Get A Lift With A Mini Course This Spring

It's Magic!

Abracadabra! Just how did that rabbit get into that hat? Learn how by enrolling in Magic!, a new Mini Course being taught by Madison magician Pat Quinn. A friend introduced Mr. Quinn to magic and the secrets needed to perform, and after seven years performing in the Milwaukee area, he is in Madison ready to teach you the magical tricks of the trade. Take this opportunity to fascinate others. Sign up today!

It's Greenery!

Travel to the world of hot climates with a new Mini Course, The World of Cacti. Frank Bowman, former curator of the succulent plant collection for the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Brooklyn, New York, will take you on a world tour through slides, show you how to grow cacti in your home, and help you start your own collection. Mr. Bowman has traveled and lectured worldwide on the subject, consulted on numerous publications and hosted a popular gardening show in New York, The Green Thumb. Whether your thumb is green to your elbow, or you kill houseplants faster than you can buy them, Frank Bowman can introduce you to the fascinating world of cacti.

It's Pottery!

Even if you never touched clay before, Marty Bleyer can teach you how to make beautiful pottery. Mr. Bleyer first got involved in clay through the same introductory course in pottery he now teaches in the Union Mini Course program. Six years later he is an accomplished and recognized Madison potter who sells his wares across the state, including Madison's Art Fair Off The Square, where he has won the President's Award. Mr. Bleyer specializes in functional pottery with unique designs and glazes. He teaches several pottery classes including Introduction to Wheel Thrown Pottery, More Wheel Pottery and Creative Hand-building in Ceramics.

It's All This And More!

Magic! . . . The World of Cacti . . . and The World of Pottery are just a few of the fun, exciting Wisconsin Union Mini Courses offered this semester.

Now in its thirteenth year as one of Madison's largest adult education programs, Mini Courses continue to feature popular favorites including Horseback Riding, Chinese Cooking, Speedreading, Personal Computers and Bike Maintenance as well as new offerings like Creole Cooking, Feelin' Fit, Sunday Night at the Movies, Practical Law and Video Production. Over 200 informal, non-credit classes are offered to UW students, faculty/staff, Union members and spouses five times a year with dozens of evening and Saturday courses.

Take advantage of partner discounts for ballroom and jitterbug courses to prepare for the return of Ballroom Dance Live!, with "Dimensions in Sound"—an 18-piece band in Memorial Union's Great Hall on March 13. Or, get in shape with price discounts on all exercise courses—the lowest prices in six years!

Classes begin the week of February 3 and are held in the Union facilities as well as campus buildings. Register for your favorite Mini Courses in the Memorial Union Commons Area on Jan. 15 from 11 a.m.-6:30 p.m. and Jan. 16-31 from 11 a.m.-4 p.m., or in the Union South lobby on Jan. 21-24 and Jan. 27-29, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Fees vary by courses. MasterCard and VISA are welcome.

The Travel Center: Now Better Than Ever

In order to provide Union members with more services and information on all aspects of travel—here and abroad, the Wisconsin Union Travel Center has moved into larger quarters.

To celebrate the completion of their move into their spacious new office (formerly Memorial Union's second floor TV lounge), a week-long medley of special events have been planned for the week of February 10-14 from 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

A potpourri of guest speakers daily at noon and 4:30 p.m., ethnic snacks and music, travel tips, slides, door prizes and contests will be featured. Each day's celebration will highlight a different facet of the Travel Center's resources—work abroad, study abroad, featured group tours and general travel, cultural awareness and special opportunities for non-student travelers. A complete schedule of events is available at the Travel Center, or call 262-6200.

The Travel Center will be inaugurating a new program called "Travel Tips of the Month" during the week. Center director Janie Johnson explained that the program is for "everyone who has an interesting travel, work or study abroad tip which they would like to share." If you invented an efficient packing technique, found a beautiful European hideaway, discovered a terrific budget restaurant in Chicago, or wish to share any other travel tips, submit your entries to the Travel Center. The staff will award prizes to those judged the most unique and helpful. After the contest, the tips will be collected on an on-going basis for use in a resource book, and the best of each month will be announced in the Travel Center's quarterly newsletter.

This February, the Travel Center will also be co-sponsoring the seventh annual International Study and Travel Fair with the Wisconsin Union Directorate Travel Committee, to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 25 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in room 109, Union South.

UW students, faculty, staff and Union members are invited to this free expo where agencies and organizations promoting work, study and travel abroad will share information and answer questions. International study exchange programs, American youth hostels, German and British rail services, international airlines, travel agencies and tourism boards are just a few sources expected as hosts. Slides and movies may also be shown.

Many door prizes will be awarded—and one lucky person will win the grand prize, a round-trip flight for one to Europe (Chicago to Luxembourg) donated by Icelandair and Rhodes University Travel.

Union Theater Offers Something For Everyone

The series' finale highlights the Philip Jones Brass Ensemble, "the Rolls Royce of brass ensembles," on Saturday, April 12.

Just Present Your Membership Card

In addition to the services and programs covered in stories in this issue of the Quarterly, there are many other ways in which you can take advantage of your membership in the Wisconsin Union.

For example, if you're planning a party, large or small, your Union membership entitles you to use of the Union's facilities for your private social events. For specifics about the Union's space and to reserve a room, call 262-2511 at Memorial Union and 263-2543 at Union South. You can also obtain catering information at these numbers.

Need a hotel room for visiting family or colleagues? As a Union member, you receive a 10 percent discount on our room rates. There are six rooms at Memorial Union and 14 at Union South. If the Union's rooms are full, Union members get the same discount at Lowell Hall, a block up Langdon Street from Memorial Union. If you're yearning to explore the great outdoors, but you'd like some company and guidance, the Wisconsin Hoofers can meet your needs. There are seven Hoofers clubs—Sailing, Mountaineering, Outing, Riding, Skiing, Scuba Diving and Hot Air Ballooning. As a Union member, you'll receive a discount on club fees. Call 262-1630 for further information.

As a Union member, you're also eligible to attend the weekend Movietime programs in the Fredric March Play Circle. You'll find a diverse offering of outstanding cinema fare on the schedule; check the Quarterly calendar for this semester's program and showtimes. In addition to the Quarterly, the Union publishes a Theater newsletter and a variety of other announcements about programs and services. To make sure that you're up-to-date on what's happening at the Union, please contact the Membership Office, 262-2263, with address changes. The Membership Office will also provide assistance if you have questions about any of the member benefits, need a duplicate or spouse card, or want to buy a Union membership as a gift.

The Hoofers Winter Carnival: It's a SnowBall

P3 Campus Outfitters—An Active Store For Active Members

Have you heard about the "new" P3 Campus Outfitters? It had its start years ago in the Hoofers boathouse as a store for active students, faculty/staff and Union members. The store was moved and improved into its present location just down the stairs from Der Rathskeller and christened Pack, Pole and Parka about ten years ago.

This year the store has been improved again. This time a thorough remodeling and display change, the addition of a Memorial Union memorabilia line, and a name change helped lend more definition and create the "new" P3 Campus Outfitters.

As a Wisconsin Union member, all you have to do is present your membership card to receive a member price on rubies, sweaters, jackets, winter accessories and everything you need for biking and camping! P3 Campus Outfitters is open Monday through Saturday, 11 a.m.-5:30 p.m., phone 262-7351. There's always something on special!
