BADGERS OPEN HOME SEASON WITH WIN, 12-1

Purdue Nine Swamped at Camp Randall Yesterday

By LESLIE R. GAGE

Wisconsin opened the 1921 baseball season most fittingly at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon, when they sent the Purdue nine down to defeat by the one-sided score of 12 to 1. Paddock, with the aid of his hard hitting team mates, cinched the game in the early innings, and the visitors were never near enough to threaten. A capacity crowd was on hand to help usher in the conference season, and they were well repaid by the Badger nine, for the game was well played and fast from the Wisconsin stand-point.

After both sides had engaged in short sessions of fielding practice, Governor Blaine removed his coat and took the mound to throw the first ball. He received a great cheer from the crowd in spite of the fact that he threw the ball far over the head of Al Davey. As the game progressed it became evident that Paddock was in the best of form. The Wisconsin pitcher struck out nine men in the seven sessions that he worked, and allowed but one base on balls. In the second inning he retired the side via the strike-out route.

Breaks Against Williams

In the first four innings not a single Purple runner reached first.

CORNELL DELEGATE ELECTED HEAD OF MID-WEST S. G. A.

Illinois Representative Chosen Vice-President and Minnesota Girl Secretary

Betty Pratt, S. G. A. delegate from Cornell university, was chosen president of the middle-western intercollegiate S. G. A. at the final business session of the conference yesterday morning. Next year's convention will be held at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.

Francis Wine, Illinois delegate, was elected vice-president and treasurer, and Catharine Sweet, Minnesota, was chosen secretary.

As a result of the conference, three colleges who had sent visiting delegates were elected to membership in the association. They are Rockford college, Iowa State, and Michigan Agricultural college.

Wisconsin Mortar Board members entertained about 20 Mortar Board members from the conference at a picnic breakfast along the drive yesterday morning at 7:30.

The final session opened at 9 a. m. Saturday. Resolutions were adopted in regard to the work to be covered by the conference at the next annual meeting. Each college was requested to adopt the point system used at Wisconsin and to report on it next year, and all unfinished business was taken care of in an open forum discussion.

"We want to tell Wisconsin how much we appreciate all that has been done for us," said Betty Pratt, newly-elected president. "The conference has been a wonderful success, and we all fully appreciate how much we owe to Wisconsin S. G. A."

Novel Lighting Is to Feature Venetian Night

Revived after a year's absence, Venetian Night will again celebrate the feature of the spring boating season on the night of May 28, following the Interscholastic Track meet, which will be held on the same day. Arthur Kinnan, '22, has been appointed chairman of the event, assisted by Morton Frost, '23.

Venetian Night this year will be bigger and more beautiful than ever," said Kinnan yesterday. "We are planning novel lighting features, and in addition hope to be able to supply all the floats, canoes, and barges with electricity from two floating dynamos. This will assure perfect lighting for the parade."

Fancy diving under the glow of a calcium light will be a novelty of Venetian Night, and fireworks will be exhibited from a barge in the lake.

Prizes will be offered for the best decorated canoe, float, and power boat this year, as well as the usual prizes for pier decoration. "With the great number of new piers erected along the lake front, the contest should be very close," said

Every precaution will be made to assure absolute safety of all the craft in the parade by giving each craft a Pyrene fire extinguisher. The Cardinal will devote its entire time to patrolling the lake, and a series of lighted buoys will mark the course of the parade.

Venetian Night will be the closing feature of the Interscholastic Day program, which will consist of the Interscholastic Track meet, the Varsity-Lincoln Park crew race, the dual track meet and the baseball game.

FUND DRIVE NETS TOTAL OF $1,099

With a total to date of $1,099.11 raised by the Chinese drive, the official campaign of the week has ended. Anyone wishing to contribute further may still do so by sending Professor E. A. Ross or Eldon Russell. The goal set was $1,800 and thus the hoped for sum is still short $700. Over $196 was turned in yesterday.

FACULTY MEMBERS PLAN STUDY AND PLEASURE TRIPS IN EUROPE.

Several members of the faculty have decided to take trips abroad this summer and combine pleasure with study. Those who expect to visit Europe are: Prof. H. A. Smith, chairman of the department of romance languages, Miss Blanche M. Trilling, director of women's gymnastic work, and Prof. William A. Scott, director of the Course in Commerce.

Professor Smith, plans to leave immediately at the close of the summer session, if satisfactory arrangements can be made, to spend a year in Europe, returning for the academic year of 1922-23. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Smith and his two daughters, both students in the university. They will spend some time in Rome, where Professor Smith will be at the University of Rome for a short time, and from there will go to the University of Grenoble, from which several members of the department have graduated. The first half of the school year will be spent here, Professor Smith visiting the university, and his daughters studying. The remainder of the time they will be in Paris, where Professor Smith will probably give some lectures at the University of Paris.

PHI BETA KAPPA ELECTS 25 MEN AND 31 WOMEN

45 Seniors and 11 Juniors Chosen for Honorary Fraternity

Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, in its annual election yesterday, chose 56 students to membership, 11 juniors and 45 seniors.

Men and women divided almost equally as regards the number elected. Six women and five men won junior honors, and the senior division was 25 women and 20 men.

Students are voted into the fraternity by faculty electors on the basis of scholarship, merit, and personality. The electors, composed of all members of Phi Beta Kappa above the rank of assistant professor, meet and select a proportion of the students from the two upper classes who can meet the qualifications.

Election is High Honor

That election to Phi Beta Kappa is the highest honor which can come to a student in his undergraduate career is almost universally admitted. A referendum in the form of a questionnaire to all seniors at Harvard, Yale, and Princeton universities, as to the highest honor that could be conferred on a college man, resulted in the astonishing fact that 95 per cent considered the wearing of the Phi Beta Kappa key the highest privilege that could be attained.

The following were elected:

Juniors — Melbourne Bergerman, Pueblo, Colo.; Ellen Fredericka Correll, Memphis, Tenn.; Minnetta

TRACY TO DELIVER HIS PRIZE ORATION TO KIWANIS CLUB

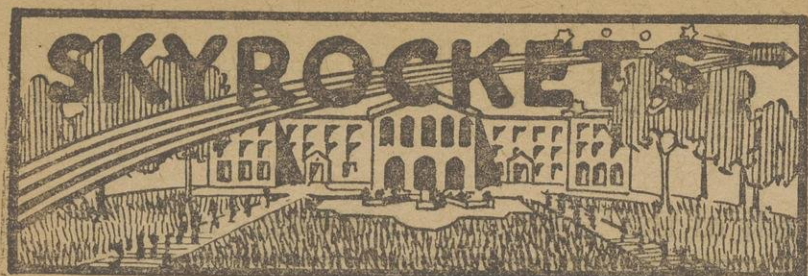

Sterling Tracy, '22, winner of the Northern Oratorical League contest at Iowa City, will give Madison business men a chance to hear his oration when he will deliver his speech, "America and Great Britain for Civilization" before a regular meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday noon at the city Y. M. C. A.

Twice has Tracy held his audience by his remarkable ability—when he delivered the prize oration at Iowa City Thursday evening and when he demonstrated his power to the students Friday evening in Music hall. This third opportunity to hear him offers itself and once again will Madison be proud of the boy orator.

HOLD SENIOR PLAY TRYOUTS MONDAY

Monday, May 9, has been set for the final try-outs for places in the cast of "The Yellow Jacket", which will be presented during commencement week by the senior class. Try-outs will be held at 4:30 and at 8 o'clock in Lathrop parlors.

A candidates are urged to read "The Yellow Jacket" in order that each one may try for a definite role. The play will be found in T. H. Dickinson's "Chief Contemporary Dramatists" second series, eight copies of which are obtainable at the university library desk. There is also one copy available in Miss Gertrude Johnson's office in Bascom hall.

FIGURING up to the end of the semester isn't any fun for us when we consider the topics, etc., that must needs be done between now and the end of school. Although it ain't the right weather for it, we've been keeping the light going a little later than usual, looking enviously the while at our fair-haired roommate, asleep and most likely dreaming of the D. G. formal, his new suit, or maybe back beer.

ANYHOW, SAYE WE—
Our room-mate's in bed,
Let him sleep while he can.
His books are not read,
Our room-mate's in bed.
Our eyes are like lead,
But we've topics to plan:
Our room-mate's in bed,
Let him sleep while he can.

THAT isn't exactly a triolet; it's a little vile-et.

WHICH pun ranks right along with Reg Garstang's jest on the picture moulding in the last Commerce Mag.

SPEAKING of our room-mate; he's like all the rest, borrowing everything in the room except the heat, running water, and southern exposure.

MAYBE you folks will be interested in knowing that in the Senior Play at Grinnell college, Grace Kutish is to take the leading role.

AND that brings to mind the fact that, if one is a purist in the use of words, Janice Joy is one of the co-eds that "cute" really fits.

OCCASIONALLY those people who read movie titles aloud really do say something worth-while. First, 'tother night at the Strand we watched the heroine leave the hero. "Fear not, my love," she says, as it was flashed on the screen. "I will return to you anon." Voice from behind, "My Lord, she's going into a convent."

WE'RE glad that Pres. Birge's opinion on re Col. Bryan's lecture co-insided with ours. We weren't especially horrified at the fact perhaps one of our more remote ancestors was a monkey. Even today Dad sometimes insists, grumblingly, that he's a goat.

Coop It in a Pig-Sty, and You'll Get Ham and

I had a little chicken
Of the female variety,
And it wouldn't lay
An egg.
So I poured hot water on it,
And it cackled
And cackled,
And now it lays
Hardboiled spheroids
Every day.
And when I feed it
Bread crumbs,
It lays
Poached eggs on toast.

BERRY PATCH.

THEY tell us that Leslie Gage injured his spine at the D. G. formal last night.

IT must have been wierd, wierd music.

"HE'S absinthe minded," she decided, as they started dancing.

TODAY: Don't forget home and Mother.

Film Facts

Do you know that:

Twenty times as much light was used to light the interior scenes of "Not Responsible" than is used for an ordinary house?

The male actors in the formal dinner scene wore light blue shirt fronts because light blue registers a better white than white itself?

The tremendous fire scene was taken of a Chicago fire because the efficient Madison fire department eliminated all possibility of a suitable Madison fire?

Madeline Johnson is so good natured that it took the directors of "Not Responsible" two hours to get her worked up into the proper rage after having soup spilled all over her fur coat by Jack Harding?

In the Stone Age scene the girls dressed and powdered up in the stone quarry powder house?

George Martin forgot to kiss Dorothy Frank in the Venetian scene?

A fade out has the same function in a movie that the end of a chapter has in a book and that yellow hair photographs dark in a movie and that the more loosely it is done up the lighter it looks?

The Delta Gamma house was chosen for the interiors of a university sorority house?

Burden is Winner In Taxation Fight

Counties of the state may be empowered to hire experts to equalize town assessments. The Burden bill to accomplish this purpose was sent to engrossment in the house Thursday evening. Assemblyman W. H. Edwards, Waukesha, attempted to stem the tide and defeat the bill. His efforts failed. Assemblyman Burden of Marinette of Marinette said that this bill was of local importance to Marinette county. He charged that in one town 85 per cent of the property is owned by a paper and lumber mill. He declared that this property had value of possibly a million dollars but escaped by paying about $50 in taxes. The vote on this bill was a big victory for Assemblyman Burden.

TONED DANCE CUTS A BADGER FEATURE

Eight pages of the 1922 Badger, to be distributed on the campus on May 18, are devoted to soft-toned photographs of Miss Margaret H'Doubler's dancing classes, taken in the open along the lake shore and on Observatory hill last fall. The groups were especially posed for the Badger, and the pictures compare very favorably with the photographs of Isadora Duncan's dancers and the Morgan dancers so often seen in current magazines.

The photographs were made with great care, and I consider them one of the finest parts of the Badger," said Thomas T. Coxon, editor-in-chief. "They are reproduced in a special process soft finish, and represent printing in one of its best phases."

Co-eds prominent in the pictures are Janet Epstein, '21, Frances Ellen Tucker, '21, Catharine Meyers, '22 and Bertha Ochsner, '19. The photographs were made by Bell, Madison.

Children Begging Food Storm City Hall At Racine

RACINE, Wis.—Begging for food, hundreds of children stormed the city hall late Friday afternoon. When the Personal Workers Rescue Mission exhausted its funds it was forced to deny bread to hundreds who have been appearing there daily. Hungry and disappointed, they marched to the city hall to plead for relief.

The initiation this year will be the twenty-second for the Wisconsin chapter, which was established in 1899 as the forty-fifth local. It is gratifying to know that President Birge is the Grand President of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa of America—an honor which reflects directly on this university.

Announcements of the initiation and the banquet will be made shortly.

Merchants Aid To Make Auto Success

Co-operation in making the auto show, which opens May 10, a success, will be given by the merchants of the city, it was decided Friday night at a meeting of the retail chairmen and members of the retail trade extension committee of the Association of Commerce. The meeting also went on record as favoring a reception for the Milwaukee Trade Tour, which is to visit Madison June 10. A banquet will probably be given at which Gov. John J. Blaine may be asked to speak.

It was also decided to co-operate with the United Commercial Travelers in working for their annual picnic, to be held June 25. Members of the Window Trimmers' association will give their assistance in decorating the shops for the occasion.

Music Memory Contest

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST

Selection 20 for Saturday, May 7th "Largo" from the New World's Symphony

By Anton Dvorak (1841-1904)

The finest symphony employing American Themes was written by a homesick Bohemian. Dvorak in his native country had written music based upon the themes of the people which he heard about him. When he came to America for a three years visit he continued this practice and we are thus the richer for the New World Symphony which is a glorification of negro and Indian melodies.

Dvorak believed that a national school of American Music would be founded as it has been in other countries upon the native folk music. It was to prove this theory that he wrote the New World Symphony. In the opening movement of the Symphony he makes use of the negro spiritual, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." The main theme of the second movement "The Largo", has not been identified but it is probably an Indian theme which Dvorak heard while visiting the Iowa Indians. The word "Largo" refers to a very slow movement. The melody moves along like a folk song—in fact the main melody has been made into a song called "Massa Dear."

A Moral with a Think in it

Once upon a time there lived a man who went to school and after a while he did finish.

And all the while he didn't use a Kodak. In spite of himself he gradually forgot all about his Alma Mater and the many friends he had made and the good times he had had.

He still lives but he has been a "dead one" for a long time. He has nothing to help him recall his past life, and thus he has lost interest in it. He missed one of the really big things that go to make up a college career—Kodaking—and he will regret it as long as he lives.

Moral:—(say it yourself.) We've told you often enough. Now get a Kodak.

PHI BETA KAPPA

THE announcement of the elections to Phi Beta Kappa is made in another column of this issue. What does it signify? That 56 students, who have gone faithfully about the business of getting an education and have shown special ability, have been given public recognition and an honor that has a distinguished name.

This mark of excellence in scholarship carries with it an obligation to live up to the ideal of this society established nearly a century and a half ago. Its ideals are expressed in its name—the Greek words in which mean "Philosophy, the Guide of Life."

No noise, no brass bands, no declaration of principles and programs, no figuring up of gate receipts—only a recognition of the real claim of the university upon the time and attention of its graduates. Not all worthy students can be recognized in such elections, and any one of the 56 who have been granted this honor could name other students more worthy than himself to receive it.

As no one will make the mistake of taking himself too seriously on account of this election so the others will not envy him a little glow of satisfaction—an hour's pleasure over it. If such an election in any way helps anyone "to work joyfully, to think deeply, to live wisely," then the object of the society has been attained and the best work done by the university has received recognition.

AN ALUMNUS.

MOTHER'S DAY

"ALL that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my mother." The spirit which moved Abraham Lincoln to utter these memorable words makes possible our allotment of one day a year for Mother.

Mother—the most wonderful word in the world.

Mother's day is just a reminder. It comes merely to jog our unappreciative selves and tell us that every day is Mother's day; that our needs, our words, our thoughts, and our efforts should be as Mother would always like to see them.

At Wisconsin that Mother's day letter is going to be the first order of the day. It is going forward from every student with a mighty resolve that there will never be too much work, too many social obligations, or too little time ever to forget to write with some degree of regularity.

If it hasn't gone forward yet, send it off now.

BRYAN VIEW INDICTED BY FACULTY MEN

President Birge and Professors Criticize Commoner's Stand On Darwinism

Sweeping indictments on the attitude of William Jennings Bryan concerning the theory of evolution and its blame for present-day "brutality," as vividly depicted to 2,500 people Thursday night at the gymnasium, were made yesterday by Pres. E. A. Birge and other university officials.

Upon the idea advanced by Mr Bryan that the theory of evolution such a doctrine destroys belief in God, the comment was unanimous in declaring such to be a fallacy.

President Birge declared, "must say plainly that when one attempts to induce young people to unite up their religious faith to discredited scientific doctrines, he commits a very grievous error and endangers the religious life of those he is trying to help.

"The leaders of religion in general have learned this lesson, and I can only regret that Colonel Bryan has not done so. The whole method and temper that underlay that part of his speech was just what I used sometimes to hear in the early and middle seventies."

Old-Fashioned Thought

That the address was worthy, however, of being presented to students, was expressed by President Birge. It represented, he said, the address of the kind listened to by their fathers and grandfathers.

Prof. E. A. Ross, sociology department, was equally emphatic in his opinion of attacks upon the evolution theory, as popularly known through Darwin. He compared the criticisms on the Darwin theory similar to those made in the sixteenth century against the theory that the sun and not the earth was the center of our system.

Modern Reaction

"Mr. Bryan is right in connecting the modern re-action toward struggle and brute force with Darwinism, but that is no ground for rejecting an enormous mass of evidence which has been piled up," said Professor Ross.

"In time the highest moral ideals will find a modus vivendi with evolution. I remember 18 years ago while dining with Colonel Bryan that he then said, 'I've been looking into Darwinism lately, and believe that the extreme materialism of our time is connected with the spread of the theory that man descended from lower species. I cannot but think,' he remarked, 'that this theory breaks up the moral foundations of democracy.'

Prof. M. C. Otto, philosophy department, stated that Mr. Bryan in attacking the theory of evolution was defending what he believes to be the common man's concept of God.

"As for Mr. Bryan's contentions that Darwin is responsible for Nietzsche, that Nietzsche in turn is responsible for the recent war, and that therefore Darwin is responsible for the alleged brutality of contemporary life, only a very unsophisticated man can swallow this fiction and get the taste of reality.

"Mr. Bryan is attempting to revive a combat which was fought out over a generation ago between such men as Huxley and Gladstone. He seems unaware of writers who insist that the evolutionary theory and faith in God are not incompatible. He strikes me as an excellent illustration of the type of man referred to in Hosea as a pancake not turned."

Calls Talk Dead Issue

Prof. M. F. Guyer, zoology department, in commenting upon evolution, declared that the theory dates back to the time of the Greeks.

"Modern evolutionists are investigating the inheritable changes that occur in animals and plants. Bryan's talk is a dead issue, popular 40 years ago."

Attractions at Madison Theaters for This Week

BOTHWELL BROWNE

As he appears in "The Dance of Jealousy" with his bathing beauties at the Orpheum next week.

Bothwell Browne, heading a revue in which the more or less famous Browne's bathing girls appear, will headline the Orpheum theater bill Monday. The girls, it is said, wear some novel, not to say startling costumes. They do not give exhibitions in the water, but no one minds that omission.

With this act comes the Browne sisters, two youthful players of the accordion, who are said frequently to stop the show with their jazz music. Mr. Browne appears in the finale of the revue and is discovered in a huge oriental setting in which he is surrounded by the bathing girls adorned in gorgeous Egyptian apparel. Browne does the "dance of jealousy," a striking creation. The Browne act occupies the time of two ordinary acts, therefore the bill for the first three days will consist of five acts. Primrose, Seamon, Arthur, Conrad Co., in a little bit of everything; Jimmie Dunn, that funny foolish fellow; Dewitt and Robinson, a bit of this and a bit of that; Ella Lavall, aerial gymnast and Pathe News and Topics of the Day complete the bill.

AT THE FULLER

The imaginative powers of a sixteen year old boy's mind along with his worship of a fellow scholar are clearly shown in the Mary Roberts Rinehart story, "Empire Builders," produced for the screen as a Goldwyn-Eminent Authors production as "It's a Great Life," which comes to the Fuller theater for two days, commencing today.

The Wop, played by Howard Ralston, was the willing prep school slave of Stoddard III, played by Cullen Dandis, his greatest trouble being Stoddard's favoritism for the girls. The Wop conceives the idea of an Empire, with Stoddard reigning as King and himself as Prime Minister, but is unable to tempt his King. The finding of a pearl in some oysters solves the problem of bait to attract Stoddard but necessitates moving the Empire to a desert island off the Gulf of California, inhabited by cannibals, because of the pearl fisheries there. Visions of the ex-king offering his choicest wives to Stoddard, the new King, are conjured by the Wop's wonderful imagination. Then history repeats itself, an Empire comes to ruin because of a woman. The coming of Eloise, the professor's daughter, spoils all plans.

COMING WEEK AT GRAND
Sunday—First National special "The Truth About Husbands."
Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday—First National special, "The Truth About Husbands," Toonerville

comedy, "Toonerville Follies."
Thursday, Friday—Boy Scout benefit; Mahlon Hamilton in "Half a Chance," and Sidney Ainsworth.
Saturday—Mahlon Hamilton and Sidney Ainsworth in "Half a Chance."

"The Truth About Husbands" The new attraction at the Grand commencing today is "The Truth About Husbands," adapted from Arthur Wing Pinero's brilliant stage play, "The Profligate." It is a Whitman Bennett production released through First National and has an exceptionally well balanced cast headed by May McAvoy. It deals in an interesting way with the age-old problem of how a man before marriage cannot have his fling without the danger of his escapades confronting him after marriage. The denouement of the play is perhaps as thrilling a climax as ever was screened in a society drama.

The Grand will tomorrow present the first of the new First National News reels, to be shown twice each week, one on Sundays and Tuesdays.

STRANDAR
Sunday, Tuesday—Tom Moore in "C also Mack Sennett comedied by the Seaside."

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday — MacMurray in "The Right to Love," also Comedy cartoon and Paramount magazine.
"Officer 666"
Comedy-drama adapted from the Cohan Harris stage success, will be the attraction at the Strand for three days starting today.

Assisting a crook to pack up the family heirlooms isn't the average man's idea of a hilarious episode but it proved highly entertaining to Travers Gladwin. That is it proved entertaining until the police happened along and mistook Travers for an imposter thereby materially aiding the progress of the crook. If Travers hadn't insisted on wearing Phelan's uniform and swearing his valet to silence his scheme to trap the crook would have matured beautifully. But as it turned out he came within an ace of losing a fortune in paintings and being arrested for impersonating an officer. He won the heart of Helen Burton, however, left lying around loose in the excitement.

Mack Sennett's very latest comedy "She Sighed by the Seaside," is the added feature.

Local Girl With Mary Garden Is Visiting Mother

That the Chicago Grand Opera Company's next season will be the most wonderful in the history of the organization largely because Mary Garden is its new director is the firm conviction of Olivia Monona, formerly of Madison and a member of the company.

Miss Monona, as she is known in the operatic world, arrived in Madison Thursday for a visit to her mother, Mrs. Stella Goldenberger, 127 N. Hamilton st.

"We all love Miss Garden," said Miss Monona, "and we feel that we are co-operating with her to make the company the first in the world, rather than that we are merely working for her, although even that would be a pleasure. Miss Garden has surrounded herself with people competent and the entire company has implicit confidence in her ability."

Asked whether working under the direction of a man was more satisfactory and produced less friction than under the direction of a woman, Miss Monona smiled.

"There is no friction in working under Miss Garden," she said. "Miss Garden is in a class by herself. We are expecting next year to be the banner year of the company."

Miss Monona will remain in Madison for several weeks, after which she will go to Ravina Park, 30 miles north of Chicago, where a 10-weeks opera season opens July 1, with an assemblage of opera stars from the New York Metropolitan and other well-known opera companies.

They have been engaged at various times in some of New York's greatest and most stupendous productions and have always made good—and then some. The Browne Sisters are but one of the many big features contained in the Bothwell Browne and His Bathing Girls' act which features the Orpheum vaudeville bills all this coming week. This act, considered the smartest now appearing in vaudeville, presents for the first time in Madison the first time in Madison the original California bathing girls, which for beauty, costumes and entertaining ability can not be excelled. These girls have graced more than one Mack Sennett comedy picture. The act is beautifully gowned, and done in gorgeous settings, there being 15 people in the act, which takes place of two turns on the average program and will be presented in conjunction with four other Orpheum Circuit feature acts. The Bothwell Browne act remains for the entire week, but the other four acts will change on Thursday as usual.

In the fifth a scratch hit to short placed the first man on, but that his was the only one gathered by the visitors off Paddock. Frank Williams had the breaks against him also, and in the two innings he pitched the Purple batsmen counted a run.

The Badger infield offered some classy plays for the crowd at intervals throughout the afternoon. Ruediger made a great one-hand stop of Morgan's liner in the first innings and threw perfectly to first. Jack Williams had a great day, picking up everything that came his way, and taking care of all difficult chances without an error. The Purdue infield, on the other hand, showed poor judgment on several occasions. Twice Badger base runners engineered a double steal perfectly.

Rudy Gets Homer

Ruediger, Farrington, and Elliott shared honors at the bat, each securing a pair of safe drives off Wagner. Rudy brought the crowd to its feet in the third round when he sent a home run far over the center fielder's head. All of the hits made by Farrington and Elliott went for two bases. Farrington's first double of the day came in the third with the bases full, and scored three men, thus starting the seven run rally.

Morgan counted Purdue's only run in the ninth, after he lived on a scratch hit and was sent home on Wagner's long triple over Rollie Williams' head. The visitors threatened in the fifth when they filled the bases, but Paddock pulled out of the hole very nicely.

With one man out in the third inning the Badgers started the rally that placed them far in the lead of their opponents. Wagner hit Paddock in the back with a fast curve, but Ceaser flied out. Then with two men out, Lyman fanned but Fawcett let the ball slip through his fingers. Paddock went to third and Lyman to second on the error. Then Farrington delivered in the pinch, and drove out a double that counted both runners. Elliott followed suit with a hit for two bases, and Farrington scored. Jack Williams got a life on Strube's error and the Badger captain went to third. The pair then completed a double steal to satisfaction, when Fawcett threw to second in an attempt to catch Williams. Davey was safe on an error by Strack, and with two men on the bases, Ruediger knocked his homer into deep center.

Badgers Stage Double Steal

In the fifth session, again with two men out, Jack Williams drew a pass, and stole second. On an infield hit on which the Purple fielders used poor judgment, Davey was safe at first and Williams at third.

Then the Badger runners staged their second double steal on the Purdue catcher, scoring Williams. Davey came home on Ruediger's single. Snow repeated the performance, but there was no further scoring.

The last runs were made in the eighth frame when Christianson, hitting for Snow, was given a pass. Everson dropped Barry's long fly into center, and both Farrington and Elliott followed with two base hits. This was the second time in the game that the pair bunched doubles off the delivery of the Purdue pitcher. Elliott died on second when J. Williams grounded out.

The box score:

Cemetery Lots Groomed For Decoration Day

Madison people desiring work done on their lots at the cemeteries, should see the city treasurer immediately and make payment for services of the caretaker. Treasurer Moe points out that many people were disappointed last year on Memorial day because they waited until the last week and were unable to get their work done in time.

COMMITTEE TO SEE PARK SITE

Special Body Visits East Side Property at 10 Tomorrow

The special council committee, which has under consideration providing a public park—to be dedicated, perhaps, to the ex-service men of the county, and which it is deemed might fittingly be called Memorial park—for the east end of Madison, is hard at work. Ald. Fessler, chairman, declares that every angle of the situation will be thoroughly discussed before the proposition will be submitted to the council.

The committee held its initial meeting Friday night at the city hall, and after a short discussion, agreed to visit certain property offered for sale to the city at 10 Sunday morning. The only offer so far received is from M. B. Olbrich, Madison attorney, who has offered the property owned by him included between Welch ave. on the west, Cottage Grove road and Lakeland ave. on the north and east, together with outlot A of the Knickerbocker park and a triangular piece of land to the north of the Cottage Grove road consisting of about four acres.

The land begins at Lakeland ave. and runs around the northeastern shore of Lake Monona for a distance of about 3,700 feet. Mr. Olbrich's offer also includes an unplatted piece of property between Atwood ave. and the sugar beet factory consisting of about 21 acres. The sale price, it is understood, is about $85,000 for the entire property. The committee, however, is in doubt, whether it wishes to recommend the purchase of the entire tract, and is inclined to feel that the lake shore property will meet the city's needs. Mr. Olbrich has offered to dispose of the lake shore parcel for approximately $40,000 and he is willing to take his payment in city bonds.

PARIS IS WEARING 'EM MUCH LONGER

Paris is getting us all excited about skirt lengths once more. Just as America succumbs to the shortest of short skirts Paris lets her's down, and almost to the ground, too. This afternoon frock from Paris shows a quaint peasant-like bodice and a full skirt with an uneven hem, the points of which extend even to milady's ankles.

TO AWARD W'S TO CREW MEN

Athletic Board Decides to Give Coveted Letters to Rowers

A decision to award "W's" to varsity crew men has been made by the Athletic board with the object of increasing the number of candidates for crew position, as the rapidity with which the personnel of a strong crew is built up, it is felt, will have a strong influence in hastening the time when Wisconsin crews will again be entered in the eastern races.

At the close of a week of heavy workouts and following a round of special drills yesterday afternoon, in which the men performed in mid-season style, Coach Vail declared that their performance was better than the work of any of his former crews, and expressed hopes of still further gain as the season continues.

This is the first week in which no changes in line-up have been made and the men are working so well in their present positions that further changes seem improbable. The

PRESS CLUB WILL HEAR EVJUE TALK

"The Influence of the Press on Legislation" is the subject of an address to be given by William T. Evjue, editor of the Capital Times on Tuesday night at the regular meeting of Press club.

Mr. Evjue is a graduate of Wisconsin, and was at one time the business manager of the State Journal. He became acquainted with the view-point of student journalists through his experience as a reporter on the Milwaukee Sentinel. Mr. Evjue is well known throughout the state as a former assemblyman and political leader of Wisconsin and is well qualified to give Press club an insight into the problems confronting the present-day journalist.

STATE PARK MAP WILL BE FEATURE OF COUNTRY MAG

May Number Will Also Show Complete System of Trunk Highways

A novel feature of the MAY COUNTRY MAGAZINE, which will be devoted to conservation in Wisconsin, is a map of the state showing the location of all our state parks and the sites of those which have been proposed. The complete system of state trunk highways connecting these public playgrounds are also shown on the map.

Printed in connection with the map will be short descriptive paragraphs pointing out the most interesting features of each of the areas.

In addition to the parks and highways are indicated the ancient waterways in which Wisconsin abounds. Some of them are the oldest inland waterways in the United States.

Among them is the Fox-Wisconsin route down which Father Marquette and Jean Nicolle paddled nearly 300 years ago and saw for the first time the great central waterway of the country—the Mississippi.

The map was drawn especially

The Newest Sport Apparel is Golflex Jersey

SUITS, WRAPS, and DRESSES

Golflex Jersey lends itself admirably to the fashioning of sports and street apparel. The trim appearance of the material and a certain swagger effect achieved by the tailoring, mark Golflex garments as wholly distinctive, unquestioned style leaders, while the moderate pricing adds the final temptation to possess.

Golflex Sport Suits are Undeniably Smart

There are simple tailored styles trimmed with pockets and well placed buttons; Tuxedo models with collar, cuffs, and pockets trimmed in contrasting colors. All the wanted shades are here for choosing. Prices $22.50, $35.00 and $42.50.

Golflex Sport Dresses are Cleverly Styled

They are in straight line models for the most part, with silk stitching and pipings of contrasting colors, while belts, pockets, cord tucks, and fancy buttons add allurements; other models have over-draped skirt heavily embroidered with colored wool yarns. Prices are $18.50 to $49.50.

Golflex Auto Capes are all Embracing

These large, enveloping capes are luxuriously comfortable, swagger in appearance, and eminently practical for wear while riding. They have deep square collars or smart scarf collars that extend almost the full length of the garment. Prices are $42.50 and $55.00.

New and Novel Sport Hats

If the sports costume is to be the subtle, intriguing one it may be, a saucy hat will top the whole. For those who insist on being fashionably, but comfortably, attired, there are soft sports hats of ribbon, georgette, taffeta or braid, quite plain except for a dash of colored ribbon or yarn. The prices are as inviting as the hats are becoming. $5.00 to $25.00.

Golfle Sport Coats are Short but Practical

In simple tailored styles with belts and pockets, these trim little coats answer every requirement where a lighter weight garment is demanded. They are highly favored for wear with plaid skirts. The colors are plain and heather mixtures. Prices $12.50 and $16.50.
