next week.

"There is no doubt that the quota will be reached," said Helen Winkelman, '24, finance chairman of the Y. W. C. A. "It is only a question of reaching all the faculty members."

MANY STUDENTS IN MAIL COURSE

Total of 30,000 in Many Lands
Study Under Extension Division

30,000 students are enrolled in 490 different courses that are offered by the University Extension Division according to statistics of last year, said Mrs. Smith, recorder.

Seventy per cent of these people are state residents. Among the 30 per cent out-of-state students are 400 foreigners who are receiving instruction in their own homes in the mines of India, in Africa, in Norway and Sweden, and in Alaska.

The courses are of two natures, those for which university credit is given when preceded by the proper high school or college requisites, and the vocational and informational courses which carry no credit.

English, education, romance languages, and history are the most popular credit courses, while business and engineering are most in demand for vocational work. At present the short story course is receiving a great deal of attention.

Sixty-four per cent of those enrolled are men and 36 per cent women. Men between 35 and 40 are numerous in the engineering courses, and last year a woman 80 years old, from an up state section, took the course in geology.

Grades run about the same as on the hill. The grades of the 80 students at the state penitentiary, however, were possibly a little higher than those of the average resident student.

Besides offering courses of study the Extension Division sends out traveling libraries and material for debating, public discussion,

Lake Mendota Low This Year, Little Danger of Floods

Lake Mendota is at the lowest level for this season of the year that it has reached for two years, according to a comparison of the reading at the city gauge last night with the records for 1922 and 1923. The level yesterday was 1.14, compared with 2.6 last year and 2.25 in 1922. The normal level is 1.5.

With the ice and snow gone from the banks of the lake the danger of flood has practically passed for this year, but precautions are still being taken in the event of a sudden rise. But one stop log has been placed at the outlet to the lake, and no others will be placed until all danger of floods has passed, according to James Mackin, engineer at the sewage pumping station.

"Lake Mendota is drawn on in winter time, and used as a reservoir in the spring," said Mr. Mackin.

ing rooms as no other place could take care of a similar number.

In addition to Professor Otto's speech short talks and an entertainment will be given by the students.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at this meeting. The nominating committee consists of Gladys Cameron '26, Alfred Stamm, grad, and James Watson '24.

Sketch-pad Follies to Feature Unique Lighting on May 17

Unique lighting effects and conventional settings will be featured in the Sketch-pad Follies to be held at the Central High school on May 17 under the auspices of the Applied and Industrial Education department.

"At present the entire department is busy making costumes and settings," said Samuel Himelfarb, general chairman of the production.

"We have just received specially designed cloth for costume making, so as to bring out the various lighting effects to be used in the production."

The show is to consist of eight acts, each one having a different setting with a different idea.

The chairman of the committees of the production are Frank Renner, general stage manager, Frederick Buerki, properties and settings, Richard Yeo, business manager.

Strife and Battle Ideas in Lecture

"We must eliminate war and the idea of war in the United States and we must adopt, cooperatively, a constructive program for Europe," John F. Sinclair, banker and former resident of Madison who has been traveling in Europe for six months studying financial conditions, said, in his address in Music hall Thursday.

"To accomplish this the people should be given the referendum on the question of war, manufacture of munitions should cease, the sale of munitions should cease, the foreign policy should be redefined, the army and navy departments should be combined under one head.

"To form a constructive program for Europe all nations, debtors and creditors alike, should meet together in a conference, preferably at Washington, D. C., where measures in regard to tariff, military activity, extension of credit and granting of moratoriums should be acted upon."

That the Dawes report lacks practicality of execution and is unified only on non-essentials was the opinion of Mr. Sinclair.

WORLD MUST WELCOME CHRIST, SAYS MINISTER

"We remember just coming out of a war, the bloodiest war the world ever saw," said the Rev. J. M. Walters, pastor of the First Methodist church Thursday noon at the Holy Week service at the Strand theater.

"We look back and we find that 30,000,000 human lives were lost—hurled into eternity, and that hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property was destroyed," he said, "and thousands of children starving, sick and dying."

"We find that the world can't bear the burden any longer. To whom shall they turn? There is only one. The Christ. During the war Darwin's god was nowhere to be found; Darwin's bible was nowhere; Darwin's Christ was nothing. No man aspiring to be God can save the world! It requires a God condescending to be a man."

PROFESSOR WILL LEAD CHURCH CONGREGATION

Prof. C. P. McCord, who is now a teacher of English in Johnson Bible college, Kimbelsin Heights, Tenn., has accepted a call to the leadership of the First Christian church, recently organized here. He will assume his duties here the first Lord's day in June. Lord's morning the officers of the church will be ordained. Special Easter themes will be discussed at both morning and evening services.

Senator Walsh May Visit Here While In State

Senator Thomas Walsh, who has become a national figure since the investigations began of the Teapot Dome oil scandal in Washington, is going to visit his old home at Two Rivers, Wis. some time in June, according to reports from that city. It is probable that Sen. Walsh will also come to Madison to visit his sister, Mrs. Katherine Wattawa, 1813 Adams st.

According to reports from Two Rivers, Sen. Walsh has accepted an invitation of the Two Rivers American Legion post to return to his old haunts during the summer. The exact date of his coming will depend upon the senator's activities in Washington and he has been asked to set a time when he can conveniently leave the capital.

The Two Rivers Legion men state that a letter received from the Montana senator expresses keen delight in the thought of returning to his old home. When he leaves Two Rivers he will carry with him a ladder which he used about forty years ago when he lighted the street lamps in the village.

Senator Walsh undoubtedly will be asked to make at least one public speech while in the county.

MENDOTA INMATE COMMITTS SUICIDE

Is Second Asylum Victim
Within a Week to End
Life

Lottie Anderson, 62, of Waterloo, Wis., committed suicide by hanging at the Wisconsin state hospital for the insane at Mendota about noon on Thursday, the second suicide at that institution within a week.

Dr. M. K. Green, superintendent at the hospital, said Friday that every precaution is being taken to prevent any more such occurrences. This is being planned through increases in the staff of attendants, permitting closer personal supervision of the patients.

She was found dead in her room with a rope around her neck. She had been a patient at the hospital several times during almost a decade past. She was admitted the last time in March, 1923.

Fred Anderson, living between Marshall and Waterloo, is a brother. A sister resides in Iowa.

On Tuesday Miss Louisa Felix, another inmate at the institution was found dead, by strangulation.

DEPARTMENT CALLED TO TWO SMALL FIRES

Hot ashes in the basement of the residence of H. O. Loken, 1709 Jefferson st., resulted in an alarm being sent in to No. 4 fire station at 11:35 Friday morning. No damage was caused.

A rubbish fire in the 1,000 block on E. Wilson st. was extinguished by firemen from No. 3 station shortly before 11 o'clock Friday morning.

SECRETARY TO HEALTH BOARD TO BE CHOSEN

The city board of health will choose a new secretary when it meets next Tuesday night to reorganize for the coming year. The president is not elected until the annual meeting in June. Miss Katherine Corscot is president. Ald. R. F. Elver was secretary of the board but his place as council representative was taken by Ald. W. L. Woodward. Other members are Leo T. Crowley, Dr. H. E. Purcell and Herbert C. Schenk.

A new Spring Suit and Coat ---for tomorrow is Easter

It's not Easter unless we are wearing new apparel. A new suit and topcoat are necessary and here at the Co-op you are sure to find the style, the material and the price. We have specialized on the kind of clothing University men prefer, so you are sure to be pleased with our showings.

The Finest Suits

Some of the world's best tailors have contributed to our stocks of fine quality suits. They have heeded our suggestions in the cut of clothing so that they conform to the style that is wanted on the campus.

Others $30 to $60

Serviceable Topcoats

There's a lot of wear in a topcoat during these days of spring, and then next fall they are again in style. All of our spring coats are "cravenetted," which means that the materials have been so treated as to shed water as would a raincoat.

$30 $35

Others $27.50 to $50

CHECK UP ON YOUR EASTER WARDROBE

YOUR HAT

If it is to be tune with Spring 1924, it will have to be Campus Grey in color. A wide choice at $4 and $5.

SHIRT AND TIE

Oxford white, collar attached, is the prevailing favorite, although it can be varied with a faint line. The tie affords an opportunity for individuality.

HOSIERY AND SHOES

The shoes should be Nunn-Bush if you want to be assured of style and complete comfort. We have the hosiery too.
