TWO TICKETS ARE ELECTED BY DEFAULT

Two Class Offices Filled
When No Candidates
Appear

Frank L. Weston and Daniel C. O'Neil were automatically elected to the presidencies of the senior and sophomore classes, respectively, yesterday afternoon when no other candidates filed nomination petitions for the offices. The tickets on which these candidates ran were also elected by default.

The other officers of the senior class will be: Winifred Titus, vice-president; Mary J. Parkinson, secretary; William B. Florea, treasurer, and Allen C. Davey, sergeant-at-arms.

In the sophomore class the officers, besides O'Neil, will be: Eleanor Chase, vice-president; Marion McLay, secretary; Maynard W. Brown, treasurer, and William V. Hanks, sergeant-at-arms.

WEEKLY BULLETIN TO REPLACE DAILY MIMEO CALENDAR

Dean of Men Will Issue Printed
Announcements of University Events

A printed weekly bulletin of university events will take the place of the mimeographed daily calendar of last year, according to plans of the committee on student life and interests, which has charge of the bulletin boards on the campus. The change is made to provide a more noticeable and better appearing poster.

The calendar will include announcements of all public lectures, demonstrations, round-tables, musicals, recitals, dramatic and forensic events, meetings of departmental clubs, professional societies, student organizations with a serious purpose, departmental announcements, etc.

All announcements will be in skeleton form, merely giving the day, hour, place, subject, and speaker (e.g. for lectures), auspices, and a symbol to denote whether open to the public or to members only, and whether or not there is to be a charge for admission. No other description will be carried.

All announcements for each calendar must be in the office of Dean Goodnight before Wednesday evening of the week preceding its appearance. This is to enable the bulletin to be properly prepared.

The office of the dean of men also asks all officials in charge of the various halls and auditoriums to give notice whenever a reservation is made, that the date may be taken care of in the university date book in order to prevent conflicts.

STITT WILSON IS SPEAKER IN VESPERS SUNDAY

Gives Third of Series of Four Addresses on Religious Subjects

Special vespers will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in Music hall. The services are to be conducted jointly by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

The third of his talks on "Constructive, Christian Democracy," will be given by Stitt Wilson, whom everyone will wish to hear. Choral Union, under the direction of Professor Dykema, is in charge of the musical program. The Sophomore commission of both the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. will act as ushers.

Although these vespers are primarily for university students, other people who are interested are urged to attend.

CALL FOR BALL TOSSERS ISSUED

Basketball Season Opens in Three Weeks—Many Report

Coach W. E. Meanwell has set November 20 as the opening date of the 1920-21 basketball season and the first call for varsity candidates has been issued. The preliminary contests of the season will be held early in December which will give the Badger basketball men only three weeks of preparation for the first games.

Abundance of Material

With the exception of "Tony" Zulfer and Harlow Pease, all of last year's varsity team will be eligible for competition this year. There will be a large number of last year's freshmen out for the varsity and prospects for a winning team are bright.

Prominent among the material for the coming year is Captain "Cop" Taylor who won his "W" at forward last year. Taylor has two more years to participate in varsity athletics and will be a tower of strength to the team this year. Caesar, Frogner, and Fanning, "W" men of last year's team, will be out for early season practice, whilst "Red" Weston and "Mike" Knapp will report after the football season is over.

McCartney and Bloecher, "W" men of last year, will be out for varsity this year. Clarence McIntosh "W" man on the 1919-20 varsity team will be ineligible the first semester because of scholastic difficulties.

Meanwell Again in Charge

Other promising candidates who will report for the first practice are Farrington, baseball star and "W" man; Gage, captain of last year's frosh team; Williams, Ellington, Frawley, Miller, Hawley, McMurry, Horn, Anderson, Reudiger, Post, and Farewell.

Coach Meanwell, well known basket ball mentor of former Badger

BADGERS READY FOR BATTLE; FANS PACK GYM TO CHEER TEAM

Students Turn Out En Masse to Show Support For Varsity

Representative of the good old Wisconsin fighting spirit, more than 3,000 loyal supporters packed the gymnasium to the doors and overflowed to the street at the first big varsity mass meeting of the year last night. Cheering, shouting, singing, and war-whooping, the crowd filled every seat in the gym and fought for standing room, while the band played university songs.

The meeting opened with "On Wisconsin" and the entrance of the team. They were greeted with cheers and shouts that echoed for fully five minutes before "Bill" Pickard gathered the crowd together in a monster skyrocket for the team. "We'll Cheer for Old Wisconsin" followed, and then "Bud" Murphy introduced Prof. "Sunny" Pyre, who acted as chairman of the evening.

All United to Win

Professor Pyre pointed out the fact that diverse as the separate interests of the crowd were it was united in a common purpose and a common sentiment of loyalty to the team, which the entire university is backing as one man to beat Northwestern tomorrow.

"We have met Northwestern in former years and we have never yet suffered defeat from them," he de-

J. STITT WILSON SPEAKS TO BADGER CLUB TOMORROW

Mr. and Mrs. "Dad" Wolf Will Sing Duet—Other Features

J. Stitt Wilson will be the speaker at the Badger club of the university Y tomorrow evening. His talk will be the fourth and last of his series of talks here upon the subject of "Constructive Christian Democracy."

The usual program of singing and mixing will precede the talk, and the musical feature of the evening will be a duet by Mrs. Wolf and "Dad." Mrs. Wolf's singing made a big hit on the occasion of her first appearance on the club program and "Dad" has known ability as a glee club singer which makes it certain that the program will be excellent.

The hosts and hostesses of the evening are Dean and Mrs. Goodnight, Miss Mary Anderson, Secretary Leiser, Secretary of the city Y and his wife, and Rev. and Mrs. Lumpkin of Grace Episcopal church

BADGER WORKERS NOTICE

All organizations entered in 1922 Badger campaign should turn in their unused blanks at the Badger office, Union building, between 9 and 10 this morning without fail.

Few Changes in Line-up Looked for—Men Are All Fit

PROBABLE LINE-UP

Northwestern	Wisconsin
Carney or Turner	LE Weston (cap)
H. Penfield	LT Scott
G. Penfield	LG Brader
Hathaway	C Bunge
Dahl	RG Margoles
Blackwood	RT Stark
Ewing	RE Tebell
Palmer	QB Barr
Lane	LH Holmes
Zyold	RH Elliott
Patterson	FB Sundt

This is the probable line-up which will start the game on Randall field this afternoon between Northwestern and Wisconsin. Coach Richards has a large number of available substitutes and it is possible that several last minute changes will be made in the Badger backfield. According to Coach Elmer McDevitt, Northwestern mentor, it is doubtful if Turner, star end who was injured in the game last Saturday, will be in the line-up.

Badgers in Condition

The Badgers were put through a light signal practice last night, and reports from Head Trainer Berg indicate that every Wisconsin man who will get into the game today is in excellent physical condition.

Coach Richards has conducted practices for the past week in secret and the Badgers have been working as they have never done before this season. That they will be a much stronger team than the varsity which defeated the Michigan Aggies a week ago is the unanimous opinion of Badger followers.

Members of the Wisconsin coaching staff refuse to make any predictions regarding the outcome of the game, but merely state that the Badgers will have a team on the field that will fight every minute of the game. The players themselves are not overconfident, but they will give the Purple a battle.

Purple Will Fight

The Northwestern squad arrived last evening and spent the night at the Park hotel. In 20 years of football relations the Purple has never

OTTO TO SPEAK AT UNITARIAN CHURCH

Prof. M. C. Otto of the philosophy department of the university will give an address on "Dreams" at the Unitarian church, E. Dayton street and Wisconsin avenue, Sunday evening at 7:30. The public is invited. Organ and violin selections will also be a part of the program, which is held under the auspices of the discussion group.

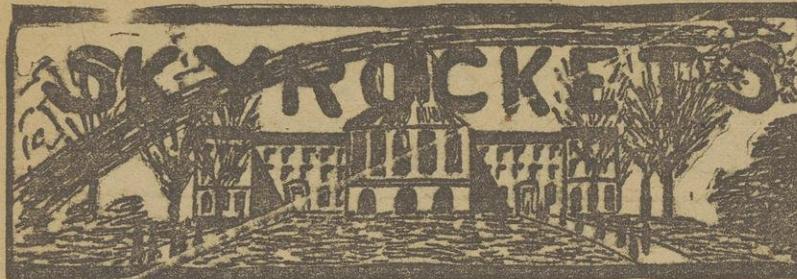

Prof. Otto is one of the most popular lecturers at the university, his Man and Nature course being particularly well attended. Owing to the fact that there is always a large turnout for him, the lecture will be held in the church itself, not in the parish house as usual.

Tickets On Sale At Field

Everybody Out To Beat The Purple

GOOD morning, folks. You see we can't spring anything about the weather because we don't know whether it's raining or hailing. That's one trouble with a newspaper—with us, this morning is last night and last night is tomorrow morning. It is quite like the morning after the night before.

SPEAKING of the weather, as one does when one has nothing else to speak of, we hope it is hot and sunny all morning, and cold and sunny all afternoon, at least until today's slaughter is over. Then it can do anything it jolly well chooses for all we care.

ANOTHER thing about the weather: we can't understand why Jup Pluvius chooses the ten minutes between classes to pour out rain the hardest. We were drenched passing from French to Shakespere yesterday; in class five minutes later the sun shone and the birds chirped merrily, tra-la, tra-la.

THAT, we feel, is a splendid introduction to poetry.

MY LOVIN' MAN
Why doesn't he come, I've waited
For half an hour or more;
I've been looking out of the window,
And twice been down to the door.

JUNIORS WIN IN CROSS-COUNTRY

Sophomores Follow Closely for Second Place—Seniors Finish Last

Counting a total of 39 points, the junior squad of harriers gathered in the inter-class cross country championship race Friday afternoon.

At the finish, the third year men had three contestants within the first ten to finish, and two inside of the fifteen limit. Following closely on the heels of the upperclassmen, the sophomore pack gained second place with 46 points, leading the freshman runners by a margin of 30. The seniors straggled in in last position.

The successful junior team of five men, awarded blue ribbons as a winner of the championship, consisted of Wall, Powell, Knutson, Zielsky, and Copeland.

Undaunted by Rain
Undaunted by a light drizzle which, following the heavy downpour of yesterday, muddied the course and slowed up the contest, thirty-five entrants faced the starter's gun at 4:45. The men got away to a good start and covered the 2.7 miles distance in the time of 16 minutes, 15 seconds. Starting at the gym, the pacemakers led the pack along the lake shore drive, turning at the road leading to the stock pavilion, then changing their course back along the shore road, and finishing at the gymnasium.

The first ten runners to come under the wire were, in the order of their finish: Wall, Noble, Dayton, Powell, Wade, Brothers, Dennis, Knutson, Sherman, and Finkle. Each of these men were awarded the blue ribbon which was offered to the first ten entries to come down the home stretch.

Will Award Numerals

The award of numerals to the first seven men who finished, and to the members of the winning team will be made after the Athletic board has held a session and confirmed the granting of the coveted numerals to the winners.

The results of the meet will go a long way in helping Coach G. T. Bresnahan to select the long-distance men who will compete in the grind against the Maroons, at Madison, October 30. Varsity men, who have been working out during the last few weeks, were permitted to enter the inter-class cross country

MARY ANDERSON TO SPEAK AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING TOMORROW

Miss Mary Anderson, Y. W. C. A. secretary, will speak at the chapel service in Chadbourne hall Sunday morning at 9:15 on the new membership basis of the Y. W. C. A. It is a question of vital interest to all university girls and all who are interested are cordially invited to come to the Chadbourne parlors to hear Miss Anderson speak.

ADVERTISING CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Plans to Bring Prominent Men Before Its Members During Year

New members for the Advertising club will be considered at a big business meeting to be held next Wednesday noon in the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria. All applicants must have their name in before that time.

All eligible applicants for the Advertising club must hand their names to William R. Florea, chairman of the membership committee, Beta house, 622 Mendota court, or to Fred Sperry, Psi U house, 222 Lake Lawn court before next Wednesday. Eligibility, according to the constitution of the club is as follows:

Membership shall be open to students in the university who are or who have been members of the course in retail advertising or advertising campaigns; members of the university staff of University publicity; or students who have given similar evidence of interest in advertising.

The election of new officers and plans for the coming year's activities will also take place at that meeting. The program committee is making elaborate arrangements to bring a series of prominent men in the advertising field to speak before the club this year.

IOWA-ILLINOIS BATTLE TODAY

Today's game at Urbana between Illinois and Iowa will mark the high tide of the 1920 football season in the eyes of many football followers in both camps. However, if the Minnesota-Northwestern score of last Saturday can be explained, if Northwestern can prove its strength, or if the Gophers can stage a comeback the Iowa-Northwestern or the Iowa-Minnesota game in November may overshadow the Illinois encounter for Iowa fans when these teams play at Iowa City.

SAYS SOCIAL JUSTICE ONLY CAN SAVE RACE

Just End Wars or Civilization Will Fall, Stitt Wilson Declares

The destiny of world civilization is wrapped up in the preservation of the white race, and economic justice is all that can save the race and humanity from tottering to destruction—an economic justice to be secured only through a larger spiritual-mindedness motivating peoples.

This was the message forcefully presented to an audience in Bascom hall yesterday afternoon by J. Stitt Wilson, former mayor of Berkeley, Cal., and eminent social worker.

"We have entered upon a period of world history—there will be no such thing as United States history any more," Mr. Wilson declared. "The racial element is the one that is to be dominant. It is the great movements of peoples that will hold the stage and force puppets off into the wings, while humanity takes its place."

It is a serious question whether the white race is to maintain its supremacy, the speaker declared. It can do so only if the unspeakable losses of blood, and mind, and morals, and ethics are cut short in the cessation of wars.

Ten Millions Dead

"Ten millions, representing the choicest flower of our civilization, lie under the sod today as the result of the late world war, culminating butchery of the ages," the speaker declared. "Twenty millions more have been physically, mentally, or morally impaired as a result of that catastrophe. The losses have not been merely in the physical and mental stock of peoples. The flame of spiritual vision never has burned so low at the present time."

"Not another war ought be permitted, not another one of the white race allowed to die in the mutual butchery of men. He who fosters strife among the white peoples of the earth is driving a dagger at the heart of civilization."

"The destiny of the white race is wrapped up in the possibility of establishing economic and social justice in the world. Economic conditions under which multitudes live in the great cities is a menace to the world. Today 96 per cent of the children in Austria are undernourished. That is the world's business. It is time to rise above national hatreds and look to the larger imperative call of preserving civilization."

College Men to Lead

"The supreme need of the world to bring about the economic readjustment lies in the spread of spiritual-mindedness. Educated men and women from the universities and colleges must catch the vision and steadily place humanity first in the sweep of their thought and apply that vision in dedicating themselves to help make the world safe for the civilization of the white race and humanity."

Mr. Wilson will speak Sunday afternoon at a vespers service for men and women at 4:30, and Sunday night at the Badger club at 8 o'clock.

Crippled Tots Are Guests Of Movie Theater

Accompanied by several nurses, 13 little crippled children who are receiving treatment at the Bradley Memorial hospital of the university, enjoyed an afternoon of delight at the Strand theater, where Homespun Folks, Mutt and Jeff, and the latest weekly news are the attractions.

This pleasure, together with the added bliss of the delectable ice cream cone, is the gift of A. P. Desormeaux, manager of the Strand, who will entertain the children at that theater whenever there is a picture suitable for them. There are to be eight such pictures within the next five weeks.

A member of the University Employees association came to me and wanted to make arrangements for buying tickets for the children," said Mr. Desormeaux, today, "but of course, I would not take anything for them. The children are to be my guests, and I'm going to treat them to ice cream cones each time, too."

Philip M. Franzen of the University Employees' association stated that the association is behind the plan and is providing cars to take the children to the theater each time. It is also arranging a big Christmas party for the kiddies, to be held at the hospital. Most of the children are from out-of-town and have no relatives in Madison.

RURAL MINISTERS ARE GIVEN NEW SCHOLARSHIPS

Ten Wisconsin rural ministers and young men who are preparing for the rural ministry have just been granted scholarships by the Wesley Foundation of Wisconsin to enable them to take graduate study at the University of Wisconsin. The Foundation has just received a fund to provide for fifteen scholarships of this character.

The scholars so far appointed are George Edwards, Prairie du Sac; Ira E. Schlagenauf, Waterloo; Daniel H. Fleet, Poynette; Charles J. Borman, London; Lorenz Knutson, Palmyra; J. F. Glotfelty, Dousman; Paul B. White, MacFarland; George W. Vaughn, Linden; and James L. Glass, Sun Prairie.

Wesley Foundation is developing an endowment to make possible a complete faculty in religion, planning to add, as income warrants, chairs in Biblical literature, Christian philosophy, religious education, and missionary movements. The Rev. Elzer Tetreau, who is leader courses in the function of the rural church. The foundation is supported by the Methodist church, but its doors have been opened to members of other denominations.

Advertise For Bids

Authority was granted the university medical school by the state board of education yesterday to advertise for bids for excavation and foundation construction work on the new state general hospital at the university. It was also determined to invite all state education agencies to co-operate in getting out an educational monthly.

"CUBS" FROLIC IN WILD ABANDON DESPITE CLOUDS

"Bud" Murphy's Plan for "Mixing Without Mixing" a Success

Clouds and muddy streets failed to frighten away a single hardy "cub" from last evening's "Frolic" which the entire "cub" family voted a big success, thanks to the Press Club, by whom the mixer was given.

The jazz artists were well up to standard; the eats were all that had been promised; and "Bud" Murphy's plan for a "mixer without mixing" served to break the ice, by forcibly eliminating wallflowers although the wires were slightly crossed in Bud's memory test demonstration.

The absence of all formality gave every one an equal chance at getting acquainted. Would-be and now-are journalists—and even a few (we won't call them "has-beens", though they are grads)—mingled without regard to who was who.

As the first affair of its kind given it showed the need for, and effectiveness of such a plan, in coordinating the journalistic ranks in the university.

Communications

Editor Daily Cardinal:

Allow me to express my hearty approval of your much needed editorial on "Why We Sleep In Classes." Proper ventilation seems to be in most places a matter to which a lamentably small amount of attention is given. It is also a surprising thing how many people there are who fail to realize when they are in an improperly ventilated atmosphere. Can it be as a result of the lack of fresh air, having dulled their senses? Let's keep the matter of fresh air in mind, and if it isn't present let's ask for it. If we all do, we'll get it.

R. E. WILLIAMS.

YES, "LET THE BOYS IN"

Editor Daily Cardinal:

Your editorial strikes twelve. Why not "Let the boys in"? Let every boy—and girl, too, for that matter—of grammar school age in for a quarter. They'll soon be on the "bleachers" themselves. Let them in now. They'll make great rooters for the team. Make a special inducement for them to come in by providing a special rate for them. Let them in for a quarter. Every "old boy" should support the Cardinal in its campaign to get the "kids" in.

Let the boys and girls in! They'll beat the band in rooting for the team.

COUNTRY POPULATION

The census report shows Wisconsin with 189,196 farms, an increase in ten years of 12,069 or 4.3 per cent. Indiana, Iowa, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Vermont all show a slight decrease, the highest being 5 per cent in Iowa.

Sixteen counties in Wisconsin, all agricultural, show less in population. The greatest gain is in Rusk, where 47 per cent more people live now than in 1910. The loss is generally to the older counties, although Vilas in the far north, shows a decrease, perhaps owing to the fact that agriculture has not kept pace with the lessened lumber interests.—Merrill Daily Herald.

WILL HONOR PROF. BABCOCK NEXT FRIDAY

Famous Inventor's Birthday to Be Celebrated by Ag Students

Dr. Stephen Moulton Babcock, inventor of the world-famous test for butter fat, will reach his seventy-seventh birthday Friday, October 22.

The test which has meant hundreds of millions of dollars to the dairymen of Wisconsin and the world, was given to the state by Dr. Babcock in 1890. It has now come into use in nearly every country on the globe and has long been used in every state in the union.

So perfect was the method of Dr. Babcock that "when the first bulletin describing the Babcock test went forth, the whole subject from A to Z, properties, strength of acid to be used, all test bottles, their gradations, size, caliber, as well as the kind and amount of the acid, had been so well worked out that to this day no change in any of the fundamentals of the test as told in that bulletin has been suggested by any of the hundreds of chemists who have tested and used the method."

Committees have been appointed in the College of Agriculture to take charge of the exhibit to be given in his honor and of the distribution of red and white ribbons, the latter to be worn on Dr. Babcock's birthday.

Phillip Gates, general chairman, has charge of the exhibit, which is intended to interest all students in the work of the college. The chairmen of the committees are as follows: Ribbon, Katherine Woodman; demonstration, Melvin Luther; arrangements, John Hanousek; exhibit, George Clapp; publicity, Maynard Brown, John Penny, and David Lacey.

LITERARY MAGAZINE APPEARS ON CAMPUS WEDNESDAY A. M.

Setting Wednesday, October 20, as the day of appearance for the first number of the Lit, the editorial board is, at the same time, starting upon a new policy in regard to the matter published.

They are asking for more contributions than ever before, but have outlined the character of the stories and verse wanted. With the idea of making the Literary magazine a publication for all of the university, they desire that contributors build their efforts around vigorous, broad (in a geographical sense), and unhackneyed ideas; stories of the sea, the woods, and the North are of the type wanted. A review of the first issue of the Lit, by C. L. Fernberg, instructor in English, will appear in the Cardinal Tuesday, October 19.

TWO NEW PROFESSORS ON ENGINEERING STAFF

Two new associate professors of engineering have just been added to the faculty of the college of engineering at the university because of the increasing enrollment in the college.

A. A. Neff, graduate of the University of Nebraska, has been appointed associate professor of machine designing. He has taught at Purdue at Loyola and at the Mooseheart school in Illinois.

A. H. Anderson, of the Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, has been appointed associate professor of steam and gas engineering. Prof. Anderson was graduated from the Armour Institute and for 10 years was professor of experimental engineering there. Since 1918 he has been doing power plant efficiency work in Chicago.

CONCORD, N. H. — The Arab chestnut gelding Grabbet was to the front today when 13 survivors of the 300 mile endurance test started on a racing finish headed for Camp Devens, Mass. The goal was sixty miles away.

The plane which was to have arrived here from Minneapolis this noon had not arrived by the middle of the afternoon, but if there was no change in yesterday's plans should arrive some time during the day. Postmaster Devine stated.

THE BEST FOR WISCONSIN

OHIO STATE is soon to start an extensive campaign to bring to that institution high school graduates who have distinguished themselves in scholastic, literary, athletic, and social activities. In this way the university hopes to attract the students of ability who formerly have "gone East" or elsewhere to continue their education.

The example of Ohio ought to be seriously considered by Wisconsin. Scores of high school graduates throughout the state entered other colleges this fall. Some of them made their decisions because of misrepresentations, some because the claims of the state university had not been placed before them, and some because the university was not regarded as quite "exclusive" enough for their refined tastes.

With a reasonable amount of effort on the part of the university a large number of these students could have been brought here. Something effective must be done to get the best graduates next year. We need them.

Some responsible organization ought to undertake the task of looking over the daily and weekly papers of the state and promptly correcting misstatements printed about the university. This is a matter of self-defense and deserves immediate attention. Many parents and students have been prejudiced against the university because of some exaggerated report in the press.

Another group should take up the work of finding out who are the most promising high school seniors. Then these students should be fully informed of what Wisconsin has to offer. Most of them will have friends or acquaintances in school here and they can help.

As to the exclusiveness of the university a word may be said. It is the duty of this school to get the idea abroad that a college is not to be selected on a fashion plate basis or on the basis of the wealth and connections of the students. Most intelligent people have abandoned this foolishness. The only kind of exclusiveness that helps a modern university is the exclusiveness of merit, talent, and hard work. The more exclusive we become in this virtue the more we will be serving the cause of true education. These doctrines should be inculcated in the minds of high school graduates.

Wisconsin must not lag behind Ohio in the movement to attract the best students to the doors of its state university.

STEALING CARDINALS

THIS is not a new story. It comes forth periodically. Yet when it does, it is always apropos. The perennial blooming is but the result of fertile soil.

Complaints are constantly being made by students who live in the larger rooming houses of Cardinals being stolen. And, indeed, there is cause for complaint. When one must go out before sunrise to get what really belongs to him in order to get it at all, it is small wonder that many Cardinal subscribers are protesting hotly. People who have paid the price of the Cardinal justly resent the attempt of a few non-subscribers to beat the game.

If action were really taken to detect the petty thieves who are causing so much inconvenience, it would be a simple matter to locate the malefactors and bring them to time. However, such action should not be necessary in a university such as this. University students should have (and most of them do have) a sufficient conception of honesty and fair play not to "sponge" on their neighbors. Most students realize that the person who pays for the Cardinal is entitled to it. In most cases, also, those students who do not respect the rights of others would do so if they really thought seriously about the matter.

The distribution of Cardinals is not a matter of "first come, first served." It is a question of what really belongs to one by right of purchase.

A word to those who have been committing these undesirable acts! Put yourself in the other fellow's place. Consider his side of the case. If you had subscribed, wouldn't you want what you had paid for? Wouldn't you feel somewhat out of sorts if every morning your Cardinal was gone before eight o'clock? Wouldn't you resent having someone who didn't "come across" during the subscription campaign reap the benefits of your money and your loyalty?

Think it over! If you really come to the conclusion that the only charge for a Cardinal subscription should be the effort of picking it up in the morning; if you really think your actions are fit and proper for a university student—come and tell us about it. Perhaps we can arrange a special subscription for you.

If, however, you do not reach such a conclusion, then be square enough to play your part of the game. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

clared. He urged the crowd to back the team with all its faith.

Dean Sellery, who spoke next, outlined the "works" that are necessary for everyone to perform for the team—support a higher standard of scholarship for the university, and an effort toward urging more interest in football. He pronounced inter-collegiate football "the best game that colleges know."

Never on Bottom

"If the team will fight as Wisconsin teams have always fought against Northwestern we will win tomorrow," declared Coach John Richards. He pointed out that Wisconsin teams have sometimes been on top and sometimes not, but seldom, if ever, have they been on the bottom of the list.

"There are times," he declared, "that we ought to be on top, and this is one of them. We have a chance to win the conference championship. We have not the team at the height of its power, but they are as far along after 30 days of training as any team in the conference."

Coach Richards stated that more men are making good in the world today who wear the football "W" than those who wear the Phi Beta Kappa key. He showed that he did not deprecate the value of good scholarship, but he said that the one implied the other.

There is no glory in defeating a team which is not hard to beat," he continued, "and we are expecting a hard fight tomorrow."

All Are Fit

Trainer Berg declared that the men are mentally and physically fit to beat Northwestern. "They are the kind of men," he said, "who not only fight hard when they come up against their opponents but they carry the fight to the other fellow."

The meeting closed with final instructions from "Bill" Pickard and the singing of "Varsity." "Win or lose," said Pickard, "we will stay, as a man, until the last whistle is blown, and we will sing 'Varsity' before we leave the stand."

Boyd's special orchestra, which was donated for the occasion, instilled pep into the rooters with its own special brand of "jazz".

Prof. Otto to Speak—Professor M. C. Otto will speak at the Unitarian church Sunday at 7:30 p. m., under the auspices of the discussion group of the church.

FAKE CO-OPS TO BE UNDER FIRE

Question Will be Taken Up at Next Session of the Legislature

One of the questions which will come before the next legislature will be the subject of cooperative concerns which are being conducted for private profit.

It is claimed that there are scores of business concerns which are posing as cooperative affairs in the state, which really are being run and conducted for private individuals. The question has been taken up a number of times in informal conferences of farmers here and a bill aimed at the abuses growing out of this situation will be introduced.

This legislation will also have the support of merchants throughout the state who say that there are many stores in the state which pose as cooperative which are really private institutions. The merchants contend that people go to these stores in the belief that they can buy cheaper there because the profits are distributed under the cooperative plan.

An examination of these concerns will reveal that much of the profits goes toward the paying of high salaries for managers and trustees and that these concerns build up a big surplus from year to year which is never distributed to the rightful owners. It is said that in university and college towns many "student" cooperative affairs are operated in this way.

CLEF CLUB HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING

Clef club held its first meeting in Lathrop parlors Thursday evening, when the following program was given:

A soprano solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka"—Leurance, by Miss Ruth Chandler; two original piano compositions by Miss Salsbury; a contralto solo, "Sacrament"—McDowell, by Miss Mildred Chichester; two piano selections, Arabesque—DeBussy, and Barcarolle—Goal, by Miss Louise Reagen.

After the program a short business meeting was held. Miss Herry Nansen had charge of the meeting.

SELL MEGAPHONE AT GAME

An innovation in concerted rooting at Wisconsin will be introduced at today's football game when every person in the crowd will be asked to buy a small megaphone at the gate to aid in cheering the team. The megaphone, Paul Robertson, freshman in the Course in Commerce, has been granted this concession by the athletic department.

teams will resort largely to close formations and straight football, and it will be difficult to use the forward pass effectively.

Illinois Plays Iowa

Besides the game on Camp Randall this afternoon, the Illinois-Iowa game at Urbana is perhaps of greatest interest in western conference football circles. The Hawkeyes have a powerful eleven this year and are determined to avenge their defeat of last year at the hands of the Suckers. The last year's champions have a team which must be given serious consideration for titular honors, but they will meet strong opposition in the Iowa machine.

Ohio State is playing her first conference game tomorrow against Purdue at Columbus. Conference fans are anxiously watching the actions of Wilce's men this year without the services of "Chick" Harley. The Buckeyes should have no trouble in defeating the Boilermakers.

Gophers Meet Hoosiers

Minnesota will attempt to make up for the defeat they suffered last Saturday when they meet Indiana this afternoon in Minneapolis. The Gophers have put in the stiffest week of work that Coach Williams has given to a Minnesota team for years and reports from Minneapolis state that the team has shown improvement since last Saturday.

The game will start at 2:30 instead of at 2, as printed on the tickets.

CHARLOTTE IS FUNNIER THAN EVER IN PLAY

"Long, Lanky Queen of Fun" Please Large Audience at Fuller

By Rodney C. Welsh
Even more magnetic than she was in "So Long Letty" Charlotte Greenwood, "the long, lanky queen of fun" has achieved in her new Anna Nichols comedy a high place among American comedienne.

"Linger Longer Letty," now at the Fuller, is the funniest and best adapted play in which Miss Greenwood has been starred. As a laugh getter, she has few rivals. There is about her an unassumed magnetism that gets hold of every one; no one escapes her personality. She plays the role of a modern Cinderella, a "goat" as she calls herself, who washes and scrubs while her sisters are "out stepping" with different army officers. Letty would be content with a lone buck private but not even a salty gob will call for her long legs and bean pole figure.

Finally she decides to blossom out as a real vamp. She goes in partnership with a tough sailor who is in love with her twin sister and she induces him to tell her what is wrong with her if she tells him how he can win the heart of her. How they succeed is one of the happiest situations of the play.

As the tough sailor with the flowergarden on his upper lip, Robert Higgins shares honors with Miss Greenwood. His manner and voice are pleasing. The two duets he sings with Letty are, perhaps, the best numbers.

The rest of the company, which is the original almost intact, lends good support to Miss Greenwood.

In the chorus there are more than a dozen attractive, handsomely dressed girls who can sing and dance.

The settings were elaborate. Both that of the second act, Letty's boudoir, and that of the third, the front lawn, were unusually effective and artistic.

West Point Vacancies—Notice was received by Adjutant General Holway from the war department yesterday that six members of the Wisconsin national guard can be appointed to West Point next year. Each company commander will be allowed to recommend one candidate to enter a competitive examination to be held in Madison Dec. 8. The six high men will be selected to enter the final examination March 1.

Awaiting 'Master's Voice'

Apparently most of the co-eds not only lose their belongings, but also are not even conscious of missing the things they leave around the buildings. At least they make no effort to recover what is rightfully theirs.

Dean Nardin's secretary reports she has a number of articles turned in at her office last year that have never been claimed. Among them is a very beautiful and valuable fur piece which the owner can have on proper identification. There are also numerous fountain pens, much jewelry, and quite a few pocketbooks with money in them. It will relieve the congestion of lost articles in Dean Nardin's office a great deal if the owners will claim their valuables as soon as possible.

WHO SAID "WEAKER SEX?" THEY LEARN JIU-JITSU AT OHIO

Who said "the manly art of self-defense"?

It's soon going to be feminine, too, at Ohio university. Co-eds in the department of physical education are going to be taught jiu-jitsu along with the regular work of the department.

Owing to the size of the classes and the scarcity of mats, the girls will not be required to actually throw each other, but they will be taught how to do so should the occasion ever arise. Simple tricks of defense are soon going to make a co-ed dangerous to meet on a dark night!

SCHOOL OF RELIGION
STARTS TOMORROW

Tomorrow morning the Presbyterian school of religion is to start its work. The religious work this year is under the leadership of the Rev. R. G. Rieman, the new university pastor, and Miss Eva Melby, the new dean of Presbyterian women.

There are to be three courses offered starting tomorrow morning at 9:30. Mr. Rieman will conduct a class in the "Social Message of the Gospel," Rev. Mr. Allison in "The Birth of the Bible," and Miss Melby in the "Psalms of the Social Life."

All Presbyterian students and any who have no other church connection are cordially invited to attend these classes. Mr. Rieman's class will be a class for both men and women, Mr. Allison's class for men only, and Miss Melby's class will be confined to women only.

Explain Budget—Members of the board of education appeared before the council finance committee last night to explain the various increases in the budget for the school system for 1921. The committee also considered the Monona park budget which totals $8,477. The last budget called for $3,024. John Boyd, promoter in charge of the park auditorium, will probably be called into conference before the budget is accepted.

BADGER CITY LIBRARIANS HOLD ANNUAL STATE MEET

City librarians from many Wisconsin cities are getting together in Madison this week for the annual meeting of the State Library association, which represents the librarians of all Wisconsin cities. Standardization of libraries, certification of librarians, and the establishing of a county library law for Wisconsin, are the chief topics of discussion at the meetings.

The program includes such speakers as Prof. J. H. Kolb, of the department of agricultural economics of the University of Wisconsin, W. M. Smith, university librarian, Prof. R. L. Paxson, of the history department, and superintendents of public schools in various cities. Several meetings are being held in the auditorium of the museum in the State Historical library.

SIT DOWN

Junior and Senior Engineers
Remain Standing During Yesterday's Classes

In Friday's classes most of the junior and many of the senior mechanical engineers chose to stand instead of to sit, while the remainder of the senior mechanicals heartlessly laughed at their standing brothers.

Anyone who visited the university shops on last Wednesday or Thursday can explain the new attitude in the class room, for on those days, these juniors and seniors could be seen bending over blue prints and closing one eye as they checked to a hundredth of an inch the dimensions of a one inch by six inch piece of wood with a handle at one end. They were making paddles.

On Thursday evening these paddles were used with effect in the initiation of thirty-one new members to the student section of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. After the initiation, coffee and sandwiches were served and the old members and new initiates went to the Orph, where songs and yells, particularly the Engineers' welcome, and a few quips which the actors provided especially for the engineers, completed an enjoyable evening.

PAY IS RAISED.

LA CROSSE—As a result of a large percentage of election clerks and inspectors threatening to refuse to serve on election day in the polls here, the common council raised their pay from $7 to $10 a day. Previous to primary election this year the clerks received $5 a day. They claim woman suffrage has doubled their work and therefore they are entitled to double pay.

CHICAGO—Alleging her husband, Richard "Rube" Marquard, Brooklyn pitcher, deserted her in 1918, Blossom Seeley, vaudeville headliner, today asked a divorce. The presiding judge indicated he would sign the decree within a few days.

Miss Seeley was the headline attraction at the Orpheum theaters here a few days ago. She is known to hundreds of Madison playgoers.

"HORRIBLE WEATHER" SAYS THE CUB REPORTER, SANS UMBRELLA

"This is absolutely the most horrible weather I ever experienced," slossed the Cub Reporter, staggering into the office last night. "And I have about the worst luck in weather that anybody could possibly have."

"As somebody said last spring, this is damp peculiar weather," returned the desk editor, who, writing a letter to his girl on one of the office typewriters, didn't even have time to glance up.

"I started out with an umbrella this morning," gurgled the Cubess, mournfully, "and then it wouldn't even sprinkle. So when I went home about eleven o'clock, I left the umbrella, and then I went over to the Union building about 12. Just as I left there it began again and I had to walk five blocks in it, and I won't have to have a shampoo, but I certainly will have to have a marcelle."

"What'll they do if it rains tomorrow. Will they play the game in canoes or will they just wear bathing suits?"

"Oh, they're going to play it in the S. G. A. room over at Lathrop. By the way, did you bring your umbrella this time?" inquired the desk editor, meditatively.

"Heavens, no. I've dragged it all afternoon in vain."

"Ain't that grand," said the ed. in engineer's colloquial: "Well, it's begun again."

Department of Justice
Campaign Closes on
Nov. 1

SUCCESS IS CLAIMED

But Immediate Cause of Cessation is Laid to Lack of Funds

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—The campaign conducted by the department of justice against the high cost of living will be ended and the entire fair price organization disbanded Nov. 1. Letters have gone out from the department to all fair price committees and all others engaged in the campaign advising them of the department's decision to conclude this work.

Department officials said that while the campaign had been successful, the immediate reason for closing up the work was a lack of funds. Abandonment of the campaign probably will mean the displacement of half a dozen special assistants to the attorney general who have devoted their entire time in fighting high prices.

It was declared the dissolution of the organization in the cost of living campaign would have no effect on the department's drive against violators of the Lever food control act. The attorney general was represented as being fully convinced that the Lever act had made it possible to curb the boarders and the profiteer and determined to go forward with prosecutions of coal men and others against whom complaints have been made.

POTATO SHOW NOV. 29.

MILWAUKEE—A two weeks' postponement makes Nov. 29 to Dec. 4 the time for the annual Wisconsin potato show in Milwaukee. Prof. J. G. Milward, Madison, secretary of the association, said the new date was chosen as being more convenient for the potato show, the convention of the Wisconsin branch of the American Society of Equity and the potato shippers' meeting all scheduled for the same week.

All members of the league and their women friends, and other women desiring to join it, are invited. Another speaker will be Mrs. Harry Glicksman, who will talk on duties of women voters.

AT THE THEATERS

At the Orpheum

Today—Margaret Doherty & Co.; Henry B. Toomer & Co.; Char-noff's Gypsies; Price & Bernia; Payton & Lum; Connell, Loona & Zippy. Kinograms.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—Ryan Sisters and Berrens & Leslie; Homer Miles & Co.; Mack & Mabelle; Ben Harney & Co.; Montie & Partie; Paul, Levan & Liller. Kinograms & Topics of the Day.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday—"Once Upon a Time"; Mlle. Shea & Co.; Green & Parker; Jack Lavier; Fred Hughes & Co. Mlle. Lizette. Kinogram.

The vaudeville bill which opened at the Orpheum Thursday will be on view today for the last time. There will be a matinee at 3 o'clock and the usual two evening performances at 7:15 and 9 p. m.

The first three days of the week, starting with two shows Monday night, brings the Orpheum six acts of vaudeville and the Kinogram. Featuring this program will be seen The Ryan Sisters and Berrens and Leslie in a Coterie of Dance and Music. The Ryan Sisters are young graceful and pretty. Leslie is the dancer of the quartette and Berrens obliges at the piano. In the role of an Irishman in the sketch "The Rough Neck" Homer Miles will appear. This clever character actor has a playlet of humor and sentiment and is supported by Lillian Horne and Ainsworth Arnold. Next comes Mack and Mabel in "Her Voice" to be followed by Ben Harney, the originator of ragtime, and his boy from Kentucky, William Farrell, in a singing and dancing act. Montie and Partie, a Two Man Jazz band, and Paul, Levan, and Miller, a trio of knock about comedians in "Treat 'm Rough" complete the bill.

Sousa Coming to the Fuller

From time to time there have been predictions, prophecies, and prophecies by all sorts of forecasters, that Lieut. John Philip Sousa will, before long, emulate other musical and theatrical celebrities and make a farewell tour. This strangled last resort which once worked well in alarming an over-anxious appearance and dying-swan gasps by departing greatness, exhausted its efficiency long ago. One need only recall the pitiful pleas made for the final appearance of Patti, the once incomparable, in the last tour of this country; and the harrowing recollection of Jenas-seeck, who, after a tragic stage-fall was unable to arise without assistance.

Sousa, hale and hearty as he is, has declared that there will be no dying-swan song for him!

"My farewell tour—or, to be exact, my farewell appearance—said he recently, "will be the last concert I give before I die! I mean by that, that I shall some day give a concert, and before I can give one the succeeding day or so, I shall quit this world forever. The newspaper men will say, 'John Philip Sousa made his farewell appearance in this City, because he died ere he could conduct another concert!' Yes, that is how I shall make my farewell tour!"

Lieut. Sousa and his world famous band come to the Fuller on Monday night, October 25th.

Advance Sale for Sousa

Word comes from the Fuller opera house box office, that the mail orders so far received for the Sousa band concert, which will be given on Monday night, October 25, have taken up all of the one-fifty seats and have reduced the number of two-dollar tickets quite a bit.

There still remains plenty of the main floor and in the first three rows of the balcony but the one dollar and a half tickets are all gone for the first time in the history of the Fuller, the unreserved gallery tickets can be secured through mail orders, and there is no better place in the theatre to hear the Sousa concert than the gallery and at a price of one dollar a seat, within the reach of all.

Lieut. John Philip Sousa will bring to Madison his big band of seventy musicians and in addition the following soloists: Miss Florence Hardemann; Miss Mary Baker; Miss Winifred Bambrick; Mr. John Dolan; Mr. Ellis McDiarmid;

Mr. Lee H. Davis; Mr. Joseph Norrito; Mr. John Kuhn and Mr. Geo. J. Carey.

AT THE STRAND

A complete assortment of rural types, some perfectly harmless, some capable of considerably villainy, some exceedingly lovable, most of them humorous and all of them interesting and true to life, are included in the cast of "Homespun Folks," the big Thomas H. Ince-Associated Producers' special production, which is showing at the Strand Theatre for the last times today.

"Homespun Folks" is a picture that sends thrills up and down the spine, tickles the funny bone, stirs up righteous indignation and plays on the heartstrings. All of the elements that go toward the making of a cinema success are present and are so skillfully blended, the climaxes so powerfully built up and the comedy reliefs so cleverly placed that there is never an instant in which the story palls or loses interest.

An all-star cast, in which Lloyd Hughes is featured, has been ably directed by John Griffith Wray, under the personal supervision of Thomas H. Ince. The story was written by Julien Josephson. Henry Sharp handled the photography.

There will also be shown the latest News Weekly and Mutt and Jeff in "Song Birds."

Bebe Daniels

Bebe Daniels in her first Realart Picture "You Never Can Tell" will be shown at the Strand Theatre for three days commencing Sunday. As a special added attraction there will be shown motion pictures of the Northwestern Vs. Wisconsin football game.

MILK DROPS TO 12 CENTS IN MADISON

Drop of One Cent Goes In-to Effect Here On Saturday

Milk will sell for 12 cents a quart beginning Saturday, a drop of one cent, according to an announcement made Friday morning by A. H. Kramer, manager of the Kennedy Dairy Co. Milk has been retailing for 13 cents a quart for five or six months.

The drop is attributed to the fact that several condensaries near here have shut down altogether, and others have reduced the price to the farmers. Ground feed and bran have dropped in price recently, contributing to the drop in milk. Ground feed was selling at $55 a ton today, as compared with $62 recently. Bran has dropped from $45 to $38.

The action of the Kennedy Dairy Co. is expected to establish a new uniform price of 12 cents in the city, by affecting a reduction at all sources of supply.

It is unusual for milk to drop at this season, dealers say.

REV. R. BAYNE IS MODERATOR

Superior Man Elected at Congregational Conference

Rev. Reid Taft Bayne, Superior, was elected moderator for the ensuing year at the final session of the Congregational conference Thursday afternoon. The First church of Eau Claire was selected as the next meeting place.

Racine will be the next meeting place of the Presbyterian synod, which will convene in that city the second week of October, 1921.

Dr. C. R. Bovard of Wausau, G.

Lieut. Commander John Philip Sousa, who brings his band of seventy players to the Fuller Opera House for one concert, Monday night, Oct. 25th.

S. Grasscamp of Milwaukee and F. P. Upsham of Madison were appointed members of the administrative board. W. E. Welker of La Crosse, trustee of the synod, was re-elected for a five year term.

A committee was selected to organize various church committees to assist in advocating beneficial legislation, assist the Anti-Saloon league and in general do all they can to better social conditions.
