The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Bienvenidos

La Colectiva Cultural de Aztlan is a Chicano/Latino student organization that promotes cultural awareness on campus and self knowledge. As Chicano/as we have been denied our history long enough. We are among the first generation of mass educated Chicano/as and as such this organization voices our sentiments as well as opinions making your experience here at the UW-Madison truly culturally diverse and rich.

What ever your needs are La Colectiva Cultural de Aztlan would like to help. We have something to offer everyone but, what we stress is, “You get out what you put in.” For example, when a student is tired of Madison and school and needs to get out for a while, our members go on conferences across the country. If you want to be more politically involved or aware, we usually have speakers or discussion of Chicano/Latino issues of campus and national importance. We have campus wide channels of communication and ties with several faculty members which makes addressing concerns very informal and comfortable. If you just want to make new friends and find all the cool place to hang out or eat, you can meet them at our meetings on Fridays at six and socials to follow. Call our office at 262-9669 for more information!

Welcome! We look forward to meeting you!
