CONTINUE DRIVE FOR MEMORIAL UNION BUILDING

Reports of Fox River Valley Campaign Are Favorable

Plans for the Fox River Valley campaign for funds for Wisconsin's Memorial Union building are progressing rapidly according to reports from the local office.

Prof. E. H. Gardner attended a luncheon in Fond du Lac Tuesday, at which the Memorial campaign in Fond du Lac county was officially opened. Those present besides Mr. Gardner were, Miss E. Waters and Miss F. Perkins, regents of the university, Ryan Duffy, Judge Higby of Ripon and Fred Foster of Fond du Lac.

Birge Speaks by Radio.

Arrangements were made for a dinner to be held in Fond du Lac on Oct. 6, in the interests of the campaign. Judge Higby, president of the Fond du Lac County Alumni association will preside and Prof. E. H. Gardner of the university will be there with the Memorial Union movie. President Birge, not being able to be present, will deliver a speech from here by radio. Walter J. Kohler, President of the Board of Regents, will also be present.

Several students who were prominent here last year are among the campaign workers in Fond du Lac. Those in charge there are: Harry Martin, Florence Perkins, Elizabeth Waters, Ryan Duffy, Fred Moore, L. A. Williams, Judge Chester Fowler, Earl Brown, Mrs. Charles Cheney, Eugene Kremer, Dave Mahoney, George Stanchfield, and Clayton Van Pelt.

To Open Green Bay Campaign

Prof. Gardner, who is touring the state in the interest of the campaign, spent Wednesday in Oshkosh completing the campaign opened there on July 21, when the Board of Regents made their annual trip of inspection.

Plans have been made for the opening of the campaign in Green Bay on Tuesday, October 10. Before returning Professor Gardner will go to Neenah and Wausau to make preparations for the campaign in those cities. He is meeting with great success and hearty co-operation of former regents of the university wherever he goes.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary to Talk at Luther Church

"An Introduction to Forgotten Empires in the Near East" is the subject of a lecture which will be given at Luther Memorial church at 6:45 o'clock Sunday evening. Wayne A. Sarka of New York city will give the lecture.

As a member of the British-Mesopotamian Expeditionary forces from 1917 to 1920, Mr. Sarka traveled through great portions of the He served as secretary in the British Y. M. C. A. while in Mesopotamia and throughout the Near East.

The Luther league will have its usual social hour at 5:30 o'clock. A cost supper will be given at 6 o'clock.

Badger Club Will Meet At Y. M. C. A. Sunday

Carl Rogers '24 will address the Badger club on the subject, "China The Land of Contradictions", at the meeting to be held at 8 o'clock Sunday evening in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. Bill Thompson's orchestra will furnish the music, and Harriet Dohr will entertain the club with some songs. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. All students are invited to attend.

WEATHER: CLOUDY

Partially clouded skies are in prospect for Madison and vicinity Saturday and Sunday. The temperature is expected to drop slightly Saturday and Sunday night.

Birge Pays Tribute to State Educator Harvey

President Birge, at the memorial services for Lorenzo D. Harvey, held last Thursday evening in the assembly chamber of the state capitol, expressed the tribute for the state and the nation.

"Harvey's contributions to higher education are distinctly the strength, vigor and energy of his magnetic personality," said President Birge.

Educational representatives from every section of the state were present to pay tribute to Harvey, who, as a city and state superintendent of schools, head of the Stout Institute, and normal school superintendent and president, devoted his abilities to the state.

MEETINGS SHOW FORENSICS ARE DUE FOR BOOM

Athenae, Philomathia, Hesperia Societies Receive Big Turn-outs

That forensics are due for a boom this year is indicated by the enthusiasm and heavy attendance displayed at the opening sessions of Philomathia, Athenae and Hesperia literary societies last night.

Twenty-two new members were lectured to Philomathia, among whom are champion high school debaters and orators from several states in the Middle West. This is the largest number of candidates elected to membership at one meeting for several years.

Philo Elects Members

The new Philomathians are: G. Pulsford, R. G. Hein, G. Millard, C. E. McInnis, Rhsh Pagel, W. A. Rorison, W. E. Jerving, C. B. Koontz, G. T. Bunker, H. K. Snell, Frank Woy, C. R. Hansen, V. E. Lemmer, L. S. Sadler, C. H. Hicks, Conner, L. W. Larson, M. A. Brack, V. W. Zierke, A. Y. Friess, G. C. ett, M. C. Porter, and U. A. Roth-ermel.

"From one-fourth to one-half of the student leaders on the campus have had training in forensic activities," declared Robert A. Stewart '23, former joint debater, in a talk in which he urged the new members to participate actively.

New Judging Plan

Anthony Nerad '23, president of Athenae, mapped out the plan of organization for the coming year. Athenae will hold her official reception for prospective members next Friday night.

Hesperia opened with an inaugural address by Wayne W. Morse '23. A survey of the strike situation as it has affected the United States was given by Ralph Axley '23. Twelve try-out speeches were given.

Elect Ogg to Council Of Economic League

Professor Frederic A. Ogg, chairman of the political science department, has been elected a member of the national council of the National Economic league. The council decides upon the economic and political issues to be considered by the league, appoints committees, and takes action on the reports of these committees.

Student A. S. M. E. Elects Larson Honorary Chair'm

Professor J. L. Larson of the steam and gas department was elected honorary chairman of the student branch of A. S. M. E. at a meeting Thursday night. Communications from the national office were considered at this meeting. The benefits of college societies were pointed out in talks by officers of the society.

California Instructor is Added to Physics Staff

R. Hamer, of the University of California, is the new instructor who has been added to the staff of the physics department this year. New assistant instructors are: L. Du Bridge, University of Iowa; L. W. Morris, Lawrence college; C. M. Tuttle, Madison; Theo. Soller, Oberlin college; Arthur Worthing and Miss Elda Anderson, Ripon college.

WILL COMPLETE STATE GENERAL HOSPITAL IN '24

To Be An Aid to People Of Limited Means; 300 Rooms

The State General hospital, Wisconsin's new $1,200,000 six-story building enterprise, will be completed by the fall of 1924, according to Dr. J. S. Evans, head of the university clinic.

The hospital will have a 300 bed capacity and will be devoted to the assistance of those persons who cannot afford medical service.

Emphasize Worthy Cases

Specialized medical and surgical services, with emphasis on cases of mouth defects, crippled and deformed children, and the like, will be offered freely to worthy cases from all parts of the state, according to Doctor Evans.

"With the growing cost of expert medical and surgical treatment by specialists, hospital care is a luxury of which people of limited means must frequently deny themselves. It is for the accommodation of cases of such nature that the Wisconsin State General Hospital will offer its most valuable public service to the state," Doctor Evans said.

Site Not Chosen

The site for the $150,000 nurses' home to be erected in conjunction with the hospital has not been chosen as yet. Eighteen months will be needed to complete the building under the best of conditions, according to Dr. Evans.

The first story of the hospital will be devoted to the "out patient" department and the student clinic; the second, psychiatry; the third, obstetrics and specialties; fourth, general medicine; fifth, special surgery; sixth, general surgery. The university clinic will be housed in a wing on the first floor.

Students Remembered

"I am particularly anxious," said Dr. Evans, "to make it clearly understood that the students are not to be lost sight of but rather, that Medical Supervision for them will be increased by the new plan of housing the student clinic inside the hospital building."

The bill for the construction of the new hospital was introduced into the legislature in 1920 by Senator Olsen. It was then decided that the funds would be taken from the balance of the Soldiers' Bonus fund. The sum of $1,350,000 was later appropriated to build and equip the hospital and nurses' home.

BUNTING REPORTS ON MURDER CASE

The number of unsolved Wisconsin murders was augmented yesterday when Dr. C. H. Bunting, pathologist of the university, stated in an official report that he had failed to discover any blood on the hammer which it is alleged was used in the Balzer murder case, last August near Sauk City.

Dr. Bunting's report made to M. L. Shearer, investigator for the attorney general's office, said that chemical and microscopic examinations for blood made upon the hammer were futile. Only iron rust, some carbon pigment, a considerable growth of a sport bearing fungus or mold, and other particles unidentified in the matrix of grease were found by the investigation.

"While this may represent the true state of affairs at the present time," Dr. Bunting said, "it cannot be taken as evidence that there may not have been blood on the hammer at some previous time. Well directed efforts might easily have removed any blood stains."

A search for two men who are believed to be the principals in the case has been conducted without avail. A man giving his name as Redel, who is suffering from a mental disease at Mendota, is believed to be connected with the murder, but there is no definite proof for the authenticity of this belief.

Bluecoat and Buttons Rout '25 Hazing Party

Rows of formidable buttons and an equally formidable badge on the person of a bluecoated gentleman at the intersection of State, West Mifflin, and Carroll streets broke up what promised to be an exciting evening on the square at a late hour last night.

Starting down State street from the Latin quarter and recruiting Frosh on the way, a group of pleasure-bent upper-classmen herded about a dozen yearling toward the Capitol promenade dressed in the usual hazing fashion, coats turned inside out and trousers pulled up above the knees.

Just then the rows of buttons and badge hove into view and the parade became a rout in the general direction of the university.

HOLDS TEA FOR GRADS; DISCUSS PROPOSED CLUB

Dean Nardin to Act as Hostess to American Association Women

Plans for a club house for university women and graduate students will be presented this afternoon at a tea to be given by Dean Nardin at Lathrop hall for the American association of University women.

The plans call for renting the property at 420 N. Carroll street which will be used as a residence for 8 or 10 women graduate students and as a club house for all university women.

To Present Play

Office hours for those interested in making room reservations will be held from 12:30 to 1:30 in the S. G. A. office in Lathrop hall.

The program for today is the reading of a short play, directed by Miss Hazeltine of the Library School, entitled "Tickless Time" by Susan Glasspell. The parts will be read by Mrs. Arthur Beatty, Miss Catherine Reely, Miss Ethel Sair, Miss Susan Grey Akres, and Mrs. Winifred Davis. Music will be furnished by Miss Martha Chandler of the university School of Music.

International Member

The American organization of University women is a member of the international association which met last July in Paris. Wisconsin representatives were Miss Elizaeth Williamson, Miss Abbie Marlatt, and Miss L. L. Brown. Women of all nations were present at the Paris meeting but the strongest groups came from France, England and the United States.

PRE-MEDIC MIXER ATTENDED BY 200

More than 200 medical students attended the mixer given last evening by the upper classmen in honor of the pre-med students.

The program consisted of short addresses by Dr. H. C. Bradley, Dean Bardeen, and Dr. W. J. Meek, a recitation by Dr. J. T. Lacey, a piano solo by A. A. Berger, and a series of tricks with cards by R. A. Leschan. The refreshments were hard cider and doughnuts.

The committees in charge were: Charles Peutson, program; O. E. Meyer, refreshments; B. E. Murphy, finance; A. A. Berger, entertainment; S. A. McCormis, mixer; Robert Holcomb, advertisement.

International Club Will Have Lighter Programs

Lighter and more balanced programs for meetings will be the trend of the International club activities for the coming year.

At a meeting of the organization in the Y. M. C. A. last night the members decided to confine discussions and addresses of the representatives of various countries to the habits and customs of their respective nations, rather than to political and economic questions and devote the rest of the meeting to social and musical programs.

The club gave out application blanks for membership to about fifteen or twenty students who were not members last year.

700 ATTEND BIG AGRIC WELCOME FOR FRESHMEN

Dean H. L. Russell Opens Program in Lathrop Gymnasium

More than 700 students and faculty members of the College of Agriculture attended the Agric-Home Ec freshman welcome held in Lathrop hall last night under the auspices of the Agricultural College Federation board.

The new students of the college were welcomed informally to the institution by a reception committee including Dean H. L. Russell, Assistant Dean and Mrs. John A. James, Prof. and Mrs. Andrew W. Hopkins, Prof. and Mrs. William A. Sumner, and prominent students of the College of Agriculture and the Home Economics department.

Elsom Leads Students

A welcome by Dean Russell opened a program of addresses by faculty members and students. That new students become acquainted with faculty members and the older students in the college was stressed by the dean. A representative of the class of '26 responded for the freshmen. Alpha Gamma Rho and Thompson's orchestra furnished music. Stunts were led by Dr. James C. Elsom.

A representative from each of the college organizations gave a short talk, stating the purpose and activities of the club.

Hold Novel Contest

A contest in which the Home Economics students had to guess the names of twenty-five articles of cloth, vegetables, and the like, and in which the men had to guess the names of twenty-five breeds of cattle, farm crops, and fruit, added interest to the program. The results of the contest will be tabulated.

After the program refreshments of sandwiches and apples were served by a committee in charge of Home Economics students.

Dancing in the gymnasium and games and mixing stunts in the concert room completed the evening's entertainment.

Dean Sellery Will Speak Sunday at Wesley Forum

Dean George C. Sellery will speak on "The Relation of Professor to Student" for the first lecture of the new Wesley forum Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Wesley foundation.

"If you have an idea, air it," is the slogan of the forum, at which open discussion by faculty members and students will take place every Sunday evening during the fall and winter.

The speakers for October and November are President Birge, Dean F. Louise Nardin, Professors L. A. Kahlenberg, M. F. Guyer, A. L. Lobeck and Doctors W. D. Stovall and John R. Denyes.

Commerce Mag Plans On Hill Prohibition Vote

A student vote on prohibition will be the feature planned for the first issue of the Commerce Magazine, to meeting of the staff held at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday afternoon. The vote is to be compiled by personal canvass of the student body. The organization of the staff was taken up at this meeting, and plans for an active subscription campaign in the near future among the students in the Course in Commerce were discussed.

Dean Nardin Returns From Women's Convo

Dean F. Louise Nardin, just returned from the convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Womans clubs at Wausau, reports an exceptionally large and enthusiastic gathering of the club members. Dean Nardin presided over the Thursday afternoon session which dealt with educational topics.

ENGINEERS GET NEW TEACHERS

Seven Instructors Are Added
To Faculty; Two Win
Promotions

Seven instructors have been added to the teaching staff of the college of Engineering this year. Two promotions are also included in the changes.

The changes are as follows: R. W. Warner has been added to the list of instructors. Mr. Warner graduated from the University of Kansas with the class of 1918. He was with the ordnance department for a short time and was an instructor at the University of Kansas. He was engaged in Central station work the balance of the time.

L. E. Longenecke is a new instructor in the steam and gas department. Mr. Longenecke has been a student here for the last five years. Last year he was an instructor in the engineering shops.

Wisconsin Graduate

C. A. Willson is a new instructor in the structural engineering department. Mr. Willson was graduated here in 1921. He has been employed in Madison as a draftsman and engineer since he was graduated as a consulting engineer and also as engineer for the bridge department of the Wisconsin Highway commission. During the past year he has been an instructor in the structural engineering department of the extension division, and in addition has been helping Professors Hool and Kinne in their work on some six volumes of structural engineering books.

L. H. Kessler is a new instructor in the hydraulics department.

Carl Neumeister, M. A. Giles, and G. H. Head have been added to the staff of instructors in the mechanics department.

Two Promoted

A. V. Millar of the drawing department has been promoted from assistant professor to professor.

Mr. Alvin Myers of the electrical engineering department has been promoted from instructor to assistant professor.

W. L. Dabney superintendent of machine shops is on a leave of absence for the first half of the first semester.

Nearly 100 Attend First Meeting of the A. S. C. E.

Nearly 100 Attended

The opening meeting of the A. S. C. E. Wednesday night, was attended by nearly 100 students and several members of the faculty.

Carl Zander, president, opened the meeting with a talk on the purposes of the society, and Prof. L. S. Smith spoke on student ideals. He set forth the ideal of service as being most vital toward successful engineering.

Prof. L. F. Van Hagan spoke on "The Engineering Society as a Binder Course". He emphasized the value of college societies.

Answer "Yes" to These, Girls, Or Don't Marry

Qualifications for brides have taken a change for the better.

Home economics no longer means mere cooking and sewing, according to Miss Jean Krueger, director of the home economics department. New spheres of home decorating, study of textiles, courses in design, in hygiene are now being taught. Animal experimentation, such as testing certain diets on rats and rabbits are being conducted. Students also try out the effects of goods on themselves.

Homemaking thus is becoming a profession, and better organized homes will be the result, Miss Krueger said. A college graduate bride should be able to answer in the affirmative the following questions, according to Miss Florence A. Otis, head of the home economics department at the University of Cincinnati:

"Do you know all about good food habits?

"Do you know the fundamentals of general hygiene?

"Can you organize your time efficiently?

"Do you understand the psychology of children, what books they should read and what should be their entertainment?

"If you know all these are you going to bury yourself in efficiency and business management to such an extent that you forget to be attractive to your husband?"

Future college homes will thus have their own consulting experts.

Fox "Monte Cristo" is Hailed as Masterpiece

One of the several big William Fox productions being shown this year, is "Monte Cristo," by Alexandre Dumas. It is to be shown here at the Grand Theatre tomorrow. John Gilbert and Estelle Taylor head the all-star cast of this famous play. It is said to be one of the most dramatic screen productions ever produced. Certainly the original story contains a large number of dramatic moments.

AG CLUB PLANS YEAR'S EVENTS

Extension Work and Sunday Morning Meetings and Picnics Included

Extension work off the campus and Sunday morning meetings and picnics are being planned by the Ag Triangle club for the coming year.

Six play days in country schools have been arranged which include speeches, songs, and games. Each school will be scored, and the highest scored school will receive $5 worth of athletic equipment. Teams of from two to six men will go to the evening meetings of farmer organizations and furnish musical numbers, comic readings, and talks.

Junior Ag Triangle clubs, which will be units of the local club, will be organized in Smith-Hughes high schools. Once a year, during the live stock judging week, one representative of the clubs will be brought to Madison. At the regular Sunday morning meetings, officials from the Capital will talk on problems of farm management, marketing problems, and the basis for farmer co-operative organizations.

The third annual "Pumkin Holler" meeting will be held November 24, and a picnic will be held on October 8. At the Sunday meeting Prof. T. L. Bewick will talk on "Latest Development of Boys' and Girls' Club Work".

The first meeting of the Wisconsin Menorah society will take place at 7:45 Wednesday evening in Lathrop parlors.

The meeting will be in the nature of a welcome to freshmen and new students. The purposes and aims of the Menorah will be explained by those on the program. Mrs. Joseph Jastrow, Profs. L. B. Wolfenson, Selig Perlman, R. E. N. Bodge, and Dean Scott H. Goodnight will speak.

The Wisconsin Menorah was organized over 10 years ago. It is one of 73 student Menorah societies in the colleges and universities of the United States. The Menorah encourages the study and advancement of Jewish culture and ideals, but the meetings are open to all, and no religious qualification is necessary.

BIG 10 COACHES PREPARE TEAMS FOR FIRST TILTS

Many New Coaches Are Included in Staff This Year

As the Big Ten conference football teams are rounding into shape for the 1922 season, each coach is working desperately to develop men who will make it possible for his team to annex the championship.

Thistlewaite, who is coaching Northwestern university in place of McDevitt, hails from Oak Park High school, where he made an exceptionally good record for himself. In 1918 and 1919 his team won the championship of Cook county, and in 1920 his team won the mid-western championship by defeating Steele High school of Dayton, Ohio. Thistlewaite coaches a fast snappy game, featuring passing and trick plays. He is working his men hard and Northwestern will undoubtedly present a formidable foe in the coming conference games.

Heron Veteran

James (Pat) Heron has the job of training the Indiana warriors for the stiff conference schedule ahead of him. Pat Heron was the first assistant coach at the University of Pittsburgh last year. He played end on the Panther team from 1913 to 1916 where he made Walter Camp's all-American second team twice, and where he was pronounced by his coach, "Pop" Warner, as the "most thoroughly developed and best rounded man Pitt had ever had." The sum total distance gained around his end in one year was minus 12 yards. He has an excellent war record and Indiana expects big things of him.

Coach A. A. Stagg is striving hard to make a championship team for Chicago this year. His previous record as coach of the Maroon teams places him as one of the best coaches in the Big Ten Conference. He seems to be developing a passing game this year, in which Elmer Hoff, quarterback is the main attraction.

Yost Always Strong

Nothing need be said about the ability and leadership of Yost, who is still piloting the Wolverines. The exceptional rally of his men in the last of the 1921 season was probably responsible for the fact that he is still coaching at Michigan. He will undoubtedly have a powerful eleven again this year.

Spaulding, who takes the place of Williams as coach of the Minnesota aggregation, this year is fighting against greater odds than any other Big Ten coach. The famous Minnesota shift, which has won so many games for the Gophers, is a thing of the past, and Spaulding has the job of teaching his men an entirely new style of play. It is not probable that an exceptionally strong team will represent the Gophers this year, but coaches are watching with a great deal of interest. The unexpected may happen.

Coach Wilce of Ohio state will undoubtedly put a strong team in the field again this year. His strategy has won many games, and his men seem to have the knack of catching the breaks of the game.

Second-Half Bill at

Orph is Laugh-Getter

The Orpheum bill this half affords many extra laughs through the "clowning" of Bill Robinson, and Du Val and Symonds in the artistic musical offering of the Bervinici brothers.

Robinson does some of his well-known dance numbers which made him known to Madison vaudeville fans. The Walter Fisher playlet "Go Into The Kitchen" is a continuous laugh. The Two Edwards are sharpshooters. The entertainment is closed with Lillian Jewell Faulkner's "Play Ball."

Shireen, who comes to the Orpheum Sunday afternoon, is a French-Canadian girl who "sees things" with her eyes tightly sealed. Shireen walks down a runway, through the theatre describing people and objects in rapid succession and with uncanny precision.

Tryouts Are Delayed in Varsity Tennis Tourney

Although the first round of the Varsity tennis tournament tryout was scheduled to be finished yesterday, about half of the matches have been played. This is probably due to the fact that the first week of school is always one of much confusion, and many of the candidates doubtless were unable to find time to play off their matches.

The matches that have already been played have not revealed the any new developments. Moulding beat his man in straight sets with scores of 6-2 in each set. Bennett disposed of his opponent one two order. Henika had an easy time and won his sets with scores of 6-1 6-1.

Other victors in the first round are: Stebbins, Stehr, Lovewell, Gibson and Michaelis.

The closest match and the hardest fought one thus far was that between Michaelis and Meyer. After taking the first set with a 6-2 score, Meyer dropped the next two in long sets of 7-9 and 8-10 scores.

MANY SCHOOLS OPEN SEASON

Harvard and Princeton Start Today on Their Own Gridirons

More than 250 college teams scattered over the country from California to Maine are engaging in their first or second scheduled games this week-end, while Big Ten coaches are whipping their grid teams into shape with strenuous scrimmage practices today.

In the east Harvard and Princeton open the season on their own gridirons, and Yale gets into action at New Haven for the second time this season. The Big Three elevens are playing small institutions and should have no difficulty in winning today's contests, although the games will be indications of the offensive strength of the teams. Princeton will be opposed by John Hopkins, Harvard will take on Middlebury; and Yale, judging from her 48 to 0 win over Bates last week, will issue a wallop to Carnegie Tech.

Besides many games played by small schools in the middle-west this afternoon, there are several important struggles taking place. Notre Dame, whose team was defeated last year only by Iowa, the conference champions, meets Kalamazoo at Notre Dame; while at Grand Forks, North Dakota is being invaded by Concordia.

The South Dakota state team which will play Wisconsin at Madison on Oct. 14 breaks into the season's schedule by clashing with Yankton at Vermillion. This team which made an excellent showing against the Badgers last year afterwards won the championship of both Dakotas. With all but three of last year's letter men on the lineup, So. Dakota is expected to come back stronger than ever. The result of the afternoon's game will confirm or deny the predictions.

Among the list of southern teams that are battling over the pigskin the University of California eleven appears. California has been turning out powerful grid machines in the last few years, as illustrated in 1920 when the Bears administered a 28 to 0 beating to the doughty Ohio State aggregation. The football world is watching keenly the performance of the southern institution against Santa Clara at Berkeley.

The University of Georgia, playing home, engages Mercer this afternoon. Last Saturday Georgia displayed great aggressiveness by piling up 82 points against Newberry, but betrayed the fact that her defense was weak by allowing the opposing forces to cross her goal twice. Georgia Tech is another strong Southern outfit going into action. Tech was one of the leaders in point scoring last year.

With the completion of the games today, the attention of football fans will be centered on next week's clashes in the middle-west where all the conference teams except Illinois have preliminary encounters.

DUSKY JUMPER BREAKS RECORD

De Hart Hubbard making his record breaking leap.

Athletic field events records are usually broken by inches or even fractions of an inch in these days of keen competition, but DeHart Hubbard, negro of the Cincinnati A. C. recently broke the junior national A. A. U. record for the broad jump by one foot and 2 1/2 inches. The old mark of 28 feet 1 inch was made in 1914.

Brothers Part to Take Places on Rival Elevens

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 29.—Brother in crimson may meet brother in blue on the freshman football field this fall and later on the varsity gridiron, for the Daniell twins yesterday parted with a handshake. Eugene to enter with the class of 1926 at Harvard, Martin to go to New Haven and become a full-fledged Eli yearling. The Daniell boys are 18. They had their birthday last week and entering different universities, are separated for the first time. Gene reported this afternoon as a candidate for guard on the Harvard freshmen. Martin is scheduled to do the same tomorrow at New Haven.

OHIO TO OPEN NEW STADIUM

Weslayan to Meet Buckeyes In First Game On Saturday

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 29.—With the first game in their brand new $1,000,000 stadium now less than a week off, Ohio State university grid candidates will be called upon to let out another notch in practice sessions for the next four days. Next Saturday Ohio Wesleyan will make its annual invasion. The greatest opening game attendance in Buckeye grid history is already assured.

Emphasis a week ago on the physical side of preparation has shifted to the mental side. Intricacies of the Wilce system are beginning to put in their appearance.

At this stage of the season, Buckeye prospects for the strenuous Western Conference campaign ahead are problematical. The veteran of last year's near-championship outfit is pretty well concentrated in the backfield. New linemen will begin to brand their identity into the minds of the fan flock next Saturday.

Line-up Uncertain

The way Dr. Wilce has been juggling his material, particularly in experimenting with ends, it is a guess at best who will start the first game in the stadium. Capt. Pixley, 249-pound guard, is of course a certainty at one guard. Pauley, another veteran, is the best bet at center, while Tee Young, last year's center, will be found at a tackle. Petroff at tackle, Kutler at guard, Elgin, Fiorette, Schweinsberger or Honaker at ends are starting possibilities along the line.

Several combinations are possible in the backfield. N. Workman, H. Workman, Michaels and Isabel may be the starting quartet, but if so they are certain to yield during the game to Blair, Hamilton, Klee, Moorehead, Farcasin, Harter, Cameron, Schaffer and others.

Team Heavy

Ahead of Saturday this much can be said. Whatever combination Dr. Wilce decides to start against Wesleyan, the line will not lack for weight. The average from end to end is certain to hover around 190 pounds.

ALL-AMERICANS MEET VARSITY IN SCRIMMAGE

Lowman's Squad Puts Up Tough Battle in Short Tilt

A team of All-Americans, not Walter Camp's, was injected into the fray for the first time last night and the eleven composed of ineligible and reserves went through a tough scrimmage with Capt. Rollie Williams, Varsity outfit.

Despite the fact that they have been working only a few days, Coach Guy S. Lowman's All-Americans were in good condition to give Varsity a hard tilt for a few minutes.

Heaving forward passes with the same accuracy that a stevedore heaves coal, Shorty Barr led the Badger offense, and Tebell, Irish, and Williams nipped the throws for long gains. Varsity started with line plunges and then Rollie Williams broke away for a long run, shaking off several tacklers during the course of his journey.

Irish nabbed a long pass from Barr, but in the shadow of the well-known goal posts, Varsity was unable to put the ball over. The first eleven scored later with Gibson in the role of ball-carrier.

Hohlfeld Out

Hohlfeld did not engage in the scrimmage. His place was taken by Bieberstein, whose 190 pounds made quite an impression on the reserves' forward wall. The remainder of the line remained the same as that which had taken the field in previous scrimmages with Irish in the left end position and Nichols holding down the important pivot job. Bill Fiern, lanky center for the All-Americans, gave Nichols a little trouble during yesterday's workout.

The first team backfield was composed of Chubby Barr, Williams, Gibson, and Merrill Taft. Taft was replaced by Radtke. O'Brien called signals for the squad which opposed Rollie's regulars.

Before scrimmage, Coach Richards sent his men through a stiff charging and tackling drill. The entire squad was lined up in front of the dummies and the men charged with savage ferocity while Richards' eagle eye gauged their ability.

Week Left

With only a week remaining before the first game of the season, the squad will begin to taper off into tip-top condition during the next week. The men are still soft enough to "feel it" when they receive hard knocks, and it will be a week or more before they are hardened into mid-season shape.

Carleton college has one of the best little college teams in the Middle West. Football fans still remember the year that Carleton went down to Chicago and whipped Coach Stagg's eleven by a 7 to 0 score. Although they have not been as strong in recent years, they are good enough to give any Middle Western outfit a close battle for part of a regulation game, at least.

PASSING THE COOKIES

A COLLEGE education costs money. It costs in time consumer. And what we pay for we like to show.

No man, however poor a student he may be, can come to college without learning new words and expressions. Many of the words are so technical and professional that they can be understood only by those who have had a similar education and interest.

Yet when the average college student learns a new word he is as proud of it as a child is with a new red wagon.

A child's toys and his love for them interest few but his parents. In fact if he is too noisy with them he and they become nuisances upon the neighborhood.

A college student's toys are what he has acquired in technical knowledge. He is proud of it and he has every reason to be. But if his pride becomes boastful, if his newly learned vocabulary is being constantly thrust upon unsuspecting friends and acquaintances then he will have to search farther and wider to find a willing audience.

Just as some people are hard to meet and difficult to understand, so are many, in fact most of the new words. Simple people are the kind we like and continue to like. There are no exalted heights between. No hours of character study are necessary before understanding them.

Words also have individuality, force, humanity. And like simple people, simple words are best.

No man can carry a dictionary with him where he goes. No man need carry one if we saved Gallic, the Spanish and the science that we paid for, for those occasions and those audiences that can understand the same language and speak the same tongue.

If cookies are placed on the highest shelf no child can reach them without effort. Yet what is childhood without cookies and jam?

If newly acquired knowledge, knowledge that would be worth while to the world if disseminated, and enjoy it. And what is the value to be worded in simple language everyone could understand use of a college education unless it can be passed on to those about us?

A GIRL THERE IS

THE American girl, especially the co-ed, is too often quietly laughed at for her seeming vanities, her fickle ways.

It is doubtful if American men appreciate her as they should. They realize that she is a good companion, that she is charming. But they do not pretend to credit her with a great deal of intelligence.

Rudyard Kipling is well known to American readers. He has written many poems and some prose about women of every country in the world.

No man can be said to understand woman or women. No man ever will. And it is just as happy for so much of their charm lies in their elusiveness, in the mystery that they hold for us.

Yet Rudyard Kipling has dared to do what a lesser man could not attempt, that is, to analyze and compare the women of the various nations.

In American Notes Kipling says: "Sweet and comely are the maidens of Devonshire; delicate and of gracious seeming those who live in the pleasant places of London; fascinating for all their demureness the damsels of France, clinging closely to their mothers, and with large eyes wondering at the wicked world; excellent in her own place and to those who understand her is the Anglo-Indian spin in her second season; but the girls of America are above and beyond them all. They are clever; they can talk. Yea, it is said that they think. They are instructed in the folly and vanity of the male mind, for they have associated with the 'boys' from boyhood.

"As certain of their own poets have said: 'Man is fire and woman is tow And the devil he comes and begins to blow.'

"In America the tow is soaked in a solution that makes it fireproof, in absolute liberty and large knowledge."

Thus Kipling appreciates the American girl.

Perhaps he has earned what many men already knew; that the American college girl can meet a man on his own plane and needs and asks no handicap. She is a steadier, more brilliant scholar.

She possesses that wonderful advantage—woman's instinct. And the comradeship that she offers man in a co-educational institution is healthy and valuable for both.

And woman may be an inspiration that will lead to dizzy heights. Myrtle Reed in The Spinster Book gives us the following literary gem anent woman:

"There it no woman who does not hold within her hands some man's achievement, some man's future, and his belief in woman and God.

"She may fire him with high ambition, exalt him with noble striving or make him a coward and a thief. She may show him the way to the gold of the world or blind him with tinsel that he may not keep. It is she who leads him to the door of glory and so thrills him with majestic purpose that nothing this side of heaven seems beyond his eager reach.

"She is the arbiter of his destiny, for, like clay in the potter's hands, she moulds him as she will."

Sentimental, perhaps, but a sentimental fact.

Communications

Editor The Cardinal:

The story carried in Thursday's Cardinal concerning Union vodvil and the editorial in Friday's Cardinal on the same subject are substantially false in every detail. The dramatics division of the committee on student life and interests has not passed upon the question of Union Vodvil this year.

That question has never been before the dramatics division of the committee on student life and interests; therefore all statements to the effect that the dramatics committee has called off the Union Vodvil, or prohibited it, or killed it or abolished it, are wholly without foundation. The faculty committee on dramatics has taken no action whatever concerning Union Vodvil this year.

A number of years ago Union Vodvil was made a biennial event by the committee on student life and interests, the committee which has charge of the calendar of student affairs. Union Vodvil never has been on the calendar for this year. The show was given last year, and, according to the regular procedure at Wisconsin, would be given again in December 1923.

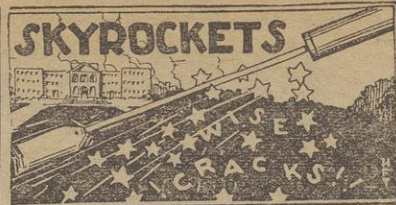

Last spring a representative of Union board asked me about a vodvil show this year, and I called this situation to his attention and told him that any request for altering the university calendar and putting in an extra vodvil show this year should be made to the committee on student life and interests, with a statement of the reasons, if any, for this change in the regular calendar.

So far as I know, no such case has far as I know, no such case has ever been presented to the committee on student life and interests. Neither myself nor the faculty committee on dramatics, of which I am chairman, has been approached in any way in connection with this matter since that brief interview last spring.

At the meeting of the committee on student life and interests last Monday the question was raised whether or not there was to be a vodvil show, and I reported to the committee what had taken place last spring, upon which another member of the committee remarked in substance: "If they are not on the calendar for this year, why not leave the situation as it is," or words to that effect.

There was not, so far as I know, before the committee any request for making an exception to the calendar with the statement of the reasons why it should be made, such as I had indicated last spring was the proper procedure, and there was before the committee no recommendation of any kind from the subcommittee on dramatics. There was no debate and no vote taken on the matter.

The statement that the dramatics committee refused to permit the show this year because in their opinion last year's show was improperly conducted, is, again, wholly without foundation. In the first place, the dramatics committee did not refuse to permit a show this year. ("An alternate year rule has not been revived by a hostile committee"). In the second place, the recommendations which the faculty committee on dramatics made in regards to last year's vodvil show had nothing whatever to do with suppressing a show this year or any other year.

After the vodvil show last year (December 15th, to be exact) the faculty committee on dramatics sent recommendations to the committee on student life and interest for certain changes which in the opinion of this subcommittee would improve future vodvil shows whenever they are to be given. The recommendations made no reference whatever to prohibiting a vodvil show this year or any other year in the future. Those recommendations have never been acted upon by the committee on student life and interests. They will properly come before that committee for action whenever the next vodvil show is being scheduled.

It seems to me altogether to be regretted that a leading news article and a leading editorial on another day on any subject of university interest should be so completely false in general effect and in particular detail.

J. M. O'NEILL,
Chairman, Faculty Committee on Dramatics.

Rush Coal to State Before Seamen Strike

Morrissey Hopeful Supply for Northwest Will be Ample

MADISON Wis. — While confronted with a serious situation by the strike of Great Lake seamen set for October 1, the federal fuel distributor is hopeful that with co-ordination of all facilities sufficient tonnage will be available to move coal to the Northwest, J. D. Morrissey today advised the Wisconsin fuel committee from Washington.

The federal fuel distributor, Mr. Morrissey said, was directed that all boats needed to carry coal to the lakes be commanded to take care of the movement. He expressed the opinion that should these directions be carried out, the strike would result in little setback to the shipment of needed coal to Wisconsin and other Northwest states.

Mr. Morrissey reported that there are approximately 24,000 cars of coal at or within 24 hours of Lake Erie. Loading of anthracite coal is improving he said, with shipment of approximately 5,700 cars daily. How much of this will go to the lakes he was unable to say.

Plan Restoration of 28 Mounds Here

Plans for restoring the partially ruined Indian mounds near Farwell's point, where the new hospital for disabled soldiers is being erected, have been submitted by University Curator Charles E. Brown.

A group of 28 mounds, the most complete of any group in this vicinity, are located near the new hospital. Relic hunters years ago partially destroyed them and it is the work of Mr. Brown to see that these are reconstructed within the next few weeks.

A large panther effigy mound near the Mendota state hospital has been partly ruined by the presence of a plowed field. The restoration of this mound will also be taken care of within a short time.

A large bird mound near Burrows park which was partly devastated by a roadway, may also be reconstructed.

2 Brothers Killed When Speeding Car Hits Pole

SUPERIOR, Wis.—Two Superior brothers were killed shortly before midnight last night when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into a pole near here. David Nelson died in the police ambulance while being taken to the hospital. Roberts succumbed at the hospital. Two other occupants of the car escaped injury.

The accident occurred when a wheel of the automobile came off as the car was taking a sharp curve.

Increased Appropriation For Madison May Come In Next Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Madison appeared to be practically assured of an appropriation for a new post office building at the approaching session of congress, which may reach one million dollars when it was announced here today that the committee on public buildings and grounds will report an omnibus bill soon after the house meets in December.

Chairman Langley of the house committee has definitely decided to press the passage of such a bill at the next regular session. Pressure has been brought to bear for such action from delegations in the house from every section of the country, and since Madison can show population gains and increases in the volume of postal business which compare favorably with any other city seeking additional post office facilities, it is practically certain that the Madison item will be included.

Rep. John M. Nelson of Madison was successful at the last session in obtaining the passage of a bill making $350,000 available for the purchase of the new post office site or Lake Monona. The treasury department investigated this site and reported to congress that in view of rising property values in Madison, due to the rapid growth and flourishing business of the city, the purchase of the business block at that figure was "a bargain."

Reported Favorably.

The committee thought so well of the Madison project that Nelson's bill was reported to the house on its merits and was the only bill making an appropriation available for post office purposes which found its way through the house in the entire session. After the house had acted favorably upon the bill, Senator La Follette took it up in the senate under unanimous consent and it was approved by the upper chamber.

The price finally agreed upon for purchase of the Lake Monona building site was $336,000. The action by Congress. office building now awaits further action by Congress.

Last May Rep. Nelson introduced a bill in the house asking for a total appropriation for building and site of $1,300,000. In September, 1916, he obtained the passage of a bill appropriating $550,000 for building and site but this money was never expended, being insufficient to cover both items.

If Congress should increase the total appropriation for Madison from the $550,000 previously authorized to $1,300,000 Madison

Atty. Gen. Morgan Buys Residence

Atty. Gen. W. J. Morgan last week purchased a residence in Shorewood in Milwaukee. Mr. Morgan, who has decided not to become an independent candidate for governor, will return to the practice of law in Milwaukee in January.

would have a building costing in the neighborhood of one million dollars. The bill passed by congress at the session just closed, making $350,000 available for the purchase of the site from the half-million dollar appropriation of six years ago, has reduced the sum already available in the Treasury for Madison's building to approximately $200,000.

There has been no appropriation for public buildings generally throughout the country since before the World war. Taxes and building costs began to mount five years ago and the government held up all plans for post-office and other federal structures. It was this policy which prevented Madison from getting a post-office at that time.

Building Inadequate

Madison's present post-office is one of the oldest in any of the large cities of the state. The large increase in the number of students attending the University and the extensive use they make of the mails in receiving and sending packages, sending their laundry to their homes, and for other purposes is one factor in rendering the present building entirely inadequate.

Rep. Nelson will be called upon to appear before the house committee on public buildings and grounds to offer these and other facts in evidence as proof of Madison's need of a new postoffice.

Other Wisconsin cities are also seeking federal funds to increase their post office facilities. Some of the items for which bills are now pending in congress are the following: Kenosha, for extension, $15,000; Sheboygan, $100,000, for extension; Portage, $125,000 for building and site; Hartford, $125,000 for building and site; Viroqua, $100,000 for building and site; Whitewater, $70,000 for building and site; Elkhorn $70,000 for building and site; Tomah, $50,000 for rebuilding assembly hall at Indian school.

"Hot Dogs" to Draw Children to Movies

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Theater magnates for years have been devising ways of attracting the trade of the younger set in Green Bay, but never before has the "Hot Dog" plan been employed. Stratford Clothes

The Style Clothes of America

THERE are no body linings in Stratford sacks. Linings of any kind are old-fashioned. The most modern method of making fine sack coats calls for the elimination of linings.

Linings, no matter how good their quality, will wear out. Some of the most common complaints are that they wear at the pockets and at the arm holes.

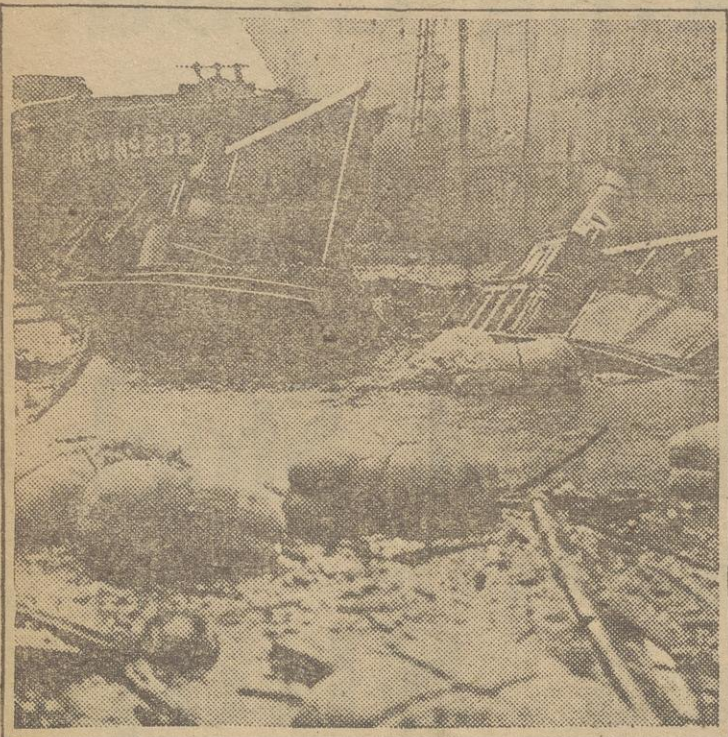

In Stratford Clothes the same fabric as the coat itself is used for the inside trim. There are no linings to wear out. The Stratford Fabric Trim with the silk satin piping that accompanies it, imparts an extraordinary handsome and stylish finish to the inside of the coat and creates an impression of elegance and superior quality.

GUN AND BLADE CHOOSSES RYER AS PRESIDENT

War Veteran Club of University Holds First Meeting

New officers of the Gun and Blade club were elected at the first meeting of the organization Wednesday night.

The president of the club this year will be Harold Ryer. William Christenson was elected vice-president; Clifford Hawley '24, secretary; Ralph Cnutson, treasurer; Victor Van Steenburg '24, sergeant-at-arms; and Adrian Scolton, Richard Osterman, Clarence Iverson and William Lowry members of the board of directors.

The club, which was organized by veterans was granted a charter recently in the eighth district organization of the veterans bureau which includes Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan.

The chapters now number 23 among the universities, colleges and technical schools of these three states. Wisconsin is the mother chapter.

The year's social program opened last night at the club's parlors with a farewell party for M. H. Teige, former Federal Board co-ordinator, who is leaving to enter business in Stoughton.

British Send Ultimatum to Kemal Pasha

Demand That Turks Withdraw From Neutral Zone

LONDON—The British government has sent a virtual ultimatum to Mustapha Kemal Pasha stating that his troops must leave the Chanak zone.

The cabinet is said to be occupied with details involving preparations for a long campaign on the part of the British troops.

One fact outstanding is that the British cabinet is going ahead on the assumption that it should be ready in case an important war should come in the Near East.

A second fact is that the British public is apparently coming to take the attitude that if war is necessary the government will be backed up.

WOULD AVERT WAR

CONSTANTINOPLE — Mustapha Kemal Pasha, replying to Gen. Harington's telegram of Wednesday has sent a message declaring his troops would not advance further.

He says he desires that no incident should occur and that he will see Gen. Harington as soon as possible.

The situation at Chanak where the British and Turkish troops are almost blowing each other, is unchanged today. The meeting between Gen. Harington and Mustapha Kemal is expected to occur tonight and it is believed here it will result in the withdrawal of the Kemalist cavalry from the Chanak neutral zone.

Three Reasons for Services In Memory of Late Educator

"There are many who feel that exercises of memorial to some one departed are like handing bouquets to someone past appreciation, but there are three good reasons for exercises of this sort," said John Callahan, state superintendent of public instruction in his address of acceptance on the part of the state at the presentation of the oil painting of L. D. Harvey, former head of Stout institute, who died two months ago.

"These exercises help to soften the grief of those who loved the deceased, it indicates that we have not overlooked his good work, and lastly, it calls attention to the career of Mr. Harvey and holds him up as an example to the men who follow in his steps."

E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the state board of education presented the oil painting to the state on behalf of the friends of Mr. Harvey who donated the painting.

Pres. Birge of the university read a paper on "Mr. Harvey's Contributions to Higher Education."

Other speakers were: C. E. Patzer, Milwaukee; Charles Prosser, Minneapolis; and George A. Works, Ithaca, N. Y. A choir from the Wheeler school of music, directed by Fletcher Wheeler, sang.

Warm Weather Until February, Says Swenson

Prosperity and warm weather until New Year's Day is predicted for this region by the lore of astrology, according to A. P. Swenson, self-styled astrologer and weather prophet, 1316 Jennifer st.

"The planets Saturn and Jupiter are in a peculiar position with relation to the earth, for the first time in 60 years," declared Mr. Swenson, "and according to astrology, this means a prosperous year and a warm winter."

Farmers may be ploughing up until two weeks before Christmas, according to Swenson, and in December it will be as warm as it is now. South-easterly winds will prevail for about three months. The coldest weather of the year at Madison will be in February when the thermometer will read at about 20 degrees below zero.

DIGNITY CHASER PLUS

If you were a young man
AS I AM
And if you thought you had a good voice

AS I DO
And if one night you were giving the community a nice little solo

AS I WAS
And if some guy stuck his head out of the window from a nearby

Frat, house and hollered, "Hey, Caruso, pull in your neck"

AS HE DID
Now I ask you, what is a young man to do? HIMNIN

ENGINEERS PLAN EXPERIMENTS IN ZINC PRODUCTION

Metallurgical Laboratory to Increase Output From Low Grade Ore

Residents, operators of zinc mines and landowners of southwestern Wisconsin will be interested in a series of experiments in zinc production now in progress in the mining and metallurgical laboratories of the College of Engineering.

The purpose of these tests according to engineering instructors, is to secure a larger return of zinc from the low grade ore. During the past year, important work has been done on the reclamation of large amount of zinc sulphide ores that are now lost.

The investigation is now checking operating problems and the factors of large scale operation. The process may be applied at each mine and will result in higher result to the operator and the landowner and the landowner, besides giving better results.

Prof. E. R. Shorey is directing the investigation. He is assisted by H. G. Hymer, Lancaster; W. O. Gericke, Lake Mills; C. F. Buckner, Maysville; C. K. Tsao, Shanghai, China; and T. D. Jones, Wales.

Film Actresses Beautiful But Dumb-Beban

CHICAGO—Motion picture actresses are beautiful, but dumb, according to George Beban, screen actor. The actors—that is the men,—were not excepted by Mr. Beban who was in Chicago today attending to business matters.

Eighty percent of the moving picture actors and actresses of today are exhibits," said Mr. Beban. "They are not actors,—just exhibits. And that's what's wrong with pictures today."

Of the actresses he said:

"Beautiful creatures, these moving picture actresses, there is no denying that. They are striking—oh, so beautiful, but as a rule, so dumb. They never heard of Booth. What does the name of Fiske or Barrymore or Drew mean to them? Ah, nothing at all."

And of the men:

"It is the same with the men of the pictures. Good looking men, men who leap and run and shoot, but few who act."

QUESTION BOX

Dear Sir:

Could you tell me, what is a "Jelly-bean?"

E. B.

Ans: A "Jelly-bean" is a young man who takes a young lady out, buys her a 5c drink, then takes her home and tries to squeeze it out of her.

Dear Mr. Fairfax: Yesterday I went to my class unprepared and when the teacher called on me I told him I had an earache and couldn't study and he asked me why an earache should interfere with my studying. What shall I tell him?

G. W.

Ans.: Tell him that when you study you read your lesson out loud and then listen. If that doesn't get away, let me know and I'll tell you another.

JERRY KOCH was telling us the other day that when he was little his father spanked him one day for using his suspenders as a slingshot.

Ford Engineers Survey Badger Rivers for Power

PORTAGE, Wis. — Engineers in the employ of Henry Ford have been surveying the Wisconsin and Kickapoo rivers to ascertain their possibilities for water power, it was announced here today. The object of the move is to develop an electricity plant with a view of establishing a zinc oxide plant for the manufacture of zinc to be used in the manufacture of auto tires.

For six months Ford representatives have been mingling with owners, operators and miners of the zinc producing mines about Platteville, Wis. and it was said they have taken options on certain properties which they will develop if plans are not balked.

COUNTRY MAG WILL BE ISSUED OCT. 5

The Wisconsin Country magazine to be issued October 5, will be the first student magazine published this year.

Advice to freshmen by a sophomore, written by Frank Talford, will have humorous and helpful suggestions for new Ag students. The president of Ag triangle, L. B. Manning, has written a story, "Play Days in the Dane County Schools", which will appear in the edition. "Impressions from the Road Side" tells of the personal experiences of an Ag student through the northern parts of Michigan and Wisconsin and of the agricultural possibilities of these sections. A summary of the church conference held here this summer will also be included.

Starting with the November publication the magazine will feature various communities made famous by Wisconsin agricultural graduates according to C. L. Kutele '23. The series will continue through the year.

Frocks For The Social Autumn —As Well as More Formal Occasions

Certainly, Fashion was never more lavish in the use of exquisite materials, youthfully becoming styles, or grace of drapery!

So many frocks that are distinguished with just the intangible "something" that makes for individuality.

For the sorority affairs, for the many social activities of Homecoming and the events of early winter, here is an intriguing array of frocks.

Your Dress Need Not Be Expensive

Cocoa brown satin back crepe. The line of demarkation between the narrowly tucked bodice and the full, shirred skirt takes the form of a shirred roll. $49.50.

Caramel Canton crepe. This frock chooses to be different by wearing picot-ed petals at the neck, by reversing the order of the tucks of its pannels, and by means of the quaintest of sleeves. $79.50.

Black Radium Lace over black satin makes a most effective semi-formal gown. Smart touches are added by a beaded girdle and metallic corsage. $35.00.

Beguiling quaintness is given a formal gown of bronze metal cloth with frill of bronze and black lace that encircles the shoulders. The same lace is used as an overskirt. $47.50.
