The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

A model of a hodag—Rhineland's hoax creature which allegedly devoured white bulldogs—was examined by April Rose, 10, and Walden Derleth, 8, Sauk City. This is Hodag week in Rhineland, and as part of the celebration, the play "Hodag" will be presented Wednesday night by the Wisconsin Idea Theater of Madison. The hodag was the 1896 brain-child of a state trickster, Gene Shepard.
