STOCK SHOW IS TO BE STAGED HERE FEB. 23-4

Ag College Plans Big Winter Festival

Twenty horses will enter the ring in competition for the numerous prizes that are to be awarded at the Wisconsin Little International live stock show and Winter farm festival to be held at the College of Agriculture, February 23 and 24.

In addition to the horses shown at halter, numerous draft horses, express horses, and other horses in harness are listed for the evening show. An attractive feature of the show will be the exhibition of the Wilson and Co. world champion six horse team of Clydesdales.

Many Prize Animals

Of the horses shown at halter, 13 are Percherons, five are Clydesdales, and two are Belgians. Some of the animals were exhibited at the International fat stock show in Chicago last fall and won prizes at the classic live stock event.

Many substantial prizes are to be awarded to the winners of the different classes. Four subscriptions to the Breeder's Gazette and eight Percheron watch fobs will be given to the winners in the Percheron class. Ribbons donated by the American Clydesdale Breeders' association are available for the best exhibitors of the Clydesdale breed.

To Show Plant Disease

A study of the effect of climate on the disease resisting ability of different plants at the plant pathology department will be a special feature of the festival.

"Plants, like people, vary greatly in their ability to resist disease," said R. B. Streets, plant pathologist. "Plants also vary greatly in their ability to resist disease under different weather conditions."

The equipment for controlling these various factors will be in operation in the plant pathology green houses during the visit of the students of the high schools of the state to the University.

Large tanks of water cooled by brine coils or heated with electric control devices, humidity recording instruments, are some of the artificial weather control means that will be on exhibition. The laboratories will be filled with sterilizers, steamers, ovens and other strange apparatus whose operation will be demonstrated by competent men.

EPISCOPAL SOCIETY TO HEAR OF MISSIONS

Members of the St. Francis society will hear a discussion on missionary work in the Near East and Asiatic countries Sunday night following the regular supper at the club house on University avenue. C. G. Dittmer, of the department of economics, will speak on "The Awakened East," and his talk will be followed with a general discussion.

Mr. Dittmer will tell the students what he thinks of the advisability of continuing foreign missionary work. Some foreign workers are of the opinion that it would be better to allow the so-called heathen nations develop their own religion.

The society gave a costume party at the Grace church guild hall last night. It was the last regular dance for some time as there will be no strictly social function during Lent.

The monthly corporate communion of the society will be served in the guild hall after the service.

JOURNALISM STUDENT DIES AT INFIRMARY

Dorothea J. Fix, a freshman in the Course in Journalism died Thursday morning at 4 o'clock in the infirmary. She left Barnard hall and moved to the infirmary three weeks ago when her illness, tuberculosis meningitis, became serious. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fix, Union Center, came to Madison a week ago. They left yesterday with the body.

CRITICS PRAISE NEW LIT ISSUE AS YEAR'S BEST

The February issue of the "Lit" will be the finest to appear this year, according to critics who have surveyed the material which will compose the latest issue of the Wisconsin Literary Magazine, on sale on the campus next Tuesday.

Two groups of poems by William Ellery Leonard selected from a volume which was privately published about five years ago, is the outstanding feature of the issue.

Only a few of Professor Leonard's closest friends have seen these poems, but they are said to be among the best verse that Wisconsin's poet has ever written.

A number of translations from German and Austrian authors are included in the second group of poems. "Austrian Cavalier Tune" written at the front, is perhaps the best of this group.

The bugaboo of Puritanism which has had so much to do with the feebleness of American literature in the past is valiantly assailed by Prof. Leonard in "For Certain Moralists." In no uncertain language does the poet attack those "immoral moralists" who know not one moment of earth's reality.

The cover is an illustration by Wallace Smith from Ben Hecht's recent novel, "Fantasius Mallare," which was suppressed by literary censors. "I consider that a great injustice has been done, said Mr. Smith, who has been called "the Beardsley of America," in writing to the editors concerning the use

SCIENCE CAN'T JUDGE FAITHS

—FOSTER

Campus Religious Council Meets to Plan Annual Conference Here

Scientists, confined to the narrow limits of their research work, are not capable of venturing into the religious field with authoritative opinions, and for that reason they should refrain from expressing opinions on subjects pertaining only to religion, is the gist of the address made by Dr. Allan K. Foster of New York at the meeting of the campus religious council, held in the Y. M. C. A. at noon yesterday.

Dr. Foster declared that scientists who thus interfere with religion are transgressing on the rights of others.

Will Honor "Y" Head

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing plans for the annual religious conference which will be held in the University Y. M. C. A., March 2-4.

John R. Mott, head of the national Y. M. C. A. will be in Madison at that time to attend the conference.

A luncheon in Mr. Mott's honor will be held in the Y. M. C. A. by the campus religious council on Saturday, March 3. On the preceding evening the faculty of the university will honor Mr. Mott at a luncheon.

Plan House Meetings

One phase of the annual conference will be the meetings which will be held in the fraternity and sorority houses and the church houses during the conference period.

To prepare more thoroughly for the annual conference, a meeting of all the campus church bodies, will be held in Union hall, on February 25 at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Grenfeld, a missionary from Labrador, will address the combined meeting on his work in the north country.

AGRIC TRIANGLE WILL HEAR MADISON MAN

E. N. Warner, Madison attorney and prominent Dane county social worker, will address the members of Agric Triangle in the S. G. A. room of Lathrop hall at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Community cooperation is the subject of Mr. Warner's address. Warner is president of the Wisconsin Country Life conference and is considered an authority on community cooperation.

Elaborate Carnival Program Opens Today With Long Dash

Madison Merchants Offer Many Attractive Prizes to Winners of Events.

The university's best skaters will compete for honors in the seventh annual ice carnival which opens with the 220-yard dash on Lake Mendota at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The entire afternoon will be taken up with skating events, ice boat races, toboggan races and exhibitions of fancy skating. The evening program consists of a parade along State street, fireworks, bonfire, fancy skating, dancing, and a costume parade. Members of W. A. A. will serve hot lunches in the warming house near the ski jump.

The schedule of events will follow in the order shown on the program which will be distributed to spectators this afternoon.

Prizes Are Attractive

Prizes consisting of silver loving cups and articles donated by Madison merchants are being offered for the various events. Spalding's Sporting Goods company donated a pair of tube skates and Nester-Johnson company donated gold, silver and bronze medals. The skates will be awarded to the winner of the two-mile race.

The stores which have donated prizes are Hill's, Duffy's hat shop, Candy shop, Unique shop, Jensen's boot shop, State Street Leader, Anderson Jewelry company, Morgan's, Netherwood's and the Shadauer china shop.

Several teams will compete for cups in the inter-fraternity and inter-sorority relay races. The fraternity relay race will be one mile in length, each man skating over a 440-yard course. The sorority relay race will be over a half mile course. These events will take place at 3 o'clock.

Faculty Will Enter

Relay teams representing the athletic department, the military department, and the engineering faculty have been entered. Teams from each college on the Hill are expected to enter a relay race also.

No entry fee will be charged for any of the events except the relays. All skaters entering any of the events have been requested to register their names at the gymnasium before 1 o'clock today in order to lessen the confusion on the ice before each race.

The preliminary races will take place at 3 o'clock, according to Kibo Brumm '24, who has charge of these events. The finals will take place at 7:45 o'clock in the evening.

Violet Rusch to Perform

Skating stunts will be performed

BADGER MATMEN TAKE ON GOPHER TEAM TONIGHT

Dope Gives Edge to Northwestern

Future rivals of Strangler Lewis and Joe Stevens will oppose when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet in the first home wrestling match of the season at 8 o'clock tonight. Seven bouts will be held on the basketball court in the armory.

Last-minute illness of Phelps, 115-pound grappler, has forced Coach Hitchcock to make changes in his line-up. Suzuki will wrestle in place of Phelps and George Schaeckel has been selected to represent Wisconsin in the lightweight division.

Several Football Stars

Football men will furnish the feature bouts of the tourney. Fred Oster, Minnesota grid fullback, will have his hands full when he steps onto the mat for a set-to with Capt. E. H. T-m-p-m, Badger star light heavyweight.

Templin threw Larry Horton, Northwestern cruiserweight and football center, when Wisconsin trounced the Purple mat team. He will have to win his bout tonight or be eliminated from consideration when individual titles in the inter-collegiate wrestling association are decided.

Bieberstein, a Wisconsin gridman grapples with Catangaro in the heavyweight match. He was returned victor in the Northwestern series of bouts and is given an even chance of conquering his opponent from the north.

Team has One Victory

With one victory to its credit, the Wisconsin mat squad will exert every effort to maintain a clean record. Minnesota lost to Iowa university, but one victory will improve its standing in the Western wrestling conference. Iowa, Ames, Ohio State, and Wisconsin tied for first place, Ames and Ohio each have won three meets.

With injuries forcing Coach Hitchcock to enter second-string men against the Gophers, Wisconsin stock has taken a slump. Minnesota has always held a slight edge over Badger wrestling teams and the old jinx appears to have been stalking on Hitchcocks trail again.

"Although we will be under a disadvantage with two new men wrestling, we have a fair chance for victory," Coach Hitchcock said late yesterday afternoon. "Each of the men who will compete is in good condition and each will fight hard to gain a fall or a decision."

California Accepts Track Meet With Nebraska April 7

Ray Cortelyou, athletic manager of the University of California, announced his acceptance of April 7 as the date for the track meet between that institution and the University of Nebraska Wednesday. The meet will be held at Berkeley, California. En route to Berkeley, the Nebraskans will stop at Albuquerque, N. M. to play the University of New Mexico March 28, and at Tucson, Arizona, to play the University of Arizona March 31.

Department Estimates Show Big Plant Loss From Disease

Millions of dollars are lost annually through crop diseases in Wisconsin according to estimates of experts on plant diseases. In 1920 the losses through diseases of barley amounted to $1,478,000. Losses due to diseases of other crops include corn, 432,000 bushels; oats, 3,913,000; and potatoes affected with late blight, 108,000 bushels. Through the efforts of the plant pathology department, many disease resistant varieties of plant, and many methods of control have been discovered.

"Distinguished rating" for its military department was recently won for the fifth time by the university.

RED MILL BLAZE GIVES CO-EDS THRILL

An overheated chimney is thought to have caused the blaze which broke out on the fourth floor of the Red Mill, girls' rooming house at 257 Langdon street, shortly after eight o'clock yesterday morning, driving about twenty co-eds into the street in their night clothes. The damage is estimated at about $10,000.

Gene Cavanaugh '23, Dorothy Crain '23, Edith Tilton '24, and Lillian Paisley '24, who live on the fourth floor, narrowly escaped being trapped by the flames, but were rescued when firemen cut their way through the wall partitions and opened an avenue of escape.

The girls found refuge in the Delta Gamma house across the street, while firemen made an effort to save clothing and other personal property before smoke made the work impossible. The building is owned by Dennis Finney, whose wife conducts the rooming house.

DR. J. R. MOTT WILL ADDRESS CONFERENCE

Dr. John R. Mott will be the principal speaker at the meetings of the Campus religious conference to be held here March 2, 3, and 4. The Fiske singers will entertain at each meeting with Negro folk songs. The program for the conference was announced yesterday by "Dad" Wolfe. All convocations and mass meetings will be held in Lathrop gym.

On Friday, March 2, a faculty luncheon will be held for Dr. Mott. At 3:30 o'clock there will be an all-university convocation, for which classes will be dismissed. At 7:30 o'clock a mass meeting will be held.

A luncheon for the Campus religious council will be held on Saturday. Other mass meetings will be called at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and at 3:30 and 7:30 o'clock Sunday.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The summer conference at Racine college, suspended last year, will be resumed for the summer from July 2 to 14, according to the Irving church, official organ of the Protestant Episcopal church.

WEATHER: FAIR

Generally fair weather Saturday and probably Sunday is predicted for Madison and vicinity, with no change in temperature. The lowest temperature for Friday was 6.2 at 7 a. m.; and the highest 18.8 at 7 p. m.

POLITICAL MAG MAKES DEBUT

The Scorpion, Published Anonymously; Appears at News Stand

Anonymously edited and bearing on its masthead the self-characterization: "A political newspaper published fortnightly by a group of students at the University of Wisconsin." Not recognized as a University publication, the first issue of The Scorpion recently heralded on bulletin boards on the university grounds as a paper everyone would read—appeared on the streets near the campus last night.

Circumstances surrounding the debut of the publication border on the mysterious, since not even the editorial staff has been divulged.

The only definite information included in the paper states that the business and editorial office is located at 901 University avenue.

The office door at that address bears the legend, "University Typing and Auditing Service," and below this appear the names of J. H. Brooks, L. H. Branks, H. B. Shier and P. W. Voltz, and the calling card of David Sinclair, son of the author. All are students in the university.

The periodical claims to be an independent organ of independent student thought, not requesting recognition as a student publication. One plank in its platform set forth in the first edition as one to be tenaciously held to, is framed from the words of Wendell Phillips: "If there is anything that cannot bear free thought, let it crack."

MUSIC TO ACCOMPANY FESTIVITIES TONIGHT

Band Music with skating will be one of the features at the ice carnival tonight. The music will be furnished every Saturday night hereafter until the close of the season, under the auspices of the athletic department. There will be a charge of 25 cents a person to cover the cost of the music. If it proves successful, music also will be played on Friday night according to George Martin in charge of the skating classes. A house has been built for the band at the foot of Charter street near the warming house.

Some 72 men students from cadet regiments of the university military department attended army training camps last summer.

LIT SOCIETIES RESUME WORK

Campus literary societies, after their long period of inactivity due to Christmas vacation and the examination period, resumed their regular meetings and programs on Friday evening.

Philomathia's program consisted of the inauguration of the newly elected officers and the inauguration of the new president, C. A. Rawson '23. A debate on the subject "Resolved, that Division of Labor is beneficial to the working people" was won by the affirmative team, which consisted of C. H. Hicks '24 and V. F. Houghton '25. The negative team was composed of W. T. Peterson '24 and H. K. Snell '25, closer.

Athena's opening program consisted of a talk by G. Bell '25, entitled "The Case for and against the proposed Point System." A debate on the subject "Resolved, that the French Invasion of the Ruhr is justifiable" was won by the negative team, composed of S. Soref '23, and W. Huber '23, while the affirmative team was composed of Hesperia began the new semester with the inauguration of officers and a parliamentary drill. V. Roick '23 made an introductory speech. A talk on "Words" by E. Ylvisaker '23 was followed by a general society discussion on "The French Invasion of the Ruhr Valley." Tryout speeches were delivered by B. A. Weimer '25, A. S. Weekss '25, and H. J. Katowitz L. 1.

Orph Minstrels and Dancers

Play Last Times Today

The week-end program at the Orpheum, playing for the last times today, consists of one of the daintiest dancing acts ever seen on any stage. Youth, beauty and talent in an offering of elaborate fashion is that being presented by the Misses Beatrice Gardel and Ruth Pryor, who have won great popularity for their distinctive abilities as dancers.

The old days of minstrels are recalled when George Wilson, of Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West fame, presents the up-to-date minstrel novelty "Stranded."

Sid Lewis, the original "Nut Comedian," has returned with a new line of patter that still gives him the distinction of being the most unusual "nut" in vaudeville. String Comedy of the funniest kind is put over by Coscia and Verdi. "A Few Moments Musical" is the title that fits Leo Flanders and Geneve Butler.

Boston Wins By One Point

Over Ohio in Rifle Shoot

Boston university defeated Ohio State by one point in their telegraph rifle shoot, Coach George Davis of Boston university announced Wednesday. Two girls played on the Ohio team and each had a perfect score. The official results of the match were 497 to 496.

Need $165 a Year to Keep Modern Flapper in Clothing

What does it cost to dress a girl? If you ever had to pay for the attire in which our modern flappers go forth to conquer you may have been somewhat staggered by the cost of their raiment.

Here are some figures to place before the extravagant offspring with a triumphant flourish. They are furnished by girls in the household arts department of North Division High school, who have figured that the high school girl can dress for $165 a year.

If you can induce young Saphronia to make her clothes at home, it has been estimated that you will hereby gain $25 on the budget. The budget also takes into consideration the wear and tear on clothing, and divides the cost of a coat worn two years in two parts, so that only half of the purchase price is included in the budget for a single year.

Here's the dope on what the well-dressed high school girl can spend during the winter season, according to one budget:

Winter coat	$16.00
Hat	2.80
Wool cap and scarf	2.00
Skating sweater and cap	4.00
Two pair of oxfords	12.00
White slippers	2.50
Boots	2.25
Two pair wool stockings	1.50
Two pair silk stockings	3.00
Sport Sox	1.00
Two pair mixed silk and wool	1.50
Three pair heavy bloomers	3.75
Four undershirts	3.00

VARSITY TRACK TEAM SWAMPS FROSH, 70 TO 11

Yearlings Win Only One Event

Taking eight out of nine firsts and nearly as large a proportion of seconds and thirds, the Varsity track men smothered the freshmen by a 70 to 11 score in a dual meet yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium annex.

The High jump was the only event in which the first year men scored a win. The 40-yard high hurdles was the only event in which the freshmen took more than one place.

Johnson was the only man in the meet to score more than one place taking first in the 440 and third in the 40-yard dash. The extra point makes him high individual scorer for the day.

Superior on Field Events

Both teams showed up better in the field events than on the track. Van Ellis' mark of 39 feet 5 inches in the shot put being good for an early season record. The freshmen scored more in the field events than in the runs, getting places in the high jump, pole vault, and shot put. The only run that they counted in was the 40-yard high hurdles.

The distance runs were taken in handy fashion by the favorites. Perry ran a good race in the two-mile, finishing about 30 yards ahead of Cohen. Schneider and Rossmessel topped firsts in the mile and 880, respectively, without much trouble. Johnson took first in the 440 easily, lying back for a lap and a half and then picking up his field like a scraper gathering gravel. He started three yards behind scratch.

Hammann Takes Pole Vault

Hammann took first in the pole vault and Tomlinson and Schmidt split the three points for second. Olson scored a point for the freshmen by reason of the tie.

Results in each event were as follows:

40-yard dash—Eagleberger, first; Krohn, second; Johnson, third; all three of Varsity team. Time, 4 6-10 seconds.

40-yard high hurdles—Newell, Varsity first; Zilish, freshman, second; Holmes, freshman, third. Time, 5 6-10 seconds.

440-yard dash—Johnson, first; Ellison, second; Flueck, third; all three of Varsity team. Time, 55 3-5 seconds.

880-yard run—Rossmessel, first; Valley, second; Niederman, third; all three of Varsity team. Time, 2 minutes, 6 seconds.

1 mile—Schneider, first; Ramsay, second; Bergstresser, third; all three of Varsity team. Time, 4 minutes, 33 2-5 seconds.

Two-mile run—Perry, first; Cohen, second; Swingle, third; all three of Varsity team. Time, 10 minutes 31 seconds.

Shot put—Van Ellis, Varsity first; Yaudes, Varsity, second; Thomsen, freshmen, third. Distance 39 feet, 5 inches.

High jump—Brown, freshman, first; Tuhtar, Varsity, second; Helz Varsity, third. Height, 5 feet, 11 inches.

Pole Vault—Hammann, Varsity, first; Tomlinson, Varsity, and Schmidt, Varsity, tied for second; Olson, freshman, third; Height, 11 feet, 6 inches.

WRESTLERS MEET GOPHERS TONIGHT

New rules of the Western Intercollegiate association will prevail in the match. A fall will count 5 points for the winner and a decision will net 3 markers. In case a tie exists at the end of the 12-minute wrestling period, two overtime bouts of three minutes each will be wrestled.

George Penney, Gary, Ind., has been chosen referee.

Entries in the match follow:

Wisconsin	Weight	Minnesota
Suzuki	115	Babcock
Benbow	125	Leaby
Schaeckel	135	Halvorson
Hembre	145	Capt. Brown
Heuer	158	Porzadek
Capt. Templin	175	Oster
Bieberstein	Heavyweight	Catangaro

STROM WILL JUMP IN BIG MEET TODAY

Sverre Strom will represent Wisconsin in two ski tournaments which will be held at Minneapolis today and tomorrow in connection with the annual Northwest ice carnival.

Strom will jump in the national intercollegiate meet today and is entered in the national tourney tomorrow. He will leave today for Minneapolis.

The University of Minnesota probably will meet members of the Badger ski club in a dual tournament here next Saturday, it was announced yesterday by an officer of the club. Minnesota has met Wisconsin in two dual meets, losing the first and winning the second.

Entrants in the last ski race held under the auspices of the Badger Ski club have been barred from entering the three-mile race to be held as part of the ice carnival program this afternoon. The course will be laid one and one-half miles over the regular route, then to picnic point and back.

A ski race for boys is also on the program. It will be one and one-half miles in length.

LOSE STAR ON EVE OF MEET

Ewald, Star Dash Man, Cannot Swim Against Gophers Tonight

On the eve of its meet with the University of Minnesota, the Wisconsin swimming team was faced with the loss of Sterling D. Ewald '23, star dash man.

Fifteen natators and Coach Joseph C. Steinauer entrained last night for Minneapolis where they swim against the Gophers tonight.

Scholastic ineligibility of Ewald was not announced until late yesterday afternoon. Coach Steinauer was unable to decide upon a man to fill Ewald's place in the 40-yard dash and the 100-yard free style and probably will not make a selection until this afternoon.

Bennett "Iron Man"

Both Minnesota and Wisconsin have won their first water meets of the season. The northerners swamped Chicago, 58 to 18, and Wisconsin eked out a victory over Indiana by a sixpoint margin. Upon Capt. Johnny Bennett and Czerwonyk depends much of Wisconsin's chance to win against the Gophers.

Bennett is entered in the relay, 40-yard dash, 220-yard free style, and 100-yard dash. His ability to compete in several events has earned for him the title, "Iron Man of the Conference."

Gophers Have Stars

Fairey and Gow, dash men, Lanpher and Day are Gopher stars who are counted to keep Minnesota in the running for the Big Ten title. They captured a championship for their team last year.

Entries in the meet follow:

Relay—Wisconsin: Storey, Porter, Ewald, Bennett.

40-yard dash—Wisconsin: Bennett; Minnesota: Gow, Hauff.

100-yard free style—Wisconsin: Bennett; Minnesota: Gow and Hauff.

220-yard breast stroke—Wisconsin: Czerwonyk Polk; Minnesota: Faircy, Dinsmore.

220-yard free style—Wisconsin: Storey, Bennett; Minnesota: Lanpher and Mallory.

Dives—Wisconsin: Moroney, Koch.

Plunge—Wisconsin: Salstein, Dummer; Minnesota: Nutting, Sorensyn.

150-yard back stroke—Wisconsin: Czerwonyk, Porter; Minnesota: Day, Wallis.

Other men who are included in the squad are: Ellicott, Gilbreath, Lahmann, captain of the water basketball team, Pabst, Pope, H. H. Taylor, Lyons.

Aagesen is Ineligible For Varsity Tennis Activities

Nick Aagesen, Varsity tennis expert, has been counted out because of scholastic ineligibility, and Coach G. E. Linden will be forced to develop another racquet expert to fill his place. Aagesen was one of the outstanding Badger tennis players.

EYES CENTERED ON IOWA GAME AGAINST PURPLE

Purdue Plays Ohio Tonight

GAMES TONIGHT

Iowa at Northwestern.
Minnesota at Chicago.
Purdue at Illinois.

The Wisconsin-Michigan game scheduled to be played at Ann Arbor tonight has been postponed until next Wednesday night.

Eyes of the basketball world are turned to Evanston, Ill., tonight where Iowa university leading the Big Ten, is scheduled to clash with Coach Maurice Kent's Northwestern cage quintet. The Hawkeyes have a spotless record with five consecutive victories.

The Purple team is resting in sixth place with two wins and four defeats. Kent's outfit has been showing marked improvement in its later contests, and may upset the dope by turning out a win over Sam Barry and his speeding Hawks.

Iowa Offense Strong

Iowa has a 29 to 22 victory registered over Northwestern a few weeks ago. It has also beaten Michigan, 18 to 17, in one of the hardest matches of the season.

Those who have seen Iowa in action claim that the team has a strong offense which depends upon long, lucky shots for many points. The defense is loose and easily penetrated, as is evidenced by the large number of points scored in games played by Iowa.

Purdue Plays Ohio

One other title contender goes in to action tonight. Purdue is billed to tackle Ohio State. Although the Bollermakers are expected to win, especially after their defeat of Wisconsin, they will meet a good team in the Buckeyes.

Johnny Miner, leading scorer, beat Northwestern practically single-handed last week. Ohio got off to a bad start, losing its first two games after overtime periods had been played. Coach Harold Olsen, Wisconsin graduate and pupil of Coach Walter E. Meanwell, is in charge of the Ohians.

Badgers Set for Wolverines

Chicago and Minnesota jam in Bartlett gym, Chicago. Both quintets are leading contenders for the cellar title. Chicago has been coming right along and was nosed out by Illinois, 20 to 18, on Wednesday, after it had led at half-time. Minnesota was handicapped during the first semester by ineligibility of Ecklund and an injury which prevented Hultkranz from playing.

MANY OUTSIDERS ENTER CARNIVAL

The largest number of outside institutions ever to be entered in a relay carnival at the university will be on hand a week from tonight to compete in the 17th annual affair. High schools, academies, normal schools, colleges, and one other college of university rank besides Wisconsin will have entries in the meet.

Beloit, Milton, Ripon, Marquette have entered men in the special open events. These four will have teams entered in the state college relay championship also. Beloit won this event last year and hopes to repeat next week. Another win this year will go a long way toward possession of the trophy. The Beloit team holds the record in this event.

Marquette is expected to furnish the stiffest opposition for Wisconsin. Coach Jennings has a well-balanced team of capable cinder men. While it is not likely that the Milwaukee college will score many places over the Badgers, they will make the Varsity men step to beat them. Platteville normal undoubtedly will furnish some interest in the normal school class as well as the open events.

Wisconsin men who will be expected to do most of the scoring are Captain Spetz, Eagleburger, Johnson, Platten, Donohue, Newell, Hammann, Tomlinson and Van Ellis.

GYM TEAM TO START SEASON

Clash Tonight With Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. Tumblers in Initial Tilt

The Wisconsin gymnastic team will swing into action for the first time this season when it meets the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. tumblers at Milwaukee tonight.

The squad came through the examination siege without any serious losses, and a veteran outfit will stack up against the Milwaukee "Y" men. Capt. Kitchen, Badger leader, will enter the tumbling event. Kubosch, all-around man, who was ineligible for competition last year, is expected to hang up a few points in three events.

Wisconsin gymnasts set a record last year by defeating the Milwaukee turners in two meets.

Badger entries, announced by Coach Leitz yesterday, follow:

Horizontal bars—Kubosch, Bumer, H. W. Schmidt.

Parallel bars—Porth, Kubosch, Schmidt.

Rings—Porth, Schmidt, Bumer.

Side horse—M. E. Hansen, Stevens, Bumer.

Tumbling—Capt. Kitchen, Kubosch, Bumer.

Fencing—Thompson, Reinhold.

GOPHERS WIN IN FIRST RINK TILT BY 4 TO 1 SCORE

Badgers Score First on Visitors

Wisconsin put a crimp in the Minnesota record yesterday but could not stop the onslaught of two be-goggled Gopher stars and took a 4-1 defeat in the first hockey game, played on the lower campus rink yesterday afternoon.

The northmen have conquered every team met this year. Another game will be played at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

When Capt. Howie Combacker made a shot which sailed into the net early in the second period, the Gophers' 1923 record was ruined. The score was the first to be marked against them this season.

Gopher Men Star

The work of Bartlett and Bross, coupled with the excellent guarding of Graham, spelled defeat for the Badgers. Bartlett, playing in the right wing position played a fast game and succeeded in getting around the Badger defense for three scores. Wiatt, Gopher defense man, counted for the fourth tally.

Wisconsin lost two chances for scores when decisions went against them. At each instance there was a general piling up of men from both teams in front of the Wisconsin goal and it was difficult to tell whether or not the puck went into the goal.

Combacker Features

The work of Capt. Combacker was the feature of the Badger offense. He was the only man who could keep control of the puck for a period long enough to get it beyond the second Gopher defense. Johnson got through for numerous shots at the net but could not get the puck past the Minnesota goal tender.

The Badger sextet played well but the Minnesotans were invincible. The teamwork of the victors was perfect and the Badgers could not fathom their system of offense.

A second game between the two teams will be played on the lower campus this afternoon at 2 p. m.

The line-ups and summary follow:

Minnesota	Pos.	Wisconsin
Graham	Goal	Tredwell
Wiatt	L. D.	Mokrejs
Jacobson	R. D.	Blodgett
Swanson	L. W.	Johnson
Bartlett	R. W.	Fiske
Bross	C.	Combacker, Captain

Spares: Minnesota, Mann, Higgins, DeForest. Wisconsin, Von Czeleski.

Goals: Minnesota, Bartlett, 3; Wiatt, 1. Wisconsin, Combacker, 1. Referee, Joe Steinauer.

OPTIONAL DRILL AT WISCONSIN?

Recent activity of Wisconsin legislators in urging optional military drill here raises pertinently the question of whether compulsory drill at Wisconsin is advisable or not.

The causes of legislative opposition to the present compulsion seem to lie in the desire of socialist and republican leaders to execute platform planks condemning military training to their logical end.

That end is ridding the state of all devices which apparently tend toward war preparedness and militarism.

Whether the compulsory drill system here injects militarism into the student mind and whether it accomplishes the end of being a preparedness measure is a mooted question.

In justice to the military department it must be said that its intent and plan of course definitely is not to give the student a lust for war or a militaristic attitude of mind, but to give the student a suitable knowledge of military tactics and discipline as a war preparedness measure.

Whether the degree of accomplishment in this last respect is sufficient to warrant the continued existence of compulsory drill offers an additional and opposite reason to that of legislators for doubting the advisability of the present system.

It has been brought forcibly to the attention of The Cardinal that many students taking drill are dissatisfied with the work, chiefly because it is made compulsory. It is student nature to resist being compelled.

With that dissatisfaction in existence as a reality, can it be said that the results obtained in the military department are commensurate with the time, energy, and money expended?

It is argued that the system itself in a cantonment camp would achieve what the course here accomplishes in two years. While doubtless exaggeration there is some significance in the statement.

Again it must be said for the military department that the responsibility for the lack of efficacy and quantity of instruction does not rest with the department.

It is argued that the system itself is inherently unsatisfactory because it attempts to give sufficient instruction to approximately two thousand students by means of limited facilities and a limited staff in a limited space of time with the hours widely separated. Simply it is argued the job is too big to do effectively.

And hence we seem to have reason for considering the optional system whether a compulsory one does accomplish preparedness or whether it does not.

The optional system, according to present information, can be adopted without violating the provisions of the federal land grant. Michigan operates its department on the optional basis.

It must be remembered that the optional system would not destroy the military department.

It would simply be maintained on the basis in which knowledge is effectively disseminated on military subjects in the same manner that it is done in any hill course.

Students would attend because they were interested and would derive maximum benefit from expert instruction. Sufficient students would be enrolled to maintain desirable features such as the President's guard.

Student dissatisfaction and grumbling, which prohibits effective student training would be silenced.

These are sidelights and suggestions on the question now before the legislature.

Hearing of the bill will be held soon and these practical considerations along with political ones may be argued the job is too big to do diving at a decision as to what road Wisconsin's military system should travel.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The banjo, mandolin and glee clubs met last night to effect a consolidation and arrange for a short trip for this month.

A note from the column headed "college news" reads:

"There are 28 candidates for graduation at Leland Stanford university this year."

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The rumor that the Y. M. C. A. property next to the gymnasium is to be traded is unfounded.

There will be no skating at the ice carnival tonight on account of the soft ice.

The first game of the inter-society hockey league will be played tomorrow.

The request of the women of the university to play outside basketball games has been refused.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Wisconsin's near championship basketball team all remains eligible. Not one of the members of the squad received either flunks or cons in last semester's exams.

An indoor meet with the Gophers is probable.

A bill to abolish all secret orders, societies and fraternities in the schools of Wisconsin has been introduced into the state legislature.

LESCOLIER TO SPEAK TOMORROW AT FORUM

Professor D. D. Lescolier of the economics department will lead the discussion on the negro situation in the United States tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock at the University Methodist church.

Coming at a time when Lincoln is foremost in the attention of all, the subject is of especial interest. Professor Lescolier will sketch briefly the development of the negro problem and then show its effects on the economic and political life of the country, and the difficulties in the way of a solution.

Other speakers who are to lead Forum discussions this semester are Frank Hall, Madison attorney, Professor Farley of Lawrence college, who is one of the eminent psychologists of today, Prof. J. R. Commons and President Plantz of Lawrence college.

pus in the form of the Scorpion, a student-edited paper styling itself as a "political fortnightly."

The Cardinal welcomes the appearance of the Scorpion. As a public and unreserved means of expressing a phase of university and national thought it is an interesting project and may prove an exceedingly noteworthy one. The initiative of its editors is commendable.

If the paper's title be interpreted correctly, stings are due. And stings, expertly handled and well directed, oft times can do much to seek out the root of difficulty, bring error to light and correct it.

PLAY TODAY

A gala week of city playing culminates today in the university ice carnival on Lake Mendota. And today playing will cease to be solely the fun of townspeople. Activities will center in the university district and in all sorts of ice racing, skiing and tobogganing by university people.

Sports in which the mass can take part rather than watch are the ideal from a physical benefit point of view. Intermingling with townspeople does much to dissolve the provincial veneer too frequently accumulated—consciously and unconsciously—by the student, inevitably partially cloistered.

The opportunities to exercise, to connect with Madisonsans, and to play today are excellent.

No examinations or topics pend. The weather and the ice at the time of writing are most favorable to all types of diversion. Student and townspeople will sprawl on the ice together and get acquainted. It is a perfect day to play.

The policy of this colyum (on Saturdays, anyway) is three cheers for women, two cheers for wine, and an occasional spoomah for song. We believe firmly in galoshes, Paramount Pictures, and the Divine Right of the English department.

It is obvious from the start that we are going to disagree. But, as one skater said to another, as she clung to him frantically "We stand together or we fall apart!"

BADGER RELIEF FUND LARGEST

Wisconsin Donates Most to European Students, Says
Professor's Son

That the University of Wisconsin has contributed more money so far to the Central European Student's Relief fund than any other university in the country is the statement made by Frank A. Ross '19 in a recent letter to The Cardinal.

Mr. Ross, who is the son of Prof. E. A. Ross head of the sociology department, is at the present time studying in Berlin. His work in Germany has brought him into close contact with the student life in some of the larger universities. His letter is in part as follows:

Tells of Poverty

"Most of the students eat only one meal a day, which usually consists of some sick watery soup and boiled potatoes. Many of the students cannot afford to wear collars and ties.

They are ashamed, but yet they come to school. The will to learn is in the students, and I believe that the future of central Europe lies largely in their control.

Spirit Strong

"Over 60,000 of the 100,000 students in central Germany are earning part of their way through school by working in the mines, in the fields, on the railroads, and doing other various work.

"It takes a pretty fine type of man to live in such poverty as these students live in, to go hungry, to freeze throughout the winter for the sake of a higher education."

At the present time, Mr. Ross is acting on a foreign board of relief consisting of American students located in Germany.

LOSS OF CHRISTY BY INELIGIBILITY WEAKENS NINE

Herbert Christianson, star pitcher and outfielder, will not be eligible for Big Ten competition on the baseball diamond this year. Coach Guy S. Lowman announced yesterday that Christy was scholastically ineligible.

The loss of Christianson puts a decided crimp in the Badger pitching staff, and makes it necessary for Coach Lowman to experiment with new hurlers. He has Pickford, bear the brunt of the work. Cardinal, who reported only recently may develop into a moundsman of Big Ten calibre.

New men who have reported to Coach Lowman are: Kames, second baseman; Harold Holmes, (not the football player) first baseman; Servitus, infielder; Steinmetz, outfielder; Anderson and Cardinal, pitchers. The squad of tossers which is working out regularly in the gym annex, will be cut next week.

RECITAL GIVEN AT MUSIC HALL IS WELL KNOWN

The recital given by Cecil Burleigh, violinist, and Leon L. Ittis, pianist, last night in Music hall included interpretations of musical numbers from the most famous composers of classical music.

The Ascension Sonata, a musical masterpiece composed by Cecil Burleigh, was the outstanding feature of the program. This composition is one of the most widely known of the various types of musical works which Mr. Burleigh has written.

Other notable selections on the program were Sonata A Major, by Handel; Sonata G Major, by Grieg; and the Minuet from Martini-Burmester. The Cradle Song and Like Melodies Arising from Brahmkramer; Waltz Number 2, from Wever-Burmester; A Little Russian Dance, Gopak, by Moussorgsky-Kramer, completed the program.

PLAN STUDENT EUROPEAN TOUR

Prominent College Faculty Will Act as Group Guides

American college students and instructors are being organized into a group to travel in France next summer under the auspices of the Federation de l'Alliance Francaise and the Institute of international education, according to notifications received by branches of the Alliance from Prof. Felix Weill, general secretary of that organization. The purpose of the undertaking is to enable college students to travel in France at the lowest possible costs and under scholarly instruction, directed toward a broad and sympathetic understanding of the history, traditions, ideals, and arts of the French people. The faculty will include Prof. Eugene M. Lebert of Grinnell college, as lecturer on French history, Mlle. Helene L. Jacot of Backer Collegiate institute, Brooklyn, as language instructor, and other members of college and university faculties.

The students will sail from New York on the S. S. Saxonia on June 30. After disembarking at Cherbourg, they will go to Paris for a stay of several days, and thence to Brittany, the chateau country, the Pyrenees towns, the Riviera, the industrial section centering around Lyons, the French and Swiss Alps, the redeemed provinces, and the cathedral towns in Normandy. They will return to this country on September 4.

Canadian College is Blamed For Consuming Conflagration

St. Boniface college, Winnipeg, is blamed for the fire which destroyed it last November causing a loss of ten lives and property damage of $750,000 rather than the incendiary origin to which it was first attributed, according to the report made public by Charles Heath, fire commissioner. The present belief is that careless smoking in the lavatory was the cause of the fire, since no evidence can be obtained to show that the blaze was of incendiary origin. The report criticizes the college officials for failing to inaugurate fire drills and establish fire protection.

Postponement of Pledging Is Discussed For New Rule

At a meeting of Pan Hellenic association this week, the question of postponing second semester pledging for two weeks in order to give freshmen the opportunity to become acquainted, was discussed informally. The problem of incorporating the proposed change into next fall's rushing rules will be taken up at the individual sorority houses at chapter meetings. No definite agreement enforcing the suggestion will be in effect this semester.

Sachtjen Bill May Not Be Satisfactory; Contracts To Be Let

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Nelson called today at the office of Supervising Architect Wetmore of the treasury department to ascertain whether the Sachtjen bill, ceding to federal government all rights over Madison postoffice site, is satisfactory to department.

Nelson has letter from Witts stating bill is satisfactory but officials in Wetmore's office this morning declared there is some question whether the bill meets requirements. The bill states that Wisconsin retains right to legal and military jurisdiction over site, whereas usual language is "Civil and Criminal." If bill proves satisfactory, building will proceed as soon as contracts are let.

Stevens Takes Injunction Case Under Advisement

STUDENTS WORK ON CITY PLANS

Home Towns Revamped By
Students in City Planning
Course

Nine Wisconsin cities were "city planned" this semester by students in the course in city planning at the University of Wisconsin, conducted by Prof. L. S. Smith, of the College of Engineering. The cities studied were: Beloit, Ft. Atkinson, Lodi, Kohler, Madison, Oconomowoc, Racine, Sheboygan and Washburn.

Of the 56 students studying city planning and zoning, 27 were from Badger cities. All were required to write papers on the city planning needs or accomplishments of their home cities or some other city.

Harold Fry wrote on Beloit, and Ruby R. Young drew up suggestions for Ft. Atkinson. "Accomplishments and Possibilities of Lodi" were reported by Elizabeth Byrns, Madison; and "The Industrial Village of Kohler" was studied by A. A. Heald, Sheboygan Falls. Christopher Hendra wrote on Madison, and Marie Kowalke discussed her home city, Sheboygan. The needs of Oconomowoc were covered by Russell M. Eddy of that city.

Josephine Keech, Racine, wrote on her city, and Grace L. Maxey, Washburn, told of that city's development.

Students in a course in industrial housing wrote on various phases of the housing problem. Florence S. Klenert, Portage, surveyed housing conditions for women students at the university. D. S. Millman, Platteville, collected information housing conditions for men students. Walter S. Schultz, Milwaukee, discussed the Milwaukee plan for building homes for the working men, called "Garden Homes Developments," whereby the city and county furnish part of the capital needed in building the homes.

CHICAGO FORMS DOLPHIN CLUB

Wisconsin Grad Introduces Constitution For Co-Fish

Wisconsin ideas will be spread at Chicago university when he constitution of Dolphin club is sent to Miss Jane Whitney, formerly a Wisconsin student who is at present the head of women's swimming at Chicago. Miss Whitney wrote the information some time ago, and it was decided at the Dolphin meeting Thursday night to grant her permission to start a club there based on the one at Wisconsin.

It also decided that the next Dolphin club tryouts probably will be held the evenings of February 20 and 27 at 8 o'clock in the Lathrop pool. Any girl registered as a student in the university is eligible to try out. The requirements for admission are to swim 12 lengths of the 20-yard pool, swim 10 lengths in perfect form, and perform three standard dives with an average of 85.

A poster will be put up on the Lathrop bulletin board Monday, February 19, and all girls interested are asked to sign at that time.

Plans are on foot for the May exhibition of the club. The December exhibition was a success, but it is hoped the next one will be even a greater success, according to members.

Rutherford Will Address

Chemical Engineers Tuesday

John A. Rutherford '24 will address a meeting of the chemical engineers Tuesday evening at 7:15 o'clock in the Chemical Engineering building. His subject will be the discovery which he has made recently regarding the transmission of gases by radio.

FARMER NO BETTER.

Vincent Baehler, 50, Monticello farmer, who was brought to the Methodist hospital late yesterday afternoon suffering with internal injuries after being kicked in the abdomen by a horse, is reported in an unimproved condition at the hospital today. His condition is said to be serious.

Eight Wisconsin cities have policemen, according to a survey made by the municipal information bureau of the Extension division.

The Octopus, published by university students, was recently voted "the cleanest humor publication in the U. S."

CARNIVAL OPENS THIS AFTERNOON

during the afternoon and evening by Leon Grieb, Violet Rusch and her father, William A. Rusch. All three are numbered among Milwaukee's best skaters. Miss Rusch is a guest of Alpha Chi Omega sorority while in the city.

The carnival parade headed by the National Guard band will start from the Capitol square at 7 o'clock this evening. It will consist largely of organizations which took part in the ceremonies Thursday afternoon. Music will be furnished to the skaters throughout the evening.

CRITICS PRAISE NEW LIT ISSUE

of the sketch. Both the author of the book and the illustrator are awaiting trial in Chicago. Mr. Hecht, it is said, will demand a jury trial at which the book will be read to the jurors.

Translations by Shigeyoshi Obato, from the Chinese poet, Li Po, who has gained fame in America, will be published for the first time in America in the "Lit." They are replete with the haunting poignant beauty of the Orient.

A brilliant satire on university life, "The Beautiful and Dumb," by Louise Smith, depicts in ironic vein a sorority party. All the campus types are portrayed by Miss Smith's satiric pen, the tea hound, the flippant flapper and the intellectual.

"Seven League Boots," a story by Andrew Merck, "Philistinism," free verse by Irvin Scharfin, "Seven and Gold," an essay by Mildred Fish, and "Rose Rey," a short story by Helen Anderson are among the student contributions to this issue which will appear February 13.
