[PRICE THREE CENTS.]

SPOKE FOR A PRIZE

FRESHMAN DEC. WON BY MISS ELEANOR BLISS.

JOHN DAY AWARDED SECOND HONORS.

Good Work by All—Music by the Orchestra.

The Freshman class gave a revival of the once popular contests last Saturday evening. There were eight contestants and all showed clearly by their excellent renderings that our elocution department is capable of a high order of productions, under the splendid training of Prof. Sanderson.

The first number on the program was, Cavalry March (Holze) by the university orchestra. The audience gave them a cordial greeting which goes to show they are appreciated at their first public appearance, under Prof. Parker's careful management. Miss Hattie McKowan opened the literary part of the evening's entertainment with "The Tay Bridge" by Will Carlton. Her selection was very well delivered. Miss Emily M. Stetson was next and recited "Moro, or the Dumb Savior," by Mary E. Bryan. She showed that she was thoroughly practical in her selection. John L. Fisher followed with "The Unknown Speaker." His voice was splendid for the character of the selection. Miss Edessa Kunz then spoke Alfred Tennyson's revenge in a very talented manner. Miss Anna Scribner varied the program at this point by a vocal solo, entitled "Contentment," by Rolyn. Miss Nellie Van Dusen continued the program with a delightful rendering of "The Prophecy" by H. A. Croffort "Mary's Right Ride," by Geo. W. Cable was then delivered by Miss Andrea R. Matson. She was thoroughly at home in her selection and merited the vigorous applause. Miss Eleanor Bliss recited "Old Mother Goose" by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, in a manner that captivated the jury and audience, justly winning first honors. John F. Day secured second honors in his fine presentation of Victor Hugo's "Strange Duel." His voice was particularly well suited to the selection and together with his thorough familiarity with the same merited this decision. The orchestra with cornet solo by E. C. May closed the program which so pleased the audience as to require an encore. The decision was then announced. The judges were Rev. J. W. Cochran, Frank Hall and Mrs. Helen Campbell. It is hoped the contest may continue to be a regular event as it is an excellent plan to commence this important work early.

—The U. W. Bible class of the Presbyterian church will take an excursion around Lake Mendota some time next week. Nothing definite has been decided on as yet, but a committee has the matter in charge and the members will be notified of the date as soon as decided on, through the Cardinal.

BOTH SINGLES AND DOUBLES.

Wisconsin Easily Wins From Beloit in Each.

Wisconsin also won the doubles in the tennis tournament at Beloit, last Saturday. Manson and Hughitt played a very good game and were easy victors over the Beloit men. In the first set Sanderson and Eaton started out by winning the first four games. The Wisconsin men then braced up and won the next six games and the match. Beloit then won the second set 6-3. Manson and Hughitt were playing too good tennis for their opponents in the third set and won 6-4. They also secured the next set and the match 6-1. Wisconsin has won all four of the matches played with Beloit this year.

In the morning Manson won from Sanderson 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1. Friday afternoon Manson defeated Sanborn in a close match in the finals. The score was 7-5, 6-1, 6-4. Allen then defaulted to Manson in the championship round.

As was announced before, the first six men were selected for a tennis team on their playing in the tournament. An attempt has also been made to indicate the comparative ranking of the men. The men are as follows:

Manson, 0.
Sanborn, Noyes, 1-4 15.
Wadsworth, 1-2 15.
Rogers, Hughitt, 15.

These men may be challenged by outsiders and if successful will go on the team. Regular rules will be announced later.

NORA SAMLAG.

Ends a Successful Year with a Historical Program.

The Nora Samlag closed a most successful year's work with a historical program last Saturday that covered almost the whole range of Norwegian history. Through the year the bi-weekly meetings have been chiefly devoted to the study of Scandinavian literature now the fourth in importance in the world. The programme of Saturday was as follows:

'Norway's Early Independence'—Aasen; Poem, (Bjornson)—Field; 'The Union with Denmark'—J. Larson; 'Norway's Modern Independence'—T. S. Thompson; 'Falsen, the Father of the Constitution'—C. N. Johnson; 'Political Struggles to 1870'—Molstad; 'Ninth of June Resolution'—Oscar Olson; 'The Consular Controversy and the political situation in the 90's'—Prof. J. E. Olson.

Officers were elected for next year, as follows: President, T. S. Thompson '96; secretary, G. N. Risjord, '97; treasurer, L. Murat, '97.

EPIC LECTURE.

Prof. Freeman will give the next lecture in the epic course Wednesday at 4 p. m., in the Law building. His subject will be the Fairy Queen.

—The Junior laws play the seniors at Randall Field tomorrow afternoon. No admission will be charged. An interesting game is expected as many of the players belong to the regular Varsity nine.

COLLEGE PAPERS

THE WESTERN COLLEGE PRESS ASSOCIATION CONVENTION.

MEETS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO ON FRIDAY.

A Call Issued for Delegates—Prominent Journalists to Speak.

The annual convention of the Western College Press association will take place at the University of Chicago on May 31. The first session will be called Friday morning at 10:30. The convention will hold morning and afternoon sessions and will close Friday evening with a banquet. Arrangements are being made for a public meeting to be held in the evening before the banquet which will probably be addressed by Moses P. Handy, William Penn Nixon or some other prominent newspaper man of Chicago. President Harper, of the university, will probably also speak. A program to be presented at the afternoon meeting by delegates from several papers, has been arranged. The program will probably be as follows:

"The Western College Press Association"—Aegis of the University of Wisconsin.

"Intercollegiate Relations of College Papers"—Stentor, Lake Forest University.

"The Literary Monthly"—Inlander, University of Michigan.

"The Choice of Editorial Boards"—Oberlin Review, Oberlin.

"News Gathering on a College Daily"—University of Michigan Daily.

"The College Weekly"—University of Chicago Weekly.

It is intended that the papers shall be followed by informal discussions in which all the representatives will take part.

An effort is being made to extend the association and it is hoped that this year's meeting will be much more representative than previous ones have been and that many colleges who have not hitherto sent delegates will be represented.

The Western College Press association was organized about five years ago, but in that time has not enlarged its membership to any extent and save for its annual conventions which have always been fairly well attended it has in reality been an association in name only. Last year's convention saw an effort made to organize a kind of associated press among the papers of the west but the plan was not carried out and the system of circular letters inaugurated; it also proved a failure. During the past year an association was formed among the college dailies of the country and as a result a system of news letters has been started which has proved quite successful. One of the objects of the convention this year will be to arrange for some such exchange of news among the papers of the west and to bring the papers participating, into closer intercollegiate relations. There are other phases of college journalism which it will be profitable to discuss and some intercollegiate reforms which can be greatly aided by the co-operation of the college press. Thus it will be seen that there is considerable work for the association to do and a big field to work in. Papers receiving the Cardinal (the official organ) with this article marked are urged to send delegates to Chicago next Friday. All papers who are already members are supposed to send delegates or letters with satisfactory excuse. Any papers not at present members who will send delegates or letters of application will be taken into membership and it is to these especially that this call is addressed. There are no membership dues. Reduced railroad rates can probably be secured as the western intercollegiate meet occurs the next day. Address letters of application to A. N. Slayton, Kenyon Collegian (President), Gambier, Ohio; J. Edwin Jay, Earlhamite (secretary) Richmond, Ind.; or W. T. Arndt, Daily Cardinal, (Cham's exec. com.) Madison, Wis. Tomorrow's Cardinal will probably contain fuller information as to place of meeting etc.

The Executive Committee:—
W. T. Arndt, (Daily Cardinal)
Chairman.

A BANQUET.

Phi Gamma Delta Celebrates at the Van Etta.

The Mu chapter of Phi Gamma Delta held its third annual banquet at the Hotel Van Etta last night. Covers were laid for twenty-six and the tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers in the fraternity color—royal purple. The following toasts were responded to:

Toastmaster, Willard Bela Overson.
The Royal Purple, Richard Lloyd Jones.
Fair Wisconsin, Walter Tallmadge Arndt.
Chapter Ideals, Albert Ralph Hager.
The Fiji Athlete, Herbert Bingham Copeland.
Mu, George Holmer Brownell.
Looking Forward, Franklin Elisha Bump.
Auf Wiedersehn, Frank Arthur Vaughn.

The following members of the fraternity were present from out of town: Richard Lloyd Jones, Chicago; Wheeler Howland, Green Bay; Frank A. Hoyt, Sioux City, Iowa.

PRESS CLUB.

At North Hall will occur the regular meeting of the Press club at 7:30, Wednesday evening. Besides an important business meeting the following program will be rendered: Paper on the Ideal College Magazine, by Florence Robinson, to be followed by discussion led by F. E. Bump; sketch by Anna Scribner; paper on the "Ideal College Daily" by J. B. Sanborn, and followed by discussion directed by W. G. Bleyer. Each paper is to be followed by a discussion in which any one is invited to take part. Several matters of business will be brought up, among others a report of the committee in regard to a banquet at the end of the term.

—Miss Helen Dodge, ex-'97, of Sparta is visiting at the Delta Gamma lodge.

PUBLISHED DAILY (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED)
DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR.

BY THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Subscription price $1.00 per term, $2.50 per year
in advance.

The Cardinal cordially solicits contributions from all members of the University.

All communications must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer and must be received at our office not later than 8:30 p. m. of the day before they are intended to appear.

Address all matter intended for publication to the editor-in-chief. All business communications should be sent to the business manager.

The Daily Cardinal,
Madison, Wis.
Room 7, Democrat Building.

The haste which a combination of circumstances necessitated in getting out Saturday's Cardinal caused the omission of a report of the Cardinal association meeting, which was then in type, and the insertion of an editorial under the head intended for the report. The head also stated that Hughes was elected president of the association, whereas J. K. Lynch was the person chosen, as will be seen by the report in this issue.

The comparatively new university organization, the orchestra, covered itself with glory last Saturday evening,
at the Freshman Declamation contest.
Their first number—American Cavalry
march—was very enthusiastically received, so that they were compelled to respond with an encore. They then presented a new and well appreciated selection entitled "The University of Wisconsin March." The march was composed by Franz Mayer, of Milwaukee, a young, but promising musician. He dedicated the same to the orchestra. At the close of the last number of the program the audience paid the orchestra the unusual compliment of insisting on a response after the decision of the judges had been given. The organization has rather felt that its work was hardly of a character thus far to merit any enthusiasm on the part of the students, but the efforts of Saturday are certainly such as to give them the hearty appreciation of all who have heard them.
We are glad to welcome the orchestra as a long needed organization in our musical circles and congratulate their capable leader on the excellent work
he has shown the club the ability to produce. With so favorable a beginning it is easy to predict a successful future.

BETA THETA PI ANNIVERSARY.

A dinner with 200 guests was served at the Burnett House, Cincinnati, last Friday evening in honor of the surviving founders of the Beta Theta Pi college fraternity. Among those present were James A. Beaver, governor of Pennsylvania, John Holt Duncan, Texas. Toasts were responded to by John W. Noble, ex-secretary of the Interior, and Judge Horace Lurton.

"THE GOBLINS' FROLIC."

Such is the title of a piece for the piano, just published by Ned Woodman, of Meno. It is a fantastic, attractive composition, with an appropriate title-page designed by the author.

—J. S. Coe, '97 law, is spending a few days with friends at Stevens Point.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

The annual meeting of the Cardinal association was held in the law building this morning, but was poorly attended, only thirty being present.

The meeting was called to order by President Henning and after the usual routine of business J. K. Lynch '97, was elected president of the association and J. Gilbertson, '97, was chosen for secretary.

The business manager being unable to make a full report, an auditing committee consisting of Messrs. Cunningham, Liebenberg and Blewett was appointed. The meeting then proceeded to the election of a board of editors for the coming year and the following were elected:

E. S. Hanson,
F. V. Cornish,
J. B. Sanborn,
H. A. Sawyer,
G. F. Downer,
C. A. Phelps,
W. W. Hughes,
A. Barton,
W. G. Bleyer,
W. S. Gannon.

Albert Hedler was elected business manager for next year.

The two delegates to the Western Collegiate Press association were chosen, J. B. Sanborn, '96, managing editor, and A. Hedler, '96, business manager.

It was also decided to have a committee of five appointed to consider the matter of changing the management of the paper with view to making it a private enterprise.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

Editorially the Times-Herald had the following good things to say of us yesterday:

The University of Wisconsin will give remarkable advantages this summer at Madison. Beginning July 9 and continuing to Aug. 16, a well ordered course of study is announced, chiefly for teachers and young men and women intending to teach, but all others who may desire to attend are welcome. The ladies' hall of the state university will provide lodging and board for the women attending the school. The prices will be merely the cost involved. No others than students at the university summer school will be admitted.

This university summer session is remarkable for its practical character.
The difficulty with such schools generally is that they are too literary or abstract. The course at Madison this summer includes algebra, geometry, with practical instruction in surveying, electricity, with laboratory practice, chemistry, botany, with the physiology of plants; elementary
anatomy, zoology, and geologic studies, with special attention to movements of the earth's crust in the formation of continents and mountains, earthquakes and volcanoes. There will also be regular daily classes in history, pedagogics, Greek, Latin, German and English literature, including Shakespeare, Chaucer, Milton and Browning.

Among the instructors will be Dr.
John W. Stearns, director of the school; Katherine L. Sharp, Dr.
Charles B. Thwing and Dr. William A.
Scott, the noted professor of political economy. There are but a few of the teachers. The English literature course will be directed by John C. Freeman, of the university. The six weeks during which the university summer school will be opened will fill the little town to overflowing with students and friends, thoroughly testing its capacity for summer boarders, the scholastic attractions offered being unequalled anywhere in the country.

The attention given to scientific work is a striking indication of the predominance science has everywhere assumed in education.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.:

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly,

C. W. HORNBICK.

GOOD TIME MADE.

The Mott-Haven games at Berkeley Oval, New York, came to an end Saturday. Unusually good time was made in nearly all the events. The following is a summary of the day's work:

Score by points: Yale 30; Pennsylvania 25; Harvard 22; Iowa 10; California 7; Dartmouth 5; Swarthmore 5; Union 4; Amherst 2; Columbia 1; Princeton 1. Total 112.

Iowa City—State university 5; Nebraska university 4; fourteen innings. 11,000 people celebrated Crum's victory in this, his home. Bonfires, bands, cannons.

Mt. Vernon—Iowa college 10; Cornell 1.

Semi-finals, 100-yard dash—First heat, E. S. Ramsdell, Pennsylvania, first; W. M. Richards, Yale, second; time 10-1-5. Second heat: John V. Crum, Iowa, first; H. S. Patterson, Williams, second; time, 10-1-5. Crum won easily by two yards.

In the 120-yard hurdle H. Torrey, California, was first; E. H. Cady, Yale, second; time, 15-4-5. Half mile run: E. Hollister, Harvard, first; C. Kilpatrick, Union, second; C. C. Richel, Pennsylvania, third; time, 2 minutes. The finals resulted as follows:

Throwing sixteen-pound hammer, Hickok, of Yale, first, distance 135 feet, 7-1-2 inches; Cross, of Yale, second, 135 feet. Hickok's throw beats all previous collegiate and intercollegiate records (his own). Cross also beat previous records.

120-yard hurdle—Chase, Dartmouth, first; Dyer, California, second; time, 15-4-5 seconds.

100-yard dash—Crum, of Iowa, first; Richards, of Yale, second; time, ten seconds.

In the 100-yard dash Crum got off badly but ran an excellent race, gaining on Richards for the first half, and finally beat him about six inches.

100-yard dash—Crum, of Iowa, first; Richards, of Yale, second; time, 10-1-5.

Quarter-mile run—Vincent, of Harvard, first; Kock, of California, second; time, 50-4-5.

Putting sixteen-pound shot—Hickok, 42 feet, 11-1-2 inches; Knipe, of Pennsylvania, 41 feet, 4-1-2 inches. Hickok's put beat his intercollegiate record of 42 feet.

Running high jump—Leslie, of Pennsylvania, first; Winsor, of Pennsylvania, second; 5 feet, 11-3-4 inches.

Running board jump—Sheldon, of Yale, 22 feet, 8-1-2 inches; Stockney, of Harvard, 22 feet, 3-1-2 inches.

100-yard dash—Crum, of Iowa, first; Kilpatrick, of Union, second; time, 4-23-2-5, beating all collegiate records.

220-yard hurdle—Bremer, of Harvard, first; Cady, of Yale, second; time, 24-3-5.

220-yard dash—Crum, of Iowa, first; Richards, of Yale, second; time, 22 seconds.

Pole vault—Hoyt, of Harvard, and Bucholz, of Pennsylvania, tied; 11 feet 2-3-4 inches. Bucholz won the vault off.

Trainer Murphy, of Yale, entered a protest against Crum, on the ground that he was professional, before he entered college five years ago. Crum's friends claim they can prove to the satisfaction of the officials that the charge is unfounded as he is only 21 years old and was not known as a runner until a year ago. The Yale people claim his name is not Crum, but his trainer, Ed. Moulton, says Crum is a son of William Crum, a banker, of Bedford, Iowa.

—George E. Morton, of Omro, a graduate of the college of letters and science and of the law school, is visiting in the city. Morton held several records in track and field athletics while in the university.

—Louis Gregerson, who will graduate from the engineering department next month, will enter the service of the United States government and go to the state of Washington with a surveying party.
