UNDER THE DOME

An unusually large number of astronomers and graduate students visited the Yerkes Observatory during the summer. Dr. Edison Pettit, well known astronomer of the Mount Wilson Observatory has carried on important research on the sun. Professor Cook of the Presbyterian College has cooperated with Dr. Elvey in some of the latter's work. Professor C.P. Olivier of the University of Pennsylvania spent several weeks at the Observatory. Professor Hassler of the University of Oklahoma tested a 10-inch telescope which he has recently purchased from Mr. Ridell. Professor Recht of the University of Denver was engaged in computing the position of a comet expected next year. Professor Camp of Yankton College, worked under the direction of Professor Van Biesbroeck. Mr. O.C. Collins of the University of Nebraska came to the Observatory to carry on research in astrophysics. Mr. Ebbighausen of the University of Minnesota is spending a month in Williams Bay observing with the reflector.

Mr. J.A. Hynek has completed the requirements for the Doctor's degree and expects to take his examination on September 27. He has received an appointment on the staff of the Perkins Observatory at Delaware, Ohio. Miss Helen Story assisted in some of the observations and took graduate courses at the Observatory. Mr. W.H. Garrett, Vice President of Baker University in Kansas, spent several weeks in Williams Bay.

The Observatory is glad to announce the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. P. Swings of the University of Liege, Belgium. Dr. Swings spent several months in Williams Bay in 1931, and is now in charge of an astronomical laboratory in Belgium. He expects to be here for several months.

Other visitors to the Yerkes Observatory were Professor A.

Wallenquist of the University of Upsala, Sweden, who has spent six years making astronomical observations in Lembang, Java; Dr. Stoy, who is a member of the Harvard College Observatory station in South Africa; Dr. Beals who is an astronomer at the Dominion Observatory, Victoria, B.C.; Dr. Wilson, of Pasadena, Calif.

Several other scientists are expected to be here in August and September.

ELEANOR CAMP

Eleanor Camp closes its season on Monday evening September 2. The season has been unusually successful. The registration has exceeded that of last year by several hundred. The weather was for the most part, excellent and the Camp grounds beautiful.

Eleanor Camp is an Association of which Lake Geneva residents are justly proud. It draws a group of girls who appreciate fully the privileges which are theirs in this Camp.

The Camp is a part of the Eleanor Association of Chicago; an organization founded by Ina Law Robertson and which reaches a very large number of girls and women, particularly of the business world. The Camp itself, was founded twenty-eight years ago. It occupies one of the choicest locations on Lake Geneva. It possesses twenty-five permanent tents, a beautiful dining hall and an equally artistic recreation hall, two office buildings, all structures built in keeping with the setting. Tennis Courts, an Archery range, beautifully kept lawn, private pier; all equipment any camper could desire is there.

The Sunday afternoon Vespers draw unusually fine speakers. This season many of the Vesper speakers have been Lake Geneva and Williams Bay residents. Miss Florence Dibell Bartlett will address the last Vesper group on Sunday Sept. 1.

The Camp closing will include over two hundred guests. The opening and the closing are occasions of considerable importance and popularity among Eleanor friends.

Mr. Louis Kaphengst has rented Mrs. Olaf Olson's house in Oakwoods Estates for a year and will take possession about October 1st.

WHAT IS WORSHIP?

"IT IS THE SOUL SEARCHING FOR ITS COUNTERPART.

IT IS A THIRSTY LAND CRYING OUT FOR RAIN.

IT IS A DROP IN QUEST OF THE OCEAN.

IT IS A VOICE IN THE NIGHT CALLING FOR HELP.

IT IS A SOUL STANDING IN AWE BEFORE THE MYSTERY OF THE UNIVERSE.

IT IS A HUNGRY HEART SEEKING FOR LOVE.

IT IS TIME FLOWING INTO ETERNITY.

IT IS A MAN CLIMBING THE ALTAR STAIRS TO GOD. "

The above lines, quoted from Dr. Dwight Bradley, picture the ideal after which we strive in our worship services.

The Honorable Fred T. Wilson, of Washington, D.C., will be the speaker at the morning worship service, next Sunday, September first, using as the topic for his sermon, "Some Revelations of God." Mr. Wilson is an attorney, lecturer, writer and lay preacher. He is employed in the legal department of the Federal Home Owner's Corporation. He is coming through this part of the country on a lecture tour and the Williams Bay Congregational Church counts itself fortunate to have secured him for the Sunday morning speaker next Sunday.

All who are inspired to worship through beauty have a treat in store next Sunday evening, September first, when the combined choirs of our church sing in a Candlelight Musical Service. There will be solos, instrumental numbers, and several anthems by The Boys Choir. An offering will be taken, to go to the music fund of our church.

dedicated for religious purposes. Its influence is far reaching. Many noted church men and women, including bishops, missionaries, from many countries, ministers, religious education directors and active laymen have helped to make these meetings worth while.

The Conference Point Camp Family consisted of about sixty members from ten states this year. They remain throughout the season.

It was in this Camp in the year 1886, that plans were made for the organization of the Young Women's Christian Association.

NEW WORD a DAY CLUB

has been started by Mr. Jack E. Vincent as the last of the FERA studies for the summer. This club may be joined by anyone and a NEW WORD and two questions will be posted each day. On September 20, an old fashioned 'spell down' will be staged in the Community Room as a part of a farewell party for Mr. Vincent, who will leave late in September for California to resume his work in the CCC Camps. The seven boys who gave the little playlet, 'ALL FOR A GIRL', will repeat the show on Sept. 20. The public will be invited FREE.

Words listed so far are taken from a list of 1000 "STICKLERS" compiled by Dr. J.G. Orr, Univ. of Washington; at Seattle. They are for the past week-charivari, a celebration after a marriage: Hydrophobia, meaning rabies or "mad dog" disease; Amnesia, meaning loss of memory; nautical, pertaining to seamen or ships; aggregate, collected into a sum or formed by collection.

A great interest is shown in the new club as the idea is endorsed by famous persons and educators everywhere in order to increase your vocabulary and improve your speech. Pictures of some person are

THE NEW COMET

The Yerkes Observatory was on the front line of the news this week when it was announced that Prof. George Van Biesbroeck had found a new comet on August 20.

Plates exposed on that night with the reflector in the South-east dome, were examined the next morning in order to locate one of the numerous small planets of the solar system, a kind of work that has been carried on for years at the Observatory.

The object sought for was duly located as a small star shifting its place from hour to hour; but the observer noticed not far from it and on the same plate, a fuzzy round spot which also drifted among the background stars. This could neither be a star nor a small planet, and was recognized at once as a faint unexpected comet.

The evening of August 21st was awaited to check the reality of the discovery, and the clear sky allowed the faint newcomer to be seen with the large refractor. The director of the Observatory then sent out the information and through the special telegraphic code used for that purpose, the other observatories were notified in a short time.

Favorable weather has made it possible to follow the comet for several days. From the computations made at the Observatory, it appears that the brightness will increase somewhat without however, reaching naked-eye visibility as customary. The object, which will apparently remain in sight for several months will receive the name of the discoverer, but ~~it~~ ~~it~~ will be Comet Van Biesbroeck because this same observer found his first new comet ten years ago.

THE WALWORTH COUNTY FAIR

opens in Elkhorn on Labor Day and will run through Thursday Sept. 5- and promises to be a GREAT FAIR. More than eleven thousand dollars is being offered in premiums for the different exhibits. One Walworth County woman has shown her interest in the Fair by entering 136 different items in nearly every department in which women are eligible to enter.

Tuesday Sept. 3 will be Legion Day at the Walworth County Fair and the County Committee has arranged a complete program of colorful drills. Military music will be furnished by the Whitewater American Legion Band and the Delavan Legion Drum and Bugle Corps. The crack drill team of the Washington Post of Milwaukee will perform in front of the grandstand during the evening show.

The Legion will have a booth on the grounds for the entire week. The purpose of this booth is to provide a place where any ex-service man may come with his questions and receive official information. The information booth will be operated by a member from the service department of the State office.

Any questions regarding compensation, disability, hospitalization or any other problems of the ex-service man or any of his family will be answered.

The committee in charge urges that all Legionnaires who attend the fair wear full uniform if possible, or the cap of service.

Adjutant Martin Watner, Mrs. Watner and sons of New Castle, Indiana, spent the weekend at their cottage on Elm St. Mr. and Mrs. Watner are both associated with the Salvation Army at New Castle.

CONTRACTS LET ON WATER TO CEDAR POINT PARK AND BOOSTER STATION

E.M. Scheflow of Elgin, Ills. who laid the original watermains in the village was the successful bidder at the opening of the bids for both the Watermains Extension and the Booster Station, which was held last Thursday night, Aug. 22nd.

The bid was for $49,323.03 for the mains and $5700 for the station.

Two other firms bid on the water extension; Bahr Construction Co., Manitowac and George D. Hardin, Chicago., the latter company also bid on the Booster Station.

Village President F.A. Anderson and Trustees Breen and Ambrose went to Milwaukee Monday to the PWA office and received assurance that the work could get under way shortly after Labor Day.

The proceeds of the sale of the $38,000 Bond issue are available to start the work. The Government buys the special assessment bonds as the work progresses.

An incident illustrating the importance of promptness came out at the meeting for the opening of the bids. One bidder who had spent several days figuring on the job and had been in the village for a couple of days previous to the meeting, arrived at the Village Board meeting three minutes late and his bid could not be considered.

The 74th Congress before its hurried adjournment Monday night voted six months strict neutrality for America and stressed emphasis on determination of America to avoid entanglement in a foreign war.

"War anywhere in the world meant the immediate concern of all the world"-Woodrow Wilson.

WILSON COLLEGE CAMPUS

ANNOUNCES

FRED TAYLOR WILSON

HISTORIAN, LECTURER, AUTHOR

LECTURING IN LEWIS AUDITORIUM

FRIDAY AUGUST 30 8:00 P. M.

ON THE TOPIC:

"OUR CONSTITUTION AND ITS MAKERS"

THE GREATEST ISSUE IN AMERICAN POLITICAL AND SOCIAL HISTORY FOR MANY YEARS ARE AT STAKE NOW IN RELATION TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. SHALL IT BE MAINTAINED IN ITS PRESENT FORM, OR MODIFIED IN HARMONY WITH CERTAIN PREVALENT SOCIAL PHILOSOPHIES? VAST CONSEQUENCES TO ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND SOCIAL LIFE FOR YEARS TO COME WILL FLOW FROM THE EVENTS AND ATTITUDES OF THE NEXT FEW YEARS TOWARDS THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION.

Few men in the Middle West are better qualified than Mr. Fred T. Wilson to speak on this strategic question. He has been an active student of this subject for many years, has written a most important book "Our Constitution and Its Makers" which was the result of thorough researches at Washington in the national archives. He has also produced "Ten Pictures of the Presidents" - a brief but complete biographies of all our presidents from Washington to Hoover inclusive. As a lecturer, he has won highest praise from many very significant audiences and observers. Here is a typical comment from Hon. J. W. Carow, Speaker of the Wisconsin Assembly, Madison, Wis: "I wish to thank you for your address on the Constitution. It was intensely interesting and instructive and was listened to with rapt attention by the members of our Assembly."

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO BE PRESENT.

NO ADMISSION CHARGE.
