Thanksgiving

In appreciation of the first harvest after the landing of the Pilgrims, Governor Bradford made provision for the rejoicing of the people by setting aside a day of prayer and praise, which was often repeated. The feast which followed was enjoyed by the Indians who brought along plenty of wild fowl and animals. The novel innovation was so enjoyed by the Indians that they lingered on several days.

Washington appointed Thanksgiving days for general benefits and the welfare of the nation. President Lincoln appointed the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day and the precedent has been followed by all of his successors.

OUR HERITAGE.

On Thanksgiving Day we are reminded of the heritage, which we, Americans, have had handed down to us. The length of time in which our families have been rooted in America makes no difference in that heritage. There are those who rightfully have pride in tracing their ancestry to that brave band of Pilgrims who landed on the bleak shore of Massachusetts, or to any of the other groups from the other side of the Atlantic, who came in the earliest days, but you who came over as the first representative of your family to seek a home in this land of liberty, are equally enjoying all the blessings which all of us in this great land enjoy.

The hardships which the Pilgrims encountered in their native land, in Holland whence they had gone from persecution, and in their new home in America, in order that they might worship God according to their particular belief, bore fruit in establishing in this, our beloved land, the Right to Worship as our conscience dictates.

The early struggles of the colonists gave courage to makers of our Constitution and their immediate successors to establish the Bill of Rights, which is still the heart of the Constitution.

Freedom of the Individual and Rights of Oppressed Minorities were well established by those who were chosen to represent the American citizens in the formative days of the United States, and public opinion has shown a determined stand on the preservation of these rights.

We need not be particularly worried about the future of these United States of America. We have in our midst many who think in terms of their former fatherlands and who would change our ideas of these foundation stones of our government, but let us deal patiently with them and teach them more about our great blessings which we have inherited. We cannot expect every one to be in exact agreement with us, but by using the same effort we might use in suppression, we can by personal appeal and instruction, win those not yet in sympathy with our blessings, to our views.

We have always had the so called Conservatives and so called Radicals in some degree and will continue to have them. The only difference between this country and many others is that we can openly express our views verbally or in written word without fear of the "walls having ears" and our liberty endangered.

Let's start a campaign along these lines. Let's have an old fashioned revival in bringing to all of our citizens and especially to those who do not know as yet about the fundamentals of our Constitution, the gospel of Freedom of Religion, Freedom of Individuals, the Rights of Oppressed Minorities, and the many other blessings of our United States of America as given to us by our forefathers.

As in the old Revival Meeting, the zealous personal worker was the real winner of souls, so in this campaign, the man or woman, who is willing to give of his time to seek out and do personal work will win the converts to Americanism.

Editor,

Here's a sigh for those who love me,

And a smile to those who hate;

And whatever sky's above me,

Here's a heart for any fate. Byron.

ADOLPHUS CLAY BARTLETT

(This is the seventh of a series of articles about the first families of that group who made up the Lake Geneva Summer Colony)

Adolphus Clay Bartlett was born in Stratford, New York, on June 22nd, 1844. His father was Aaron Bartlett and his mother Delia Dibell Bartlett. He was educated at Danville (N.Y.) Academy, in Clinton, N.Y. Liberal Institute. On August 27, 1867 he married Mary H. Pitkin, who died December 19, 1890; and in 1893 he married Abby L. Hitchcock of Toledo, Ohio.

At the age of 19, Mr. Bartlett entered the employ of Tuttle, Hibbard & Co. and when the hardware business was incorporated in 1882 as Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co. we find Mr. Bartlett had risen so in the esteem of the partners that he was the first secretary. At his death we find him actively interested in the firm as Chairman of the Board.

That he was recognized in the business world is evidenced by his many important connections. He was a director of First National Bank of Chicago, Northern Trust Co., Chicago; Chicago & Alton Railway Co.; Liverpool, London & Globe Insurance Co. He also was actively interested in education and in his fellow men. He was a trustee of the University of Chicago and gave the magnificent Gymnasium; he had been a member of the Board of Education in Chicago, president of the Home for Friendless; vice-president of the Old Peoples Home. He liked to associate himself with the keen business and educational minds of his time and was a member of Chicago Club, Union League Club, Commercial, Caxton, Onwentsia, Quadrangle and University of Chicago Literary Club.

Mr. Bartlett first appeared on the Tax Roll in 1905 in the Town of Linn, having purchased 44 acres with lake shore to the east of S.W. Allerton. Dr. Paul B. Jenkins in the Book of Lake Geneva wrote, " The most artistic home on the Lake " is a description often given the residence of the late Mr. A.C. Bartlett, on the north shore, east of the Narrows, designed by his son, Mr. Frederick C. Bartlett, the artist. Its inner court, with its fountain and flowers and the vistas from its windows, is one of the charming sights of the many beautiful homes along the shore." Book of Lake Geneva " 1922.

The son, Frederick, had a studio up in the woods above the estate. Since Mr. Bartlett's death, the estate has been in several hands, Frederick H. Bartlett of Chicago, not related, and is now owned by Mr. William Spencer, who takes an active interest in the lake shore and makes this his year round residence. Mr. Spencer is the president of the Geneva Lake Property Owners Association.

Besides Frederick C. there is daughter now living, Florence, who when on the lake was active in helping Eleanor Camp and other Lake Geneva institutions.

Mr. A.C. Bartlett is remembered for his warm greetings to workmen, business men and to all who he knew. He showed real interest in the affairs of all with whom he came in contact.

ANOTHER YEAR OF BLESSINGS

(President Lincoln 's Thanksgiving Proclamation, issued October 20, 1864 , establishing the last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, setting the precedent which has been followed ever since then. There had been days set aside in previous years at the will of the president at the time.)

" It has pleased Almighty God to prolong our National life another year, defending us with his guardian care against unfriendly designs from abroad and vouchsafing to us in his mercy many and signal victories over the enemy, who is of our own household. It has pleased our Heavenly Father to favor as well our citizens in their homes as our soldiers in their camps, and our sailors on the rivers and seas, with unusual health. He has largely augmented our free population by emancipation and by immigration, while he has opened to us new sources of wealth, and has crowned the labor of our workmen in every department of industry with abundant rewards. Moreover, he has been pleased to animate and inspire our minds and hearts with fortitude, courage, and resolution sufficient for the great trial of civil war into which we had been brought by our adherence as a Nation to the cause of freedom and humanity, and to afford us reasonable hopes of an ultimate and happy deliverance from our dangers and afflictions. Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart the last Thursday in November next as a day which I desire to be observed by all my fellow-citizens, wherever they may be, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, the beneficent Creator and Ruler of the universe. "

(President Lincoln's Proclamation issued October 3, 1863)

"The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are of so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added which are so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful Providence of Almighty God.... No human council hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and voice, by the whole American people, I do therefore invite my fellow-citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to our beneficent Father, who dwelleth in the heavens. "

O Father Almighty,
Our trust is in thee,
Thy will now exalting
Through love, law, and liberty,

Our voices ascending
From vale, hill, and crag,
In this motto binding;
" One country, one speech,
One flag."

THANKSGIVING!

The Thanksgiving Proclamation for 1938, by Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, designating Thursday, the twenty-fourth of November, 1938.

"Our fathers set aside such a day as they hewed a nation from the primeval forest. The observance was consecrated when George Washington issued a Thanksgiving proclamation in the first year of his presidency. Abraham Lincoln set apart a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

From our earliest recorded history, Americans have thanked God for their blessings. In our deepest natures, in our very souls, we like all mankind, turn to God in time of trouble and in time of happiness, in God we trust.

For the blessings which have been ours during the present year we have ample cause to be thankful.

Our lands have yielded a goodly harvest, and the toiler in the shop and mill receives a more just return from his labor.

We have cherished and preserved our democracy.

We have lived in peace and understanding with our neighbors and have seen the world escape the impending disaster of a general war.

In the time of our fortune it is fitting that we offer prayers for the unfortunate people in other lands who are in dire distress at this our Thanksgiving season.

Let us remember them in our families and our churches when, on the day appointed, we offer our thanks to Almighty God. May we by our way of living merit the continuance of His goodness.

Done at the city of Washington, this nineteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-third.

"FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT."

with the Order of St. Anne Inc., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Koch is retaining the balance, seven acres, of the lake shore property for her own use. She also owns some 175 acres of farming land on the south outskirts of Lake Geneva and is making extensive changes on this property. A new farm house is nearing completion near Arnold's Corners, and a new barn is to be erected soon. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reynolds will move into the new house April 1.

The old stone barn inside the city limits is to be razed. Other buildings between Lake Shore Drive and Highway 12 are to be remodeled and improved, and plans are being made for extensive improvements on the intervening property. Several small cottages are in the process of construction near the site of the old brown house which was razed this summer. The old house was the original lake shore home of the late George Dunlop, and was moved up from its original location by the late Otto Young when he built the large stone mansion that is now to be used for the girls school. The house has been vacant most of the time since the death of Mr. Young about 30 years ago.

CATCH ATLANTIC SALMON FOR HATCHERY AT BURLINGTON.

Several Atlantic Salmon were caught at the outlet of the creek and taken to Burlington Hatchery. It is reported that about 7,000 eggs were secured.

The nets are still there but it seems that the fish only ran up stream that one day.

The State is showing very much interest in propagating the Land Locked Salmon in Lake Geneva. The fish which were caught will be taken to Madison for further study and Classification.

Keep up the good work!

WAS RAY COUPLE SURPRISED ON THEIR 25th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One hundred seventy-five friends and relatives surprised Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kudrna, west of Williams Bay, on Saturday evening, November 19, in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. The reception and dinner was held at the Delavan Town Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A dinner was served at midnight. The decorations were silver and white. Each guest present was presented with a silver rose leaf buttoniere. The guests of honor were given bouquets of baby chrysanthemums. The bride was presented with a ring with appropriate ceremony. A quart of silver was presented to the couple and a silver flower basket for remembrance.

The Kudrna's daughters, Elsie and Josephine, presented their mother with a silver gray outfit, dress, designed by a friend, and which they helped to make. Following the dinner, dancing was enjoyed. Musicians from Chicago played one set of Bohemian dances, and one set for the young folks present.

A large wedding cake graced the center of the table and bouquets of chrysanthemums and anemones. The guests came from Chicago, Cicero, Ill., Berwyn, Ill., Waukegan, Wis., Kenosha, Elkhorn, Lake Geneva and Williams Bay. Most of the guests were folks who at one time or other had come to America from Jugo Slavia, some of them not having met each other for thirty-six years.

Mr. Dave Van Epps, Chicago, attended the Wisconsin-Minnesota football game at Madison on Saturday and brought a friend, Mr. John Thompson, Chicago, as guest Sunday afternoon at his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Van Epps. The young men returned to Chicago Sunday evening, where they are employed.

Mr. Roy Tulane, Miss Edna Tulane, and friend, Miss Regina Poirer, of Madison, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Tulane, Parkhurst Place.
