RETURNS MAKE $22,946 MARK IN UNION DRIVE

Chi Psi Stand First With $2,336; Highest Individual Gift is $250

At the end of the fourth day in the $100,000 student drive for the Memorial Union building, figures reached exactly $22,946.54, showing an increase of $1,007 in the last 24 hours, with only six of the 11 canvassing committees bringing in returns.

Returns from fraternities and sororities will be complete by Sunday. Fraternities heard from are as follows:

Chi Psi	$2,336
Sigma Nu	1,565
Psi U.	1,139
Phi Delta Theta	992
Phi Gamma Delta	990
Theta Xi	885
Zeta Psi	798
Delta Tau Delta	768
Delta Phi Epsilon	753
S. A. E.	720

The largest individual contribution to date is $250.

Beginning Monday, booths will be established outside Music and Agricultural halls and the Engineering building in order to give students not yet reached an opportunity to subscribe. Canvassing will continue next week until every person in the university has been approached.

Union board at a meeting last night appointed Al. Hotton as chairman of a committee to take charge of an all-university mixer Saturday night in Lathrop gymnasium and concert room, the proceeds of which go to the fund already secured.

There will be an important meeting of all members of the canvassing committees Monday at 12:30 in the Union building.

"The pace which the students right here in the university are adopting is setting the pace for Dane county, the state of Wisconsin, and in fact, for the entire country-wide campaign," asserted Miles Riley, Dane county chairman for the Memorial building drive for funds, before a group of canvassers and boosters.

Of the $1,000,000 to be raised in the campaign, the alumni and friends of the university are expected to contribute $900,000. The drives among various groups of alumni are being pushed and reports from the different sections indicate that the Badger grads are working tooth and nail to meet their quotas.

Reports of the local campaign are being sent to Milwaukee every day, according to Loring T. Hammond, treasurer of Union board. "It is on these reports that the rapidity of the drive is depending," he said. "Alumni are gauging our desire for the building by the effort we are expending in getting it."

Plumbers Parade and Kiss the Bally Blar- ney Stone

Erin Go Braugh! The engineers honor their celebrated Pat.

At 1:30 Saturday afternoon, our modest plumbers will issue forth from their secluded chambers to form in parade and hail to the birth of their patron saint. Numb-skull and Tau-Bete alike will crowd in the path to hold Patrick's hand and press their lips to the precious Blarney stone.

Indeed, the treasured stone will on this occasion be taken from the dark and musty archives of the Engineering building, to be kissed by our young and aspiring sewer-diggers.

Thus the calculus sharks and monkey-wrench manipulators will promenade about the square and back to the libe, where in the most reverential punctilio they will pay homage and tribute to their highly esteemed inventor of the steam and gas, and designer of the pearly gates.

GRENFELL TELLS OF ARCTIC LIFE

The story of the rugged life of the fishermen of Newfoundland and Labrador was vividly described with the aid of colored stereopticon slides by Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the missionary who has spent his life serving these people, to an audience which filled Music hall last evening.

Dr. Grenfell wove an intensely interesting story about his experiences as a surgeon, a mariner and missionary. His pictures of Labrador life, of icebergs, dog teams and ice-bound ships helped to make the lecture doubly interesting. The Grenfell Association will secure $250 from the proceeds of the lecture.

After the lecture a reception was given in the University Y. M. C. A. parlors for Dr. Grenfell so that those who wished to do so, might meet him personally.

S. G. A. DRESS PARTY CHAIRMAN IS NAMED

Marguerite Croskey, junior in the College of Letters and Science, has been appointed as chairman of the S. G. A. costume party which will be given at Lathrop parlors April 24.

Other committees which have been appointed are as follows: Stunts—Esther Guerini, chairman; Marion Sawyer, Betty Sehon and Mary Aiel. Music—Margaret Neal, chairman; Edith Ewald, and Patsy Watson. Publicity—Marguerite Schulz, chairman, Grace Gleerup, Katherine Winckler, Irma Haak, and Lea Sutcliffe. Food—Aileen Casey, chairman; Frances Diebold, and Janet Holzer. Arrangements—Auta Lyman, chairman; Mary Babcock, Ellen Correll, and Patsy Watson.

VETS TO GET FREE EXTENSION COURSES

To clear up misunderstandings among ex-soldiers in regard to whether men and women who are receiving the bonus of $10 a month may take correspondence courses, the University Extension division announces that all ex-soldiers who receive such a bonus and who are not enrolled in any resident school are entitled also to free correspondence instruction. Many men have been under the impression that if they received the bonus, free instruction was not available.

About 1,600 soldier bonus students have already been authorized by the state board of education to receive correspondence instruction.

BAND GIVES BENEFIT CONCERT ON SUNDAY

The band, like all other varsity organizations, is doing its share in helping to put the Memorial Union fund over the top. At 3:30 Sunday afternoon in the gymnasium a concert will be given, half the proceeds of which will go to the Memorial Union fund. The other half will go to defer expenses accrued by the band during the first semester.

The Men's Glee club will also render a few selections. The concert program will be announced later.

SHORT COURSE MEN GRADUATE

Three Wisconsin Farmers
Are Honored for Work Done in State

The graduating exercises for 53 second-year Short Course men were fittingly held yesterday afternoon at Agricultural hall auditorium.

The Wisconsin farmers who received recognition for their work during the past year were: S. A. Baird, Waukesha; W. L. Hauser, Mondovi; A. R. Toots, Waupaca. Wisconsin was the first state to pay tribute to the men of the state who furthered farming interests during each year.

The Short Course orchestra opened the commencement program with an overture. The invocation was given by Rev. E. W. Blakeman. Willis E. Lockwood gave the class oration, which was followed by a piano solo by Harold E. Lott. "Education and Service," an address by R. A. Pearson, president of Iowa State College, followed. President E. A. Birge addressed the class, after which certificates of graduation were awarded. A benediction by the Rev. E. W. Blakeman closed the exercises.

CLEF CLUB HOLDS INITIATIONS FOR 19 NEW MEMBERS

Nineteen new members were initiated into the Clef club at a meeting at the Alpha Chi house yesterday afternoon. A banquet at the Capitol cafe followed the meeting.

Eleven of the new members were elected on the recommendation of the Music school and the other eight were chosen by competitive tryouts. Those initiated were: Mabel Claxton, Winifred Collier, Christine Outcalt, Vivian Rhodes, Frances Landon, Nella Meyer, Katherine Tenney, Gretchen Schweitzer, Maude Miller, Avis Lavisky, Dorothy Pfluegner, Lauretta Rossiter, Ruth Chandler, Maurine Withey, Barbara Hildreth, Lucile Lindahl, Juliette Nusbaum, Janet Breitembach, and Vera Gruner.

OUTING CLUB WILL RIDE ON SATURDAY

Spring activities of the Outing club will begin Saturday afternoon when Ruth Sayre, head of the riding division, will lead a group of women on an hour's trip.

A poster is now on the bulletin board in Lathrop hall, and the first five who sign there will have horses provided for them. Other women may go if they can make arrangements for the renting of horses. The rate is one dollar for the hour. Anyone who wishes to take a longer trip may do so by paying for the extra time.

All who go must sign on the poster by 7 o'clock tonight, and all who sign must pay. The group will meet at White's livery at 3:15 and start at 3:30. Outing club credit will be given for the trip.

HALL SPEAKS AT SUNDAY VESPERS

To further the movement begun during the week of the Religious conference, effort is being made to prolong and promote agitation on subjects of importance to the university world of spirit as well as mind. The second of a series of talks on "Practical Application of Christianity on the Campus" will be delivered by Prof. A. B. Hall, Sunday afternoon at 4:30, in Lathrop parlors. The vesper service will include a solo by Elmer Hintz, accompanied by Georgina Smith. This number of the program was to have been given last Sunday, but an accident prevented Mr. Hintz from appearing.

MADISON AND SUPERIOR WIN FIRST GAMES

Defeat Stevens Point and Menominee Before
Large Crowd

GAMES TODAY

La Crosse vs. Monroe—2:30 p. m.
Eau Claire vs. Racine—3:30 p. m.
Stevens Point vs. Menominee—7:15 p. m.

Neenah vs. Madison (probably, although not certain)—8:15 p. m.
Superior and Madison were the victors in the first two games of the state basketball tournament played last night. The Superior Central five overwhelmed the Menominee quintet in the first contest, 36 to 13, and Madison had no trouble in winning from Stevens Point by the score of 24 to 8.

Superior Strong Team

Superior so far outclassed Menominee that the first contest was decidedly one sided, and showed that the northerners will be strong contenders in the finals. The score at the end of the first half stood at 20 to 7. The size of the Superior players, none of whom weighed less than 160 pounds, was a big advantage over the smaller Menominee team.

Nevers and Hancock were the outstanding players on the Superior five, the former contributing seven field goals for a total of 14 points, and the latter scoring three field and six free goals, a total of 12. Hancock, out of seven attempts, missed only one free throw.

For Menominee, Setter, captain and forward, scored all of the points but two, a field basket by Schneider in the last half. Smith at right guard was the best defensive man on the team.

Madison Wins Easily

The second contest promised to be a spirited battle at the start off but proved later to be an easy victory for Madison. The local boys scored 12 points in each half, and held the Stevens Point forwards to a lone point in the second period, a free throw by Hubbard. The Madison quintet, although handicapped by the sickness of Walsh, star forward, played a game which guarantees it a good chance to compete in the finals. Sutherland, who substituted for Walsh, played a good game and scored the most points for his team, a total of 10.

The floor work of Gunderson, midget forward, and the close guarding of Kessenich and Diebold stood out as features of the game. Conlin, center, was a good man on defense and outjumped his opponent almost every time. For Stevens Point, two men, Wilson and Hubbard, divided evenly the scoring honors for their team.

The lineups of the four teams follow:

Superior	Menominee
Nevers rf	Setter (Capt.)
Nelson lf	Olson
Hancock (Capt.) c	Schneider
Smith rg	Smith
Christmas lg	Lotwin

Field goals—Nevers 7, Nelson 4, Hancock 3, Setter 3, Christmas 1, Schneider 1.

Free throws—Hancock 6 out of 7, Setter 5 out of 11.

Substitutions—Perrin for Nelson, Sokund for Nevers, Trettin for Hancock.

Referee—Schommer, Chicago.

The teams lined up as follows in

COMMERCE CLUB DANCE TONIGHT

"The biggest social event of the week-end will be the dance given by the Commerce club at Lathrop gymnasium," says the committee. The dance will be an all-university affair but the number of couples is limited to 300. Thompson's best orchestra will furnish the jazz; and the committee, headed by Arthur Uggren, has planned several features to liven the evening.

ODE

I stand and gaze
Thinking long
And striving to attain
A hope
Of
Eventual salvation.

I move dejectly
Forward, whilst
I tenaciously
Clutch it, my
Only hope. I sigh
Ah—
That this endures.

At last fitfully
I reach my goal
And, avaricious,
Fitch vengefully,
Lustfully, that
Which is my dinner.

What Should He Say?

She asked the druggist if he had any shaving sets suitable for a gift

VARSITY GYM TEAM WILL GO TO LA CROSSE

Last Dual Trip Before the ..Conference Meet at Urbana

After three weeks of solid practice since the dual meet with the Milwaukee, the varsity gymnastic team is in trim to meet La Crosse Normal on its own floor Saturday. La Crosse will celebrate the opening of its new gymnasium.

The La Crosse meet comes as the last dual trip the team will make before the conference meet which takes place April 9 and 10 at Urbana. April 2 the team will meet Chicago here.

Gymnastics this year have excited wide interest among fans because of the variety and fascination of the work. The men have put on several first class exhibitions this year in addition to the inter-college, inter-class, frosh-varsity and other meets. The boom of the sport this year is due in large measure to the work of Gamma Sigma men in boosting and expanding gymnastics. As soon as the weather allows, outside practice will begin and the frosh squad will have an opportunity to tune up for a big program next year. Gamma Sigma is planning several features for the university circus and promises many thrills second not even to Barnum and Bailey's dare-devils.

Coach Schlatter, Tasche, Hagen, Kletzien, Kates, Cuttin, Holcombe, O'Shea, Heseman, Harris, Aansen will go to La Crosse.

ENGINEER'S CLUB

The Engineer's club will hold a meeting in the Engineering building tonight at 7:15. B. L. Conley will talk on research work in physics. His subject is "The Relation of Pure to Applied Science." C. W. Wille will talk on "The Dye Industries."

PHYSICAL EDS TO FROLIC SATURDAY

Shaded reading lamps, soft upholstered chairs, harmonious cretonnes, pretty rugs,—what Physical Ed hasn't a vision of the reading room on the fourth floor of Lathrop after it has been redecorated from the proceeds of the Physical Ed party to be held Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 in Lathrop parlors.

The party, however, won't be simply a benefit for the reading room, according to Marion Warner, general chairman. The plan is to have a jolly get-together for all major and minor students in the physical education department.

Dancing, stunts, special attractions, and raffles are among the diversions which will occupy the attention of those attending.

Tag tickets will be sold in Lathrop and on the hill today, and every Physical Ed is expected to buy one.

THE HAZING PROBLEM

WITH the time approaching for the reappearance of the green caps atop freshman thatches, the old problem of dealing with hazing comes up anew.

Freshman-sophomore friction is bound to develop this spring, just as it has stirred up the campus and Lake Mendota in years past. The task of curbing the mob spirit in the underclassmen must be considered now, before the first clash comes.

The fact to face is that the institution of the green cap is threatened with abolishment at Wisconsin. The sporadic outbreaks among the freshmen and sophomores last fall have turned public opinion strongly against hazing. Parents of students, citizens all over the state, have written demanding that action be taken to abolish all forms of hazing.

Obviously, the abolition of the green cap, a half century old tradition, would be a blow to student life. Upperclassmen and alumni are determined that the green cap shall remain on the campus. They are just as determined to take steps to rule out hazing from Wisconsin in order to preserve the green cap tradition.

Hazing of the free-for-all lake party variety must go. Pitched battles between the freshmen and sophomores, always precipitated by a few hot-heads, have had their day. Small cliques, ruled by the mob spirit, have too often taken the war-path for the mere love of deviltry.

The student senate has demonstrated that sane methods can be used to punish for violations of traditions. Indiscriminate hazing must go. Traditions can be enforced before the senate on evidence that will convict the guilty and leave the innocent unmolested.

THE MILITARY BALL

ANOTHER well-established tradition is to be revived April 9 when the eighth annual Military ball will resume its place on the calendar of university events. War conditions prevented its being held last year; but this year's ball promises to be fully up to the standard of former years.

The cadet corps committees are planning and working overtime to make the affair a spectacular success. Arrangements have been perfected for elaborate lighting effects throughout the evening. The music will be furnished by 25 picked dance musicians. Best of all, the committee in charge guarantee a smooth, glassy surface on which the fortunate couples can glide.

The ball is to be held upon a strictly democratic basis. Enlisted men are as heartily welcome as officers. A special, urgent invitation is issued to every ex-private to be there. To carry out the idea of democracy, the committee in charge have voted against flowers and taxis.

An excellent opportunity will be afforded for all men who were in service to get together again. All branches, infantry, artillery, aviation, marines, and the navy, will be well represented. The men who got to France and those who weren't so fortunate will meet at a function which will unite the memories brought back by a military atmosphere with the thrills of an enjoyable ball.

BADGER HOPES HIGH FOR TANK MEET TONIGHT

New Stars Give Swimmers Come Back at North- western

The Badger tank squad will get a chance to avenge their defeats of the early part of the season, in the conference swimming meet to be held tonight at Northwestern university.

Badger hopes received a considerable boost this week by the addition to the team of two old stars who have been prevented from competing in previous conference matches because of low standings. They are Rudy and Ewald, both sprinters who can be relied on to score for Wisconsin. Rudy's status is not definitely determined as yet, because of a conference ruling which provides that a man must be eligible a certain time before the meet. Rudy was recently declared eligible and negotiations are now under way to have him placed on the team if it is possible.

So far the Wisconsin swimmers have been unable to score a victory against any of the conference teams. They were barely beaten by Illinois in the first tilt of the year when after we had held the lead throughout the meet, the sucker swimmers in the last event pushed themselves into first place with a two point margin.

Northwestern and Chicago also have won over the Badgers. These two teams are doubtlessly the best among the "Big Ten" and the fight for first place in the conference will probably be between these squads.

The lineup for Saturday's meet is as follows:

40 yard dash—Ewald, Bach, Peterson, Rudy.

100 yard dash—Lamboley, Bach, Rudy, Black, Ewald.

200 yard back stroke—Peterson, Bach.

150 yard breast stroke—Benson, Koch, Colling.

Plunge—Bloodgood, Krum, Black.

Fancy diving—Collins, Koch, Kidder.

220 yard swim—Lamboley, Stark.

440 yard swim—Stark.

Relay—Bach, Davies, Rudy, Stark and Peterson.

WISCONSIN GRADS EDITORS OF NEW TRAVEL JOURNAL

Somers, '08, and Buchen, '09,
Will Publish "See America
First" Magazine

Two Wisconsin men, A. L. Somers, '08, and G. W. Buchen, '09, have become associated with the Bureau of American Travel, Milwaukee, publishers of the See America First Magazine.

Mr. Somers is president of the firm, and Mr. Buchen vice president and managing editor of the magazine.

The May issue of the See America First Magazine has striking illustrations, well written articles, and wide variety of subjects that appeal especially to the lovers of the great out-doors.

There is no other publication in America, according to the announcement, that covers the same field which See America First does. Its mission is one of far-reaching educational and patriotic significance, to develop a better and more general knowledge of our country, its scenic wonders and attractions, its resources and industrial accomplishments, the life and customs of the people, its history and traditions, and its brilliant future.

See America First was originally published by Mr. Somers, at Tacoma, Wash. It was recently removed to Milwaukee, however, and has been greatly enlarged and improved, appearing as a monthly periodical.

AG. LIT SOCIETY

The Agricultural literary society will hold its regular meeting Friday night.

COMMUNICATIONS

WISCONSIN WOMEN AND SUFFRAGE

To the Editor of The Cardinal:

I wonder how many women on the campus would be willing to admit that they didn't believe in woman's suffrage? I'll wager there are not many, but are Wisconsin women sufficiently interested to do more than to merely signify their approval? It would seem not, or if they are, they haven't shown their interest. How many women know that there is a suffrage league here for the sole purpose of instructing women in the use of the prerogative which they are soon to exercise?

From the number who attended Professor Hall's lecture given for their benefit Tuesday, it would seem that the number is distressingly small. It's time to be candid. Wouldn't the women who have spent their lives fighting for suffrage be gratified by the display of interest evinced by Wisconsin women? From present indications, the future Jan. Addams, Carrie Chapman Catt, or Anna Howard Shaw will not claim Wisconsin as her Alma Mater. Indications point strongly to the fact that many aspirants to the title of Mrs. Vernon Castle are flitting about the campus.

Aren't there more than two dozen women here who are attracted by the opportunity to help improve educational institutions, to change our child labor laws, to eliminate some of the incapable men who cumber public offices today? You would expect the quota to be larger considering that there are about 2,300 women here. Are the women too tired or too busy? Neither, I think. In a majority of cases it's that "I should worry, let George do it" attitude which is universally recognized as being so conducive to progress. If it isn't that, what is it and are you going to do anything about it?

A. C. D.

PRIZE VODVIL ACTS WILL BE AWARDED CUPS

Tryouts Show This Year's
Vode Will be Best
Staged Yet

Three large silver cups will be awarded by the Union board to the three best acts in the Union Vodvil. The cups which have been purchased from the Hammond Publishing company of Chicago, are 16, 14 and 12 inches high, and they will be engraved with the names of the winning acts and participants. The judges, whose names will be announced later, will render their decision immediately after the Saturday evening performance.

There has been some objection to the Union Vodvil coming on Friday, April 2, which is Good Friday. The production staff wish to explain, however, that this was the only date available. Two other dates were previously set for the performances; but both times it was necessary to make a change, first on account of the upset in Prom plans and again in order to leave a clear field for the Religious conference.

It was felt that a great many would go to the Friday evening performance anyway, and as the Union board is working on a commission basis with the Fuller theater, it was thought best to take advantage of the opportunity to make more money for the Memorial Union by this extra performance. There will be two performances Saturday for those who do not care to go on Friday.

Tryouts will continue all the remainder of this week. The acts so far have been of the highest calibre, and it looks as though the judges would have a difficult time to decide which acts are the best. Whichever acts are chosen, the audience is assured a well balanced performance of song-and-dance artists, impersonators, workers of black magic, and all the rest that goes with a first class vaudeville show.

METHODIST MIXER SATURDAY NIGHT

Methodist students and their friends will give a party Saturday night at Wesley hall, University avenue and Charter street, in celebration of St. Patrick's Day. All students are welcome.

The girls of the church have the plans in charge. Yellow or green will be worn in the lapel by every man, and each must bring an Irish story.

Stunts are being arranged by the committee of which Fern Constance is chairman. Marie McKittrick will provide music. Refreshments will be arranged to suit the wearers of the green.

"Y. W." LEADER TO ADDRESS BIG MEETING TODAY

Miss Louise Holmquist, National Executive, to Tell of Work at Noon Convocation

Miss Louise Holmquist, a national executive for the Young Women's Christian association and a graduate of Vassar, who is considered one of the biggest students leaders in the country, will address all university women at a convocation to be held in the S. G. A. room, Lathrop hall, today at 12:45. She will discuss the membership basis and the question of industrial standards for women.

Membership in the Y. W. C. A. is either on a personal basis or by evangelical church affiliation. Delegates to the national convention which will be held in Cleveland in the early part of April will vote for or against the personal basis according to the sentiment expressed by Wisconsin women. Opportunity for hearing both sides of the question will be given today and every Wisconsin woman is urged to be present and participate in the voting which will follow the discussion.

ORATORS HOLD FINAL TRYOUTS FOR N. O. L. MEET

Winners Will Represent
Varsity at Contest Held
Here on May 7

Wisconsin representatives in the Northern Oratorical league contest, to be held in Madison, May 7, will be chosen at the final tryouts Monday evening at 8 o'clock in 165 Main hall. Lawrence Hall and Ray M. Heckman, winners of the senior open, Oscar Christianson and Herman Sinaiko, winners in the junior open, Sterling Tracy, the sophomore open winner, and Gladys Borchers, winner of the junior ex. representing the literary societies will compete. Up to 1917, the person getting second place in the final tryouts, was sent as a representative to the Hamilton Oratorical contest held by the Hamilton Club of Chicago. These contests were discontinued on account of the war, and no information as to renewing them has been received, but in case they are resumed, a speaker will be sent.

The Northern Oratorical league contest has been held for the past 35 years, and is participated in by six of the leading middle western universities, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Northwestern. It is the classical oratorical event of the Middle West. It is held in Madison every six years. This is the first time since 1914 that Madison students will have a chance to witness it.

In 1901, Governor Lowden offered first and second prizes of $100 and $50 to be awarded annually. Wisconsin has won the contest four times, the last victory in 1913. Alvin C. Reis spoke for Wisconsin.

Howard Jones took second place in 1914. Last year, Iowa took first prize, and a woman from Michigan second. Fletcher Cohn spoke for Wisconsin. The winning orations are published by the league every ten years. A publication will be made this year, and will include the best speech of the coming contest.

CHEMICAL EXPERT TO SPEAK FRIDAY

Prof. Roger Adams of the department of chemistry of the University of Illinois will lecture in 102 Chemistry building Friday evening on the subject: "Recent Problems in the Synthesis of Organic Drugs." The lecture is open to the public.

Dr. Adams has for a number of years been interested in the development of processes for the production of fine chemicals, formerly obtainable only from Germany. His work has been of inestimable benefit to research workers in this country and is recognized as one of the greatest contributions made to American chemistry. Dr. Adams comes to Madison as a guest of the department of chemistry.
