

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Wisconsin alumnus football bulletin. Volume 58, Number 4 Oct. 29, 1956

[s.l.]: Wisconsin Alumni Association, Oct. 29, 1956

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/QGZB5COYM65WR83>

This material may be protected by copyright law (e.g., Title 17, US Code).

For information on re-use, see

<http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/Copyright>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

WISCONSIN ALUMNUS FOOTBALL BULLETIN

RECEIVED

NOV 6 1956

UNIV. WIS. LIBRARY

Serials Dept.

% Memorial Libr., Univ. of Wis.,
Madison 6, Wis.

Vol. 58 OCTOBER 29, 1956 No. 4

Published by the Wisconsin Alumni Association

Wisconsin 6, Purdue 6 Wisconsin 0, Ohio State 21

By Jim Mott

UW Sports News Service

WISCONSIN 6, PURDUE 6

October 20

"ALL THAT glitters is not necessarily gold!", as Wisconsin's Badgers discovered in a hard fought 6-6 struggle with Purdue on this Indian summer afternoon in Camp Randall Stadium.

A capacity crowd of 53,094 thrilled time and again as the Badgers rocked the Boilermakers down from the clouds—Purdue had whipped Notre Dame the Defense Shines . . .

but points have come hard for the Badgers. Here's an example. Guard Jon Hobbs partially blocked Purdue's Len Dawson's end-zone kick, the Badgers recovered on the seven—and couldn't go over.—(Wis. State Journal photo by Art Vinje.)

THE WISCONSIN ALUMNUS, published once monthly in December, January, February, March, April, May, June, July and September, and three times monthly in October and November. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Madison, Wis., under the act of March 3, 1879. Subscription price (included in membership dues of the Wisconsin Alumni Association) $2.50 a year; subscription to non-members, $5.00 a year. Editorial and business offices at 770 Langdon St., Madison 6, Wis. If any subscriber wishes his magazine discontinued at the expiration of his subscription, notice to that effect should be sent with the subscription, or at its expiration. Otherwise it is understood that a continuance is desired.

it's worth
any man's time...

to spend time with a National Guardian Life man . . . to review the insurance policies you hold . . . the financial problems you face today . . . obligations to come in the future — then to hear his studied, easy-to-understand recommendations. It may be that your present program, with proper and adequate use of settlement options, will be all that is required. Programming to specific needs is the specialized work of National Guardian Life men . . . and they do it without cost. Why not make an appointment? It will be time well spent.

And it's worth any woman's time, too.

National Guardian Life
Insurance Company

HOME OFFICE • MADISON

previous week, 28-14—but could not take advantage of the opportunities which were presented to chalk up the needed points to win.

Opportunities to score! Yes, indeed! Three times the Badgers were inside the Purdue 10 yard line with a first down situation, and twice more they were inside the Boilermaker 20 yard line, but alas, the men in Old Gold and Black rose to the occasion each time, and thwarted the threat to their goal line.

The Badgers made their only score of the game look simple in comparison to the later events that unfolded.

Purdue received the opening kickoff, but could gain only nine yards, so in a fourth down and one yard situation, Len Dawson, Purdue quarterback, punted to Wisconsin's Danny Lewis on the Badger 25. He came back seven yards to the 32.

In eight quick plays, the Badgers crossed the goalline of the Boilermakers. Captain Pat Levenhagen carried for three plays, gained 20 yards, 15 of them on a twisting run through the Purdue middle; Ron Carlson, on an option, carried for nine, and had his only pass play of the series ruled complete by reason of interference; John Bridgeman gained four yards on his only rush; and Dan Lewis carried twice for 31 yards, with his 30 yard end sweep climaxing the drive. On the TD run, key blocks were thrown by Bridgeman, Levenhagen, Guard Bill Gehler, and Tackle Rocco Cinelli, and Lewis outran the last Purdue defender, Dawson.

Glenn Bestor's extra point attempt was wide, and that was his first miss this season after five straight previous conversions.

The Boilermakers made only four journeys into Badgerland all afternoon, and their first trip was the one they used to bring about the tie score, midway through the second quarter.

Starting on their own 20 yard line after Wisconsin's Paul Brostrom had missed an attempted 26 yard field goal, they moved 80 yards in 13 plays for the TD. Key play in the drive was the fourth play of the series, with a fourth down and just inches for a first down, Dawson, on a quarterback sneak, made the needed yardage, and the drive was sustained.

It's Easier

From 30 Yards Out

Inside the ten-yard line against Purdue, the Badgers could muster no scoring punch. The first time in the game that Wisconsin got the ball, though, the team pushed over for six points. At right is the scene as stellar halfback Danny Lewis took off on an end sweep, behind excellent blocking. To see where he went from the Purdue 30 yard line, turn the page.

In the following nine plays, Dawson threw four passes, completed all of them for 49 yards, and the final throw of eight yards was complete to end Lamar Lundy for the score. Dawson pitched on two other occasions to Lundy for 13 and 18 yards, and another time to halfback Ken Mikes for 10 yards. Fullback Mel Dillard carried six times during the march for 24 yards, and Mikes carried twice for five yards.

Dawson's attempted extra point was wide, and the score was deadlocked 6-6. The missed conversion was Dawson's first of the year, after eight without a miss in the first three games.

Purdue's other excursions into Badger territory were brief, and always the Badgers contained them. Near the end of the second quarter, Purdue started from its own 20 yard line, after intercepting a Carlson pass in the end zone, and had moved to Wisconsin's 38 when the half ended.

Late in the third quarter, the Boilermakers started again from their 20 yard line, after Blackmun's fumble was recovered in the end zone, and moved to the Wisconsin 43, where the Badgers stiffened and forced Dawson to punt down to the Badger 13 yard line. Three plays later, though, Levenhagen had the Boilermakers back on their heels, as he quick-kicked 66 yards to Purdue's 19 yard line, and on the exchange of kicks —Dawson had punted on fourth down

Wisconsin 6, Purdue 6

TEAM STATISTICS

	Wis.	Purdue
FIRST DOWNS
Rushing	7	9
Passing	1	9
Penalty	1	0
NET RUSHING YARDAGE	132	131
Number of rushes	43	50
NET PASSING YARDAGE	13	153
Number of passes	6	26
Passes completed	1	15
Passes intercepted by	2	2
PUNTS BY	7	6
Total punt yardage	299	187
FUMBLES BY	4	4
Fumbles lost by	2	3
PENALTIES ON	4	5
Yards lost on penalties	30	44

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS

(Wisconsin)
	Att.	Comp.	Int.	Yds.
Passing
Carlson	3	0	2	0
Lewis	3	1	0	13
Pass Receiving
Bridgeman	1			13
Rushing
	Att.	Net	Ave.
Bestor	5	8	1.6
Bridgeman	8	40	5.0
Blackmun	1	0	0.0
Levenhagen	7	32	4.6
Lewis	11	55	5.0
Lowe	1	-2	-2.0
Carlson	10	-1	-0.1
Punting
	Punts	Total Yds.	Ave.
Levenhagen	7	299	42.7
Score by quarters:
Wisconsin:	6	0	0	0-6
Purdue:	0	6	0	0-6

... and down to pay dirt.

from the Purdue 25—the Badgers gained 30 yards, taking over on their own 45, where they could breathe much easier.

With a little over a minute of playing time left, Purdue took possession of the ball on the mid-field strip, and Dawson had time for five pass plays, three of which were complete, the last one to halfback Erich Barnes on the Wisconsin 26 as the game ended.

For the Badgers the game was one of situations—non-scoring situations.

Following the Badger tally, Purdue moved to a first down at mid-field, but here Glenn Bestor broke through and nailed Dawson for a 14 yard loss, and when Dawson fumbled, Rocco Cinelli recovered. Bridgeman then uncorked a 14 yard end sweep, and Levenhagen banged to the 19, but here Carlson's second intercepted pass of the afternoon was snagged by Purdue's Dillard and he returned to the Purdue 20 yard line. End of situation number one.

An exchange of punts followed. Tom Fletcher of the Boilermakers fumbled when hit, and Martin Booher recovered for the Badgers on the opposition 24. Carlson and Levenhagen moved the ball to the 15, but here an illegal motion penalty and a holding infraction set up Brostrom's field goal attempt—which was short. End of situation number two.

An intercepted pass by John Bridge-man set up a first down for Wisconsin on the Purdue 38 yard line, late in the second quarter, but here a delay of game penalty and a stiff Purdue defense thwarted the Badgers and Levenhagen punted out of bounds on the Purdue 6. A clipping penalty put the ball on Purdue's 1 yard line, and on fourth down, Jon Hobbs broke through to block Dawson's kick.

The Badgers had first down on the Purdue 7 yard line here, but after Billy Lowe had been spilled for a two yard loss, Carlson's second down pass was intercepted in the end zone by Dawson for a touchback. End of situation number three.

In the early moments of the third quarter, Dick Kolian intercepted a Dawson pass on the Purdue 28 after Dave Howard had deflected the ball, and ran it back to the Purdue 7 yard line.

Three running plays moved the ball to the 3 and here on fourth down, Carlson tried a pitchout to Bridgeman, but Purdue's Erich Barnes, a whale of a defensive halfback, knocked the ball down, and recovered for Purdue on the 12 yard line. End of situation number four.

Two plays later came the final golden opportunity, but here, too, the "King Midas" touch was lacking for the Badgers. Bestor slammed hard into Purdue's Fletcher, and Lewis was there to recover the fumble. Wisconsin had a first down on the Purdue 13, and three plays picked up 11 yards and a first down on the 2. Then, Bestor twice tried to slam over for the score, but the ball still rested on the 2 yard line. On third down, Gil Blackmun, at quarterback in place of Carlson, tried a boot-leg around the left side of the line, but Barnes was there to break up the play, and, when Blackmun fumbled, the ball rolled out of the end zone, with a Purdue man the last man to touch it.

Coach Milt Bruhn had nothing but praise for his team after the rugged battle, and was particularly pleased with the performance of the sophomores—End Dave Kocourek, Tackle Rocco Cinelli, Guard Jon Hobbs, Centers Art Bloedorn and Dick Teteak, and Quarterback Ron Carlson. Bruhn added: "I felt we played as well today as against Southern California. It was a real effort, and the boys did a real fine job."

Purdue's head coach, Jack Mollenkopf, also in his first year as a head coach, commented, "(Jon) Hobbs did a beautiful job for the Badgers while he was in there." Hobbs not only blocked the punt by Dawson, but also deflected Dawson's pass that Bridgeman intercepted, and in general gave the Boilermakers a fit all afternoon.

The punting of Pat Levenhagen also was a factor in the game. Pat punted seven times for an average of 42.7 yards, and he placed three kicks out of bounds inside the Purdue 10 yard line—on the 6, 5, and 9 yard lines during the course of the game. His 66 yard quick kick put the Boilermakers back on their heels early in the fourth quarter when the Badgers had the ball on their own 15.

—Milwaukee Journal photos.

SCORING TIMETABLE

First Quarter:

Wisconsin stopped Purdue on downs on the first series of running plays after the opening kickoff, then, following Purdue's punt, moved 68 yards in 8 plays for the initial score of the game. Danny Lewis climaxed the drive with a 30 yard end run for the TD. Glenn Bestor's attempt for the extra point was wide.

Time left—10:20. Wisconsin 6, Purdue 0.

Second Quarter:

A Wisconsin field goal attempt by Tackle Paul Brostrom was short, and Purdue took over on its own 20 yard line. The Boiler-makers marched the 80 yards in 13 plays, with Quarterback Len Dawson attempting and completing four passes during the drive—passes that accounted for 49 yards, including the payoff pitch to Left End Lamar Lundy, good for eight yards. Dawson's attempted extra point was not good.

Time left—7:42. Wisconsin 6, Purdue 6.

OHIO STATE 21, WISCONSIN 0

October 27

A METHODICAL Ohio State team, gearing its offense to a sharp ground attack, and taking advantage of key Wisconsin fumbles, moved past the Badgers 21-0 before 82,661 people in Ohio Stadium.

The win was the 15th in succession for the Buckeyes over the past three seasons in Big Ten play, and maintained the jinx for the Badgers who have never won in Ohio Stadium. The last Wisconsin victory in Columbus was achieved way back in 1918.

The Buckeyes settled the outcome of the game near the end of the first quarter when they marched 55 yards in six plays, with a fine hard-running back, sophomore Don Clark, running the final 23 yards for the score on a slash off Wisconsin's right tackle.

The Badgers, who had stopped an earlier Ohio State drive on their 15 yard line, took the ensuing kickoff, after a 15 yard holding penalty, from their own 11 down to the Buckeye 15 yard line, where a fourth down thrust by right halfback Earl Hagberg, a sophomore, stopped the only serious Wisconsin threat to the Ohio goal all afternoon.

That Wisconsin 74-yard march required 16 plays, with another sophomore, quarterback Gil Blackmun at the helm of the attack. Blackmun ran the entire march on the ground, and showed fine running ability himself, gaining 31 yards in five carries, with other help coming from Dan Lewis, Pat Levenhagen, Gene Melvin and John Bridgeman.

Having removed this bid by the Badgers for a tying score, the Buckeyes added their second tally 13 plays later, as they marched directly down the field for the score. Again, sophomore Clark—who possibly plagued the Badgers as much as "Hopalong" Cassidy ever did—played an important role in the scoring drive.

Clark reeled off runs of 12, 15, 2, 2, 6, 7, and 15 yards during the Ohio drive to the Wisconsin one-yard line, where Quarterback Frank Ellwood took over and sneaked the ball into the end zone.

The Badgers had one spurt left before the end of the half, driving to Ohio's 29, where Blackmun's fourth down pass was incomplete to end Earl Hill. After that, the Badgers were contained in their own territory except for an advance to the Buckeye 32 mid-way in the fourth quarter. Dan Lewis then reeled off a 26 yard run to the Ohio 42,

BIG 10 STANDINGS

	W	L	T	Pct.	TP	OP
Iowa	3	0	0	1.000	61	27
Ohio State	2	0	0	1.000	47	6
Minnesota	3	0	1	.875	57	34
Mich. State	2	1	0	.667	75	26
Michigan	1	2	0	.333	41	49
Illinois	1	2	0	.333	39	55
Indiana	1	2	0	.333	25	93
Purdue	0	2	1	.167	40	48
Wisconsin	0	2	1	.167	13	40
Northwestern	0	2	1	.167	33	53

OTHER SCORES

October 20

Michigan 34, Northwestern 20
 Minnesota 16, Illinois 13
 Michigan State 47, Notre Dame 14
 Penn State 7, Ohio State 6
 Iowa 34, Hawaii 0
 Indiana 19, Nebraska 14
 College of Pacific 28, Marquette 6
 Southern California 35, Washington 7

October 27

Illinois 20, Michigan State 13
 Minnesota 20, Michigan 7
 Iowa 21, Purdue 20
 Indiana 19, Northwestern 13

Wisconsin 0, Ohio State 21

★ From the Sidelines . . .

. . . by the Association Staff

TEAM STATISTICS

	Wis.	Ohio S.
First Downs
Rushing	12	18
Passing	2	1
Penalty	0	0
NET RUSHING YARDAGE	202	293
Number of rushes	56	67
NET PASSING YARDAGE	44	28
Number of passes	10	5
Passes completed	4	1
Passes intercepted by	1	1
PUNTS BY	3	3
Total punt yardage	57	105
FUMBLES BY	6	2
Fumbles lost by	4	0
PENALTIES ON	4	2
Yards lost on penalties	26	20

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS

(Wisconsin)

Passing	Att.	Comp.	Int.	Yds.
Blackmun	9	4	1	44
Lewis	1	0	0	0

Pass Receiving	Caught	Yardage	TD
Hagberg	1	15	0
Melvin	1	9	0
Kocourek	2	20	0

Rushing	Att.	Net	Ave.
Bestor	2	-7	-3.5
Bridgeman	10	24	2.4
Blackmun	9	39	4.3
Levenhagen	5	16	3.2
Lewis	15	87	5.8
Lowe	1	1	1.0
Melvin	3	19	6.3
Williams	4	8	2.0
Hagberg	7	15	2.1

Punting	Punts	Total Yds	Ave.
Levenhagen	1	18	18.0
Bestor	2	41	20.5

Score by quarters:

Wisconsin:	0	0	0	0—0
Ohio State:	7	7	0	7—21

and Blackmun passed complete to end Dave Kocourek on the 32, but here Blackmun's second down pass was intercepted, and with it died the Badgers last chance for a score.

Near the end of the third quarter, the Buckeyes took advantage of a fumble by Wisconsin on an attempted punt, and Ohio's Dick Guy recovered on Wisconsin's 13 yard line. Six plays later, Ellwood sneaked over for the score. 13:14 was the time remaining on the clock, but neither team could muster much of a sustained drive, although Ohio State did penetrate to Wisconsin's 14 late in the game. Sidney Williams intercepted a rare Ohio pass to end the threat.

Coach Milt Bruhn again took heart at the performance of his sophomores, and except for some costly fumbles, and the absence of Quarterback Ron Carlson, which dictated that the Badgers do less passing than anticipated, the outcome may have been different.

Carlson, sidelined by a sprained wrist, turned the quarterbacking over to Sidney Williams and Gil Blackmun, and while they directed the Badgers to 202 yards net on the ground, they discovered, "you don't beat Ohio State at its own game", and that was the story of the game. The Buckeyes rushed for 293 yards net on the ground, and the fact that the Badgers outgained them in the air, 44 to 28 yards, was immaterial.

Another important factor was in the fumbles column of the post-game statistics. Wisconsin fumbled six times, lost the ball on four of those occasions to the Buckeyes. Ohio State fumbled twice, and did not lose the ball either time—in fact, they have not lost the ball by fumbling yet this year—in their first five games!

Scoring Timetable

First Quarter:

A poor pass from center hurried Levenhagen's punt late in the quarter which traveled only 18 yards and Ohio State took over on its own 45 yard line. Six plays netted the touchdown, with Sophomore Don Clark bursting through right tackle for the final 23 yards. Fred Kriss kicked the extra point.

Time left: 1:22. Ohio State 7, Wisconsin 0.

Second Quarter:

Wisconsin marched 74 yards all on the ground to Ohio State's 15 yard line mid-way in the second quarter, but on 4th down Earl Hagberg was stopped short of a first down and the Buckeyes then marched 85 yards in 13 plays for their second score. Quarterback Frank Ellwood sneaked over to cap the drive that featured the running of Clark. Kriss again kicked the extra point.

Time left: 4:29. Ohio State 14, Wisconsin 0.

Fourth Quarter

A fumble by Glenn Bestor on a fourth down punt situation was recovered by Ohio State's Dick Guy on the Wisconsin 13, and in 6 plays the Buckeyes had their third score. Ellwood kicked the extra point.

Time left: 13:14. Ohio State 21, Wisconsin 0.

The tie game was the sixth in the 38 game series with Purdue that started back in 1892. The Badgers have not lost to Purdue since 1945, when the Boilermakers won 13-7 at Madison. The first three tie games in the Wisconsin-Purdue series were at LaFayette, but the last three tie games, in 1937, 1939, and this year, have all been played at Madison. The 1937 and 1939 games ended 7-7.

Talk about stepping from the frying pan into the fire, what about this! A week before the Ohio State-Wisconsin game, the Ohio State was upset by Penn State 7-6. While the Badgers were meeting the Buckeyes, the Spartans of Michigan State—the nation's top team at the time—were being upset by Illinois 20-13. The Badgers meet the Spartans in their next game, and you guessed it, at East Lansing.

Co-ed cheerleaders made their appearance at Camp Randall—on the Wisconsin side—for the first time in several years at the Purdue game and did a creditable job. One faculty man, in fact, subsequently wrote a letter to the Cardinal that the cheerleaders should have distributed themselves over a wider area than in front of the student section.

WANTED

Sure fire football scoring play for use inside ten yard line. Please direct correspondence to the Football Bulletin, for relay to Badger coaches.

We sometimes wonder how much the great performance of the Wisconsin Marching Band cuts into sales by concessions between halves of grid games. Few people want to leave their seats for fear they'll miss something real good—and they probably would!

The Badger Block card cheering section, too, continues to improve as the season wears on.

Calendar of Events

By Lucy Williams

Friday—Nov. 9

Homecoming displays ----- 3:30 p.m.
 Float Parade ----- 5:00 p.m.
 "Yell Like Hell" Pep Rally
 Union steps ----- 5:30 p.m.
 Show—Fieldhouse ----- 8:15 p.m.

Saturday—Nov. 10

"1920's"—Coffee Hour
 Union main lounge ----- 9:30 a.m.—12:30
 Northwestern football game 1:30 p.m.
 Homecoming Dance—
 Great Hall ----- 9:00 p.m.— 1:00 a.m.
 Tripp Commons ----- 9:30 p.m.—12:30
 Old Madison Room
 Rathskeller

WITH HOMECOMING less than two weeks away, the campus is working at high pitch. Only time will tell how much chicken wire, paint, and materials for paper mache is hidden away in the various living units, ready to erupt into displays on the afternoon of Nov. 9.

The design for the official homecoming button has been chosen, after having been submitted in the annual button contest, the winners being Jim O'Leary and Adolph Rebensburg, a triumph for non-art students.

New trophies for the winners of the "Yell Like Hell" contest at the pep rally will be awarded this year. The trophies are ceramic and consists of a head with a distorted mouth.

The Homecoming show on Friday evening will feature Pat Boone whose record of "Ain't That a Shame" took the country by storm.

The reigning royalty of the weekend will be King Dick Hammes and Queen Freida Schwartz, both of Madison. Freida, a former Wisconsin student, now attends Beloit college. Dick is general chairman for Homecoming and a member of the "W" Club, competing in both track and wrestling.

Conviviality and some top entertainment are scheduled at the "Re-Union" Coffee Hour Saturday morning in the Union Lounge.

Dan Belloc's band will play in Great Hall at the Union for the homecoming dance Saturday night. The band of Eddie Lawrence will provide the music in Tripp Commons and that of Fred Mott will play in the Old Madison Room. The king and queen will be presented during the intermission in great hall.

And you're all invited!

King Dick and Queen Freida

there is no SUBSTITUTE for Mueller Climatrol automatic heat

Why "fumble" around trying to make that tempermental furnace "pass" another heating season? Enjoy Mueller Climatrol "star" heating performance now. There is no "substitute" for perfect indoor comfort when wintery blasts push the mercury below zero.

Tending the furnace is so easy when you heat the automatic Mueller Climatrol way. Just set the thermostat once . . . Mueller Climatrol will do the rest.

To be sure you get the heating unit that's most economical for your home, ask your local Mueller Climatrol dealer for a free engineered heating survey today. And ask him about the rest of the Mueller Climatrol team too . . . summer air conditioning, incinerators, and combination year 'round heating and cooling units.

Mueller Climatrol

MADE IN MILWAUKEE Since 1857