J. R. FLICKINGER APPOINTS FROSH FOR COMMITTEES

Newly-Elected President Announces Plans For Coming Year

"We hope the members of the class of 1926 will be more actively interested in the life and affairs of the university than their predecessors have been," James R. Flickinger, newly-elected president of the freshmen class, said in announcing class appointments last night.

"Within the week I expect to call a meeting of the class. By getting all of our committee work and class interests promptly under way and working in union, we expect to accomplish more this year as a class than in former years."

The various class committee appointments made by Flickinger are as follows:

Dunlap, Dance Chairman

Freshman dance—William Dunlap, chairman; Donald Hatmaker, assistant chairman;

Programs: Virginia Hickman, chairman; Larch Campbell, Mildred Smith.

Decorations: Harold Barton, chairman; Paul Johnson, Irwin Zelade, Emiline Levis, Mary Ann Young, Mildred Rogers, Irma Bissinger; Music: Frances Cobabe, chairman; Helen Ollis, Pearl Weaver, Ersty Gottfredson, Perce Lambrix, Catherine Clausen, John Marshall.

Features: William Temples, Alicia Grant, Charlotte Culbertson, William P. Reed, Adam Shidell.

Floor committee: Harold Jaeger, chairman, Eleanor Goodnight, William Landschultz, Kathryn Butler, Anne Ross, Paul E. Meagher.

Publicity: Robert Schneider, chairman, Gordon Brine, Mary Lee Mac Comas, Katherine Spencer, Alice Shaw, Walter Wegner.

Traditions: Jere Witter, chairman, Ray Griffiths, George Schmidt, Louise Marshall, Sadie Hedler, Judith Olson.

Hardy, Cap Night Leader

All Tickets For Chicago Game Sold; Mailed Today

All tickets to the Wisconsin-Chicago football game November 25 have been sold and their distribution will commence today, according to a statement of Paul F. Hunter who is in charge of the ticket sales.

"It will be necessary to return the applications for several hundred tickets," Mr. Hunter declared yesterday.

Bazaar Poster Designers To Receive Free Tickets

In addition to the $2 prize for the highest award in the poster contest for the Y. W. C. A. bazaar, free tickets will be given to every one who turns in a poster to the Y. W. C. A. office before Wednesday. The bazaar will be held in Lathrop hall from 11 to 12 o'clock Saturday, December 9. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Y. W. C. A. office or Georgia Stanchfield at B-2335.

WEATHER: FAIR

Fair Friday and Saturday. Fresh winds Friday and probably strong winds Saturday.

CADETS ORGANIZE PRESIDENT'S GUARD

Freshmen and sophomores started to sign up for the President's Guard yesterday. Applications will be closed on December 1. The try-outs will take place on December 5 and 6.

The examinations will consist of the fundamentals of military tactics with stress being laid upon the manual of arms and general appearance. Men sufficient to make up two platoons, personnel of 85, will be taken in. Sophomores who were in last year's Guard will have to try out again this year.

Next spring the Guard intends to compete with St. Johns Military Academy and with several national guard units. It will present its regular feature at the Military Ball and a formal guard mount.

The officers of the Guard this year are Lieutenant Colonel Luening '23, captain; Lieutenant Klos '25, first lieutenant; Major Lyman '24, second lieutenant.

FISH PRAISES YANKS' SPIRIT

Sportsmanship of Wisconsin With Illinois Is Example, He Says

Americans are just as good sportsmen as the British in the opinion of Prof. Carl Russel Fish, who is an authority on English and American characteristics through his status as campus historical mentor and as first hand observer in England.

The English think of sportsmanship as one of the cardinal rules of life itself; playing the game they call it.

Americans are prone to connect the term more especially with athletic contests. Never-the-less, we have just as much of the spirit even though we do not make such a fuss about it.

"In English universities two hours are set aside each day when all students are expected to be engaged in some form of exercise.

"The Varsity teams are also well supported but they have no organized cheering, each individual making an awful rumpus by himself. The Wisconsin faculty has tried to encourage general participation in sports here."

Professor Fish believes that the English are poorer losers than we are. They are more inclined to criticize the methods and actions of their opponents.

He says that the game with Illinois last Saturday was a wonderful exhibition of Wisconsin sportsmanship.

Five Schools Will Send Delegates to Lit Meet

CHAMPAIGN, ILL., Nov. 17—Five universities and colleges will send delegates to a convocation at the University of Illinois, the university paper stated today. The Philomathian Literary society will be hosts to these members of literary societies on November 17 and 18.

Dean Bardeen Tells Aim of National Cancer Week

"The aim of the cancer prevention program is to make people see a physician as soon as possible if there is any suspicion of a cancerous condition," Dean Bardeen declared yesterday. Pamphlets on the treating of cancer are being distributed this week to students as a part of a nation-wide program to inform everyone with cancer and its danger.

Badger Club Will Give Open Dance For Students

A dance for all university students will be given at 8:30 o'clock tonight by the Badger club. Several features have been arranged, and Thompson will furnish the music. The tickets, costing $1, may be procured still at the university Y. M. C. A. Kenneth Wicker '23 chairman of the social committee, is in charge.

Cardinal Will Take Photograph of Game

An exclusive action photograph of the Wisconsin-Michigan football game tomorrow will be published in The Cardinal Tuesday morning.

Arrangements were completed last night with "Pa" Ruud, official staff photographer, who will depart for Ann Arbor tonight on the special train over the C. & N. W. railway.

An action picture of an out-of-town game never before has been published in The Cardinal, so far as is known, and the photograph last Sunday of the Badgers on the Illini 2-yard line was one of the first ever printed in The Cardinal.

57 DANCES TO AID U. W. UNION

One Hundred Students Arrange For Christmas Events in Home Cities

Approximately a hundred students have undertaken to arrange for a Christmas Memorial dance in their respective home towns to raise money for the Memorial Union fund. Fifty-seven dances are planned. Every student worker will get in touch with the alumni and student group from his own locality and with their help will raise a minimum hundred dollar quota, according to present plans.

An informal executive committee which keeps in touch with all the workers is composed of Catherine Wilson '24, Thomas Winston '24, Robert Schmuck '24, Katherine O'Shea '24, Catherine Davis '25, and Arthur Ardiel '24.

The names of the student directors and the towns in which they are working are given below in order that the student body may know if their home town is represented in this project.

12 PASS TRYOUTS FOR COLLEGIATE DEBATING TEAMS

Four Seniors, Seven Juniors, One Sophomore Are Chosen

A preliminary squad of 12 was chosen for the Intercollegiate debate teams. This group does not include last year's debaters who will not compete until the final trials in the next few weeks.

Of the 37 trying out today, those successful were Walter H. Coutou '24, G. A. Fiedler '23, J. C. Fritschler '23, Fannie T. Gallas '24, Herbert D. Hentzen '23, Wilbur G. Katz '24, Henry W. Klos '24, Geo. E. McKinnis '23, J. C. Roberts '24, Stuart E. Strong '25, Robert E. Sher '24, and Erling Ylvisaker '24.

Four seniors, seven juniors, and one sophomore compose this list.

The subject discussed was that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States should be repealed. Practically all candidates defended the negative side of the question.

3,000 "Dads" Entertained at Illini Grid Contest

Approximately 3,500 Illini "dads" were entertained at the University of Illinois last Saturday when the Illini-Purdue football game, an R. O. T. C. parade, and general "open house" were features of the day. A 275-piece band played at the game.

STUDENT CROWD HAILS TEAM LEAVING FOR MICHIGAN FRAY; SQUAD IS DETERMINED TO WIN

Band and Host of Fans Accompany Players to Station

The Badger eleven left at 5:40 o'clock from the Northwestern depot for Ann Arbor amid the cheers of approximately 2,000 students who had assembled with the Freshman band to give them the greatest send-off in the history of the university.

At 5:15 o'clock Gus Tuckerman, '23, Varsity cheer leader, followed by the Frosh band and a large number of students, started from the lower campus.

The line of march was up Langdon street at Park street, south on Henry street to State street, around the Square and down King street to the station.

At the depot the students crowded down the street, their number constantly being increased by more Badger rooters. The rooters sang and cheered on their way and brought traffic to a halt on the streets.

Williams Thanks Students

At the depot the students crowded around the train on which the Badger eleven was leaving and gave cheer after cheer.

Captain Rollie Williams came to the rear platform and thanked the students for the hearty send-off.

"I did not think that after the result of last Saturday's game that so large a number of students would turn out. We are going up to Michigan to win," the Badger captain declared.

The students gave a sky-rocket for Rollie and then called for Coach John R. Richards. Richards said, "I greatly appreciate your spirit and I know that the team has more fight and spirit than ever before and we are going to fight hard to win against Michigan."

Practice at Jackson, Mich.

Coach Richards and the 30 Varsity men who left intend to stop off at Jackson, Mich., this afternoon and go through a light scrimmage before continuing to Ann Arbor where they will meet the Wolverines.

University Players Hold Shakesperian Program

The Wisconsin University Players held their regular meeting last night at Lathrop parlors. A business meeting in which reports of various committees were heard was followed by a Shakespearean program.

Lawrence Psychologist to Address Methodists

Prof. J. H. Farley, chairman of the department of psychology at Lawrence college, will speak tonight at the mid-semester assembly supper of Methodist students at the Wesley Foundation.

Professor Farley conducts a psychology laboratory at Lawrence college for the study of students. The Rockefeller Foundation has adopted his experiments.

Phi Beta Kappa Plans to Hold Monthly Meetings

The student members of Phi Beta Kappa met last night at the University club. Members of the faculty who were present were Professors F. C. Sharp, Karl Young, C. A. Smith and Miss E. A. Smith, instructor in the department of zoology. The fraternity plans to hold monthly meetings at which members of the faculty will give addresses.

Team Arrives in Chicago; Plan Practice Game at Jackson, Mich.

BY CHAS. J. LEWIN

(Special to The Cardinal)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 16—Traveling in two special 12-section sleepers, the Wisconsin football squad, with its retinue of coaches, trainers, and managers, arrived here at 10:30 tonight and was transferred immediately to the Michigan Central road where it entrained shortly after midnight on the second leg of an 850-mile journey to Ann Arbor, Mich.

Upon arriving in Jackson, Mich., the team will be spirited away to the Otsego hotel and quartered there until Saturday morning when it boards the rattlers for Ann Arbor and the all-important football game with Coach Fielding H. Yost's pennant chasing Wolverines.

A light workout is scheduled Friday afternoon. This will be the last chance for Badger gridmen to show that they "know their stuff."

Team in Good Trim

A week of practice after the Illinois debacle has put Wisconsin in trim again.

Realizing that they are the underdogs, with a bare chance of winning on Saturday, Coach John R. Richards and his team are all the more determined to give everything they have in an effort to upset the football world and put the skids under a Big Ten championship possibility.

Those "in the know" figure that Wisconsin has a mighty slim reason for thinking it can beat Michigan, but they also opine that greater upsets of Old Man Dope have occurred before. Even Illinois demonstrated last Saturday that the day of miracles is not yet past.

Harris Back in Line

The Badgers are in good condition with the exception of Russ Irish who was injured in the last battle. Steve Polaski has been working at left end all week and he is the logical man to start against Michigan.

The rest of the eleven is intact, and the recent addition of Jack Harris to the squad brightens things a bit. Harris was called "out" after the Carleton game.

He returned and was later hurt in scrimmage, receiving an injury which doctors said would incapacitate him for the remainder of the season.

Jack came back and although not in the best of shape, is accompanying the squad to Ann Arbor in hopes that he can play.

Specialize in Defensive

Wisconsin will play a careful game against the Yostmen. Richards has devoted most of the practice sessions to defensive work. If the Michigan offense can be halted, breaks will decide the victor, and

Lewin and McClelland to Cover Game For Cardinal

Charles J. Lewin '23, and Harold E. McClelland '23, official representatives of The Cardinal, departed last night with the football team for Ann Arbor, Mich., where they will report the Wisconsin-Michigan football game tomorrow. They will stop off in Jackson, Mich., this afternoon and watch the eleven engage in a short work-out.

CARDINAL REPORTERS

Students trying out for positions as reporters or special writers on the editorial staff of The Cardinal must arrange conferences with the managing editor and woman's editor between 5 and 6 o'clock today or tomorrow.

LIT SOCIETIES FINISH TRIALS

Resume Regular Programs
After Soph Debate
Tryouts

After completing tryouts for Sophomore semi-public debates, the four men's literary societies will resume their regular programs this evening.

Athena will present two short debates, the subjects are that Wisconsin play an inter-sectional football game next year, that Athena join the other men's literary societies, Philomathia and Hesperia, in exchanging judges each week.

The former subject will be discussed by W. P. Iwen '25, and M. W. Mallin '23. H. H. Kriehbaum '26 will talk on the subject "Should Attorney-General Daugherty be impeached?" while W. L. Jackman will present "Something Worth While."

Hesperia Plans Debate

Hesperia's program consists of a debate on the question, "Resolved that students should have the preference in seat sales at Homecoming games." L. K. Arnold '23, Joseph Kler '26, and Virgil Roick '23 will defend the negative, and Charles Greco '23, Kenneth Conway '26, and Arliegh Luther '23 will present the affirmative.

Harold Ashcroft '25 will talk on "An Oft Neglected Tribute", Ralph Axley '23, will present an "Interpretation of the Election", and Wayne Morse '23, will lead a parliamentary drill.

The Agricultural Literary society will debate the question, that the government of the United States should regulate the price of coal by direct control. The affirmative will be defended by I. G. Fay '24, L. A. Burkey '23, F. S. Pinney '26, while the negative will be supported by R. E. Ammon '23, D. A. Skaltsky '26, and E. J. Renard '26. An open discussion will be held at the end of the meeting.

Philomathian Program

Philomathia's program consists of a debate on the subject that the university entrance requirements should be made strict.

The affirmative team is composed of Harold Laskey '24, A. G. Zube '24, and G. H. Pulsford '26; the negative team of N. S. Siegel '24, G. S. Darby '24, and R. G. Hern.

Initiation speeches will be given by W. R. Pagel '24, G. E. Millard '26, U. A. Rothermel '26, and F. H. Woy '26.

Castalia Vodvil Stunt

A vodvil stunt presenting Shakespearean characters will be an unusual feature of the program number presented by the initiates at the regular meeting tonight of Castalia Literary society in Lathrop hall. The committee in charge consists of Lina Norman '25, chairman, Beth Harrison '25, and Esther Saenger '25. A regular business meeting will follow the entertainment.

Pythia will hold a short program followed by a business meeting at which the question of incorporating the society as part of a national

FIFTY DOLLARS IN CASH PRIZES FOR AD STORIES

New York Company Offers
Money For Tales of Sales-manship

Announcement has been made to students in the Course of Commerce that the Ad Art Service, an advertising organization of New York City, is offering $50 in cash prizes for the best stories on the most difficult or most clever sale of newspaper space ever made to any newspaper advertising manager or member of the staff. People who are not clients of the Ad Art Service are not excluded from the contest.

The story must describe in detail all those things which the writers did which helped to effect the sale, from the day when they made their first call on the prospect until the time the advertiser's name was on the dotted line and the advertisement appeared in the paper.

Conditions of Contest

The conditions of the contest are:
1. The letters should contain no less than 200 words and no more than 500. It must describe the sale of newspaper advertising space or of a newspaper advertising contract.

2. The letter should be written on one side of the paper and preferably typewritten.

3. Contestants must agree to permit the publication of their letters and prize winners will furnish photographs for publication.

4. The decision of the judges must be accepted as final; in the case of a tie, each contestant will be awarded the full amount of the prize earned.

$25 is First Prize

5. The contest closes January 1.
6. Address the answer to the Contest Manager of Ad Art Service, 52 Vanderbilt avenue, New York city.

The prizes offered are; first prize, $25; second, $10; third, $10; and fourth, $5.

literary society will be discussed. National organizations of Michigan and Illinois have sent requests for Pythia to join them, retaining Pythia as a chapter name. The initiation program will be held next Friday. Dorothy Scott '24 is in charge.

NEW LONDON—W. Mitton has been made superintendent of the Borden condensery here to succeed Frank King, recently drowned in Lake Symco.

MILADY'S VOTE AIDS POLITICS

Professor Stuart Declares That Women Are Cleaning Up
Ballot Evils

Women voters are cleaning up politics.

According to Prof. Graham Stuart, of the department of political science, the women in the state during the last election period accomplished this by that the candidates to office tell clearly their definite stand on various matters. The women suffragists also forced the men to become more intelligent voters in order to keep up to the pace, Professor Stuart declared.

"The women voters in Milwaukee put out a voter's publication in which they ask the different candidates to state clearly their platforms without the political covering. Women leaders must be informed about the stand on issues before they will give their support to anyone."

"This great interest has forced the men voters to learn more about the issues and candidates to announce their opinion."

Woman Appointed To Senate

The recent appointment in Georgia of a woman to complete a senatorial term has caused a great deal of criticism from people who state that this honor should be kept for the woman first to be elected to the position. The appointment was purely honorary.

Women hold places of high authority also in the Scandinavian countries and some of the British colonies where suffrage has been in effect longer.

"Women should be fully qualified to serve in high judicial capacities," Professor Stuart asserted. "The women who have been placed in such positions have carried out their duties efficiently. Florence Allen of Cleveland's juvenile courts is an example."

Campaigns Well Managed

"Women perhaps would not succeed as well at the present time in cabinet positions requiring a great deal of administrative ability as well as public backing. In the labor department or the proposed education department there is no reason why a woman could not efficiently carry out the necessary duties."

In speaking of the woman's campaigns in the recent elections, Professor Stuart stated that they were conducted as well as the men's and that in many instances they radically changed the outcome of the balloting.

"The women in the United States are rapidly gaining recognition in the governmental and political fields as they have already done in the business and professional fields", he concluded.

40 TO COMPETE IN INTER-CLASS CROSS COUNTRY

First Five Men on Team Will Receive Class Numerals

With more than 40 athletes competing, the annual inter-class cross country meet will be run this afternoon over the short course 2.9 miles in length. The meet is scheduled to start at 4:45 o'clock.

The first five men to cross the finish line will receive class numerals. All members of the winning team will get similar awards.

Competition for the numerals is expected to be keen, as the field will include many of the men who participated in the intra-mural meet two weeks ago.

Sophomores Favored

In the latter race, the short course record was shattered by Rossmelsel, who is now a member of the varsity squad.

On the form displayed in practice to date, the sophomores are favored to capture first honors with the freshmen hoped to provide the stiffest competition for the second year harriers.

Little is known of the strength of the senior and junior squads, but both have been working diligently and either may spring a surprise and romp home to victory over the favorites.

Stars on Two Teams

Sophomores base their hopes for a victory largely on the ability of Capt. Wells Sherman and of John Bergstresser, both of whom have shown up as consistent winners of front rank places in practice.

Two freshman stars who are expected to set a fast pace are Capt. Kenneth Kennedy and Harry Cohen. Frank Gunderson and R. B. Powell, who lead the junior and senior teams, respectively, are also picked to finish in front of the field.

Junior Hockey Team is Winner in Champ Series

Playing a fast game, marked by unusual teamwork, the juniors wrested from the seniors the decisive game of the women's hockey championship tournament by a score of 5 to 0, Wednesday afternoon.

This game, the last of the series, determined whether the juniors would be uncontested champions or whether the championship would be in the form of a triple tie between the juniors, seniors, and sophomores.

TWO RAILROADS PLAN SPECIAL FOR GRID GAME

Elaborate Arrangements Are Made to Transport Stu- dents to Ann Arbor

The Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway companies are making elaborate plans to transport the hundreds of students leaving here to attend the Michigan tilt tomorrow.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul is a special train that will carry the band and several hundred rooters to the Michigan game tomorrow will arrive in Madison this noon. It will be ready for inspection by persons who desire to inspect it by 3 o'clock.

A large electric tail light bearing the words, "U. W. Students Football Special To Michigan" will be attached to the last car.

Arrangements have been completed also by the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company. At 5:30 on Friday a special train with sleepers, dining car and lounging car will leave Madison, and go directly to Chicago where it will be delivered to the Michigan Central company which will handle it to Ann Arbor. This special train will arrive in Ann Arbor at 6 or 7 o'clock eastern time tomorrow morning.

At 5:30 last night a special train with the Wisconsin team and newspaper representatives left Madison, and it reached Ann Arbor at 7 o'clock this morning.

5 Out Of 7 Homecoming Celebrations Dampened By Big Ten Grid Surprises

California Bears Near Champ Title on Coast

By defeating Washington university on its own gridiron, the California Bears have practically clinched the championship of the Pacific coast conference and with it the right to meet Penn State at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

By a resolution of the student body asking that California should not be considered as a participant in this battle, the honor will go to the team standing second at the end of the season.

YOST IS READY FOR BIG GAME

48,000 Will Witness Badger- Wolverine Game To- morrow

(Special to The Cardinal)

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 16.—With Michigan facing Wisconsin on Ferry field Saturday in what is expected to be the toughest game of the season, Coach Yost is making use of every moment to put his eleven into prime shape for the battle.

The victory last Saturday of Illinois over Wisconsin by a 3 to 0 score, rather than making the Wolverines over-confident, has served only to intensify their preparation, for defeat at the hands of the Badgers in the coming game would mean real disgrace, after such a crushing punishment as the Yostmen inflicted on the Illini.

Michigan realizes, too, that Wisconsin is coming to Ann Arbor with the strongest sort of determination to wipe the shame of the Illinois' victory from their slate by a triumph over the powerful Wolverines.

Wolverines In Good Shape

Should Wisconsin emerge victorious, discounting possible unlucky breaks, Michigan will have no alibis. Every member of the Maize and Blue eleven is in splendid physical shape, with the exception of Johns, veteran guard, whose injury in the Ohio State game has resulted in his being forced to discontinue with football for the remainder of the season.

The squad is being intensively trained, and when Blue faces Cardinal on the local turf there should be a truly great grid-iron machine. The Michigan backfield which will start the game will be its strongest. At the halfback posts the 48,000 spectators, who will witness the encounter will see Harry Kipke, sensation of the football world and the equal of the famed Owen of Harvard, and Herbert Steger, almost as brilliant a player as his running mate.

Between them will be Franklin Cappon who vies with Johnnie Thomas of Chicago and Ralph Jordan of Yale for the honor of being the country's greatest line plunger.

Captain Soebel To Plan

At quarter will be Irwin Uteritz, one of the premier field generals of the Big Ten. In reserve there are such men as Douglas Roby, regular half who was injured in the Ohio State game, and who may be in shape to play at least part of the Wisconsin game; George Dunleavy, heavy plunging fullback; Jack Keffer, the sensational sophomore half back; and Bob Knodel, nearly the equal of Uteritz at quarter.

There may be ends who as individuals on a team may equal Captain Goebel or Kirk of Michigan, such as Kadesky of Iowa or Muller of California, but it is a certainty that no university has a pair of flankers that can approach these two. Goebel, whose knee was injured early in the season, has completely recovered and will start the Wisconsin game.

In the backfield and on the ends lies Michigan's greatest power.

Michigan's Best Team

The line, Muirhead and Vander Voort at tackles, Rosatti and Steele at guards, and Blott at center, is for the most part green. Muirhead is the only veteran, and the only lineman that can be placed in the

Badgers Play Wolverines on Annual Graduate Event Tomorrow

Picking the wrong day for the annual Homecoming celebration seems to be a failing with most conference colleges this year if the results of football games are regarded as one of the main attractions of the affair.

Five times so far this season the invading eleven has thrown a dense cloud of gloom over the home camp by beating their enemies.

Of the seven universities that have had their celebrations this fall, Indiana, Ohio, Minnesota, Illinois, and Wisconsin have had to be content with the short end of the score. The other two were fortunate.

Iowa beat Minnesota and Northwestern beat Purdue in the Homecoming tilts. In at least three of the contests the dope was turned completely upside down with the home team the previous favorites.

Two Homecoming Games

Two more homecoming games will be played this week. Michigan battles the Badgers, while Purdue engages Indiana at Lafayette. There is an excellent chance for more gloom to be spread around Ann Arbor and Lafayette tomorrow.

Wisconsin is conceded a chance against Yost's men, and Indiana should beat the Boilermakers.

Wisconsin has been the attraction at two Homecomings this year in addition to their own disastrous celebration. While there is no regular Homecoming at Chicago the Badger game is looked upon as the big one of the year. The contest will draw the largest crowd of any conference team.

Wolverines' Celebration

The game tomorrow at Ann Arbor will be the Wolverines' Homecoming. And if Wisconsin beats both Michigan and Chicago it will have the distinction of participating in four losing Homecoming battles in one year, a record that will be unique, if not unparalleled in conference circles.

Should the remaining Homecoming games result in defeats for the home team, it is probable that schedule makers and committees will begin to look around for setups in next year's entertainment of the returning grads.

same powerful category as the backs and ends.

Such is the team that Michigan will have in readiness for Coach Richards' Badgers Saturday. The team Michigan is considered, all in all, the greatest Wolverine team ever turned out, not excepting the tions of 1901 and 1902.

Saturday will determine definitely the real power of the Wolverines.

Stadium to Be Dedicated at University of Kansas

The new stadium at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., will be dedicated tomorrow. A parade made up of the band, student body, disabled veterans, and the R. O. T. C. will march around the campus before the service on the stadium grounds. The stadium will be dedicated to the 124 men and women who lost their lives in the World war, and the ceremony will be in their honor.

BADGERS OFF FOR MICHIGAN

Team Arrives in Chicago, Ready For Battle With Wolverines

Dame Fortune is due to smile at the Badgers now, if ever.

"Zero in enjoyment" was the name of a new game played by mathematicians who accompanied the Wisconsin squad.

They figured that in five contests, Michigan has scored one point every two minutes or one touchdown every quarter. In Conference battles, the Wolverines counted one point every three minutes.

If figures never lie, Michigan is 28 points better than Wisconsin. It swamped Illinois under a 24 to 0 score, and Illinois eked out a 3 to 0 win over the Badgers. That makes it 27 points better.

50,000 Rooters Expected

Then again, Wisconsin defeated Minnesota, 14 to 0, Minnesota tied Northwestern, 7 to 7, Northwestern lost to Illinois, 6 to 3. Therefore, Wisconsin is, figuratively, 11 points better than Illinois and 13 points worse than Michigan.

Capt. Rollie Williams and his Cardinal-clad cohorts have no faith in digits, however. They will unloose all the dogs of war to be the first team that has scored on Michigan this season, and perhaps, the first to best the Wolverines.

Ann Arbor will be a mass ofunting and flags Saturday morning.

Approximately 50,000 persons are expected in the little college town. The only important personage who will be missing is Henry Ford who wired for a box seat but did not get his application to the athletic department in time.

The Wolverine eleven has had a

Frosh will meet soph today in the last pitched battle of the antagonistic season. The two football teams will clash at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. After the decisive defeat in the rush early in the fall, the first year men are out after revenge and will fight for a win today.

Following a strenuous week of scrimmage against the Varsity team, the frosh are in excellent condition for the battle today.

They have a smooth running machine which has stacked up well against Richard's men, and which has been able to score at various times against the heavy regulars.

Frosh Defense Weak

The weak spot of the yearling team throughout the entire season, has been the defense. While the linemen have been able to tear through the Badger wall for large gains, they have been unable to stop it when placed on defensive.

The sophomore team is strong. many men have been playing on Coach Lowman's All-Americans.

two weeks rest since its runaway victory over the Michigan farmers. Steele, Johns, and Rosatti are not in the best of condition, but they will be ready for play, and Roby, who was injured in the Ohio State fracas, is also back in his mole-skins.

If Wisconsin can halt Kipke, Cappon, and Steger another Homecoming game may be spoiled just as five of seven Big Ten Homecoming celebrations have been dampened already when the home teams were defeated.

"On to Ann Arbor" is the battle-cry of Coach Richards and his football team today.

"Down with the Wolverines" will be the war whoop of more than 2000 Badger rooters who are expected to invade Michigan's lower peninsula on Saturday morning.

MEN OF RESEARCH

NEWS and editorial columns of The Cardinal commonly give space and credit to various phases of university life and progress.

Where credit is believed due, credit is given.

That is entirely as it should be.

But it is possible to forget for the moment some of the most praiseworthy elements of the institutions' progress. What is in the limelight we see, and in seeing, talk about. But what is not so obviously in view may be utterly devoid of mention or even of recognition.

We have in mind those indefatigable scientists who are spending untold hours in university laboratories searching for new truths.

These professors, assistants, or fellows—what matter the question of rank—work with no hope of glory, no thought of mention.

Skakespeare had to die before he became famous, James Watt died in want, unhonored and unsung.

It is too true that a prophet is without honor in his own time.

There is no reason why this should be true. Professors who are spending their time in research should have their meed of glory when their work is completed.

Today the world is reaping the benefits of scientific research of the past. What hours of toil and poverty and privation preceded past successes will never be known.

Wisconsin's research scientists are toiling on what, for men of their ability, is a mere pittance. The same amount of time and energy spent in commercial plant would give them munificent monetary reward.

They are practically unknown outside of their own little world of fellow scientists. They are denied the daily contact of the classroom. They are not suffered the admiration of the students and the adulation of the press.

Their reward is but the success of their own efforts. That they may reach ultimately this such is all that they ask for, probably all they shall ever receive.

The soils that they are now analyzing may reveal such secrets which will revolutionize agriculture of the world. In mixing dangerous and loathsome concoctions in brittle test tubes, they may discover some strange and powerful chemical that will prevent nations from making future war.

Nature guards her secrets well. It is a real work to be able to wrest these secrets from her.

We should appreciate the work that is being done in the research halls and laboratories of the universities. Now is the time.

ARE WE DOWNHEARTED.

THE British Tommies taught the American doughboys of the World war a little refrain that ran like this: "Are we downhearted?" And the answer came always full-throated and convincingly "No."

If anyone were to ask Badger football fans whether they were downhearted about tomorrow's prospects with Michigan, the emphatic "No" could be heard throughout the conference.

There will be no over-confidence about this game. Neither is there any dismay.

No promise of winning is being made; no alibi will be offered if the Badgers lose.

Coach Richards and the team know that they are battling long odds when they meet Yost's men. Student supporters know that the Badgers will have to fight every minute if they are to win.

But no one is doubting that the team will do just that thing. And the several hundred Wisconsin fans that leave with the team will help them do it.

Wisconsin has lost one Homecoming game this year and won one. Before the Homecoming crowd in Michigan tomorrow they will make a desperate fight to put one more game in the won column.

Many who have hoped to see that game in Ann Arbor will have to be content to watch its progress on the grid-graph in Madison.

But whether in Madison or in Ann Arbor, the cheers for the coach and the team will show the conference how thoroughly one in spirit are the Wisconsin students and the Badger team.

Looking Back On Wisconsin

IN THE CARDINAL FILES

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

Dr. Ely left this afternoon for Milwaukee where he will deliver the second lecture of his course on socialism.

The Northwestern football team is practicing daily to get in perfect condition for their game with Wisconsin in Milwaukee on Thanksgiving Day.

A movement, now on foot among the members of the senior class, urging the adoption of a university pin, is worthy of more than passing comment. It is a movement which should receive the hearty endorsement of the other classes, for the pin will be an emblem to represent the university as well as the class to which the wearer belongs.

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

Wisconsin's defeat by Minnesota last Saturday has increased the Gopher's chances for the football championship of the Middle West. The game between Minnesota and Michigan at Ann Arbor, November 27, will decide the championship of the West. Saturday's defeat was the first time Wisconsin has lost by more than six points since 1899.

Prof. M. V. O'Shea will conduct an examination of the senses and nervous condition of the children of the Madison schools next week.

G. W. S. Adams of Balliol College, Oxford, who is now lecturing at the University of Chicago on colonial economics, visited with Prof. P. S. Reinsch over the weekend.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

Championship is back to Wisconsin after 11 years.

Yesterday afternoon when the Wisconsin eleven walked off of Northrop field victors of the last big battle of this season, they carried with them the championship honors of the West.

Not since the glorious days of Pat O'Dea, when Wisconsin was the football center of the West, have the Badgers been the recipients of such honors as came to them with the victory over the Gophers in yesterday's game.

A crowd of 2,000 students, one-half of whom were co-eds, welcomed the champion team at the Northwestern station at 8:20 his morning when they returned from Minnesota. A snake dance up State street and an impromptu massmeeting on the library steps, where Eddie Gillette made a speech were parts of the celebration.

About one-half of the squad have had only one year of experience in football.

5 YEARS AGO TODAY

Sophs walloped the frosh 22 to 0 in the annual inter-class football game. "Rowdy" Elliott was the star of the game, making many long runs and scoring 16 of the 22 points for the sophomores. The Sophs had their eye on Williams, the stocky freshman halfback.

Chadbourne hall girls are busy cutting and pasting in soldiers' scrap books.

Prof. J. G. Callan, of the College of Engineering, leaves today for the East to go to England to study and investigate engines on a commission sent out by the federal shipping board at Washington.

Ags to Discuss Policy of Magazine Circulation

A convocation of the College of Agriculture will be called next Wednesday afternoon to discuss the policy of sending copies of the Country Magazine to the high schools of Wisconsin, according to resolutions passed at the meeting of the A. C. F. board last night.

It is thought by members of the board that by sending the Country Magazine to the high schools, the College of Agriculture will be brought to the attention of the students in a more favorable light.

Other business which will be considered at the convocation is the nomination of an ex-service man as member of the State land settlement board. The board is a body appointed by the governor with the consent of the Senate and acts upon land settlement problems confronting the ex-service men. The question of intermural athletics will also be discussed at the convocation.

For many kinds of research. The whole structure will be Gothic in style and will be finished in brick and stone.

"GOOD MORNING, Mrs. Astor!"

"Hank Ford neither, Ha! Ha!"

"Well, Guess Hank Ford ain't so good. I know a lotta guys what got seats for the game."

"Yah! And a lot what didn't!"

HA! HA! HA!

Anyway it will probably be one of the best games you ever listened to. When the boys went away we all told them to mind their "Ps" and "Qs".

Sororities at Chicago Are Favored By Student Body

Efforts are being made to bring national sororities to the University of Chicago. A majority of the students are in favor of the plan. In spite of the fact that the dean of women, Marion Talbot, has definitely expressed her disapproval of the plan, it is thought that the formation of the Pan-Hellenic, which is now being done, precedes the coming of national sororities by only a short time.

He said, "Oh, she broke that," and when we got over our convulsions he was gone.

ARREST CHAMP IN DEATH HERE

World's Amateur Culling
Champion Held For Madison Death

Walter Hoover, world's amateur sculling champion, of Duluth, Minn., is being held in that city today on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Herbert Seely, of Oregon, in Madison, on Oct. 26, according to an Associated Press dispatch received here yesterday.

Hoover was arrested on a warrant issued by Dist. Atty. T. G. Lewis in Madison, and sworn to by William Bethel of Oregon, who was driving the Dodge car in which Seely was riding at the time of the accident.

Tells of Accident

The accident happened about 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Oct. 26 at Regent and Spooner sts.

"I was driving my car toward the city on Regent st.," Mr. Bethel told The Capital Times over long distance telephone today, "and the other car was coming away from the city."

"Just as I was crossing Spooner st. the driver of the other car swung around, attempting, I should judge, to turn around and return to the city. His Cole struck my car and turned us over," he continued.

"Both of Mr. Seely's arms were broken and his lungs crushed in. He was taken to the Madison General hospital immediately."

Seely died two weeks later on Nov. 11. His widow, and one daughter, Mrs. Will Cleveland, reside at Oregon.

Willing To Defend Himself

Mr. Bethel, Mr. Seely and two other men attended a stock sale at the Fay Hammersley farm west of Madison the of the accident, and were returning home. Seely was 52 years old.

Hoover and his wife were in the other automobile. He was returning to his home in Duluth from New Orleans, La., where he had attended the American Legion convention, and was passing through this city.

In a statement to newspapers in Duluth Hoover declared that he was willing to go to Madison to defend himself against the charges, "because I know I was not to blame for the accident," according to an Associated Press dispatch.

Gloria's Gown From Paris is Now in City

Maureen Englin, who is appearing at the Orpheum the week-end, is the proud owner of a gown which came nearly making history not only in the world of politics, but in the world of the theatre and moving pictures as well.

Some time ago Miss Englin, who is a songstress of rather unusual attainments, because of the fact as well as jazz numbers, sang at a party given some weeks ago in New York by Gloria Swanson, the moving picture star.

Miss Swanson had just returned from Paris with 27 Parisian gowns which were attracting the attention of half a dozen high cutoms officials, who claimed that the gowns were worth $35,000, while Miss Swanson placed a valuation of but $25,000.

The state department was finally appealed to and the French ambassador sent an expert to New York who passed upon the value of the gowns to Miss Swanson's satisfaction.

One of the chief creations among Miss Swanson's purchases of gown was an exquisite work of art from the Salon of the famous Jacques Worth. Miss Swanson, however, had discovered after purchasing it that it was more suited for stage work than for use in motion pictures, as a mark of her appreciation of Miss Englin's songs, Miss Swanson gave the famous gown to Miss Englin which she will wear once each day during her performance here.

Hydraulic Articles Lead in Wisconsin Engineer

A number of articles of hydraulic interest are discussed in The Wisconsin Engineer on sale yesterday.

"Pipe Line Transportation of Petroleum", by Herbert Glaettli '19, presents the modern system for the conveyance of crude oil from the wells to the refineries.

"Wisconsin Highway Development and Problems", by M. W. Torkelson '04, secretary of the Wisconsin highway commission, takes into consideration the development of Wisconsin highways relative to the demand placed upon them by communities and traffic.

A detailed account of the experience of the state in testing different types of roads is worked out, showing the comparative costs and requirements of different roads.

Entertain Badger Women

The women of the Betsy Barbour house, which is one of the new women's dormitories, are planning to entertain all Wisconsin women who will spend the day at Ann Arbor. This invitation is a reciprocal attention for what the S. G. A. girls did last year in entertaining the Michigan girls at Lathrop hall.

The following telegram from Ann Arbor to Miss Louise Nardin yesterday:

To Miss Nardin:
Will you extend to the women of Wisconsin who are coming to the game on November 18 an invitation to make the Betsy Barbour House their headquarters while in Ann Arbor. Helen Anderson, president of Betsy Barbour House.

Miss Johnson Will Read Before St. Francis Club

Miss Gertrude Johnson will give several readings from her repertoire of dramatic works Sunday evening for the St. Francis society following the regular supper at the club house on University avenue. Miss Johnson coached the pre-prom play last year and has directed a number of student dramatic productions during the last few years.

The St. Francis society has been giving a short program after the supper every Sunday presenting several speakers from among the faculty and the city. Henry Rubel '23, has entertained the members twice with selections from last year's Haresfoot score. Several Wisconsin University Players have given short acts.

The regular monthly corporate communion of the society will be next Sunday morning at St. Andrews church in Wingra Park. The service will be followed by breakfast.

Jazz Orchestra and Patsy Shelly Make Toes Twist at Orph

BY M. S. C. and E. A. P.

Patsy Shelly dances this weekend to one of the best jazz bands that has played at the Orph this season, led by a weak-kneed violinist and assisted by a youthful drummer who knew his stuff.

A little later, a man who says his "will is strong and his won't is weak", and a woman who is enough to make a "hound dog lose his trail" put on a one-round bout.

If you can't get a ticket to the Michigan game, go to the Orpheum and save money.

GILLIN FAVORS SEX EDUCATION

Educational Authorities Favor Special Instruction in Public Schools

Instructions of sex problems should be a part of the curriculum in universities and high schools, according to the opinion expressed yesterday by two education authorities. Prof. John L. Gillin and Major E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the state board of education.

"The most feasible way to handle sex education in schools is by including it in science studies where it naturally falls," said Professor Gillin.

"Pupils will regard it as a matter-of-fact serious study, as it should be regarded. However, the burden cannot be entirely shifted to the schools, as the parents owe to their children to see that they are told the essential things in their daily life. Parents also need instruction."

"These problems of life should be taught in schools," Major Fitzpatrick stated.

"But standing in the way is the lack of proper training of teachers for the work. Under the present situation, sex instruction would be undesirable, due to the ignorance of many teachers themselves, but it will eventually come as organization is completed."

The purpose of the dance is to bring the members of the two societies together socially. The presidents of both organizations urge all members to join in this affair.

The annual Castalia-Hesperia dance will be held tomorrow evening in Lathrop parlors.

The committees in charge consist of Mildred Guempel '24, Lillian Tyler '24, Mildred Redeman '24 of Castalia; Fred Risser '23, Harold Craneheld '25, and George Fiedler '24, of Hesperia.

Masonic Lodges Invites University Men to Smoker

All university men are invited to attend the Masonic smoker at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Masonic Temple, 301 Wisconsin avenue.

The smoker will be given to the university men by the joint efforts of the three local lodges. Good smokes, a peppy program, and catchy music are promised by the program committee. The speakers will include both university and prominent business men, Frank Jenks, of 2015 Jefferson street, chairman of the committee, announced yesterday.

Clarence G. Dittmer of the department of economics has consented to speak. There will be talks also by a member of Acacia and of the Square club.

PLAN MADISON ALUMNI PARTY

Grads of Local High School,
U. W. Students, Announce
Event

The largest alumni party ever held by the graduates of the Madison high school will take place the night before Thanksgiving, Nov. 29, according to a committee of 25 university students who have charge of the affair.

At a committee meeting last night in the high school, plans were laid to reach every alumnus of the school for at least five years back. Arrangements were made for calling up these persons.

The program for the intermissions at the party will be a solo by Charles Demarest '23.

Demarest Heads Committee

The party will be a strictly non-couple affair, according to the committee in charge. Women will be urged to attend in groups in order that a larger attendance can be secured.

November 29 is the traditional date for the Homecoming party. Although there are many fraternity and sorority dances on that night, the Homecoming appeal will bring many old graduates out. Miss Leta Wilson, grad, and teacher at the high school in charge of arrangements, declared yesterday.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the class of 1919 is Charles Demarest '23, chairman, Marion Connor '23, chairman, Francis Lamb '23, and James Lacy.

Committees for Grads

For the class of 1921. Hazel Goddard '24, chairman, Letitia O'Malley '24, Lila Ekern '24, Horace Ratcliff '24, Clark Hazelwood '24 and Walter A. Frautschi '24 will serve.

Vaughn Winchell '25, chairman, Emilie Hunt '25, Mary Devine '25, Edmund Sutherland '25, Harold Crane '25, will serve as the committee for the graduates of 1921.

Last year's graduating class from the high school will be represented on the committee, by Herman Wirka '26, chairman, Lillian Twenhofel '26, Mary Brader '26, Bernarine Flynn '26, John Hobbins '26 and John Hogan '26.

Predict Alumni Body

That the constant growth of the alumni parties will tend toward the organization of a Madison High School Alumni association was the opinion expressed at the meeting of the committees last night.

"In the majority of cities and towns the controlling influence of the school is the alumni body. In a city with all the possibilities and advantages of Madison, there is no reason why we should not have a strong alumni organization," Miss Wilson declared.

Internationals to Hear Their General Secretary

Dr. H. J. Leonard, general secretary of the American International clubs, is to be the guest and speaker of the evening at the meeting of the Wisconsin chapter at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Lathrop hall. Several piano selections will be presented by William Gluesing '23 and Irmgard E. Siegmeyer '23, at the meeting. Sonia Forthal, well-known on the campus for her dancing, will offer a Philippino dance assisted by Ismael Mallari '23, of Manila. Other solo dances will be given on the program. The evening will be concluded with a general mixer for all the members.

Beginning at the next meeting, each evening will be in charge of a group of the same nationality. The next meeting is to be in the hands of the French students.

Sommerfeld Tells Math Club About Defraction

The Mathematics club held its regular monthly meeting from 4 to 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the first floor of Sterling hall. Prof. A. L. Sommerfeld lectured on the subject of "Defraction Phenomena" and illustrated his topic from slides.

COUNTY DANCE LAW PLANNED

Pavilion Patronized By Students May Be Regulated
By Board

Dance pavilions in Dane county at Bernard park, Esther Beach, and Middleton, which are patronized by students during the university year, may be placed under county rules and regulations.

A bill will be introduced at the next legislature empowering counties with authority to regulate recreation halls whether incorporated cities or in the townships, it was learned yesterday.

A resolution was passed by the county board in session this week, approving of the dance measure, introduced by M. D. Larson.

"It is self-evident that many of the so-called pavilions and dance halls are objectionable to public standards of morals," the resolution declared.
