|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHEN LOVES SWEET DREAM IS O'ER, 40cBallad, by Wm. B. Gray. The latest from this well-known writer's pen, and bound to out-rival his many successes.                                                           | THERE WAS NO BRIDEGROOM THERE, 40cPathetic Waltz Song, by G. L. Spaulding."The wedding feast was ready all the friends assembled there,And every one was eager to congratulate the pair."Rich in story, rare in melody. |
| DAR'S A WATERMELON SPOILIN' DOWN AT JOHNSON'S, 40cComic, by J. W. Wheeler. A genuine darkey song with lots of "go" in it.                                                                                     | THE BELLE OF THE BOULEVARD, 40cMarch Song, by Geo. M. Cohan. The dash and spirit of this song, with its up-to-date words and splendid two-step music, makes it an assured success.                                              |
| A KISS WAS THE CAUSE OF IT ALL, 40cSentimental, by Gussie L. Davis. Mr. Davis' reputation as a song writer is so well established, that the only comment necessary is that this is as good as his best.       | PRETTY EYES OF BONNIE BLUE, 40cBy the late Arthur West. Written just before his death, and conceded to be by all odds, his prettiest song.                                                                                      |
| HOW DO YOU DO, MR. McCUE? 40cComic, by Wm. Beebe. A rollicking Irish song, with all the elements of popularity necessary to make it a winner.                                                                 | TELL ME OF MY OLD SWEETHEART, 40cSentimental Song, by J. P. Skelly. A very pretty story and pleasing waltz melody, written in Mr. Skelly's inimitable style. Especially good for tenor.                                         |
| GERALDINE, 40cBallad, by A. N. LaBrie. Another "O Promise Me," and decidedly the prettiest ballad it has been our pleasure to hear for some time.                                                             | DAISY, BLOOMERS, WHEEL AND ALL, 40cComic Song, by Chas. Shackford. No portfolio is complete without a bicycle song, and this is the funniest and brightest of them all. To hear it is to like it.                               |
| A LITTLE PIECE OF STRING AROUND HIS NECK, 40cTopical song, by Philander Johnson. Introduced by Tony Pastor, Lew Dockstader, Kittie Gilmore, and many others. Funnier than the funniest.                       | SWEET ANTOINETTE, 40cBallad with Refrain, by Wm. B. Gray. One of the sweetest songs in our catalogue. Sung by all the leading tenors, and always received with applause.                                                        |
| THE POPULAR MAN ABOUT TOWN, 40cCharacter Waltz Song, by G. L. Spaulding. Waltz Songs are always in demand, and this new one by the author-composer of "My Mary Green" is sure to become a universal favorite. | BABY HAS GONE TO SLEEP, 40cPathetic Song, by Jos. Flynn. A beautiful story, blended to a sympathetic melody.                                                                                                                    |
| WHAT WON'T WE DO FOR LOVE? 40cWaltz Song, by Geo. M. Cohan. A very novel and original idea, expressed in beautiful words and catchy music by the author of "VENUS, MY SHINING LOVE."                          | T'WAS A SAD TRIP COMING BACK, 40cComic, by Gussie L. Davis. Full of unusually good humor. A positive cure for the blues.                                                                                                        |
| MOTHER IS MY BEST GIRL NOW, 40cHome Song, by John McCale. A touching story that appeals to everyone, and Mr. McCale has surpassed himself in this, his best effort.                                           | JESSIE OF SWEET ABERDEEN, 40cSentimental, by Chas. Graham. Nothing since "Scotch Lassie Jean," has appealed to us so strongly as this delightful song of the same order.                                                        |
| SINCE MY BROTHER GOT A JOB IN UNION SQUARE, 40cCharacter Song, by Wm. B. Gray. There have been many so-called "tough songs" this season, but none to equal this. For amateur or professional.                 | BLACK BALLED IN THE LIME KILN CLUB, 40cComic Negro Song, by Gussie L. Davis. An excruciatingly funny darkey song, as sung by George Primrose, Lew Dockstader, Carroll Johnson, Etc.                                             |
