DELEGATES TO PRESS MEET ARE CHOSEN

Steenberg, Townsend, and Sarles Will Represent Badger Publications at Beloit Meet

David Steenberg '23, Hubert Townsend '23, John Sarles '23, and George Greene '22 will leave for Beloit this afternoon to attend the third annual convention of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate association. Steenberg represents The Daily Cardinal; Townsend, The Octopus, and Powell, The 1923 Badger. Greene is executive secretary of the association.

The Literary magazine will not be represented at the convention as planned. The Daily Cardinal will be entered for the first time in the contest of state publications.

Beloit has planned an interesting program for the entertainment of the delegates between meetings of the convention. The results of the contest will be announced at the last business meeting Saturday.

The association has only been in existence three years. The idea was originated by Lawrence W. Murphy '21.

Weighty Drama Will Feature Union Vodvil

A stupendous production with "Heinz" Rubel in charge of properties is "The Toll of the Desert," one of the heavier of the acts scheduled for Union Vodvil.

"Twenty of the most beautiful girls ever seen in Madison will make up the chorus for our act," declared "Les" Gage, production manager, who has been making weekly trips to Milwaukee coaching said chorus, when interviewed yesterday.

"A Melodrama in Three Scenes" is the way they express the weighty action of the piece de resistance of Vodvil. The first scene will be laid in the XX Ranch, the second in the desert, while the audience listens for it to toll, and the third will be the wedding scene; after which the curtain.

Several horses—"Beautiful animals," declared Heinz—are being brought here to aid in the success of the production. Also among the other properties enumerated are 30 cowboys, ranch implements (no, they differ from those of the farm), and a specially baked wedding cake.

CARDINAL EDITORIAL STAFF

The Cardinal editorial staff will meet Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Editorial office, Union building. All members whose names appear on the masthead in any capacity must be present. If for any reason any member cannot be present, explanation must be made to the Managing Editor before Thursday.

Prom Slogan Contest Will Begin Today

With the inauguration of the "Prom slogan" contest today, an opportunity to win a prize of $5 by writing the best slogan for the 1923 Junior Promenade is offered to students. The contest will extend over a period of 10 days, closing on Saturday, Dec. 10.

A motto, to be eligible for the $5 award, must be brief, concise, and embody the aims of the 1923 Prom, according to the committee in charge of the contest. One of the best watchwords in recent years was that of the 1922 class, "Prom for All."

In his address to the committee last Monday, Chairman James L. Brader said, "We want to make this a representative Prom. We want everybody to come, as the idea that Prom is for fraternity men is entirely false. With the idea that it will be a representative affair, committees will begin work immediately to make it one of the most enjoyable Proms ever held."

The keynote in Brader's talk is what the committee demands for a motto.

A box has been placed on the porch of the Union building to receive all slogans submitted.

Banquet is Given in Honor of Guy Sundt

All football "W" men, Coach John R. Richards, and T. E. Jones, athletic director, were the guests last night at a banquet at the Kappa Sigma house, at 621 North Lake street, given by members of the fraternity in honor of Guy M. Sundt '22, retiring football captain.

Gustavus Tuckerman Jr. '23, varsity cheerleader, presided as toast master, and short talks were made by Coach Richards, Captain Sundt, and "Rollie" Williams '23, captain-elect. As Coach Richards will leave Madison tonight, it is probable that the banquet was the last affair at which both coach and members of the 1921 football team met together.

First Night Formal to Open Union Vodvil

The audience at the first performance of Union Vodvil, Friday, Dec. 9, will appear in formal dress, following the precedent of former years in this respect, according to an announcement given out by Dale Merrick '22, who is in charge of the production under Union Vodvil.

Haresfoot Follies Tickets Sell Fast

Tickets for the fourth annual Haresfoot Follies dance are selling rapidly, and it is anticipated by Carl Bronson '22, manager of the club, that all the pasteboards for the party will be sold by Saturday night. "Anyone desiring to go to the Follies should purchase their tickets at once," said Bronson last night. "The number is limited to 250, and many of these are now sold." Tickets may be purchased at the University pharmacy and Morgan's, and group orders may be made through Carl Bronson, B. 975, 630 N. Lake street.

Social Science Club Petitions Board of Regents

Prominent Madison Men Back Movement For Free Speech

The members of the University Board of Regents have been individually petitioned by the Social Science club in the following letter relative to the selection of speakers to present ideas from the university platform. The letter quoted below contains the essentials of the original letter mailed to each member of the board.

It bears the signature of I. M. Kittleson, mayor of Madison, Kathryn Hoebel, president of the Madison branch, Wisconsin Progressive association; William T. Evjue, editor The Capital Times; Edward Nordman, of the Commission of Markets, and the members of the Social Science club.

The letter follows:

"We, the undersigned, being intensely interested in the welfare of our state university, respectfully call your attention as a member of the Board of University Regents to what we deem a lack of that spirit of broad-minded toleration which should mark a great university such as ours.

"This lack manifests itself in the exercising, by officers of the university, of an erratic and unjustifiable censorship towards speakers who are brought to Madison for addresses under the auspices of voluntary student organizations which desire the use of an appropriate university hall for their meetings.

"For instance, the Social Science club was denied the use of the gymnasium for an address by Scott Nearing this fall, and for an address by Oswald Garrison Villard last spring. In accordance with this precedent, it has been authoritatively stated that speakers of 'Scott Nearing's type,' specifically including Upton Sinclair, the famous author of The Jungle and The Brass Check, would be excluded from university halls.

"We believe that the university should be true to the sentiment expressed by the tablet in front of Bascom hall, by the Lincoln monument. It certainly is not when it refuses to give a hearing to such a man as Mr. Villard.

"If an organization brings a speaker here who advocates unsound doctrines, we believe that the ensuing discussion and publicity will make for sound opinion; we believe that truth never shines so brightly as when it comes into collision with error.

"Our State Constitution declares that 'Every person may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments.'

Tryouts for Pre-Prom Play to Be Held Friday

Tryouts for the Pre-Prom play will be held in the S. G. A. room in Lathrop hall from 3:30 to 6 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The play is available for reading at the desk in the Library Thursday and Friday. Only members of campus dramatic organizations are eligible. The tryouts will be judged by Prof. Gertrude E. Johnson, Miriam Doan '22, Marjorie Boesch '22 and Henry Scott Rubel '23.

Y. W. DRIVE IS NEARING DESIRED GOAL

Active Support of Student Body May Raise Quota
Before December 3

Enthusiastic reports are coming in from all of the captains of the Y. W. C. A. campaign teams. Personal solicitation has been very successful this year in that the interest of the student body is backing it.

Elizabeth Kirk '23 has called a special pep meeting of all women workers on the drive for Friday noon, at 12:30 in the S. G. A. room, Lathrop hall. Due to the support of the students the Y. W. C. A. may be able to close their campaign a day earlier than they had expected.

The $2,500 budget which the Y. W. C. A. is aiming at, will not cover all of the expenses which arise during the year. Forty-four hundred dollars is the lowest possible estimate that the Y. W. C. A. can carry on their annual work. The amount which it is expected will be raised will be used for the following purposes: Secretary, $2,000; office secretary, $750; national pledge, $350; printing and postage, $200; student correspondence, $275; annual religious conference, $125; committees, $400; contingent fund, $300.

The various class groups of the Y. W. C. A. are in charge of this personal solicitation. The cabinet, the junior council, the sophomore and freshman commissions, and the inner circle have picked leaders who are working with their teams in behalf of the Y. W. C. A.

All women workers on the campaign are urged to be present at the meeting Friday noon in Lathrop, especially the team captains, as they will be expected to give their final reports of the drive.

Badger Secures Color-plates From Leading Magazines

The 1923 Badger has secured from the editors of Scribner's, Harper's, The Century, and The Travel, the privilege of using any of their color-plates which would be appropriate. Prominent alumni living in New York are co-operating also by getting color-plates from nationally famous artists.

Miss Neysa McMein, the artist who designs covers for McClure's and the Saturday Evening Post, is helping prepare the proposed representative women's section for the Badger. She has already submitted one color painting and will probably send another within a week.

The frontispiece this year is going to be a large four-colored painting representing an actual campus scene. It is being done by E. R. Kullberg who illustrated The Lucky Bag, yearbook of Annapolis Naval Academy. Eight other colored paintings have been ordered.

The last of the senior pictures will be received this afternoon and by Saturday the entire section will be on the way to the engravers.

THE Octopus staff is all heated up over that fact that they haven't received the cup that they won for having the best float in the Union Memorial parade. They say that they haven't even received the saucer as yet. Evidently they don't realize that the best part of the publicity was to see them all riding down State street in their wagon.

THE members of the Wisconsin Ski club are also raising a "kick," as it were. They object to being called the Wisconsin Ski club, on the grounds that it does not do justice to their athletic ideals.

HARESFOOT gives its annual "Follies" party at Lathrop this coming week end. The advertisement tells us that Mord Bogie will help entertain the dancers during the evening. A suggestion has been made that he use stilts, otherwise the joyous crowd may overlook him, and this might hurt his feelings.

A spring has come to life on Lake Lawn place. The nearby residents are calling into use all empty bottles, of which there apparently is an unlimited supply.

Dainty Sarah Padden, remembered by local theater goers by her wonderful acting in "The Third Degree" and "The Clod," comes to the Orpheum tonight as the feature attraction, appearing in the role of an uncouth, shuffling scrubwoman in her newest vehicle called "The Char Woman." In this play Miss Padden does a bit of character acting as interesting and entertaining, as in her former successes. Other offerings of interest on the new bill will be Bill Robinson, known as "A Dark Cloud of Jay"; Chester "Rube" Nelson and Kitty Madison, "The Rube and the Ruby"; Two Rocksters, society entertainers; Dorothy Bard and company, in a variety of songs and music; Joe Melvin, the Wizard Manipulation, and Pathe News, together with Aesop's Fables. NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

SCHEDULES FOR MAJOR SPORTS ARE ARRANGED

Coach Richards Will Remain as Grid Coach

The arranging of tentative athletic schedules and the settlement of the rumors regarding a change in the football coaching staff next fall were the principal matters which came before the meeting of the Athletic Council that was held in Athletic Director Jones' office yesterday afternoon.

The different schedules that were prepared will be submitted at a gathering of officials which will be held in Chicago the latter part of the week. Coach Jones will leave Madison on Friday in order to be present at the meeting.

Lawrence college and either South Dakota or Notre Dame will play the preliminary football games here next fall. The regular conference games will be played with Northwestern, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, and Chicago. Contrary to current humors, the Minnesota game will be played at Minneapolis, as called for by the customary schedule. The Suckers are slated to play the Homecoming contest here next fall.

A long-felt want was filled when a southern training trip was provided for the baseball team during the spring recess. Games will be scheduled with Alabama, Tennessee, Missouri, and other southern schools.

The indoor track schedule calls for meets with Notre Dame, Illinois, and either Northwestern or Iowa, in addition to the regular conference meet. The outdoor track team will oppose Chicago, Illinois, and Minnesota in dual meets, besides the Penn and Drake relays and the usual conference meets.

Dual meets with Chicago, Northwestern, Illinois, and Minnesota, and the regular conference meet will constitute the swimming schedule for the coming year.

The wrestling team schedule consists of dual meets with Chicago, Northwestern, Minnesota, and Ames.

The gymnastic team will have dual meets with Chicago, Illinois, and Minnesota, in addition to the regular conference meet, which will be held here at Madison, probably on March 24 and 25.

The tennis schedule includes meets with Michigan, Chicago, Minnesota, and Northwestern. In addition, a meet has been arranged with the tennis team of the University of Southern California, which will stop here on a tour through the mid-west and east.

Both the athletic council and Mr. Jones felt that Wisconsin has this year, and in the years past, consistently been represented by grid teams of more than ordinary strength, and the plans adopted provide that Coach Richards will be at the head of the football coaching staff next fall.

WEATHER

The highest temperature during the last 24 hours was 47 and 2 p. m. and the lowest was 28 at 4:30 a. m. Sunset at 4:25.

The weather is generally fair and warmer in the states east of the Rocky mountains except in the middle Mississippi valley and lake region where cloudiness continues. The barometer is unusually low in the Canadian Rockies. The weather is rainy and warmer on the Pacific slope as far south as San Francisco and cold and unsettled with snow flurries from the Rockies to Winnipeg.

Gov. Blaine received a letter today addressed to Governor A. W. Randall, state legislature, Madison. The writer, a Lake Geneva woman, was asking for a widow's pension from the state. The blue book shows that Gov. Randall was in the executive chair from 1858 to 1862, nearly 60 years ago.

FROSH-SOPH TRACK MEET WILL BE HELD IN GYM ON SATURDAY

Work on the annex track is being rushed to completion, so that the freshman - sophomore track meet can be held Saturday at 2 p. m. This will mark the opening of the 1921 indoor season.

Many men have already entered the various events of the meet, and it is expected that keen competition will result. All first and second year men who wish to enter are urged to sign up with Coach Burke before Friday afternoon. An entry sheet can be found in Burke's office at the gym.

Some of the men already signed up in the different events are: In the 40 yard dash, K. S. Mainland '25, K. Kamm '25, E. W. Collenbach '24, Kober '24, and A. W. Schneider '25. In the high and low hurdles are A. W. Schneider, K. S. Mainland, and S. McCoy '24. Representing the two classes in the 440 yard dash are B. Hilberts '25, V. Muzzy '25, E.

Blewett '25, and E. W. Collenbach. In the half mile are B. Hilberts, R. Herrman '24, and Kober. B. Hilberts, Kober, and R. Herrman are also entered in the one mile, together with Hazen '24, Vollrath '25, and Trier '25. Entered in the two mile are Hazen, E. Schneider '24 and Smithyman '25. In the jumps are D. Jones and G. Tuther '25, in the high, and Schneider, E. Evans '25, and A. D. Johnson '24, in the broad. Entered in the weight event are Stehr '24, and Van Ells '25. In the pole vault so far there are D. Johns '25, and J. C. Widder '25. The relay teams have not yet been picked.

The officials for the meet will be Mark Wall, Al Knollin, George Stolley, Guy Sundt, Frank Nicker-son, George Finkle, Burt White, Enos Jones, E. Mead, Charles Jensch, Wells Anderson, and Meade Burke.

Semi-finals Are Reached in Soccer

The four teams which seem to have the best chance for the soccer championship are the Spades, Horseshoes, Red Diamonds, and the Crescents.

There are five games scheduled for this week. On Tuesday afternoon the Crescents played the Red Diamonds. The captain of the former team is Meyer, and that of the latter is Shimansky. On Thursday the Skull and Cross Bones, led by captain Banner, will meet the Black Squares, under Captain Sellery. The Dumbbells, under Captain Dietrich, will play against Captain Derthick's Red Dominoes on Friday afternoon.

Two games are scheduled for Saturday. The Pirates will play the Black Circles at 1:30 p. m. The captains of these teams are Mann and Houghton, respectively. At 2:30 p. m. the same day, Captain Roder's Spades will meet the winner of the game between the Black Squares and the Skull and Cross Bones.

After these games have been played, the Spades and either the Crescents or the Red Diamonds will be ready for the semi-finals. The Horseshoes are now ready because of their victory over the Red Wings. Captain Matteson's men defeated Longnecker's team, although the former were slightly outnumbered. This was one of the best games which has been played in the soccer tournament so far, the score being 2 to 0.

Coach Schlatter wants the captains of the teams which are scheduled to play this week to see that all their men are present, and on time for the games. The men who are to play on Saturday should arrange to leave their cubicles in the make-up room so as to avoid any difficulty in getting their uniforms at that time.

Yearling Mat Men to Try Out Today

The frosh mat men will meet the Madison Y. M. C. A. wrestling team sometime in February or March, according to Coach Hitchcock, who is conducting tryouts for the yearlings this afternoon at 3:30.

He expects, with the new additional equipment, to be able to handle a frosh squad of 50 or 60 men, and a Varsity squad of 75 or 80. The frosh will practice for an hour beginning at 3:30 on four days of the week, and the Varsity men will train from 4:30 to about 6 o'clock.

The Varsity squad has lost quite a few men this year. Culver and Poisepany are not back, Klass and Holmes are in school, but are ineligible, and Pier, one of the best men on the team at present, will graduate at the end of the first semester. The two best men who will remain are Peterman and Templin, each of whom took third place in the all-conference mat meet last year. The former placed in the welter weight (145 pounds), and the latter in the middle weights (158 pounds). There are, however, several promising men among the new material, and Wisconsin's chances in wrestling seem very good.

FROSH SQUAD TO SCRIMMAGE VARSITY FIVE

Lack of Utility Men May Hinder Varsity

The best freshman five that Coach McIntosh can select from his large number of candidates will play against the varsity in the open practice Friday afternoon.

The yearlings have been practicing for over a month, and the material which has shown up is most encouraging. The men who will perform against Meanwell's five have not been selected as yet.

Coach Meanwell put his men through three-quarters of an hour of signal and scrimmage drill last night. The work was carried on with a view of determining the value of the material which has been added to the squad since the close of the football season.

Several of the men who will be used in the scrimmage on Friday will be strangers to the Badger fans. The work of Captain Caeser, Taylor, Rollie Williams, and Gus Tebell is well known, but Gibson, Johnson, Ruidiger, Brumm, and Gill have still to win the acquaintance and support of the fans. This is another thing that will be accomplished by the open practices which Doctor Meanwell will stage. At the same time, the men become accustomed to playing before a crowd.

A peculiar situation seems to exist in this institution in that so few men of freshman squads ever take their places on the varsity. This year is surely no exception. Last spring Doctor Meanwell had a freshman squad consisting of Reeves, Johnson, Sykes, McCartney, and McDonnell as the leading players. At the present time not one of these men is available for use on the varsity. Four of them are out of school and the remaining one is ineligible. With one or two exceptions, the other men from the 1924 yearling squad will be of little use this season, another year being necessary before they will be of varsity caliber.

This is one of the facts that will make the team this year more or less of a five man affair. With the exception of Les Gage, the team will be without able substitutes, which is an undesirable condition when games are played under present day rules.

SUCCESS TO PROM

"IT is a Wisconsin Prom and we want to get together to make it truly representative of Wisconsin." These are fitting words with which to launch the preparations for Wisconsin's greatest social function, the Junior Promenade.

Wisconsin's primary aim is not one of social diversion, but the Prom—dating back to the times when the Prom-goers compared in numbers with the Prom committees of today—is something to look forward to after the completion of a semester's work in school. It is an occasion of pompous splendor that adds much to the curricular routine and affords a gratifying diversion after final exams.

With the State capitol as its beautiful background, with music and decorations of the very best, and with its intensive preparations, the Prom passes by, magnificence itself. An occasion of such nature should truly be a representative affair, as the committees are trying and will try to make it.

Most social fraternities are potential Prom units, but fraternities constitute a minority of the campus population and Prom is not for them alone. It is up to all to co-operate with the committee to arrange for parties for all who desire to attend.

The most recent Proms at which there were a number of non-fraternity boxes, were big steps in the right direction toward making Prom what it ought to be. This time, with the right co-operation, a further and larger stride toward a Wisconsin affair for all of Wisconsin can be made.

A committee with systematic organization, a promising, smooth running machine, needs only the co-operation of the students generally to make the 1923 Prom one that will eclipse its predecessors as a successful Wisconsin party.

Good luck to the chairmen and their committees; may their efforts be rewarded with a bonanza of Proms for Wisconsin.

WILBUR GLENN VOLIVA

A PROPHET may be without honor in his own town, and a prophet may also be without honor when he leaves the town where his radical beliefs and his absurd faith are accepted and worshipped.

Certain it is the Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City and prophet of the Zionist faith, did his cause no good and those who heard him no harm when he addressed the Madison audience.

Sensationally appealing to what was certain to secure a large attendance, he issued pamphlets claiming that his address would be a forceful arraignment of modern dress and the tobacco evil. Those who came to hear a lecture on these subjects were disappointed. Those who came to hear him on any subject were likewise disappointed.

That the earth was flat, that no one has circumnavigated the globe, that the end of the world would come in 1922 were some of the startling and exclusive facts alleged to be propounded by this prophet of Zion.

He foretold the end of the Gentiles and the coming of the kingdom of the Jews in Palestine. His description of the death of the Gentiles was so realistically vivid that his enthralled audience could hear the death rattle in their throats.

Not spending more than half his time telling of his own troubles and conquests, he charmed his listeners by his modesty and his lack of the braggadocio that is common among lesser lecturers and prophets.

The audience, stunned perhaps by the majesty of the man, the grace of his delivery, the purity of his theme, and the so obvious truths that he foretold, interrupted him with no plebian applause nor even a fervent amen.

Doubtless they did not wish to disturb the even trend of his thought—the continuity of his subject. Perhaps they were lost in admiration of the self-effacement of the man—the lack of all allusion to self in order to better serve his cause.

At least a few listened to half of the address. The first half. After that first half they were glad to seek the outside and a breath of fresh air.

SCANDAL

JUST one scandal after another seems to be Wisconsin's share; now the alleged breach within our athletic department has been aired broadcast. True, the exciting news has been for the most part corrected, but we must remember that it is the first startling impression that sticks the longest.

Who are we to blame for the erroneous report in a local paper as well as in other papers that Coach Richards was on the verge of resigning his position? Beyond a doubt, the local paper which carried the story might well have exercised the better journalistic policy of verifying its facts. The fault, however, does not rest entirely with the papers. There is no question but that the news started with rumors dropped or passed along by students.

It is sad that newspapers print unverified versions of stories of such import; it is also sad that students are at times instrumental in passing along unfounded reports, especially when their publication will have a detrimental effect on the university; it is very sad that some student correspondents of outside papers see only the sensational news value and often overlook truth and harm to the school.

This athletic breach is but one of many unfounded sensations that the university has been up against; and sensational reports portraying supposed irregularities such as faculty clashes, staggering student immoralities, and general attitudes and practices not befitting a university, are things that the school can well afford to do without.

Spanish Club Presents
Interesting Program

South American universities were the subject of a talk given by Fernando Sola, a student in the university who comes from Argentine, at the meeting of the Spanish club in the S. G. A. room at Lathrop hall at 7:30 last night.

An amusing Spanish play was also presented. It was entitled "The First Quarrel." Those in the east were Eugene Brossard, Hennah Krom, and Margaret Sickles. It was coached by Nadia Levitin. After the prepared program the evening was spent in games and conversation.

Y. W. Holds Second
Twilight Vespers

Twilight vespers for both men and women will be held this afternoon in Lathrop parlors from 5 to 5:30. This is the second of a series of mid-week vespers being conducted by Y. W. C. A. for the purpose of furnishing the student a half hour of rest and quiet during the week.

Marion Metcalf '24 will conduct the program this afternoon. Margaret Emmerling '23 will give the reading. A piano solo by Lucy Griebe, and songs by Clara Leiser and Muriel Gibbs will complete the program.

All university men and women are invited.

AT THE GRAND
Allen Holubar's new picture, "Man-Woman-Marriage," now showing at the Grand, contains a big idea. It is in the big feature class and it deals with some of life's biggest problems. It holds your interest and pulls at your heart strings from start to finish. Dorothy Phillips, who plays the leading role, is a real actress, and at times she becomes a dominating, palpitating force.

The picture deals with the battle of womanhood for her eternal rights and upward fight against oppression of man-made laws. It teaches a lesson of incalculable value. It shows the emptiness and sordidness of the lives of many who might be classed as idle rich.

FOUR CLASSES TO JOIN HANDS AT SILVER TEA

The first social event to be given by the four classes of women, a Silver Tea, will be held in the parlors of Chadbourne and Barnard halls Saturday afternoon, from 3 until 5 o'clock. The seniors and sophomores will entertain in Barnard and the juniors and freshmen in Chadbourne.

Members of the University league, a club consisting of the wives of the faculty members, and of the women on the faculty, will be the guests at the tea.

The seniors and sophomores are planning a reception; while the juniors will have a continual program from 3 until 5. The officers of Blue Dragon and of Red Domino will receive at Barnard, and those of Yellow Tassel and Green Button at Chadbourne.

The teas will be unique in that they are the first events to be given by the sister classes. Opportunity to meet one another socially will be afforded the women attending.

A silver collection to be taken up at both teas will be for the benefit of The Charter, the new co-operative house founded by the Self Government association.

Helen Ramsey Urges Publicity For S. G. A.

"By spreading the right sort of propaganda to show that university women are really self governing and to overcome the popular conception that all government comes from the dean's office, I believe the Collegiate League of Women Voters can be of direct and vital aid to S. G. A." said Miss Helen Ramsey, secretary of the Collegiate League of Women Voters at the regular bi-monthly meeting held in Lathrop hall yesterday afternoon.

After outlining in detail the machinery of S. G. A., Miss Ramsey told the league how it might carry out the planks of its platform in regard to university life and interests.

Intelligent understanding of local campus problems, support of authority without regard to party affiliations, encouragement of industrial and professional interests, and seeking after higher political ideals are real duties of the Collegiate League of Women Voters during their college days, she said.

In outlining the machinery of S. G. A., Miss Ramsey said that too many persons knew too little about it. Especially are people ignorant as to the judicial branch, a strong, dignified and powerful group. Heretofore, publicity has been lacking with regard to the functioning of this committee, but Miss Ramsey said, "Not enough is known about this committee to let students know of its existence. More of the right sort of publicity would be good for the committee and also for the student body and would not be hard on the persons who have to appear before that body.

ments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right, and no laws shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.'

"Why should not our state university grant this liberty of speech and permit students to hear all sides of social, political, and economic problems in university halls? This, it seems to us, is an essential part of a broad and worth-while education.

"We feel sure that the Board of Regents will agree with us in our position, once it has been made clear, and ask that they grant such administrative action as will make it possible for student organizations to bring to the university prominent speakers, without limitation on account of political or economic conviction."
