COLFAX, WISCONSIN

I HAVE LEARNED WITH MUCH PLEASURE THAT THE VILLAGE OF COLFAX, WIS. IS OBSERVING THIS YEAR THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF ITS SETTLEMENT. AS YOU TURN THIS SIGNIFICANT PAGE IN THE COLORFUL HISTORY OF YOUR TOWN MRS. JOHNSON AND I EXTEND TO ALL THE CITIZENS OF COLFAX OUR HEARTIEST GREETING AND CONGRATULATIONS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON

Dedication

WE SHALL ALWAYS REMEMBER . . .

The men and women who came from far and near to help us recover from the most devastating disaster in the history of Colfax—the tornado of 1958;

Those who brought food, and the many women's groups who served the 55,000 meals to the homeless survivors and the volunteer workers;

Those who sent clothing to be distributed to survivors who had lost their all;

Those who came to help with the physical work of picking up the debris and clearing our streets for traffic;

Those who furnished chain saws, trucks and other equipment with which to work;

The ham radio operators who sent and received messages to and from our relatives and friends;

Those who helped us with their cash donations.

The National Guard, The Red Cross and The Salvation Army, whose personnel helped us in their capacities.

And those who could not help, but remembered us in their prayers and messages of encouragement.

All these gave us courage and faith to carry on. To them we are most grateful, and dedicate this booklet.
