AUDIOTAPE, SIDE 2

00:00 Arnold Munkel: This is Saturday, October twelfth, 1974. This evening Arnold Hanson and myself, Arnold Munkel, and my wife, Marion, came up here to Whitehall from Spring Grove, and we’re in Gino’s pub at the present time. We’re gonna be here at a wedding dance, the way I understand. Our friend Leonard Finseth is playing here tonight, and we found out from him up at Chief Inn here a few weeks back that he was gonna play here tonight. So, we kind of surprised him by coming up here. We’re gonna records a few of his tunes now, and I know we’re gonna enjoy them very much.

Leonard Finseth

1:00 “Orevalsen”
04:07 “Old C waltz”
06:49 “Anders Svalstuen valse”
08:48 “Alfred Storsveen’s schottische”
11:28 “Gamle Ole Mattis”
13:20 unidentified schottische
15:23 “Happy birthday”
16:13 “Hilse dem dehjemme” aka “Greet the folks at home”
19:40 “Tennessee waltz”
21:24 unidentified waltz
23:24 unidentified waltz
24:26 “Orevalsen”
27:04 unidentified waltz
29:41 “Life in the Finnish woods”
31:45 unidentified waltz
33:43 unidentified waltz/tune
36:40 unidentified waltz/tune, accordion
38:26 unidentified waltz/tune, accordion
40:12 “Ed Quall’s polka”; “Old time polka in D”
42:44 “Jenny Lind polka”
44:37 unidentified polka, accordion; Finseth and Munkel chat over music
47:08 unidentified waltz
49:12 “Ozark moon” aka “Ozark mountain waltz”
51:19 unidentified waltz
53:38 “Chop it up waltz”
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>55:14</td>
<td>unidentified waltz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>57:03</td>
<td>unidentified waltz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>59:23</td>
<td>unidentified waltz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>62:10</td>
<td>unidentified polka</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>64:11</td>
<td>unidentified polka, accordion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>65:55</td>
<td>unidentified polka, accordion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>