RECOMMEND SIX FOR POSITIONS ON UNION BOARD

Widely Known Men to Speak Here

Six recommendations for election to Union board were made by the board at a meeting held last night in the Union building.

Three juniors and three sophomores were recommended. They are William Oatway '24, Gene Menge '24, Paul Eschweiler '24, Lester Kissel '25, Thomas Morony '25, and Ned Leavitt '25.

Expect Prominent Men

That future speakers who are under the auspices of the Union board will be only of the type that have established a reputation and will be of interest to the student body as a whole, was also decided upon.

Such men as Secretary of War Baker, Senator Hiram Johnson of California, ex-Governor W. A. White of Kansas, and Judge K. M. Landis of Chicago promise to be next year's speakers at university convocations. Minor speakers only will not be under the jurisdiction of the board.

To Publish Report

Gordon Wanzer was appointed to edit the annual Union board report which will be ready for distribution late in May.

"We want this Union board report to be more elaborate than those of previous years," said Leslie Gage, president, "and the number distributed will be cut down accordingly."

That it should be more personal and not merely one report after another was the opinion of Wanzer.

Progressive Movement is Opened By Young Men

The Young men's Progressive movement was launched at the Capital by an address on taxation given by John Dahl, speaker of the Assembly last night.

The Young Men's Progressive Association organized to interest the young men of the state in progressive principles and policies and to educate them to express these ideas through the ballot, is composed in the main of students interested in state politics.

The following have been nominated for offices of the organization: president, M. N. Cizor '25, Ralph Axley '21; first vice-president, S. S. Levitt '25, and A. Scherr '24; second vice-president Henry Blake '24; secretary, William Blake '25, N. B. McMurry '25, treasurer, S. S. Levitt '25, E. A. Albrecht '24, Mark Porter '25 was elected chairman of the next meeting.

EUGENE V. DEBS TALKS ON SOCIALISM TONIGHT

Eugene V. Debs will speak on "Socialism and Freedom" at the university armory at 8 o'clock tonight under the auspices of the Social Science club. Harold Shier '23, president, is in charge of the arrangements for the reception of the speaker.

Definite plans have not been completed for the small reception, the only entertainment to be made, upon the personal request of Mr. Debs.

Mr. Debs was released from federal prison a year ago last Christmas, due to his failing health. He had completed 18 months of his 10-year term for violation of the espionage act. He is now making a tour of several of the large cities, speaking with his recovered enthusiasm.

WEATHER: FAIR

Fair weather is predicted for today, changing to unsettled conditions tomorrow with increasing temperature. Maximum temperature yesterday was 42 at 2 p.m. and lowest 32 at 5 a.m.

KU KLUX KLAN IS NOW TUMAS

Ku Klux Klan, junior interfraternity society, has changed its name to Tumas, it was announced following a meeting yesterday. The name of the society has been changed in all universities having a chapter.

"We changed the name of the organization because so many people confused it with the name of the non-collegiate secret organization of the same name," Gordon B. Wanzer '24, president, said last night.

FILE ELECTION LISTS APRIL 20

No Publicity to Be Run After April 24 Anywhere

Candidates who expect to run for office in the spring elections must file their positions and submit matter for publicity immediately, Harold A. Seering '24, chairman of the Senate elections committee, announced last night. The petitions, signed by 25 accredited voters, must be filed at the office of the dean of men before 5 o'clock Friday, April 20.

No announcements will be published in The Cardinal after the issue of Tuesday morning April 24. All matter for publication must be approved by some member of the elections committee and brought to The Cardinal before 6 o'clock Monday evening April 23.

The city papers have agreed to cooperate with the elections committee in the matter of publicity.

"Any publicity may be published in the Madison dailies before Tuesday, but nothing will be accepted after that date," Seering stated. "The publicity may not take the form of paid advertising according to election regulations. Announcements only will be published."

To avoid any misunderstanding about the election May 4, section 14 of article V of the election regulations is printed herewith:

Personal solicitation of voters by a candidate is the extent to which any candidate may go in his campaign, but solicitation shall not take place in the polling places, room, hall, or part of a building designated as such. The defacing of the campaign booklets, printing of handbills, cards, placards, use of automobiles, or use of money in any form for furthering the campaign either by the candidate or his supporters shall bar such candidate from holding office. Advertising which the committee finds was done with malicious intent of disqualifying a candidate shall not disqualify such candidate.

French Alliance Lecturer Will Speak Here Today

M. Firmin Roz, official lecturer of the Federation of the French alliance, will give two lectures, in French, at Bascom hall at 4:30 o'clock today and tomorrow.

M. Roz is making a tour of the states and comes to the University under the auspices of the Department of Romance Languages. He is well known as a lecturer in France and other countries.

The subject of the first lecture is "Le Courant Humanitaire et dans la Littérature Française Moderne," and of the second "Le Roman Psychologique en France." His lectures attempted to bring out the psychology of the French people.

In 1923 M. Roz as official lecturer of the federation of French alliance spoke in Madison.

Maurice Hall Physical Education Club Head

Election of officers was held last night at the business meeting of the Physical Education club in Lathrop hall. Maurice Hall '24, was elected president; Margaret Henry '25 vice-president; Dorothy Dodge '24, secretary and Edith Schoenberg '24, treasurer.

Dora Harris '24 was elected junior class representative for next year. Esther Roseberg was the only new member taken in at this meeting.

May Introduce Skating As Women's Minor Sport

Wisconsin May Follow Style Set By Women in Other Schools

Roller skating for a spring sport? It's the latest at Northwestern where coeds are using Evanston sidewalks as their rink while engaging in the popular sport. Will it be taken up at Wisconsin and are we going to see coeds making the hill on roller skates?

Anita Haven, president of Outing club, when asked for an opinion about establishing the new sport, said, "I think it would be great. We have roller skating to give points in membership for Outing club, and I don't see why it wouldn't work as well for a regular sport. Quite a number certainly would turn out for it."

Miss Alfreda Mossopp of the physical education department expressed some doubt about the value of the sport.

"Of course, it is good exercise," Miss Mossopp said, "but those girls who wanted a strenuous sport would probably go out for a major sport and for those who are not strong enough to take such sports as hockey and basketball roller skating would be too hard."

If roller skating is to be a sport it will not be introduced at least until fall, but members of the physical education department are unanimous in expressing the idea that roller skating will not be given serious consideration as a major sport.

Miss A. L. Gall of the department said, "It has always been the aim of this department to give sports requiring skill in addition to exercise. Roller skating is a good form of exercise, nothing more, been established as a sport."

BALL ONLOOKERS TICKET SALE IS OPENED TUESDAY

Spectator's tickets for the Military ball were placed on sale yesterday, according to an announcement made by ball officials.

"Only a limited number have been printed in order to do away with the crowds encroaching on the floor space of the dancers," Louis B. Rutte, ticket chairman, said yesterday.

"Since the military function always presents a gorgeous spectacle," he continued, "there will be considerable demand for the tickets. Spaces have been sent aside for the spectators, and since the number is limited, there will be ample room for those desiring to get a good view of the ball."

The tickets may be secured at Morgan's or the University Pharmacy.

Ingvold Hembre, chief of police for the ball, says that he will attempt to keep the spectators in the sections designated for them.

The balance of the Military ball tickets have been put on sale at Morgan's and the University Pharmacy. Those who have not yet secured their may get them at the places mentioned, or by calling L. B. Rutte, B. 7244.

"A few boxes are still open," Llewellyn Cole '25, in charge of boxes said. "Non-fraternity men especially are urged to call F. 1489 if reservations are desired."

Suspended Prof to Fight Case Against Wesleyan

Prof. Ralph G. Demaree, who was suspended from Kentucky Wesleyan college faculty after an address in which he asserted the theory of organic evolution as held by modern scientists is entirely in accordance with the biblical account of creation, says he will maintain he has no use for "men who attempt to prevent the study of evolution in schools" when he is called to account before the college governing body.

"The background ideas of certain Kentuckians regarding the progress of the state, and it is not likely that my suspension would have happened in any other state."

Commenting on William Jennings Bryan, Professor Demaree declared, "Bryan, of course, is a discredited thinker. His anti-evolution weapon is ridicule and no intellectual person possibly can be impressed by it."

Pythia Nomination Made

Tomorrow, Election April 27

Nominations for officers for Pythia, women's literary society will be made this Thursday noon at an executive meeting, but will not be put up for the vote until Friday, April 27 as the regular meeting for this week has been postponed because of the Military ball.

The policy of postponing meetings because of conflict with all-university functions is a new one this semester and has been observed in several instances.

The new officers will be formally installed on Friday, May 4, one week after the election.

COUNCIL OF 40 AND KEYSTONE PLAN TAG DAY

Seek to Aid European Students

The Council of Forty and Keystone have united their efforts in a campaign for the relief of European students upon the appeal from L. W. Dunn, executive secretary of the Student Friendship fund, that Wisconsin contribute to this fund.

In the drive for funds, the Council of Forty and Keystone plan to ask contributions from the professional organizations, such as the campus publications; but because of the fact that so many previous campaigns have asked contributions only from the fraternities and sororities, leaving the rest of the school untouched, it has been planned to hold a general tag day next Friday making it possible for every individual to contribute.

Send Thanks

Many other universities have entered the campaign and have contributed generously. Yale university, especially, has taken a great interest in the drive, and Chicago has contributed $3,000. Other universities which have contributed are Princeton, Cornell, Harvard, Wesley, Northwestern, Oberlin and many others.

That the cause is worthy is proved by the answers which have recently been received from Europe thanking us for a small donation which was made last year and which clothed over 200 students and fed a great many more. Students are facing starvation, going around in rags, sleeping in unsanitary bunkhouses and studying without proper equipment in order to get an education.

Europe's lack of trained leaders is the cause for the unsettled conditions there, and it is clearly seen that the college men of today will be the statesmen of tomorrow. There is also a great deficiency in professional men. Russia lost one-third of her medical men during the war, and in some places there is only one doctor to 100,000 people. The students realizing this deficiency are enduring many hardships to prepare themselves for the country's need.

"Surely" Robert Stuart, president of the Council of Forty said, "there is no man here who could not forego a package of cigarettes nor a woman who could not do without an extra ribbon to give 25 cents to so worthy a fund. With the present rates of exchange, this would feed a European student for almost a week."

Complete City Erected For Big Movie Exposition

Progress in the preparations for the American Historical Revue and Motion Picture exposition to open in Los Angeles July 2 is marked by the erection of a Spanish colonial city exhibition bungalows, a court of honor and studios on "The Location."

The exposition buildings will cover about 1,000,000 square feet of ground space. Quality and originality are to be the keynote of the displays and a little space is expected to be left unoccupied after the bungalows have all been located. The court of honor is to open off the esplanade and is to have a beautiful circular plaza surrounded by colonnades.

On the "Location" all the mysteries of picture making are to be demonstrated, and the studios which will conform in general architecture to the rest of the exposition will rival each other for original effects.

COLLECTION STAFF.

All members of collection staff report to Hawley Porter in Cardinal business office between 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock Wednesday.

HAREM GIRLS SPORT IN MOST SUCCESSFUL HARESFOOT SHOW

Sheiks and harem girls lend color to the second act of "Kikmi," this year's Haresfoot production which will be given at the Parkway Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee of this week.

One of the harem girls in languorous repose is seen in the cut above. A cigaret in the hand is all right, for women do that sort of thing in the Orient, and anyway, the girls are all men.

The spring tour just completed was acclaimed as the most successful and best ever taken by the Haresfoot club by leading papers of Wisconsin and Illinois. The thing which brought most comment was the pulchritude and beauty of the male feminine chorus and the eccentricity of the dance steps which are far in advance in effect and difficulty of anything ever attempted by the club.

A letter received at the Alumini headquarters yesterday by F. S. White '81 declared the show to be of professional calibre. He declared it was the inspiration for the best alumni gathering in Chicago in years.

The Chicago Daily News spoke of the show as made up of "bits of beauty, snatches of not too obvious burlesque, captivating choruses, a dance orchestra of talent and dash, and withal an almost perfect illusion in feminine roles."

Seats for the Madison performances of "Kikmi" are now on sale at the box office of the Parkway theater. The official box office sale opens this morning.

CURTAIN CLUB PLAYS PRESENTED APRIL 26

"Minuet" and "Night at an Inn" will be two of the four plays to be presented by Curtain club on Thursday evening, April 26, at the Madison high school auditorium.

"Minuet," which is a delicate, fragile French play by Louis M. Parker, will be the curtain-raiser of the evening. C. L. Fernberg, of the English department, is coaching the play, which is rather short. This play is written by the writer of "Disraeli."

"Night at an Inn" is to be the thriller of the evening. It is filled with melodrama, with intense use of the supernatural. Lord Dunstan is the author of this play, which is being coached by Prof. Robert West of the speech department.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

BASEBALL MEN START OUTDOOR PRACTICE HERE

Indiana Shows Some Advantage

Varsity baseball men got their first taste of outdoor practice at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon. Just arrived from their southern training trip Monday, the men were let off easy by Coach Lowman with a short limbering up program in the gym annex Monday afternoon.

The coach started intensive training yesterday, even though the field was wet, for the two game series with Indiana here this week end. Lowman stressed batting practice and worked hard to overcome the defects shown him in the eight games played on the training trip.

Indiana Has Advantage

The inexperienced pitching staff has been getting the major share of the coaching. Control has been the thing aimed for, and Coach Lowman is just beginning to allow the men to put a little twist on the ball.

comes with a decided advantage. They have been working outside for several weeks and have a bunch of experienced men, many of whom took the baseball trip with the Indiana team through Japan last spring.

The Hoosiers showed their strength last Wednesday when they defeated De Pauw university at Bloomington, 5 to 4. Indiana showed weak at bat, getting only five hits while De Pauw garnered nine. Each team made eight errors.

Indiana was to have opened her conference schedule at Ohio State Saturday, but rain caused the postponement of the game.

Because of the sickness of Coach Roscoe "Cow" Minton, the Cream and Crimson players have been somewhat handicapped, but the last reports indicate that their coach will be able to accompany them on their invasion of the Badger state.

Outfielder Leads Practises

Captain Wichterman, outfielder, has been putting the 45 Hoosier baseball aspirants through their paces during the illness of the coach.

With a dozen good battery men, and with at least four men competing for every position on the infield, Indiana is indeed fortunate. Thomas, star football backfield man, and with two years' varsity baseball experience, has practically cinched the second base job, while Captain Wichterman is the only man sure of a regular outfield berth. Thomas is one of the sluggers of the team. Wichterman twisted a knee in the De Pauw game, but will be able to enter the Wisconsin game.

MANY ENCORES FEATURE ROSS VIOLIN RECITAL

By L. C.

Gilbert Ross, in violin recital at Christ Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, gave to music lovers of Madison an evening of artistic enjoyment equal to any they have enjoyed this season.

The young violinist displayed a power of expression and of vivid, comprehensive interpretation that will keep for him the place he has secured in the appreciative hearts of his audience.

Accompanied by Prof. Lowell L. Townsend at the piano, Gilbert Ross gave a program of various types of compositions from the works of many composers.

The "Devil's Trill Sonata," by Tartini, was the opening selection of his program. The second number was Lalo's "Symphonie Espanole," followed by an encore "Der Nussbaum," Schuman-Auer.

The "Nocturne, E. Major," Chopin in Sarasate, Kriesler's "Tambourin Chinois," "Habanera," by Sarasate, and an American Negro Melody, "Deep River," composed the third group of the program. The Schubert "Ave Maria" was played in encore.

"Hills," and "Moto Perpetuo,"

OHIO STATE HAS MOST IN SPORTS

Intramural sports in the Big Ten universities, have progressed phenomenally in the past few years figures compiled by the various athletic departments show. Nine of the 10 western conference schools hold membership, in the association of intramural heads of the Big Ten, Iowa being the only university at which extension in this department has not been effected or planned.

Ohio State leads all the rest of the universities with 10,500 entries in the various games. Michigan and Illinois are second and third with 6,483 and 5,080 students active in this phase of sports.

Wisconsin has the largest number of winter sports participants, Ohio leads in basketball with 203 teams, Minnesota leads in ice hockey with 65 teams and Michigan is foremost in playground ball teams with 80 clubs.

COUPON BOOKS WILL BE SOLD

Athletic Department Offers Baseball, Track, Tennis For $2.50

The spring season coupon book again will be sold by the Athlet-intercollegiate games at Camp Randall. This will include the baseball, track, and tennis matches as scheduled now.

The book contains 14 coupons and sells for $2.25. The sale of this book is open to the public and can be purchased at the Gymnasium or at the ticket booth at Camp Randall before the Indiana baseball game.

Last year over 500 of these books were sold to students and public. The reduced price gives a big advantage in seeing the conference baseball games and track meets. The schedule as now arranged is as follows:

April 20 Indiana at Madison Baseball.
21 Indiana at Madison, Track
21 Beloit at Madison, Tennis
28 Iowa at Madison, Tennis
May 4 Minnesota at Madison, Tennis.
5 Illinois at Madison, baseball.
9 Notre Dame at Madison, Baseball.
12 Minnesota at Madison, Baseball.
12 Minnesota at Madison, Track.
15 Northwestern at Madison, Baseball.
19 Chicago at Madison, Tennis.
25 Chicago at Madison, Baseball.
29 Butler at Madison, Baseball.
June 2 Michigan at Madison, Baseball.

by Cecil Burleigh, "Vogel als Prophet," from Schuman-Auer, the Introduction and Parantelle by Sarasate, and two encores, Schubert's "La Gitana," and "Valse A Major," Brahms-Hochstein, concluded the program.

ROLLIE ACCEPTS MILLIKEN OFFER

ROLLIE WILLIAMS

Rolland F. Williams, one of Wisconsin's greatest athletes of all time, has accepted the offer which has been extended to him from Milliken college to coach three major sports, football, basketball, and baseball.

Milliken is one of the strongest colleges in the "Little nineteen" conference, and in getting the coaching position there, Rollie starts his coaching career somewhat above the first rung of the ladder.

"Fighting Gus" Tebell, the other half of the Siamese Twins, as Wisconsin's two premier athletes have come to be called, may not be immediately lost to the institution even though he will graduate this spring.

If Gus stays at Wisconsin, he will coach the freshman teams in football, basketball, and baseball. While he does not look favorably on coaching as a life profession, he may decide to stay at Wisconsin for a short time before taking up another profession.

BADGER CREW MAY GO EAST TO COMPETE IN 1924

If the recommendation of the Athletic council to send the crew East next year meets with the approval of the faculty, a tradition which has not been upheld for ten years will be reinstated. The council decided by unanimous vote to send the varsity crew to Poughkeepsie in 1924.

Wisconsin maintains a crew as a major sport, and a decade and more ago it was a common procedure for the Badger boatmen to finish ahead of the field at the annual regatta at Poughkeepsie. After a distinct lull in interest, the sport is beginning to get more and more support, and it is not improbable that Wisconsin may once again be recognized as a school powerful in its crews.

The Wisconsin crew may have considerable competition this spring if present plans go through. It is probable that the winner of the California-Washington crew race will meet Wisconsin on Lake Mendota on its way East. Other tentative meets are with Culver and St. Johns military academies.

INTERCOLLEGE MATMEN TO GRAPPLE THURSDAY

The first round of the inter-college wrestling meet will take place at the gym at 4 o'clock tomorrow. The three colleges taking part are the L. and S.; Agric, and the Engineers, the teams are captained by Benbow, Gregory, and Morrow, respectively.

Little can be predicted of any teams' strength. Gregory is sure to be a real help to the Ags, and Holmes, if he takes part undoubtedly will win points for the L. and S. team. Besides Holmes, the L. and S. college has Pelegrin in the 175 pound class, and either man can be expected to take a fall out of his opponent.

At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon the Engineers will meet the L. and S. team, and the winner of this match will meet the Agric next Tuesday afternoon. The winners of the meet in the various weights will be the meet in the various weights will

FRATS TO PLAY DELAYED GAMES

Inter-fraternity baseball games that were not played on Saturday or Sunday on account of bad weather are to be played any time this week that the captains of the various teams arrange.

Two games were played on last Saturday. Alpha Gamma Rho won from D. K. E. by a score of 5 to 4, and T. K. E. won from Alpha Delta Phi by a 10 to 2 score.

The schedule for today is as follows: Kappa Alpha vs. Phi Kappa, 5:00 o'clock at the frosh field; Triangle vs. P. A. D. 5:00 o'clock at lower campus; Zeta Beta Tau vs. Alpha Sigma Phi, 5:00 o'clock at Vilas park; Sigma Chi vs. Square and Compass, 5 o'clock, at Tenny Park.

750 ATHLETES MEET AT KAN.

First Annual Relays Held at Lawrence For Universities and High Schools

A total of 750 athletes from 33 universities, and 42 high school and military academies will attend the first annual relays to be held at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., on Saturday. Nineteen relays and nine special open events make up the carnival program.

The University of Pennsylvania and one or two men to enter in special events at Lawrence because of the meet which is scheduled against Beloit college here on the same date. The Drake Relays, to be held a week after the Kansas event, will see four Badger relay teams in action.

BADGER RELAY TEAM TO MEET BEST RUNNERS

Many Schools Enter at Kansas Event

The four half milers who will journey to Lawrence, Kansas, this week-end to run in the two mile relay race at the Kansas Relays will come up against some high class competition if reports are all true. Plans are being made at Lawrence to usher in their latest annual event with representative teams from the most powerful schools in the Middle West.

Besides Wisconsin, 14 other universities from Kansas, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, and other middle western states will be represented at the first annual Kansas Relays event. Approximately 20 colleges and 50 prep schools will send teams to Lawrence.

Lose Walters.

The Badger two-mile team, by virtue of its placing second at the Illinois relays last winter, looks like a winner. Ames, of Iowa, and Nebraska also have teams of no mean ability.

Ames loss of Walters, star speedster cripples the team somewhat. Nebraska is certain to be represented by a fast team. The Wisconsin team, composed of Johnson, Hilberts, Ramsay, and Valley, has been chosen after a long session of practice.

No Wisconsin men will take part in the other relay races or in the special events at Lawrence because of the meet which is scheduled against Beloit college here on the same date. The Drake Relays, to be held a week after the Kansas event, will see four Badger relay teams in action.

Fall Short of Marks

While the Beloit meet is looked upon as a practice event, Coaches Jones and Burke are not a little afraid of the Line City aggregation. Beloit has a team made up of veteran track men who may steal a march on the Badgers.

More will be known of the exact strength of the Badger squad after the meet.

A THORN AMONG ROSES

A dramatic urge has seized upon the heart of spring student activities this year and virtually every organization, theatrical or otherwise, has entered the field of production with a vim and intensity which augurs well for a more informal undergraduate body on stage matters.

That the movement toward amateur theatricals here has reached an unusual height just at this time is evidenced in The Cardinal for April 15. No less than eight announcements for theatrical events of student interest are scheduled for this week. Curtain club, Haresfoot, Tony Sarg, Band Concert, Jeanne d'Arce, Dance Drama—all claim space which is freely given as an aid to the furtherance of a movement believed to be of merit to those participating and to all interested in each event.

It matters not what type of thing is done; all classes of peoples and individuals require different kinds of dramatic art. The vaudeville stage today has an art of its own just as much as the legitimate stage. President Wilson, indeed, found his greatest recreation in the slap-stick comedy of the "two-a-day" or "three-a-day" fun artists. The Haresfoot club with original musical comedy as its motive attracts a different type of effort and art in respect to dancing, acting, scenery production, and business management than does the Wisconsin Players with its "straight drama" material. A Tony Sarg performance comes under the category of things of the stage but is of an entirely different nature from a Galli Curci concert.

It has been with regret, unexpressed but evident, that the student body this year has marked the absence of the traditional Union Vodvil. An excuse was given that it was an activity given on alternate years and this was accepted without protest. But now comes an announcement by the sub-committee on dramatics proposing a resolution in regard to the future management of such performances and incidentally classifying the last previous Vodvil as made up of numbers which were "poor and vulgar im-tations of some of the worst practices of the commercial vaudeville stage."

At a time when the school seems to be filled with enthusiasm for dramatic work of all kinds, this announcement comes like a killing thrust at something good. It is not the changing of the method of control or the provision for censorship which rankles; it is the invective phraseology used in describing the former performance which seems useless and which seems to come as a cluster of thorns just at a time when the roses of dramatic achievement are blossoming most successfully.

Such diatribes as used hurt no one but those who took part in the Vodvil of 1921, now a thing of the past, and it is doubtful if they do any good. The show is over and many of the participants have graduated. Why rail at ghosts of the past who in their present shadowy form have no vulnerable point of attack?

Since the matter has been brought up, however, it is only natural to suggest to the committee that a Union Vodvil is vaudeville according to the very definition of its name. There is no doubt but that the students of two years ago did their best in interpreting the typical vaudeville act. If there were some things objectionable, it must be realized that students are not perfect, but as a rule are willing to listen to suggestion. The idea of a faculty committee pre-view is a good one and meets with approval since it provides for rearrangement a week ahead of time rather than on the night before the show.

The censoring committee must consider, however, that a vaudeville show essentially is a very different thing from any other form of dramatic entertainment. Snatches of dancing, song, dramatic interpretation, comedy, and burlesque are all necessary ingredients and must be mixed with the proper punch and flavor or the whole becomes a dull recital of unconnected nonsense.

To the student body, the first point of the proposed new rule also seems ill-advised. It is trite to say that women today are entering into

Gay Octy Makes Spring Splash, Laughing Anew

By P. F. B.

Gay spring—gay Octopus. Today's issue has carried its threat of a spring-travel number to the ninth degree by allowing new artists, new versifiers, new wise-crackers, and new ideas to bud in this traditional season of freshness and travel where they will.

The result is an Octopus gay with the untrammelled flights of fledglings, gay with reckless pen sweeps that produce questionable anatomy and baffling verse and two-liners, gay with variety—all of which is very interesting after the accustomed preponderance of Editor Townsend's astuteness and finesse.

The name "Mueller" is manifest on nearly every cartoon page. We suspect Dick Bellack of writing and editing much of the prose. The work of these two juniors, immature though it may be in parts, bodes well for a future good Octopus.

Springing surprises is becoming a regular and welcome Octopus habit. "The Making of a Cave Man," movie style cartoon, is one of the most effective laugh provokers in the book. The story telling cartoon ought to come home to roost with the Octopus permanently.

Profs will be surprised to find themselves pictured in luxury with cigarette smoking wives—and still absent-minded. Charitably speaking the printer must have pied the page.

Criticising sister publications seems to have become the vogue at Wisconsin. A nice little family circle of the journalisse should develop. The Lit takes the Octopus spotlight today. Incidentally it should barter for cover drawing talent belonging to Octy, or Stanislaus Szukalski in Chicago had better look to his etching laurels. The whole three-page satire is rather well executed.

There are pieces of long but pointed verse, particularly "The Paradox" and "The Cynics Lament," that invite reading. But there is much long prose that puts up the appearance of being too solid and scares one away from the page. In that category come the too numerous "Hints," "Diaries," and mysterious, breathless tales that twist at the end and tell you that the elusive, pearl-white body was only a cake of soap.

And there are other things but the languor and fever of spring has caught us along with Cartoonist Townsend and we lazily agree: "Here are girls, and here is the Drive," activities and world events in a manner unknown heretofore, but the past serves as a true basis for a contention that there should be no limiting of women taking part in the production.

Oh well, let's not complain."

There are many women on the campus, clever and with much ability, who belong to no organization which specifically sponsors things artistic. From a democratic as well as a capability standpoint these women have just as much argument for the use of their talent as do the others.

Will not the proposed faculty censorship committee serve as a check against anything objectionable without going to the undemocratic scheme of limitation?

With a consideration of the student viewpoint and an honest attempt to keep the vaudeville element as such in the performance there is no reason why the Union Vodvil should not become a successful reality when cooperation rather than mud-slinging is made the working basis between the faculty and the student managers.

MISS B. TRILLING HEADS NATIONAL ATHLETIC MEET

Miss Blanche Trilling, head of women's physical education department here, attended the meeting of the committee on organization of the conference on athletics and physical education for women and girls, April 6 and 7 at Washington, D. C.

The meeting was called to form a national organization to meet the problems of athletics common to boys and girls and men and women. The organizers believe that the welfare, health and education of women are dependent on athletics. Miss Trilling is chairman of the committee on organization.

Some of the resolutions made were:

That there shall be a special organization of women to stand as deliberating, investigating, legislating, promoting, advising and controlling body on the special problems of athletics for girls and women.

That the National Amateur Athletic Federation shall be considered the inclusive body concerned with the national problems. That the chairman of this conference shall with the authority of the board of governors of the N. A. A. G. and the written suggestions of each member of this conference appoint a commission of not less than seven women which shall stand under the authority of the N. A. F.

It's planned that the committee shall strive to formulate a special organization on girl's and women's athletics, which shall furnish the opportunity to bring together in the federation, representatives of all social groups of girls and women, and all agencies concerned with the athletics of girls and women.

The creation of a joint executive board composed of men and women with the women members to be selected by women is proposed. The special athletic and physical problems of girls and women shall be the function of the organization of women and there shall be appointed a special executive secretary who is a women, qualified and authorized to promote and direct the women's program.

Women Can Express Their Opinions in S. G. A. Office
To determine the standpoint of the university women on further voting on the proposed changes in the regulations, S. G. A. officers ask that women come into the office and express their viewpoints to the women in charge of the office at any time between 10 and 3:30 o'clock. The question of another mass meeting or secret balloting is as yet undecided and it is advisable that the women express their sentiments regarding the matter.

The University of Engineering

Of all the things that go to make the successful engineer, none is more important, nor more in step with the spirit of the profession, than a studious attitude. One man says about another—"he is always willing to learn," "he doesn't think he knows it all"—and he intends to pay a high compliment when he says it.

The great engineers are always at school, always learning, always seeking for more knowledge. They begin with this desire for fuller understanding, and they keep it up to the end.

Any engineering operation, over and above the primary purpose for which it is carried out, is an active and post-graduate class in engineering, also. So that Westinghouse, or any other great business, is, of its very nature, a University where theory and practice combine to make bigger, broader and more practical engineers.

The courses in this University are not limited to prescribed subjects nor terms—the subjects are almost infinite, and the semesters are endless. Men with the weight of years on their shoulders work and learn side-by-side with those whose day has just dawned.

This post-graduate school fits men for almost anything. Fits them for it, and makes them continually fitter. Out of this continuing fitness have grown the engineering accomplishments on which this institution has grown. It is, perhaps, one of the great educational institutions of its day.

ACHIEVEMENT & OPPORTUNITY

DEBATE TEAMS
MEET TWO FOES
THURSDAY NIGHT

Two Wisconsin debate teams clash with ancient foes, Northwestern and Minnesota, in the last important forensic event of the year on Thursday. Wisconsin's affirmative argues against the Evanston school in Bascom Hall, while the Badger negative squad journeys to Minneapolis.

The question, involving a phase of international relations, is: "Resolved, that all international debts and claims, arising out of the world war, and not settled by May, 1923, should be cancelled without condition or qualification."

Wisconsin's affirmative representatives are Charles A. Rawson '23, first speaker, Francis Karel '23, second debater, and Robert Stuart '23, closer. The negative team is composed of Arthur T. Thorson L 2, Henry W. Blake '24, and Arthur C. Inman '23, closer.

An unusual feature of the debate here is the presence of a man on Northwestern's squad. Wisconsin has not had a woman representative on a debate team for at least 18 years and other conference schools have about the same record.

Northwestern is usually regarded in the same plane as Michigan, both schools being noted for the excellence of their forensic teams. Wisconsin has always experienced great difficulty with these debates, both institutions having the long end in such meets.

The judges of the debates, under the one-judge system, are Prof. R. K. Immel, University of Michigan, who will give the decision here, and Prof. J. A. Taylor, University of North Dakota, officiating at Minneapolis.

COMMONS TO ARBITRATE CLOTHES WORKERS CASE

Prof. J. R. Commons will leave for Chicago tomorrow to act on a board to arbitrate a wage case between the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and the manufacturers.

Any demand for an increase or decrease in wages is brought before the board, which will consist of Professor Commons, W. N. Leiseron, Rochester N. Y., permanent member of the board and Wesley Mitchell, Chicago.

The Union reserves the right to bring the unemployment insurance issue before the board at any of its meetings, and it is thought that it will come up at this time.

The case for the union will be presented by Sydney Hillman, New York city, and for the manufacturers by W. E. Hotchkiss, Chicago.

S. G. A. LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR ALL UNPAID DUES

To bring in the last of the unpaid S. G. A. dues a campaign is being launched this week under the S. G. A. district system, working through the regular S. G. A. officers.

Most of the dues were collected at the time of fall registration but there is still approximately $300 which has not yet been turned in by the women students and which must be paid in to the treasurer.

The 12 district chairman of the S. G. A. new district system are receiving the names of all of the women who have not as yet paid their dues and they are in turn giving these names to the house chairmen who are in their district. These house chairmen and S. G. A. representatives will collect from the women in their houses who are on the list.

This drive for unpaid funds will

"THE SIGN OF THE ROSE"

This film is what it is advertised to be, "a novelty." But it is more; it is a very emotional novelty. As Mr. Beban says in his curtain speech, it does not deal with the usual kind of movie love story, but with a finer kind. We are glad that in the movie industry there is a man like Mr. Beban, with ideas that outstrip by far the ideas that the rest of his colleagues seem to possess. He seemed sincere in what he had to say; if a few more movie people get his ideas, the movie industry might rise to a greater height.

The story, written by Mr. Beban, is well adapted to his sort of character acting. He takes the part of a poor Italian who is roped into an intrigue which causes his otherwise jovial life with his little daughter to become burdensome.

Now and again the emotional part of the acting seemed to be over-done, it almost assumed the ridiculous at times. But on the whole it was restrained and finished.

The player is equally as good in the spoken drama as he is in the silent. As much can not be said for the rest of the cast, the feminine member of which was "Oh Gawd, give me back me che-ild" type.

At one time it looked as though they were trying to turn the act into slap-stick comedy when the burly detective swung Pietro around the stage by the knap of the Italian's neck.

But you will accuse us of trying to pick holes unduly in what is really a splendid production. There is, however, one more flaw which is so evident that it almost howls. That is the part of the young man who is at the bottom of the whole trouble. If there is such a naive bonehead living watch out for him. He belongs across the lake or in another institution of the same category. The strange part of it

Not so Funny

"The Fourth Musketeer"
Strand Theater
By H. C. Witmer
Johnnie Walker

By E. A.

Another dramatized story of the fighting ring is "The Fourth Musketeer," the title of which sounded very much to us to be a burlesque on Fairbank's picture.

As a comedy—for it was promised to be such—we were somewhat disappointed. Two and a half reels were even sobby at times, with little pep or ginger in the plot padding to give it spice, but the rest was good and livid up to the writer's reputation for good fun.

Johnnie Walker, who is the hero, we believe, in the "Fighting Blood" series of Witmer, gives the prize money to his defeated rival that an aged mother may be sent to California. He wins the garage, though, and the remainder of the film is a spicy comedy with a touch of society and melodrama mixed together.

James Whitcomb Riley's love story will be given today at the Strand by Charles Ray in "The Girl I Loved." Patsy Ruth Miller plays a leading role.

Fisher Motion
Picture Revue
Unusually Fine

By S. H. E.

When Mr. Fisher started publishing his motion picture review for the Majestic theater it seemed something of an unusual thing to do and something which looked as if it would not succeed.

It is, as a matter of fact, a valuable addition to his theaters, for since the Madison has been running, the magazine has been made to include this new theater.

For nothing you can have sent to you a small motion picture magazine full of gossip of Hollywood and movies coming to the local Fisher theaters. This, of course, is a new part of the great moving picture publicity program of which something was said in an issue of The Cardinal several weeks ago. And it is an excellent addition.

In looking it through one finds that some fine features will be shown at the two local theaters this month. Cecil B. DeMille's "Adam's Rib," of which much adverse and also complimentary criticism has been circulating, will be shown at the Madison starting next Sunday for a week. Harold Lloyd in "Safety Last" is booked for the following week.

Thomas Meighan will appear at the Majestic starting next Sunday for a week in "The Ne'er Do-Well," by Rex Beach. It is said that the football scenes in this picture were taken in the Yale Bowl, it won't be hard to tell—and that for the Panama and Follies scenes the company went to Central America and Mr. Ziegfeld.

CAMPUS WILL BE BEAUTIFIED

Shrubs and Flowers Will Be Planted Profusely About

"Planting many flowers and shrubs about the campus this spring is the plan to improve our already beautiful university grounds," said Prof. F. A. Aust, landscape architect for the university, yesterday.

"More tennis courts will be built at Camp Randall on the west side next to Warren street, the wall in front of Agricultural hall will be completed and sidewalks will be constructed about it," declared A. F. Gallistel, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

The university seal will be the design used this year in the flower bed in front of Lathrop hall. A red colored bedding plant will be used to relief the seal.

The Mills street garden will have a special feature of Delphinium, or larkspur, plants.

Planting in the south west corner of Camp Randall will be continued this spring. Native shrubs, the traffic rose, witch-hazel, and others will be used. Shrubs are also to be planted around the Randall field house.

About 5,000 wildflower plants will be added to the University woods, and trees have already been set. A copper beech, of which species there are only a couple of other trees in Madison, and a red maple are two especially choice trees set this winter in front of Barnard hall. Hawthornes, elms and bass woods have also been planted at different places on the campus, and evergreens have been set around Lincoln memorial statue in front of Bascom hall.

The lawns will be reseeded wherever the grass is worn, and a new sprinkler system will probably be installed for watering the lawns during the summer.

Train For Leadership

To men who are eager to shorten the years between the time they leave school and the time when they are fitted to fill a position of responsibility and trust, the Babson Institute offers an intensive training course of one or two years.

From actual experience the fundamental principles of business are made clear. By positive examples, the student is shown how to apply these principles in the conduct of every day commercial affairs.

Babson Institute, an educational institution endowed for the purpose of fitting men for executive responsibility, invites you to send for their book, "Training for Business Leadership." Write today. No obligation.

Missouri Cage Teams Win Many Basketball Honors

The basket ball teams of Kansas City, Mo. carried off a goodly share of the United States basketball honors for the 1923 season. They have gained two national championships, two state championships, and one intercollegiate title.

The University of Kansas, just 40 miles from Kansas City, is another one of this season's champion five. They won the Missouri Valley Conference title.

The Kansas City, Kas., High school team won the inter-scholastic championship of America. The national A. A. U. basketball title was won by Kansas City Athletic club. The Westport High five of Kansas City Mo. which went to the fourth round of the national tourney at Chicago holds the championship of Missouri in high school circles.

Smart Suits of Twill Cord

$25 - $29.50 - $27.50

$35 - $55

Sizes 16 to 44

THE trim tailored suit, the smartly bloused Russian jacket, the jaunty flared coat—all are featured in this new popular price showing. All-over embroidered and braided jackets are included, to be in keeping with Fifth Avenue. Exotic buckle fastenings at the side or front are shown, because Egypt approves. Every coat is handsomely silk lined and beautifully finished. In sand or navy.

There are three silhouettes in suits—and all are equally good.

The costume blouse plays an important role in the season's styles. We are showing a large number of new blouses, charmingly varied in design and material.

If You're Going Motoring—

A Trim 3-Piece Tweed Suit,

IF YOU own one of these motor suits of fine fleck tweed in tan, gray or black and white, you'll be provided for on any trip. A smart tailored coat jacket, with pocket and belt,—silk lined and well finished. A plain skirt that will stand unlimited wear and not show wrinkles, and a nifty pair of tailored knickers with belt, double pockets and adjustable knee band. Indispensable for any trip!

Fashion Demands that—

A Costume Blouse be Included

$6.50 to $15

IF YOU POSSESS one of these new costume blouses, you have a complete costume as well as a street wrap. For the costume blouse makes a complete dress when combined with a separate skirt.

These new over blouses and jacquettes are of silk canton crepe, crepe de chine, crepe knit, and Rosanara—usually figured, of course, although some come in plain colors, beaded.
