The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Sag Harbor March 28 1829.

Dear Sir -

I have enclosed my bill against David
J. Gardiner Esq. for the Watchman three years.
As I am much in want of funds I will thank you to present the bill to Mr. Gardiner, and when he hands you the money, please transmit it to me. The bill I sent before, for the first two years, is included in the one I now send you.

Your obedient servant

Sam. Phillips
